PRAYER BIBLE

A MODERN TRANSLATION
BY ELMER L. TOWNS & ROY B. ZUCK

THE PRAYER BIBLE

A MODERN TRANSLATION

By Elmer L. Towns & Roy B. Zuck

© Copyright 2014– Elmer L. Towns & Roy B. Zuck

All rights reserved. This book is protected by the copyright laws of the United States of America. This book may not be copied or reprinted for commercial gain or profit. The use of short quotations or occasional page copying for personal or group study is permitted and encouraged. Permission will be granted upon request. Unless otherwise identified, Scripture quotations are taken from the King James Version.

ELT Elmer Towns Version

Scripture quotations marked LB are taken from The Living Bible; Tyndale House, 1997, © 1971 by Tyndale House Publishers, Inc. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked NKJV are taken from the New King James Version. Copyright © 1982 by Thomas Nelson, Inc. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked PNT are taken from The New Testament in Modern English, J. B. Phillips, trans., Copyright © New York: The Macmillan Company, 1960. All rights reserved.

PJB Prayer Journey Bible - King James Version

Scripture quotations marked NASB are taken from the NEW AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE*, Copyright © 1960,1962,1963,1968,1971,1972,1973,1975,1977,1995 by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission.

DESTINY IMAGE® PUBLISHERS, INC.

P.O. Box 310, Shippensburg, PA 17257-0310

"Promoting Inspired Lives."

This book and all other Destiny Image, Revival Press, MercyPlace, Fresh Bread, Destiny Image Fiction, and Treasure House books are available at Christian bookstores and distributors worldwide.

For a U.S. bookstore nearest you, call 1-800-722-6774.

For more information on foreign distributors, call 717-532-3040.

Reach us on the Internet: www.destinyimage.com.

ISBN 13: 978-0-7684-0433-3

ISBN 13 Ebook: 978-0-7684-0434-0

For Worldwide Distribution, Printed in the U.S.A.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 / 18 17 16 15 14

ENDORSEMENTS

The Prayer Bible, a prodigious undertaking by academician, administrator, Elmer Towns, demonstrates a wellspring of creativity that joins biblical knowledge with special application to the individual's prayer life. This is done on a chapter-by-chapter basis through the entire Bible!

Don Campbell Former President Dallas Theological Seminary

The Prayer Bible will light a spiritual fervor and fire in your heart to know Christ and Him alone, like you have never known before.

Dr. James O. Davis Cofounder/Billion Soul Network Orlando, Florida

I use The Prayer Bible every day in my prayer ministry to God.

Jentezen Franklin Jentezen Franklin Media Ministries

When I think of Dr. Elmer Towns, I think of a man of prayer. Not university leader, though he is a co-founder Liberty University and dean of the School of Religion and Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary and Graduate School. Not author, though he has written dozens of books and has received the Gold Medallion Award recognizing one of his books as Book of the Year. I think of a man of prayer. In The Prayer Bible, Dr. Towns has taken his passion for prayer coupled with his extensive knowledge of Scripture and written an outstanding resource for believers to grow in their relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. The Prayer Bible not only helps believer's, new and old, in their devotional time each day, but also provides an excellent tool for teaching Bible studies on prayer. I highly recommend The Prayer Bible.

Bill Jones President, Columbia International University

I have known Elmer Towns for over 36 years and know that he is a man of prayer. His notes in The Prayer Bible are an accumulation from his life of prayer and I know they will help and encourage you as you develop and strengthen your own prayer life.

John C. Maxwell Speaker Founder of EQUIP and The John Maxwell Company

A unique wedding of Scripture and prayer that provides a unique experience of both.

Robertson McQuilkin President Emeritus Columbia International University I have said on many occasions that Elmer Towns has no unpublished thought. Now I can honestly say, "He has no unpublished prayer." This reference Bible will make an immense contribution to the Christian church and will be the shining legacy by which Elmer Towns is remembered.

Ed Stetzer President, LifeWay Research Author, Visiting Professor Liberty University Baptist Theological Seminary

As one who has spent almost 20 years on the front lines of addressing and confronting the sin of child abuse, God has demonstrated to me time and time again the fundamental importance of prayer. The Prayer Bible will undoubtedly provide incredible encouragement and hope for so many who find themselves in life's darkest moments. I can think of no greater resource for hurting souls than a Bible that teaches and encourages prayer in every chapter and verse. I cannot wait to watch God use this amazing book to transform lives through drawing many to Himself through prayer.

Basyle Tchividjian
Professor of Law, Liberty University School of Law
Executive Director, Godly Response to Abuse in the Christian Environment
Former Division Chief, Sexual Crimes Division, 7th Judicial Circuit of Florida

I first met Elmer Towns in 1975 when he was writing on evangelism and church growth. I wondered why he was making such a deep impact on the church of Jesus Christ. Later, I realized his ministry and insights came out of his daily walk with Christ. Now, out of that daily prayer life has come a shining example to us all, i.e., The Prayer Bible. If you want to understand the heart of a great Christian hero, read his notes. If you want to be like Jesus Christ, use the many different prayers of this Bible to know God, and let His faith work through you.

Stan Toler General Superintendent, Church of the Nazarene Author and Inspirational Speaker

It's one thing to say that praying through the Scripture is good, but another thing is really to do it. Now with the magnificent Prayer Bible, anyone can do it. Elmer Towns has done the body of Christ a huge favor by providing this fantastic tool, and I congratulate him for it!

C. Peter Wagner Vice-President and Apostolic Ambassador Global Spheres, Inc. Colorado Mission

Dr. Elmer Towns does not just write and teach about prayer, he prays!

Dr. Steve Wingfield, Evangelist Steve Wingfield Evangelistic Association

TABLE OF CONTENTS

BEFORE YOU BEGIN	11
Old Testament
Genesis	14
Exodus	103
Leviticus	165
Numbers	209
DEUTERONOMY	257
Joshua	307
Judges	343
Ruth	379
1 SAMUEL	387
2 SAMUEL	433
1 Kings	471
2 Kings	513
1 CHRONICLES	551
2 CHRONICLES	589
Ezra	637
Nенеміан	655
Esther	681
Јов	696
THE BOOK OF PSALMS	744
Proverbs	871
Ecclesiastes	921

SONG OF SOLOMON	937
Isaiah	946
Jeremiah	1037
LAMENTATIONS	1120
Ezekiel	1131
Daniel	1210
Hosea	1237
Joel	1252
Амоѕ	1259
OBADIAH	1270
Jonah	1275
Місан	1280
Nahum	1291
Habakkuk	1296
ZEPHANIAH	1301
Haggai	1308
Zechariah	1313
MALACHI	1332
New T	ESTAMENT
Matthew	1340
Mark	1406
Luke	1445
John	1513
Астѕ	1564
Romans	1626

1 CORINTHIANS	1653
2 CORINTHIANS	1682
GALATIANS	1701
Ephesians	1716
PHILIPPIANS	1729
Colossians	1738
1 THESSALONIANS	1747
2 THESSALONIANS	1756
1 Тімотну	1763
2 TIMOTHY	1774
Titus	1783
PHILEMON	1790
HEBREWS	1795
JAMES	1822
1 PETER	1833
2 PETER	1844
1 John	1853
2 John	1864
3 John	1869
Jude	1874
REVELATION	1879
PRINCIPLES OF PRAYER	1918

Before You Begin

You hold in your hands the Word of God translated into Modern English with a prayer emphasis. This Prayer Bible was created to lead you into prayer as you read. Most people end up talking to God only after they read the Bible. But this Prayer Bible was designed so you talk to God as you read. Many phrases are turned into a prayer as, "Lord, You are my Shepherd, I will not want anything" (Ps. 23:1). As you read the Beatitudes (the blessings) you will pray, "Lord, thank You for blessing me" (Matt. 5:2).

Your translators are both graduates of Dallas Theological Seminary, known for thorough training in Greek, Hebrew and Systematic Theology. Elmer Towns wrote his thesis at Dallas examining the Greek word Kardia, i.e., the heart. Roy Zuck's doctorate was in Hebrew and he wrote his dissertation on The Place of the Holy Spirit in Christian Education. Besides their commitment to word accuracy of this Prayer Bible, they translated it with a focus on prayer. Isn't prayer talking with God? They have presented the Bible in a fluid modern language that you can understand and apply to your life.

You are holding a collaborative work. Elmer Towns translated the New Testament and poetic books. Roy Zuck translated the rest of the Old Testament, yet both worked together on each other's text so that they agreed on the final product. They both wanted it to be accurate and faithful to the original text. And they used the original language from the earliest and best manuscript. (When it was available in 1972, Towns read much of the original Dead Sea Scrolls posted in The Shrine of the Book, Jerusalem, Israel.)

There are guidelines when people translate from one language into another. First, translators bring their theological orientation to their work. Both Towns and Zuck believe in the verbal inspiration and inerrancy of every word in the original manuscripts. They believe the Holy Spirit guided men of God to write the Word of God without error. Because God inspired every word, they translated every word carefully according to the original meaning of the author.

The second guideline was the need to interpret the Scriptures accurately. They did that following a historical understanding of the biblical background and the context in which the Scriptures were written, and a commitment to a literal meaning in the mind of the author.

The third guideline was to give attention to each and every word in the Word of God. After all, the meaning of word reflects what is in the mind of the author, or speaker. But words have multiple meanings both in ancient Hebrew and Greek. Then words have multiple meanings in today's Modern English. So they chose the best Modern English words to express the ones in the original text. They followed the Golden Rule of interpretations suggest by Cooper,

When the plain sense of Scriptures makes common sense, seek no other sense: therefore, take every word at its primary, ordinary, usual, literal meaning.¹

The fourth guideline was to relate prayer to passages so that the reader did more than read the Bible to himself. Rather, the reader prayed each passage to God as he read the Scriptures.

THE PROVIDENCE OF GOD

Roy Zuck began translating the Old Testament in the spring of 2012. It was a one-year project. He often told Towns, "I'm having the greatest spiritual experience of my life." He explained that he had read much of the Old Testament in Hebrew, but translating the Prayer Bible drew him closer to God than anything in his life. Toward the end of the project his cancer gave him tremendous pain. He said, "I'm praying for strength to finish this project; it could be my greatest contribution to the cause of Christ." In the providence of God, Roy finished on Saturday, March 9, 2013, and died one week later on Saturday, March 16, 2013. Now Roy knows the original text of Scripture perfectly.

"Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they are blessed indeed, for they will rest from their hard work; for their good deeds follow them!" (Rev. 14:13, NLT).

NOTE

1. David L. Cooper, Messiah: His Historical Appearance (Los Angeles, CA: Biblical Research Society, 1958), 19.

OLD TESTAMENT

GENESIS

Сн 117
Ch 2: First Days in the Garden of Eden19
CH 3: THE FIRST SUN21
CH 4: BEGINNING LIFE OUTSIDE EDEN23
Ch 5: From Adam to Noah25
Ch 6: Wickedness Demanded the Flood26
Ch 7: The Flood Covers the Earth27
Ch 8: The Flood Recedes29
Ch 9: God's Covenant with Noah30
Ch 10: The Descendants of Noah's Sons31
Ch 11: Buidling a Huge Tower33
CH 12: THE ABRAHAMIC COVENANT34
CH 13: ABRAM AND LOT SEPARATED36
CH 14: ABRAM RESCUES LOT37
CH 15: THE LORD REAFFIRMS HIS COVENANT WITH ABRAM39
CH 16: THE BIRTH OF ISHMAEL40
CH 17: ABRAM IS RENAMED ABRAHAM41
CH 18: GOD PROMISES A SON TO SARAH43
CH 19: SODOM AND GOMORRAH DESTROYED45
Ch 20: Abraham Deceives Abimelech47
Ch 21: The Birth of Isaac48
CH 22: ABRAHAM'S FAITH IS TESTED50

CH 23: THE DEATH AND BURIAL OF SARAH51
CH 24: A Bride for Isaac53
CH 25: THE DEATH OF ABRAHAM, AND ESAU SOLD HIS BIRTHRIGHT TO JACOB55
CH 26: ISAAC DECEIVES ABIMELECH57
CH 27: JACOB STEALS ESAU'S BLESSING59
CH 28: GOD CALLS A DECEIVER TO HIMSELF61
CH 29: JACOB ARRIVES IN NORTHERN SYRIA62
CH 30: JACOB WORKS FOR LABAN64
CH 31: JACOB RUNS AWAY FROM LABAN67
CH 32: JACOB SENDS GIFTS TO ESAU AND JACOB MEETS GOD69
CH 33: JACOB MEETS ESAU71
CH 34: DINAH IS RAPED73
CH 35: JACOB RETURNS TO BETHEL74
CH 36: DESCENDANTS OF ESAU76
CH 37: JOSEPH'S DREAMS78
Ch 38: Judah and Tamar80
CH 39: JOSPEH IN POTIPHAR'S HOUSE81
CH 40: JOSEPH INTERPRETS TWO PRISONERS' DREAMS82
Ch 41: Joseph Interprets Pharaoh's Dreams84
Ch 42: Joseph's Brothers Come to Buy Grain 86
CH 43: JOSEPH'S BROTHERS DECIDE TO RETURN TO EGYPT88
CH 44: JOSEPH'S CUP FOUND IN BENJAMIN'S SACK90

CH 45: JOSEPH REVEALS HIMSELF TO HIS
Brothers92	2
CH 46: JACOB AND HIS FAMILY GO TO EGYPT94	4
CH 47: PHARAOH WELCOMES JACOB9	5
CH 48: JACOB BLESSES EPHRAIM AND MANASSEH92	7
CH 49: JACOB BLESSES HIS 12 SONS99	9
Ch 50: Joseph's Death10	00

GENESIS*

Key Word: Beginning (Genesis 1:1)

Key Verses: "These are the generations of..." (2:4; 5:1; 6:9; 10:1; 11:27; 25:19; 37:2).

Theme: Genesis is a book of beginnings. It tells not only the beginning of the heavens and the earth (creation), but of plant life, animal life, and human life. It tells the beginning of marriage, worship, government, occupations, covenants, and the beginning of the Hebrew race, that is God's people, the Jews.

Genesis tells the beginning of prayer. It tells of False-Prayer (4:6-15), Call-Prayer (4:26), Responsibility-Praying (6:22), Worship-Prayer (8:20-22), Repentance-Prayer (12:1), Blessing Expectation-Prayer (13:14-18), Protection-Prayer (15:1), Justification-Based Prayer (15:2 ff.), Intimacy-Prayer (17:1 ff.), Intercessor's-Prayer (18:23 ff.), Healing-Prayer (20:17), Deliverance-Prayer (21:17), Frightful-Prayer (22:11-12), Mourning the Dead-Prayer (23:2), Guidance-Prayer (24:27). This is just the first half of Genesis. You cannot read Genesis without praying to God, and surely Genesis teaches us many ways to pray. Lord, thank You for a book that explains in a logical way how everything began. I believe the creation story just as it was created, and I praise You for Your greatness and intelligence that is evident in the world I see. Amen.

*The key verses for each Bible book are from the King James Version and New King James Versions.

Genesis 1

¹Lord, in the beginning You created the heavens and earth, {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} but You had not yet formed the earth into its final form, it was void.

²Everything was dark upon the face of the deep, and You—Spirit of God—hovered over the waters. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27}

³Then You said, "Let light appear" and light shone; {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

⁴You saw that light was good, so You divided light from darkness. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} ⁵You called light day, and the darkness You called night, so the evening and the morning were the first day. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Creation beckons me to worship God, "The heavens reveal God's glory, and the skies display His powerful craftsmanship. Day after day they continue to reflect God's glory, and night after night we see His mighty power in the stars. They speak without using words; their message is silently seen in the sky" (Ps. 19:1-3, ELT). Lord, I can't deny Your existence or almighty power; I bow in Your presence and I confess Your greatness. Accept my praise and adoration. Amen.

⁶You said, "Let there be atmosphere around the earth"; You divided the waters under the atmosphere from the waters above the atmosphere. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ⁷You called the atmosphere sky, and it contained the air that gives life to all; {311 Morning-Prayer, John 21:4} ⁸so then evening and morning were the second day. ⁹You said, "Let the waters under the atmosphere be gathered together in one place and let dry ground appear." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:4} ¹⁰You called the dry land earth, and You called the waters seas and you said, "This is good." ¹¹You said, "Let the earth bring forth grass

¹¹You said, "Let the earth bring forth grass and plants and trees with fruit to give life, with each having seed bearing fruit to reproduce itself." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

¹²So the earth brought forth grass and plants and trees with seed bearing fruit to give life, with each having seed bearing fruit to reproduce itself. And You said, "This is good;" {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹³so the evening and the morning were the third day.

 14 You said, "Let there be lights in the sky to divide the day from the night, and let them give light to the earth, {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} 15 and let them reflect seasons, days and years."

Many people have difficulty understanding anything bigger than the planet where they live. But the sun is one and a third million times larger than our planet. Antares in the next galaxy is 64 million times larger than our sun. Then Hercules in another galaxy is 100 million times larger than Antares. Finally, Epsilon is 700 million times larger than Hercules. Why so big? Because a huge God loves huge lights. And experts predict there are a trillion times a trillion stars, and the Hubble telescope continues to find more. Why so many? Because a limitless God loves an uncountable number of lights around Him. Lord, You call Yourself light (John 8:12), shine on me today to show me how to walk for You. You are light (Ps. 4:6; 27:1), take away my blindness so I can see You better and worship You with full understanding. Amen.

¹⁶⁻¹⁹You made two great lights, the larger to light the day and the lesser to light the night, and You also made the stars; so the evening and morning were the fourth day. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

²⁰You said, "Let the waters swarm with living creatures, and let birds fly in the open sky." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²¹And all kinds of creatures appeared in the waters and all kinds of birds flew in the sky and You saw that it was good. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

²²You said, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters with living creatures and the sky with birds," and it was so; ²³then the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

²⁴You said, "Let the earth bring forth wild beasts, crawling things and livestock." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²⁵So You created livestock, crawling things and beasts of the field, and You said, "This is good." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen 45:5}

²⁶Then You said, "Let Us make humans in Our image, and in the likeness of Ourselves." And You said, "Let them rule over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the animals of the earth and everything that crawls over the earth." {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam 2:19} ²⁷So You created humans in Your image, in Your image You created them, male and female You created them. {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1}

²⁸You blessed the human and said, "Be fruitful, and multiply and fill the earth and make it obey you; rule over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, and everything that crawls on the earth." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

²⁹Then You said, "Have dominion over the whole earth; I am giving to you food from every plant and tree that has life in its seed-bearing fruit. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen 49:28} ³⁰"And I am giving it as food to every animal on the earth, bird in the sky and everything that creeps on the earth."

³¹And You saw that everything You had made was good so the evening and the morning were the sixth day. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26}

God has always existed, but at an instant in time He created the earth and the heaven(s). The throne, angels, and stars didn't always exist, until God created them. Why? God didn't need them, God doesn't need anything. But God wanted something from outside of Himself, something He couldn't give Himself. He wanted authentic worship. So the angels cried out in adoration, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts" (Isa. 6:3). The earth reflected His glory (Isa. 11:9). And the stars told His creative power. Lord, I worship You as the Creator of Creation, the Inventor of Space, and the Conductor of the Orchestra who originated the symphony of time. I bow in Your presence, my Lord of the Universe. Amen.

Genesis 2 First Days in the Garden of Eden

¹God created everything in the heavens and the earth.

²On day seven God finished His creative work and rested, {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} and ³He blessed the day to make it holy. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

⁴When He made the earth and the heavens, ⁵no shrub or plants had sprung up yet, and there was no rain, and no one to farm the soil. ⁶But streams from below the surface of the earth came up and watered the ground. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

⁷Then God made man from the ground on day six, and breathed into his nostrils and man came alive. {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5}

The greatest spectacle in eternity is seen when God Almighty bends over a lifeless clay figure lying on the ground. As God bent over to breathe His breath into man, he "became a living soul" (2:7). Then man had God's breath pumping his lungs, but more importantly, man had personality; he possessed intellect to know, and emotions to feel, and a will to make choices. The Person of God created man into a person, so that "God created man in His own image" (1:27). What was man like? God said, "Let Us make man in Our image" (1:26). Lord, I'm wonderfully created in Your image, may I reflect glory back to You in all I think, say, and do. Thank You for the gift of life. Amen.

⁸God placed the man in a garden in the East, in Eden. ⁹Many kinds of trees grew there—beautiful trees that provided food for man. In the middle of the garden were two special trees—the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

¹⁰A river that flowed from Eden divided into four main rivers. ¹¹⁻¹²The first river is Pishon. It flows through the land of Havilah, where there is gold, resin, and onyx. ¹³The second river, Gihon, flows through Cush. ¹⁴The third is Tigris, which flows east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

¹⁵God put man in the garden to take care of it. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}
 ¹⁶And God told the man he could eat fruit from any tree in the garden, {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10}
 ¹⁷except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, because if he did he would die. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

¹⁸Then God decided to make for man a wife, a helper suitable for him. {343 Partner-Prayer, Acts 3:1} ¹⁹God brought to Adam all the animals and birds He had made from the soil so that Adam could name them. And whatever he called them that was their name. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ²⁰Adam named all the livestock, birds, and beasts. But he still had no companion. {343 Partner-Prayer, Acts 3:1}

²¹So God caused Adam to fall into a deep sleep. While Adam was sleeping, God took one of Adam's ribs and closed up the wound. ²²Then God made a woman from the rib and brought her to him.

²³Adam noted the close union he had with her, for he said, "She is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh." He called her "woman" because she was taken out of man. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

When God made Eve from one of the ribs in Adam's side, what do you think Adam said when he first saw the woman? "Did he whistle as a man whistles at a woman? Adam was not disappointed because God makes only perfect things. Lord, thank You for the perfect creation of both man and woman. I marvel at Your ingenuity for You made them exactly what they needed to be. Amen.

²⁴Then God said that man is to leave his parents and be united to his wife, and they, like Adam and Eve, would become like one person. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²⁵Though Adam and Eve were naked, they were not ashamed. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

When God brought Eve to Adam, He designed the perfect marriage, for people getting married are to leave their parents and create a new family for the expression of love, mutual help, and birth of children. They became one. Lord, thank You for the wonderful gift of love, marriage, and children. I will fulfill Your plan in my life. May I serve You through my family, and be glorified in all I do. Amen.

Genesis 3 The First Sin

¹The serpent was very crafty, more so than any wild animal God had made. It (actually satan spoke through the snake) challenged God's word by asking the woman if He had said they must not eat fruit from any tree in the garden. {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18}

²Eve told the snake they could eat from any tree ³except the tree in the middle of the garden. If they even touched it, they would die. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ⁴Satan then contradicted God and said, "You won't die. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ⁵"God knows that if you eat of this tree, you will be like Him, and you will know good and evil firsthand."

⁶Eve saw that the fruit looked good enough to eat and it looked very appetizing, and it would make her wise. So she ate some of it. Then she gave some to Adam, and he ate it.

Evil doesn't usually start by rebelling against God, but evil gets to us in subtle tiny ways. First, the snake was probably more beautiful than anything Eve had ever seen. That caught her off guard. Second, the snake planted doubt in her mind, "Has God said?" (3:1). Third, the woman perverted God's command by adding something God didn't say, "We can't even touch it." Fourth, the tempter denied God's Word, "That is not true" (3:4). Fifth, temptation wants you to believe the opposite of the truth. "You will not die!" (3:4) Sixth, temptation holds out an immediate reward that is not true. "Your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God" (3:5). Lord, I know I will be tempted to sin against You. Open my eyes to see temptation coming. Let the Holy Spirit strengthen me to say "no." Remind me of satan's desire to destroy me, and keep me pure inwardly and outwardly. Amen.

⁷As soon as they ate this fruit, their eyes were opened, and they realized they were naked. So they covered themselves by sewing together big fig leaves. {217

Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} 8Hearing that God was in the Garden, they hid among the trees. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12}

⁹When God asked where they were,

Adam was used to talking daily with God. God had brought the woman to him after creating Eve out of his side. God had told Adam to care for the garden, to name the animals, and that he could eat from all trees, except the one in the center of the garden (2:16-17). God came daily to have fellowship with Adam in the cool evening. Lord, I will seek a daily relationship with You. I will listen to You by daily reading the Word of God and I will talk with You through prayer. Amen.

¹⁰Adam said he heard God was nearby and so he hid because he was afraid. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} ¹¹God asked if someone told them they were naked and if they had eaten from the tree that He had told them to avoid. {522 Vow-Violation Prayer, Ps. 65:1} ¹²Adam blamed the woman for giving him some fruit. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1}

¹³Then when God asked the woman what she had done, she said the snake tricked her into eating some of the fruit. {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7} ¹⁴God told the snake it would be cursed, would crawl on its belly, and would eat dust. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ¹⁵Also God said conflict would exist between the snake and the woman, and her offspring would crush satan's head, and satan would strike His heel. {263 Jesus-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

¹⁶Then God told Eve that her childbearing would be painful, and she would still desire her husband even though he would rule over her. {9 Agree-Bless Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

¹⁷Then God told Adam that because he had disobeyed Him, he would have to work hard to produce food. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁸God said that thorns would grow up from the ground, and he would eat plants from the field. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹⁹His work would cause him to perspire. Then he would die and return to the dust from which he was made. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

Adam knew he had disobeyed a simple, yet profound command from God. Many trees were in the garden. So Adam hid himself among the trees because he sinned. Isn't it our responsibility to go to God when we've disobeyed Him? Isn't the lack of prayer our fault? Since prayer is based on our relationship with God, God took the initiative to re-establish that fellowship with people. Lord, I should pray more than I do, and I should come asking forgiveness when I sin. But in my human weakness, I don't do it. Forgive me. Amen.

²⁰Adam named his wife Eve, which means "living," because she would become the mother of all human beings. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

²¹God then covered Adam and Eve with clothes made from animal skins. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

Their clothing from animal skins means an animal was killed and blood was shed. Today our relationship with God is restored because "The blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanses us from all sin" (1 John 1:7). Lord, I come to re-establish my relationship with You. Forgive me for the time I've not come, but I've been in the "trees" of this world. Forgive me and cleanse me. Accept me into fellowship with You this day. Amen.

²²God said, "Man now knows the difference between right and wrong as we do. He must not be allowed to eat from the tree of life for they will live forever." {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} ²³So God sent Adam and Eve away from the Garden of Eden, and Adam had to cultivate the ground from which he had been taken. {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} ²⁴Then God placed angels on the east side of the Garden of Eden with a flaming, flashing sword to guard the entrance to the tree of life. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Genesis 4 Beginning Life Outside Eden

¹Adam and Eve had a son whom they named Cain. She said, "The LORD helped me bring forth a man." (The name Cain sounds similar to the word for "bring forth."){32 Basic-Praying, Heb. 6:1} ²Then she had another son and named him Abel.

He herded sheep, and Cain farmed crops. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ³Eventually Cain brought some fruit to the LORD. ⁴But Abel offered to the Lord some fat portions of meat from his best sheep, and the LORD was pleased with this. {22 Appropriate-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 39:5} ⁵But the Lord was not pleased with Cain's offering of fruit. This made Cain angry and depressed. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15}

⁶The LORD asked Cain why he was angry and depressed. ⁷He said to Cain, "You will be accepted if you do what is right. But if you don't, sin is waiting to attack you like a lion. Sin wants to defeat you, but don't let it do it." {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ⁸Cain encouraged Abel to go with him to the field, and then Cain attacked Abel and killed him. {79 Conditional-Prayer Promise, 2 Chron. 7:14} ⁹When the LORD asked Cain where his brother Abel was, Cain denied that he knew, and he said he wasn't responsible to look after his brother.

¹⁰God said to Cain, "Abel's blood is calling out to me to punish you. ¹¹So you are now under a curse, and you will no longer be a farmer. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹²And when you try to grow things in your field, you will get no results. In fact you will now wander from place to place." {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

¹³Cain admitted that the LORD's punishment was unbearable. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ¹⁴He said, "I will be driven from the land away from Your presence, I will be a fugitive, wandering from place to place, and if anyone finds me, he will kill me." {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5}

15 The LORD corrected Cain by saying that if anyone killed Cain, he would be punished seven times worse than God was punishing Cain. So the LORD put a mark on Cain so that no one would kill him. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} 16 So Cain left the LORD and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8}

Cain's prayer was his justification for his human way of worshiping God. He brought a bloodless offering of fruit from the harvest of his farm. His brother offered "the firstborn of his flock" to God in obedience to God. "By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice" (Heb. 11:4), which suggests God told Abel to bring a blood sacrifice, because faith is always a positive response to God's Word. Note the four things about Cain: (1) rebels against God's Word; (2) is angry with God; (3) murders his brother; and (4) lies to God. Note how sin influenced Cain's relationship with God. God asks, "Why are you so angry?" But Cain doesn't answer. Then God offered salvation by pointing out a lamb waiting on the other side of the door of opportunity. Cain reacts by doing nothing. When God asked, "Where is your brother?" Cain lied, "I don't know." Then Cain accepts responsibility for His eternal destiny with the confession, "Am I my brother's keeper?" Cain complains to God, but doesn't repent. He tells God, "My punishment is greater than

I can bear" (v. 13). Cain blames God, "You have driven me out" (v. 14), which is the general response of the rebellious heart to God. So what does a rebellious person do? "Cain went out from the presence of the LORD" (v. 16). Lord, keep me from rebellion and hardness of heart that were found in Cain. May I never lie to You or to myself. Give me a soft heart to seek Your presence. I praise You for your continued grace. Amen.

¹⁷Cain's wife gave birth to a son Enoch. At that time Cain was building a city, so he named the city Enoch after his son. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} ¹⁸Enoch had a son Irad, who had a son Mehujael, who had a son Methusaleh, who had a son Lamech (Lamech thus was Cain's great-great-grandson.)

¹⁹Lamech married Adah and then Zillah. ²⁰Adah had a son Jabal, who became the first to live in tents and who became a cattleman. ²¹His brother Jabal was the first musician, playing harps and flutes. ²²Zillah. Lamech's second wife, had a son, Tubal-Cain, who made tools out of bronze and iron. His sister was named Naamah. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

²³Lamech told his wives, "I have killed a young man who had wounded me. ²⁴But if anyone tries to get even with me, he will be punished 77 times, that is, 10 times worse than anyone who tries to get even with Cain." {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} ²⁵Adam and Eve had a third son and they named him Seth. Eve said, "God has granted (Seth means 'Granted') me a son to replace Abel whom Cain killed." {410

Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} ²⁶Later Seth had a son named Enosh. During that time people began to proclaim the name of the Lord as Lord. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7}

Genesis 5 From Adam to Noah

¹The following is a list of Adam's descendants to the tenth generation.

Men were created by God in God's likeness (v. 1). But when Seth was born "in his (Adam's) own image" (v. 3, NASB), Adam was confessing the human likeness of all future births. Lord, I confess I was born with a sinful nature, that I am limited by my sinful desires, and I will die because sin will have its way in my body. But I thank You for salvation in Christ Jesus. I praise You for a new nature that wants to do right, and I worship You for the gift of eternal life that I shall live with You after I die. Amen.

²When God created man to be like Himself, He made male and female, blessed them, and called them human beings.
³Seth was born to Adam when Adam was 130.

Two of the most tragic events in history: first, Adam and Eve disobeyed one of God's minor instructions, "Don't eat of the tree..." They didn't have to sin because God said they could eat fruit from any tree in the garden. Their children could have been a fresh new start to populate the earth; but there was a second tragedy. Cain sinned against God just as his parents did. So Adam and Eve realized salvation was not in their children. Lord, I realize there is no redemption in anything we do. I have great hope for my children, but I realize they must decide to follow You, just as I decided. They must call on Your name, just as I call on Your name. Amen.

⁴Then Adam lived another 800 years and had more children. ⁵He died at the age of 930.

⁶At the age of 105 Seth became the father of Enosh. ⁷Seth lived another 807 years and had other children, ⁸and died at the age of 912.

⁹At the age of 90 Enosh had Kenan. ¹⁰Enosh lived another 815 years and had other children, ¹¹and died at the age of 905.

¹²At the age of 70 Kenan had Mahalalal. ¹³Kenan lived another 840 years and had other children, ¹⁴and died at the age of 910. ¹⁵At the age of 65 Mahalalel had Jared. ¹⁶Mahalalel lived another 830 years and had other children, ¹⁷and died at the age of 895. ¹⁸When Jared was 162, he became the father of Enoch. ¹⁹Jared lived another 800 years and had other children ²⁰and died at the age of 962.

²¹At the age of 65 Enoch became the father of Methuselah. ²²Enoch lived another 300 years and had other sons and daughters, ²³and lived to the age of 365. ²⁴Enoch walked with God, enjoying fellowship with Him, and then God took him away to heaven.

Enoch "walked with God" (5:22) after Methuselah was born, and perhaps in this birth Enoch realized God was going to judge the earth. Enoch walked so closely with God that God took him to heaven without dying. How did that happen? Enoch meditated on God as he walked and talked to God. One day he just kept walking and went to be with God, and never returned to his earthly home. Lord, I want to walk with You, talk with You, and meditate on Your goodness. I want to walk as closely to You as possible. May I please You in all I do. Amen.

²⁵At the age of 187 Methuselah became the father of Lamech. ²⁶Methuselah lived another 782 years and had other children and ²⁷died at the age of 969 (the oldest man to have lived). {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1}

²⁸When Lamech became the father of Noah at the age of 182, he said, ²⁹"He will give us comfort (comfort sounds like the word "Noah") from our farming the ground God has cursed." ³⁰Lamech lived another 595 years and had other children ³¹and died at the age of 777. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

³²When Noah was 500, he had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6 Wickedness Demanded the Flood

¹More and more people were born. ²When demon-controlled leaders saw that the young women were beautiful, they took any of them they wanted to be their wives. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

³Then the LORD said, "My Spirit will not put up with men forever; they are mortal. So I will limit their lives to 120 years." {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14} ⁴Giants were on the earth then and afterward, and they were known as heroes.

⁵The LORD saw how bad people had become and that everything they planned and thought was evil all the time. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ⁶He felt bad that He had made man. It grieved Him deeply. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

As sin seemed to run unhindered, there seemed no way to stop it. (1) God knows the wickedness of hearts and actions of everyone (6:9); (2) God opposed it, "My Spirit will not put up with men forever" (6:3); (3) God was grieved with sin (because He is holy); and (4) God said, "I will blot out whom I have created" (6:7, NASB); and (5) God planned to begin again with righteous Noah (6:8). Lord, when I see sin everywhere, I will pray against all public and private sin. I will pray most against the sin which is rebellion against You. I will pray against the sinful decisions of politicians, and pray for their salvation. Lord, be glorified in the midst of sin so that truth and righteousness prevails. Amen

⁷So He said, "I will blot out people, animals, reptiles, and birds. I am sorry I made them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁸However, the LORD was pleased with Noah. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ⁹This is the story of Noah. He was a godly man, living a blameless life, and he lived in fellowship with God. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ¹⁰Noah had three sons—Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

¹¹God saw how terribly corrupt and violent everyone was. ¹²Seeing how bad everyone was in all their ways, ¹³God told Noah, "Because violence is everywhere, I will destroy every human being and the entire earth. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁴So make a large boat with many rooms in it, and seal it with tar inside and out. ¹⁵Make it 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high. ¹⁶Leave a space of 18 inches between the roof and the sides. Put a door on one side, and make three decks on the boat.

The dimensions of Noah's large boat are similar to a three-story dormitory. It was seaworthy, the cracks were filled with pitch, and two animals from each species were taken aboard. It was a common-sense plan that would save the world. God didn't use a miracle to save the world; He used a plan that involved human initiative, skill, and hard work. In like manner the Great Commission is God's plan today to save the world, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15). God doesn't use observable miracles like spaceships or angels to preach for us. God expects us to work the same way Noah worked, with initiative, skill, and hard work. Lord, I will give my all—thoughts, energy, and creativity—to reach lost people for Christ. I will use my common sense to reach them with the gospel. Amen.

¹⁷"I will bring a flood on the earth that will destroy every living thing and person. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁸But I promise to keep you, your wife, your sons, and your daughters-in-law safe in the boat. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

¹⁹"Bring into the boat two of every animal—male and female—to keep them safe. ²⁰Take into the boat a pair of every bird, animal, and reptile to keep them alive. ²¹Store away in the boat every kind of food you and all the animals will need." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

²²Noah did all the Lord told him to do. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Genesis 7 The Flood Covers the Earth

¹Finally the day came when the LORD said to Noah, "Go into the boat with all your family, for you above all the people on the earth are righteous.

When the ark was built, the Lord invited Noah and his family to "come into the ark," which is a type or symbol of God's invitation to all lost people today. Because there is coming judgment—on this earth or in hell—God invites lost people to come to salvation. (1) The invitation is given by God. (2) He urges the unsaved to take advantage of His perfect salvation. (3) God offers a place of protection. (4) Salvation is offered in view of coming judgment. Lord, I pray for the salvation of all my family members who are unsaved. I also pray for friends and associates outside of Christ. Lord, I pray You will convict them of their sin, give them a desire to obey You, and compel them to desire salvation. Amen.

²Take seven pairs of animals for food and for sacrifice, and two of each of the other animals. 3Take seven pairs of every kind of bird. That way these animals and birds will be alive after the flood. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} 4"In one week I will start sending rain that will continue for 40 days and nights, and this will destroy all the other animals I have made." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ⁵So Noah did what the LORD told him to do. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} 6When the floodwaters came, Noah was 600 years old. ⁷He and his wife and three sons and three daughters-in-law boarded the boat. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Noah had faith that enabled him to believe and act on the words of God. His faith was so deep that he obeyed without question. Then scoffers ridiculed him for building a boat so far from water and it had never rained. "By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark" (Heb. 11:7). Lord, give me faith to believe Your Word so deeply that I will act on Your promises and warnings. I believe in the coming rapture of all believers and coming tribulation on all unsaved. So I pray for my unsaved family and friends. Because I believe You will judge all unbelievers, I pray by faith for people today to get saved. Amen.

⁸With them the animals—two of each of the unclean animals and seven pairs of each for food and sacrifices—⁹male and female they entered the boat, as God had told Noah. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁰In one week, as the LORD had said, the floodwaters came. ¹¹On the 17th day of the second month, when Noah was 600 years old, water under the earth started gushing up and heavy rain poured down from the sky. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹²This continued, as the LORD had said, for 40 days and nights. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

¹³Noah and his family had gone into the boat. ¹⁴With Noah in the boat were all kinds of wild animals, domestic animals, reptiles, and birds. ¹⁵They came in pairs into the boat, ¹⁶male and female of every animal, as God had told Noah to do. Then the Lord closed the door. {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10}

¹⁷For 40 days and nights the floodwaters came, lifting the boat high above the ground. ¹⁸As the water got deeper, the boat floated on the water. ¹⁹The water covered the highest mountains on the earth. ²⁰In fact the highest peaks were covered by 22 feet of water.

²¹Every living thing on earth and every human being perished. ²²Everything that breathed died by drowning. ²³Every living thing on earth died. People, animals, reptiles, and birds were all wiped out. Only Noah and his family and the animals he took into the boat lived. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8}

²⁴The water covered the earth for five months—150 days.

Genesis 8 The Flood Recedes

¹God didn't forget Noah and the animals in the boat. He sent a wind to cause the waters to go down. ²He stopped the underground waters from gushing up, and He made the water from the sky stop falling. ³Gradually the water went down for 150 days. ⁴Exactly five months after the rain started, the boat rested on the mountains of Ararat. ⁵For another three months the water went down so that Noah and his family could then see mountaintops. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2}

After God punishes sin, He puts everything behind Him and doesn't forget those who faithfully serve Him. Lord, thank You for Your mercies in salvation and thank You for the spiritual gifts You've given me and opportunities to serve You. Thank You for physical life and health. While I'm not as strong as some, I'm healthier than others. Thank You for new mercies for this day to serve You. Amen.

⁶After 40 days Noah opened the window in the ark, and ⁷he sent out a raven that kept flying till the earth was dry.

⁸Then to see if the water had gone down, Noah sent out a dove. ⁹The dove could find no place to land, and so it flew back to the boat. Noah reached out and took the dove back into the boat. ¹⁰Seven days later Noah sent the dove out again. {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14} ¹¹This time, when the dove returned in the evening, it had an olive leaf in its beak. Noah knew from this that the water was going down. {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} ¹²A week later Noah sent the dove out again, and this time it did not return. {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14}

¹³When Noah was 601 years old, about a year after the flood started, he looked out and saw that the ground was dry. {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} ¹⁴Then two months later, exactly a year and 10 days after the rain started, the earth was completely dry.

¹⁵⁻¹⁶God told Noah to come out of the boat with his family and ¹⁷to bring out all the animals so they could breed and reproduce.

¹⁸So Noah and his family of seven left the boat. ¹⁹And all the animals in the ark came out. {369 Prayer-Journey Prayer, Ps. 126:5-6}

²⁰Then Noah built an altar to the LORD and sacrificed on it some of the clean animals and birds as burnt offerings to the Lord.

The altar Noah built was a symbol of his priorities. Some might have doubted what he did, because some of those few animals were needed for food. But Noah put God first. Lord, forgive me when my doubts motivate me to compromise my obedience to You. I will bring my offerings on the first day of the week and put You first in my life and belongings. Amen.

²¹The LORD was pleased with the sacrifice, and He said, "I will never again curse the ground, though people are sinful even from their childhood. And I will never again destroy all living things as I've done with the flood. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ²²As long as the earth remains, there will be planting and harvesting, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night." {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8}

Because Noah put God first as an act of faith, "The Lord was pleased with the sacrifice" (8:21). In the same way, we want to please the Lord in all we do because "the Father is seeking such to worship Him" (John 4:23). Lord, be pleased with all I do to serve You. Be pleased with the sacrifice of my words to You. "Let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name" (Heb. 13:15). Amen.

Genesis 9 God's Covenant with Noah

¹God blessed Noah and his sons, and He told them, "Have many children and fill the earth again with many people. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ²All animals, birds, reptiles, and fish will be afraid of you, for I have placed them under your power. ³They will be food for you just like the plants you have eaten. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

⁴"But do not eat any meat that still has blood in it. ⁵If an animal kills someone, it must die. And if any man kills another person, he must die. ⁶To kill someone is to kill a person made in My image. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

God made an eternal covenant with Noah that extended to all people on the earth, and would last forever. (1) He would not judge the earth with water again (9:15); (2) mankind is responsible to enact the death penalty for those who murder another (9:6); (3) the order of seasons was established (8:22); (4) mankind could eat meat, whereas people were probably vegetarians. Lord, thank You for Your promises of protection from a judgmental flood, and Your assurance of the predictability of the seasons. Lord, help my culture to be properly responsible for the murderers among us. Amen.

7"Have many children and repopulate the earth." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} 8Then God told Noah and his sons, 9"I promise you and your descendants {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} and 10 all the animals that were with you on the boat—birds, livestock, and wild animals—11 that I will never again destroy life and the earth with a flood.

¹²⁻¹³"The rainbow I have put in the sky will be a sign of My promise to you and every living thing. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹⁴When I send clouds and a rainbow appears, ¹⁵I will keep My promise to you and all living things that I will never again destroy all life by a flood. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ¹⁶Whenever a rainbow appears in the clouds, I will remember My promise. ¹⁷This is the sign of the promise I have made to all life on the earth."

¹⁸Noah and his sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, came out of the boat. (Ham is the ancestor of the Canaanites.) {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁹Everyone who is scattered across the earth has descended from these three sons.

²⁰Noah was a farmer and he planted a vineyard. ²¹When he drank some wine from the vineyard, he got drunk and was lying naked in his tent. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²²Ham, Canaan's father, saw his father and went outside to tell his two brothers. ²³Shem and Japheth took a robe, held it over their shoulders, and walked in backwards and covered their father as they looked the other way so they wouldn't see their father naked. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

²⁴When Noah woke and learned what his youngest son Ham had done, he cursed Ham's descendants. ²⁵He said, "Cursed be the Canaanites. They will be slaves of the descendants of Shem and Japheth." ²⁶Then Noah said, "May the LORD bless Shem, and may Canaan be his servant. ⁴⁷Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV ²⁷May Japheth have more land and may he share in God's blessings to Shem, and may Canaan be his slave."

²⁸Noah lived 350 years after the flood, ²⁹and he died at the age of 950. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Noah preached against riotous living (Luke 17:26, 27) and ungodliness by which "he condemned the world" (Heb. 11:7). Yet when Noah got old and the challenge of ministry was gone, he got drunk (9:21). Be careful of "old men's sin" of forgetting in old age the vows made in youth. Did Noah sin because there were no more "worlds to conquer"? Did old age soften his self-discipline? Did old age blunt his mind so he didn't think clearly? Or did satan get to Noah when his guard was down? Those who are entering old age should pray, Lord, keep my mind and body strong to resist sin. Keep my memory keen of the victories I had in my youth. Protect me so I don't sin against You, and lose my testimony before the world. Strengthen me daily with Jesus Christ's power. Amen.

Genesis 10 The Descendants of Noah's Sons

¹After the flood Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, had many descendants. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²Japheth's sons included Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. ³Gomer's sons were Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah. ⁴Javan, Japheth's son, had Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittim, and the Rodanim. ⁵Their descendants became seafaring nations, each with a different language.

⁶The sons of Ham were Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. ⁷Cush's sons were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtecah. And Raamah's sons were Sheba and Dedan (in Arabia). ⁸One of the descendants of Cush was Nimrod, who became a great warrior. ⁹In fact Nimrod was such a great hunter that people referred to him in a proverb, "You are like Nimrod, a great hunter before the Lord." ¹⁰He ruled in Babylonia, over the cities of Babylon, Erech, Akkad, and Calneh.

Nimrod's name means "Rebel." Many commentators think he hunted people, not animals. He began the city of Babel (10:10). He established the nation Babylon, an autocratic, despotic government of tyranny (satan's rage against God was reflected through Babylon.) Nimrod was "Before the LORD" (v. 9, twice), which means his evil attracted the attention of God. Dictators are not the Antichrist who will arise in the end times. They only represent the spirit of Antichrist. The events in chapter 11 probably happened before chapter 10, which is an ethnological table that lists the nations of the ancient world. Lord, there always seems to be another political tyranny that destroys world peace. I pray against these evil antichrists who destroy world peace. Raise up good leaders who represent truth, righteousness, and peace. Amen.

¹¹Nimrod then went to Assyria, where he built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah, and Resen. ¹²Resen, located between Nineveh and Calah, became the major city of the empire.

¹³Ham's son Mizraim became the ancestor of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites, ¹⁴Pathrusites, Casluhites (from whom came the Philistines), and Caphtorites.

¹⁵Ham's son Canaan was the father of Sidon and the ancestor of the Hittites, ¹⁶Jebusites, Amorites, Girgashites, ¹⁷Hivites, Arkites, Sinites, ¹⁸Arvadites, Zemarites, and Hamathites. ¹⁹The Canaanite tribes spread all the way from Sidon south to Gerar and Gaza and east to Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, near Lasha. ²⁰These are Ham's descendants in various territories and speaking various languages.

²¹Shem, Noah's oldest son, was the ancestor of the descendants of Eber. 22Shem had five sons: Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Luz, and Aram. 23Aram had Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshech. 24 Arphaxad had Shelah, and Shelah had Eber. ²⁵Eber's two sons were Peleg (meaning "Division"), so named because in his day people separated and dispersed. Eber's second son was Joktan. ²⁶Joktan was the ancestor of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, ²⁷Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, 28Obal, Abimael, Sheba, ²⁹Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. ³⁰Their land extended from Mesha toward Sephar in the hill country of the east. ³¹These are the descendants of Shem, according to their tribes, languages, and geographical locations.

³²These are Noah's descendants, who after the flood spread as nations all over the world.

Christians are commanded by Paul to intercede for the nations, "Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, for kings and all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence" (1 Tim. 2:1, 2). The reference to "all kings and all who are in authority" includes all nations. Therefore, as you read the Table of Nations in chapter 10, pray for God to work in each nation. Some of these nations have had great revivals and Christian influence in the past. Can't God do it again? Lord, I pray peace for every nation in the world, but I know there will be no peace until You, Jesus, the Prince of Peace, returns to rule the world. Amen.

Genesis 11 Building a Huge Tower

¹At first everyone spoke one language. ²As people moved eastward, they settled in the plains of Babylon. ³⁻⁴The people said, "Let's make bricks and tar (instead of stones and mortar) by which to build a great city with a tower reaching to the sky. This can be a monument to ourselves, and it will keep us from scattering all over the world." {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24}

⁵When the LORD saw the great city and the tower, ⁶He said, "If these people can do this with their common language, soon they will be able to do anything they want. ⁷So let's go down and make them speak different languages. That way they won't understand each other." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} 8 That's how the LORD scattered them all over the earth. 9 The city was called Babel (meaning "confusion") because God confused the people with many languages. Then the people scattered over the earth. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

God is interested in the world: He created all of it and wants people to live in every part. God told Noah, "Have many children and fill the earth again" (9:1). He wanted His people to multiply "abundantly in the earth" (9:7). But mankind wanted to establish a one-world culture in opposition to God. They refused to scatter into all the world. Mankind said, "Let's build a great city and tower" (11:4), but God said, "Come, let Us go down" (11:5). God made them speak different languages (11:7). If it were just word symbols, they could have re-learned new symbols in a short time and continued working. But words stand for values and attitudes. When God gave them new words, He gave them new core values which made them different in culture and ethnic groups. Thus the different races came from the tower of Babel. Lord, help me see the differences in each cultural race, and love people for who they are. Also help me see how people are the same, and all represent one world brotherhood. I pray for the evangelization of all the ethnic groups of the world (Matt. 28:19; 24:14). Amen.

¹⁰The account of Shem's line up to Abram is as follows. Two years after the flood, when Shem was 100 years old, his son Arphaxad was born. ¹¹Then Shem had other children and lived another 500 years.

¹²At the age of 35 Arphaxad had Shelah. ¹³Then he had other children, and lived another 403 years. ¹⁴At the age of 30 Shelah had Eber. ¹⁵Then he had other children, and like his father Arphaxad, he lived another 403 years.

¹⁶When Eber was 34, he had Peleg. ¹⁷Then he had other children and lived another 430 years. ¹⁸When Peleg was 30, he had Reu. ¹⁹Then he had other children and lived another 209 years.

²⁰When Reu was 32, he had Serug. ²¹Then he had other children and lived another 207 years. ²²When Serug was 30, he had Nahor. ²³Then he had other children and lived another 200 years.

²⁴When Nahor was 29, he had Terah. ²⁵Then he had other children and lived another 119 years. ²⁶After Terah was 70, he had three sons, Abram, Nahor, and Haran. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

²⁷The account of Terah's line is as follows. Of his three sons, Abram, Nahor, and Haran, the latter became the father of Lot. ²⁸Haran died in Ur of the Chaldeans where he was born, and he was survived by his father Terah.

We see the beginning of the Jewish people in chapter 11. God separates one river out of the ocean of humanity through whom to focus His work. The choice of Abraham was based in the heart and unfathomable mind of God.

"How odd of God to choose the Jews," And use that race to show His grace." "But odder still His plan to see, To use the likes of you and me." Lord, thank You for choosing Abraham and through him giving us Scripture and Jesus Christ. Lord, thank You for Your unfathomable choice of me and Your plan to use me. Amen ²⁹Abram's wife was Sarai, and Nahor's wife was Milcah, his niece. {459 Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9} ³⁰Sarai was unable to have children.

³¹Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot (son of Haran), and his daughter-in-law Sarai, and left Ur of the Chaldeans to go to Canaan. But when they arrived in Haran, they settled there. ³²Terah died in Haran at the age of 205. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Genesis 12 The Abrahamic Covenant

¹The LORD had told Abram, "Leave this country of Ur with your family and relatives, and I will show you where to go. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ²I will make you the father of a great nation. I will bless you and make you famous. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ³I will bless anyone who blesses you and curse anyone who curses you. Everyone will be blessed because of you." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

⁴When Abram left his country, taking Lot with him, he was 75 years old. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁵Abram took Sarai

and Lot and all their belongings and servants they had acquired in Haran, and they moved to Canaan. ⁶In Canaan they arrived in Shechem and set up camp by the tree of Moreh, where the Canaanites were living. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ⁷God said to Abram, "I will give this land

'God said to Abram, "I will give this land to your descendants." So Abram built an altar there in memory of the Lord's visit to him. {539 Worship-Ministry Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

Sometimes God makes His presence more real to us than at other times. It's as though we can actually feel the presence of the Lord with us when we pray. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} While we can't go on our feelings, it's a wonderful confirmation to feel His presence when we pray. What's that feeling like? Sometimes you walk outside and you know it's about to rain. You can feel the moisture in the air, even though you can't see rain on the street, nor are the leaves wet. But, you can feel the atmospheric rain; just as we can feel the atmospheric presence of God. Lord, I know You are always with me because You are omnipresent, that is, You are everywhere present at the same time. But thank You for those times when I pray confidently, because I feel Your presence with me. Amen.

⁸Abram then traveled south and camped between Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. Abram built another altar there and worshiped the Lord. {539 Worship-Ministry Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁹Then he traveled on south to the Southern Desert.

¹⁰Because of a shortage of rain, crops, and food in the land Abram went to Egypt to be there for a while. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} 11As they approached Egypt, Abram said to Sarai, "You are very beautiful. 12So when the Egyptians see you, they will kill me so they can have you. ¹³So tell them you are my sister. Then they will treat you well and will spare my life." {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} 14When Abram arrived in Egypt, the Egyptians saw how beautiful Sarai was. ¹⁵Pharaoh's officers told Pharaoh about her, and they took her into the palace. ¹⁶Because of her, Pharaoh gave a lot of gifts to Abram, including livestock, servants, and animals.

¹⁷The LORD then sent a terrible disease on Pharaoh's family because of Sarai. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁸So Pharaoh called in Abram and asked, "What have you done? Why didn't you tell me she is your wife? ¹⁹Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' thus making me willing to take her as my wife? She is your wife, and so take her and go." ²⁰Then Pharaoh told his men to let Abram and Sarai leave with their belongings. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

We read the amazing statement, "The Lord appeared to Abram" (12:7). Did Abram see the shekinah glory cloud, or did God appear to him in something like a burning bush that didn't burn up, as God appeared to Moses (Exod. 3:2)? The Bible doesn't tell us how God appeared, but it was probably more than the atmospheric presence we feel. Lord, I know You heard my prayers, because You promised in Scripture You will do it (John 14:13, 15). Also You hear me pray because You live in my heart (Gal. 2:20). But, Your atmospheric presence confirms You hear me when I pray.

Why did God appear to Abram? Because when God told him to go to a land he had never seen, Abram obeyed. And Abram worshiped at an altar he built (12:7). Jesus said, "The Father seeks individuals to worship Him" (John 4:23, ELT), so when we obey Him and worship Him, the Father comes to receive our worship. Lord, when I do Your will and when I worship You, then I get an added blessing: I get to enjoy Your confirming atmospheric presence. Amen.

Genesis 13 Abram and Lot Separated

¹Abram, Sarai, and Lot went from Egypt to the Southern Desert with all their belongings. ²Abram was very rich in livestock and silver and gold. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³Abram traveled from the Southern Desert and came to Bethel {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} ⁴where earlier he had built an altar. There he proclaimed the LORD's name. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

⁵Lot too was wealthy, with sheep and goats and many tents. ⁶But with the Canaanites and Perizzites there too, there wasn't enough land for all of Abram's and Lot's belongings. {86 Contentment-Prayer, Phil. 1:20} ⁷Abram's herdsmen and Lot's herdsmen started quarreling over the use of the land. ⁸Abram told Lot, "This quarreling needs to stop. After all, we are close relatives. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ⁹I suggest we go separate ways. If you move to the east, I'll stay here. Or if you want to stay here, I'll go east." {86 Contentment-Prayer, Phil. 1:20}

¹⁰Lot saw that the fertile plain of the Jordan Valley near Zoar was well watered, like the Garden of Eden and like Egypt. (This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.) {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ¹¹Lot chose the Jordan Valley to the east, and left Abram. {51 Blocked-Prayer, 1 Peter 3:7}

¹²Abram stayed in Canaan, and Lot lived near the cities of the Plain, settling down near Sodom, {51 Blocked-Prayer, 1 Peter 3:7} ¹³where the people were unusually wicked and were terrible sinners before the Lord. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

¹⁴After Lot left, the LORD said to Abram, "Look in every direction. {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12}

God told Abraham to walk in every direction and see what He was giving him. The land was possessed by pagan nations, but God wanted to give it to him. What does God want to give to you? Once Liberty Mountain was owned by U. S. Gypsum, so Jerry Falwell walked the length and width of the rabbit trails, praying and claiming the Mountain. Today, Liberty Mountain and over 6,000 acres are owned by Liberty University. Lord, I will go to the place You want me to possess. I will walk around it and claim it for Your work. Amen.

¹⁵All the land you see I will give to you and your descendants forever. ¹⁶Your descendants will be as numerous as dust. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ¹⁷So walk across the land and explore what I am giving you." {372 Prayer-Walking, Gen. 13:17}

¹⁸Abram moved to be near the oaks of Mamre at Hebron. There he built another altar to the Lord. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

Prayer walking is defined as "praying on site, with insight." Before Abraham could walk and pray, God told him, "All the land you see I will give to you and your descendants forever" (13:15). You have to see it before you can pray in faith, or walk in faith. Lord, I will walk around the "thing" You want me to possess. Give me a vision of what You desire; I will walk and pray for it. Amen.

Genesis 14 Abram Rescues Lot

¹Four kings—Amraphel, Arioch. Kedorlaomer, and Tidal—attacked five kings—Bera, Birsha, Shinah, Shemeber, and the king of Bela. ²These five were all near the cities of the Plain, including Sodom and Gomorrah. ³These five kings gathered their military forces near the Salt Sea.

⁴The five were subject to Kedorlaomer for 12 years, but they rebelled in the 13th year.

5-6In the 14th year the four kings defeated several peoples—the Rephaites, Zuzites, Emites, and Horites. The Horites were in the countryside near Mount Seir, as far as El-Paran near the wilderness.

⁷The four then went to En Mishpat (also called Kadesh) and defeated the Amalekites and the Amorites living in Hazezon Tamar.

⁸⁻⁹The armies of the five kings prepared for battle against the four in the Valley of Siddim near the Salt Sea.

¹⁰But the valley had many asphalt pits, so that when the soldiers of the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some fell into the pits. But others escaped to the hills. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} ¹¹The four kings took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, including all their food, and left. {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2} ¹²Also they captured Lot, Abram's nephew, who lived in Sodom, and they took all his belongings. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

¹³Someone from Sodom escaped and told Abram the Hebrew, who was living near the trees of Mamre the Amorite. Mamre and his relatives Eshcol and Aner were Abram's allies. {296 Loving-People Prayer, James 2:8} ¹⁴Hearing that Lot had been captured, Abram took 318 of his servants and pursued Kedorlaomer's army as far north as Dan, about 150 miles. {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} ¹⁵Dividing his men, Abram pursued the enemy during the night as far north as Hobah, beyond Damascus about another 50 miles. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁶Abram rescued Lot and all the loot

the enemy had taken, and women and others. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8}

Sometimes we must move into action quickly. Abram heard that Lot had been captured by a raiding band of soldiers from Mesopotamia (the area Abram was from). Abram gathered all his men trained to fight, and some from other tribes who suffered from their raid. In a night attack, Abram's soldiers defeated the raiding army. Abram did something because he had to save his nephew, Lot. Lord, when an emergency comes, may I not forget emergency prayers. Sometimes we must act decisively because of an accident, sickness, or crisis that happens to our family or friends. It may not be our responsibility, but we are dragged into a "mess" for some reason. When we don't know what to do—pray! This may be called desperate prayers or emergency prayers, but we must bring God and His resources into the crisis. Lord, when everyone else panics, help me keep a level head to think soundly. Help me know what to do. Help me do it with authority so I lead others to do the right thing. Then beyond all that humans can do, send Your resources to solve the problem. Amen.

¹⁷After Abram defeated Kedorlaomer and the kings with him, Bera, king of Sodom, went to meet Abram near Jerusalem in the Valley of Shaveh (the King's Valley). {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2}

¹⁸Melchizedek, king of Jerusalem and priest of God Most High, took bread and wine to Abram. ¹⁹Melchizedek gave Abram this blessing: "May God Most High and Creator of heaven and earth honor Abram. And may God Most High be honored for giving you victory over your enemies." {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ²⁰Then Abram gave Melchizedek a tenth of all the goods he had recovered. {22 Appropriate-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 39:5}

²¹Bera said to Abram, "Give me my people who were captured, but keep the goods for yourself."

²²Abram said to Bera, "I have promised the Lord God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth, {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ²³that I won't keep anything of yours, not even a piece of thread or a sandal strap. That way you can never say you are the one who made Abram rich. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ²⁴Yes, I'll accept what these men have eaten. But give some of the loot to Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre, my allies." {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

When Abram returned home, he was met by Melchizedek, king of Salem (Jerusalem). There in the Kidron Valley, far below the towering walls of the city, Melchizedek gave Abram a banquet, and he blessed Abram. When we bless others, we are adding spiritual value to their lives. Melchizedek was adding spiritual riches to Abram's life. Abram had won the spoils of war, namely, animals, clothing, gold, silver, etc. Now he had the blessing of God who possesses heaven and earth. Lord, beyond all the money and property and "stuff" I gather in this life, I want Your spiritual riches. Amen.

Genesis 15 The Lord Reaffirms His Covenant with Abram

¹Later the LORD spoke to Abram in a vision, saying, "Don't be afraid, Abram. I will protect you like a shield. And I will bless you greatly." {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

Because Abram defeated the larger invading army of four nations (14:1), he might have been afraid of a counterattack. So God came to Abram and told him not to be afraid (15:1). That meant, "Don't be afraid of what those enemies might do to you." Why? Because the Lord said, "I am your shield" (15:1). When you are afraid of attacks and retaliation, remember to pray protectively, because God can protect you when no one else can do it. Lord, all kinds of dangers are in this world; protect me from friends, enemies, swindlers, robbers, and crazies. Protect me when I can't protect myself. Protect me when I don't know I need protection. Protect me from all kinds of dangers that would steal from me and compromise me or kill me. May nothing come into my life except the things that are Your will. Amen.

²Abram responded, "O sovereign Lord, what good will your blessings be since I don't have a son, and my servant Eliezer will inherit my wealth. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ³With my having no children, this servant of mine will inherit everything."

⁴The LORD said, "No, Eliezer will not be your heir. You will have a son of your own, and he will inherit your estate." {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

⁵God then took Abram outside and told him to try to count the stars. He told Abram that his offspring would be innumerable like that. ⁶Abram believed the Lord, and God declared him righteous because of his faith. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31}

⁷God then said, "I am the LORD who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ⁸Abram asked, "O sovereign Lord, how can I be sure of that?" ⁹God said, "Bring me a three-year-old cow, a three-year-old goat, and a three-year-old male sheep, and a dove and a young pigeon." ¹⁰Abram brought them to Him, cut them in half, and separated the halves, but he did not cut the birds in half. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹¹Vultures came down to eat the carcasses, but Abram shooed them away.

¹²That evening Abram fell into a deep sleep, and saw a terrifying vision in deep darkness. ¹³The LORD said, "Your descendants will be enslaved in a strange country for 400 years. ¹⁴But I will punish that nation, and in the end your offspring will leave with many belongings. ¹⁵You will die in peace at a ripe old age. ¹⁶After four generations your descendants will return here, when the sins of the Amorites will be ready to be punished." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

¹⁷When darkness came, Abram in his vision saw a smoking pot and a flaming fire move between the two halves of the animals. ¹⁸The LORD promised Abram, "I will give this land to your descendants—from the river at Egypt's border to the Euphrates River, {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹⁹the land of the Kenites, Kenizzites, Kadmonites, ²⁰Hittites, Perizzites, Rephaites, ²¹Amorites, Canaanites, Girgashites, and Jebusites."

Abram gave away all the spoils of war. He was not a lustful man. So God told him, "I will protect you" (15:1). When you have God, who owns heaven and the earth, why be lustful of things? God can give you more than you could ever make with hard work, or by winning battles. Lord, I lift my hand to You as Abram did, for You are my reward. I will be satisfied with the belongings You give me. Amen.

Genesis 16 The Birth of Ishmael

¹Since Sarai could have no children, {459 Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9} ²she took her Egyptian maid Hagar to Abram and said, "The LORD has kept me from getting pregnant, so sleep with Hagar and her child will be mine." Abram agreed. ³When Sarai gave Hagar to her husband, this was 10 years after they had arrived in Canaan.

⁴So he slept with her. But from the moment she knew she would have a baby, Hagar was mean to Sarai. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ⁵Then Sarai blamed Abram for the way Hagar was treating her. "I gave her to you and now that she's pregnant and I'm not, she hates me. The LORD will make you pay for this." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

⁶Abram said, "She is your slave, so do with her whatever you want." So Sarai treated Hagar so badly that she ran away. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}

Because of Sarah's jealousy, Hagar took water and food and ran away from the camp of Abraham. She was Egyptian, so she headed home to Egypt, but got lost in the desert. She was about to die from the harshness of the desert but God protected her. In response she declared, "Thou God seest me" (16:13, KJV). How many times has God protected you from danger and you didn't know it? Did you praise God for His presence in danger? Lord, thank You for protecting me from danger in the past. I am alive this day because of Your providence. I ask for Your protection in the future. Amen.

⁷Finding Hagar near a desert spring by the road to Shur, ⁸the angel of the Lord said, "Hagar, what are you doing out here in the desert?" She answered, "I'm running away from Sarai." {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} ⁹The angel said to her, "Go back and submit to Sarai. ¹⁰I'll give you more descendants than you can count.

{42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26}

¹¹"You are pregnant, you will have a son, and you are to name him Ishmael (meaning 'God hears') because the LORD has heard about your misery. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ¹²He will be like a wild, untamed donkey. He will be against everyone, and everyone will be against him. Though living near his brothers, he will be at odds with them."

¹³Hagar named the LORD, "You are the God who sees me." This was because she had seen Him and lived to tell about it. ¹⁴Later the people called the well near her Beer Lahai Roi, which means "The Well of the Living God Who Sees Me." It is located between Kadesh and Bered. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹⁵Hagar gave birth to a son and named him Ishmael. ¹⁶At that time Abram was 86 years old. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

Hagar prayed to God because she recognized that God was with her and God saw all that happened to her. Circumstances had worked against her, but she knew that God saw what happened. Hagar had not originally tried to win the love of Abraham away from Sarah, her master. So Hagar called on God who saw all the wrong done to her. Lord, see me when people treat me wrong, and see me when I am punished for something I haven't done. Lord, see me when others despitefully use me. Protect me when I can't protect myself from dangers I see, and from dangers I can't see. Amen.

Genesis 17 Abram Is Renamed Abraham

¹Thirteen years later, when Abram was 99, the LORD said to him, "I am El Shaddai (God Almighty). I want you to serve Me and live a blameless life. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} ²I will keep My promise and give you many descendants."

When Abraham was 99 years old, God appeared to Abram and said, "I am El Shaddai (God Almighty)" (17:1). So learn two things in your walk with God. God will show Himself to you when you worship Him and do His will, just as He did to Abraham. Second, when God has a special task for you to do, He will show you something about Himself that you may not have known previously. Lord, what do You want me to do today? Or what do You want me to do for the rest of my life? I wait for an answer in Your presence. I will worship as I wait, because I know You manifest Yourself to those who worship You. Amen.

³As Abram bowed down before the Lord, God continued, {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ⁴"I promise to make you the ancestor of many nations. ⁵So I am changing your name from Abram (meaning 'Exalted Father') to Abraham (meaning 'Father of Nations'). {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ⁶Your many descendants will become many nations, and some of your offspring will even be kings. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

⁷My promise to you will last forever. It will be between us and between Me and your descendants for many generations to come. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ⁸I will give the land of Canaan to you and your descendants. And I will be their God." {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2}

God reaffirmed His covenant to Abraham (first revealed in 12:2, 3). Abraham was to have a son by Sarah, his wife. This son— Isaac—would be the one through whom God would bless the world. (The Jews would be the source of the Scriptures, the Messiah, and the people of God.) In obedience, Abraham was to be circumcised and all his male children and servants (17:10-14). This was to be a sign of separation from the unsaved world. Lord, I will be baptized to show the difference between me and those who will not believe nor identify with Your death, burial, and resurrection. I will often drink the cup of communion and eat the broken bread to remind me of my allegiance to you. Amen.

⁹God continued, "Your part in this contract and that of your descendants is to obey Me. ¹⁰One of the things you are to do is to circumcise every male in your household. ¹¹Circumcision will be a sign of this contract. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ¹²You must circumcise every eight-day-old male born in your family and those born to slaves whom you've purchased. ¹³Even if they are not your family members, they must be circumcised. And circumcision will be a sign that I will keep

My promise forever. ¹⁴Anyone who refuses to be circumcised will not be one of My people.

¹⁵"Change your wife's name from Sarai to Sarah (meaning 'Princess'). ¹⁶I will honor and cause her to become pregnant. So honored, she will be the mother of nations. Some of her descendants will even be kings." {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26}

¹⁷Abraham again fell on his face to the ground. But he laughingly said to himself, "How can I be a father when I am 100 years old and Sarah is 90?" {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ¹⁸Then he asked God, "Why not let Ishmael be honored with Your promises?" {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

Immediately after God told Abraham his life-defining purpose, Abraham did what so many of us do. He resisted God's plan. God's plan was Isaac. We mess up the moment, when we try to substitute our selfish desires in place of God's perfect will for our life. Abraham prayed for Ishmael to have a prominent place in his life. Often we try to put our selfish ambitions right up next to God's plan for our life. Lord, sometimes I'm blinded and I pray for the wrong things that will divert me from serving You. Forgive my blindness and stupidity. Don't hear my selfish prayer. Make me do Your perfect will, and make me do it willingly. Amen.

¹⁹God responded, "You and Sarah will have a son, and you will name him Isaac (meaning 'He laughs'). The promise I made to you will also be for him and his descendants. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ²⁰I've heard what you suggested about Ishmael, and I will honor him with many descendants. In fact he will have 12 sons and they will be rulers, and he will be the head of a great nation. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ²¹But my contract will be with Isaac, who will be born next year." ²²God then finished talking with Abraham and left.

²³That very day Abraham took his son Ishmael and other males in his household and circumcised them, just as God had said for him to do. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁴When Abraham was 99, he was circumcised, and ²⁵his son Ishmael was 13. ²⁶Father and son were circumcised the same day.

²⁷All the men and boys in Abraham's household, including those born there and those bought as slaves, were circumcised.

Genesis 18 God Promises a Son to Sarah

¹One hot day as Abraham was sitting by his tent door near the trees of Mamre near Hebron, the LORD appeared to him again. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²Seeing three men there, Abraham quickly ran to meet them, and he welcomed them by bowing to the ground. ³He said, "If it pleases you, stay and ⁴let me get some water for you to wash your feet, and rest awhile in the shade. ⁵I'll get you something to eat to refresh you. And stay awhile before continuing on." They answered, "Thank you. We appreciate your kindness." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

⁶Abraham ran into his tent and said to Sarah, "Hurry and get some flour and make some bread for our guests." ⁷Then he ran to his herd, selected a calf, and told a servant to butcher it. ⁸He served the men some curds and milk and beef. While they were eating, he stood nearby. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

⁹When they asked where his wife Sarah was, he answered, "She's in the tent." ¹⁰The Lord, who was one of the three guests, said, "I will return next year, and Sarah will have a son." Sarah was listening near the tent door. {459 Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9} old, and Sarah was past the age of having children, ¹²she laughed, thinking, "With my husband and I being so old, how could I have the joy of having a baby?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹³The LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, questioning whether she could have a child? ¹⁴Nothing is too difficult or marvelous for Me. As I said, I will be back next year and Sarah will have a son." {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} ¹⁵Sarah denied having laughed, but God said she did.

¹⁶When the three left to go toward Sodom, Abraham went with them part of the way. ¹⁷The LORD said to Himself, "I'll tell Abraham what I'm going to do. ¹⁸His family will become a great nation, and other nations will be blessed because of him. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2}

Abraham's prayer represents one of the greatest examples in Scripture of intercession for people who are exposed to God's judgment. It began when God invited Abraham to stand in the gap between lost people and His judgment. This reveals Abraham's compassion for his nephew Lot (who had selfishly chosen better land, chapter 13), but it also reveals his compassion for all lost people. Lord, give me an opportunity to pray for my friends and family who are out of Your will. Amen.

¹⁹I have chosen him to teach his children and all those in his household to obey Me by doing the right thing. Then I will do for him all I have promised. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

²⁰"I have heard that the people of Sodom and Gomorrah are terribly wicked. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ²¹So I'll see if these reports are true. Then I'll know." ²²When the men started toward Sodom, the LORD stayed with Abraham. ²³Abraham asked Him, "Will you destroy good and evil people together? {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ²⁴If there are 50 good people in Sodom, will You not spare the city for their sake? {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ²⁵You wouldn't kill righteous and wicked people together, would You? I know that You, as Judge of the world, will do what is right."

Abraham based his prayers on God's character "I know that You, as Judge of the world, will do what is right" (18:25). Abraham did not base his prayers on his persistence, his faith, or his family relationship. What better prayer can we make than to base it on the character of God? "He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it" (1 Thess. 5:24). Lord, I pray for my unsaved family and friends because You love them, Jesus died for them, and You are not willing that any should perish. Amen.

²⁶The LORD answered, "I'll not destroy Sodom if 50 godly people are there."

²⁷Abraham spoke again and said, "I know I'm being bold about this, because I'm only dust and ashes, ²⁸but what if there are fewer than 50 good people in the city?" God said, "If I find 45 righteous people there, I won't destroy the city." {56 Burden-Prayer, Rom. 10:1}

Abraham kept interceding because he had a deep burden for prayer. (His burden deepened because Lot was a relative, and Abraham's interceding became intense because of God's willingness to negotiate in prayer. However, Abraham stopped interceding before God stopped answering. Lord, thank You for a "prayer burden" you've given me. Without a "burden" to express in intercession, I might give up before I get the answer I seek. Amen.

²⁹Abraham then asked, "What about 40?" God said, "If there are 40, I'll spare the city."

³⁰"Don't be angry with me, but what if 30 are there?"

[&]quot;Yes, I'll spare the city for the sake of 30 good people."

³¹Abraham spoke again. "Let me be bold once more. What if 20 are in the city?" God answered that He would spare the city if 20 good people were in it.

³²Abraham dared ask one more question. "What if there are 10 good people in Sodom?" God responded that for 10 He would spare the city. {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8} ³³Then the LORD left, and Abraham returned home.

Abraham began to intercede because God gave him the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of lost people. Abraham asked God to withhold judgment if 50 righteous, then 45, 40, 30, 20, or 10 were found in Sodom. This prayer interchange shows as much about God's heart as it does about Abraham's persistence. When we struggle in prayer, we intercede against our tendency to give up, and against satan's resistance, and against God's nature to judge sin. Lord, I pray for unsaved family and friends to be saved. I pray for the unsaved to come under the shelter of Your grace before judgment comes. Amen.

Genesis 19 Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

¹When the two angels who had visited Abraham arrived in Sodom in the evening, Lot was sitting in the city's gateway. When he saw them, he got up and bowed to the ground to welcome them. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} ²He urged them to go with him to his home, to wash their feet, to spend the night there as his guests, and then be on their way in the morning. They said, "Thanks, but we'll sleep here in the city square." {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ³But Lot insisted, so they went to his house. He cooked a meal for them, including some freshly baked bread. {461 Stir Up Your Spiritual Gift-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:6}

⁴As the two were getting ready for bed, every man in Sodom surrounded Lot's house and ⁵yelled, "Where are the two visitors of yours? Bring them out so we can have sex with them." {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2}

⁶⁻⁷Lot went outside and said, "Don't do such a wicked thing. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ⁸I have two daughters who are not married. You can do with them what you want. But don't do anything to these men because they are my guests." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

"They responded, "Get out of our way. Who are you to tell us what to do? We'll do worse things to you than we will to these two men." They kept pressing him and started to break down his door. {148 Expedient-Prayer, Est. 4:16}

¹⁰Then the two angels pulled Lot in and shut the door. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} ¹¹Then they struck all these men of Sodom with blindness. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹²The two men said to Lot, "If you have any other relatives here in Sodom, get them out of here. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} ¹³Why? Because God has sent us to destroy the city since it is so sinful." {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁴When Lot told his daughters' fiancés to hurry and leave because God was going to destroy the city, they thought he was joking. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} ¹⁵At dawn the angels told Lot to hurry and take his wife and two daughters and leave, because if they didn't they would be killed. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} ¹⁶Lot hesitated, so the two angels took him, his wife, and his two daughters by the hand and led them out of the city. Obviously the Lord was being merciful to them. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} ¹⁷Outside the city the angels urged them, "Run for your lives, and don't look back or stop anywhere. Run to the mountains." ¹⁸Lot said, "You have been kind to us, but we don't want to go to the mountains. ¹⁹We'll die if we try to get there. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} 20Let us go to a nearby small town. We can be safe there."

God planned to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah, but Lot couldn't believe God would do it. Instead of running for his life he hesitated (19:16), and the angels had to drag him away (19:16). Then Lot didn't want to escape to the mountains. He wanted to go to another town. Have you ever resisted God in prayer? It's an oxymoron to say, "Not so, Lord." If He is your Lord, you can't tell Him "No!" If you call Him Lord, then He must control every part of your life. Lord, forgive me when I resist Your plan for my life. I yield again to You; Your will be done. I yield to You for this day, do Your will in my life today. Amen.

²¹An angel said, "Okay. Go there. I won't destroy that town. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} ²²But be quick about it." (The town is called Zoar, meaning "Small.") {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9}

²³When they reached Zoar, the sun was coming up. ²⁴The Lord sent down burning sulfur from the sky on Sodom and Gomorrah. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁵In this way God destroyed these cities and everyone in them, as well as the land and the crops. ²⁶But Lot's wife disobeyed by looking back, and she turned into a pile of salt. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62}

Why did the angels tell Lot, "Run for your lives, and don't look back"? (19:17). Because looking back is the first step toward going back. Also if you look back, it means your heart is back there. Your look reflects who you really are and where you really want to be. So what happened? Lot's wife looked back. She didn't want to go back to Sodom; she was still there. Taking a drunk person out of the tavern doesn't make him sober; he won't be sober until you take the tavern out of him. Lord, thank You for saving me and taking me away from sin; but do a sanctifying work in me. Take a desire for sin out of me. Amen.

²⁷The next morning when Abraham got up, he went to the place where he had stood before the LORD. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁸As he looked southeast, he saw pillars of black smoke rising from that area. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6}

²⁹Remembering what He had told Abraham, God brought Lot out of Sodom safely.

³⁰Afraid of the people of Zoar, Lot went with his daughters to live in a cave. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} ³¹One day Lot's older daughter said to her sister, "No man is around for us to marry. ³²So let's get Dad drunk and then sleep with him. By having children that way we can preserve our family line."

³³So they got him drunk, and the older daughter slept with him, and he was unaware of what was going on. ³⁴Then the older daughter said, "Let's get him drunk again and you go to bed with him." {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ³⁵The next day they got him drunk again, and the younger daughter lay with him, and he knew nothing about it.

³⁶Both girls became pregnant. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ³⁷The older daughter named her son Moab, who is the father of the Moabites. ³⁸The younger daughter had a son and named him Ben-Ammi, the father of the Ammonites.

Genesis 20 Abraham Deceives Abimelech

¹Abraham moved from Hebron to the Southern Desert and lived in Gerar between Kadesh and Shur. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} ²While there he told everyone that his wife was his sister. Hearing this, Abimelech brought Sarah to his palace.

Apparently Abraham didn't deal completely with his sin of lying. When he went to Egypt, he told Sarah to say, "You are my sister" (12:13). God judged Pharaoh because he took Sarah to be his wife. Now years later, the same sin of lying cropped up. Abraham told Abimelech, King of Gerer, "She is my sister" (20:2). When you voice the prayer of crucifixion, you put to death the sin that plagues you. Didn't Paul say, "Those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires" (Gal. 5:24)? Lord, I'm not perfect, and I have an old sin nature; I lay every sin before You. Forgive me, cleanse me, and take away my bent to sinning. I yield completely to You; I will not go back to my old sin that I did before. Amen.

³Then God told Abimelech in a dream that Sarah was married and that because he took her into his harem he would die. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

⁴Abimelech hadn't slept with her, so he said, "God, don't kill me. Our nation is innocent. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} ⁵Abraham and Sarah both told me she is his sister. I've done nothing wrong." {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ⁶God responded, "I know you didn't. I kept you from sinning by not letting you touch her. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ⁷So send her back to her husband. He is a prophet and he will pray for you. But if you don't, you and your people will all die." {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

*When Abimelech told his palace officials what had happened, they were afraid. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

Then Abimelech told Abraham, "Think of what you have done. What have I done to you to make my nation guilty? {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

When we've been "caught" in a sin, we don't feel like intercession, nor do we feel spiritual enough to touch God. But it's expedient to pray to reverse a crisis we've caused. All we want to do after we've been caught is ask for forgiveness, and beg God for cleansing. Abraham must have been embarrassed when Abimelech caught him in a lie. When we're caught in sin, as was Abraham, we don't feel like praying, but Abraham needed to pray, and his prayer needed to get results. "So Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female servant" (20:17). Lord, forgive me when I sin ignorantly, and forgive me when I sin with my eyes wide open. Cleanse me and restore me to "praying ground." Listen to me and hear my intercession. Amen.

¹⁰Why did you do this?" {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31}

home in Ur, I told her, 'If you really love me, say that I am your brother.'" {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

¹⁴Abimelech gave Abraham sheep, cattle, and slaves, and then he sent Sarah back to him. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} ¹⁵Abimelech told Abraham that he could live anywhere in his kingdom he'd like. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ¹⁶He then told Sarah he was giving Abraham a thousand shekels of silver to show they had done nothing wrong. {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7} ¹⁷Abraham prayed that God would allow Abimelech and his slaves to start having children again. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ¹⁸That is because when Abimelech took in Sarah, God kept them from having children. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

Abraham had to pray even when he didn't feel like praying, and probably wasn't on "praying ground." Abraham's sin had broken his fellowship with God. He had to first get back in fellowship with God, then he could intercede for Abimelech. Lord, make me pray when it's the right thing to do. Even when I don't feel like praying and I'm not spiritually able to pray, give me a burden to pray and make me do it. Amen.

Genesis 21 The Birth of Isaac

¹Then the LORD did what He had promised Sarah. ²Abraham was old, but Sarah

¹¹Abraham responded, "I didn't think any of you were godly people, and I was afraid that someone would kill me to get my wife. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ¹²She really is my sister, that is, she is my half-sister, because we have the same father but different mothers. ¹³When we left our got pregnant, just as God had said. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ³Abraham named him Isaac, and ⁴Abraham circumcised Isaac when Isaac was eight days old, just as God had told him to do. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

⁵On Isaac's birthdate Abraham was 100 years old.

⁶Sarah said, "God has made me laugh in unbelief, but people who hear this will laugh with me in joy. {396 Rejoicing for Others-Prayer, Phil. 1:4} ⁷Whoever thought Abraham and I would have children? But in his old age I have given my husband a son." {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20}

⁸When Isaac was weaned, Abraham had a big party to celebrate. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ⁹At the party Ishmael was making fun of Isaac, and so Sarah told Abraham to get rid of Hagar and her son. She said, "I don't want her to inherit anything of our estate. ¹⁰It should all go to Isaac."

¹¹This upset Abraham because Ishmael was his son too. ¹²But God said, "Listen to Sarah because My promises will be fulfilled through Isaac.

Sometimes your spouse may tell you what to pray for, and you must listen to your mate because you've been wrong. Doesn't God give us a mate to help us walk with God? Abraham was arguing for Ishmael, his other son. This became a "my son versus your son" argument. God didn't try to make both feel good, like a lawyer or judge might try to mediate a marriage argument today. Lord,

I am very selfish and I usually think I am right. When I'm wrong, teach me to listen to my spouse. Teach me to pray for the things that are right. Amen.

¹³I'll also make Ishmael, your son, into a great nation." {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

¹⁴Abraham gave Hagar some food and water, and put them on her shoulders and sent them off. She wandered in the desert of Beersheba. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ¹⁵When their water was gone, she put Ishmael under a bush for some shade. ¹⁶And she went off because she couldn't bear to watch him die. She sobbed bitterly. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4}

¹⁷Hearing her crying, God asked Hagar, "What is wrong? Don't be afraid. I've heard the boy crying. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹⁸So lift him up because I will make of him a great nation." ¹⁹Then she saw a well, and she filled her canteen with water and gave her son a drink. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

²⁰God was with the boy, and he grew up in the desert and was good with bows and arrows. ²¹While they were living in the desert of Paran, Hagar got him a wife from Egypt.

²²Abimelech and his army commander Phicol said to Abraham, "Obviously God helps you in everything. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ²³Now promise me you won't cheat me and my descendants in any way. Be kind to me just as I have been kind to you." ²⁴Abraham said, "I will." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

²⁵Then Abraham complained that Abimelech's servants had taken over one of his wells. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²⁶Abimelech said, "I have no idea who did this. I never heard about this till now." ²⁷Then Abraham took some sheep and cattle to Abimelech to seal their agreement. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

²⁹Abimelech asked why he did that. ³⁰Abraham said, "Please accept these lambs as proof that I dug this well." {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ³¹That place was called Beersheba (meaning "Well of Oath") because they agreed by oath about the well.

Sometimes we can't pray because we don't know the plans of God. We can't pray if God hasn't shown us the things or events that concern us. Abraham had an altercation with Abimelech over water rights (21:25). God had promised to give Abraham the Promised Land, so he went to the very edge of the Promised Land and dug a well. Beersheba was an oasis on the edge of the desert. Abimelech, king of the Philistines, claimed the well and the two men came to an agreement about the well (21:32). Abraham planted a tree of ownership (I've done that at almost every house where I've ever lived.) Then Abraham called him The Everlasting God, El Olam. Lord, You know the things I don't know, so guide my life today. Because You know what will happen in the future, I yield to Your control of my life. Amen.

³²Abimelech and Phicol went home to the land of the Philistines. ³³Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba and worshiped the Lord, the eternal God.

³⁴And Abraham stayed in Philistine country a long time.

Genesis 22 Abraham's Faith Is Tested

¹God planned to test Abraham. So when God called him by name, Abraham replied, "I'm here." {491 Trial-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7} ²God told him, "Take your son Isaac whom I know you love and go to the Moriah district and sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on the mountain I'll tell you."

God wanted to test Abraham, so He called Abraham by his name. Abraham's answer, "Here I am," (22:1) shows Abraham recognized God's voice and was ready to serve the Lord. Would you recognize God's voice if He called, and how quickly would you be ready to answer when God calls? Lord, speak for your servant is ready to serve You. Forgive me for having so many distractions in my life that I missed Your call in my life in the past. Amen.

³The next morning Abraham saddled his donkey and took Isaac and two servants. After cutting wood for the sacrifice, they left. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴On the third day of their trip Abraham saw the place in the distance. ⁵He told his servants to wait with the donkey while he and Isaac would go worship there, and he said, 'We'll be back.'" {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

⁶Abraham put the wood on Isaac's shoulders, and he took the fire and the knife. As they walked along, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁷Isaac asked, "Father, we have the wood and fire, but where is the lamb?" ⁸Abraham responded, "God will provide a lamb." So they continued on.

When Abraham said, "God will provide a lamb" (22:8), this pictured God the Father offering His Son Jesus as a lamb sacrificed for our sins. When we don't understand God, or even doubt Him, God will provide. Lord, I trust You to provide for all my needs. Amen.

⁹When they got to the place God had told them, Abraham built an altar, put the wood on it, and lay his son on the wood. ¹⁰As he started to slay his son, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹¹the angel of the LORD shouted, "Abraham! Abraham!" "I'm here."

God called Abraham when he was about to plunge the knife into Isaac. Again God showed a ram caught by his horns in a thicket. God is Jehovah-Jireh, the LORD who provides. Lord, thank You for providing for my needs in the past. I trust You to provide for me in the future. Amen.

¹²"Don't hurt your son. Now I know that you obey Me because you were willing to offer to Me even your own son." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

¹³When Abraham looked up, he saw a ram caught by its horns in a bush. So he got the ram and sacrificed it in place of his son. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁴Abraham called that place "The LORD Will Provide." So people say, "On the mountain the LORD will provide." {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

¹⁵Again the angel of the LORD spoke to Abraham, saying, {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ^{16α}Since you willingly offered your son, ¹⁷I will bless you and give you so many descendants that they will be numerous like the stars and the sand. They will defeat their enemies, taking over their cities. ¹⁸Because you have obeyed Me, your descendants will be a blessing to many nations." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

¹⁹They went back to the two servants, and then they all went home to Beersheba. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²⁰Later Abraham learned that his sister-in-law Milcah and his brother Nahor had eight sons: ²¹Uz, Buz, Kemuel, ²²Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel. ²³Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. ²⁴Nahor had four other sons by his concubine Reumah: Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

Genesis 23 The Death and Burial of Sarah

¹When Sarah was 127, ²she died in Hebron in Canaan. Abraham mourned and wept for her.

The Bible says, "There is a time to weep" (Eccl. 3:4). Abraham had spent most of his adult life with Sarah, then she died first. He appropriately mourned (inwardly) and wept (outwardly), which is only natural. Some mistakenly say that when a loved one dies, we should trust God and not mourn or weep. But when that special person who is a part of our life is gone, we're left with a hole. It's all right to weep and mourn, as Abraham did. Lord, when I weep at funerals, it's because of my human love for that person. It doesn't mean I don't trust You to have taken them to heaven, nor does it mean I don't trust You to work through the details after their death. I have great confidence in death because I know only You determine the date when any of us will die. Amen.

³Then he went to the Hittite leaders and said, ⁴"As a foreigner in your land, I don't own any property where I can bury my wife. So sell me some land." ⁵They said, ⁶"You are an honored person. So bury your wife in one of our best grave sites. No one of us would refuse you such a place." {247 Intention-Praying, Rom. 15:24, 25}

⁷Abraham bowed down ⁸and said, "Since you are so cooperative, please ask Ephron ⁹to sell me the cave of Machpelah, which is in the end of his field. Tell him I'll pay the full price." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ¹⁰Ephron was sitting nearby and he said to Abraham, ¹¹"I'll give you not only the cave but also the whole field where the cave is.

My people are witnesses of what I just said, so you can go bury your dead."

¹²Abraham bowed down again, ¹³and he said to Ephron in the presence of many witnesses, "I'm willing to pay the full price of the field. So please accept my offer so I can bury my dead." {35 Benediction-Bless Prayer, Num. 6:24-26} ¹⁴Ephron answered, ¹⁵"The land is worth 400 shekels, but that's nothing between friends. So you are free to bury your dead."

¹⁶Abraham gave him 400 shekels of silver. ¹⁷So the cave and the field near Mamre were sold ¹⁸to Abraham as the Hittites looked on. ¹⁹Abraham buried Sarah in the cave near Mamre (at Hebron in Canaan). ²⁰The Hittites deeded the field and the cave to Abraham as a burial site for his wife.

After a time of mourning and weeping, "Abraham stood up from before his dead" (23:3, KJV). You can't mourn and weep forever; you can't stay in the cemetery forever. You must turn your back to the grave and walk away to face your life. Life goes on, and so must you. That doesn't mean you can't occasionally visit their grave you can—but they are with the Lord (John 14:1-3). So, live in the present without them, knowing God who controls the hour of our death, took them at the right time. Lord, I will look beyond the grave to the challenge of my life. I will serve You as diligently after their death as I did before when they were alive. Amen.

Genesis 24 A Bride for Isaac

¹Abraham was a very old man. The LORD had blessed him abundantly. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ²One day he said to his top servant, ³"Promise me, in the name of the LORD, the God of heaven and earth, that you will not get one of these local Canaanite girls as a wife for Isaac. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ⁴Go to my homeland and get him a bride there." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

⁵The servant said, "But what if she doesn't want to make the move? Should I then take Isaac there to look for a wife?" {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

6"No, don't do that," Abraham said. 7"The LORD, the God of heaven who brought me here promised me He would give this land to my descendants. So He'll send an angel to help find a daughter-in-law for me. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} 8If she doesn't want to move back here, then you are under no further obligation. Just don't take my son there." 9The servant then assured Abraham he would follow his instructions. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

¹⁰The servant loaded 10 of Abraham's camels with gifts, and set out for the town in northern Syria where Abraham's brother Nahor lived. ¹¹Late afternoon he had the camels kneel down by the city well. ¹²He prayed "LORD, God of Abraham, help me succeed. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

The servant who was sent to find a wife for Isaac was probably Eliezer. He had an almost impossible task to find a girl from the right family, when he didn't know anyone in northern Syria, and he had to find the right girl to be the mother of God's people. Eliezer prayed that God would guide him in this matter. In the same way we should pray for God's guidance when we have special tasks, especially tasks when we don't know how or where to get the task done. Lord, guide me when I don't know where to go. Even before I get lost, find a correct path for me to go even when I don't know what to do; help me solve my problems. I trust You to be my guide. Amen.

¹³As I'm standing by this well, ¹⁴may it be that when I ask one of the girls for a drink, and she offers to give my camels water too, let her be the one for Isaac." {79 Conditional-Prayer Promise, 2 Chron. 7:14} ¹⁵While he was still praying, Rebekah came with her water jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel, son of Abraham's brother Nahor and his wife Milcah. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} ¹6She was very beautiful. She went to the well and filled her jar. When she came back, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹⁷Abraham's servant said, "May I have a drink of water?" {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} 18She said, "Sure," and she gave him a drink from her water jar.

¹⁹Then she said, "I'll get water for your camels too." ²⁰She ran back to the well and drew water for his camels. ²¹Without

saying anything, the servant watched her to see if she was the one God had chosen. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

²²Then he gave her a nose ring and two four-ounce gold bracelets. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ²³He asked her, "Who is your father? And do you have room for me and my men to stay overnight?" ²⁴She said, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, and my grandparents are Milcah and Nahor. ²⁵We have plenty of straw and food for your animals, and room for you to spend the night." ²⁶The servant bowed and prayed, {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} ²⁷"Praise to the Lord, who is kind and faithful. You led me directly to my master's relatives." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

²⁸The girl ran home and told her family what had happened. ²⁹Her brother Laban rushed out to see the man at the spring. ³⁰Seeing the nose ring and bracelets on his sister, and hearing her story, Laban found him with his camels. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} ³¹He said, "No need to stay out here. A room is ready for you; there is also a place for your camels."

³²Abraham's servant went home with Laban, and the camels were unloaded and straw and food were given to them. And Laban had water brought to the men so they could wash their feet. ³³When supper was served, the servant said, "Before I eat, let me tell you why I've come." Laban said, "Okay." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ³⁴He said, "I am Abraham's servant. ³⁵The Lord has blessed him greatly, and he is wealthy, with many sheep, goats, camels, and donkeys, lots of silver and gold, and many servants. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ³⁶His wife Sarah gave birth to a son when she was very old. ³⁷My master made me promise to get a wife for his son not from the Canaanites, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ³⁸but from his father's family. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9}

³⁹"I asked him, 'What if she won't come back with me?' ⁴⁰He said, 'She will. God will send an angel and make your journey successful. ⁴¹But if she doesn't agree to go with you, you have no further obligation.' ⁴²"So at the well I asked God to make my journey a success. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ⁴³I said to the Lord, 'If when a girl comes to get water ⁴⁴and she offers water to me and for my camels, let her be the one for my master's son.'

Similar to Gideon putting out a fleece (Judg. 6), Eliezer put out a "fleece" by praying that if he asked a young virgin girl for water she would volunteer to water his camels. Some say we can put conditions on our prayers to prove that God is answering our requests. Others say we can't use a fleece because God guides us through Scripture. Also, they say a fleece is tempting God (Jer. 1:13). The answer happened just as Eliezer prayed. Lord, when I pray for guidance, I will trust You to lead me. Show me what to do and go before me to guide me to the right path I should take. Amen.

⁴⁵"While I was still praying, Rebekah came and I asked her for a drink. ⁴⁶She did it quickly, and she offered water to my camels too!

⁴⁷"I asked her who her father was, and she said Bethuel was her father and her grand-parents were Milcah and Nahor. I gave her a nose ring and bracelets. ⁴⁸Then I bowed and praised the Lord for leading me to my master's relatives. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ⁴⁹So will you be kind to my master? If you will not give me Rebekah, let me know, so I can plan my next steps." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

⁵⁰Laban and his father Bethuel said, "The LORD has done this, so what can we say? {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ⁵¹Take Rebekah and let her marry your master's son. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ⁵²The servant bowed before the LORD. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ⁵³Then he gave jewelry and clothing to Rebekah, and expensive items to Laban and her mother.

⁵⁴Then they ate supper and the servants and his men stayed overnight. In the morning as they were ready to leave, {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ⁵⁵⁻⁵⁶Laban and her mother suggested they stay 10 days before going away. {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} ⁵⁷They said, "Well, let's ask Rebekah what she thinks." ⁵⁸So they did, and she said she was willing to go. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

⁵⁹So Rebekah and one old family servant left with Abraham's servant and his men. ⁶⁰Her family blessed her and prayed that she would have many descendants and that they would defeat their enemies. ⁶¹Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19 ⁶¹When Rebekah and her maids got ready to travel, they mounted their camels and left. {368 Prayer-Excursion Prayer, Ps. 137:1-4}

62 Isaac was living in the Southern Desert near Beer Lahai Roi. {302 Meditation-Prayer, Josh. 1:9} 63 One evening when he was out in the field, he saw camels in the distance. 64 When Rebekah saw him, she asked who he was. 65 The servant said, "He is my master." So she covered her face with her veil. 66 The servant told Isaac everything that had happened with Rebekah. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1, 8} 67 So he took her into his mother's tent and married her. He loved her very much, and she was a comfort to him in the loss of his mother Sarah. {459 Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9}

Genesis 25 The Death of Abraham, and Esau Sold His Birthright to Jacob

¹Abraham married another wife, named Keturah. ²She had Zamram, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. ³Jokshan had two sons, Sheba and Dedan, and Dedan's descendants were the Asshurites, the Letushites, and the Leumnites. ⁴Midian had five sons: Ephah, Epher, Hanock, Abida, and Eldaah. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

⁵Abraham left everything to Isaac. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ⁶But while still alive he gave gifts to the sons of Hagar and Keturah and sent them off to the East.

⁷Dying at the age of 175, ⁸Abraham was an old man who had lived a full life. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

When it comes to money, houses, and "stuff," "Abraham left everything" (25:5). And we, like Abraham, will leave it all when we die. Lord, I surrender all I have to You and Your use, because I'll surrender it when I die. When he died, he was "full of years" (25:8, KJV), that is, he had filled every year of his life. Isn't that the way to live, that is, to live fully? Lord, I want to live each year fully until I go home to be with You.

After Abraham died, God blessed his son Isaac (25:11). The greatest compliment to our life is that our children live for God, just as we lived. Lord, may my children live for You, just the way I lived for You, but may they go beyond anything I did. May they do it better and with Your blessing. Amen.

⁹Isaac and Ishmael buried him with Sarah in the cave of Machpelah near Mamre, ¹⁰which was in the field he bought from Zohar. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2} ¹¹Then God richly blessed Isaac, who was living near Beer Lahai Roi in the Southern Desert. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

¹²The following is the list of the descendants of Ishmael, born to Hagar the Egyptian. ¹³Ishmael had 12 sons: Nebaioth, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, ¹⁴Mishma, Dumah, Massa, ¹⁵Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁶These 12 were the founders of tribes, each with a village named after him. ¹⁷Ishmael died at the age of 137. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁸Ishmael's sons settled from Havilah to Shur, near Egypt's border. And they were constantly fighting each other.

¹⁹The following is the list of Isaac's sons. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²⁰Isaac was 40 when he married Rebekah, Laban's sister from northern Syria. ²¹Like her mother-in-law Sarah, Rebekah could not have children. But when Isaac prayed for her, she got pregnant. {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22}

When Isaac prayed that the Lord would give his wife Rebekah children, the Lord answered and she got pregnant. Rebekah had twins who struggled in her womb. This shows a mother can pray about her pregnancy. Lord, I pray for healthy babies, and for their salvation and growth as Your children. Lord, You give life, so I receive my children from Your hand. Amen.

²²The twins were struggling with each other in her womb, and wondering why, she asked the LORD. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²³⁻²⁴He said, "They will become two nations. The descendants of the younger will be stronger, and the descendants of the older will serve the younger." {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4}

²⁵The first of the twins had reddish hair, so he was named Esau (sounds like "hairy"). ²⁶When his brother was born, he was holding Esau's heel, so he was named Jacob (sounds like "heel"). Isaac was 60 years old at the time.

²⁷When they grew up, Esau became a hunter, enjoying the outdoors, but Jacob was quieter and liked the indoors. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} ²⁸Isaac favored Esau and liked the wild game he brought home, but Rebekah favored Jacob.

Even though Isaac and Rebekah prayed for their sons, each one favored one boy over the other. Did one parent's partiality over the other create animosity between the twins, or did a sin's problem in the boys cause problems between the parents? We don't know the answer for sure, but we do know Jacob tricked Esau out of his spiritual birthright. Lord, keep me from partiality toward anyone, and give me an equal love for all my children, and help me show it equally. Amen.

²⁹One day when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came home very hungry. ³⁰He urged Jacob to give him some red stew quickly. (Esau was also called Edom which means "red.") {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} ³¹Jacob said, "Okay, but first give me your rights as the firstborn son." ³²Esau said, "I'm dying, so the birthright won't do me any good." ³³Jacob insisted that Esau promise him his birthright. So Esau did. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ³⁴Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and lentil stew. And Esau ate and left, with no concern for his having sold his rights as the firstborn.

Genesis 26 Isaac Deceives Abimelech

¹A severe famine struck the land just as it had years earlier in Abraham's time. Like his father, Isaac went to Abimelech in Gerar. ²The Lord had told Isaac, "Don't go to Egypt, but stay here. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³I will be with you and bless you, and I will give this land to you and your descendants just as I promised Abraham. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ⁴Your descendants will be as numerous as the stars, and they will be a blessing to many nations, ⁵because Abraham obeyed what I told him to do." ⁶So Isaac stayed in Gerar.

⁷When people asked him about Rebekah, he, like his dad, said, "She is my sister." (Actually she was his first cousin, once removed.) He thought that because of her beauty someone might kill him in order to get her. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} 8Later Abimelech looked out a window and saw Isaac hugging Rebekah. ⁹Abimelech called Isaac in and said, "She is obviously your wife. Why did you lie about her?" Isaac answered, "Because I thought someone might kill me to get her." {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹⁰Abimelech exclaimed, "But if someone slept with her, our entire nation would be guilty." {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} ¹¹So Abimelech warned his people that if anyone harmed Isaac or Rebekah, he would be executed.

¹²Isaac had a great crop. He harvested a hundred times as much as what he planted. {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} ¹³He continued to increase in wealth. ¹⁴The Philistines were envious of all his flocks and herds and servants. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4}

Abimelech, king of the Philistines, became hostile toward Isaac: (1) because of Isaac's sin (26:7-11), (2) because of Abimelech's greed over Isaac's prosperity (26:12-14), and (3) because Isaac could successfully dig for water (26:15-22). In all their bitterness Isaac did not attack or argue with Abimelech, Isaac simply moved away. As a result, "the Lord appeared to him" (26:24). Lord, teach me to pray for those who hate me or covet my belongings. Protect me from their threats and/or dangers. Change their attitude toward me. May my testimony change their attitude toward You. Amen.

¹⁵To get back at him, the Philistines filled up the wells Isaac's father's servants had dug. ¹⁶Abimelech finally told Isaac to leave because he had become too wealthy and influential to stay there.

¹⁷Relocating in the Gerar Valley, ¹⁸Isaac reopened his father's wells that had been stopped up by the Philistines, and he gave them the same names his father gave them. {531 Well-Digging Prayer, Ps. 84:6}

¹⁹When Isaac's men dug another well, ²⁰local men argued with them that the water was theirs. Isaac named the well Esek (meaning "Quarrel"). ²¹When yet another well was dug, the men argued over that too. So Isaac named it Sitnah (meaning "Opposition"). {531 Well-Digging Prayer, Ps. 84:6} ²²When they dug another well elsewhere, no one argued about it, so Isaac named it Rehoboth (meaning "Room"). That's because Isaac said, "The LORD has given us room so we can survive here." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

²³After Isaac moved on to Beersheba, ²⁴the Lord appeared to him one night and said, "You have no need to be afraid, because I, the God your father worshiped, will bless you and give you many descendants." {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} ²⁵Isaac built an altar there and proclaimed the LORD's name. Then he settled there, and his servants dug another well. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

Because of Isaac's tolerance to Abimelech, "God reassured Isaac that the Abrahamic agreement would extend to him. Did Isaac see the Shekinah glory cloud, or God in the fire of a bush that didn't burn up? Maybe it was the atmospheric presence of God when Isaac heard the audible voice of God. When Isaac heard God speaking, he built an altar there (26:25). When God comes, we must worship Him. Lord, I will worship You often, especially when You speak to me through the Scriptures, or when I realize You have blessed me in a special way. Amen.

²⁶Isaac was surprised to be visited by Abimelech along with his adviser Ahuzzath and his army commander Phicol. ²⁷He asked them why they came since they had sent him away. ²⁸They said, "We realize the LORD is with you, so we would like to make a treaty with you {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²⁹that you won't harm us just as

we didn't harm you." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

³⁰Isaac put on a big feast for them, and everyone had a lot to eat and drink. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ³¹The next morning they agreed to a peace treaty, and the men went on their way. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

³²That same day Isaac's servants struck water again. {531 Well-Digging Prayer, Ps. 84:6} ³³He called it Shibah (meaning "Oath" or "Seven").

When we put God first in our lives, God will reinforce our commitment to Him with His special blessing. When Isaac refused to fight Abimelech—and Isaac worshiped, then the servants found water that same day (26:25, 32). Lord, I will put You first in my life because it's the biblical thing to do. If you give me a blessing, I will thank You for it. If I don't receive something special, I will still thank You for all I possess. To know You intimately is a blessing more and above any tangible thing I could receive. Amen.

³⁴At age 40 Esau married two women: Judith and Basemath, both Hittites. ³⁵This made Isaac and Rebekah very unhappy. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30}

Genesis 27 Jacob Steals Esau's Blessing

¹When Isaac was old and blind, he asked for his older son Esau to come see him. Esau said, "I'm here." ²Isaac said, "I'm old and might die any day now. {99

Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³So get your bow and arrow and hunt some wild game. ⁴Prepare it the way I like it, and bring it to me and I will bless you before I die." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ⁵Rebekah had heard this conversation. So when Esau left, ⁶Rebekah told Jacob that she overheard Isaac say to Esau, ⁷"Bring me some tasty wild game so I can eat and bless you before I die." ⁸Rebekah then said to Jacob, "Here's what I want you to do.

Previously Jacob tricked Esau out of the birthright (the spiritual headship of the family), and Jacob stole from Esau the blessing (the financial inheritance of the family). Thus Esau fulfilled the prophecy, "The older will serve the younger" (25:23). To bless someone meant to add value to their lives. Thus Jacob received both spiritual and financial fulfillment. Lord, I want to be blessed by You in every area of my life. Add value to all I do, and add value to all I am. Amen.

⁹Bring me two young goats and I'll prepare some tasty food the way your father likes it. ¹⁰Then you take this to him, and he will give you a blessing." {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

¹¹Jacob said, "But, Mother, Esau is a hairy man and I'm not! ¹²If my father touches me, he'll know I'm trying to trick him. He would then curse me, not bless me." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹³Rebekah said, "Don't worry, Son. The curse can come on me. Just do as I say, and bring the meat to me." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁴So Jacob brought the meat to her, and she prepared some food just the way Isaac liked it. ¹⁵Rebekah then dressed Jacob in Esau's best clothes. ¹⁶She covered his hands and neck with hairy goatskins. ¹⁷Then she gave the food to Jacob to take to Isaac.

¹⁸Jacob took the food to Isaac and said, "Father." "Yes, who is it?" 19"I am Esau. I did what you told me to do. Please sit up and eat and give me your blessing." 20"How did you find it so quickly?" He said, "God helped me." 21 Isaac said, "Come here. Let me feel you so I can be sure you are Esau." ²²When Isaac touched Jacob, he said, "Your voice sounds like Jacob's, but your hands are hairy like Esau's." ²³Since Jacob's hands were hairy, Isaac was fooled into thinking Jacob was Esau. 24He asked, "Are you really Esau?" "Of course," Jacob replied. 25"Okay. Bring me some of the food you prepared, and I will give you my blessing." Jacob brought it to him and he ate it and drank some wine. ²⁶Then Isaac asked Jacob to come nearer to him so he could kiss him. ²⁷So when he did, Isaac smelled Jacob's clothes and then blessed him. He said, ²⁸ The smell of my son is like that of the fields God has blessed. May God give you rain, good harvests, and grain and wine. ²⁹May nations be subservient to you, and may you rule over your brothers and may they bow down to you. Cursed are those who curse you, and blessed are those who bless you."

³⁰As soon as Jacob left, Esau came running in. ³¹He prepared the food and then asked his father to sit up, eat, and give him a blessing. ³²Surprised, Isaac asked, "Who are you?" "I am Esau, of course." ³³Trembling, Isaac asked, "Then who brought game to me and I gave him my blessing?" ³⁴Esau then sobbed deeply, and asked Isaac to bless him too.

³⁵Isaac said, "Your brother tricked me into getting your blessing." ³⁶Esau said, "You certainly named him correctly. He is a deceiver just as his name says. In fact he cheated me twice, once by taking my birthright, and now by stealing my blessing. Can't you bless me too?"

In this chapter both parents asked their favorite child to do something sneaky. First, Isaac asked his favorite son—Esau—to prepare a venison meal so he could bless his son. God had already predicted His blessing on Jacob, but obstinate Isaac tried to bless his favorite son Esau. Rebekah overheard the conversation and asked Jacob to help her "trick" Isaac into blessing Jacob. Both parents should have yielded their favorite child to God, and sought God's will in each life. Lord, I yield my children to You, and I ask that You accomplish Your plan in their lives. Amen.

³⁷Isaac answered, "I have made him master over you, and I have made his relatives his servants, and I have promised him lots of grain and wine. So nothing is left to give to you." {381 Priority-Praying, Acts 6:4}

³⁸Esau said, "Don't you have even one blessing for me?" {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} Then Esau sobbed bitterly again. ³⁹Isaac said, "You will have a difficult life, ⁴⁰you will live by your sword, and you will be your brother's slave. But you will finally break loose from him." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

⁴¹Esau was mad at Jacob for stealing his blessing, so he said, "After my father dies, I'll kill Jacob."

When Esau found out Jacob had tricked him twice (27:36), he hated his brother and vowed to kill him. Whereas God created the family to be a place of relationship to encourage and support one another, yet when money is involved, a family will fight and kill each other. Lord, thank You for the family into which I was born. Thank You for the good things I got from my father and mother. Thank you for my brother(s) and sister(s). Help me to bless them to fulfill Your will in their lives. May I never do anything revengeful to harm them. Give me a deeper love for each of them. Amen.

⁴²When Rebekah heard about this, she told Jacob what Esau planned to do. ⁴³So she said, "Leave town, and ⁴⁴go stay with your Uncle Laban till Esau cools off. ⁴⁵Then when he is no longer angry and forgets what you did, I'll send words for you to come home. I don't want to lose both of you in one day."

⁴⁶Rebekah said to Isaac, "I'm tired of these local Hittite girls. If Jacob marries one of them, I'd prefer to die."

Genesis 28 God Calls a Deceiver to Himself

¹Isaac blessed Jacob and told him not to marry a Canaanite. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ²"Instead, go to northern Syria to your grandfather Bethuel and marry someone there. ³I pray that God will give you many descendants, and ⁴that you will possess the land God promised to Abraham." {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26}

Isaac came to his senses and blessed his son Jacob according to God's plan. Jacob was blessed by the name Almighty, which is El Shaddai. Lord, I look to You, the Almighty One, for strength to serve You, and strength to stand against evil in this world. El-Shaddai, bless me. Amen.

⁵Then Jacob went to be with his cousin Laban.

⁶⁻⁷Esau noticed that Jacob, obeying his parents, left to get a wife in northern Syria. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁸Esau realized that his father Isaac didn't like his Canaanite wives. ⁹So he married Mahalath, his cousin.

¹⁰On his way from Beersheba to Haran in Syria, ¹¹Jacob slept outdoors one night, using a stone for a pillow. ¹²In a dream he saw a ladder reaching from earth to heaven, with angels going up and down on it. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} ¹³The LORD said to Jacob, "I, the God of your grandfather and father, will give you descendants on this land where you are. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁴Your descendants will be as numerous as dust particles, living in every direction. People everywhere will be blessed because of you. ¹⁵I'll be with you and bring you back here and I won't leave you." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

Sometimes we pray because we are scared. Jacob was running scared from an angry brother who vowed to kill him. Jacob was all alone in a threatening world and his mother was not there to look out for him. Jacob was heading toward the land of his mother, probably a country he only heard about from his mother. The Lord appeared to Jacob and promised He would be with him and protect him. Lord, when I am scared, help me realize You are with me. Protect me physically and spiritually when I can't protect myself. Amen.

¹⁶Waking up, Jacob knew the LORD was with him. He said, "The Lord is in this place, and I didn't even know it. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} ¹⁷This awesome place is like being in heaven." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ¹⁸Then Jacob dedicated his stone pillow to the Lord by pouring oil on it. ¹⁹He called the place Bethel, though its earlier name was Luz.

²⁰Jacob promised the LORD, "If You will be with me on this journey, will watch over me, and will give me food and clothes, ²¹and help me return home, then You will be my God. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ²²This will be Your home, and I will return to you a tenth of everything you give me." {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

One of our greatest blessings is for God to show us His plan for our life. When we know God's will for our life, everything we do has purpose. We will plan, we will educate ourselves, we will work, and we will sacrifice to accomplish a goal in life when we know God has a plan for our life. Lord, show me Your plan for my life, I will sacrifice to accomplish it, and will work hard to do it. Bless me with a plan for my life so I may bless others. Amen.

Genesis 29 Jacob Arrives in Northern Syria

¹Jacob continued on his trip. {379 Prevailing-Prayer, Jer. 12:1} ²He saw a well with some sheep lying nearby waiting to be watered from the well. The well had a huge stone over the top, {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ³and the sheep were waiting for the shepherds to move the stone away so they could drink.

⁴When Jacob asked the shepherds where they were from, they said, "Haran." ⁵When he asked if they knew Laban, they said, "Yes." ⁶"How is he?" "He is fine, and here comes his daughter Rachel." {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ⁷Jacob said, "Since it's now afternoon, why don't you water the sheep and take them back to pasture?" ⁸They said, "It's too early. We'll wait till all the flocks are here." {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ⁹Then Rachel came with Laban's sheep, ¹⁰and when Jacob saw her and the sheep, he moved the stone from the well and watered Laban's sheep. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} ¹¹Then he kissed Rachel and cried because he was happy. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ¹²He told her he was her cousin, her aunt Rebekah's son. So she ran and told her father.

¹³Hearing this news about his nephew, Laban ran to meet Jacob and hugged and kissed him and brought him to his home. When Jacob told them everything, ¹⁴Laban was amazed that his own relative was there. About a month later {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 15Laban said, "True, you are a relative. But that doesn't mean you should work for me for nothing. What should I pay you?" {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} 16Laban had two daughters, Leah, who had dull eyes, and 17Rachel, who was shapely and a real beauty. 18Jacob was in love with Rachel, so he said, "I'll work for you seven years if you will give me Rachel for my wife." {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} 19Laban said, "It's better for you to have her than someone else, so stay here." {473 Tarrying-Prayer, Luke 24:49}

Jacob told his Uncle Laban that he would work for seven years as a dowry for the privilege of marrying Rachel. When love and vision become partners, they are powerful forces to motivate us to endure hardships and attempt the impossible. So Jacob spent seven years because of his love for Rachel and his vision for the future. Lord, deepen my love for You and give me a vision for serving

You, and I will sacrifice everything for You, and attempt the impossible for You. Amen.

²⁰So Jacob's seven years went by quickly because of his love for her. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

²¹Then Jacob told Laban that he was ready to marry Rachel. ²²Laban put on a big party. ²³But that evening he brought Leah to Jacob. ²⁴And Laban gave Zilpah as Leah's servant girl. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

²⁵In the morning Jacob was completely surprised to see Leah there. So he said to Laban, "Why have you deceived me? I worked for Rachel, not Leah." {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ²⁶Laban explained that their custom was to marry off the older daughter first. ²⁷"Of course you can have Rachel after you have spent a week with Leah." ²⁸So a week later Jacob married Rachel. {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ²⁹Laban gave Bilhah to Rachel as a servant girl. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

Jacob, the trickster, was tricked by Uncle Laban. He switched Leah for Rachel on the wedding night. Then after heated negotiations, Jacob agreed to work another seven years for Rachel (29:27). Why? Because he loved Rachel more than Leah. Don't we go through many sacrifices because of our love for our spouse, children, or someone we love? Lord, show me who/what to love, and deepen my love so I'll do more for You. But sometimes I've loved the wrong person or thing; change my heart and give me love for the right person or thing. Give me a pure love, and motivating love. May I love You first in my life and may I love you wholeheartedly. Amen.

³⁰Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah, but he had to work another seven years for Laban. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8}

³¹God gave children to Leah, but not to Rachel. Leah named her son Reuben (meaning "Look, a son") because she said, "The LORD has taken away my sorrow, and now Jacob will love me." 32She got pregnant again and said, "The LORD knows I am not loved, so He gave me this son too." {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ³³She named her son Simeon (meaning "Someone Who Hears"). 34 Again, she had a son and said, "Maybe now my husband will feel attached to me." So she named her third son Levi (meaning "Attached"). ³⁵Once more she conceived and named her son Judah (meaning "Praise") because she said, "I will praise the LORD." {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22}

Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah probably because of Rachel's good looks. But Leah had God's blessing, Leah gave birth to Judah, the son through who came Jesus the Messiah. Leah was buried next to Jacob (49:31). Rachel was buried where she died, alone beside the road to Bethlehem (35:19). Lord, sometime I've been blinded by love, and I've sought the wrong person or thing. Forgive me. Focus my heart on Your heart. Make me do right even when I love what is not Your will. May I love what You love. Amen.

Genesis 30 Jacob Works for Laban

¹When Rachel realized she wasn't having any children, she was jealous of Leah. So she said to Jacob, "If you don't give me children, I'll die." {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ²This made Jacob mad. He said, "I'm not God. So don't blame me." {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2}

Rachel was frustrated because Leah had children and she didn't. Rachel's desire was appropriate, but her motives were wrong; she was jealous of Leah (30:1). She should have directed her prayers to God (See next section when Rachel prayed inappropriately). Lord, forgive me for asking humans for the things I should ask of You. Give me a wholly focused trust in You and Your power to do the things I ask. Focus my prayers on You. Amen.

³Then Rachel said, "Sleep with my maid Bilhah. Maybe I can have a family through her." {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} ⁴So Jacob slept with Bilhah, {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ⁵and she became pregnant and had a son. ⁶Rachel named the son Dan (meaning "Justice") because she said, "God has given me justice and given me a son." {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} ⁷Then Bilhah had a second son,

{376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} *and Rachel named him Naphtali (meaning "My Struggle") because she said, "I have struggled with my sister." {545 Wrestling-Prayer, Eph. 6:10-12}

⁹Leah realized she could not have any more children, so she gave her maid Zilpah to Jacob. ¹⁰She had a son and Leah named him Gad (meaning "Luck") {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ¹¹because she said, "I am lucky to have a son." {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ¹²Then she had a second son, and named him Asher (meaning "Happy") because, ¹³as she said, "I am really happy." {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

¹⁴In the wheat harvest Reuben, Leah's oldest, found some mandrakes which people thought helped women get pregnant. He took them to his mother Leah. Rachel saw this and asked Leah for some of them. {123 Diversionary-Answer to Prayer, Mark 10:38}

Do we ever pray with wrong motives? Have we ever prayed with a jealous motive, but God hears the content of your prayer to give us what we ask, even when we had a deceitful heart? Yes! That was true of Rachel. She seemed to act like a spoiled child to get her way. "I'll let you sleep with him (Jacob) tonight in exchange for the mandrake roots" (30:15). Rachel prayed for a son and God answered her prayer. Lord, forgive me for every inappropriate prayer I've made with wrong motives. May Your will be done in my life. Look beyond the words I pray and give me Your perfect will for my life. Amen.

¹⁵But Leah objected. "You took away my husband, and now you want my son's mandrakes too!" {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} "Okay," Rachel said. "Give me some mandrakes and you can sleep with Jacob tonight." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} 16When Jacob came in, Leah told him about the arrangement. So he slept with her that night. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁷Then Leah became pregnant {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} 18 and had a fifth son whom she named Issachar (meaning "Reward") because she said; "God has rewarded me." {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7} ¹⁹Then she had a sixth son. {516 Victory over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12} ²⁰She named him Zebulun (meaning "Honor") because she said, "Because of this precious gift, my husband will now honor me." {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ²¹Later Leah had a daughter and named her Dinah. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

²²Finally God answered Rachel's prayer and {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²³enabled her to have a son. She said, "God has removed my shame." ²⁴She named him Joseph (meaning "May He Add") because she prayed, "May God add to me another son." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

²⁵Later Jacob told Uncle Laban, "I need to go back home. ²⁶Let me be on my way with my wives and children. You know I have paid for them by working for you." {156

Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} ²⁷But Laban said, "Please don't leave. A fortune-teller has told me the many blessings I'm enjoying because of you. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ²⁸Do you need a raise? Just say so, and I'll pay it." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

²⁹Jacob said, "You know I've worked hard for you and your livestock has grown as I've cared for them. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 30You didn't have much when I came, but you are well off now. So now I need to look out for my family." {348 Perception-Expectation Prayer, 1 Sam. 14:8} 31Laban then asked, "What do I owe you?" Jacob replied, "Nothing. But I have one request. As I continue working for you, {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ³²let me take from your flocks any sheep or goats that are speckled or spotted and any black lambs, and they can be my wages. 33 Then if you find any of my goats that are not speckled or spotted or any lambs that are not black, you will know I stole them." {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ³⁴Laban said, "Okay." {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 35So that day Laban separated all his speckled or spotted goats and his black lambs, and put his sons over them. ³⁶Then he separated them from Jacob by taking them away the distance of a three-day journey. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

³⁷Jacob cut branches from various trees and peeled back the bark so that the white inner stripes showed on the wood. ³⁸He placed the peeled branches near the watering troughs so the animals would see them when they came to drink. {335 Optional Answer-Prayer, Mark 10:38} ³⁹The goats mated in front of the branches, and their young were speckled and spotted. {345 Patience-Prayer, James 5:7-8} 40He took the young sheep of Laban's and had them mate only with Jacob's black sheep. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ⁴¹When the stronger females were ready to mate, Jacob made sure they would do so near the branches. ⁴²But he didn't place the branches in front of the weak animals. So the weak animals were Laban's, and the strong ones were Jacob's. ⁴³As Jacob's flocks grew large, he became wealthy with many flocks, camels, donkeys, and servants. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

God should not have blessed Jacob because he had a habit of "tricking" people to get what he wanted. His stew got him the birthright. He got the blessing from his father Isaac. Now he used questionable breeding tricks for his flocks to prosper and diminish the flocks of Laban. Why would God bless Jacob? It was not because of his deceptive ways. Instead God blessed Jacob for His own sovereign purposes which are not always understood by humans. Lord, when I've been deceptive, forgive me. Bless me according to Your sovereign purpose, and for Your sovereign glory. I don't always understand what You're doing in my life, but I submit to it. Bless me for Your glory. Amen.

Genesis 31 Jacob Runs Away from Laban

¹Jacob heard that Laban's sons were complaining that Jacob got rich off their father. ²And Laban was not as friendly toward Jacob as he had been. ³God said to Jacob, "Go back home to your relatives, and I will be with you." {522 Vow-Violation Prayer, Ps. 65:1} ⁴Jacob then told Rachel and Leah, {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} ⁵"Your father is no longer friendly toward me, but God has been with me. {296 Loving-People Prayer, James 2:8}

Two things motivated Jacob to return to his family home. First, he heard threatening rumors about his father-in-law, Laban. Second, God told Jacob to return to his homeland. God reminded Jacob, "I am the God of Bethel where you poured oil on a stone pillar and made a vow to me" (31:13). Sometimes we must be reminded of our vow to God, then immediately go about keeping our promises to God. Jacob instructed his wives and children, packed up his belongings and then left for the Promised Land. When God reminds us of a promise we made to him in the past, we must obey and immediately make preparations to do what God told us. Lord, my memory is not perfect; forgive me when I've not done anything I promised to do. My actions also are not perfect; forgive me if I have not done completely anything I promised to do. Today, I will do what You tell me to do. Amen.

'I've worked hard for your father, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 'but he kept changing my wages. However, God hasn't allowed him to harm me. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} *When he said the speckled flock would be mine, all of them were speckled. And the same was true of the spotted ones. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} 'That's how your father's sheep and goats became mine." {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1}

¹⁰⁻¹²"Once I dreamed that the angel of God told me to notice that all the male goats were either spotted or speckled. God said, 'I know what Laban has been doing to you. ¹³I am the God of Bethel, where you poured oil on a stone pillar and made a promise to me. So leave and go to your homeland.'" {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4}

¹⁴Rachel and Leah asked, "Will we not inherit anything from our father Laban's estate? ¹⁵He treats us like foreigners and he has cheated us out of our bride price. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁶The wealth God took from him belongs to us and our children." {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

¹⁷Then Jacob, his children, and wives {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ¹⁸left for Canaan with all his livestock and other property. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ¹⁹Rachel stole Laban's family idols. ²⁰Jacob didn't tell Laban he planned to leave. ²¹But he crossed the Euphrates River and headed toward Gilead. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} ²²Three days later Laban learned that Jacob had skipped town. {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} ²³So he pursued him for a week and finally caught up with him in Gilead. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ²⁴In a dream God told Laban not to say anything good or bad to Jacob. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4}

²⁵Laban and his relatives camped in Gilead near Jacob. ²⁶Then he said to Jacob, "Why have you been deceptive and run off with my daughters? ²⁷Why were you so secretive about it? If you had told me, I could have sent you off with singing and playing of musical instruments. ²⁸Foolishly you didn't even let me kiss my grandchildren and daughters good-bye. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ²⁹I could hurt you for this, but God told me to be careful what I say to you. ³⁰You went off to your homeland, but why did you steal my idols?" {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

³¹Jacob answered, "I left because I was afraid you would not let your daughters go with me. ³²If you find anyone of us has stolen your idols, then that person deserves to die. You can look, and if you find anything that belongs to you, take it." Jacob did not know Rachel had stolen the family idols. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

³³So Laban went into Jacob's and Leah's tents looking for the idols, but he found nothing. Then he went into Rachel's tent. ³⁴She had put the idols in her camel's saddle and was sitting on it. As Laban searched her tent, he found nothing. ³⁵Rachel said to her father, "Don't be mad at me for not getting up, but I'm having my period."

Laban kept on searching but could not find the idols. {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25}

³⁶All this upset Jacob and he said to Laban, "What crime have I committed? {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} ³⁷You've searched everything of mine. But if you have found anything that belongs to you, put it here in front of everyone so we can see it. {56 Burden-Prayer, Rom. 10:1}

³⁸"In the 20 years I've worked for you, your sheep and goats have not had a miscarriage, and I've never eaten one of your male sheep. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 39If a sheep or goat of yours was killed by a wild animal, I paid for it myself, whether it was killed in the daytime or at night. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} 40It was hot during the day and cold at night, and at times I couldn't sleep. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1} ⁴¹Things have been like this for 20 years. I worked for you for 14 years for your two daughters, and six more years to buy your sheep and goats, and you kept changing my wages. ⁴²If the wonderful God of my father and grandfather had not been with you, you probably would have sent me away with nothing. But God has seen how hard I've worked for you, so it's not surprising that He has rebuked you." {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28}

⁴³Laban said, "Leah and Rachel are my daughters, and their children are my grandchildren, and all these sheep are mine too. But I can't do anything about all this now. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ⁴⁴So let's make an agreement between us." {233 Impartial-Prayer, Gen.

25:22-34} ⁴⁵Jacob set up a large rock, {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 46and he told his relatives to pile up more rocks. They did and they ate there by the rock pile. {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} ⁴⁷Laban named the rock pile Yegar-Sahadutha (which means "Heap of Witness" in Aramaic), and Jacob named it Galeed (which means "Heap of Witness" in Hebrew). {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 48Laban said, "This rock pile will remind us of our agreement." And the name Galeed conveyed the same idea. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ⁴⁹Laban said, "May the LORD watch over us while we are apart. {308 Mizpah Benediction-Prayer, Gen. 31:49}

When I was a child in the Eastern Heights Presbyterian Church, Savannah, Georgia, we would all pray out loud at the end of youth meetings what was called "The Mizpah Benediction." "May the Lord watch between you and me, when we are absent one from another" (31:49, NKJV). To me it was a prayer-covenant between my buddies asking for God's blessing. But it meant something very different to Jacob and Laban. Jacob would have sneaked away if he could have gotten away with it. He was scared of his father-in-law. Laban would have killed Jacob, but God warned him not to harm Jacob. They set up a pile of stones to warn each other not to come past those stones again to attack each other. Lord, I pray The Mizpah Benediction for my friends, that is, that You will watch over them while I'm gone. I pray for my enemies that You will bless them (Luke 6:28), and that You will keep them from harming me. Lord, I trust You more than a hand shake, or a written agreement, or a court protective order. Amen.

⁵⁰If you mistreat my daughters or take other women to be your wives, no one may see you, but God will know. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 51-52 This rock pile and the large rock are witnesses that I will not go past them to harm you and you will not go past them to harm me. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ⁵³The God of your grandfather Abraham and the God of my father Nahor and the God of their ancestors will know if we are keeping the agreement." Jacob agreed to all this. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ⁵⁴Jacob offered a sacrifice there, and invited his relatives to a meal. They ate supper, and spent the night on the mountain. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} 55Early in the morning Laban kissed his grandchildren and his two daughters good-bye, and then he left for home. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

Genesis 32 Jacob Sends Gifts to Esau and Jacob Meets God

¹As Jacob was on his way, some angels met him. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} ²Seeing them, he named the place Mahanaim (meaning "Two Camps"), because he said, "This is the camp of God." ³He sent messengers ahead of him to greet his brother Esau in Seir, also called Edom.

{434 Sibling-Intercession Prayer, Gen. 27:11}

Jacob was rooted in fear; he would meet his brother the next day who 20 years earlier had threatened to kill him (27:41). Does being scared motivate us to pray more fervently than ever before? Lord, remind me to pray when I'm afraid, and remind me to cover all my sins and trespasses against persons by the blood of Christ. Amen.

⁴"I, your servant have been living with Laban. {56 Burden-Prayer, Rom. 10:1} ⁵I have lots of oxen, donkeys, sheep, goats, and servants. I am sending these messengers of mine to greet you."

⁶The messengers went back to Jacob and told him, "Esau is coming to see you with 400 men." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ⁷This scared Jacob, and so he divided his people and livestock into two groups, thinking, {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} ⁸"If he attacks one group, the others will be safe." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

⁹Then Jacob prayed, "LORD, You are the one who told me to go back home. I don't deserve all your kindness to me. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

Jacob reminds God that he is in the line of Abraham (32:9), and then Jacob reminds God that He was obeying His command to return home to face trouble (32:9). Lord, I don't count on my prayer persistence, nor my faith, not any other reasons. I count on Your character for my answers. Amen.

¹⁰Years ago when I crossed the Jordan on my way to northern Syria, I had nothing. Now I have two large groups of animals and people. {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11} ¹¹Please save me from Esau. I'm afraid he'll attack me and my wives and children. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} ¹²You told me you would prosper me and make my descendants as countless as the sand." {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6: Heb. 11:6}

¹³After spending the night there, he selected a gift for Esau, ¹⁴including 220 sheep, ¹⁵30 camels, 40 cows, 10 bulls, and 30 donkeys. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ¹⁶He told his servants to go ahead of him and keep some distance between the herds. ¹⁷"When my brother Esau asks who you are and where you are going, and whose animals these are, {169 Fleece-Prayer, Judg. 6:36-40} ¹⁸then say, 'They belong to your servant Jacob. He sends them as a gift to you. And he is coming behind us.'" {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ¹⁹He told the men with the other herds to say the same thing to Esau.

Jacob couldn't deny his old nature to "trick" his brother again. He separated himself to pray all night, but left his wife and children on the other side of the river. Then he divided his wives, children, flocks (wealth), to meet Esau in successive waves (is this a peace offering to save his life?). In case one group is destroyed, at least Jacob could flee.

Was this common sense, fear, or trickery? Lord, help me use my common sense to find Your will, and help me apply common sense to my prayers. Yet I know sometimes I must go beyond normal expectations, to trust You for supernatural answers to prayer. Amen.

²⁰"And be sure to tell him I am coming behind you." He thought, "Hopefully these gifts will please him. Then when we meet, he'll not be angry." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ²¹Jacob's men sent the gifts to Esau, and Jacob spent the night in the camp. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

²²During the night Jacob got up and took his wives, their maids, and his 11 sons across the Jabbok River, ²³and then had his belongings taken across. ²⁴That night a man wrestled with him until daybreak. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until the breaking of day" (32:24). This seems to be "wordless" praying, for sometimes we pray without words. Isn't prayer a relationship with God? And sometimes isn't prayer wrestling with God? Lord, when great issues are at stake, I will wrestle with You until I get an answer. Give me faith to know when to wrestle with You, and when to surrender to You. Amen.

²⁵Seeing that he couldn't defeat Jacob, the man threw Jacob's hip socket out of joint. As they continued wrestling, {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} ²⁶the man said, "Let me go. It's almost daylight."

But Jacob said, "I won't unless you bless me." {311 Morning-Prayer, John 21:4} ²⁷When the man asked Jacob his name, he answered "Jacob." {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ²⁸"I am changing your name from Jacob to Israel (meaning "One who struggles with God") because you have struggled with God and man and have won." {348 Perception-Expectation Prayer, 1 Sam. 14:8}

²⁹When Jacob asked the man his name, the man said, "Why do you ask?" Then he blessed Jacob. {398 Reluctant Answers to Prayer, Gen. 6:6} ³⁰Jacob named the place Peniel (meaning "Face of God") because he said, "I saw God face to face and I'm still alive." {124 Divine-Presence Answer to Prayer, Gen. 32:30}

³¹As Jacob was leaving Peniel, the sun was coming up and he was limping because of his dislocated hip. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ³²Therefore even now Israelites do not eat the hip muscle of any animal. {522 Vow-Violation Prayer, Ps. 65:1}

Genesis 33 Jacob Meets Esau

¹Jacob saw Esau coming with 400 men, so he put his children with their mothers. ²He put the maids Zilpah and Bilhah with their sons in front, Leah and her children were next, followed Rachel and Joseph. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ³He walked ahead of all of them and bowed down to Esau seven times. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

⁴Jacob was surprised when Esau ran to him and hugged and kissed him, and they both cried. {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.}

This was a volatile situation when Jacob met his brother Esau. They had not seen each other for 20 years. Esau had become very wealthy, he had 400 men—a small army. Jacob had also become wealthy with wives, and children, servants, and herds. Bowing seven times has been documented in ancient literature as a way of expressing humble submission and sincere contrition. Jacob bowed seven times, then offered him a gift which was probably Jacob's attempt to repay the "blessing" he deceptively tricked from Esau. Technically Jacob didn't get to receive the "blessing"—which was a double inheritance over Esau, because out of fear, Jacob left the family compound with nothing but a walking stick. Lord, I want to do all things right, and I want to treat all people right; especially my relatives. Forgive me when I've wronged someone ignorantly. Then if I wronged someone and forgot about it, bring it to my mind. I will humbly confess my wrong. I will attempt to reconcile myself to them. Use my testimony to all people to glorify You. Amen.

⁵When Esau saw the women and children, he asked who they were. Jacob answered, {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} ⁶"These are the children God in His grace has given me." ⁷Next Leah and her children bowed down, followed by Rachel and Joseph. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

⁸Esau asked about the herds he met on the road. Jacob said, "I wanted you to be friendly with me." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ⁹Esau replied, "I have lots of flocks, my brother. Keep these yourself." ¹⁰Jacob responded, "No, please accept them as a gift. What a delight it is to see your face. It's like seeing the face of God. {115 Difference-Making Prayer, Jude 22} ¹¹Please accept these gifts. God has been good to me, and I have all I need." So Esau finally accepted them. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26}

¹²Esau said, "Let's be on our way. I'll go with you." {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} ¹³Jacob said, "No need for you to do that. Traveling is hard on children and on younger livestock. If I drive the animals too hard, they'll die. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ¹⁴So you go on ahead, and we'll go more slowly and meet you in Seir."

Apparently Jacob didn't plan to meet Esau, but he was caught. He couldn't outrun Esau's army of 400 men. Jacob had herds, women, and children. He tried strategy to disarm Esau (33:1, 2), then God apparently arranged it so Jacob would confess. But Jacob told Esau to go ahead because of the women and children and herds (33:13, 14). Then Jacob went another way (33:17-19). Jacob never intended to go to Esau's home. Lord, the heart is deceitful and desperately wicked (Jer. 17:9). Forgive me when I'm blinded by my own selfish urges. Give me spiritual eyes to see Your plan for my life, and strength to do Your will. Amen.

15 Esau responded, "Okay. But let some of my men go with you." {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} Jacob said, "No need for that either. Just continue to be friendly." {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26}

¹⁶That day Esau left for Edom. {369 Prayer-Journey Prayer, Ps. 126:5-6} ¹⁷But Jacob went to Succoth (meaning "Shelter") where he set up camp and made shelter for his flocks and herds. {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ¹⁸The place is called Succoth because of the shelters he built there. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8}

¹⁹Having left southern Syria, Jacob arrived in Shechem and camped outside the city. The land where he camped he bought from the sons of Hamor for 200 pieces of silver. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ²⁰Jacob built an altar there and named the place El Elohe Israel (meaning "The God of Israel"). {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

Genesis 34 Dinah Is Raped

¹Dinah, Leah's daughter, went to visit some of the women in the area. ²Shechem, a son of Hamor, who was ruler of the area, saw her and raped her. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ³Shechem told her how much he loved her, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ⁴and he asked his father to get her for him as his wife.

⁵When Jacob heard that Dinah had been raped, he said nothing until his sons came in from herding their cattle. {216 Heavy-Prayer, Matt. 11:28:30} ⁶Shechem's father Hamor went to talk with Jacob. ⁷Just then Jacob's sons came in from the fields, and when they heard what happened to their sister, they were grieved and were extremely angry. Shechem had done a terrible thing, something that was a disgrace in Israel. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

⁸Hamor told them, "My son truly loves Dinah, and wants to marry her. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ⁹Why don't you let your daughters marry our sons, and our daughters can be wives for your sons. {505 Unbiblical-Prayer, James 4:3} ¹⁰Settle here, move about freely, and buy property." ¹¹Shechem, Hamor's son, said to Jacob and his sons, "Please let me have Dinah as my wife, and I'll do whatever you ask. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹²Set the dowry price or gift as high as you want, and I'll pay it. I really want Dinah as my wife."

¹³Jacob's sons tricked Shechem and Hamor {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹⁴by saying, "We can't do that because you men of Shechem are not circumcised. That would be disgraceful for her to marry an uncircumcised man. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} ¹⁵But we'll let you marry her if you circumcise all the males in your family. {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ¹⁶Only then can we let your men marry our daughters. And we'll settle in your land and we can live together. {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ¹⁷But if you don't do this, we'll take Dinah and be on our way."

¹⁸Hamor and Shechem liked this idea. Shechem, {9 Agree-Bless Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 19 who was highly respected, quickly went into action. 20 He and his father met with their city leaders and told them their plan. 21"These men are friendly, so we suggest they settle in our land and let our sons marry their daughters and they marry ours. {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ²²But there is one condition: our males must be circumcised. {419 Sanctified-Praying, Heb. 10:14} ²³If we do this, just think. Their livestock and property will become ours. So let's agree to the plan, and they will settle among us." {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3}

²⁴The city leaders agreed to the plan, and every male in the city was circumcised. {419 Sanctified-Praying, Heb. 10:14} ²⁵Three days later, when the males were still sore, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, killed every male there. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁶After killing Hamor and Shechem they took Dinah and left. ²⁷Jacob's other sons looted the city, taking everything they wanted, including ²⁸flocks and herds in the city and the countryside. ²⁹They also took the women and children, and everything of value in their houses. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17}

³⁰Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "Because of what you've done, the Canaanites and Perizzites will hate me. We are so few; they will come and destroy all of us." {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ³¹But Simeon and Levi replied, "But it wasn't right for our sister to be raped." {434 Sibling-Intercession Prayer, Gen. 27:11}

We must confess our sins when we sin against God. It is obvious that Shechem sinned when he raped Diana. The greatest sin of a pagan is unbelief, because that is the sin that condemns them to hell. But the sin of rape is bad because of the consequences in other lives. Then the sin of murder by Simeon and Levi was bad because of what they did to the men of the city. This made the pagan despise Jacob's family and Jacob's God. Jacob complained of being made "obnoxious among the inhabitants of the land" (34:30). Lord, forgive my sin that is against You and destroys my testimony among the unsaved. Cleanse me by the blood of Jesus Christ (1 John 1:7) and restore me to fellowship with You. Amen.

Genesis 35 Jacob Returns to Bethel

¹God told Jacob to move on to Bethel, where He had first appeared to him, and build an alter there. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²So Jacob told his family, "Destroy your idols, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} wash, and put on clean clothes. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ³We are moving to Bethel where I will build an altar to God because He has been with me in all my troubles and travels." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

⁴They gave Jacob their idols and earrings, and he buried them under an oak tree. ⁵So they started out, and people everywhere were so afraid of their God that they didn't bother them. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ⁶When they arrived at Bethel (formerly called Luz), ⁷Jacob built an altar there and named it El-Bethel (meaning "The God of Bethel") because that was where God had appeared to Jacob when he was running from Esau. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

God changed the name of the place from Bethel to "El-Bethel," which means "The God of the house of God." Also God changed Jacob's name. He would no longer be known as "Jacob, meaning "trickster or deceiver," but God said, "Your name will be Israel," which means "Prince with God." If God were going to give you a new name, what would it be? Lord, I want to be sheep, because You are my Shepherd. I want to be called Redeemed, because You are my Redeemer. I want to be called Saved one, because I once was lost. I want to be called Servant, for You are my Master. Amen.

⁸Rebekah's nurse, Deborah, died, and Jacob buried her under the oak tree near Bethel; and named it Allon Bacuth (meaning "The Oak of Weeping"). {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2}

⁹Again God blessed Jacob {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹⁰and said, "I am changing your name from Jacob (meaning "Heel Grabber") to Israel (meaning "One Who Wrestled with God")."

¹¹God added,

"I am El Shaddai (meaning "Almighty God"). Have many children, for you will be the father of an entire nation, and kings will be among your descendants! {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ¹²The land I promised to Abraham and Isaac I am giving to you and your descendants." ¹³God then left. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30}

¹⁴Jacob then took a stone and set it upright where God spoke to him. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} He poured out a drink offering to the Lord and then poured oil on the stone pillar. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁵And he called the place Bethel (meaning "The House of God"). {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

¹⁶On the way from Bethel toward Bethlehem Ephrath, Rachel was having difficulty in her labor. ¹⁷Her midwife told her not to worry because she was giving birth to another son. ¹⁸As she lay dying, Rachel named her son Benoni (meaning "The Son of My Sorrow"). But Jacob named him Benjamin (meaning "The Son of My Right Hand").

¹⁹Rachel died and Jacob buried her by the side of the road to Bethlehem. ²⁰Over her grave Jacob set up a pillar which still marks her burial place. ²¹So Israel moved on and settled near Migdal Eder. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2} ²²While there, Reuben, Jacob's oldest son, slept with his father's concubine. Israel heard about it but didn't do anything. Jacob's 12 sons were these: {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²³Reuben, Simeon, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun – six sons born to Leah; ²⁴Joseph and Benjamin born to Rachel; ²⁵Dan and Naphtali, sons of Bilhah; and ²⁶Gad and Asher, sons of Zilpah. These (except for Benjamin) were all born to Jacob in northern Syria.

²⁷Finally Jacob arrived in Mamre, near Hebron (also called Kiriath-Arba) where his father Isaac lived and where Abraham and Isaac had been. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²⁸At age 180 {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²⁹Isaac died, having lived a full life. His sons Jacob and Esau buried him there in Mamre. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2}

Jacob and his household went to Bethel. Perhaps it was fear of retaliation from the surrounding tribes because of the murder of the men of Shechem by Simeon and Levi. First, they repented, which means turning away from sin both inwardly and outwardly. "They gave Jacob their idols and earrings" (35:4). Jacob buried them under a tree. Next, they went to Bethel (house of God), a symbol of returning to God (35:6). Third, they sought the presence of God when they built an altar. "God appeared to Jacob" (35:7). Then, in restored fellowship, God left Jacob (35:13). Revival is when God pours His presence on His people. Lord, I want revival in my life. I repent of my sins and confess them to You. Forgive me and cleanse me by Your blood (1 John 1:9). Restore me to Your fellowship and pour out Your presence on my life. I want to know You better, Amen.

Genesis 36 Descendants of Esau

¹This is the record of the descendants {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} of Esau (also called Edom).

²Esau married three Canaanite women: Adah (daughter of Elon the Hittite), Oholibamah (daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite), ³and Basemath (daughter of Ishmael and Esau's first cousin). ⁴Adah had Eliphaz, Basemath had Reuel, ⁵and Oholibamah had Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These were the five sons born to Esau.

⁶Then Esau moved away from Jacob with his family, livestock, and belongings. ⁷He and Jacob had so much livestock and property that there wasn't enough room for both of them. ⁸Esau (also known as Edom) lived near Mount Seir.

As so often happens, material belongings become the basis of envy and bitterness among friends and family. Esau's enormous wealth is described in Genesis 36:6-8. He had many children, servants, cattle, and other animals. It was so much that Esau left Canaan. Lord, it is all right to possess money; it's just that money should not possess me. I give all my belongings to You; I will use what You allow me to use for Your glory. Amen.

⁹This is the record of the Edomites from Esau. ¹⁰His sons were Eliphaz and Reuel, ¹¹and Eliphaz's sons were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz. ¹²Eliphaz had a concubine Timna, and she had a son Amalek.

¹³The sons of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, Mizzah, grandsons of Basemath. ¹⁴Oholibamah, daughter of Anah, had Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

¹⁵Eliphaz's sons, who were Esau's grandsons, were chiefs of the clans of Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, ¹⁶Korah, Gatam, and Amalek. They descended from Eliphaz, son of Esau and Adah. ¹⁷Reuel's sons were chiefs of the clans of Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. They descended from Reuel, son of Esau and Basemath. ¹⁸Oholibamah's three sons were chiefs of the clans of Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. They descended from Oholibamah ¹⁹and Esau, also known as Edom.

²⁰Seir the Harite had seven sons there in Edom: Lotlan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, ²¹Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These chiefs were heads of clans in Edom. ²²Lotlan's sons were Hori and Heman and Lotlan's sister was Timna. ²³Shobal's sons were Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam. ²⁴Zibeon's sons were Aiah and Anah. (Anah is the one who found springs in the desert while grazing his father Zibeon's donkeys.) ²⁵Anah had Dishon and Oholibamah, ²⁶and Dishon had four sons: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran. ²⁷Ezer, Seir's son, had Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

²⁸Aishan, another of Seir's sons, had sons Uz and Aran. ²⁹As mentioned, the Horite clans, Lotlan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and ³⁰Dishan were chiefs, all of whom lived in Seir.

The kings of Edom were listed before the kings of Israel, {353 Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer, 1 Cor. 15:46} "Now these were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom (name for Esau) before any king reigned over the children of Israel (name for Jacob)" (36:31). Cain was discussed before Abel, Cain's posterity before Abel's posterity, Saul before David, and were listed of first working six days and then resting on the seventh. This reflects the principle of the natural before the spiritual. "The spiritual is not first, but the natural, and afterward the spiritual" (1 Cor. 15:46). This principle means we must have a physical body to reflect our spiritual life and if there is no physical, the spiritual can't be expressed. Lord, I will give my strength to work for a living, then I will give one day of the week to You. I will give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and spiritual things to You. Amen.

³¹The kings of Edom in order were ³²Bela, son of Beor, whose city was Dinhabah, ³³Jobab son of Zerah, ³⁴Husham from the land of Teman, ³⁵Hadad son of Bedad, (Bedad defeated the Midianites in Moab), ³⁶Samlah from Avith Masrekah, ³⁷Shaul from Rehoboth, ³⁸Baal-Hanan son of Acbor, ³⁹Hadad, whose city was Pau and whose wife was Mehetabel.

⁴⁰The chiefs of Esau were his sons, whose clans lived in various regions: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, ⁴¹Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, ⁴²Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, ⁴³Magdiel, and Iram. Each one gave his name to the area where he lived. All were Edomites, whose ancestor was Esau.

God had predicted Esau would live by the sword (27:40), and that eventually he would "shake loose from him [Jacob] and be free" (27:40, NLT). The physically weaker Jacob dominated his physically stronger older brother. Here finally, Esau left the domination of his brother. Lord, help me see Your principles in Scripture. Amen.

Genesis 37 Joseph's Dreams

¹Jacob settled in Canaan, where his father Isaac had lived. ²This is the story of Jacob's family. When Joseph was 17, he was taking care of sheep with his half-brothers who were sons of Bilhah and Zilpah. He tattled on these four to his father about their bad behavior. {434 Sibling-Intercession Prayer, Gen. 27:11}

³Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons, because Joseph was born when Israel was old. And he had given Joseph a beautiful coat to show he was his favorite son. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ⁴So his brothers hated him and said nothing good about him. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

⁵When Joseph told them a dream he had, they hated him even more. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4}

A dream makes the dreamer special, {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4}

whether it's God's supernatural prediction of the future, or it's a contemporary vision of what one wants to do because God has put a burden on one's heart to do it. Such was the content of Martin Luther King Jr.'s "Dream" sermon on the Washington Capitol Mall on August 28, 1963. Joseph's dream made his brothers hate Joseph all the more; they already hated him for being a tattle tale (37:2), and because he got the special coat (37:3). The dream even made Joseph's father and mother question him (37:11). Because one is special to God, he has a dream and the dream sets him apart even more. Lord, You've put a dream upon my heart of what I must do for You. I believe You exist and that You give tasks to those who love You, so I will do the dream You've put upon my heart; it will be my heart's passion. Amen.

6"Listen to this dream," he said. 7"We were all in the field tying up bundles of grain. Suddenly my bundle stood straight up and your bundles bowed down to mine." 8"They said to him, "So you think you will be king over us?" Because of this dream the brothers hated Joseph even more. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4}

⁹Then he told them about another dream. "This time the sun, moon, and 11 stars were bowing down to me." ¹⁰He told his father about this dream, and his father said, "Do you think that I, your mother, and your brothers will bow down to you?" ¹¹Joseph kept wondering about this dream, but his brothers were jealous.

¹²One day Joseph's brothers were grazing the sheep near Shechem. ¹³Jacob said, "I want you to check on your brothers and the flocks, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 14and tell me how they are." Going from Hebron to Shechem, ¹⁵Joseph was wandering in the fields when a man asked him what he was looking for. ¹⁶Joseph said he was looking for his brothers who were grazing sheep. "Do you know where they are?" 17"Yes, I heard them say they are moving on to Dothan." So Joseph left and found them near Dothan. 18 Seeing him coming, 19they said, "Here comes our dreamer. 20Let's kill him and throw him into a pit. We can tell our father that a wild animal ate him. Then his dreams can't come true." {129 Dream-Rejection Prayer, Gen. 37:5, 9}

²¹Reuben heard their plans, and said, "Let's not kill him. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} ²²Just throw him in this pit here in the desert." Reuben said this because he wanted to take him back home. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} 23When Joseph arrived, they tore off his beautiful robe 24 and threw him in a dry, empty pit. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 25As they were eating, they saw Ishmaelites coming from Gilead to the east. They were going to Egypt to sell spices, balm, and myrrh. ²⁶Judah said, "We won't gain anything if we kill Joseph. ²⁷So let's sell him to the Ishmaelites. After all, he's our own brother." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} The brothers agreed to this suggestion. ²⁸So they pulled Joseph out of the pit and sold him for 20 pieces of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took him to Egypt. ²⁹This so displeased Reuben, that he tore his clothes in grief. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30}

³⁰He said to his brothers, "Now what do we do?" 31So they took Joseph's coat, killed a goat, and dipped the coat in the goat's blood. 32They took the coat to their father and said, "We found this. Could it be Joseph's?" {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ³³Immediately Jacob recognized it and said, "Yes, it's his coat. Maybe an animal has killed him and torn him to pieces." {50 Blind-Prayer, John 11:22} ³⁴In grief, Jacob tore his clothes and put on burlap clothing, and mourned for his son for a long time. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} 35His sons and daughters tried to comfort him, but it was no use. He said he would mourn till he died, and then he wept. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31}

³⁶Meanwhile, the Midianites sold Joseph in Egypt to Potiphar, an official of Pharaoh, in charge of the guard.

God told Abraham that He would send the family into Egypt where it would grow into a mighty people until "the sins of the Amorites will be ready to be punished" (15:16). God used the rivalries and family squabbles to bring about a series of events that led to Joseph being sold into Egypt as a slave. While it seems that evil wins, and the people of God suffer; {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} circumstances are never out of God's control. "All things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose" (Rom. 8:28). Lord, sometimes I complain about circumstances because I don't see Your larger plan for my life. Open my eyes {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} to see Your "perfect will" for my life. I yield to do Your will. Amen.

Genesis 38 Judah and Tamar

¹At that time Judah moved to Adullam, where he visited Hirah. ²Judah met a Canaanite woman, a daughter of Shua, and married her. {459 Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9} ³They had three sons: Er, ⁴Onan, and Shelah. ⁵When Shelah was born, they were living in Kezib. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ⁶Judah arranged for Er to marry Tamar. ⁷But Er was so wicked that the Lord took his life. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁸Then Judah told Er's brother Onan to marry Tamar. "As her brother-in-law it is your duty to marry her. Then your son will be Er's son."

⁹But Onan didn't like that idea. So whenever he slept with Tamar, he spilled his semen so that she couldn't get pregnant. ¹⁰This displeased the Lord, so he took Onan's life too. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹¹Judah told Tamar, his daughter-in-law, to go live with her parents until Shelah grew up. Then Tamar did so. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21}

¹²Sometime later Judah's wife, Shua's daughter, died. After grieving he and his friend Hirah went to Timnah to help shear his sheep. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2} ¹³Tamar heard that Judah was going there, so she disguised herself with a veil and sat beside the road to Enaim. 14(She had heard that Shelah had grown up, but Judah hadn't given him to her as her husband.) 15When Judah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute. 16Not realizing she was his daughter-in-law, he asked to sleep with her. She asked, "How much will you pay me?" 17He said, "I'll send you a young goat." "But how will I know you will do that?" 18He said, "What do you want?" She replied, "I would like to have the cord around your neck and your walking stick." So Judah gave those items to her, and he slept with her, and she became pregnant. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁹She went home and put on her widow's clothing again.

²⁰Judah asked his friend Hirah to take a goat to the woman and to get back the pledged items he had left with her. But Hirah couldn't find her. ²¹He asked the men of Enaim, "Where is the prostitute who was by the road near town?" They replied, "No prostitute has ever been here." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²²When Hirah told Judah, he said, "I couldn't find her, and the men of the town said a prostitute was never there." ²³So Judah said, "Let her keep the pledges. And if we tried to send her the goat, people would laugh at us."

²⁴Three months later someone told Judah that Tamar was pregnant as a result of her being a prostitute. Judah responded, "Bring her out of town and burn her!" {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁵As she was being taken to be killed, she sent this message to Judah: "The man who owns this ring, cord, and walking stick is the one who got me pregnant."

²⁶Judah admitted they were his. And he said, "She's better than I am because I didn't let her marry my son Shelah." He never slept with her again.

²⁷Later Tamar had twin boys. {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} ²⁸At birth one of them put his hand out of her womb. The midwife tied a red thread around his wrist to identify him as the one who appeared first. ²⁹But he drew back his hand, and the other baby was born first. Then the midwife exclaimed, "How did you come out first?" So he was named Perez (meaning, "Breaking Out"). ³⁰Then the other baby was born, and he was named Zerah (meaning "Scarlet").

Since an Israelite could end up in slavery because of poverty, a family member could buy him as his property out of slavery to protect the family. A near relative had the first obligation to buy the property out of bondage and/or re-establish the family lineage (Lev. 25:23-28). That kinsman has the right to redeem. Onan (38:8-10) refused to be a kinsman-redeemer, to his brother, apparently for selfish reasons; he wanted his own lineage. When Judah refused to allow Shelah (38:11) to be a kinsman-redeemer, Tamar took matters into her own hands. Lord, I don't understand why You use dishonest people in Your work, but You work grace through people's sin. Thank You for Your grace to save me and use me even when I'm not perfect. Amen.

Genesis 39 Joseph in Potiphar's House

¹The Ishmaelites took Joseph to Egypt and sold him to Potiphar, Pharaoh's captain of the guard. ²The Lord blessed Joseph, and he succeeded in everything he did. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ³Potiphar noticed that the Lord made Joseph successful. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} 4Joseph was a favorite of Potiphar's, and so he put Joseph in charge of his household and his business affairs. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 5Then because of this God blessed Potiphar. Everything ran smoothly, and his crops and livestock did well. The only thing Potiphar had to be concerned about was what to eat. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} ⁶Joseph was a handsome guy, ⁷and Potiphar's wife asked him to sleep with her. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} 8But Joseph refused. He said to her, "My master has put everything in his household under me. ⁹I have more authority than anyone. Obviously he held nothing back from me except you because you are his wife. I could never do such a wicked thing sinning in that way against God." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁰She kept urging him every day to sleep with her, but each day he refused to be with her or refused to be around her. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ¹¹One day when he was in Potiphar's house to take care of things, no one was around except Potiphar's wife, 12who grabbed him and said, "Sleep with me!" He pulled himself away, but she held onto his shirt. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

¹³With his shirt in her hand, ¹⁴she began screaming. She told her servants, "Look, this Hebrew is making us look like fools. He tried to rape me, so I screamed for help. ¹⁵That's when he ran and left his shirt with me."

¹⁶When her husband Potiphar got home that night, she told him what happened. ¹⁷"Your Hebrew slave tried to rape me, ¹⁸but when I screamed he left his shirt and ran."

Joseph had committed himself to sexual purity. He would not commit adultery with Potiphar's wife, which he said would be a sin against God (39:9). Also Joseph had a commitment to Potiphar, "My master has put everything in his household under me" (39:8). No wonder God was with Joseph. He could be trusted in private areas of his life. Lord, I want Your presence with me, and I want Your blessing on all I do, so I will constantly do right in all areas of my life. Amen.

¹⁹This made Potiphar so mad that ²⁰he put Joseph in prison with other prisoners of the king. ²¹The LORD was kind to Joseph there too, and he was favored by the jailer. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²²So the jailer put Joseph in charge of the other prisoners and all prison affairs. ²³The jailer wasn't concerned about anything because the LORD was with Joseph and helped him succeed in everything he did. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4}

Four times in this chapter the Lord is said to have been with Joseph (39:2, 3, 21, 23). This must have been the defining characteristic of Joseph's life. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Because Joseph did things right, God prospered him and all those for whom he worked. As a result, Potiphar made him overseer with all his household affairs (39:4). Because a Christian lives and works by God's standard, he will work harder to reach that standard, and he will work honestly. Lord, I belong to You and I will work hard to reach Your standards on my job and I will work honestly. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} I want Your blessing on all I do at work, and I want Your presence with me. Amen.

Genesis 40 Joseph Interprets Two Prisoners' Dreams

¹Pharaoh's cupbearer and chief baker had offended him in some way. ²He was so angry with them ³that he put them in the prison where Joseph was. ⁴They were imprisoned for a long time, and Potiphar had Joseph wait on them.

⁵One night each man had a dream, each one different from the other. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} ⁶Next morning when Joseph saw them looking sad, ⁷he asked them, "Why are you so sad-looking today?" ⁸They said, "We each had a dream, but no one can tell us what they mean." Joseph said, "God knows their meanings.

So tell me the dreams." {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4}

⁹The cupbearer told Joseph, "I saw a vine ¹⁰with three branches that budded and blossomed and they had lots of grape clusters. ¹¹I squeezed the grapes into Pharaoh's cup, and then gave him the cup." ¹²Joseph said, "Your dream means this: the three branches mean three days. ¹³In three days Pharaoh will release you from prison and he will give you back your job as cupbearer. ¹⁴Do me a favor. Ask Pharaoh to release me from this prison. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ¹⁵I was kidnapped from my homeland, and I haven't done anything to deserve being in jail."

Of all the inner strengths, gratitude is the least remembered of all traits, but it is the foundation of our character. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} The person who doesn't show appreciation to others usually has an ego problem. They think only of themselves and they think they've arrived in life without the aid of others. But the grateful person realizes the contribution of others to his life, that is, he realizes he can't get anywhere without others. Joseph asked the butler to help get him out of prison. (40:14). Lord, forgive me for thinking only of myself. I realize I couldn't be where I am without the help of others. Thank You for all my family, friends, and work associates and what they have done for me. I praise You for Your work in my life. Amen.

¹⁶When the chief baker heard that good dream interpretation, he told his dream to Joseph. "In my dream three breadbaskets were on my head. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} ¹⁷But birds came and ate the breads in the top basket. ¹⁸Joseph said, "Your dream means this: the three baskets mean three days. ¹⁹In three days Pharaoh will cut off your head, hang you on a pole, and birds will come eat your flesh."

²⁰Three days later Pharaoh had a birthday banquet for his officials and he released the cupbearer and the baker from prison. ²¹He put the cup-bearer back in his job, ²²but he hung the baker on a pole as Joseph had predicted. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²³Unfortunately the cupbearer forgot all about Joseph's request.

While dreams can be a supernatural prediction of the future, they can also be like a goal to point out our life's calling or the task we want to do. However, each person has a different dream for his life. The main point is to make sure our dreams match God's plans for our life. Obviously the baker's dream from God didn't match the baker's plan for his life. Lord, I have plans for my life. When my plans don't match Your will, show me and I'll change. I want to be in the center of Your will and accomplish Your plan for my life. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} Forgive me of my sin and don't let my past failures destroy the future. Thank You for all the good things my family, friends, and business associates have done for me. Also I praise You for all the good things You've done for me. Amen.

Genesis 41 Joseph Interprets Pharaoh's Dreams

¹Two years later Pharaoh dreamed he was standing by the Nile River. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} ²Suddenly seven fat cows came out of the river and were grazing in the grass. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ³Then seven skinny cows stood beside the fat cows. ⁴The thin cows ate the fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

⁵He fell asleep again and had another dream. He saw seven full heads of grain on one stalk. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} ⁶Suddenly in his dream he saw seven more heads of grain on the stalk, but the east wind had shriveled them up. ⁷These seven thin heads of grain swallowed the full heads. Then Pharaoh woke up again. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4}

8-9Next morning Pharaoh was upset, {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} wondering what his dreams could mean. So he called all the magicians and wise men and asked them what his dreams meant, but they didn't know. 10 The cupbearer said, "Awhile back, after you put the baker and me in prison, 11 we each had a dream. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} 12 We told them to a Hebrew slave, who told us their meaning. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} 13 And just as he said, I was again given back my job and the baker was hung on a pole."

¹⁴Immediately after Pharaoh released Joseph from the dungeon, Joseph shaved, changed clothes, and went to the king. ¹⁵"I had a dream last night but no one can tell me their meaning. But I have heard that you can interpret dreams." ¹⁶Joseph said, "I can't do it, but God can." {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

Because Joseph could interpret dreams in the past, he was taken from prison and given the opportunity to again interpret a dream. Joseph was wise enough to recognize his limited ability. "It is beyond my power to do this" (41:16). Joseph gave God praise, "God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do" (41:25). Since only God knows the future, we should let Him direct our lives if we want to be in His will. Lord, I realize only You know the future. So I yield to Your plans for my future life. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Show me what to do and where to go. Keep me from making mistakes. Guide me into Your perfect will and may all I do praise You. Amen.

¹⁷So Pharaoh told Joseph, "While I was standing by the Nile River, ¹⁸seven fat cows came out of the river and began grazing in the grass. ¹⁹Then seven thin cows came up from the river. I've never seen such poor-looking cows in all of Egypt. ²⁰These cows ate the seven fat cows, ²¹though the thin cows still looked skinny. Then I woke up."

²²"Then in a dream I saw seven heads of grain on one stalk, all full and ripe. ²³From the same stalk came seven shriveled-up heads of grain. ²⁴The withered heads swallowed up the full heads. I told all this to the magicians, but they couldn't explain them."

²⁵Joseph said, "In your dreams, which mean the same thing, God has shown you what he is going to do. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ²⁶The seven fat cows and the seven ripe heads of grain both refer to seven years of prosperity. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} ²⁷The seven skinny cows and seven shriveled-up heads of grain both refer to seven years of famine. ²⁸God has shown you what he will do. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²⁹In the next seven years there will be great prosperity throughout Egypt. ³⁰Then there will be seven years of famine. ³¹That time will be so bad that everyone will forget the prosperous years. 32But why two dreams of the same thing? To stress that God has determined to do this, and this will happen very soon."

³³"I suggest you find the wisest man in Egypt, and put him in charge of a national farm program. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ³⁴Appoint officials who will collect one-fifth of all the crops in the next seven years. ³⁵Have them gather the grain and food under your authority. ³⁶Keep the food in storage to be eaten in the years of famine. If you don't, the country will be devastated by the famine." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ³⁷Pharaoh and his officials liked Joseph's plan. ³⁸ Pharaoh said to them, "No one is better qualified than Joseph to head up this program because obviously the Spirit of God is in him." {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20}

God elevated Joseph because He was completely yielded to God, because he had solid internal character, and because he glorified God in all things. When Pharaoh needed a man to "save" Egypt, he looked for one "who is obviously filled with the Spirit of God" (41:38, NLT). Don't wait until you have a task to ask God to fill you with His Spirit (Eph. 5:18). No. Ask God to fill you with His Spirit every day for both big tasks and little ones. Be filled with His Spirit for normal life so you can glorify God in all you are and do. Lord, fill me with Your Spirit now so I can pray properly. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} Fill me with the Spirit to think, react, and bring glory to You in all I do. Fill me with Your Spirit because I want You in my life. Amen.

³⁹So he said to Joseph, "You are obviously the wisest man in the nation since God has revealed these dreams to you. So I am appointing you to head up this project. ⁴⁰I am putting you in charge of all my palace affairs. No one will be over you except me." {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ⁴¹"I now put you over all Egypt." ⁴²To symbolize Joseph's authority, Pharaoh put his own signet ring on Joseph, gave him beautiful clothes, and gave him a gold chain to wear. ⁴³He also let Joseph ride in the chariot next to his, and wherever he went people were told, "Kneel down."

Most of us will never make it to the very top in our vocation. Usually, there's someone over us, so we must learn in life to live, work, and ride in the second chariot. Joseph rode "in the second chariot" (41:43). That means we must learn to work under the authority of another. Lord, I want to ride in the second chariot after You. Get all the glory; I give it to You. Teach me to live and work effectively under the authority of another. Amen.

⁴⁴So Joseph was in charge of all Egyptian affairs.

⁴⁵Pharaoh named Joseph Zaphenath-Paneah (meaning "God Speaks and Lives"). Also he gave him Asenath, daughter of Potiphera, the priest of Heliopolis, to be his wife. Joseph traveled throughout Egypt. 46He was 30 years old at the time, and he traveled everywhere. ⁴⁷For seven years the crops were abundant. {176 Frailty-Confession Prayer, Ps. 90:12} 48He stored one-fifth of all the crops in cities near the farms. {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23} 49After a while there was so much grain that Joseph could not keep track of it all. It was like sand on the seashore. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

⁵⁰During these years of plenty Joseph had two sons. ⁵¹He named one Manasseh (meaning "Forget"), to recall how God had helped him forget his troubles. {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.} ⁵²Joseph named his second son Ephraim (meaning "Fruitful"), to recall that God had blessed him in Egypt. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

⁵⁴The seven years of plentiful crops ended. ⁵⁴Then came the famine. Though crops failed everywhere in Egypt and other countries, plenty of food was in the Egyptian storehouses. ⁵⁵⁻⁵⁶When people began to starve, they asked Pharaoh for food. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} He sent them to Joseph saying, "Follow his instructions." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ⁵⁷People in Egypt and in other countries came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph because the famine was severe everywhere.

Genesis 42 Joseph's Brothers Come to Buy Grain

¹When Jacob learned there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Don't just sit there. ²I have heard there is grain in Egypt. So go there and buy some food so we won't starve to death." {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ³Ten of Joseph's brothers went to Egypt to buy grain. ⁴But Joseph didn't let Benjamin go because he was afraid he might be harmed in some way just as Joseph was. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ⁵So Israel's sons arrived with others who were traveling to Egypt to buy food. The famine was bad everywhere and especially in Canaan.

God allows calamities and hardships to bring us to a place of repentance where we seek the Lord and put Him first in our lives. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} As difficult days unfolded in Jacob's family, God was working behind the scenes to bring His people to Egypt. When a disaster or catastrophe strikes, people turn to God and pray to Him. Lord, teach me to seek Your presence when calamities strike. May I look beyond natural disasters to see how You develop Your perfect will in my life. Amen.

⁶As governor of Egypt in charge of selling grain, Joseph saw his brothers when they bowed to him to the ground. ⁷He recognized them, but he pretended not to know them and he spoke gruffly to them. When he asked where they were from, they said, "The land of Canaan." 8They didn't recognize him. 9He recalled the dreams he had about them years ago. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} And he said, "You are spies. You've come to see if the famine has weakened out nation." 10"Not so," they said. "We've come just to buy food. 11We brothers are your servants, not spies." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 12"I repeat," Joseph said, "You've come to spy on our land." 13They replied, "We 10 are brothers, sons of one man who lives in Canaan. Our youngest is still at home, and one of our brothers is dead." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3

¹⁴Joseph said, "Yes, you are spies. ¹⁵And here's how I'll prove it. Nine of you will stay here, ¹⁶and one of you will go get your youngest brother. I'll keep the rest of you here in prison. Then we'll know if your story is true. If you don't have a younger brother, then I'll know you are spies." ¹⁷And he jailed them for three days. {491 Trial-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7}

¹⁸The third day Joseph said to them, "I respect God, so I'll give you a chance to live. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹⁹To see if you are honest, {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} I'll keep one of you here in prison. The rest of you may take grain back home. ²⁰But you must bring your youngest brother back here. That way, I'll know if you are being truthful, and if you are, you won't die." So they agreed to this.

²¹They said to themselves, "This has happened because of what we did to Joseph years ago. We saw how distressed he was when we put him in a pit and then sold him to the Ishmaelite traders. But we didn't listen." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²²Reuben said, "I told you not to do it, but you wouldn't listen. Now we'll all die." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²³Joseph knew what they were saying because an interpreter had been speaking for him. ²⁴Joseph went into another room and cried. Then he came back and told them to tie up Simeon while the brothers looked on. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31}

Sometimes our memory reminds us of the good or bad things in our past. Then we act in certain ways because of past events. Memory is also effective to praying about the present and future. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} Joseph recalled the dreams he had dreamed (42:9). He remembered God predicted they would bow to him. Also the 10 brothers remembered how distressed he was when they put him in a pit (42:21). Memory is good because it caused the 10 brothers to attach their past sin to their present dilemma. "That's why this trouble has come upon us" (42:21, NLT). Lord, my memory is not perfect. Help me remember the good things of the past, so I can effectively be used by You in the present. Help me remember my past sins and failures, so I can repent and change my present life to serve You more effectively now. Amen.

²⁵Joseph had his servants fill the nine brothers' sacks with grain and to put their money at the top of each sack. He also gave them food for their journey home. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²⁶So they loaded the sacks on their donkeys and left. ²⁷When one of the brothers opened his sack to feed his donkey, he was surprised to see his money right there. ²⁸When he told his brothers, they were terrified for their lives, saying, "Why has God done this to us?" {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁹Arriving back home, they told Jacob about their experiences. ³⁰They said, "The governor of Egypt treated us as if we were spies. ³¹But we denied that, and {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ³²we explained that we are 12 brothers, one of whom is with you and one of whom is dead. ³³He said, 'I'll know if you are telling the truth if one of you stays here while the others return home with the grain. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ³⁴Then bring your youngest brother here. That way I'll know you are being honest. Then I'll give back your brother, and you can continue to buy grain here."

³⁵As they were emptying their grain sacks, they were all surprised to find their money there. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ³⁶They were terrified, as was their father. Jacob said, "Why have you brought me so much sorrow? Joseph is dead, Simeon is in prison, and now you want to take Benjamin to Egypt. Woe is me." {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ³⁷Reuben spoke to his father, "If I don't bring Benjamin back, you can put two of my sons to death." ³⁸But Jacob said, "Joseph is dead, and I can't let my other son Benjamin go with you. If something happened to him, I would die." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Genesis 43 Joseph's Brothers Decide to Return to Egypt

¹The famine in Canaan was still bad. ²So when Jacob and his family had eaten all the grain they brought from Egypt, Jacob said, "Go buy some more food." ³Judah said, "But remember that Egypt's governor warned us that he wouldn't see us unless we bring our brother with us. ⁴So if you let Benjamin go with us, then we'll go buy food. ⁵We don't dare go without him."

⁶Israel asked, "Why did you even tell him you have a younger brother?" {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ⁷They said, "He specifically asked us, 'Is your father living? And do you have another brother?' So we had to tell him. How could we know he was going to insist we bring our brother along?" 8Judah said, "If you don't let Benjamin go with us, we'll all die. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} 9I'll personally see that he gets back home safely. If I don't, you can place the blame on me forever. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁰Actually we would have already been there and back home if we hadn't delayed." ¹¹So Israel said, "Okay. Take him some products from our country, including perfume, honey, spices, pistachio nuts, and almonds. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} 12And return twice the amount of money you took before. Maybe someone in Egypt made a mistake in putting your money in your sacks. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ¹³Take Benjamin with you and be on your way. 14I pray that El Shaddai will be merciful to you and that the man will let Simeon and Benjamin come home with you. If not, then I'll grieve, and so be it." {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

When we give a gift, it is something that should have value to the one receiving it. A gift is usually not expected, nor is it something that does not have to be given. A gift should make the receiver happy and it should bind together the giver and the receiver. Jacob told his sons to take some gifts they didn't have in Egypt. Jacob prayed his gifts would reverse the attitude of the man. "May God Almighty give you mercy before the man" (43:14). Lord, help me know how to treat people and turn their attitude toward You. Teach me not to fight, but to be kind to people. Teach me how to get on the good side of others. Amen.

¹⁵So they took the gifts and money and Benjamin, hurried on their way, and went to see Joseph.

¹⁶When Joseph saw Benjamin, his younger brother, he told his house manager, "Take these men to my house, slay an animal, and prepare a big feast for me to have lunch with these men." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹⁷And the man did as he was told. ¹⁸But when the men saw they were being taken to Joseph's house, they were afraid. They thought, "This is because he thought we stole his money. He wants to make us slaves and take our donkeys." {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

¹⁹When they got near Joseph's house, they spoke to the house manager and said, ²⁰"When we first came to Egypt, ²¹we stopped for the night and found money in our sacks. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ²²So we have returned it with additional money to buy more grain. We have no idea how the money got in our sacks. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} ²³The manager said, "It's okay. Don't be afraid. Your God must have put it there because I received your money." Then he released Simeon from prison and brought him to his brothers. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁴The manager gave the men water to wash their feet, and he fed their donkeys. ²⁵Hearing that they were to eat at Joseph's house, the brothers got out their presents to give to Joseph. ²⁶When Joseph came home, they gave him the gifts, and they bowed before him. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ²⁷He asked how they were and then asked about their elderly father. {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7} ²⁸They replied, "He is doing well." And they bowed down again.

²⁹Looking at Benjamin, he asked, "Is this your brother you told me about? May God bless you, my son." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ³⁰Joseph quickly left the room and went to his private room and cried because of his love for his brother. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31}

³¹Then he washed his face, and controlling himself, he said, "Serve the meal." {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} ³²Joseph ate by himself and his brothers were served by themselves. The Egyptians sat at yet another table because they hated the idea of eating with Hebrews. ³³When Joseph seated them by their ages, from the oldest to the youngest, they were amazed. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ³⁴He served them from his own table, giving Benjamin five times as much as he gave anyone else. So Joseph's brothers enjoyed the meal very much.

Genesis 44 Joseph's Cup Found in Benjamin's Sack

¹Joseph told his house manager, "Fill the men's sacks with as much grain as they will hold, and put their money back into each man's sack. ²Also put my silver cup in the sack of the youngest." And he did as Joseph told him. {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1}

Joseph had his silver cup and the money brought to buy grain put into Benjamin's sack. Joseph wanted to see if the 10 brothers would take this opportunity to get rid of Benjamin, as they had gotten rid of him. However, God was dealing with the 10 brothers for their great sin against Joseph (42:28; 43:23). Do you realize that some of the difficulties in your life are allowed by God to test the sincerity of Your love and obedience to Him? Lord, may I always respond correctly when tested. Use the test that comes in my life to reveal my devotion to You. Forgive me when I've failed Your test. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Deal with me in grace and let me draw near to You. Amen.

³At dawn the men were on their way. ⁴Soon after that, Joseph told his house manager, "Go chase these men and say to them, 'Why are you doing this when Joseph has been so kind to you? ⁵Why did you steal my master's silver drinking cup which he uses for fortune-telling? You have done a terrible thing."

⁶Catching up with them, the house manager told them what Joseph said. ⁷They responded, "We don't know what you are talking about. We wouldn't do that. ⁸We even brought back the money we found in our sacks. ⁹Whoever has the cup will die, and the rest of us will be your master's slaves." ¹⁰"Okay," he replied. "However, the one who has the cup will be my slave and the rest of you can go on."

¹¹They quickly put their sacks on the ground and opened them. 12The manager searched each one, starting with the sack of the oldest brother and proceeding to the youngest. He found the cup in Benjamin's sack. ¹³In grief the men tore their clothes, loaded the donkeys, and returned to the city. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ¹⁴Again the brothers bowed to Joseph in his house. 15 Joseph asked, "What are you doing? Didn't you know I could find out who stole the cup?" 16 Judah replied, "What can we say? How can we prove we are innocent? We are now your slaves." {491 Trial-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7} ¹⁷But Joseph said, "No, only the one in whose sack the cup was found will be my slave. The rest of you can return home."

¹⁸Judah said, "Let me say a word. Please be patient and don't be angry with me. 19 You had asked us about our father and if we have another brother. 20We said we have an elderly father and a younger brother. His brother is dead, and his brother is the only one of the two born to their mother, and of course his father loves him. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ²¹You ordered us to bring him here so you could see him. ²²We told you our father would die if our youngest brother left him. ²³But you said we would never see you again if we didn't bring our youngest brother back. ²⁴So we told our father what you said. ²⁵Later our father told us to come get some more grain. ²⁶But we said we couldn't go without our youngest brother. Otherwise we would never see you.

²⁷"My father said, 'My wife gave me two sons, ²⁸one of whom was probably killed by some wild animal. ²⁹If you take the other brother with you and he is injured in some way, I will die a miserable death.' {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³⁰So the boy must go back home with us. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

After many years of separation and hardships Joseph laid eyes on Benjamin-his brother—and "his heart yearned for his brother" (43:30, KJV). So Joseph wept, but not before the 10 brothers. He went into his private room and wept there. When you shed tears, the depths of your emotions are reached. Weeping represents the real "you," the one we keep hidden from sight most of the time. When we cry, we are more sincere than any other time. God will hear and answer when we pray with tears, because we are more honest and genuine than at other times. Lord, forgive my hard heart that has not always wept before You. Break my heart over my sin. See the sincerity of my heart and answer me. Amen.

³¹If my father, who loves him very much, sees he is not with us, he will die. Then we will all cause our father's death. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ³²I promised my father that I would bring the boy back home safely. But if I don't, I would bear the blame for the rest of my life.

³³"So let me stay here as your slave, and let the boy return home. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³⁴How can I face my father if the boy is not with me? I can't stand the thought of how this would affect him."

When the 11 brothers faced Joseph and realized Benjamin may end up a slave, Judah offered to stay there as a slave instead of the boy (44:33). Judah was willing to substitute himself for Benjamin's punishment. This is a picture of Christ's willingness to be a substitute to take our sin punishment, "For God made Christ, who never sinned, to be the offering for our sin" (2 Cor. 5:21). Lord, I deserve to die for my sins, but Jesus Christ became my substitute. He died for my sins, He was my substitute. I am thankful for Your love, and for Christ's willingness to die. I praise You for Your grace. Amen.

Genesis 45 Joseph Reveals Himself to His Brothers

¹Joseph could no longer control himself. So he told all his servants to leave the room. He was there alone with his 11 brothers when he told them, "I am Joseph." {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} ²He wept so loudly {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} that the Egyptians and those in Pharaoh's palace heard his crying.

There's nothing wrong with weeping, whether for agony (John 11:36), or shedding tears for joy. We have the assurance that weeping in prayer leads to rejoicing. "He who continually goes forth weeping... shall doubtless come again with rejoicing"

(Ps. 126:6). When Joseph revealed himself to his brothers, "he wept so loudly that the Egyptians... heard his crying" (45:2). Lord, I will weep in agony over lost friends and relatives. Then when they are saved, I will weep with joy over their salvation. Amen.

³Joseph said, "I am Joseph. Is my father still living?" But they were so stunned and surprised they couldn't answer him. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10}
⁴Joseph said, "Come closer to me." So they did. Then he said again, "I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. ⁵Don't be angry with yourselves for what you did to me because God sent me here to help save lives. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ⁶The famine has lasted for two years, and it will extend for another five years. ⁷God sent me ahead of you to keep you alive. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8}

When Joseph revealed himself to his brothers, he recognized God's sovereignty, "God sent me here to help save lives" (45:5). Joseph was yielded to God for his suffering years, as well as his exaltation years. "God, not you, sent me here" (45:8). Lord, I praise You for Your sovereign leadership in my life, both for the hard days and the good days. I yield to Your plans for my life. Amen.

⁸So God, not you, sent me here. He made me like a father to Pharaoh, and governor of all of Egypt. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁹So hurry back to our father and tell him what I told you, that God has made me governor of all of Egypt. Then say, 'Move here to Egypt quickly and ¹⁰live in the region of Goshen. That way you can be near me and with your children, grandchildren, flocks, herds, and everything you have. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} ¹¹I will take care of you {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} during the next five years of famine. If you don't, you and your family will starve.'

¹²"You and especially Benjamin can see from what I said that I really am Joseph. ¹³Tell our father the honor I have here and bring him here quickly." ¹⁴Then he and Benjamin hugged each other and cried. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} ¹⁵Then he hugged and kissed all his brothers, and they began talking with him freely.

¹⁶When Pharaoh heard that Joseph's brothers had come, he and his officials were pleased. {396 Rejoicing for Others-Prayer, Phil. 1:4} ¹⁷So he said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers to load their donkeys and return to Canaan. ¹⁸I will give them the best land in Egypt, and they can enjoy the food that is stored up here. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} ¹⁹Also have them take some wagons from Egypt in which to bring back their wives and children, and bring their father too. ²⁰They can leave their belongings behind, because I will give them the best of everything in Egypt."

²¹So Joseph gave them wagons, as Pharaoh had ordered, and he gave them food for their trip home. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²²He gave each of them some new clothes, but to Benjamin he gave five sets of clothes and 300 pieces of silver.

²³And to Jacob he sent 10 donkeys loaded with lots of good things from Egypt, along with 10 female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and food for their trip back to Egypt. ²⁴Joseph sent his brothers on their way and told them not to argue on the way home.

²⁵So they left Egypt and arrived in Canaan. ²⁶They told their father, "Joseph is still alive. In fact, he is the governor of Egypt, second in command under Pharaoh." Jacob was so surprised he did not believe them. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁷But when they told him everything Joseph said, and he saw the wagons Joseph had sent, he was relieved. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} ²⁸And he said, "I am convinced. My son Joseph is alive. So I will get to see him before I die." {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59}

When the 10 brothers sold Joseph into Egypt, they took Joseph's coat smeared with blood to their father Jacob to get him to believe Joseph was killed by a wild animal (37:28-33). As a result, "Jacob mourned for his son for a long time" (37:34). Have you ever heard about someone who can't get over the death of a loved one and that person lets the death of another ruin his life? How do you break doubt or despondency? {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} Words usually won't do it. The brothers told Jacob his son was alive, but Jacob "did not believe them" (45:26). Usually it takes an unusual or tangible work of God to break doubt or dependency, "When he (Jacob) saw the wagons Joseph had sent, he was relieved ... and convinced" (45:27-28). Lord, I will tell others of Your answers to prayer to encourage them and motivate them to pray in faith. Amen.

Genesis 46 Jacob and His Family Go to Egypt

¹Israel left for Egypt with all his belongings, and on the way he stopped in Beersheba and offered sacrifices in worship to the God of his father Isaac. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 2 That night God spoke to him in a vision and said, "Jacob, Jacob." "I'm here," he answered. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³"I am God, whom your father worshiped. Don't be afraid to go to Egypt because you will have many descendants there and they will become a great nation. 4I'll go with you and I will bring you back. Joseph will be with you when you die in Egypt." {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} ⁵The next day Jacob left Beersheba, {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} and his sons put him and their wives and children in the wagons Pharaoh had given them. ⁶They brought their livestock and everything they owned. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} All their families went to Egypt, 7including Jacob's sons, grandsons, daughters, and granddaughters.

There are certain places where God likes to reveal Himself to His people. In the Old Testament it was Mount Sinai, Bethel, Jerusalem, and in this chapter it was Beersheba (21:22-34; 26:32-35). Jesus liked to pray in the Garden of Gethsemane (John 18:2). Jacob made his last sacrifice to God in the Holy Land at Beersheba. There in Beersheba God promised to bring His people back to the land of promise. "I will surely bring You back again" (46:4). Many believers like to pray at certain places, such as a prayer closet. "Pray to your Father secretly" (Matt. 6:6, NLT). This verse encourages us to go to our usual place to pray because the Father is there waiting for us. Lord, I will meet You at my special place of prayer. I will meet You there to have fellowship and worship You. Amen.

8The following are those who went with Jacob to Egypt: {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 9(a) Reuben and his sons Hanok, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi; ¹⁰(b) Simeon and his sons Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar, and Shaul (whose mother was a Canaanite); 11(c) Levi and his sons Gershon, Kohath, and Merari; 12(d) Judah and his sons Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan), and Perez's sons were Hezron and Hamul; ¹³(e) Issachar and his sons Tola, Puah, Job, and Shimron; 14(f) Zebulun and his sons Sered, Elon, and Jahleel. 15 These were the sons and grandsons of Jacob's wife Leah, along with their daughter Dinah. This was a total of 33, not counting Er and Onan. 16(g) Gad and his sons were Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli; and 17(h) Asher and his sons were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah and their sister Serah, with Beriah's sons Heber and Malkiel. ¹⁸This was a total of 16 born to Zilpah.

¹⁹(i) Jacob and his wife Rachel had Jacob and Benjamin. ²⁰(Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Jacob and Asenath in Egypt.) ²¹Benjamin had 10 sons: Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim and Ard. ²²All these totaled 14.

²³(j) Dan had one son Hushim, and ²⁴(k) Naphtali had four sons: Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem. ²⁵These seven were the sons and grandsons of Bilhah.

²⁶This was a total of 66 people, not counting Jacob's daughters-in-law. ²⁷But adding Joseph, Asenath, Manasseh, and Ephraim brought the total to 70.

²⁸Jacob had sent Judah on ahead to ask him for directions to Goshen. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} So when they arrived there, ²⁹Joseph went in his chariot to meet them. Seeing his father, Joseph hugged him and wept for a long time. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ³⁰Jacob then said, "Now that I have seen you and I know you are alive, I am ready to die." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³¹Joseph told his brothers and their families, "I'll go tell Pharaoh you shepherds have arrived, 32 along with your cattle, sheep, and goats, and everything you own. ³³When he asks you what you do for a living, tell him, 34'We are shepherds, just like our ancestors.' Then he will let you live in Goshen, away from the Egyptians because they don't like shepherds." {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

Genesis 47 Pharaoh Welcomes Jacob

¹Joseph told Pharaoh that his father and brothers with their flocks and herds and all they owned had arrived from Canaan and were in Goshen. ²Joseph took five of his brothers with him to see Pharaoh. ³When Pharaoh asked them what they do for a living, they said, "We are shepherds, as were our ancestors. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ⁴The famine is so bad in Canaan that our flocks have nothing to eat so we have come here and we ask you to please let us live in Goshen." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

⁵Pharaoh turned to Joseph, "I'm glad your father and families are here. ⁶Let them live anywhere in Egypt they choose, but I suggest Goshen. And I would like for some of them to care for my livestock too."

⁷Then Joseph brought his father Jacob to see Pharaoh. Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ⁸when Pharaoh asked him his age, ⁹he said, "I am 130, and I've had some difficult times. But I'm not as old as my father and grandfather." {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} ¹⁰Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh again and left. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

When we bless another, we add value to that person. Blessing could be financial, physical, social, and in the case of Christians we add spiritual value when we bless them in prayer. While a blessing is not the same as a miracle, such as healing a physical infirmity;

when a miracle is done, it is a blessing. When "Jacob blessed Pharaoh" (47:7) fulfilling the Scripture, "The lesser person is blessed by the greater" (Heb. 7:7). Isn't this an indication that we who are strong (spiritually) should constantly make life easier for those weaker than us? Lord, I bow humbly to receive the blessings You've given to me. I'm grateful, I will bless others who have less than You've given me. I will pray for others in need and I'll share with them physically, financially, socially, and give them things to make them happier. Amen.

¹¹So Jacob gave his relatives the best part of the land, the district of Rameses. 12 And he gave them food for their families. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹³However, the famine was bad in both Egypt and Canaan. 14 Joseph sold grain and brought the money into Pharaoh's treasury. 15But the people ran out of money, so they went to Joseph, asking that he give them food so they wouldn't die. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} 16Joseph said, "Give me your livestock and I will sell you food." ¹⁷So they did. They brought horses, sheep, goats, cattle, and donkeys, and Joseph gave them food. ¹⁸The next year the people came to Joseph and said, "We don't have any more money, and you have all our livestock. So the only thing to do is to sell our land to you. 19We are about to die. So give us grain to eat and seeds to plant, and we will become Pharaoh's slaves and our land will be his."

²⁰That way Joseph acquired all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. The Egyptians willingly sold their land because the famine was so bad. 21All across Egypt the people were Pharaoh's slaves, 22 except the priests. Pharaoh gave them food so that they didn't have to sell their land. ²³Joseph told the people, "Here is seed for you to plant. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ²⁴But when you harvest the grain, give a fifth of the crop to Pharaoh. Keep the rest as more seed and as food for your families." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ²⁵The people exclaimed, "You have saved our lives! Continue to favor us because we will gladly be Pharaoh's slaves." ²⁶So Joseph made it a law, a law that still exists, that one-fifth of every harvest is to go to Pharaoh.

²⁷The Israelites settled in Goshen, bought property there, and their families had many children. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} ²⁸Jacob was in Egypt for 17 years before he died at the age of 147. ²⁹When he was dying, he called for Joseph and told him, "Please promise me that you won't bury me here in Egypt. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³⁰Take me out of Egypt and bury me with my father and grandfather." Joseph said, "Okay. I will." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

Jacob was 130 years old when he appeared before Pharaoh (47:9) and 147 when he died (47:28). He told Pharaoh that he had not lived as long as his father and grandfather (47:9). Abraham died at 175 and Isaac died at 180. Jacob added his days were few and difficult. Jacob was suggesting he faced anger, disappointment, and pain, that is, his life was not easy. Isn't that a picture of most people in life, even most believers? While we may have peace within, the world is a hostile place without. Lord, I live in a difficult world, nothing goes perfectly. Help me deal with a contentious world, and help me make it better when possible. Amen.

³¹"Promise me you'll do as I ask." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} "Yes, I will," Joseph said. Then Jacob worshiped the Lord as he leaned on his staff.

Jacob asked not to be buried in Egypt, but to be taken back to be buried with his father (47:30). Jacob believed that promise made to Abraham (15:13-21), that the family would stay temporarily in Egypt and that God would expand their numbers, redeem them, and return them to the land of Canaan. Lord, I believe You will one day return Israel to the land promised to them. I believe "All Israel will be saved" (Rom. 11:26), transformed and take possession of Palestine in the future. Amen.

Genesis 48 Jacob Blesses Ephraim and Manasseh

¹Later Joseph heard that his father was very sick. So he went to see him, and he took his sons Manasseh and Ephraim with him. ²When someone told Jacob his son Joseph was there to see him, he gained some strength and sat up in bed. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

³He told Joseph, "As you know, El Shaddai appeared to me at Luz in Canaan and blessed me. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 4He said to me, 'You will have many descendants who will become a great nation. And I am giving you this land for you and your descendants forever.' {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ⁵I am adopting your sons Ephraim and Manasseh, born here in Egypt, as my very own sons, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine. ⁶Any other children you have will be considered yours, of course, but any land they inherit is to be in the territories of Ephraim and Manasseh, not here in Egypt. When I was returning home from northern Syria, Rachel died as we were on the way to Bethlehem Ephrath. So with great sorrow I buried her there by the side of the road." {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2}

⁸Seeing Joseph's two sons, Israel asked, "Who are they?" ⁹"They are the sons God has given me here in Egypt." Then Israel said, "Bring them closer so I can bless them." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ¹⁰He was almost blind because of his old age. So Joseph brought his sons closer to their grandfather, and he hugged and kissed them. ¹¹Jacob said, "I never thought I would see you again. But now God has let me see not only you but also your children."

¹²Joseph then removed them from Jacob's knees (where they were positioned as a sign of being accepted as his sons), and Joseph bowed to Jacob. ¹³Joseph placed Ephraim, the younger, by Jacob's left hand and Manasseh, the older, by Jacob's right hand. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ¹⁴But crossing his arms, Jacob put his right hand on Ephraim's head and his left hand on Manasseh's head.

¹⁵Then Jacob blessed Joseph with these words, "May the God of whom my grandfather Abraham and my father Isaac worshiped, the God who has been my shepherd all my life, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁶and the Angel who has kept me safe, may He bless these boys. May they honor my name and the names of Abraham and Isaac, and may they have many descendants." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

When Jacob came to die, he recognized God had provided for him throughout his life. God "has been my shepherd all my life to this day" (48:15). Of course, Jacob worked as a shepherd and did most things for himself, but he recognized God was behind the provision. How can we praise God in a greater way than to praise Him for our daily provision? We can invoke God's promises, "As your days, so shall your strength be" (Deut. 33:25). Lord, I realize my strength and health come from You. I could have been disabled or handicapped. I realize food and provisions come from You; I could have starved in a famine, or died for lack of provisions in a depression. Thank You for all things; I receive them from Your hand. Amen.

¹⁷Joseph didn't like Jacob switching his arms and placing his right hand on the head of Ephraim, the younger of the two. So he started to move Jacob's hand from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. ¹⁸Joseph said, "You should put your right hand on the head of the firstborn." {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ¹⁹But Jacob refused. He said, "I know what I am doing. True, Manasseh will become a great nation. But Ephraim, the younger, will be greater, and his descendants will become many nations." ²⁰Then Jacob kissed them and said, "People will say, 'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh." {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} He mentioned Ephraim first even though he was the younger of the two.

It is the duty and privilege of the older to bless the young children (48:9, 15, 20). "To bless is to add value to the lives of the children we are blessing." First, we bless them spiritually so they will have God's abundant prosperity. When God pours spiritual blessings on a child, they work out in physical, financial and social enlargements. Lord, I will bless children for Your glory. May You make their lives bigger and larger in every area of life. Give them a good life and much enjoyment in serving You. Amen.

²¹Then Israel said to Joseph, "I will soon die, but God will be with you and bring you back to Canaan, the land of your ancestors. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²²I am giving you a portion of land greater than what I give to your brothers, land that I captured from the Amorites with my sword and my bow and arrows."

Genesis 49 Jacob Blesses His 12 Sons

¹Jacob asked his 12 sons to meet with him. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1}

The phrase "last days" (49:1, KJV) deals with Israel's future. Because God promised future blessings to Abraham, Isaac, and now Jacob; the religion of the Jews, and ultimately Christianity is an unfolding plan that is guided by God Himself. It deals with their occupation of Canaan, the coming Messiah, His redemption of those who trust in Him, and the ultimate judgment of mankind, plus the believer's ultimate abode with God in heaven. Lord, I know You have a grand plan for mankind, but You also have a personal plan for me. Help me see Your plan clearly and give me strength to do it; and give me an obedient spirit to follow it. Amen.

²He said, "You sons of Jacob, listen to what I have to say." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ³Reuben, you are my oldest son, born when I was young and strong. You are first in honor and power. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ⁴But because you are unruly like waves of the sea, you will no longer be first in rank. Why? Because you slept with one of my wives, thus defiling my bed. ⁵Simeon and Levi, though brothers, you are men of violence. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ⁶I don't want to have any part in your plans, because in anger you killed people and you cut the leg muscles of oxen for no reason.

⁷Cursed be your fierce, cruel anger. Your descendants will be scattered throughout Israel.

8"Judah, your brothers will praise you (your name means 'Praise'), you will defeat your enemies, and your relatives will bow down to honor you. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 9You are like a lion lying down to rest, and no one dares arouse you, a lioness. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 10You will rule others with a scepter and a staff, until nations come bringing you gifts.

Here is another prediction of the coming Messiah (49:8-12). Israel's Savior will come from the line of Judah. Messiah will rule with His "scepter" (49:10). God's principles for living well will come from the Messiah (49:10). Lord, thank You for the predictions of Jesus Christ coming into the world. I look forward in confidence to His second coming, which was predicted hundreds of years before He was born. Amen.

¹¹"You will tie your donkey to a grapevine, and the donkey's colt to a choice branch of the vine. You will wash your clothes in wine and your robes in grape juice. ¹²Your eyes are darker than wine, and your teeth are whiter than milk.

¹³"Zebulun, you will live by the coastline and be a harbor for ships extending up to Sidon. ¹⁴Issachar, you are a strong donkey resting by two saddle bags. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ¹⁵When you see how good the countryside is, you will put your shoulder to the task and work hard like a slave.

¹⁶*Dan, you will bring justice to your people. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ¹⁷You will be a snake by the side of the road, a viper on the path that will bite a horse's heel, making its rider fall backward.

18"O Lord, please deliver us. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

¹⁹"Gad, you will be attacked by raiders, but you will attack them. ²⁰Asher, you will provide rich food, even delicacies for a king. ²¹Naphtali, you are a wild deer bearing beautiful fawns. ²²Joseph, you are like a vine with lots of grapes near a spring and with branches extending over a wall. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ²³Archers attacked you and shot at you. 24But you shot back, with your arms remaining strong because of God the Mighty One of Jacob, who is our Shepherd and Rock. ²⁵He is my God, Shaddai, who blesses you with blessings from heaven {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} and from the earth beneath, and blesses you with children. ²⁶May the blessings I give you be greater than the blessings of the mountains or old hills. May these blessings come to you, Joseph, as the leader over your brothers. ²⁷Benjamin, you are like a hungry wolf, devouring your enemies in the morning and dividing the loot in the evening." {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} ²⁸These are the 12 tribes of Israel and what Jacob said to them in giving them appropriate blessings. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

Jacob's pronouncement to his sons contains blessings, curses, judgments, and promises—it predicts things in poetic language that will happen to each son. His speech contains rhythmical emotions, a parallelism of thought, an abundance of figures of speech, and intricate meanings hidden in the names and words. And when you are awed by its beauty, don't miss Jacob's warmth for each son. Lord, there is a future for each of us, and You know what it is. I yield to Your daily leading so I can fulfill Your plan for my life. Don't let me miss Your prosperity by my disobedience or carnal lifestyle. Amen.

²⁹Then Jacob said, "I will soon die. So please bury me with my father and grandfather ³⁰in the cave in the field with Machpelah that Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} ³¹Abraham and Sarah and Isaac and Rebekah are buried there, along with Leah whom I buried there. ³²Abraham bought both the field and the cave in it from the Hittites." ³³When Jacob finished these words about his sons, he lay back in his bed and died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Genesis 50 Joseph's Death

¹Joseph leaned over his father and cried and hugged him. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} ²Then he had physicians embalm Jacob's body, ³a process that took 40 days. And Egyptians mourned for Jacob 70 days.

⁴After that, Joseph said to Pharaoh's advisers, "If you consider me a friend, tell Pharaoh ⁵that my father made me promise to bury him in a cave in Canaan. Then I will return." ⁶Pharaoh said, "Sure, go bury your father as you promised."

⁷So when Joseph went to bury his father, all Pharaoh's officials and dignitaries went with him. ⁸Also on the trip were Joseph's family, his brothers, and Joseph's household. But they left their children and livestock in Goshen. ⁹Even many men driving chariots went with Joseph. This was a large entourage of people in this funeral procession.

¹⁰When they arrived at the threshing floor of Atad, near the Jordan River, the people wept loudly, and Joseph had them observe a week-long period of mourning for Jacob. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ¹¹When the Canaanites saw this mourning ceremony, they thought they were all Egyptians. So they named the place Abel Mizraim (meaning "Mourning of the Egyptian"). {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ¹²Jacob's sons did as he had told them. ¹³They buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre, which Abraham had purchased from Ephron the Hittite. 14 After the burial Joseph and everyone with him returned to Egypt. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2}

¹⁵Joseph's brothers got to thinking, "What if Joseph still holds a grudge against us and tries to get even with us for what we did to him?" ¹⁶So they sent him this message: "Before Jacob died, ¹⁷he told us to tell you to forgive us for treating you so terribly. So please forgive us." {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} When Joseph heard this, he started crying. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ¹⁸In fact his brothers bowed down in front of him and said, "We are your slaves."

The 10 brothers were afraid that Joseph would turn against them after their father Jacob died. So they told Joseph something Jacob probably never said {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13}. Interestingly the 10 brothers finally recognized their action was "sin." They were motivated by the guilt of their deed. While Joseph's actions revealed his forgiveness, and they could have had God's forgiveness if they had asked, the important thing is they hadn't forgiven themselves. Since guilt poisons all we do, these 10 brothers couldn't enjoy the spiritual benefits from Joseph when they enjoyed living in the lush land of Goshen. Lord, I know in my head You have forgiven my sin. Help me to live in forgiveness, and to talk freely before You and all mankind. Take away the shadows and the reality of guilt. While I can't be sinless, I at least can be guiltless. Amen.

¹⁹But Joseph responded, "Don't be afraid. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} I am not God. ²⁰You meant to harm me, but God turned it out for the best, to use me to save many lives. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²¹Again, as I said, don't be afraid. Because God has placed me in this position as governor of Egypt, I will take care of you and your families." He spoke very kindly to them, putting them at ease.

Joseph realized God worked His sovereign plan through the evil of the 10 brothers. "You meant to harm me, but God turned it out for the best" (50:20). We need to see that God directs us with a compass, not a road map. When we sin and get off God's perfect road (Prov. 4:18), we don't have God's secondary road for the rest of our lives. No. God forgives us our sins when we confess them, and God uses the compass of the Bible to point us to His perfect will. Lord, thank You for Your forgiveness when I've sinned in the past. Thank You for restoring me each time to Your perfect will. I will follow You in the future, I will not intentionally sin, but I surrender to do Your will always. Amen.

²²Joseph stayed on in Egypt and then died at the age of 110. ²³He lived long enough to see Ephraim's children and grandchildren. Also the children of Makir, Manasseh's son, were treated as Joseph's own. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ²⁴Then Joseph told his brothers, "I am about to die. But God will help you and lead you out of this land {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} to the land he promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

²⁵Joseph made his brothers promise {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} that they would take his body back to Canaan. ²⁶Joseph died at the age of 110, and the Egyptians embalmed his body and placed it in a coffin in Egypt.

Joseph had the same type of faith as his father Jacob, {155 Faithful-Request Prayer, Heb.

3:2} because he asked that his bones also be buried in the Promised Land (50:25). Joseph believed God's people would return to the land of promise. Lord, help me see Your plan for my life that extends beyond my death. Give me faith to trust Your plan for my family, church, and nation beyond my death. Amen.

NOTES

- See http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/ William_Norman_Ewer, accessed 18 January 2010.
- Attributed to H. L. Willmington, Dean, Willmington School of the Bible, Liberty University, Lynchburg, VA.

Exodus

CH 1: ISRAEL IN EGYPT105
CH 2: THE BIRTH OF MOSES106
CH 3: GOD CALLS MOSES107
Cн 4: God Sends Moses то Egypt109
CH 5: Moses and Aaron Speak to Pharaoh110
CH 6: Promise of Deliverance111
Ch 7: The Rod Becomes a Snake and the First
PLAGUE113
Ch 8: The Second, Third, and Fourth Plagues 114
Ch 9: The Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Plagues 116
CH 10: THE EIGHTH, AND NINTH PLAGUES117
Ch 11: The Tenth Plague-Death of the FIRSTBORN118
CH 12: THE FIRST PASSOVER119
CH 13: REMEMBERING THE PASSOVER122
CH 14: CROSSING THE RED SEA123
CH 15: A SONG OF DELIVERANCE125
CH 16: Bread of Heaven127
CH 17: THE BATTLE OVER WATER128
CH 18: A Lesson in Leadership129
CH 19: GOD VISITS HIS PEOPLE131
Ch 20: The Ten Commands132
CH 21: CONSEQUENCES OF ACTIONS134

CH 22: PROTECTION OF PROPERTY135
CH 23: JUSTICE
CH 24: Moses and the Elders Worship God138
CH 25: FURNITURE IN THE TABERNACLE139
CH 26: Preparing the Tabernacle141
CH 27: THE BRONZE ALTAR AND COURTYARD142
CH 28: CLOTHES FOR THE PRIESTS143
CH 29: DEDICATION OF AARON AND HIS SONS145
CH 30: THE ALTAR FOR BURNING INCENSE147
CH 31: WORKERS CHOSEN TO MAKE THE TABERNACLE149
CH 32: THE GOLDEN CALF150
CH 33: Moses Asks to See God152
CH 34: Moses' Face Shining153
CH 35: GATHERING MATERIALS TO CONSTRUCT THE TABERNACLE155
Ch 36: Beginning Construction of the Tabernacle156
CH 37: CONSTRUCTING THE SACRED CHESET157
CH 38: CONSTRUCTING THE BRONZE ALTAR159
CH 39: MAKING THE PRIESTS' CLOTHES160
Ch 40: Putting the Tabernacle Together 161

EXODUS

Key Word: Deliverance (Exodus 18:9, 10)

Key Verse: "I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey" (3:8).

Theme: The name Exodus means "way out" and it tells the story of God sending 10 plagues on Egypt that motivated the Egyptians to release God's people from bondage. It tells of the march through the wilderness to Mount Sinai and how God revealed Himself to them in the Ten Commands. Also included is the introduction of the rules of worship, fellowship, and service, and a narrative blueprint for the construction of the tabernacle.

Exodus is a picture of our deliverance and redemption from sin's bondage, which is essential for a relationship with a holy God. The book ends with God's presence filling the tabernacle and His people worshiping Him, which also is a picture of God's purpose for us. Lord, thank You for my deliverance and redemption from sin. I worship You for all the ways You lead me through the desert of this life. I worship You for manifesting Your presence to me. Amen.

Exodus 1 Israel in Egypt

Pleven sons of Jacob had moved with him and their families to Egypt. They were Pleven were Pleven, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, Benjamin, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. There were 70 altogether, counting Jacob, his sons, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren (Joseph was already in Egypt.) Isoaph and his brothers and their families all died. Plut they had so many descendants that Goshen was filled with Israelites. \{160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17\} Later a new pharaoh, who didn't know about Joseph, said, There are so many Israelites in Egypt. \{27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6\} \text{ \text{$}^{10}We must do something about it, because if we have a war, they may side with our enemy and then escape." \{517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14\}* \text{ \text{$}^{11}So the Egyptians made the Israelites their slaves, and forced them to build the cities of Pithom and Rameses as supply centers. \text{ \text{$}^{12}But the more the Egyptians abused them,}} the more the Israelite families grew. So the Egyptians were alarmed {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ¹³and forced them to work even harder. ¹⁴They forced them to make bricks and mix mortar and work in the fields. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

¹⁵Pharaoh ordered Shiphrah and Puah, Hebrew midwives, 16to kill Hebrew boys when they were born but to keep the girls alive. ¹⁷But because they worshiped God, the midwives kept all the babies alive. ¹⁸Pharaoh heard about this and asked them why they let the boys live. ¹⁹They answered and said, "Hebrew women are so strong that they delivered their babies before we even got there." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 20So God blessed the midwives, and the Israelites kept growing in number. ²¹In fact even the midwives had their own babies. ²²Then Pharaoh told everyone, "When a Hebrew boy is born, throw him into the Nile River, but keep the baby girls alive."

Lord, satan has always hated little children; when he can't enslave their minds, he slaughters them. The abortion industry is evil and does satan's work; I pray for children—born and unborn—to live and come to know You, and serve You. Amen.

Exodus 2 The Birth of Moses

¹A man and woman of the tribe of Levi got married. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ²She became pregnant and had a boy, whom she hid for three months. ³Knowing she couldn't keep him hidden, she made a little boat out of papyrus reeds, coating it with tar. Then she put her son in it and put it by the bank of the Nile River. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ⁴His sister kept an eye on him to see what would happen.

⁵One of Pharaoh's daughters went to the Nile to take a bath, and her maids were strolling along the river bank. When she spied the basket in the river, she asked one of her maids to get it. ⁶Then when she opened it, she was surprised to see a baby crying. She felt sorry for him; she saw that he was a Hebrew baby. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} 7The baby's sister, who was nearby, came up and asked if she should get a Hebrew woman to nurse the baby. 8The king's daughter answered, "Yes, please do." So the girl went and brought the baby's mother. 9Pharaoh's daughter told the mother to nurse the baby and she would pay her for doing it! So the mother did. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

¹⁰When he was older, the mother took him to the princess, and she adopted him. She named him Moses (meaning "Draw Out"), because she said, "I drew him out of the water."{387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

¹¹When Moses had become a man, one day he went to watch his people at work. He saw an Egyptian beating one of his people. ¹²Looking to be sure no one was watching, he killed the Egyptian and covered his body with sand. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} ¹³The very next day he saw two Hebrews fighting, and he asked one of them, "Why are you hitting him?" {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ¹⁴He answered, "Who are you to judge us? Are you planning to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" Moses then realized people knew what he had done the day before. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10}

¹⁵Word about this got back to Pharaoh, and so he planned to kill Moses. But Moses skipped town and went miles away to Midian. As he was sitting by a well, {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ¹⁶seven daughters of a priest came to draw water for their father's sheep. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁷Some shepherds chased off the sheep, but Moses rescued them and watered the flocks.

¹⁸When the girls went home, their father Reuel (also known as Jethro) asked why they were back so early. 19They said, "An Egyptian ran off some shepherds who were chasing us and he even drew water for our sheep." {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ²⁰ Where is he? Don't just leave him there. Invite him for supper." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²¹So they did, and Moses was pleased to stay overnight. In fact Reuel gave his daughter Zipporah as Moses' wife. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ²²She had a son, and Moses named him Gershom (sounds like the word "Foreigner") "because I am a foreigner here." {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ²³After Pharaoh died, the Israelites still groaned because they were treated harshly as slaves. They prayed to God for help. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ²⁴God heard them and remembered His promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ²⁵God looked down on His people with sympathy. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

Lord, You equip Your servants differently. You prepared Moses with a secular Egyptian training and with a biblical foundation from his mother. Thank You for my past that equipped me for service, now I want to serve You as best I can, with the training that equipped me for service. Amen.

Exodus 3 God Calls Moses

¹When Moses was taking care of the sheep of his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, he took the flock all the way over to Mount Horeb. {368 Prayer-Excursion Prayer, Ps. 137:1-4} ²The angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a bush that was on fire but that wasn't burning up. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 3Wondering why it didn't burn up, Moses went to look at it. 4God then called Moses by name, {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} and Moses said, "Yes, I'm here." {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7} 5God then said, "Stand where you are and take off your sandals, because this is holy ground. {400 Reserved-Prayer, John 11:33} 6I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob." Moses didn't want to look at God, and so he hid his face.

⁷God said, "I know your people are miserable, working hard as slaves. I've heard their prayers for relief, and I am concerned. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} 8So I have decided to get them out of Egypt and into a good land, where there is a lot of milk from cows and a lot of honey from bees. This is where the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites live. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} 9I've heard the wailing of the Israelites, and I have seen how the Egyptians have been treating them. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ¹⁰So I have decided to send you to Pharaoh to tell him to let My people leave Egypt." {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

¹¹But Moses objected. "Who am I to go up against Pharaoh?" {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} ¹²God responded, "Don't worry. I will go with you. And here is how you will know: When you and the Israelites leave Egypt, you and they will worship Me right here on this mountain." {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

¹³Moses said, "But when I tell them You sent me, they will ask, 'What is His name?' What shall I tell them?" ¹⁴God said, "You are to tell them, 'I am who I am.' {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

Lord, when Moses gave excuses to escape serving You; You told him to use the power of Your name. Lord, may I never give excuses to not follow You; may I pray in the power of Your name that is available to me. Amen.

15"Tell them, 'The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, has sent me.' This is My name forever, the name by which people are to know Me from now on.

¹⁶"Go tell Israel's elders that I spoke to you and that I have noticed what the Egyptians have done to you. ¹⁷So I promise to get you out of your misery and to bring you to the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, where there is a lot of milk from cows and a lot of honey from bees. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ¹⁸The elders will listen to you, and then you and they are to go to Pharaoh and say, 'LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. We ask your permission to take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to Him.' {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} ¹⁹He won't let you go unless something forces him to. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} ²⁰"So I will perform a number of miracles to strike down the Egyptians, and then he will let you go. {360 Power-Seeking Prayer, Matt. 9:8}

²¹"I will see that the Egyptians will give you a number of gifts so that you won't go away empty-handed. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ²²Every Israelite woman will ask her Egyptian neighbor or any Egyptian women in her house for gold and silver jewelry and clothes for your children. These will be yours when you leave Egypt." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Exodus 4 God Sends Moses to Egypt

¹Moses said, "What if they don't believe me? What if they say, 'The LORD didn't appear to you'?" {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} 2The LORD answered, "What is that in your hand?" Moses replied, "My shepherd's rod." 3"Throw it on the ground," God said. So Moses did and it immediately turned into a snake, and Moses jumped away. 4Then the LORD said, "Grab it by the tail." Moses did, and the snake turned back into his rod. 5"Do this before the Israelites," the Lord said, "and they will realize that the LORD, the God of their ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, did appear to you." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

6 Then God told Moses to put his hand inside his clothes. Moses did and when he took it out, his hand looked as if he had leprosy. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} 7 God told him to put his hand inside his clothes again, and when Moses did and took it out again, it was normal. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} 8 God then said, "Suppose someone isn't convinced by either of these miracles." {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} 9 If they refuse to believe, then scoop up some water from the Nile and when you pour it on the ground, it will turn to blood."

¹⁰Moses then voiced this excuse: "I'm not a good speaker. I never have been, and I'm not now. My words come slowly; I often don't know what to say." {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} ¹¹God asked him, "Who makes people's mouths, and who makes a person able to hear or not, or see or not? 12I will help you speak well, and I will give you the words to say." {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} ¹³Moses had another excuse. "Lord, please get someone else." {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ¹⁴This made the LORD angry. So He said, "Your brother Aaron the Levite, is a good speaker. In fact, he's coming now to meet you, and he'll be glad to see you. {49 Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 15He will speak for you, and I will tell you both what to do and say. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} 16He will speak for you to the people, and you will tell him what to say. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ¹⁷So take your shepherd's rod with you so you can do those miracles I showed you." {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28}

Lord, may I never offer excuses to You so that You get angry at me. Lord, I yield to Your will for my life; I will wholeheartedly do what You command. Amen.

¹⁸Moses went back to Jethro, his father-inlaw, and said, "I would like to go to Egypt to see my family, if they are alive. Is that okay with you?" {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹⁹God had told Moses it was okay to return to Egypt because the people who had wanted to kill him were now dead. ²⁰So Moses and his family rode on a donkey to Egypt, and he had his shepherd's rod in his hand. {22 Appropriate-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 39:5} ²¹The LORD said to Moses, "When you get back to Egypt, go to Pharaoh and perform the miracles I have shown you. However, I will make him so stubborn that he won't let your people leave Egypt. {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2} ²²So tell him, 'God says Israel is precious to Me like a firstborn son {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²³and I command you to let him go so he can worship Me. But since you refuse, I will kill your firstborn son." {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13}

²⁴One time when Moses and his family stopped for the night, the LORD was about to kill Moses. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ²⁵Then his wife circumcised her son, and threw the foreskin at Moses' feet, and said, "You are a man of blood." ²⁶So the Lord let him alone. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10}

²⁷God told Aaron to go meet Moses at Mount Horeb (Sinai). So he did and greeted him. {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} ²⁸Moses told Aaron what God said they are to do and say, and he told him about the miracles he was to perform. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} ²⁹So they brought the leaders in Israel to a meeting, 30 and Aaron told them what God had said to Moses. When Moses performed the miracles of the snake and leprosy and blood, 31the people were convinced God had sent them. When Moses and Aaron told the people God knew about their misery, they all bowed their heads and worshiped. {322 New-Day Praise, Ps. 98:1}

Lord, I worship You for Your help in my life, just as the Israelite leaders worshiped You. May I always be grateful for Your presence in my life; Lord God, thank You for delivering me. Amen.

Exodus 5 Moses and Aaron Speak to Pharaoh

¹Moses and Aaron then went to Pharaoh and said, "The LORD God of Israel has said for you to let the Israelites go into the desert and have a religious festival there." {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

Lord, the bottom line is always worship; You want to free us from any habits and sins, so we have a new freedom to worship You. Lord, I pray for people in slavery everywhere and for all reasons, that they may be free from their bondage so they can worship You freely. Amen.

²Pharaoh responded, "Why should I do that? Who is this LORD? I don't know Him. So I see no reason I should release the Israelites." {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} ³Moses and Aaron explained, "God has met with us. That's why we want to go into the desert for three days to offer Him sacrifices. Otherwise we will die of diseases and warfare." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

⁴Pharaoh said, "Why do you want to keep the people from their work? They need to get back to their jobs. ⁵These many people need to keep working."

⁶That day Pharaoh ordered his slave drivers and officers, ⁷"Don't give the Israelites any more straw for making bricks. They can find it themselves. ⁸Have them make the same number of bricks as before. Obviously they don't have enough to do; that's why they want to take off for three days. ⁹Make them work harder so they won't listen to Moses' and Aaron's lies." {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2}

¹⁰The slave drivers told the people to get their own straw. 11They were to find it wherever they could and to keep on making the same number of bricks. ¹²So they went everywhere looking for straw, 13 and the slave drivers kept hounding them to keep making the same number of bricks. ¹⁴The slave drivers whipped the Israelite foremen and asked, "Why haven't you met your quota of bricks?" {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹⁵The Israelite foremen complained to Pharaoh, "Why are you treating us like this? 16We have no straw, and we are told to make the same number of bricks as before. Our people are being beaten, but your own people are the problem."

¹⁷Pharaoh replied, "You are lazy. That's why you want to go offer sacrifices to the LORD. ¹⁸Get to work. Go find your own straw and make the same required number of bricks." ¹⁹The Israelite foremen knew they were in trouble. ²⁰As they left, they saw Moses and Aaron, ²¹and said to them, "May the Lord punish you for this. Pharaoh hates us, and now they may want to kill us."

²²Moses prayed, "LORD, why have You brought this problem on Your people? Why did You send me here? ²³Ever since I spoke to Pharaoh, he has caused nothing but trouble. And You haven't rescued them at all." {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18}

Lord, may I never blame You for evil that befalls me, nor for the bondage of satan, nor for the adverse circumstances of my life. Lord, help me see Your divine hand working in the circumstances of my life. Amen.

Exodus 6 Promise of Deliverance

¹The LORD told Moses, "Don't be discouraged. You'll see what I will do to Pharaoh. I will pressure him, and he will let your people leave. In fact he will even insist they leave." {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17}

²God continued, "I am the LORD, ³the Almighty God who appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, though I didn't reveal My name LORD to them. ⁴I promised to give them the land of Canaan, where they were living. ⁵I know the people are suffering under the Egyptians, and I will keep My promise to them. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

6"So tell the Israelites, 'I am the LORD and I will free you from slavery in Egypt, and I will free you from Egypt with great power. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} "You will be My special people, and I will be your God. You will know that I am the One who got you out of Egypt. ⁸I will bring you to the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. It will be your very own land. I am the LORD." {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} ⁹When Moses told the people what God had said, they were so discouraged by their slavery that they didn't believe him. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2}

Lord, teach me the power of Your personal name; I know You are the great I AM. You are God. I worship You for Your greatness and power. I cling to You for Your love and compassion when I hurt. Amen.

¹⁰Then the LORD told ¹¹Moses to go tell Pharaoh to let the people leave. ¹²Moses objected, saying, "If they won't listen to me, I doubt that Pharaoh would listen, especially since I'm not a good speaker." {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} ¹³God spoke again to Moses and Aaron and told them to insist that Pharaoh let the Israelites leave Egypt.

¹⁴The heads of various clans in Israel were there: Reuben's sons were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. ¹⁵Simeon's sons were: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul (whose mother was a Canaanite). ¹⁶Levi's sons were: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. (Levi lived to be 137 years old.) ¹⁷Gershon's sons were Libni and Shimi. ¹⁸Kohath's sons were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. (Kohath lived to be 133 years old.) ¹⁹Merari's sons were Mahali and Mushi. These were the clans of the Levites.

²⁰Amram, Levi's grandson, married his aunt Jochebed, and they had Aaron and Moses. (Amram lived to be 137 years old.) 21Izhar's sons were Korah, Nepheg, and Zicri. ²²Uzziel's sons were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Zithri. ²³Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon. Aaron and Elisheba had four sons: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 24Korah's sons were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These were the clans of Korah, Levi's great-grandson. ²⁵Aaron's son Eleazar married a daughter of Putiel, and they had Phinehas. These are the ancestors of the Levite clans. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

²⁶The LORD had told Aaron and Moses to lead the Israelites out of Egypt by their clans. ²⁷This same Moses and Aaron were the ones who asked Pharaoh to let the Egyptians leave. ²⁸When the LORD spoke to Moses, ²⁹He said, "Remember who I am. And don't be afraid to tell Pharaoh everything I've told you." {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} ³⁰Then Moses asked, as he had done before, "Since I'm not a good speaker, why would Pharaoh listen to me?" {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7}

Lord, just as Moses hesitated to do Your will, sometimes I am confused and fearful to obey You and do what is right. Forgive my disobedience and use me; I want to be Your servant. Amen.

Exodus 7 The Rod Becomes a Snake and the First Plague

¹God told Moses, "You will be like God speaking to Pharaoh, and Aaron will be your prophet, speaking for you. {461 Stir Up Your Spiritual Gift-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:6} ²Tell Aaron everything I tell you, and Aaron will speak to Pharaoh, telling him to let My people leave the country. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8} ³I will make Pharaoh stubborn, and in spite of My many miracles, 4he won't listen to you. But I will bring a series of terrible calamities on Egypt and then I will lead My people out. {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} 5When these disasters come, the Egyptians will finally realize who I am." {516 Victory over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12}

⁶So Moses and Aaron did what the LORD told them to do. At that time, when they spoke to Pharaoh, {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} ⁷Moses was 80 years old, and Aaron was 83. {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} 8The Lord said, 9"Pharaoh may ask you to perform a miracle. So Aaron, throw your shepherd's rod in front of Pharaoh and it will turn into a snake." {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ¹⁰Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and his officials, Aaron threw down his rod, and it turned into a snake, just as God had said. {329 Obstinate-Prayer, 2 Cor. 11:4} ¹¹Pharaoh called in his wise men, sorcerers, and magicians, and they did the same thing. {422 Satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} ¹²Each one threw down his stick and it turned into a snake. But Aaron's snake swallowed up their snakes. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ¹³Yet Pharaoh remained stubborn, refusing to listen, just as the LORD had said. {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2}

Lord, I know satan has supernatural power, but greater is Christ in me than satan, who is the god of this world. Amen.

¹⁴The LORD said to Moses, "Since Pharaoh refuses to let the people leave, {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 15in the morning take your rod and wait for him by the Nile River." 16Say to him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to tell you to release His people so they can worship Him in the desert. But you haven't obeyed His command. ¹⁷So here is how you will know that He is really the LORD: when I will strike the Nile with my shepherd's rod, the water will be turned into blood immediately. ¹⁸This will cause the fish to die and the river to stink, and no one will be able to drink the water." {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ¹⁹Then the LORD told Moses to tell Aaron to point his rod toward the streams, canals, ponds, and reservoirs, and all the water will turn to blood. Even water in buckets and jars will turn to blood. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

²⁰Moses and Aaron did what the Lord told them to do. When Pharaoh arrived at the Nile, Aaron struck the Nile with his rod, and the water turned into blood. Just as God had predicted, {253

Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} ²¹the fish died, the water smelled, and the people could not drink it. Blood was everywhere in Egypt. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

²²The Egyptian magicians also turned water into blood. So Pharaoh became even more stubborn, and he would not listen to Moses' and Aaron's request to let the Israelites leave. {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²³He went into his palace and thought nothing more of the incident. ²⁴To get drinking water the Egyptians dug wells along the banks of the Nile.

²⁵God spoke to Moses a week later. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7}

Lord, the Egyptians worshiped the Nile as a god, but You were victorious over their god. Lord, I worship You for Your judgmental power; be merciful to me and protect me by Your love. Amen.

Exodus 8 The Second, Third, and Fourth Plagues

¹The LORD said to Moses, "Go tell Pharaoh, 'Let the Lord's people leave so they can worship Him. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²If you refuse, then He will send countless frogs all across Egypt. ³The Nile will be filled with frogs. Frogs will be in your palace and on your bed, in the houses of all the Egyptians, and even in their ovens and cooking dishes. ⁴Frogs will crawl over you, your officials, and everyone in Egypt. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

5°Tell Aaron to point his rod toward all the rivers, canals, and reservoirs so there will be frogs everywhere." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 6When Aaron did this, frogs covered the whole nation. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} 7But Pharaoh's magicians did the same thing. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} 8Then Pharaoh contacted Moses and Aaron and begged them to take the frogs away, and if they did he would let the Israelites leave to offer sacrifices to the LORD. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

⁹Moses said, "Okay. Tell me when you want me to pray that they will be gone, and I will. Then the frogs will be gone except in the Nile." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹⁰Pharaoh said, "Do it tomorrow." "All right," Moses replied. "Then you will know that there is no one like the LORD our God. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹¹All the frogs will die except those in the Nile."

Lord, the world is so quick to seek physical relief from sufferings, but I am slow to seek relief for spiritual sufferings. Teach me to be quick in confessing my sin, and be just as swift to seek Your presence. Amen.

¹²Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh's palace, and then Moses prayed earnestly about the frogs. ¹³And the LORD kept His word. Frogs died everywhere—in people's houses, yards, and fields. ¹⁴People gathered up the dead frogs into big piles, and the stench was awful. {131 Effective-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7} ¹⁵Did Pharaoh let the Israelites leave? No. When he saw the frogs were gone, he again was stubborn and would not let the people go, just as God had predicted. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

¹⁶Then God told Moses to tell Aaron to hit the ground with his rod so that gnats would be everywhere. ¹⁷As soon as he did this, gnats started crawling on people and animals. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁸Like before, Pharaoh's magicians tried to copy Aaron, but this time they couldn't. ¹⁹They told Pharaoh God had done this. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} But again Pharaoh remained stubborn and wouldn't listen to Moses and Aaron's request that he let the people leave. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

Lord, the work of Your finger is so obviously apparent that the world realizes that only You do miracles. Lord, help me clearly see Your work in my life, and praise You for its power. Amen.

²⁰Then God said to Moses that tomorrow morning when Pharaoh goes to the Nile, he should meet him there and say, "The LORD says to let His people leave so they can worship Him. ²¹But if you don't, I will send flies everywhere—in all your houses and even on the ground. ²²But they won't be in Goshen, where My people are. This way you will know that I am the LORD. ²³This miraculous difference between the Israelites and the Egyptians will occur tomorrow." {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ²⁴The LORD did as He said, and swarms of flies were in Pharaoh's palace and his officials' houses, and they were a terrible nuisance everywhere. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21}

²⁵So Pharaoh called in Moses and Aaron and said, "You win. Your people can sacrifice to your God, but you have to stay here in Egypt." ²⁶Moses said, "We can't do that. Your people wouldn't like that, and they would start stoning us to death. ²⁷We have to take off for three days into the desert, as our God told us." {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} ²⁸Pharaoh responded, "Well, okay. But don't go very far away. And pray for me." {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5}

²⁹Moses replied, "Yes, Pharaoh, I will pray for you right away, and the flies will leave tomorrow. But don't lie to us again by saying you'll let the people leave, and then change your mind." {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

Lord, I thank You that Moses didn't compromise what You ordered. May I always worship You in the way You order. Amen.

³⁰Then Moses left and prayed, ³¹and God caused every last fly to go away. ³²But once more Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let the people leave. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Exodus 9 The Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Plagues

1"Go back to Pharaoh," God told Moses, "and tell him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says to let His people leave so they can worship Him. ²If you continue to refuse, ³He will send a terrible disease on all your animals, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁴but not on the Israelites' animals."

⁵The LORD said He would do this the next day. ⁶And He did. All the Egyptians' animals died, but not one of the Israelites' animals died. ⁷Pharaoh checked on this and found it was true. But he remained unchanged and still would not release God's people. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

⁸God told Moses and Aaron to take some ashes and have Moses toss them into the sky while Pharaoh was watching. ⁹God said these ashes will blow over all of Egypt and cause terrible boils to break out on people and animals. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁰So they took some ashes, went to see Pharaoh, and tossed up the ashes. Immediately terrible boils broke out on people and animals. ¹¹The magicians couldn't repeat this miracle because they had boils too. ¹²Did Pharaoh release the Israelites? No. Again he was stubborn. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Lord, Your hand of judgment never completely destroys us; You allow pain to push us to the point of desperation. Lord, You want to reveal Your glory through our sufferings because one utterance of praise while we suffer is greater than a thousand words of praise when we are well. Amen.

¹³Then the LORD again told Moses to go to Pharaoh early the next morning and demand that the Israelites be freed. 14"Then say, 'But if you don't, I will send the worst-yet plagues against you, your officials, and your people. This will show you that I am the only true God. 15I could have already killed you all by now. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁶But I have kept you alive to show My power to you and everyone. ¹⁷Since you are still determined not to let My people leave, 18 tomorrow I will send the worst hailstorm Egypt has ever seen. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 19Bring all your livestock into barns. Any person or animal still in the fields will die."

²⁰Some of the Egyptians were terrified by this, and so they brought their animals and their slaves safely inside. ²¹But others paid no attention, and left their flocks and slaves in the fields. ²²God then told Moses, "Point toward the sky and hail will fall on all Egypt—on people, animals, and crops." ²³When Moses did this, God sent thunder, lightning, and hail. ²⁴This was the worst storm in all of Egypt's history. ²⁵Everything in the fields—people, animals, crops—was struck. Even bark was stripped from trees. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁶But no hail fell in Goshen. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

²⁷Pharaoh called in Moses and Aaron and admitted, "I have sinned. The LORD is right, and I and my people are wrong. ²⁸Ask God to end this terrible thunder and hail, and I will let you and your people leave." ²⁹Moses replied, "Okay. I will leave town and ask God to stop the thunder and hail. The moment they stop you will know that the LORD is in charge. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ³⁰But I doubt that you and your officials really fear the LORD God."

³¹Flax and barley crops were destroyed just as they were ripening. ³²But wheat was not damaged because it ripened later. ³³Moses left the palace and prayed, and the thunder, hail, and rain stopped. ³⁴When the storm was over, Pharaoh sinned by again ³⁵refusing to let the Israelites go, just as God had said would happen. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Lord, You send rain into our lives to make us appreciate sunny days; we consider rain oppressive and restrictive but rain gives life to the food we eat. You send us rain within Your plan and providence; help me see Your purpose and submit to Your will. Amen.

Exodus 10 The Eighth, and Ninth Plagues

¹God told Moses, "Go back to Pharaoh, because I have made his heart stubborn so that I can work more miracles. ²You can tell your children and grandchildren how I dealt with the Egyptians to show that I am the LORD." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 3So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, "The LORD, our God, is asking, 'How long will you refuse to obey Me? Release My people so they can worship Me. 4If you don't, then tomorrow I will cover Egypt with locusts. ⁵There will be so many of them that you won't be able to see the ground. They will destroy anything left from the hailstorm, including trees. ⁶They will fill your palace, your officials' homes, and every house in Egypt. More locusts will appear than your ancestors ever saw in Egypt." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} After Moses walked out, ⁷Pharaoh's officials said, "How long will you let these problems continue? Why not just let the people leave so they can worship their God? Just think: Egypt is in ruins."

Lord, help me see that sin destroys the good things of life; help me look beyond Your arm of judgment to see the reason for the bad things that happen. Amen.

⁸Pharaoh had Moses and Aaron brought to him. He said, "Okay, you may go worship your God. But who will be going?" {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5} ⁹Moses answered, "All of us because we want to celebrate together. And we'll take all our flocks." {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹⁰Pharaoh replied, "I now see what you are up to. ¹¹No, only your men may go." Then Moses and Aaron were chased out of the palace. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

¹²God told Moses to lift his hand out over Egypt so that locusts would come and eat everything left by the hailstorm. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹³When Moses did that, the Lord sent a strong wind from the east that blew over Egypt that day and all night. By morning ¹⁴locusts were everywhere. It was the worst locust plague in Egyptian history, never to be that bad again. ¹⁵The countless locusts even blotted out the sun so that the sky was dark. They ate everything left after the hailstorm, including every plant and all the fruit on trees. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁶Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron and again he admitted, "I have sinned. ¹⁷Please forgive me and ask God to get rid of these locusts." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ¹⁸So Moses left Pharaoh and prayed. ¹⁹Then the LORD sent a strong wind from the Mediterranean Sea, which pushed the locusts east into the Red Sea. Not one locust was left. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ²⁰Again the LORD made Pharaoh so stubborn that he refused to let the Israelites go.

Lord, You are the God of the winds, You allow the winds to blow good things to me; thank You God for all the blessings of life. You allow the winds to blow evil across my path; help me see Your plan in all things. Amen.

²¹The LORD told Moses, "Point toward the sky, and a thick darkness will cover Egypt." ²²So Moses did, and Egypt was in total darkness for three days. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²³The Egyptians couldn't see each other and they couldn't go anywhere. But no daytime darkness fell in all of Goshen. 24Pharaoh again sent for Moses. He said, "Go worship your God. You may take your women and children, but leave your animals here." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 25Moses replied, "No. We need our animals for sacrifices to the LORD. our God. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 26We won't know which ones we will need till we get there." 27Once more the LORD made Pharaoh stubborn. 28In fact, he was so disgusted he said to Moses, "Get out of here. If I ever see you again, I will kill you." ²⁹Moses replied, "That's fine with me. And I don't ever want to see you again."

Lord, there are many people today who are like Pharaoh, they know the truth of Your word, but they will not obey You or believe in You. I pray for those I know who are like Pharaoh; convict them of their sin, and bring them to saving faith. Amen.

Exodus 11 The Tenth Plague–Death of the Firstborn

¹The Lord said to Moses, "I will bring one more disaster on Pharaoh and his people. Then he will let you leave. In fact he will be so glad for you to go that he will practically push you out. {345 Patience-Prayer, James
5:7-8}

Lord, most of the time I don't see the contest between You and satan in this world. Give me faith to trust You in good days and bad; give me faith to change the things I can change; give me patience to endure the things I can't change. Amen.

²"Tell your people that they are to ask their neighbors for jewelry made of gold and silver." ³So God made the Egyptians respect the Israelites, and Pharaoh and his officials and all the people had high regard for Moses. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

⁴Moses conveyed this word to Pharaoh: "About midnight God will go throughout Egypt, 5 and the firstborn son in every family, from your son to the son of the lowest slave. will die. Also the firstborn male of every cow will die. 6People will cry in terrible sorrow—worse than any crying ever before or since. ⁷But among the Israelites things will be so quiet that not even a dog will bark. Then you Egyptians will know that the LORD has made a distinction between you and the Israelites. 8All your officials will ask me to leave with my people. Then we will leave." In his anger Moses turned and left. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

⁹God had earlier told Moses that Pharaoh would not listen to him, and that that would give the Lord opportunity to perform more miracles. ¹⁰So as Pharaoh saw these miracles, the LORD made him increasingly stubborn, refusing to let the Israelites leave. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

Lord, taking the life of the firstborn seems cruel, but not when I consider the greatness of evil that pushed You to that judgment. Lord, You gave the life of Your Firstborn—Jesus Christ. His suffering seemed so severe for the Sinless One, but not when I consider the greatness of evil. Amen.

Exodus 12 The First Passover

¹Later the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, ²"This month is to be the first month of each year for you. ³Tell your people that each year on the tenth day of this month each family is to pick out a lamb or goat for them to eat. 4If a family is too small to eat the whole animal, they should share it with their neighbors. 5The animals are to be a one-year-old male, with no defects. ⁶At evening on the 14th day of this first month, the families are to kill their animals. 7Some of the animals' blood is to be put on the top and sides of the door frame of each house. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 8That night they are to roast the animal and eat it with bitter herbs and bread made without yeast. 9They are not to eat the meat raw or boiled; they are to roast it, including the head, legs, and internal organs. 10Don't eat any of it the next day. If some of it is left the next morning, then burn it.

11"When you eat the meal, be ready to travel with your sandals on and your walking sticks handy. Eat the meal quickly. I am calling this event the Passover. ¹²That night I will kill the firstborn son in every family and the firstborn male of every animal. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} In this way I will show that I am superior to all the Egyptian gods. ¹³The blood on your door posts will show me you are Israelites. So when I see the blood, I will pass over you. You will be safe while I kill the Egyptian firstborns." {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

Lord, You spoke in pictures through the Passover lamb; always help me see the LAMB who takes away my sin. Lord, when I celebrate the Communion table, help me look beyond the bread and cup to see Jesus. Amen.

¹⁴"Celebrate this event every year from now on as a reminder of this night. {210 Habit-Prayer, Acts 3:1} ¹⁵For seven days afterward eat only bread without yeast, being sure on the first of these days to throw away any yeast in your homes. If you eat anything that week with yeast, you will be excluded from the nation. ¹⁶On the first and seventh days of that week, meet together for worship. And during that week don't do any work except to cook meals. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} 17"Celebrate this Festival of Bread without Yeast as a way of remembering that I brought you out of Egypt. This is to be done annually from now on. ¹⁸In this festival eat bread without yeast starting on the evening of the 14th of the first month and continuing till the evening of the 21st. ¹⁹During this week don't have any yeast at all in your homes; if you do, you will be excluded from the nation. ²⁰Avoid yeast altogether; all your bread is to be without yeast." {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

²¹Moses called the leaders of Israel together and said, "Have each family get a lamb to slaughter for the Passover meal. ²²Then have them use a branch from a hyssop plant as a brush to put some blood on the top and sides of your door frame, and stay in your house that evening. ²³In the night the Lord will kill the firstborn sons in every Egyptian family. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Then when He sees the blood on your doorposts, He will pass over your house and the Destroying Angel will not enter. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

²⁴"Obey these instructions, ²⁵and then when we enter the land the Lord promised us, celebrate the Passover. ²⁶When your children ask, 'What are we celebrating?' {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ²⁷tell them, 'This is the Passover,'" recognizing the fact that the LORD passed over our houses when He killed the firstborn of the Egyptians. Then people bowed down and worshiped the LORD, {539 Worship-Ministry Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²⁸and they did what Moses and Aaron told them to do. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

²⁹At midnight the LORD killed the firstborn son in every Egyptian family, from Pharaoh's son to the prisoners' sons and also the firstborn animals. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³⁰Pharaoh, his officials, and everyone in Egypt got up that night and started weeping terribly. Someone was dead in every home. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15}

Lord, those who died were not covered with the blood; I know my sins are covered by the blood of Christ, I pray for those reading this book whose sins are not covered. Amen.

³¹Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron and said, "Get out of Egypt! Go worship your God. ³²Take your animals and be on your way. But ask your God to bless me." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} out quickly, because they thought, "If they don't, we will all be dead." ³⁴So the Israelites took their bread dough without yeast, put it in pans wrapped in cloths and placed it on their shoulders. ³⁵They had asked Egyptians for jewelry and clothes. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³⁶And the Egyptians were friendly to the Israelites, and gave them whatever they asked for. In this way they carried away much of Egypt's wealth. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

³⁷The Israelites went from Rameses to Succoth. There were about 600,000 men, not counting women and children, ³⁸and many other people who went with them, along with many sheep, goats, and cattle. ³⁹When they stopped to eat, their bread was without yeast because they had to hurry to get out of Egypt.

⁴⁰The Israelites had lived in Egypt 430 years. ⁴¹In fact they left exactly 430 years to the very day after they had arrived. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

Lord, freedom is a wonderful experience; I want to be free from all bondage in the victory that Jesus gives. Lord, I know I won't be completely free until heaven; help me see in small victories on this earth the greatness of freedom I'll see in heaven. Amen.

⁴²Because the LORD watched over them that night, they were to remember that night for generations to come. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

⁴³Then the LORD gave Moses and Aaron instructions for celebrating the Passover. "For one thing, only Israelites are to take part. ⁴⁴You may include your slaves if they have been circumcised. ⁴⁵But temporary residents or foreign workers are excluded. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ⁴⁶Eat the entire meal inside; don't go outside. And no bones of the lamb are to be broken. ⁴⁷Every Israelite must participate.

⁴⁸"If someone who is not an Israelite wants to celebrate the Passover with you, then he and every male in his family must first be circumcised. Then they can eat the meal with you. ⁴⁹This applies to Israelites and foreigners who are with you." {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1} ⁵⁰The Israelites followed these instructions from the Lord. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁵¹That very day the LORD began to lead His people out of Egypt by their tribes. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

Lord, Your victory always comes. Help me to be patient in times of persecution, knowing You will eventually reward Your servants. Lord, You love to reward Your servants with good things; help me look beyond my difficulties to see the good days You've prepared for me on earth or heaven. Amen.

Exodus 13 Remembering the Passover

¹The LORD said to Moses, ²"Dedicate to me the firstborn son in each of your families and the firstborn males of each of your flocks." {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} 3Moses told the people, "Remember this day when the Lord helped you leave Egypt and your slavery there. Eat nothing on this day with yeast. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} 4Mark this day in April when you are leaving and 5celebrate it when you arrive in the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites, and Jebusites, the land I promised to your ancestors. It is a land with lots of milk from cows and lots of honey from bees. {369 Prayer-Journey Prayer, Ps. 126:5-6}

6"Each spring celebrate the Festival of Bread without Yeast for seven days. Then on the seventh day have a great feast. 7During those days eat nothing with yeast in it. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} 8Tell your children that you are doing this because God helped you leave Egypt."

Lord, I pray for my children and grandchildren that they may follow Christ in every way. Help them know You as I know You. Lord, may my children stand on my shoulders and reach higher for greater spiritual blessings. Amen.

9"This annual celebration will remind you that you are a unique people, and this will be like having a sign on your hand and your forehead. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} ¹⁰Be sure to celebrate this event every year in April. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

¹¹ The Lord will give you the land of the Canaanites as He promised. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ¹²So in return you are to give Him the firstborn of every son and every male animal because they are His. ¹³You may purchase back from the Lord a firstborn donkey by giving Him a lamb. But if you don't, then kill the donkey. But be sure to save every firstborn son.

¹⁴"When your children ask what the Passover means, explain that God brought you out of slavery in Egypt by His great power. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ¹⁵Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us leave, so the LORD killed the firstborn son in every family in Egypt and every firstborn male animal. These are why we keep every firstborn son alive but sacrifice to the LORD every firstborn male animal. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ¹⁶This ceremony, as I said before, will be like a sign on your hand and your forehead to remind you that the LORD brought you out of Egypt by His great power." {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

¹⁷When Pharaoh let the people leave, they didn't go through Philistine territory by the coast, though that was the shortest route. God said, "If the Philistines attack them, they might want to retreat back to Egypt." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁸That's why God led them through the desert toward the Red Sea. Yet when the Israelites left Egypt, they were ready to go to war, if necessary. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

Lord, I like it when You lead me on smooth highways. I don't understand why You lead into the desert. Deserts are dangerous, lonely, and I can get lost in the wilderness. Be with me when I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. Amen.

¹⁹Moses took the bones of Joseph with them, because years before, Joseph had asked that they take his bones to Canaan and bury him there. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ²⁰Leaving Succoth, the Israelites camped at Etham near the desert. ²¹The LORD guided them in the daytime by a thick cloud and at nighttime by a fire that gave them light in the dark desert. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} That way they could travel during either the day or the night. ²²And the pillar remained. {124 Divine-Presence Answer to Prayer, Gen. 32:30}

Lord, it was easy for the Israelites to follow a cloud that could be seen up ahead. Today, I can't see a cloud, but I see something better. I see Your direction for my life and Your will for my life. Lord, when You unexpectedly turn a right angle in my life, help me accept Your will and follow Your leading. Amen.

Exodus 14 Crossing the Red Sea

¹At Etham the LORD said to Moses, ²"Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp near Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the Red Sea. {49 Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ³This will make Pharaoh think you don't know where to go or that you are trapped between the desert and the sea. ⁴I will make him stubborn again, and he will pursue you. But I will receive glory over Pharaoh, {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} and the Egyptians will know that I am the true God." So the Israelites camped where God told them to. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

⁵Hearing that all the Israelites left, Pharaoh was alarmed. He said, "We have let them get away. So we'll miss having them as our slaves." ⁶So he got in his chariot and ⁷went after the Israelites with 600 of his best charioteers and some others. {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2} ⁸Again the LORD had made Pharaoh stubborn so that he chased the Israelites even though they were on the way with self-confidence. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Pharaoh's entire cavalry of horses, chariots, chariot drivers, and soldiers caught up with the Israelites at their camp by the sea near Pi Hahiroth across from Baal-Zephon. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36}

¹⁰As the Israelites saw Pharaoh's army coming, they were scared stiff and prayed to the LORD. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹¹They said to Moses, "Why did you bring us out here to die? Why not let us die in Egypt and have decent burials? ¹²We told you to let us alone. We would rather be slaves there than die here in the desert." {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

Lord, You lead Your people into danger so they will trust You for deliverance. Lead me every day of my life; I can't ask You not to lead me into danger because then I wouldn't experience Your deliverance. Wherever You lead me I will follow. Teach me to trust You every day of my life. Amen.

¹³Moses answered, "Don't be afraid. You'll see the LORD save you today, and this is the last time you will ever see the Egyptians. ¹⁴The LORD will fight for you without you doing a thing." {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15}

¹⁵The LORD said to Moses, "Why do you keep praying to Me? Have the people keep moving. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹⁶Hold your shepherd's rod over the Red Sea, and a path in the water will open up for you to walk on dry ground. {49 Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹⁷I will make the Egyptian cavalrymen and soldiers so stubborn that they will follow you into the sea. Then I will be honored in defeating Pharaoh and his army. {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} ¹⁸Then all of Egypt will know that I am LORD." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

¹⁹The angel of God, who had gone ahead of the Israelites, moved behind them, as did the large cloud. ²⁰That way the cloud was between the Israelites and the Egyptians. At night the cloud gave light to the Israelites, but darkness to the Egyptians, {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} so that they couldn't see the Israelites. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ²¹Moses held his rod over the sea, and all night long a strong wind from the east blew and made a dry path in the sea. ²²The people walked through on dry land with a wall of water on each side of the path. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

²³The Egyptian chariots and horsemen followed right after the Israelites. ²⁴Before dawn the Lord looked down at the Egyptians and made them panic. ²⁵He made their chariot wheels come off so that they couldn't move. The Egyptians shouted, "Let's get out of here. The LORD is fighting for them and is against us." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

²⁶When the Israelites got to the other side, the LORD told Moses to hold his rod over the sea to make the water flow over the Egyptians and drown them. ²⁷Moses did that just as the sun was coming up, and the water rushed over the Egyptians so that {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁸Pharaoh's entire army drowned. Not one of them survived. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

²⁹The Israelites had walked across on dry ground at the sea bottom with a wall of water on each side of them. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ³⁰The LORD had rescued His people that day, and looking back, the Israelites saw many Egyptian bodies washed up on the shore. ³¹Seeing this remarkable display of God's great power, the Israelites worshiped Him and trusted Him and Moses. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15}

Lord, I know the challenge of danger does not build character, it reveals character. Give me character to face the dangers of life with faith so I can grow in my trust in You. Lord, the people of Israel should have become spiritual giants because they walked through the Red Sea while their enemies, Pharaoh and his army, drowned. But Israel later grumbled in the wilderness and doubted You; help me learn from every difficulty and grow a strong, trusting faith to walk with You. Amen.

Exodus 15 A Song of Deliverance

¹Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} "I will sing to the LORD because of His great victory in throwing horses and their riders into the sea. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

²"The LORD gives me strength and helps me sing; He has saved me. He is my God, and my father's God, and so I will praise Him.

Moses recognized God's initiative in victory because "He has triumphed gloriously!" (15:1, NLT). In victory God glorified Himself. His triumph was unaided by human help; its success was greater than anything conceived today. Today we treat God like a server who brings us a hamburger. We've got God where we use Him to answer our prayers, or at least we know where He is if we need Him. Our "seeker" attitude has reduced God into One who we think can be manipulated when we need Him. Lord, forgive me when I've sought You to manage You for my business or success. Help me reverse the priority; I seek You for who You are, and for Yourself alone. Amen.

³"He is like a warrior, and the LORD is His name. ⁴He threw Pharaoh's chariots and soldiers into the Red Sea, and drowned them there. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁵They were covered with water, and they sank to the bottom like stones. ⁶"With Your strong right hand, You crushed them to pieces. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁷In your majesty You defeated Your enemies. You were so angry, You got rid of them like straw on fire. {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7} ⁸You merely breathed, and the waters piled up and the walls were solid as ice.

9"Our enemy said, 'I will pursue them, capture them, and destroy them. I will share the spoils and then kill them with my sword.' 10 But the sea covered them, and they sank into the sea like lead." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Moses prayed magnificently, "Who is like You, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?" (Exod. 15:11). Moses asked a rhetorical question that has no answer because no earthly god compares to the LORD. He is incomparable and He is incomprehensible. Lord, You are more beautiful than any beauty I can see on earth. You are greater than any power or might I can describe. You are more glorious than any glory I can conceive. My greatest praise is to call You Creator God, Omnipotent Lord, the Almighty One, the Source of my life, and My Hope for eternity in heaven. Amen.

¹¹"No one is like You, LORD. You are so majestic and holy, awesome, and working miracles. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹²When You simply raised Your hand, the earth swallowed them up. ¹³"You lead Your people with great love, and You guide them to Your holy land. [483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} 14When nations heard of this, they were terrified; the Philistines were horrified. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ¹⁵The leaders of Edom and Moab were afraid too, and the Canaanites melted with dread. ¹⁶Your powerful arm silenced them, causing Your people to march on by. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁷"You will bring the people You have inherited to settle on Your mountain. This is the special place You built for them by Your own hands. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ¹⁸You, LORD, will be King forever." {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13}

¹⁹When Pharaoh with his cavalry and chariots rushed into the sea, the LORD brought the walls of water down on them. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁰Then Miriam, a prophetess and Aaron's sister, played a tambourine and led the women in playing and dancing to the Lord. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ²¹She sang this song: "Sing praises to the LORD for His victory is great. He has thrown horses and riders into the sea." {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²²Then Moses led the Israelites into the Shur Desert where they had no water for three days. ²³Finally they found water, but it was bitter. So they named the place Marah (meaning "Bitter"). ²⁴The people complained, "Moses, without water we will die." {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} ²⁵So when Moses told the Lord about this problem, God told him to throw a tree branch into the water. Moses did that, and immediately the water was okay to drink. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12}

At Marah the Lord gave His people some commands to check out their level of commitment. ²⁶"If you will do what is right and obey Me, you won't get any of the diseases I sent on the Egyptians." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

²⁷Later the Israelites came to an oasis at Elim, where there were 12 springs and 70 palm trees, and they camped there.

Lord, why is it we forget the miracles You do for us and complain and doubt You? Teach me to trust You when all my needs are met as well as times when my pocketbook is empty. Lord, why do so many Christians see only one day at a time? Give me faith for the long haul. Lord, when times are difficult, teach me to go to You in prayer, just as Moses prayed when there was bitter water. Amen.

Exodus 16 Bread of Heaven

¹They went into the desert, arriving there one month after leaving Egypt. ²Again everyone complained against Moses and Aaron. ³"We wish we were back in Egypt, which was far better than here. There we had plenty to eat, but here we will starve to death." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

⁴God told Moses, "Here is what I will do. I will cause food to come down out of the sky. Each day the people can pick up food for that day. I'll see if they can obey Me. ⁵Then each week on the sixth day they can pick up twice as much food, so they will have some for the Sabbath." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

⁶Calling the people together, Moses and Aaron said, "This evening you will know that the LORD is the One who brought you out of Egypt. ⁷Then in the morning you will see His power ⁸because He has heard your complaints, which were really against Him, not us." {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

⁹Then Moses told Aaron to tell the people that the LORD heard their concerns. ¹⁰When Aaron was speaking to them, they looked toward the desert and in the cloud appeared God's glory. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹¹Moses said, ¹²"I have heard the people's complaints. So tell them that every evening they will have meat to eat and every morning they will have plenty of bread. This will remind them that I am the LORD." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹³That evening quail were everywhere. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

Lord, You were gracious to give Israel food to eat after they wanted the food of Egypt. Lord, You've been good to me, even when I'm unappreciative of Your goodness; thank You for grace and not judgment. Amen.

¹⁴Then the next morning everything was wet with dew. When the dew left, thin flakes were there. ¹⁵This was something new to the people, so they said, "Manna" (meaning "What Is It?"). Moses answered, "This bread is from the LORD. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} ¹⁶Get about two quarts for each person." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

¹⁷The Israelites gathered the flakes, ¹⁸and two quarts per person was about right for each family. ¹⁹Moses told them not to keep the flakes overnight, ²⁰but some people

did. Then the next morning it was full of maggots and smelled terrible. This made Moses very angry. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

²¹Each morning the people picked up the manna, but when the sun grew hot, what was left melted. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²²On the sixth day of the week, the people took four quarts for each person. When the people asked about this, Moses explained, ²³"The seventh day is to be a day of rest in honor of the LORD. So on the sixth day you should bake or boil some for the next day."

²⁴The people did as Moses told them to do, and on the seventh morning the food smelled fine and had no maggots. ²⁵Moses said again, "Since the seventh day is the Sabbath for the LORD, no food will be on the ground that day. ²⁶Each week the food will be there for six days but not on the Sabbath." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

²⁷Some people looked for the flakes on the seventh day, but none was there. ²⁸This displeased the LORD. So He said to Moses, "Why do these people keep disobeying Me? ²⁹I gave them the seventh day as a day of rest. So they should stay home on the Sabbath." ³⁰So they did. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

³¹The people called the bread Manna (meaning "What Is It?"). It was white and flat and tasted like honey wafers. ³²Moses told the people to set aside two quarts of manna as a kind of memorial so that future generations could see what God provided for them in the desert when they escaped from Egypt. {388 Provision of Food

Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ³³So Moses told Aaron to put some in a jar for future generations to see. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³⁴Aaron did this, and later the jar was kept in the sacred chest in the tabernacle. ³⁵The Israelites ate manna for 40 years while they were in the desert. ³⁶The manna jar held about two quarts, about a tenth of a bushel.

Lord, thank You for daily feeding my soul on Scripture much as You daily fed Your people with manna in the wilderness. I need Your daily strength from the Bible just as Israel needed daily physical strength from manna. Teach me again that I can't live on yesterday's blessings, just as Israel couldn't keep manna from one day until the next. Yet every day You give me what I need for that day, just as each Israelite had all they needed each day. Amen.

Exodus 17 The Battle over Water

¹After moving from place to place, as the LORD directed them, the Israelites finally camped at Rephidim, near Mount Sinai, but no water was there. {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ²Again the people complained to Moses that they needed water. Moses asked, "Why complain to me? And why are you trying the LORD patience?" {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ³But the thirsty people kept on complaining, "Why did you bring us here to die of thirst with our children and animals?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

Lord, You had miraculously led Israel through the Red Sea and You had miraculously provided water at Marah; why couldn't they trust You to do the miraculous again? Lord, sometimes I'm just like the people of Israel in the desert; I doubt Your leading even when You've provided in the past. I believe; help Thou my unbelief. Give me more faith. Amen.

⁴Moses turned to the Lord, "What shall I do with these people? They are about to stone me." {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7}

⁵The LORD said, "Here's what you are to do. Take some of the leaders with you to Mount Sinai and ⁶strike a rock there with your shepherd's rod, and water will come gushing out for the people to drink." Moses did this. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁷Because the people had quarreled and had complained the Lord was impatient, Moses named the place Massah (meaning "Tasting" and Meribah (meaning "Complaining"). {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31}

Lord, it's amazing how unbelievers turn against You and refuse to follow Your servants. Keep my ear tuned to Your voice so I'll obey both You and the leaders You put over me. Amen.

⁸At Rephidim the Amalikites attacked Israel. ⁹"Get men ready to fight," Moses told Joshua. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ¹⁰So as Joshua was leading men into battle, {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} Moses, Aaron and Hur went to a hilltop. ¹¹When Moses held up his hands, the Israelites were winning, but when he dropped his hands, they started losing. ¹²Moses got tired, {222 Hindrances to Prayer (See Blocked-Prayer, and Various "No" Answers to Prayer)} so Aaron and Hur found a rock for him to sit on. And Aaron and Hur held up his arms till sunset. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8} ¹³That enabled Joshua to defeat the Amalekites. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁴The LORD told Moses to record this victory for Joshua and to tell him, "I will eventually get rid of the Amalekites completely." {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ¹⁵Moses built an altar and named it "Yahweh-Nissi" (meaning "The LORD Is My Banner.") {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁶But Israel was at war with the Amalekites for years to come. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

Lord, Your banner is waving over me in all my trials and tribulations that declares, "There is victory" to those who trust in You. I will rally to Your banner when difficulties come. Amen.

Exodus 18 A Lesson in Leadership

¹Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, heard that God had helped His people leave Egypt. ²Moses had sent his Egyptian wife Zipporah and ³their two sons to be with Jethro. One was Gershom (meaning "Foreigner"), because Moses was like a foreigner, and ⁴the other was Eliezer (meaning "God Is My Helper"), because God saved Moses from Pharaoh. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1}

5-6Jethro heard that Moses was near Mount Sinai, so he took Moses' wife and sons to meet him. ⁷Moses welcomed Jethro warmly. When they went into Moses' tent, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} he told Jethro what the LORD had done ⁸to Pharaoh and the Egyptians and how He helped the Israelites along the way. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

⁹Excited to hear how the LORD had rescued them from the Egyptians, Jethro said, "¹⁰Praise the LORD for saving you from the Egyptians. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} ¹¹This shows that the LORD is greater than all the gods in delivering you from your proud enemies." {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ¹²Then Jethro offered a burnt offering and other sacrifices to God, and he and Aaron and Israel's leaders ate a meal together in God's presence. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15}

¹³The next day Moses heard the people's legal cases against each other all day long. ¹⁴Seeing this, Jethro said, "Why are you doing this all alone, with people standing here all day?" ¹⁵Moses answered, "Because the people want to know God's will. ¹⁶So they bring their problems to me, and I decide their cases based on God's laws." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁷Jethro said, "This is not wise ¹⁸because you and these people will soon wear yourselves out. This job is too much for you to handle by yourself. 19Here's what I suggest. Continue to take their problems to God as His representative. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ²⁰Tell them God's laws and show them what to do. ²¹But also choose some well-qualified men, who are godly, trustworthy, and honest. Put them as judges over groups of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens. ²²As judges they can decide easier cases themselves and bring difficult cases to you. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} By sharing with you in this way your load will be much lighter. 23If you do this, the pressure won't be so great, and everyone will be pleased." {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

²⁴Moses followed his father-in-law's advice, ²⁵choosing capable men and putting them over groups of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens. ²⁶They served as judges, deciding easier cases themselves and taking more difficult cases to Moses. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ²⁷Then Moses said goodbye to Jethro, who returned home into Midian. {308 Mizpah Benediction-Prayer, Gen. 31:49}

Lord, sometimes You speak through older, wiser counselors. Help me listen and learn Your principles from them. Lord, You used Jethro to give some common sense to a younger family member. Help me use the wisdom You've given me when I give counsel to younger people. Lord, help me see what You're doing in my life today so I'll understand what You're preparing me to do. Amen.

Exodus 19 God Visits His People

1-2 Leaving Rephidim, the Israelites arrived in the Sinai Desert. This was two months to the day after the Israelites left Egypt. They set up camp by Mount Sinai. {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20}

³Moses climbed the mountain to meet God, who said to him, "Say this to the people, {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} ⁴'You saw what I did to the Egyptians, and that I brought you here like an eagle carries its young on its wings. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁵Now if you obey Me, you will be My special treasure among all nations. {496 True-Worshippers Prayer, Ps. 15:1} ⁶You will be a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' This is what you are to say to the people." {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

⁷When Moses went back and told the leaders what God had said, {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} 8the people said, "We will do whatever the LORD has commanded." And Moses told the LORD their answer.

Lord, today I can be what You promised Israel; I want to be a priest who intercedes to You, I want to be holy as a sacrifice to You.

Lord, You want Your people to be different from the world; so I will live a life separated from the world, a life separated to You.

Amen.

Then the LORD told Moses, "I will come to you in a dark cloud. The people will hear Me and will trust you." {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} Then Moses reported to the people what God said.

¹⁰Again the Lord spoke, "Have the people prepare today and tomorrow for My appearance. {223 Holiness-Prayer, Peter 1:16} Have them wash their clothes ¹¹because on the third day I will come down on Mount Sinai where everyone can see. {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6} 12Put boundary markers around the mountain, and tell the people not to touch the mountain. If anyone does, he will die {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 13by being stoned or shot with arrows. No one is to touch it. Also no animal is to touch the mountain. The people can approach the mountain only when they hear a long blast from a ram's-horn trumpet." {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}

¹⁴Moses went down the mountain and told the people to wash their clothes and get ready to worship God. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ¹⁵He told them, "Get ready for God's appearance in three days, and meanwhile do not have sex." {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ¹⁶On the morning of the third day a thunder and lightning storm occurred, a thick cloud covered Mount Sinai, a loud blast of a trumpet was heard, and everyone was afraid. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} ¹⁷Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God, and they all stood at the foot of the mountain. {336 Organized-Corporate Prayer, Luke 19:46}

Lord, I expect smoke when You appear because the Bible says You are a consuming fire. I will never see You with my eyes; help me see You in my heart. Amen.

¹⁸Smoke covered the mountain because the LORD descended on the mountain in the form of fire. Smoke swirled up like a furnace, the mountain shook, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁹and the trumpet blast sounded louder and louder. Moses spoke, and God answered him with thunder. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

²⁰The LORD went down to the mountaintop and called Moses, {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} ²¹and said to him, "Warn the people not to cross the boundary markers to try to see Me. If they do that, many of them will die. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} ²²Even the priests who approach Me, are to be dedicated to Me. If they aren't, I will oppose them." {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ²³Moses replied, "I know they won't go up on the mountain, because You told us to put boundary markers around it and to consider it holy." {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}

²⁴Then the LORD told Moses, "Go get Aaron and bring him here. But don't let the people break through the boundary markers to come to Me. Otherwise I will be against them." {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31}

Lord, You want those who come to worship You to be clean on the inside and outside. I ask You to cleanse my heart by the blood of Christ; I will clean up my speech, thoughts, and life, I will also clean up my outward person. Amen.

²⁵So Moses went down and told the people what God said. {445 Speaking a Blessing-Prayer, Num. 6:27}

Exodus 20 The Ten Commands

¹God said to the Israelites, {445 Speaking a Blessing-Prayer, Num. 6:27} 2"I am the LORD, your God, who brought you out of slavery in Egypt. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} 3Do not worship any God except Me. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 4Do not make idols of anything shaped like birds, animals, or fish. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ⁵Never bow down to them or worship them. Why? Because I am the LORD your God and I want your complete worship. If you hate Me, I will punish the sins of future generations. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} But I will always love those who love and obey Me. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

7"Don't use My name disrespectfully. If you do, I will punish you. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} *Observe the Sabbath day, keeping it holy. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} °You have six days each week in which to do your work, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹ºbut on the seventh day you are to honor Me. No one is to work on that day, including your family members and slaves, and even animals and foreigners living in your cities. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹¹This is because I made the heavens, the earth, the seas, and everything in them and rested on the seventh day. Then I blessed the Sabbath and set it apart for Me. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

12"Respect your parents. If you do, you will have a long life in the land I am giving you. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 13Don't murder. {326 Non-Violence Prayer, Luke 6:28} 14Don't commit adultery. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 15Don't take what doesn't belong to you. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} 16Don't tell lies in court. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} 17Don't desire to have what belongs to someone else, including someone's wife, slaves, animals, or anything else." {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

Lord, help me keep all Your commands and to please You in all I do. Your commands show Your desire for holiness; I cannot be holy in myself. I need imputed righteousness to be holy; I can only be perfect in Christ's righteousness. Amen.

¹⁸When the people heard the thunder and trumpet blast and saw the lightning and the smoke that covered the mountain, they were afraid and stood away from the mountain. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ¹⁹They said to Moses, "Tell us what God says, and we will listen. But if God speaks to us directly, we will die." {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} 20Moses assured them, "You need not be afraid. God has come to check you out and see that you worship Him. He wants to keep you from sinning." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ²¹The people kept back while Moses went near the thick cloud. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ²²The LORD told Moses to say this to the Israelites: "You know that I spoke to you from heaven, {211 Hallelujah-Praise Prayer, Rev. 19:1} ²³telling you not to worship any gods except Me, including idols made of silver or gold. {407 Revival of Our Nation-Prayer, 2 Chron. 7:14} ²⁴Make an altar from the earth, and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings of sheep, goats, and cows. When you respect Me, I will bless you. ²⁵You may also make an altar out of stones, but don't chisel it because that will make it useless. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} ²⁶And don't build an altar with steps because that will expose yourself." {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}

Lord, I know I can't see Your face and live. All I can see are the clouds of glory. Lord, when I see the glory of Your majesty, I bow my heart to worship You. Amen.

Exodus 21 Consequences of Actions

¹⁴These are additional laws to give to the people. ²If you buy a Hebrew slave, he is to work for you for six years. Then in the seventh year you are to set him free, and he is to pay you nothing for his freedom. ³If he was unmarried when he became your slave, he alone is to be freed. But if he was married before becoming your slave, then his wife is to be freed with him. ⁴But if he married when he was your slave and had sons and daughters, then his wife and children will not be freed. {431 Servant-hood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

5"But if the slave doesn't want to leave his wife and children, 6then his master shall take him to the place of worship and punch his ear with a sharp tool." {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

Lord, You are the source of all true justice. When I appear before a local judge, remind me that true justice comes from You. Lord, just as piercing an ear lobe was a sign of submission, remind me of my submission to You. I love You and want to be Your slave. Amen.

7"If a man sells his daughter as a slave, she is not to be freed at the end of six years. 8If she doesn't please her master, she is to be bought back. He must not sell her to foreigners because that would break their contract. 9If the slave owner selects her as a wife for his son, he must treat her not as a slave but as his daughter. 10If the slave owner marries her and then takes another wife, he must continue to give her food and clothing and living quarters. ¹¹If he doesn't do any of these three, then she is free to leave without making any payment. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6}

12"Anyone who hits someone so hard that he dies must himself be put to death. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 13But if it was an accident that God allowed to happen, he may run to a safe place which I will designate. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} 14But if someone kills a person on purpose, he must be put to death, even if he must be dragged from My altar. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ¹⁵If someone attacks his own parents, he is to be put to death. ¹⁶To kidnap someone must result in death, whether the kidnapper sells him as a slave or still has him. ¹⁷Cursing one's parents must be punished by death.

¹⁸"Suppose two men argue and one hits the other with a stone or his fist, injuring him but not killing him. ¹⁹If the victim later can walk with a crutch, the man who hit him must pay for the victim's loss of time and his medical expenses. {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7} ²⁰If a man beats his slave, he must be punished, ²¹but not if the slave recovers in a couple of days, because the slave is his property. {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7}

²²"Suppose two men are fighting and they accidentally hit a pregnant woman so that she has a miscarriage. If she lives, the one who hit her must pay her husband whatever amount he demands and the judges approve. ²³But if she dies, the offender is to be killed. ²⁴If her eye is injured, the offender must have his eye injured. Or if a tooth of hers gets knocked out, one of his teeth must be knocked out. ²⁵The same holds true for her hand or foot, or burn, wound, or bruise. {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7}

²⁶"If a slave owner hits one of his slaves in the eye, causing him to be blind, the owner must free the slave. ²⁷The same is true if the owner knocks out a slave's tooth; the slave must be freed. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

²⁸"A bull that gores someone to death must be killed and its meat not eaten. The bull's owner is not responsible for the death. ²⁹But suppose the owner knew that the bull had been attacking people but didn't keep it in a pen. Then if the bull kills someone, it and its owner must be stoned to death. ³⁰However, the dead man's relatives may choose to accept payment from the bull's owner. ³¹The same law is to be applied if the bull gores a child. ³²If the bull gores a slave, the bull's owner must pay the slave owner 30 pieces of silver and the bull must be stoned to death. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

³³"If someone's ox or donkey falls into an uncovered well and dies, ³⁴the owner of the well must pay for it, and the dead animal will be his. ³⁵Suppose a man's bull injures someone else's bull and it dies. The two owners must sell the live bull and split the money between them. ³⁶But if the owner of the bull knew the bull attacked people and didn't keep it penned in, the owner of the live bull must pay for the dead bull, and the dead animal will be his." {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1}

Lord, Your law protects the life and property of individuals; thank You for guidance on how I should treat others, and how they must treat me. May I learn to live within the constraints of law, and may I serve You within that freedom. Amen.

Exodus 22 Protection of Property

"If someone steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he must pay five cows for the one ox or four sheep for the one sheep. If a thief is killed breaking into someone's house, the homeowner is not guilty. But if this occurs in the daytime, he is guilty. If a thief is caught, he must pay for everything he stole. But if he can't he must be sold as a slave to pay what he owes. If a man steals an animal and it is found alive, the thief must pay double. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

5"If a man lets his animals graze in someone else's field or vineyard, he must make up for the loss from his own field or vineyard. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} 'If someone starts a fire and it spreads to a neighbor's field of grain, he must pay for the lost crops. 'Suppose someone asks his neighbor to keep some silver or other valuable items for him, and they are stolen. Then the thief must pay back double the value of the goods. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} 'But if the thief is not caught, then judges should decide if the neighbor himself stole them. ⁹Suppose two people each claim that a lost ox, donkey, sheep, clothing, or any other property is his. The judges will decide who is guilty and will require him to pay the owner double. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

¹⁰"Suppose someone asks his neighbor to care for an animal of his and it dies or is injured or is stolen. ¹¹The neighbor is to affirm before the Lord that he did not injure or steal the animal. The owner must accept his word. ¹²But if the neighbor stole the animal, he must pay for it. ¹³If the animal was attacked by a wild animal, the neighbor is to bring the carcass as evidence, and he need not pay for the animal. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

14"Suppose someone borrows an animal from his neighbor and it is injured or dies when the owner isn't there. Then the neighbor must replace the animal. ¹⁵But if the owner is there when something happens to the animals, the neighbor need not pay for the loss. If the neighbor had rented the animal, then the rental fee will cover the cost of the loss. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

16"If a man has sex with an unmarried woman, he must marry her and pay the dowry. ¹⁷But if her father does not let her marry him, he must still pay the dowry. ²⁸⁹ Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1 ¹⁸A person practicing witchcraft must die. ²⁹Also death is to be the penalty for anyone having sex with an animal. ²⁹And the same is true for anyone offering a sacrifice to any

god besides Me. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ²¹Do not mistreat foreigners; remember that you were foreigners in Egypt. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} ²²Don't take advantage of widowers or orphans. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ²³If you do, I will hear their prayers and will help them. ²⁴But I will be so angry that I will kill you, and your own wives will become widows and your children orphans. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

²⁵"Don't charge interest on a loan you make to a fellow Israelite. ²⁶If you accept someone's coat as security for a loan, return the coat before sunset. ²⁷He will need it to keep warm at night. If you don't return it, he will pray for help, and I will hear him because I am compassionate. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

²⁸"Don't blaspheme Me or curse your rulers. {445 Speaking a Blessing-Prayer, Num. 6:27} ²⁹Don't hold back from Me your offerings of grain and wine. And pay the redemption money for your first-born sons. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ³⁰Also give Me the firstborn of your cows and sheep after they have been with their mothers for their first seven days. ³¹As My special people, don't eat the meat of any of your animals that were killed by a wild animal. Give the meat to your dogs." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

Lord, this chapter teaches me much about personal property; thank You for allowing me to own things. Lord, I dedicate all my

"things" to You; I don't want "things" owning me. Amen.

Exodus 23 Justice

¹"Don't spread false reports or help a guilty person by giving false evidence in court. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ²Don't join a crowd of people who insist on sinning. And don't follow the opinions of the crowd when you are in court. ³And don't favor a poor person in court simply because he is poor. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5}

4"If you come across your enemy's ox or donkey that has strayed, take it back to its owner. 5And if you see our enemy's donkey struggling under a heavy load, go offer help. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ⁶Be fair to poor people in court. ⁷Don't falsely charge anyone, and don't put an innocent or honest person to death. I won't allow people who are guilty of this to go unpunished. 8Don't take any bribes, because a bribe blinds you and it hurts the people who are innocent. {176 Frailty-Confession Prayer, Ps. 90:12} 9Don't mistreat foreigners. Because of your experience in Egypt you know what it is like to be foreigners. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

¹⁰"Plant and harvest crops for six years, ¹¹and then let the land rest on the seventh year. Let the poor eat any crops that may spring up in that seventh year, and let animals eat what the poor don't eat. {536

Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹²Work for six days each week, and rest on the seventh day. This way your animals, slaves, and foreigners will all be refreshed. ¹³Obey all these instructions. And as I mentioned before, do not worship other gods or even say their names. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

¹⁴"Each year celebrate three festivals in My honor. ¹⁵Celebrate the Feast of Bread without Yeast for seven days, just as I told you. Do this each year in April, the month you left Egypt. And be sure everyone brings a sacrifice to Me. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁶Celebrate the Harvest Festival (also called the Festival of Weeks) each spring by bringing Me the first of your crops. Then celebrate the Festival of Shelters each fall when you gather in your crops. ¹⁷Each year every man is to appear before Me these three times. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

¹⁸"When you offer a sacrificial animal to Me, never include with it bread made with yeast. And be sure the fat of the sacrificial animals is discarded that day. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁹Bring the best of your first crops into the house of the LORD, your God. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} Do not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

²⁰"I am sending an angel to protect you and lead you into the land I have prepared for you. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} ²¹Listen to what he says, and don't rebel against what he says. He won't tolerate rebellion because he is my representative, bearing My name. ²²If you follow him carefully, I will destroy your enemies.

²³My angel will bring you into the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites, and Jebusites, and I will destroy them. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁴Don't worship their gods or follow their evil ways. Destroy their idols and break their sacred stones. ²⁵Worship only the LORD your God, {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} and then I will give you food and water and take away your sicknesses. ²⁶And your women will not have miscarriages or be barren, and you will live long lives. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

²⁷"I will make your enemies afraid of you, {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} and they will be so panic-stricken they will run. ²⁸I will even send hornets to drive them out. ²⁹But this will not all happen in a year. If it did, the land would become a desert and wild animals would be numerous. ³⁰I will destroy your enemies a little at a time until you have enough people to occupy the land. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³¹"I will extend your land from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea, and from the desert to the Euphrates River. I will help you defeat the people there, and you will drive them out. ³²Don't make any treaties with them or have anything to do with their gods. ³³Don't let them live in your land, because if you do they will snare you into worshiping their gods." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

Lord, You wanted Your people to separate themselves from the sins and evil of worldly people. That is still Your standard for me today. I will live among evil people, but I'll not live like pagan people, nor worship their gods. Amen.

Exodus 24 Moses and the Elders Worship God

¹Then the LORD told Moses, "Come up to Me with Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and 70 elders. They are to worship Me at a distance, {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²but you may come near Me. Also no one else is to come to the mountain." ³Moses reported to the people all the regulations the LORD had given and they promised together, "We will do everything the LORD said to do." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴Then Moses wrote down all the Lord's instructions.

Early the next morning he built an altar at the base of the mountain and piled up 12 stones, representing the 12 tribes of Israel. ⁵Then he had some young men offer burnt offerings and young bulls as fellowship offerings. 6Moses put half of the blood from these animals into bowls, and the other half he sprinkled on the altar. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁷He read to the people the Lord's instructions in the Book of the Covenant, and the people responded again, "We will do everything God has commanded." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 8Then Moses sprinkled blood from the bowls on the people and said, "This blood confirms the agreement the LORD made with you." {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

Lord, the shed blood is always the beginning place. I again ask You to forgive me by the blood of Christ. I praise You for the blood of Jesus shed for me. From it I get cleansing, strength, power, and life. Amen.

⁹Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the 70 elders went into the mountain ¹⁰and saw a vision of the God of Israel. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Under his feet was a pavement of sapphire, bright as the sky. ¹¹Though they saw God, He did not destroy them. So they had a meal together. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

¹²Then the LORD said to Moses, "Come up on the mountain and stay awhile. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} And I will give you the flat stones on which I have written some commands." ¹³Moses and Joshua climbed up on the mountain. ¹⁴Moses told the 70 elders, "Wait here till we come back. If any problems arise while we are away, Aaron and Hur can help you." ¹⁵Then Moses went up on the mountain, and a cloud covered him, 16 and the LORD's glory settled on the mountain for six days. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} Then on the seventh day He called Moses from the cloud. ¹⁷God's glory on the mountain looked to the Israelites below like a terrible fire. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁸Then he entered the cloud and stayed on the mountain 40 days and nights.

Exodus 25 Furniture in the Tabernacle

¹The LORD told Moses, ²"Tell the Israelites that whoever wants to bring Me an offering may bring something from this list: ³gold, silver, bronze, ⁴blue, purple, and red yarn; fine linen; goat's hair; ⁵ram skins dyed red; leather; acacia wood; ⁶olive oil for lamps; spices for the anointing oil and for fragrant incense; ⁷and onyx stones and other stones for the high priest's vest and chest piece. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

8"Then have the people build a sacred place where I will dwell among them. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 9Make the tabernacle and its furnishings like the pattern I will show you. 10First, make a chest of acacia wood, {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high. 11Overlay it with gold inside and out, and put a gold molding around it." {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

Lord, you want the best—pure gold—for Your seat on earth; this means I must give my best to You, every day, everything. I give You all that I have. Lord, only pure gold is good enough for You, not 14-karat, or even 22-karat, but pure gold. May I never offer you second best or half-hearted service; I give the best of all I have to You. Amen.

¹²"Make four gold rings and attach them to the four legs. ¹³Make two poles of acacia wood and cover them with gold, ¹⁴and insert them through the rings of the sacred chest. That way the chest can be carried by the poles. ¹⁵Always keep the poles in the rings of the chest. ¹⁶Put inside the chest the Ten Commands on stones that I will give you.

¹⁷"Cover the sacred chest with a gold lid 45 inches long and 27 inches wide." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

Lord, this is the most holy place in all Israel, for the Shekinah glory cloud will sit here; this is where your presence sits among Your people. Lord, I come symbolically to the most holy place to bow in Your presence and worship Your majesty. Amen.

¹⁸"Carve two winged creatures out of gold, and attach them at the ends of the chest. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} ¹⁹Attach them permanently to the lid of the chest so that they are part of the lid itself. ²⁰They are to face each other with their wings spread upward." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

The two winged creatures were to be made from beaten gold; blows from hammers made them what they are. Lord, You, the divine Sculptor, have used hammers on me to fashion in me discipline and character. May I learn from trials and tribulation in this life so I can draw near to You. Amen.

²¹"Place inside the sacred chest the Ten Commands on flat stones, and put the lid on top of the chest. ²²I will meet with you {393 Recognizing God's Presence in

Prayer, Gen. 16:13} between the winged creatures and give My people additional commands. {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10}

²³"Make a table of acacia wood 36 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 27 inches high. ²⁴Cover it with gold, and put a gold molding around it. 25Put around it a rim of about three inches wide with a gold molding on the rim. ²⁶Make four gold rings and attach one to each leg close to the rim. ²⁷The rings are to hold the poles that are to be used in carrying the table. ²⁸The poles are to be made of acacia wood and covered with gold. 29 Make gold dishes, spoons, pitchers, and bowls for pouring out drink offerings. 30Keep special loaves of bread (called "Bread of My Presence") on this table all the time." {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8}

Lord, bread stands for strength, growth, energy, and life. Thank You for daily bread that gives me all of the above. The bread was symbolic of your presence; I draw strength from You. Amen.

³¹"Make a lampstand of pure gold. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} Hammer all of it—its base, shaft, lamp cups, and blossoms—from one piece of gold. ³²It is to have six branches, three extending from each side of the center shaft. ³³On each of the six branches make a cup shaped like almond blossoms. ³⁴And on the shaft make four cups shaped like almond blossoms. ³⁵Position one cup or bud under the first pair of branches extending from the shaft, place a second cup or bud under the second pair of branches, and a third cup or bud under the third pair. 36 Make from a single piece of pure gold the entire lampstand, including the buds and branches. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ³⁷Position the seven lamps—the one at the top and the ones at the ends of the six branches—so that the light shines in front of the lampstand. 38The snuffers and tongs are to be made of pure gold. 39 About 75 pounds of gold will be needed to make the lampstand and equipment. 40Be sure you follow the pattern I have shown you here on the mountain." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, You didn't ask us to worship You in the dark, but You put light in the tabernacle for sight. In the same way You never ask us to worship You in ignorance. You have shown us how to believe, live, and worship; I worship You according to Your light. Lord, there were three lights on each side of the lampstand, and one light on the center pole making seven lights that gave one illumination. Lord, I am just one light among many lights. Teach me, to shine with other lights so we can worship You and be a testimony to the world. Amen.

Exodus 26 Preparing the Tabernacle

¹"For the tabernacle make ten curtains of the best linen and blue, purple, and red yarn, with figures of winged creatures embroidered into them. ²Each curtain is to be 42 feet long and 6 feet wide. ³Sew five of them together, and another five together. ⁴⁻⁵Put 50 loops of blue on the longer side of each curtain. ⁶Then fasten the curtains together at the loops, using 50 gold hooks. ¹⁸²Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6

7"Cover the tabernacle with 11 curtains of goat hair. 8Each curtain is to be 45 feet long by 6 feet wide. 9Sew five of them together and then another five together. Fold the 11th curtain over at the front of the tabernacle. 10Put 50 loops along the wider side of one set 11 and fasten them together with 50 bronze hooks. 12 The extra half curtain of 18 inches is to hang over the back of the tabernacle, ¹³and each curtain is to hang over the tabernacle an extra 18 inches on each side. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁴Then make two more coverings to go over the tabernacle, one with ram skins dyed red and the other with goatskin leather.

¹⁵"Make upright frames for the tabernacle walls from acacia wood. 16 Each frame is to be 15 feet high and 27 inches wide. ¹⁷Have two tenons or pegs near the bottom of each frame. 18 Make 20 frames for the south side of the tabernacle ¹⁹and fit them into 40 silver bases. ²⁰Make 20 frames for the north side, ²¹fitting their tenons into the 40 grooved silver bases or sockets. ²²Make six frames for the west side of the tabernacle 23 and two additional frames at the corners for extra strength. ²⁴These corner frames are to be connected at the top and bottom. ²⁵Thus there will be eight frames for the back end of the tabernacle set in 16 silver bases or sockets.

²⁶"Make 15 crossbars of acacia wood with five for each of the three sides of the tabernacle, ²⁷the south, north, and west. ²⁸The center crossbar is to extend the full length of each side. ²⁹Cover the frames with gold, and make gold rings to hold the frames, and cover the crossbars with gold too. ³⁰Set up the tabernacle according to the plan I've shown you on the mountain. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

³¹"Make a curtain from blue, purple, and red yarn and the finest linen, with winged creatures, embroidered into it by a talented craftsman. ³²Hang the curtain with gold hooks on four posts of gold-covered acacia wood, and set each post in a silver base. ³³Place the sacred chest behind the curtain, which will separate the holy place from the most holy place. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ³⁴Put the lid on the chest. ³⁵Place the table of acacia wood outside the curtain on the north side of the tabernacle and the lampstand opposite it on the south side.

³⁶"Make another curtain of blue, purple, and red yarn and the best linen for the entrance to the tabernacle, and embroider special designs in it. ³⁷Hang this curtain on five acacia-wood posts overlaid with gold and set them on bronze stands."

Lord, You consented to come dwell among Your people; You didn't dwell among the world, nor did the world recognize Your condescension. Thank You for coming to live in my heart; may I carefully prepare a place for You as the Israelites carefully prepared the tabernacle. Amen.

Exodus 27 The Bronze Altar and Courtyard

1"Make an altar seven and a half feet square and four and a half feet high. 2Make a horn at each of the top corners and cover the altar and horns with bronze. ³From bronze make buckets for the ashes, shovels, bowls, new hooks, and fire pans. 4Make a bronze lattice with a bronze ring at each corner. ⁵and attach the lattice into the altar. by resting it on a ledge built on each side. ⁶Make acacia-wood poles overlaid with bronze, ⁷and to carry the altar insert the poles into the rings on two sides of the altar. 8The altar must be hollow like an open box. Build it just as I have shown you on the mountain. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁹"Then make a courtyard around the tabernacle and enclose it with curtains made from the best linen. On the south side the curtain is to extend 150 feet, ¹⁰and the curtain is to be held up by 20 posts set into bronze sockets, and hung with silver hooks and rods attached to the posts. ¹¹Do the same for the 150 feet of the curtain on the north side of the courtyard, with the 20 posts set into bronze sockets and the curtain hung with silver hooks and rods. ¹²The curtain on the west side of the courtyard is to be 75 feet long, also held up by ten posts set into sockets. ¹³The east side is to be 75 feet long too. ¹⁴The entrance is to be on the east end ¹⁵with two curtains each seven and a half yards long, and each supported by three posts set into a socket. ¹⁶"Have a 30-foot-wide curtain at the east entrance to the courtyard, made with the finest linen and embroidered in blue, purple, and red yarn, and attached to four posts set in bronze sockets.

¹⁷"All the posts around the courtyard are to be seven and a half feet high, and all the posts are to be connected by silver rods and hooks and set in bronze sockets. 18 The courtyard is to be 150 feet long and 75 feet wide, with linen curtains seven and a half feet high and set in bronze sockets. 19 Also the utensils in the tabernacle and the pegs for the curtains around it are to be of bronze. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁰"Tell the people to bring you olive oil to keep the lampstand burning, {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ²¹the lampstand that is to be placed in front of the curtain that separated the holy place from the most holy placed. Aaron and his sons are to keep the lampstand burning day and night. All future generations are to see that this command is obeyed."

Lord, the Menorah is seven lights that make up "one" light; this speaks to me of unity. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} I will add my testimony to other believers so we can be "one" light to unsaved people. Lord, just as the Menorah was kept burning constantly, may I be a continuous testimony burning constantly before You. Amen.

Exodus 28 Clothes for the Priests

¹"Set apart as My priests, your brother Aaron and his four sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 2Make some special clothes for Aaron, which will show he is separated to Me. They should be beautiful to show his special role as high priest. ³People with special skills as tailors are to make these clothes to set him apart to serve as My priest. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} ⁴These garments are to include a chest piece, a priestly vest, a robe, an embroidered tunic, a turban, and a sash. The tailors are to make special clothes for Aaron's sons too. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 5Make these items from the finest linen, embroidered with gold thread and blue, purple, and red yarn.

6"Skilled tailors are to make the priestly vest from the finest linen and to embroider it with gold thread and blue, purple, and red yarn. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ⁷The vest is to consist of two parts, front and back, joined with two shoulder straps. 8A sash around the waist is to be made of the same materials. Then engrave on two onyx stones the names of the 12 tribes of Israel-10 six names on each stone, listed in order of the births of Jacobs' sons. 11Engrave these stones the same way a jeweler engraves a seal, and mount the two stones in gold. 12Attach the stones to the vest's shoulder straps as if they were memorial stones. These will be constant reminders of the Lord as Aaron wears the vest. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ¹³Make two fine wires of gold ¹⁴and two braided chains of gold, and attach them by gold clasps to the vest's shoulders.

15"Make a chest piece that will be used to determine God's will. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} Use the same materials you will use for the vest: the finest linen embroidered with gold thread and blue, purple, and red yarn. 16 Make it nine inches square and folded over to make a pouch. 17 Attach to it four rows of three precious stones each. In the first row have a carnelian, a chrysolite, and an emerald. 18In the second row have a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond. 19In the third row place a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. ²⁰In the fourth row have a beryl, and onyx, and a jasper. Mount the stones in gold settings. ²¹Engrave on each stone the name of one of the tribes of Israel, to be engraved like a seal.

²²"Attach the chest piece to the priestly vest with two twisted cords of gold. ²³At the top corners of the chest piece attach two gold rings, ²⁴and tie the cords of gold to the gold clasps at the vest's shoulders.

²⁵⁻²⁶Do the same for the two lower corners of the vest. ²⁷Then make two more gold rings and attach them to the priestly vest near the sash. ²⁸Use blue cords to attach the bottom gold rings of the chest piece to the rings on the vest. ²⁹In this way Aaron will have near his heart {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} the names of each of Israel's tribes when he enters the holy place and this will also continually remind the Lord of Israel. ³⁰Insert into the chest piece the Urim and Thummim (two small objects) {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} to be used in determining God's will.

of blue wool ³²with an opening for his head. Sew a collar around the opening so it will not tear. ³³Along the bottom edge of the robe sew pomegranates of blue, purple, and red yarn ³⁴with gold bells between each pomegranate. ³⁵When Aaron wears this robe when he goes into the holy place to serve the LORD, the bells will ring and he will not die. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

³⁶"On a strip of pure gold engrave the words 'Set Apart to the LORD.' {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ³⁷Attach this with a blue cord to the front of Aaron's turban. ³⁸As he wears this, this will show that he is carrying the guilt for any sins the Israelites committed when giving offerings to the Lord. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} Then the people will be accepted by the LORD. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³⁹Make Aaron's tunic and turban from the finest linen, and embroider his sash.

⁴⁰"Make tunics, sashes, and robes for Aaron's sons. This will show their dignity as priests. ⁴¹After you clothe Aaron and his sons with these garments, dedicate them to the Lord by anointing their heads with olive oil. This act will set them apart as My priests. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ⁴²Make linen underclothes to be worn beneath their robes, reaching from their hips to their knees. ⁴³These are to be worn whenever they enter the tabernacle to serve at the altar in the holy place. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} If they don't, they will die. This rule applies to all Aaron's descendants."

Lord, I'm amazed how carefully You planned the clothes of those priests who came into Your presence. Cover me with a robe or righteousness when I enter Your Presence to worship or intercede for others. Without the righteousness of Jesus Christ, I can't enter Your presence. Amen.

Exodus 29 Dedication of Aaron and His Sons

1"In dedicating Aaron and his sons as priests, here is what you are to do: Get a young bull and two rams with no physical defects. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 2"Then make several bread loaves without yeast, thin cakes mixed with olive oil, and wafers topped with oil. 3"Place them in a basket and bring it to the tabernacle with the bull and two rams. {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1}

⁴"At the entrance to the tabernacle wash Aaron and his sons. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ⁵Then on Aaron put his tunic, the robe under the vest, the chest piece, and the sash. {391 Race-Preparation Prayer, Heb. 12:1} ⁶Put on his head the turban with the gold strip, {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ⁷and anoint him by pouring oil on his head."

Lord, the word "anointed" means "Christ," this is why the high priest is a type of Jesus Christ. Jesus fulfilled the threefold anointed office. Jesus was anointed to high priestly intercession. Jesus was anointed as King to rule our lives. Jesus was anointed as prophet to deliver Your message to me. Lord, thank You for Jesus, "the Anointed One," who is the Christ. Anoint me to be holy and to serve You continually. Amen.

8"Then dress Aaron's sons in their tunics, 9and sashes and headdresses. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

¹⁰"Bring the bull to the tabernacle entrance, and have Aaron and his sons place their hands on its head. 11 Then kill the bull near the tabernacle entrance, {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} 12and smear some of its blood on the horns of the altar and pour the rest of the blood on the ground by the altar. {385 Propitiation Intercession-Prayer, 1 John 2:2} ¹³Take the fat from the bull's insides, and the liver and the two kidneys, and burn them on the altar. {255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24} ¹⁴Then take the rest of the carcass outside the camp as an offering for forgiveness of sins. {385 Propitiation Intercession-Prayer, 1 John 2:2}

¹⁵"Next Aaron and his sons are to place their hands on the head of one of the rams {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹⁶as it is being slaughtered. Sprinkle its blood on the sides of the altar."

Lord, when anyone laid their hands on the head of an animal to confess their sins, they were transferring their guilt onto the animal. When the animal was put to death that was a symbolic act that their sins were judged instead of them. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} Lord, I know my sins were transferred to Jesus Christ, and He died for forgiveness of my sins. Amen.

^{17*}Then cut up the ram and wash its internal organs and legs, and put all its parts on the altar, ¹⁸and burn them as a burnt offering to the LORD. This will be pleasing to Him. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15}

19"Aaron and his sons are to place their hands on the head of the other ram ²⁰as it is being slaughtered. Put some of its blood on Aaron's right ear lobe, right thumb, and big toe of his right foot. Do the same for Aaron's sons, and then sprinkle the rest of the blood on the four sides of the altar. {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} ²¹Then take some of the blood that is dripping from the altar and mix it with olive oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his sons and their clothes. This will show that they are set apart to the Lord. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22}

²²"Take the fat of this second ram from its tail, internal organs, liver, two kidneys, and right thigh, ²³Then take one of each of the bread cakes and wafers, ²⁴and have Aaron and his sons lift them up as a gift to Me. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ²⁵Then burn the bread on the altar as a burnt offering to the LORD. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ²⁶Offer the breast of the ram to Me as a special gift and then keep it for yourself." {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

Lord, just as the priests waved their offerings in Your presence, symbolic of giving it to You, so I offer to You my whole body, including my hands, feet, eyes, ears, mouth, and nose; accept them and use me. Amen.

²⁷"Give the breasts and thigh of this ram ²⁸to Aaron and his sons. Then when the people give peace offerings or thanksgiving offerings to the LORD, the breast and thigh are to be given to Aaron and future priests. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

²⁹"Aaron's garments must be kept for future priests after him when they are set apart as priests. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ³⁰The priest is to wear them seven days before serving in the tabernacle. {419 Sanctified-Praying, Heb. 10:14}

³¹"Boil the meat of the ram in a sacred place, ³²and Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat and the bread in the basket at the tabernacle entrance. ³³Only Aaron and his sons, not ordinary people, are to eat the meat and bread because this food is considered holy. ³⁴If any of it is left over till morning, it must be burned and not eaten. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

³⁵"The ordination ceremony for Aaron and his sons is to last seven days. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ³⁶On each of those days offer a young bull as a sacrifice for sin. Then purify the altar by pouring oil on it. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ³⁷Dedicate the altar to God each of the seven days; it will be so holy that whoever touches it will be holy. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

³⁸"Each of the seven days offer two oneyear-old rams, ³⁹one in the morning and one in the evening. {97 Daily-Prayer, Acts 2:42} 40-41With each of them offer two quarts of flour mixed with a quart of olive oil, and also offer a quart of wine as an offering to the Lord. This offering will be pleasing to Me. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 42Each day offer a burnt offering before Me at the entrance to the tabernacle where I will speak with you. {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11} 43I will meet with you there, and the tabernacle will be made holy by My presence. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} 44I will make the tabernacle and the altar holy, and I will set apart Aaron and his sons to serve as My priests. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17} 45I will live among you as your God, ⁴⁶and you will know that I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt so I could live with you." {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

Lord, Your presence comes to dwell with us only after the blood cleanses us from sin and makes us holy in Your sight. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} Thank You for the inestimable privilege of knowing You and having Your protective presence in my life. Amen.

Exodus 30 The Altar for Burning Incense

¹ Make an altar of acacia wood for burning incense. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} ²It is to be 18 inches square and 36 inches high with a "horn" at each corner carved from the same piece of wood as the altar. ³Cover it with gold, and put a gold molding around it. {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} 4Below the molding on two opposite sides attach two gold rings to hold poles to carry it. 5The poles are to be made of acacia wood too and covered with gold. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} Put the incense altar in front of the curtain that separates the most holy place from the holy place. I will meet you there. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

7-8"Every morning and evening when Aaron (and all future priests after him) trims the wicks, he is to burn sweet-smelling incense to Me on the altar." {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4}

Lord, may my prayers please You, just as sweet incense pleases a person's smell. Lord, the altar for burning incense stands for our prayers that must continually be offered to You. You said the sweet-smelling incense will please You. May my prayers be precious to You. Amen.

9"Don't offer any other incense on this altar, and don't offer on it with any burnt offerings, grain offerings, or drink offerings. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb.

10:22} ¹⁰Once a year Aaron must purify the altar by putting blood of an animal on the altar's four horns as a sacrifice for sin. Do this from now on, because this altar is holy to Me." {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

¹¹Then the LORD said to Moses, ¹²"Take a census of all adult male Israelites, and have each one make a payment to Me so no harm will come to them when you are taking the census, {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ¹³The payments is to be one-fifth of an ounce of silver. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} 14-15 This is required of every male 20 years old and up, whether rich or poor, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 16 and the money is to be used for the upkeep of the tabernacle. Because of this I will always keep you, My people, in mind, and this will be like covering of your sins." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹⁷Then the LORD told Moses, ¹⁸"Make a large bronze tank and a stand for it. Position it in the courtyard between the altar of burnt offering and the tabernacle. ¹⁹Aaron and his sons are to wash their hands and feet with water from the tank. ²⁰If they don't, they will die right on the spot. Also when they present an offering at the altar of burnt offering, ²¹they are first to wash their hands and feet so they won't die. This is to be followed by Aaron and all his descendants." {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

Lord, the large tank was made from the women's mirrors. Just as a woman uses a mirror to prepare herself, may I be cleansed and see myself pure and holy for You. Amen.

²²Next the Lord commanded Moses, ²³"In a gallon of olive oil mix these spices: 12 pounds of myrrh, 6 pounds of cinnamon, 6 pounds of cane, and ²⁴12 pounds of cassia from a tree bark. ²⁵Use this nice-smelling mixture {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ²⁶to dedicate the tabernacle and the chest, {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ²⁷the table with bread, lampstand, incense altar, ²⁸altar of burnt offering, and large bronze tank. ²⁹Use this olive-oil mixture to make them holy; and whatever touches this will be holy.

30"When you dedicate Aaron and his sons to serve as My priests, sprinkle this oil on them. {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} 31 Tell the Israelites that they are always to use this olive-oil mixture in ordaining priests. 32 It is not to be used for everyday purposes because it is holy. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 33 Anyone who uses this mixture like an ordinary perfume or puts it on anyone who is not a priest will no longer be one of My people." {419 Sanctified-Praying, Heb. 10:14}

³⁴⁻³⁵The Lord told Moses, "Make a nice-smelling incense with equal amounts of spices; grain resin, onycha, galbanum, and frankincense. Add some salt to make it pure. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} ³⁶Pound it into powder and place it in front of the chest where I will meet with you. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ³⁷Don't use this for yourself; it is holy to the Lord. ³⁸Whoever makes it for himself will no longer be one of My people." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

Exodus 31 Workers Chosen to Make the Tabernacle

¹Then the Lord told Moses, ²"I have chosen Bezaleel of the tribe of Judah, {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} ³and have filled him with My Spirit, and I have given him wisdom and skill for making the tabernacle and everything in it. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} ⁴He is good at working with gold, silver, and bronze, ⁵at cutting and setting stones, at woodworking, and in all other kinds of crafts.

6"Also I have chosen Oholiab of the tribe of Dan to assist Bezaleel. And I have given special skills to other craftsmen to help make the tabernacle as I have instructed you. {384 Promise of Spiritual Giftedness-Praying, Rom. 12:3-8} ⁷They are to make the tent itself, the chest with the lid on it and all the furniture" 8the table for bread, the gold lampstand, the incense altar, {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} 9the altar of burnt offering, the wash tank, {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} 10the garments for Aaron and his sons, {56 Burden-Prayer, Rom. 10:1} 11the anointing oil, and the incense for the holy place. They are to follow all the instructions I gave you." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

¹²The Lord then told Moses to say to the people, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

¹³"Be sure to keep the Sabbath day each week because it is a sign of the agreement between Me and you. This will help you remember that I am the Lord, the one who makes you holy. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} 14Keep the Sabbath holy. If you don't obey this command, you will die, and anyone who works on that day will no longer be one of My people. {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} 15Work six days, and rest on the seventh. Again, if anyone works on that day, he will be put to death. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ¹⁶This day is to be observed for generations to come. ¹⁷It will be a sign between Me and the Israelites because I created the universe in six days and rested on the seventh." {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

¹⁸The Lord finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai and then gave him the flat stones with the commands He wrote with His own hand. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

Lord, You gave the Sabbath to Israel as a gift of rest and as a covenant between You and them. When they broke the Sabbath, they disobeyed You; Jesus came and kept the law with His perfect life. In His death He fulfilled the law and justified every lawbreaker who repented and believed in Him. Lord, I believe in Your Son and trust Him for salvation; now I will live holy to please You and serve You. Amen.

Exodus 32 The Golden Calf

¹Realizing that Moses had not come down from the mountain after a long time, the people said to Aaron, "We don't know what has happened to Moses, who brought us here from Egypt. So we suggest you make us a god to lead us." {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ²Aaron replied, "Okay, give me all your gold earrings." ³The people did that ⁴and Aaron melted the gold {422 Satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} and shaped it into the image of a calf. The people said, "This is the god who brought us out of Egypt." {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4}

⁵Aaron then built an altar in front of the calf, and he announced, "Tomorrow let's celebrate a feast to the LORD." ⁶The next day everyone got up early and offered burnt offerings and peace offering to the idol, and then ate and drank and carried on wildly. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5}

Lord, I can't imagine anyone worshiping a golden calf; but I wasn't raised a pagan. They will do anything to satisfy their lustful imaginations. I will not worship any gods or have them in my life; I worship You, the only living and true God. Amen.

⁷The LORD said to Moses, "Go down off the mountain. The people you brought from Egypt are acting terribly. {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2} ⁸They have already disobeyed My commands. They have made an idol shaped like a calf and are worshiping it, sacrificing to it, and saying, 'This is the God who brought us out of Egypt.' {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2} 'I have seen how rebellious they are. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ¹⁰Now I am so angry. I will destroy them. But I will make a great nation of your descendants." {407 Revival of Our Nation-Prayer, 2 Chron. 7:14}

¹¹Moses pleaded, "O LORD, why be so angry with Your people whom You brought out of Egypt in a marvelous way? {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ¹²This will make the Egyptians think that you got them here just so you could kill them. Please change Your mind, and don't destroy them. {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} ¹³Remember that You promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob that You would give them as many descendants as the stars and would give them the land You promised." ¹⁴So the LORD decided not to destroy them. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

¹⁵Moses went down from the mountain with the two flat stones on which God had written His commands on both sides. ¹⁶God Himself had written the commands on the stones. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹⁷When Joshua, who was with Moses, heard the people shouting to their idol, he said to Moses, 'That sounds like they are fighting a war.' {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ¹⁸Moses replied, 'No, they are singing, not shouting victory or defeat.'" {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5}

¹⁹When Moses got near the people, he saw the people dancing in front of a calf idol. In anger he threw down his flat stones, {398 Reluctant Answers to Prayer, Gen. 6:6} ²⁰ and grabbed the calf, burned it, ground it to powder, mixed it with water, and forced the people to drink it. {407 Revival of Our Nation-Prayer, 2 Chron. 7:14}

²¹Moses asked Aaron, "What led you to do such a terrible thing?" {255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24} ²²Aaron responded, "Don't be mad at me. You know how wicked these people are. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²³They suggested I make an idol for them because they assumed something had happened to you on the mountain. ²⁴So I told them to give me their gold earrings. When they did, I threw the gold into a fire and out came this calf."

²⁵When Moses saw that the people were running around wildly and that their enemies were making fun of them, {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} ²⁶he said, "Whoever is on the LORD's side come join me," and all the Levites did. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²⁷Then Moses told them, "Get swords and go through the camp and kill your relatives, friends, and neighbors." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²⁸They did as he said, and about 3,000 people died that day. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} ²⁹Then Moses said to the Levites, "You obeyed the LORD, even though it was difficult to do. So dedicate yourselves to the Lord, and He will bless you." {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10}

³⁰"The next day Moses told the people they had done a terrible thing. "But," he said, "I will see if the LORD will forgive you." {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} 31So Moses admitted to the LORD that the people had committed an awful sin in making an idol of gold; 32 and he asked the Lord to forgive them. {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6} "Otherwise," he said, "remove my name from your book." {339 Overcoming-God's Inertia Prayer, Exod. 32:30-32} 33The LORD said, "I will remove from My book the name of anyone who has sinned against Me. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 34Go, lead the people to the place I told you about. My angel will go ahead of you. But when the right time comes, I will punish them for their sins." {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6} ³⁵Then God sent a terrible disease on the people because they had worshiped the calf Aaron made. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10}

Lord, give me a holy fear of sinning against You; I see what the sin of Israel did to them. You punished Israel for her sin, so I know You will punish me. Forgive me of all my sin—ignorant or presumptuous sins—cleanse me with the blood of Christ. Moses was an effective intercessor for those who sinned against You. Help me be an effective intercessor who prays for my family and lost friends. Amen.

Exodus 33 Moses Asks to See God

¹The LORD instructed Moses, "Get ready to lead the people you brought from Egypt to the land I promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob for their descendants. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ²I will send an angel to drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ³It is a land with lots of milk from cows and lots of honey from bees. I won't be traveling with you because your people are so stubborn I might destroy them before they get there." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁴Hearing these discouraging words, the people started mourning, and they stopped wearing jewelry. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ⁵That is because God had said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites, 'You are so stubborn. So if I went with you I might be inclined to destroy you. So don't wear any jewelry.'" {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁶So the Israelites wore no jewelry from then on.

⁷Moses set up the tabernacle outside the camp and told the people to go there if they wanted to contact the Lord. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ⁸Whenever Moses went there, the people stood at their tent entrances and watched him enter the tabernacle. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ⁹So when he entered, the thick cloud would settle at the tabernacle entrance, and the Lord would speak to Moses. {540 Worshiping God in the Backyard, Ps. 134} ¹⁰Seeing this cloud, the people would stand up and worship God. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹¹Then the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, like speaking to a friend. When Moses left the tabernacle, Joshua, his young assistant, stayed there. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹²Moses said to the LORD, "You have told me to lead these people, but you haven't told me who will be with me. You have told me you know me and are pleased with me. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} 13So let me know Your plans so that I can know You. And remember that these people are Yours." {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ¹⁴God responded, "I will be with you, and I will give you rest." {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ¹⁵Moses replied, "If You don't go with us, then don't let us leave here. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 16And if You don't go with us, how will anyone know that You are pleased with me and with these people? Only in this way will people know we are uniquely different from other people." {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7}

¹⁷The LORD said, "I will do what you asked because I am pleased with you and I know you intimately." {9 Agree-Bless Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹⁸Moses responded, "Then please let me see Your glory." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, I'm like Moses. I want to see Your glory. Manifest Yourself to my heart so I can know You better. Lord, I want to see You glorified in my life, so manifest Yourself in my life for others to see You. Amen

¹⁹God replied, "I will display My goodness in front of you, and I will tell you the meaning of My name the Lord. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} And I will show mercy and compassion on whomever I wish. {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} ²⁰But you cannot see My face, because no one can see Me and live. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ²¹Not far from Me is a rock; stand on it. ²²When My glory passes by, I will put you in a crack in the rock and cover you with My hand until I have passed by. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²³Then when I take My hand away, you will see My back, but not My face." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

Lord, Your glory is awesome. I worship Your majesty. You are a holy God who is powerful to do all You want to do. Moses saw Your glory in a cloud on Mount Sinai; I see Your glory in Jesus Christ in the pages of the New Testament. I have met You in the secret place; now help me tell others about Your saving grace. Thank You for protecting Moses in the cleft of the rock. I too hide for protection in the cleft of the Rock, who is Jesus Christ. Amen.

Exodus 34 Moses' Face Shining

¹The LORD said to Moses, "Get two flat stones like the ones I gave you before, and I will write on them the same commands that were on the stones you broke. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8} ²In the morning come meet Me on the top of Mount Sinai. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ³Don't allow anyone to come with you or be anywhere on the mountain. And don't let flocks and herds graze by the mountain." {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2}

⁴So Moses took two flat stones like the first ones, and early the next morning he climbed up Mount Sinai. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} 5The LORD descended in a thick cloud and was there with Moses as He passed in front of him and as Moses proclaimed the Lord's name. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 6As the LORD passed in front of Moses, He said, "I am the LORD your God, compassionate and gracious, slow to get angry, and full of steadfast love and truth. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} ⁷I show My steadfast love to thousands of people. I forgive all kinds of sins. Yet I will punish sins, even those committed by future generations." {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} 8Moses quickly bowed down and worshiped the Lord. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} 9He said, "If I please You, then go with us. True, the people are stubborn, but please forgive our sins and accept us as Your own people." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

Lord, the prayer of Moses is my prayer for grace. Forgive my sin, both willful and ignorant; meet with me daily and lead me to do Your will. Amen.

10God said, "Okay. I will make an agreement with you. I will perform miracles never before seen anywhere on the earth. People around you will be amazed by what I will do for you. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} 11If you obey Me, I will force out the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹²But don't make a treaty with any of them, because they will set a trap for you. {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1} ¹³Instead break down their altars, smash their sacred poles, and cut down their idols. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ¹⁴Don't worship any other god; I want your full loyalty. {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} ¹⁵If you make any agreement with them, you will be influenced to worship their gods and to eat their sacrificial meals. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ¹⁶And don't take their daughters as wives for your sons because those wives will influence your sons to worship their idols. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ¹⁷Don't make idols from any metals. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

¹⁸"As I mentioned before, observe the Festival of Bread without Yeast for seven days each year in April, the month you left

Egypt. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹⁹Every firstborn male belongs to me, including your sons, cattle, sheep, and goats. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁰You may keep firstborn donkeys by giving Me a lamb. But if you don't, then break the donkey's neck. Redeem every firstborn son. And bring Me an offering every time you appear before Me. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7}

²¹"After working six days, rest on the seventh even when plowing and harvesting. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} ²²Celebrate the Festival of Harvest when the first wheat crop appears and the Festival of Shelters each fall at the end of the harvest. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²³Every male is to appear before Me three times a year. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²⁴I will force the nations out of your land and extend your boundaries. No one will conquer your land when your males appear before Me three times a year. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²⁵"With your sacrifices do not include any bread with yeast. And don't keep any meat of the Passover lamb overnight. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²⁶Bring the first part of every crop to the tabernacle. And do not boil a young goat in its mother's milk. ²⁷Write down these words, the terms of My agreement with you and Israel." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ²⁸So Moses was on Mount Sinai for 40 days, with nothing to eat or drink. And he wrote down the Ten Commands on the flat stones. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

²⁹When Moses descended from the mountain with the flat stones in his hand, his face was shining because he had been speaking with the Lord. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Lord, may my life shine with Your radiance when I've spent time talking to You in Your presence. May others see Jesus in my life and may they want to worship You, as I worship You. Amen.

³⁰When Aaron and the Israelites saw that his face was shining, they were afraid to go near him. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} ³¹Moses asked Aaron and the leaders to approach him, and he spoke to them. ³²Then all the people came and Aaron told them everything the LORD had told him. {372 Prayer-Walking, Gen. 13:17} ³³He covered his face with a veil, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 34but he took it off whenever the LORD spoke with him. Then when he spoke to people, 35they could see again that his face was shining. So he put the veil back on until he spoke with the Lord again. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

Lord, I'm changed when I enter Your presence. I see Your glory and it transforms me. May others see what change You make in me. May Your glory shine through me. Lord, there is an appropriate time to leave Your presence and go live my life in the world. Go with me and help others see Your glory in my life. Amen.

Exodus 35 Gathering Materials to Construct the Tabernacle

¹Moses called a meeting of the people and told them what God had said. ²"Work six days each week and dedicate the seventh to Me as a day of rest. Anyone who works on that day must die. ³Don't even light a fire in your homes on that day." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁴Moses then told the assembly some other things God said: ⁵"If you wish, willingly bring Me offerings from these items: gold, silver, bronze; ⁶blue, purple, or red wool; fine linen; goat hair; ⁷ram's skin dyed red; leather; acacia wood; ⁸olive oil for the lampstand; sweet-smelling spices for the anointing oil and for incense; ⁹and onyx stones and other gems for the priestly vest and chest piece. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

¹⁰ Skilled craftsmen are to construct what I have commanded: 11the tabernacle and its coverings, hooks, framework and bars, posts and sockets; 12the chest and its poles, the lid on the chest, and the curtain in front of it; {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} 13 the table of bread without yeast and its poles; 14the lampstand with its equipment and oil; 15the incense altar and its poles, the anointing oil; the curtain for the tabernacle; 16the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating and poles and utensils; the wash bowl and its stand; ¹⁷the curtains for the courtyard and its poles and sockets, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard; 18the posts of the tabernacle and courtyard and ropes;

¹⁹and the beautiful garments for Aaron and his sons." {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

²⁰The people left ²¹and everyone whose heart was stirred brought gifts to be used in constructing the tabernacle and its equipment, and the garments for the priests. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ²²Others whose hearts moved them brought all kinds of gold jewelry including pins, earrings, rings, and bracelets. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ²³Others brought blue, purple, and scarlet wool, fine linen, goats' hair, rams' skins dyed red, and leather. ²⁴Others brought items of silver and bronze, and others gave acacia wool. ²⁵Skilled women spun blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen. ²⁶Other skilled women wove goats' hair into cloth. 27Leaders brought onyx and other gems for the vest and chest piece. ²⁸They also brought sweet-smelling spices to be mixed with incense and olive oil for the lampstand and for anointing the priests. ²⁹Everyone who wanted to help in the tabernacle project brought their offerings to the Lord. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

³⁰Moses told the people, "God has chosen Bezaleel of the tribe of Judah, {384 Promise of Spiritual Giftedness-Praying, Rom. 12:3-8} ³¹filled him with His Spirit, and given him wisdom and skill in many crafts. ³²He can make beautiful objects from gold, silver, and bronze. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} ³³And he can cut and set gems and work with wood. He has every skill needed. ³⁴He and Oholiab of the tribe of Dan can teach these skills to others. {154 Faithfulness-Praying,

1 Thess. 5:24} ³⁵They have abilities as jewelers, designers, and embroiderers in blue, purple, and red wool, and in fine linen. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} They are to use every skill needed for constructing the tabernacle."

Lord, You give different talents—spiritual gifts—to different people; thank You for the gifts you've given me. I yield them to You just as those who constructed the tabernacle. Use me to glorify Yourself, as You used them. Amen.

Exodus 36 Beginning Construction of the Tabernacle

¹"Bezaleel, Oholiab, and the other workers to whom God has given skill and knowledge for building the tabernacle are to do the work as God has commanded." {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ²Then Moses brought these workers together, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ³and he gave them all the items the people had donated for building the tabernacle, and the people kept bringing more every morning. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

⁴The workers went to Moses ⁵and said, "We now have more than enough materials to do what the Lord told us to do." ⁶So Moses sent word throughout the camp that no more materials were needed. So the people stopped bringing materials, ⁷because they had already donated more than was needed. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

Lord, I'm amazed the people gave so much in offerings that You restrained them from giving more. Let them be an example to me to give to You abundantly. Amen.

⁸The skilled workers made ten sheets of fine linen, blue, purple, and red yarn, and embroidered winged creatures in them. ⁹Each sheet was 42 feet long and 6 feet wide. ¹⁰Five were sewn together end to end, as were the other five. ¹¹The workers made loops of blue cloth on the edge of the last sheet in each set, ¹²and they fastened the two sets of sheets at the loops with solid gold hooks. ¹³Fifty gold hooks connected the loops so that the two long sheets draped the sides of the tabernacle. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

¹⁴For another covering over the tabernacle they sewed together 11 sheets of goat hair, ¹⁵each 45 feet long and 6 feet wide. ¹⁶Five of these were sewn together end to end, as were the other six. ¹⁷⁻¹⁸Then the two sets were fastened together by bronze hooks in 50 loops. ¹⁹Another covering over the roof was made of rams' skin dyed red, and another of leather–four coverings in all. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

²⁰They made the framework of the tabernacle from acacia wood, ²¹with each frame being 15 feet high and 28 inches wide, ²²and wooden tenons or wooden pegs on each frame. ²³They made 20 frames for the south side, with the tenons or pegs fitting into 40 silver sockets, ²⁴two tenons for every two sockets. ²⁵Also they made 20 frames for the north side, ²⁶with 40 silver sockets, and two for every frame. ²⁷Six frames were made for the back west wall, ²⁸and two additional frames to reinforce the rear corners. ²⁹These corner frames were joined at the top by a single ring. ³⁰There were eight frames for the west side with 16 silver sockets. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

³¹Then they made acacia-wood crossbars to tie the frames together, ³²five for each of the three sides of the tabernacle. ³³The bars were half way up the frames and ran the full length of each side. ³⁴The frames, crossbars, and rings to hold the bars, were all overlaid with gold. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

³⁵They made the curtain that separated the holy place from the most holy place of linen and blue, purple, and red thread, and embroidered it with winged creatures. ³⁶They made four acacia-wood posts, overlaid them with gold, and attached the curtain to the posts by four gold hooks set into silver sockets.

³⁷Then they made a curtain for the entrance to the tabernacle, using fine linen and blue, purple, and red thread. ³⁸The curtain was connected by five hooks to five gold-covered posts, set into bronze sockets. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

Exodus 37 Constructing the Sacred Chest

¹Bezaleel made the sacred chest out of acacia wood, 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high. ²He covered it with gold both inside and out, {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} and made a gold molding all around it. ³To carry the chest, he made two poles, ⁴covered them with gold, ⁵and set them through four gold rings, two near the bottom of each side.

⁶He then made a gold lid for the chest, {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ⁷and hammered it from one gold piece, 8with the winged creatures made of one piece of gold. ⁹Their wings covered the lid, and they faced each other. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹⁰Then he made a table 36 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 27 inches high. 11He covered it with gold and made a gold molding all around the edge. 12 Also a three-inch-wide rim was attached to the table with gold on the rim. ¹³He made four gold rings, one for each leg. 14The rings were close to the rim to hold the carrying poles. ¹⁵The poles were made of acacia wood covered with gold. ¹⁶Then he made the utensils for the chest, including plates, dishes, bowls, and pitchers, for use in the drink offerings. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

¹⁷Bezaleel made a lampstand, and its base, stem, cups, buds, and blossoms were all made of one piece of gold. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ¹⁸It had three branches on each side. ¹⁹On each branch he made three cups in the shape of almond blossoms with bulbs and flowers. ²⁰The stem of the lampstand was decorated with four almond blossoms. ²¹One blossom was beneath each pair of branches. ²²He made the lampstand with its branches, and blossoms all from one piece of gold. ²³The seven lamps, the wick trimmers, and lamp snuffers were made of gold. ²⁴The lampstand and its utensils were made from 75 pounds of gold. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

²⁵The acacia-wood incense altar was 18 inches square and 36 inches high. Its corner horns were made of the same piece of wood as the altar itself.

Lord, may my life be a sweet-smelling fragrance to You and be pleased with the offerings I give You. Help me learn from the tabernacle how to properly approach You. May I serve You with the spiritual gifts You've given me, just as Bezaleel and Oholiab used their abilities to build the tabernacle. Amen.

²⁶Bezaleel covered it with gold, and made a gold molding around the edge. ²⁷Beneath the molding he added two gold rings to hold carrying poles, ²⁸which were covered with gold. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ²⁹He then mixed the ingredients in oil for anointing the priests and he made the sweet-smelling incense. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10}

Lord, the workmen followed Your instructions exactly when making the tabernacle because it's imperative to worship You according to Your prescribed way. Today I approach You to worship You as You instruct. Amen.

Exodus 38 Constructing the Bronze Altar

¹Moses then made the altar of burnt offering from acacia wood. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} It was 90 inches square and 54 inches high. ²A horn extended from each of the four corners. and they were carved out of the same piece of wood as the altar itself, which was overlaid with bronze. ³Bezaleel made bronze utensils to be used with the altar, {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} including pans, shovels, meat hooks, and fire pans. ⁴He made a bronze grating resting on a ledge halfway up the altar. 5Bronze rings were placed on the altar into which were inserted poles for carrying the altar. ⁶These poles were made of acacia wood and covered with bronze. ⁷The altar was empty like a box. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

⁸Next Bezaleel made a large tank and its stand from mirrors donated by women who served near the tabernacle entrance.

⁹The south and north walls of the courtyard were each 150 feet long, where curtains of fine linen {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ¹⁰were held up by 20 posts, each set in a bronze rocket, with silver hooks and rods. ¹¹The north wall was the same. ¹²The west side was 75 feet and it was held up by 10 posts, each set in a bronze socket, with silver hooks and rods. ¹³The east side was 75 feet wide.

¹⁴⁻¹⁵The curtains on each side of the entrance were 22 ½ feet wide, supported by three posts set in three sockets. ¹⁶The curtains all around the courtyard were made of fine linen. ¹⁷And each post had a bronze socket and silver hooks and rods. The post tops were covered with silver. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

¹⁸The curtain at the courtyard entrance was made of fine linen and embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn. It was 30 feet long and 7 ½ feet wide, the same as the curtains of the courtyard walls. ¹⁹It hung on four posts set into bronze sockets. The post tops were covered with silver, and the hooks and rods were silver. ²⁰Every nail used in making the tabernacle was bronze. ²¹Moses had the Levites under Ithamar's leadership record the materials. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

Lord, Ithamar had an extremely responsible job to keep count of the precious things that were used to construct the furniture and the tabernacle itself. You must have trusted him to be careful that nothing was lost, wasted, or stolen. Lord, find me responsible to take care of things given to You. I will be honest and diligent, even with the smallest items. Amen.

²²Bezaleel of the tribe of Judah made sure everything was done just as God had told Moses. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ²³Oholiab, who assisted Bezaleel, was expert in engraving, weaving, and embroidering with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen.

²⁴The gold the people brought weighed a little over a ton, {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} ²⁵and about four tons of silver were given. ²⁶These amounts were collected from the census of all the males 20 years of age and older, of which there were 603, 550 in all. ²⁷The 100 bases for the framework for the walls and for the posts that supported the inner curtain required about four tons of silver. ²⁸Silver that was not used for the posts was used to overlap their tops and for the rods and hooks.

²⁹The people also brought almost four tons of bronze, ³⁰which was used for the sport sockets at the tabernacle's entrance, the bronze altar, and its grating and utensils. ³¹Bronze was also used for sockets for posts around the courtyard and the tabernacle entrance and for tenons or pegs for the tabernacle and the courtyard. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

Exodus 39 Making the Priests' Clothes

¹For the priests, including Aaron, the workers made garments of blue, purple, and scarlet material to be worn when the priests served in the holy place. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²The priestly vest was made of gold, fine linen, and blue, purple, and scarlet yarn. ³Gold was bent into thin plates and cut into threads, which were worked into the blue, purple, and red yard and linen. 4Two shoulder straps were made to hold up the vest, 5 and the sash was made of the same material. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 6Two onyx stones were attached to the shoulder straps and were set in gold, and on them they engraved the names of the tribes of Israel, like initials engraved on a seal. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁷These stones reminded the Lord of Israel of the people. Everything was done just as the Lord had commanded. 8Like the vest, the chest piece was made of fine gold, blue, purple, and red yarn, and fine linen. 9It was nine inches square and folded over to form a pouch. 10 It had four rows of stones. In the first row were a carnelian, a chrysolite, and an emerald; 11 in the second row were a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond; ¹²in the third row were a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; 13 and in the fourth row were a beryl, an onyx, and jasper. All were set in gold, 14 and on each was engraved a name of one of the 12 tribes. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

¹⁵To attach the chest piece to the priestly vest, they made two twisted cords of gold. ¹⁶Then at the top corners of the chest piece they ¹⁷attached two gold rings ¹⁸and tied the cords of gold to the gold clasps at the vest's shoulders. 19They made two gold rings and attached them to the other corners of the chest piece on the inside next to the priestly vest. ²⁰Then they made two more gold rings and attached them to the vest near the bottom of the shoulder straps right above the sash. 21To hold the chest piece secure, they tied the bottom rings of the chest piece to the vest with a blue cord. All this was done as the LORD had commanded. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²The robe for the priest was made from blue wool {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 23with an opening for his head and a collar around the opening so it would not tear. ²⁴Along the bottom edge of the robe

they sewed pomegranates of blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen. ²⁵⁻²⁶They made gold bells and attached them around the hem between each of the pomegranates. Aaron was to wear this robe when he ministered in the tabernacle. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²⁷They made robes for Aaron and his sons from fine linen with blue, purple, and red wool. ²⁸The turban, caps, and underclothes were made of fine linen, ²⁹and their linen sashes were embroidered with blue, purple, and red threads, all as God had commanded. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³⁰On a strip of pure gold the workers engraved the words "Set apart to the Lord," {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ³¹and they attached this with a blue cord to the front of Aaron's turban, just as God had told them to do.

³²At last the tabernacle was built, with the Israelites following the Lord's instructions in every detail. 33The people brought to Moses everything pertaining to the tabernacle: the tent with its equipment including the hooks, framework, crossbars, posts, and sockets; 34 coverings for the roof, and sides including rams' skins dyed red, the goatskin covering; the curtain between the holy place and the most holy place; 35the sacred chest with its carrying poles and lid; {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} ³⁶the table and its utensils for the bread; ³⁷the gold lampstand with its lamps, utensil, and oil; ³⁸the gold-covered incense altar; the anointing oil, the sweet-smelling incense, the curtain for the entrance to the tabernacle; 39the bronze altar with its bronze grating, poles, and utensils; the large tank, and its stand; ⁴⁰the curtains for the walls of the courtyard with their posts and sockets; the tenons or pegs—everything for the tabernacle; ⁴¹and the garments for Aaron and his sons to wear when serving in the tabernacle. {134 Employment-Prayer, Col. 3:17, 23}

⁴²The Israelites followed all the LORD's instructions to Moses. ⁴³Then when Moses inspected their work and saw that they did as the LORD told them to do, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} he blessed them.

Lord, just as each item was important in Your service, so no item was omitted from mention in the final summary. You are interested in both the quality of the work of our hands and the things we do for You. Lord, I offer all to You. Amen.

Exodus 40 Putting the Tabernacle Together

¹The LORD told Moses, ²"Set up the tabernacle the first day of the year, ^{377} Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³ and place the sacred chest behind the curtain that sets off the most holy place. ^{306} Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} ⁴Put the table for the bread and its utensils and the lampstand in the holy place. ⁵Place the gold incense altar in front of the chest, and hang the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle. ⁶Place the altar of burnt offering in front of the tabernacle entrance. ⁷Set the large tank in the courtyard between the tabernacle and the altar of burnt offering, and fill the tank with water. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} 8Set up the walls of the courtyard, and hang the curtain at the courtyard entrance.

9"Sprinkle the anointing oil on the tabernacle and everything in it to dedicate it all to Me. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} 10 Sprinkle the oil on the altar of burnt offering and its utensils to dedicate them to Me, 11 and sprinkle oil on the tank and its stand to dedicate it too.

12"Bring Aaron and his sons to the tabernacle entrance and wash them with water.
{71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22}
13 Then clothe him in the special garments and anoint him with oil to dedicate him to Me to serve as My priest. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 14 Then put the robes on Aaron's sons, 15 and anoint them, dedicating them to serve as My priests.
They and their descendants will be dedicated in this way to be My priests."

¹⁶Moses then did everything the LORD told him to do. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁷The tabernacle was set up on the first day of the first month, exactly one year after the Israelites left Egypt. ¹⁸Moses erected the tabernacle by setting its frames into their sockets, attaching the crossbars, and erecting the posts. ¹⁹Then he spread the two curtains over the framework and on the roof, just as the LORD had said to do. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²⁰He placed the flat stones with the Ten Commands on them in the sacred chest, attached the carrying poles to the two sides of the chest, and placed the gold lid on the chest. ²¹He brought the chest into

the tabernacle and set it in the most holy place behind the curtain, just as the LORD had said to do, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²Then Moses placed the table for bread on the north side of the tabernacle outside the curtain ²³and set the bread on the table, just as the LORD had told him to do. ²⁴Placing the lampstand next to the table on the south side of the tabernacle, ²⁵Moses lit the lamps in God's presence. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ²⁶Next Moses put the gold incense altar in front of the curtain ²⁷and burned incense on it. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22}

²⁸Moses then hung the curtain at the tabernacle entrance on the east side, ²⁹he placed the altar of burnt offering just inside the entrance, and offered a burnt offering and a meal offering to the Lord. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 30Then Moses put the large tank in the courtyard between the altar of burnt offering and the tabernacle. He filled it with water so the priests could wash themselves. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ³¹Moses, Aaron, and Aaron's sons washed their hands and feet in the tank. 32Whenever they walked past the altar of burnt offering toward the tabernacle, they would stop and wash at the tank as the LORD had told them to do. 33 Moses then erected the curtains around the courtyard and set up the curtains at the east end of the courtyard. This completed the work Moses did in setting up the tabernacle. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

³⁴A thick cloud covered the tabernacle, and the tabernacle was filled with God's glory.

Lord, Your presence filled the tabernacle because Moses obeyed; may I be just as obedient to prepare my life for Your presence. Fill me with Your glory, as You filled the tabernacle. Lord, You settled among Your people and You led Your people. Come settle in my life with Your presence; come lead me daily as You led Israel. Amen.

³⁵This prevented Moses from entering the tabernacle. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} ³⁶Whenever the cloud lifted, the Israelites would move on. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ³⁷But if the cloud settled again over the tabernacle, the people would stay until the cloud moved again. ³⁸During the day the cloud was over the tabernacle, and at night a fire appeared in the cloud. This occurrence continued throughout all the years the Israelites traveled in the desert. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Leviticus

Ch 1: The Burnt Offering167
Ch 2: The Meal Offering168
CH 3: THE PEACE OFFERING169
Ch 4: The Sin Offering170
Ch 5: Sin Requiring a Sin Offering172
CH 6: SIN REQUIRING SACRIFICES173
Ch 7: The Guilt Offering174
CH 8: AARON AND HIS SONS ARE ANOINTED176
CH 9: AARON OFFERS SACRIFICES178
Ch 10: Nadab and Abihu Were Killed179
CH 11: CLEAN AND UNCLEAN FOODS180
CH 12: CLEANSING AFTER CHILDBIRTH183
CH 13: THE RULES ABOUT SKIN DISEASES183
CH 14: CLEANSING FROM SKIN DISEASE185
Ch 15: Rules about Unclean Discharges188
CH 16: THE DAY OF ATONEMENT189
CH 17: THE IMPORTANCE OF BLOOD191
CH 18: LAWS ABOUT SEXUAL PRACTICES192
Сн 19: Obey God's Laws194
Ch 20: Punishment for Disobeying God's Laws196
CH 21: RULES FOR THE PRIESTS197
Сн 22: Ве Ногу198
CH 23: THE FESTIVALS199

CH 24: CARE OF THE LAMPS20)2
CH 25: THE YEAR OF SOLEMN REST20	23
Ch 26: Blessings of Obedience and Curses of Disobedience)5
CH 27: LAWS ABOUT GIFTS OFFERED TO THE LORD 20	07

LEVITICUS

Key Word: Holiness (Leviticus 11:44)

Key Verse: "For I am the LORD your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy" (11:44)

Theme: Exodus ends with God's presence filling the tabernacle, now Leviticus tells how His people must worship Him. The major theme is that God is holy and His people must be holy to worship Him, have fellowship with Him, and obey Him. God's people are to be separate from the world, even though they live in the world. Therefore they must bring a blood sacrifice at the beginning of worship and constant cleansing is necessary for their continued walk with God (Israel's five essential sacrifices are in chapters 1-6).

Just as the Mosaic law made Israel distinct from other tribes and nations, (that is, holiness to the LORD), so the believer must be separate today from sin and separated to God. Lord, I will follow close to You and will keep myself separate from sin. Amen.

Leviticus 1 The Burnt Offering

LORD called Moses from the tabernacle ²and gave him these instructions to give to the Israelites. "Bring sacrifices to Me from your own flocks and herds. {412 Sacrificial Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³If you bring a burnt offering, bring a bull with no physical defects, and bring it to the tabernacle entrance so that it will be accepted by the Lord. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John1:3} ⁴Lay your hand on its head, and I will accept it as a substitute payment for your sins." {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4}

Lord, just as the worshiper identified his sin with the animal, so I confess I am a sinner and identify with Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, who died for my sins so I could be forgiven and cleansed. Thank You for salvation. Lord, by faith I accept Christ's substitution for me; by faith I am justified by Christ's righteousness. Amen.

5"The man bringing it will then kill it, and Aaron's sons will sprinkle its blood on each side of the altar. ⁶Aaron's sons will then skin the animal and cut it into pieces, ⁷and build a fire on the altar. They will then place the animal's head and fat on the fire, and wash the internal organs and legs, and burn the entire animal. I will be well pleased with the offering. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4}

Lord, the bull symbolizes Christ the Servant who was patient and enduring. I accept the burnt offering of Christ as my substitute for my sin. Amen.

10"If you offer a sheep or a goat, it must be a male and with no defects. ¹¹The man who brings it is to kill it on the north side of the altar, and Aaron's sons will sprinkle its blood on each side of the altar. ¹²The man will cut it, and the priests will lay the pieces including the head and fat on the fire on the altar. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹³The offerer is to wash the internal organs and legs, and the priests are to burn the entire animal. I will be pleased with the sacrifice." {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4}

Lord, the sheep signifies Christ the Innocent Lamb who became poor and obedient for my sake. Lord, may I learn from Christ's example that the pathway of poverty leads to Your riches. Amen.

¹⁴"If you bring a bird as a burnt offering, it may be a dove or a pigeon. ¹⁵The priest will take it to the altar, wring its neck, and burn the head on the altar. ¹⁶He will then drain its blood out on each side of the altar, and remove the crop and throw it on the ash pile on the east side of the altar. ¹⁷The priest will then tear the bird almost completely apart by pulling on its wings, and then burn the bird on the altar. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} This too will be pleasing to Me." {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4}

Lord, the burnt offering typifies Christ offering Himself without blemish or spot—perfect—for me. The burnt offering seeks to worship You and praise You for Your blessings to the worshiper. The thought of penalty is not prominent, but it does atone for the sinner and gives Him a perfect standing before God. So Lord, I come to You, bringing the sacrifices of praise for all You've done for me. Amen.

Leviticus 2 The Meal Offering

¹"A grain offering is to consist of fine flour, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} olive oil, and incense. ²One of Aaron's sons will take a handful of this mixture and burn it on the altar, and I will be pleased with this offering." {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

Lord, fine flour typified the evenness and balance of Christ, I worship Him from my heart. Lord, fire typified the testing of Christ, demonstrating that He was perfect in every way; I place myself on the altar to You, praying You will be pleased with my sacrifice and worship of You. Amen.

3"Give the rest of the offering to the priests, but all of it is a burnt offering to Me. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

^{4"}If you bring baked food as a grain offering, it must consist of fine flour and olive oil but with no yeast. On it may be wafers without yeast and with olive oil spread on it. ⁵If you cook a grain offering on a grill, it too must be made of fine flour and olive oil but with no yeast. ⁶Break it into pieces and pour oil on it. ⁷If you cook a grain offering in a pan, it too must be made of fine flour mixed with olive oil.

8"Bring your grain offering to the priest who will take it to the bronze altar and present it to the LORD. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} 9He is to burn part of it as an offering to Me, and I will be pleased. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} 10Give the rest to the priests, though I will view all of it as a holy offering to Me." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

Lord, the absence of leaven typified no sin in Christ, the oil typified Christ's perfection anointed with the Holy Spirit in life; the oven typified Christ's temptation and suffering; I accept all Christ did for me, I worship Christ for all He is. Amen.

¹¹"Never include yeast or honey in any of your grain offerings. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} ¹²You may include yeast or honey in the first offerings you bring at harvesttime, but never with burnt offerings. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ¹³Include salt in every grain offering, because salt will remind you of God's faithfulness." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

Lord, salt typified the enduring quality of Christ, that He will present me to the Father and keep me secure. I rejoice in this confidence. Lord, the absence of honey typified the greatness of salvation; I am serious in my worship to You. Amen.

¹⁴"If you offer a grain offering to the Lord from the first crops of your harvest, roast kernels in a fire, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁵and put olive oil and incense on it. ¹⁶Then the priests are to burn part of the grain with olive oil and all the incense as an offering to the Lord." {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4}

Leviticus 3 The Peace Offering

¹"For a fellowship offering, offer a bull or a cow with no physical defects. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} ²The man offering the animal must lay his hand on the animal's head and kill it at the tabernacle entrance. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} Then Aaron's sons are to sprinkle its blood on each side of the altar. ³⁻⁴All the fat on the animal's insides, the kidneys, and the liver is to be removed, ⁵and burned on the altar by Aaron's sons, and I will be pleased with the offering." {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1}

Lord, the fellowship offering (also known as the peace offering) typified the whole sacrifice of Christ; He made peace between me and God, satisfying the judgment of God against my sin. Then Christ gives me the indwelling peace of God in my heart as a result of salvation; thank You, Lord, for peace. Lord, the fellowship offering pleased You; be pleased with my worship of You. Amen.

6"If you offer a goat or sheep as a fellow-ship offering, it may be a male or female, but must have no physical defects. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} 7If you offer a sheep, present it to Me by 8placing your hand on its head and killing it at the tabernacle entrance. Then Aaron's sons are to sprinkle its blood on each side of the altar. 9Cut out the fat of the animal's tail, the fat around the internal organs, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 10two kidneys, and liver, and 11burn them on the altar as an offering to Me." {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22}

Lord, burning fat has a pleasant aroma; the fellowship offering was pleasing to You. Lord, I praise You for the inner peace; may my inner character be pleasing to You. Amen.

¹²"If you offer a goat, {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ¹³lay your hand on its head, and kill it at the tabernacle entrance. Then Aaron's sons are to sprinkle its blood on each side of the altar. ¹⁴⁻¹⁵The fat around the internal organs, the two kidneys, and the fat around them, and the liver and kidneys ¹⁶all this is to be burned on the altar to the Lord. I will be pleased with this offering because the fat belongs to Me. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

¹⁷ Never eat any fat or blood. This law is for you and all your descendants for generations to come." {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10}

Leviticus 4 The Sin Offering

¹Then the LORD gave Moses additional instructions for Israel. 2"Tell the people what to do if they sin unintentionally by doing something I told them not to do. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} 3If a priest sins, he makes everyone guilty. So he must offer a bull with no physical defects. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} 4He must bring it to the tabernacle entrance, place his hand on the bull's head and kill it. ⁵He must then take the animal's blood into the tabernacle, ⁶and sprinkle the blood seven times in front of the curtain that separates the holy place from the most holy place. ⁷Then the priest is to put blood on the horns of the incense altar, and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the bronze altar of burnt offering near the tabernacle entrance." {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4}

Lord, Christ typifies the sin offering because His death covers any and all sins I committed ignorantly; You have said, "If I walk in the light...the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses [me] from all sin" (1 John 1:7). Thank You for forgiving my ignorant sin even when I don't know that I should confess it; You are a merciful God and I worship you. Amen.

8"The priest must remove the fat around the internal organs, 9the two kidneys, and the liver, 10 and burn them on the altar of burnt offering: just as is done with the bull or cow sacrificed as a fellowship offering. 11 The bull's skin, flesh, legs, and internal organs must be taken outside the camp and 12 burned." {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1}

Lord, the sin offering typified the work of Christ as my advocate who intercedes to You on behalf of my sin (1 John 2:1). Because Jesus is righteous (perfect), He is my propitiation (satisfaction) to forgive my sin; Lord, You are a merciful God, I worship You. Amen.

13" If the entire nation sins and doesn't realize it, everyone is guilty. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} 14 So the leaders are to bring a bull to the tabernacle entrance, 15 place their hands on the bull's head and kill it in My presence. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 16 Then the priest is to take some of the bull's head into the tabernacle, 17 and then he is to sprinkle its blood seven times in front of the curtain that separates the holy place from the most holy place. 18 Then he is to put blood on the four horns on the incense altar, and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the bronze altar of burnt offering near the tabernacle entrance. ¹⁹Then the priest is to remove all the fat and burn it on the altar. ²⁰This is the same procedure as with the sin offering. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} In this way the animal is a substitute payment for sin. ²¹The priest will burn the bull outside the camp. This will pay for the sin of the nation. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1}

²²"Suppose one of the leaders sins and doesn't realize it. He will be guilty. ²³As soon as he realizes it, he is to take a male goat with no defects, ²⁴place his hand on its head {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and kill it as a sin offering. ²⁵Then the priest is to sprinkle blood on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of that altar. ²⁶The priest is to burn all the fat on the altar, in this way paying for the leader's sin. And the leader will be forgiven. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

²⁷"Or suppose an ordinary Israelite sins without realizing it. He will be guilty. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁸As soon as he realizes what he has done, he is to take a female goat with no defects. ²⁹He is to place his hand on its head and kill it by the altar of burnt offering. ³⁰Then the priest is to sprinkle the blood on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. ³¹The priest is to burn all the fat of the goat. This will please the Lord for the goat will be a substitute payment for sin. {247 Intention-Praying, Rom. 15:24, 25}

³²"If the man prefers to offer a lamb instead of a goat, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15] it must be a female with no physical defects. ³³Bringing it to the altar of burnt offering, he is to place his hand on its head and kill it. ³⁴Then the priest is to sprinkle blood on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of that altar. ³⁵As with a fellowship offering, the priest is to burn the animal fat on that altar as a substitute payment for sin, and the man's sin will be forgiven." {247 Intention-Praying, Rom. 15:24, 25}

Lord, these animal sacrifices had no intrinsic value in themselves; they prefigured the value in the sacrifice of Christ for me. Thank You, Christ, for suffering for me. Thank You, Father, for forgiving me all my sin. Amen.

Leviticus 5 Sin Requiring a Sin Offering

¹"If you refuse to testify in court about something you know about, you are responsible. ²You are guilty if you accidentally touch a dead unclean animal or insect. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ³Or you are guilty if you accidentally touch human waste. {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21}

4"If you make a promise and then realize that it was foolish, {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} you will be guilty."

Lord, this sacrifice deals with the consequences of sin; when a person is guilty of injuring another, they must bring a sacrifice that deals with injury. The person must first get forgiveness for his personal guilt, and second, he must deal with the injury he caused. Lord, thank You for forgiving me so I can come worship You. I will confess to those I harm and will make reconciliation. Amen.

5"When you become aware of having committed any of these sins, you must confess your sin {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 6and then bring to the LORD a female lamb or goat. This animal will be a substitute payment for your sin, and you will be forgiven. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 7If you can't afford a lamb, then bring two doves or pigeons, one as a sin offering {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and one as a burnt offering. 8The priest will offer one of them as a sin offering by wringing its neck 9and sprinkling some of the blood on the side of the bronze altar and draining out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

10"Then the priest will offer the other bird in the same way as a substitute payment for the man's sin. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

11"If the man can't afford the birds, then he must bring two quarts of fine flour. Because it is a sin offering, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} he must not mix any olive oil in it or put any incense on it. ¹²He must take it to the priest who will burn a handful of it on the altar. ¹³This will be a substitute payment for sin, and the man will be forgiven. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} The priest is to get the rest of the flour as a grain offering."

¹⁴The LORD said to Moses, ¹⁵"If anyone unintentionally sins against the LORD's holy objects, he will be guilty. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} He must bring a ram with no defect and one that is of the proper value. ¹⁶He must pay for the loss plus 20 percent. Then the priest will accept these as substitute payments for sin as a guilt offering, and the man's sin will be forgiven." {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

Lord, You require holiness in my inward life as well as holiness in my outward relations with others. Thank You for Christ who cleanses me inwardly, I will make restitution with all I offend outwardly. Amen.

¹⁷"If anyone breaks a command of the Lord without intending to, he will be guilty. When he realizes what he did, ¹⁸he must bring to the priest a ram as a payment for sin. The animal must have no physical problems. The guilty person will then be forgiven ¹⁹ of this offense against the Lord."

Leviticus 6 Sin Requiring Sacrifices

¹The Lord said to Moses, ²"If anyone sins against Me by stealing something a neighbor entrusts to his care, or cheats him in some way, ³or lies about something he found, ⁴he must return the item, {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} ⁵plus a 20 percent fine. ⁶He must then take to the priest a ram with no defects as a guilt offering, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

⁷and the priest will accept it as a substitute payment for sin, and the man's sin will be forgiven." {255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24}

⁸The LORD said to Moses, ⁹"Give Aaron and his sons these instructions about the burnt offering. Leave the fire on the altar overnight, and keep the fire burning. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} ¹⁰Then in the morning the priest is to put on his special linen garments and underclothes and is to clean out the ashes and put them next to the altar. ¹¹Then he is to change to his everyday clothes and take the ashes outside the camp." {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

Lord, the priest typified Jesus' offering outside the camp; "Jesus...sanctified the people with his own blood, suffered outside the gate" (Heb. 13:12). Lord, thank You that Jesus not only became our sin but that He also suffered for me. "I will go forth unto Him without the camp where He bore my reproach" (Heb. 13:13, AMP). Amen.

¹²"He is to keep the fire on the altar burning, {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} putting wood on it each morning. He is to put the burnt offering on the altar and arrange on it the fat of the fellowship offerings. ¹³The fire on the altar must be kept burning and never go out. {461 Stir Up Your Spiritual Gift-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:6} ¹⁴"These are instructions about the grain offering: Standing in front of the altar, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁵the priest is to take a handful of flour mixed with olive oil and incense and burn it on the altar. I will be pleased with the offering. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ¹⁶The rest of the flour mixture will be food for Aaron and his sons, to be baked without yeast and eaten in the courtyard. ¹⁷All of it is very holy, just like the sin offerings and guilt offerings. ¹⁸Only Aaron's male descendants may eat of the grain offering; this is their share of the offering to the LORD. Whoever touches these offerings will be holy." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

¹⁹The LORD said to Moses, ²⁰"When Aaron and his sons are dedicated, {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} they are to bring to the Lord a grain offering of two quarts of flour, mixed with olive oil, half in the morning and half in the evening. ²¹They are to cook it on a grill, and then break it into pieces and offer it to Me {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} to please Me. ²²Each of Aaron's descendants is to offer this sacrifice as My share. ²³It is to be burned completely and none of it eaten." ²⁴Then the LORD then said to Moses, ²⁵ These are instructions about the sin offering. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} The animal for this holy sacrifice is to be killed in My presence where burnt offerings are made. 26 The priest must eat it in the tabernacle courtyard. ²⁷Anyone who touches the meat will be holy. And if any of the animal's blood gets on the priest's clothing, he is to wash it off in a holy place. ²⁸If the meat is boiled in a clay pot, the pot must be broken, or if the meat is cooked in a bronze kettle, the kettle must be thoroughly cleaned. ²⁹Only males of the priest's family may eat of this offering, for it is holy. ³⁰However, none of the meat may be eaten if blood from the animal was taken into the tabernacle as a substitute payment for sin. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} In this case the animal must be burned."

Lord, thank You for practical insight into Your concerns because blood is a carrier of disease. You instructed Your priests to wash old blood away. You told them to break the porous clay pots where disease might hide, lest they eat out of that pot and expose themselves to viruses or diseases. Lord, I will separate myself from sinful practices to keep myself holy and healthy; {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} I will not drink alcoholic beverages lest I become addicted to them; I will keep myself sexually pure lest I expose myself to AIDS or sexual diseases; I dedicate anew my body to Your use. Fill me with the Spirit of God. Amen.

Leviticus 7 The Guilt Offering

¹"These are instructions about the guilt offering, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} which is very holy: ²The guilt offering animal is to be killed where the burnt offerings are killed, and its blood is to be sprinkled on the altar. ³All the animal's fat is to be offered, including the tail, the fat on the internal organs, ⁴the two kidneys and their fat, and the liver. ⁵The priest will burn them on the altar. {191 God-Pleasing

Prayer, Heb. 11:5} 6 Only males of a priest's family may eat the animal meat, and in a holy place.

7"The same applies to the sin offering. The priest who performs this sacrifice may eat the animal's meat. ⁸The priest who offers a burnt offering may keep the skin of the animal. ⁹When a grain offering is given to Me, it belongs to the priest, regardless of how it was cooked. ¹⁰All grain offerings, whether with olive oil or not, are to be shared {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} by the priests." {344 Pastor-Prayer, 2 Cor. 1:11}

Lord, I'm glad You provided food for the priests who served You. I'll gladly tithe to my church knowing some of that money goes to those who serve You fulltime in ministry. Amen.

¹¹"These are instructions about fellowship offerings: ¹²If you give an offering of thanks {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} include with it some wafers without yeast spread with olive oil, some bread made by flour and olive oil, ¹³ and loaves of bread with yeast. ¹⁴After the loaves are presented to Me, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} give them to the priest who is to sprinkle the altar with blood from a sacrificed animal. ¹⁵The animal meat must not be left until morning. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

¹⁶"If someone brings an offering to fulfill a promise or give Me something, the meat may be eaten that day {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} and the next. ¹⁷But any meat left over on the third day must be burned. ¹⁸If any of it is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted and the offerer will be guilty. I will despise it, and the offerer will be held accountable for his sin. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

¹⁹"If any meat comes in contact with something unclean, it may not be eaten; instead burn it. The other meat is to be eaten only by people who are ceremonially clean. ²⁰If a priest is ceremonially unclean and he eats the fellowship offering, he must be cut off from the people. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ²¹If anyone touches something that is unclean and then eats meat from an offering, he must be cut off from the people." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

Lord, I will be clean inwardly and outwardly. I want to be holy in every area of life so You'll be glorified in all I do. Amen.

²²The LORD said to Moses, ²³"Tell the Israelites never to eat the fat of cattle, sheep, or goats. ²⁴Don't eat the fat of an animal found dead or killed by a wild animal, though it may be used for other purposes. ²⁵Don't eat fat from an offering given to the Lord, or you will be cut off from your people. ²⁶Also never eat the blood of birds or animals. ²⁷If you do, you will be cut off from your people."

²⁸Then the LORD said to Moses, ²⁹"Tell the Israelites that when they present a fellowship offering to Me, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³⁰they should bring it with their own hands. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} They should wave the animal's fat and breast to Me. ³¹Then the priest will burn the fat, and the breast will belong to Aaron and his sons. ³²The right thigh will be a gift to the priest ³³who will sprinkle the blood and offer the fat to the Lord. ³⁴The breast and right thigh are to be the priest's share of the fellowship offerings. ³⁵These are their share, portions to be set apart for Aaron and his sons ³⁶from the day I appointed them. This requirement is to be followed for all future generations." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

³⁷These were the Lord's instructions for the burnt offering, grain offering, sin offering, guilt offering, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} dedication offering, and fellowship offering. ³⁸The LORD gave these instructions to Moses on Mount Sinai, so he would tell the Israelites how they were to offer sacrifices to God in the Sinai Desert. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

There are five major offerings that the Levites brought to God. First, the burnt offering was a picture of Christ's perfect obedience whereby He offered Himself to God as a propitiation or satisfaction of our sins. Second was the meal offering in which bread and oil were perfectly blended before being offered to God. This is a picture of Christ's perfectly blended divine and human nature—the union in which He is completely God and completely man at the same time, perfectly blended into one personality. The meal offering presented Christ as the Bread of Life. The third offering was the fellowship or peace offering, which is a picture of worship or praise to God. The death of Christ was the basis of the believer's peace with God, and the indwelling presence of Christ becomes the basis of the believer's internal peace of God. The fourth was the sin offering, which shows Christ as the one who became sin for us (see Rom. 8:3), "For He made Him who knew no sin [to be] sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him" (2 Cor. 5:21). This offering was brought when a believer sinned against God. The fifth was the guilt offering which indicates Christ's atoning work for the sins of the believer after he is saved. Christ the Intercessor prays for the forgiveness of the believer's sin (see Heb. 7:24-25), and Christ the Mediator prays to keep the believer from sin (1 John 2:1-2). Lord You gave these commands to Moses to bring their offerings to You. I see Jesus in the various sacrifices that were offered to You in the tabernacle; thank You for all these prefigures of Jesus, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. Amen.

Leviticus 8 Aaron and His Sons are Anointed

¹The LORD said to Moses, ²"Bring Aaron and his sons with their priestly garments, anointing oil, {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} a bull for a sin offering, two rams, and bread baked without yeast, ³and have all the Israelites gather at the tabernacle entrance." {106 Definition of Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ⁴When all the people were gathered there, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Moses said, ⁵"The Lord has told me what I am about to do." {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8}

⁶Moses washed Aaron and his sons, ⁷and then put on Aaron the priestly tunic, robe, and sash. Then he put on him the vest with its embroidered belt. ⁸Next he put on him the chest piece and put the Urim and Thummim inside its pouch. ⁹Moses then placed on Aaron's head the turban with the strip of gold as the Lord had commanded. ^{75} Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

¹⁰Then Moses sprinkled the anointing oil on the tabernacle and everything in it, to dedicate them to the Lord. ¹¹He sprinkled the bronze altar of burnt offering seven times, and he sprinkled the altar utensils and also the tank and its base, to dedicate them to the Lord. ¹²He then poured anointing oil on Aaron's head {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} to dedicate him to the Lord. ¹³Then Moses put tunics and sashes on Aaron's sons as the Lord had commanded. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10}

¹⁴Moses brought the bull for the sin offering, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and Aaron and his sons placed their hands on its head. ¹⁵Moses killed it and put some of its blood on the altar and its four horns, and then poured the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. This made the altar holy so that sacrifices could be made on it. ¹⁶He burned on the altar the fat around the internal organs, the liver, the two kidneys, and their fat. ¹⁷He burned the rest of the bull, with its hide and dung, outside the camp as God had commanded. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2}

¹⁸Moses then brought the ram for the burnt offering. Aaron and his sons placed their hands on its head, ¹⁹and Moses killed it and sprinkled its blood on all sides of the altar. ²⁰He cut the ram in pieces and burned them and the head and fat. ²¹He washed the ram's inside organs and legs and burned them on the altar too. This pleased the LORD, {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} and all this was done as the LORD had commanded. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

²²Then Moses presented another ram, the one for the priests' dedication. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} Aaron and his sons placed their hands on its head, ²³Moses killed it, and put some of its blood on Aaron's right ear, right hand, and right big toe. ²⁴Moses then did the same with some blood on Aaron's sons. And he sprinkled the rest of the blood on the sides of the altar. ²⁵Moses took the fat, the tail, the fat around the internal organs, two kidneys with their fat, and the right thigh. ²⁶On top of these he placed a wafer without yeast, a thin wafer with olive oil, and some bread. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁷He gave all of these to Aaron and his sons who waved them as an offering to the LORD. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} ²⁸Moses then burned all these on the altar as part of the burnt offering, {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} and the Lord was pleased. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

Lord, I know that worship is pleasing to You. May You be pleased as I offer my life as a sacrifice of sweet incense to You. Amen.

²⁹Moses then waved the breast to the LORD, as part of the dedication ram, as the LORD had commanded. {486 Today's Response in Prayer, Heb. 3:7}

³⁰Moses sprinkled anointing oil and blood from the altar on Aaron and his sons and their clothes to dedicate them to the Lord. {539 Worship-Ministry Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³¹Moses told Aaron and his sons, "Boil the meat at the tabernacle entrance and eat it there with the dedication bread you cooked. 32Burn any leftover meat. ³³Stay at the tabernacle entrance for a week, the time of your dedication. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} 34This command from the LORD is payment for your sins. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 35Don't forget to stay at the tabernacle entrance for a week. If you don't, you will die." {251 Interchange with God, Gen. 18:23-33} ³⁶So Aaron and his sons did all that the LORD told Moses. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, just as Your servants were anointed with oil for tabernacle service, I ask today your anointing of the Holy Spirit on me so I can serve You in wisdom and power. If I'm not filled and anointed with the Holy Spirit, then I can't serve You effectively. So fill and anoint me today. Amen.

Leviticus 9 Aaron Offers Sacrifices

¹After the week-long dedication, Moses got Aaron and his sons and Israel's leaders together. ²He told Aaron, "Take a bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, and offer them to the Lord. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

³"Tell the Israelites to offer a male goat as a sin offering and a calf and year-old lamb as a burnt offering to the Lord. ⁴Also have them bring a fellowship offering of a bull and a ram and also a grain offering mixed with olive oil. The LORD will appear to you today." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

⁵The people brought these things and stood at the tabernacle entrance before the LORD. ⁶Moses said, "After you have done these things, the Lord will appear to you in His glory." {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30}

Lord, I know it's important for me to gather with other believers to worship and serve You. I will attend church every Sunday to worship You, and serve You with other believers. Amen.

⁷Moses said to Aaron, "Offer the sin offering and the burnt offering {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} to be substitute payments for you and the people." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ⁸So Aaron killed the calf as a sacrifice for his sins. ⁹His sons took the calf's blood to him, and he put some blood on the four horns of the altar and poured out the rest of it at the base of the altar. ¹⁰He burned the bull's fat, kidneys, and liver, as the Lord had said to do. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹¹Then Aaron burned the meat and skin outside the camp.

¹²Then Aaron killed the animal for the burnt offering. His sons brought him the blood, and he sprinkled it on four sides of the altar. ¹³As they brought him the pieces of the animal, including the head, he burned them on the altar. ¹⁴He washed the insides and the legs and offered them up as a burnt offering.

¹⁵Next Aaron sacrificed the goat for the people {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} just as he had offered the calf as a sin offering for himself. ¹⁶Then he brought the ram as a burnt offering, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} as God had said to do. ¹⁷Then he brought the grain offering, burning a handful of it on the altar in addition to the morning burnt offering.

¹⁸Then Aaron killed the bull and ram as the fellowship offering from the people. Aaron's son took the blood to him, and he sprinkled it on all four sides of the altar. ¹⁹Then he took the fat from the animals' tails, internal organs, kidneys, and liver, ²⁰and placed them on the animals' breasts and burned them. ²¹Aaron then waved the breasts and right thighs {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} to the LORD, as Moses had said to do.

²²Aaron spread out his hands toward the people and blessed them. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} Then having made the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the fellowship offering, he stepped down from the altar. ²³He and Moses went into the tabernacle. When they came out, they blessed the people, {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} and the LORD appeared in His glory. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁴Fire from the LORD burned up the burnt offering and the fats on the altar. The people saw this, shouted, {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} and fell to the ground in worship. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16}

Lord, it's important that You accept the offering of my life that I sacrifice to You; let the fire of Your presence fall in my life and burn up all sin and chaff within me; may my life be reverent and focused on You; may my life be a gift offering to You. Amen.

Leviticus 10 Nadab and Abihu Were Killed

¹Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu disobeyed God by burning incense in their fire pans. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²So God sent fire on them and it burned them to death. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³Moses told Aaron, "This is why the Lord said, 'I will show Myself holy to anyone who approaches Me, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} and I will be glorified before everyone.'" But Aaron said nothing. ⁴Then Moses told two of his cousins, "Take the bodies of those relatives of yours outside the camp away from the tabernacle entrance." ⁵So they carried them out by their tunics. ⁶Moses told Aaron and his two sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Don't mourn by letting your hair hang loose or by tearing your clothes. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} If you do, you will die, and God will be angry with all the people. But others may mourn Nadab and Abihu. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ⁷But you as God's anointed ones {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} are to stay here in the tabernacle, or you will die." So Aaron and his sons did as Moses said.

Lord, teach me to fear You. May I never take Your Word and commands lightly. Lord, I worship You as a burning fire that consumes all sin; I will separate myself from everything I know is sin. I want to be holy, acceptable by You. Amen.

⁸The LORD told Aaron, ⁹"You are not to drink wine or any other alcoholic drink before going into the tabernacle. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} If you do, you will die. This rule is for every generation. ¹⁰Know the difference between what is holy and isn't, and what is clean and unclean. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ¹¹Teach the people all the commands I gave them through Moses."

¹²Moses told Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Take the leftover grain offering, be sure it has no yeast, and eat it, for it is a holy offering. ¹³Eat it in the holy place; it is your share {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} of the people's offerings. ¹⁴The breast and thigh that were waved to the Lord may be eaten anywhere

so long as it is a ceremonial place. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} They are for your family as their share of the fellowship offerings. 15The breast and thigh are to be waved to the Lord with the fat portions of offerings. 16When Moses asked what happened to the goat of the sin offering, he learned that it had been burned. This made Moses very angry, and he said to Eleazar and Ithamar, 17"Why didn't you eat the sin offering in the courtyard? This holy offering was to be a substitute payment for the people's sins. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹⁸Since you didn't take the blood into the holy place, you were to eat its meat in the courtyard, but you burned it instead."

¹⁹Aaron said to Moses, "Yes, my sons offered both the sin offering and the burnt offering today to the Lord." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁰Moses was satisfied with his response.

Lord, thank You for overlooking unintentional sin while judging premeditated sin; forgive me all my unintentional sins. I promise You I will not plan to sin or disobey You. Amen.

Leviticus 11 Clean and Unclean Foods

¹The Lord told Moses and Aaron to tell the Israelites, ²"You may eat the meat of any animal ³that has divided hoofs and chews the cud. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ⁴⁶But if an animal chews the cud

but doesn't have divided hoofs, you are not to eat them. They include camels, rock badgers, and rabbits. ⁷The pig has divided hoofs but it doesn't chew the cud, and so you are not to eat it. ⁸Don't even touch the dead bodies of these animals." {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1}

Lord, You are concerned with my inner physical health, as well as my outward spiritual testimony. May I please You with the things I eat. Make me physically strong and free from sickness. May my inner private life influence the outer, so I can be a testimony to others. Amen.

9"You may eat anything that lives in water, whether fresh water or salt water, and has fins and scales. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} ¹⁰You are to detest the idea of eating any other thing that lives in water. ¹¹You are not even to touch their dead bodies. ¹²To repeat, don't eat any marine animal that does not have fins and scales. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

¹³"These are the birds you are never to eat: eagles, vultures, buzzards, ¹⁴kites, ¹⁵falcons, ravens, ¹⁶ostriches, owls, sea gulls, hawks, ¹⁷little owls, water birds, great owls, ¹⁸desert owls, ospreys, pelicans, ¹⁹storks, herons, and bats. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ²⁰"Do not eat flying insects that have four legs, {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} ²¹except for those that jump with their hind legs, including ²²locusts, crickets, and grasshoppers. ²³Any others that fly and crawl are not to be eaten.

²⁴"If you touch the dead bodies of these off-limits insects, you will be ceremonially unclean all day. ²⁵If you touch the dead bodies of any of these animals, you must wash your clothes. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²⁶You will also be unclean if you touch the dead body of any animal that has divided hoofs but doesn't chew the cud. ²⁷You will also be unclean all day if you touch the carcass of a four-legged animal that has paws. ²⁸If you touch the carcass, you must wash your clothes and you will be unclean all day. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

^{29α}Mules, rats, lizards, ³⁰geckos, mice, snails, chameleons ³¹are unclean. If you touch the dead body of one of these, you will be unclean all day. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ³²Suppose one of them dies and its dead body falls on something made of wood, cloth, leather, or sackcloth. That object must be washed and yet will remain ceremonially unclean all day.

³³"If one of these dead animals falls into a clay pot, the pot must be smashed, and anything in the pot will be unclean. ³⁴If water that is used to clean an unclean object touches food, the food will be unclean.

³⁵"If the dead body of an animal touches any object, that object will be unclean. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} ³⁶If a dead body falls into a spring or well, the water will not be unclean, but anyone who removes the carcass will be. ³⁷If a carcass falls on seeds to be planted, the seeds are still clean. ³⁸But if the seeds are wet when the carcass falls on it, the seeds are ceremonially unclean. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1}

39"If an animal that may be eaten dies and you touch it, you will be unclean all day. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} 40 If you eat any of its meat or carry the carcass away, you must wash your clothes; you will be unclean all day. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

⁴¹"Don't eat any animals that crawl, ⁴²including reptiles or creatures with many legs. ⁴³Don't touch or eat any of them. ⁴⁴Because I the LORD your God, am holy, you are to be holy. So don't make yourselves unclean by touching or eating crawling creatures. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} ⁴⁵I brought you out of Egypt. You are to be holy because I am holy." {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7}

Lord, thank You for Your concern for my health. I again dedicate my body to Your service. Help me make right choices about the food I eat; and after that, protect me from unknown food dangers. Lord, I want to be healthy to Your glory; help me discipline my physical life to that end. Amen.

⁴⁶"These are My instructions about which animals, birds, fish, and crawling things ⁴⁷you may and may not eat, which ones I consider clean and unclean." {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9}

Why Dietary Laws?

God listed many animals that the people of Israel couldn't eat. There was one common denominator with them all; they couldn't eat predator or scavenger animals. This included certain types of animals in their livestock, fish and seafood, rodents, birds, and insects. With the sin by Adam and Eve, death came and with it decay, germs, disease, and bacteria. Every dead body produces an enormous amount of potential disease and was life-threatening in some cases. A scavenger animal spreads diseases. As an example, many insects feed off garbage, feces, and food that is spoiled, rotten, or contaminated. God didn't want His people ingesting animals that possibly had disease in their bodies. The clean animals were vegetarians. Those that eat the leaves of trees, grass, or bushes do not normally have bacteria in their system as do scavenger creatures. The issue was much more than eating an unclean creature or eating things that seem repulsive, poisonous, or obnoxious. God wanted His people to be holy in their bodies or total lifestyle. He didn't want His people associated with creatures that were dirty, or creatures that depended on garbage or rotting things for its livelihood. The issue was holiness of mind and body as well as health and physical wholeness. The dietary laws protected God's people from sickness and disease. When God promised, "You won't get any of the diseases I sent on the Egyptians" (Exod. 15:26), their health involved obedience to all of God's dietary instructions about removing garbage and anything that would defile them physically or spiritually. When God did away with the dietary laws (Acts 10:9-16; Col. 2:14-17), He allowed humans to eat those creatures previously called "unclean." Usually, cooking the creatures over 220° will kill any bacteria and make the food safe to eat today. Lord, I thank You for the provision of food. Use good food to strengthen my body and make me healthy. I will eat good food and refrain from food that is harmful to my health. Amen.

Leviticus 12 Cleansing after Childbirth

¹The LORD told Moses, "Give these instructions to the Israelites. ²After a woman gives birth to a son, she will be ceremonially unclean for a week; just as she is during her monthly period. {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} 3On the eighth day the boy must be circumcised. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ⁴For another 33 days she will be unclean because of loss of blood. So during that time she must not touch any object dedicated to Me and must not enter the tabernacle. {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} 5After a woman gives birth to a daughter, she will be unclean for two weeks, as in her period. Then she will be unclean for another 66 days. {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22}

6"When these days are completed for either a son or daughter, the mother must take to the priest at the tabernacle entrance a year-old lamb as a burnt offering and a dove or a pigeon as a sin offering. ⁷The priest will offer them to the Lord on her behalf, and the mother will be completely clean again from her loss of blood at childbirth. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} 8If

she can't afford a lamb, she must take to the priest two doves or two pigeons, one as a burnt offering and one as a sin offering." {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

Luke's birth story of Jesus of Nazareth includes the special ceremonies given in Leviticus 12. Prophetically God was revealing that the baby Jesus was human and that He would live and grow by human laws. Lord, You give salvation to all who call on You. Thank You for saving my soul. Thank you that Jesus became a human so He could die for my sins. Amen.

Leviticus 13 The Rules about Skin Diseases

¹The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, ²"If anyone breaks out with sores, boils, or a rash, and the hair in the area has turned white, Aaron or one of his sons must examine the skin. ³If the priest sees that the area is white and the sore is more than skin deep, the priest is to state that the man is a leper and is ceremonially unclean. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31}

⁴"But if the spot is not white and is only skin deep and the hair has not turned white, the priest is to have him quarantined for a week. ⁵Then if the spot has not spread, the priest is to quarantine him for another week. ⁶If the spot still has not spread, the priest will say he is clean and the man will only need to wash his clothes. {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} ⁷But

if the spot spreads, the man must see the priest again. ⁸And if the priest sees that the spot has spread, he is to say the man is a leper and is ceremonially unclean." {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

Lord, there is so much disease in this sinful world. Protect me as I protect myself. May my body be a clean temple where You live and You are glorified. Amen.

⁹"Anyone with a skin disease must be brought to the priest. 10 If the priest sees the spot is white and swollen with hair in the spot, 11he will state that the man is a leper and is ceremonially unclean and need not be quarantined. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31} 12If the skin is white with scars and no sores or rash, 13the priest is to say that the man is clean. {176 Frailty-Confession Prayer, Ps. 90:12} ¹⁴But if open sores appear, ¹⁵the priest is to say the man is a leper and is ceremonially unclean. 16-17 But if the sores heal and turn white, the man is to go again to the priest. He will examine the man and if the skin is completely white, the priest is to say that the man is now clean. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4}

¹⁸"If someone has a sore on his skin that healed ¹⁹but then swelled and turned reddish-white, he must see the priest. ²⁰If the priest sees that the sore is more than skin deep and the hairs in the sore have turned white, he is to say the man is unclean. ²¹But if the spot has no white hairs and the spot is not skin deep, the priest is to quarantine him for a week. ²²If the infection spreads

during that week, the priest is to say he is unclean because the disease is contagious. ²³But if the spot hasn't spread, it is a scar from the sore, and the priest is to say he is clean. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} ²⁴"If someone is burned and a spot on the skin turns reddish white or white, 25the priest must examine it. If the hairs in the spot are white and the spot is more than skin deep, the priest is to say he is unclean because the infection is contagious. {301 Medical Answer-Prayer, James 5:15} ²⁶If no white hairs are in the spot and it is not skin deep and the color is fading, then he is to be quarantined for a week. ²⁷If after seven days the burned area is spreading, the priest is to say he is unclean because the disease is contagious. ²⁸However, if the area is unchanged and has not spread and is fading in color, and is clear from the burn, the priest is to say he is clean. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

²⁹"If someone has an open sore on his head or chin, {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} ³⁰the priest is to examine it. If it seems more than skin deep and the hairs in the sore are yellow, the priest is to say he is unclean because the sore is contagious. ³¹But if the sore does not seem to be more than skin deep and there are no black hairs in it, then he is to be quarantined for a week. ³²Then if the spot is only skin deep and the hairs are not yellow, ³³he is to shave except for the diseased area, and he is to be quarantined for another week. ³⁴If after that week the spot has not spread and does not seem to be skin deep, the priest is to say he is clean, and the man must wash his clothes. 35But if later the problem spreads, ³⁶the priest need not look for yellow hairs, for the person is unclean. ³⁷But if the sore seems unchanged and the hairs in it are now black, the man is clean.

³⁸"If a person has white spots on his skin, ³⁹and the spots are dull white, this is not leprosy; it is a rash, and that person is clean. {301 Medical Answer-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁴⁰If a man becomes bald, that doesn't mean he is a leper. ⁴¹If he simply has a bald forehead, he is clean. 42But if a reddish-white sore appears on his head or forehead, that means he has an infectious disease. 43 If the priest sees that the sore is swollen and is reddish-white, 44then he is a leper and the priest is to say he is unclean. {301 Medical Answer-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁴⁵The person must wear torn clothes, not comb his hair, cover the lower part of his face, and say, 'I am unclean.' 46While he has the infection, {301 Medical Answer-Prayer, James 5:15} he must live alone and outside the camp. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} 47-49"If a green or red spot appears on clothing made of linen or woven or knitted material or leather, it must be shown to the priest. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ⁵⁰After examining it, the priest is to set it aside for a week. 51Then if the green or red spot has spread, the article is unclean, 52 and the priest must burn it. 53 But if the priest finds that the spot has not spread, ⁵⁴he is to have the item of clothing or leather washed and isolated for a week. 55Then he is to examine it again and even though it hasn't spread, he is to say it is unclean and is to have it burned {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} whether it was affected on the inside or outside.

⁵⁶But if the spot faded after the item was washed, the priest is to tear out that spot. ⁵⁷If the spot appears again somewhere on the item, it must be burned. ⁵⁸But if the item is okay after being washed, it should be washed one more time, and it will be ceremonially clean.

59"These are the instructions for determining if clothing with an unusual spot on it is clean or unclean." {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1}

Lord, thank You for preventive measures to keep me from disease and sickness. I praise You for Your concern for my health. May I do all I can to stay healthy. Lord, I renew the dedication of my body to You. Live in me and be glorified in me. Amen.

Leviticus 14 Cleansing from Skin Disease

¹The LORD gave Moses ²these instructions for a person who thinks he is healed of leprosy. "He is to go to the priest ³who is to examine him outside the camp. ⁴If the priest considers him healed, he is to take two birds, cedar wood, red yarn, and a hyssop branch. ⁵He is to have someone kill one of the birds over fresh water in a clay pot. ⁶Then he is to dip the other bird, the cedar, the red yarn, and the hyssop in the blood of the first bird. ⁷Then the priest is to sprinkle the blood of the dead bird seven times on the person who had the disease and to say, 'You are clean.' Then the priest will let the live bird fly into the open field. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28}

8"The man who is cured must then wash his clothes, shave himself, and bathe. He may then live in the camp, but he must stay outside his tent for a week. 9On the seventh day he must again shave, wash his clothes, and bathe. He will then be ceremonially clean. 10 The next day he must take to the priest two rams and a year-old female lamb, all with no defects, along with five quarts of flour mixed with olive oil, and half a pint of olive oil. 11 The priest is to present to the Lord the man and his offerings at the tabernacle entrance." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Lord, medical technicians have demonstrated with good reason laws of cleanliness and uncleanliness given by You; these were not superstitious taboos. You wanted the Israelites to be in the best health possible in their physical bodies with a strong intellect, emotion, and will. That meant they had to exercise self-discipline in their diets. So help me do the same to keep healthy. You told them what they could eat and not eat to prevent disease and infection; I will obey healthy dietary rules to glorify You. Amen.

12"The priest is to take one of the rams and the oil and wave them to the LORD as a guilt offering. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹³He is then to kill the lamb in the place where animals for sin offerings and burnt offerings are killed. This guilt offering is to be given to the priest for food. This is a very holy offering. ¹⁴The priest is to put some blood from the guilt offering on the man's right ear, his right thumb, and right big toe.

15"The priest is then to pour some of the olive oil in his left hand, ¹⁶dip his right finger into the oil, and sprinkle it seven times to the LORD. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ¹⁷The priest is then to put some of the oil on the man's right ear, right thumb, and right big toe. ¹⁸He is then to pour the rest of the oil on the man's head as a substitute payment for his sins." {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

Lord, I know the blood must be applied first to my life, to cleanse me from sin. Then the oil of the Holy Spirit must anoint me for refreshing, spiritual illumination, power, and assurance. I ask for the Holy Spirit to fill me now. Amen.

¹⁹⁴The priest is then to offer the sin offering and the burnt offering ²⁰on the altar with a grain offering. All of these are to be substitute payments for sin. Then the person will be ceremonially clean. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

²¹"If the person being cleansed can't afford two lambs, then he is to bring a ram as a guilt offering to wave before the Lord as a substitute payment for sin, along with a half pint of olive oil and five quarts of flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering. ²²He is also to offer two doves or two pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. ²³He is to take them to the priest at the tabernacle entrance on the eighth day. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ²⁴The priest is to take the lamb for the guilt offering and wave it and the olive oil to the LORD."

Lord, the cleansed leper brought offerings to You because he was healed of his leprosy. Next he brought the normal sacrifice to You because he wanted to thank You and worship You. Lord, in the same way I first pray for forgiveness of sin, then I thank You for cleansing of sin. Next I come to You to worship You for Your guidance and for Your providential leading in my life. Amen.

²⁵"Then the priest is to kill the other lamb and put some of its blood on the person's right ear, right thumb, and right big toe. ²⁶"The priest is to pour some of the olive oil in his left hand, ²⁷dip his right finger into the oil, and sprinkle it seven times to the LORD. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ²⁸He is then to put some of the oil on the person's right ear, right thumb, and right big toe, the same places where he is to put the blood of the guilt offering. {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} ²⁹He is to pour the rest of the oil on the person's head as a substitute payment for sin.

³⁰"Then the priest is to offer the two doves or two pigeons, along with the grain offering. ³¹One bird is for a sin offering and the other is for a burnt offering. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ³²These are what the person must do if he has leprosy and can't afford the offering normally required." {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22}

³³The LORD told Moses and Aaron to tell the people, 34"When you are in Canaan, some of your houses may have mildew. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} 35 The owner of the house is to tell the priest, 'I may have mildew in my house.' ³⁶The priest is to have the house emptied, and then he is to inspect it. ³⁷If he finds green or red spots on the walls and they seem to be behind the wall's surface, ³⁸he is to lock up the house for a week. ³⁹Then he is to go see if the mildew has spread. ⁴⁰If it has, the stones are to be removed and dumped in an area outside of town. 41 Then all the walls must be scraped, ⁴²and other stones brought in, and the walls plastered again. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

⁴³"But suppose the mildew reappears. ⁴⁴Then the priest is to inspect it again. If the mildew has spread, the house is unclean, ⁴⁵and it must be torn down {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} and the stones, wood, and plaster must be carried out of town to an unclean place. ⁴⁶If anyone goes into the house when it is closed up, he will be ceremonially unclean the rest of the day. ⁴⁷And if anyone eats or sleeps there, he is to wash his clothes.

⁴⁸"However, if the priest inspects the house and finds that mildew has not reappeared after the walls were replastered, the house is ceremonially clean. ⁴⁹To complete the cleansing process ⁵⁰the priest is to kill a bird over a water-filled pot, ⁵¹and dip a piece of cedar wood, red thread, and a hyssop branch into the bird's blood. The priest is also to dip a live bird into the blood of the killed bird and then sprinkle the blood on the house seven times. {16

Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ⁵²After purifying the house, ⁵³the priest is to let the live bird fly away into open fields.

54"These are the instructions to follow for dealing with contagious skin diseases or mildew 55 in one's clothing or house, 56 or a sore or a swollen area of his skin. 57 These instructions will help you know if something is ceremonially clean or unclean." {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

Lord, you speak to us through symbols, such as the live bird that is released and given its freedom. Thank You for Your freedom given to me after You have forgiven my sins and made me clean. Lord, You also had the health of your people in mind, because they had not recognized the airborne diseases caused by mildew in their houses. Thank You for protecting my health, when I didn't even understand what You were doing. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} Amen.

Leviticus 15 Rules about Unclean Discharges

¹The Lord gave Moses and Aaron ²these instructions to give to the Israelites: "If a man has a genital discharge, he is unclean, ³whether it continues flowing or is blocked. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ⁴Any bed he lies on or chair he sits on will be unclean. ⁵⁻⁷And if anyone touches his bed, his chair, or even the man himself, he is to wash his clothes and bathe. He will be ceremonially unclean all day. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} *If you are spit on by the man, you are to wash your clothes, bathe, and be ceremonially unclean all day. 9-10 Any saddle or seat the man sits on will be unclean that day. And even if you pick up those items, you are to wash your clothes, bathe, and be unclean all day. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} *IIf he touches you before first washing his hands, you are to wash your clothes, bathe, and be unclean all day. ¹²If he touches a clay pot, it is to be broken, and any wooden utensil he touches is to be washed." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

Lord, You are deeply concerned when Your people are guilty of sexual sins. Therefore, You tell us to be sexually pure. Lord, I will be sexually holy to please You. Amen.

¹³"During the week after the discharge stops, he is to wash his clothes and bathe and he will be ceremonially clean. 14Then on the eight day he is to give the priest two doves or two pigeons for the Lord at the tabernacle entrance. ¹⁵The priest is to offer one of the birds for a sin offering and one as a burnt offering as substitute payments for sin. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 16"If a man emits some semen, he is to bathe and he will be ceremonially unclean all day. 17 If the semen gets on any clothing or leather, that item is to be washed, and it will be unclean all day. 18 After intercourse, the husband and wife are to bathe, and they will be unclean all day."

Lord, You said sex is not dirty, but is holy between a husband and wife (Heb. 13:4). I will keep Your commands and bring glory to You in all things. Amen.

¹⁹"During a woman's monthly period, she will be unclean for a week, and anyone who touches her will be unclean all day. ²⁰Anything she lies on or sits on will be unclean. ²¹⁻²²If anyone touches her bed or anything she sits on, ²³whether her bedding or any piece of furniture, he is to wash his clothes and bathe, and he will be unclean all day. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ²⁴If a man has intercourse with a woman in her monthly period, he will be unclean for a week, and any bed he lies on will be unclean.

²⁵"If a woman's menstrual flow lasts longer than normal or if she has some other ongoing discharge of blood, she will be ceremonially unclean during the flow. ²⁶Any bed she rests on or chair she sits in will be unclean. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁷And if anyone touches them, he is to wash his clothes and bathe, and he will be unclean all day.

²⁸"A week after the woman's monthly discharge stops, she will be ceremonially clean. ²⁹Then on the eighth day she is to give the priest two doves or two pigeons at the tabernacle entrance. ³⁰The priest is to offer one of the birds as a sin offering and one as a burnt offering {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} to the LORD as substitute payments for sin. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

³¹"In this way you will keep the Israelites separate from things that would make then unclean, {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} and thus avoid death by making the tabernacle unclean. ³²These are the regulations for men with a genital discharge or emission of semen, ³³for women in their monthly period or a discharge, or for a man who sleeps with a woman during her period." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

Lord, the Old Testament laws are done away in Christ, but I will continue to obey the principles so I can be healthy and disciplined in body. May I please You in all my physical habits. May I worship You in a strong, healthy body. Amen.

Leviticus 16 The Day of Atonement

¹After Aaron's two sons Nadab and Abihu died, ²the LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron not to go whenever he wants into the most holy place where I appear in a cloud over the lid on the sacred chest. {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} If he does, he will die. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13}

³"Before entering the most holy place, Aaron is to offer a bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁴Then he is to take a bath and put on the special priestly garments, including the tunic, linen

undergarments, linen sash, and linen turban." {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

Lord, clothe me with the garments of righteousness so I can come properly into Your presence. Amen.

5"The people are to bring him two male goats for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

6"The ram is for a sin offering for Aaron and his family. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 7Then he is to present the two male goats to the LORD at the tabernacle entrance. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 8He is to cast lots to see which goat is to be offered to the LORD and which one is to be the 'scapegoat,' that is, to be sent away. 9One goat is to be offered to the LORD as a substitute payment for sin, 10 and the 'scapegoat' is to be sent into the desert. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} It too is to be a substitute payment for sin.

11"Aaron is to offer the ram for himself {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and his family as a substitute payment for sin. ¹²Then he is to take a fire pan with coals from the altar of burnt offering, with incense in each hand, and go behind the curtain that separates the holy place from the most holy place. ¹³He is to put the incense on the coals {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} so that the smoke will cover the chest and so he won't die. ¹⁴He is then to sprinkle some of the animal's blood in front of the lid and then seven times on the lid itself. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

15"Aaron is then to kill the goat as a sin offering and to sprinkle some of its blood as he did with the ram's blood. 16 This will remove the sins that make the most holy place and the people unclean. {385 Propitiation Intercession-Prayer, 1 John 2:2} Aaron is to do the same for the entire tabernacle. 17 When Aaron is in the most holy place, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} no one is to be in the tabernacle.

¹⁸"Then Aaron is to sprinkle some of the ram's blood {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and some of the goat's blood on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. ¹⁹By sprinkling it seven times, he will cleanse it from Israel's sin and rededicate it to Me."

Lord, when many deny the efficacy of the blood of Jesus Christ, I believe in the blood and apply it to my life. There's an old hymn that says, "There's power in the blood." I reaffirm the effectiveness of that power and claim it for my life. Amen.

²¹place his hands on its head, {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} confess the people's sins, {385 Propitiation Intercession-Prayer, 1 John 2:2} and send it away into the desert led by someone chosen for that task. ²²By being released, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} the goat will carry Israel's sins far away.

²³"Going back into the tabernacle, Aaron is to remove his priestly garments and leave them there, ²⁴to bathe {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} and put on his everyday clothes. Then he is to offer the burnt offering {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} for himself and the burnt offering for the people, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²⁵burning the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

²⁶"The man who sent the goat into the desert is to wash his clothes and take a bath before he returns to the camp. ²⁷The ram and goat given as sin offerings {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} are to be taken outside the camp and burned. ²⁸The man who burns them is to wash his clothes and take a bath {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} before he returns to the camp."

Lord, the scapegoat tells me you have separated my sins, as far as the east is from the west. You have forgiven me of my sins and will remember them no more. Amen.

²⁹ Every year on the tenth day of the seventh month (September) you are to fast and not work. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} This includes foreigners living with you. ³⁰On this day a substitute payment for your sins {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} will be made in the LORD's presence. ³¹This is to be a day of complete rest just like the Sabbath; something you are to do to every year. ³²In the future generations the sacrifice will be made by a priest serving in Aaron's place and wearing the priestly garments. ³³The sacrifice will be for the most holy place, the tabernacle, {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5}

the altar of burnt offering,{377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} the priests, and all Israel. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ³⁴This is to be done every year as a substitute payment for the people's sins." Moses did as the LORD commanded. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, every Israelite had to fast on the Day of Atonement to identify with cleansing for his/her sins. When the high priest atoned for the sins of all Israel, it did not apply to a faithless Israelite. A person demonstrated his/her faith by fasting. Lord, I fast to identify with Jesus who fasted 40 days, but I also identify with His atoning death. Finally, I fast not to get something from You. I fast to know Your heart and have You know mine. Amen.

Leviticus 17 The Importance of Blood

¹The LORD told Moses ²to tell Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites these commands: ³"If anyone offers a cow, lamb, or goat anywhere except at the tabernacle entrance, ⁴he will be as guilty as if he shed someone's blood and he will no longer be part of the nation. ⁵The offerings are not to be made in open fields; they are to be brought to the LORD at the tabernacle entrance {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and sacrificed as fellowship offerings." {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

Lord, just as it was important for an Israelite to sacrifice to You in the tabernacle, so I know it's imperative for me to meet with other believers in a local church every Sunday. Lord, I will meet each Lord's Day to worship You and fellowship with a congregation of believers. Amen.

6"The priest is to sprinkle blood on the altar of burnt offering and to burn the fat, and I will be pleased with the offering. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} 7Never offer any sacrifices to demons in the fields." {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

Lord, the blood was applied to my sin when I accepted Christ as Savior. "The blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin" (1 John 1:7). I praise You for the cleansing blood of Christ, and I promise to walk in the light. Amen.

8"Don't forget: Any Israelite or foreign resident who offers a sacrifice anywhere {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 9except at the tabernacle entrance {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} will no longer be part of the nation.

¹⁰"Also I will be against any Israelite or foreigner who eats or drinks blood from a sacrifice, and he will no longer be part of the nation. ¹¹Life of any animal is in the blood, and I have given you the blood {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} as a substitute payment for sins. ¹²That is why you are not to eat or drink an animal's blood. ¹³If you kill an animal or bird while hunting, drain out the blood and cover the blood. ¹⁴The life of every living creature is in the blood, and that is why you are never to eat or drink it. So anyone who does will no longer be part of the nation. ¹⁵If you eat an animal that died naturally or was killed by a wild animal, {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} you are to wash your clothes and take a bath, and you will be unclean all day. ¹⁶But if you don't wash your clothes and bathe, you will suffer the consequences." {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

The Lord is omniscient. He knew all about germs and infections long before scientific discovery told us disease is transferred by blood and resides in fat. So God told us not to drink the blood or eat the fat. God didn't want any type of potential health threat to be ingested by His people. Lord, I will eat healthy foods so I can glorify You in my body. Amen.

Leviticus 18 Laws about Sexual Practices

¹The LORD told Moses ²to tell the Israelites these words: "I am the LORD your God, ³so don't live like the people of Egypt where you used to live or like the people of Canaan {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} where I am taking you. ⁴You must obey me because I am the LORD your God ⁵and by obeying My laws you will live." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, I yield my body to Your use. May my life bring glory to You. Lord, I will be sexually pure; I will be a good testimony for You. Amen.

6"Don't have sex with a close relative, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ⁷including your mother, ⁸any of your father's wives, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} 9your sister or stepsister, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ¹⁰your granddaughter, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} 11half-sister, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} 12aunt (whether sister of your father or ¹³sister of your mother, or ¹⁴wife of your father's brother), {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ¹⁵daughter-in-law, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ¹⁶or sister-in-law. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18}

¹⁷"Don't have sex with both a woman and her daughter; this is a terrible sin. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} 18Don't marry two sisters; they will be in conflict all the time. If your wife dies, then it is okay to marry her sister. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} 19Don't have sex with a woman during her monthly period. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ²⁰Don't have sex with another man's wife; that would make you ceremonially unclean. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ²¹Don't sacrifice your children by burning them on an altar to the false god Molech, because I am your true God, the LORD. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer,

Ps. 96:8} ²²Don't practice homosexuality; it is a deplorable sin." {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18}

Lord, sex is a growing modern-day sin. I will be separate from this sin. I pray for homosexuals and lesbians that they may use Your standard for purity, and obey You in sexual purity. I pray for the salvation of all homosexuals and lesbians and their growth in Christ. Amen.

²³"Don't have sex with an animal. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18}

²⁴"People in other nations do these disgusting things, but I am going to force them out of the land. ²⁵The entire country where you are going is so guilty of these sins that I am going to vomit them up." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, I pray for the growing sin of sexual relations in my nation; send a growing spirit of conviction against all sexual sins. Lord, save my nation from Your judgment, and bless my nation. Amen.

²⁶"You must obey My laws; don't do any of these awful things. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁷The people in the land where I am taking you have done these things continually and have corrupted the land. ²⁸If you do these things, I will vomit you out of the land just as I will do with the nations there now. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁹"Anyone who does any of these things will no longer be a part of my people. {79

Conditional-Prayer Promise, 2 Chron. 7:14} ³⁰Keep My laws, and don't do any of the disgusting things of these people. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} Remember that I am the LORD." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, I commit myself to be sexually pure. I will not violate my sexual purity, nor the sexual purity of another person. Keep me in the hour of temptation; I want to be a clean vessel for Your use. Amen.

Leviticus 19 Obey God's Laws

¹The LORD told Moses ²to tell the Israelites these things: "Be holy, because I, your God the LORD, am holy. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 3Respect your parents, and always observe my Sabbath of rest. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 4Don't trust in idols or make idols of metal; I am the LORD your God. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} 5When you offer a fellowship offering, follow My instructions so it will be accepted. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} Eat it on the day you offer it or the next day, but burn any of it left over on the third day. 7If you eat any of it on the third day, I will not accept the sacrifice, {237 Inadequate-Prayer, James 5:17-18} 8and you will be guilty of disregarding My holiness {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} and you will no longer be a part of the Israelite people. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

9"At harvest time leave some grain by the edges of the fields, and don't pick up what falls on the ground. ¹⁰Also leave some grapes on your vines, and don't pick up grapes that fall to the ground. Leave them for the poor and foreigners living with you, remembering that I am the LORD your God. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

11"Don't steal, lie, or cheat others. 12Don't misuse My name in making false promises, remembering that I am the LORD your God. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ¹³Don't rob or cheat anyone, and pay your hired workers at the end of the day, don't wait overnight to pay them. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} 14Show your respect for Me by never cursing a deaf person or tripping a blind person, remembering that I am the LORD. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} 15Judge fairly, whether the person is poor or rich. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 16Don't gossip, or do anything that will harm someone's life, remembering that I am the LORD. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

¹⁷"Don't hate anyone. Yet if someone does something wrong, let him know it; otherwise you will be guilty. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ¹⁸Don't be angry or hold grudges. Love your neighbor as much as you love yourself, remembering that I am the LORD." {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}

Lord, You gave us certain instructions on how to treat others. I will always treat others

as I want them to treat me. I will follow the rule of love. I will love others as I love myself. Give me a heart for other people. Help me treat them as You would. Then I can be Your follower. Amen.

19"Obey My commands, including never breeding your animals with other kinds of animals, never planting two kinds of seeds in the same field, and never wearing clothes made from two kinds of material. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ²⁰If a man sleeps with a slave girl who is engaged to be married, he must pay a fine, but they are not to be put to death because she is still a slave. ²¹The man is to bring a ram as a guilt offering at the tabernacle entrance. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ²²The ram will be a substitute payment for his sin, and so his sin will be forgiven. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

²³"When you arrive in the land of Canaan, and you plant fruit trees, don't eat the fruit for the first three years. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ²⁴Then the fourth-year crop is to be offered in praise to Me, {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ²⁵and the fifth-year crop will be yours, as you remember that I am the LORD your God. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

²⁶"Don't eat the blood of any animal, and don't be involved in witchcraft. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ²⁷Don't trim your hair on your temples and trim the edges of your beard. ²⁸As you mourn for the dead, don't cut yourself and don't put tattoo marks on your skin. Remember that I am the LORD. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ²⁹Don't let your daughters be prostitutes because that will lead others to do the same, and it is a terribly wicked thing. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ³⁰"Keep the Sabbath and respect the tabernacle because I am the LORD. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 31Don't go to mediums or psychics; you will be badly influenced by them. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 32Show respect for older people just as you do for Me, remembering that I am the LORD. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ³³Don't mistreat foreigners in your land; {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1} 34treat them as one of your own and love them just as you love yourself, remembering that I am the LORD your God. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}

35"Use honest scales when measuring anything of length, weight, or volume. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³⁶Also containers for measuring dry items or liquids must be accurate. Remember that I am the LORD your God who brought you out of Egypt. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ³⁷Obey all My laws and instructions, remembering that I am the LORD." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, You have rules and expectations for my life. May I always follow Your principles; may I be a testimony to others and show them that Christ lives in me. Lord, help me be a dedicated disciple of Jesus and keep me obedient to You. Amen.

Leviticus 20 Punishment for Disobeying God's Laws

¹The LORD told Moses {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 2to tell the Israelites these things: 3"If anyone of you or a foreigner with you has any of his children burned to death on an altar to the false god Molech, he must be put to death by stoning. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 4Giving his children to Molech means he has corrupted My tabernacle and dishonored Me, so he is no longer to be a part of the Israelites. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 5If you ignore this and don't stone him to death, I will separate him from My people and any others who worship Molech. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

6"If anyone goes to mediums or psychics, I will separate him from being a part of My people. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 7So dedicate yourselves and be holy because I am the LORD your God. 8You are to obey my laws because I am the LORD who makes you holy." {419 Sanctified-Praying, Heb. 10:14}

Lord, I will be faithful in these things. My nation has a growing tolerance to seek these demon-influenced practices. Forgive my nation its sin, and don't judge us. I pray for national revival. May my nation fear and worship You. Amen.

9"Anyone who curses his parent is to be put to death because he stands guilty before God. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

10"If a man has sex with another man's wife, both the man and the woman are to be put to death. 11 If a man has sex with his father's wife, both the man and the woman are to be put to death. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 12If a man has sex with his daughter-in-law, both of them are to be put to death. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} What they have done is terrible, and so they are guilty before God. ¹³If two men have sex together, they are to be put to death because what they have done is repulsive. 14If a man has sex with a woman and her mother, all three are to be burned to death for this terrible sin. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 15If a man has sex with an animal, he and the animal are to be put to death. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁶"If a woman has sex with a male animal, she and the animal are to be put to death for this terrible sin.

¹⁷"If a man has sex with his sisters, this is a disgrace. So both of them are to be separated from My people, and he will be responsible. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ¹⁸If a man has sex with a woman during her monthly period, both of them will no longer be a part of the Israelites. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ¹⁹If a man has sex with a sister of his father or mother, he will be punished. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ²⁰If a man has sex with his uncle's wife, neither of them will have children. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} ²¹If a man marries his sister-in-law, neither of them will have children. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22}

²²"Obey My laws so that the land where you are going will not vomit you out." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, Your laws are exact and when I break them, Your punishment is sure. Lord, I thank You for the blood of Jesus Christ who cleanses me from all sin, and delivers me from future judgment. Amen.

²³"Don't follow the customs of the people in the land where you are going. ²⁴I have promised you that that land is rich with milk from cows and honey from bees. Remember that I am the LORD your God, and that I have made you distinct from all other nations.

²⁵"Be sure to distinguish between ceremonially clean and unclean animals, birds, or creeping creatures, and don't eat any of them I have said are unclean. ²⁶Be holy because I am holy. I have set you apart from other nations to be My people. ²⁷Mediums or psychics must be put to death by stoning because they are guilty before Me."

Lord, I will obey Your laws and I will honor You in all I do. Use me for Your glory. Amen.

Leviticus 21 Rules for the Priests

¹The LORD told Moses to give the priests these instructions: "Don't touch a dead person, because it will make you

ceremonially unclean. ²However, exceptions are your close relatives, such as your mother, father, son, daughter, brother, ³or unmarried sister who is dependent on you because she has no husband. ⁴Because you are a leader, you are to avoid becoming ceremonially unclean. {419 Sanctified-Praying, Heb. 10:14}

5"Don't shave part of your heads or beards or cut your bodies as non-Israelites do. 6Be holy, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} and don't dishonor My name because you are the ones who present offerings to Me. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 7Don't marry someone who has been a prostitute and don't marry a divorced woman, because you are holy to Me. 8You are set apart to offer sacrifices to Me, so you are to be holy because I the LORD am holy. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

9"If you have a daughter who becomes a prostitute, she is to be put to death by burning. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4,9} ¹⁰If you are the high priest, anointed with the anointing oil {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} and wearing the priestly garments, you are not to let your hair be unkempt and you are not to tear your clothes in mourning for the dead. ¹¹Don't go near a dead body, even if it is that of your father or mother. ¹²Don't desecrate the tabernacle by leaving it to attend a funeral. {419 Sanctified-Praying, Heb. 10:14}

¹³"You as high priest must marry a virgin who is of the tribe of Levi. ¹⁴You must not marry a divorcee or a former prostitute. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

¹⁵This will keep you from giving your descendants a bad reputation. Remember that I am the LORD, who has set you apart to Me."

¹⁶The LORD told Moses ¹⁷to give these words to Aaron: "No descendant of yours can ever serve as My priest if he has any physical defect, ¹⁸ or if he is blind or lame, disfigured in some way, 19 is crippled, 20 is a hunchback or a dwarf, has a disease of the eye, or has running sores or damaged testicles. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ²¹No descendant of Aaron can offer sacrifices to Me if he has any of these defects. ²²He may eat from the sacrifices, ²³but because of his defects he may not go into the most holy place or go near the altar of burnt offering. He must remember that I am the LORD who makes priests holy." {233 Impartial-Prayer, Gen. 25:22-34}

²⁴Moses relayed these instructions to Aaron, his sons, and the Israelites. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1}

Lord, the rules for priests were more strict than the rules for average Israelites. You want Your servants to be holy so they can wholly serve and glorify You. Today, Christ is my High Priest who sacrificed for me, and today, He is interceding for me. In a special way, I am a priest who ministers for You in worship and prayer. I will be separate from sin because I'm Your priest. I will serve You in worship and intercession. Amen.

Leviticus 22 Be Holy

¹The LORD told Moses ²to tell Aaron and his sons these words: "Show respect for the offerings the people bring to Me because I am the LORD. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 3If any of your descendants is ceremonially unclean when approaching an offering, he can no longer serve as My priest. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 4No priest is to eat some meat from a sacrificed animal if he has a skin disease or bodily discharge, or touches a corpse, or had an emission of semen, 5or touches an unclean crawling creature, or touches a ceremonially unclean person. 6If he does, he will be unclean all day, and so he is to bathe before eating of the offerings. ⁷At sunset he may eat some of the food. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 8He is not to eat meat of an animal that died naturally or was killed by a wild animal because this would make him ceremonially unclean. Remember that I am the LORD. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 9Tell the priests to follow these instructions so they won't die. Remember that I am the LORD, the one who makes them holy.

¹⁰"No one may eat of the sacrifices if he is not a member of the priest's family or if he is a servant. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} ¹¹However, slaves a priest has purchased or who have children may eat some of the sacrificed meat. ¹²If a priest's daughter marries someone not of the tribe of Levi, she may not eat of the food. ¹³But if she is widowed or divorced and has no children and lives with her father, she may eat of the food. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

14"If someone eats some of the sacrificed meat without realizing it, he is to pay the priest for the food plus a 20 percent fine. 15 The priest must not make the offering unholy 16 by allowing anyone of a non-priestly line to eat of the sacrifices. If he does, he will be guilty before Me. Remember that I am the LORD, who makes the sacrifices holy." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

¹⁷The LORD told Moses ¹⁸to tell Aaron, his sons, the Israelites, and foreign residents these words: "Any burnt offering brought to fulfill a promise or to be a freewill offering ¹⁹must be a male animal with no defects from the cows, sheep, or goats. ²⁰Any animal with a physical defect won't be accepted. {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25}

²¹"When someone brings a fellowship offering to fulfill a promise or to be a freewill offering, the animal must have no physical defects. ²²Any animal that is blind, injured, or has a growth or open sore must never be offered to the Lord. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ²³If an ox or a sheep is deformed, it may be offered as a freewill offering but not to fulfill a promise. {9 Agree-Bless Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ²⁴And never offer to the Lord an animal with bruised testicles. ²⁵Also don't accept from foreign residents any animals with defects because I will not accept them." {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

²⁶The LORD then told Moses, ²⁷"When an ox, sheep, or goat is born, leave it with its mother for a week. Only after the eighth day will I accept it as an offering. ²⁸Don't kill a newborn animal and its mother on the same day. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ²⁹When you bring an offering of thanks, be sure to do it in the right way. ³⁰Eat the meat of the sacrificed animal on the day it is offered without keeping any until the next day. Remember I am the LORD your God. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³¹"Be sure to obey My laws because I am the LORD. ³²Don't treat Me with disrespect, and don't disgrace My name. Remember that I am the LORD, the one who set you apart ³³and brought you out of Egypt to be My very own people so that I may be your God." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

Lord, the priest had strict rules for the animals they brought as a sacrifice to You. They were a prediction of Christ who was a perfect fulfillment of these types; Christ was the lamb of God who took away the sins of the world. Thank You for cleansing my sin by the blood of Jesus Christ. In appreciation I will live a holy life to You and I will serve You with my whole heart. Amen.

Leviticus 23 The Festivals

¹The LORD told Moses to tell the Israelites, ²"Each year you are to celebrate several festivals in which you are to worship Me. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

³You are to work six days each week and then rest on the seventh day and assemble for worship." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

This chapter describes Israel's religious calendar as expressed in the seven festivals of the year. Each of these festivals has a spiritual fulfillment in the historic roots of Christianity or its future. The annual calendar of Israel was for many centuries a prophetic witness to the ministry of Christ in our new dispensation of grace. The fourth festival, the Festival of Trumpets, represents the coming rapture of Christ. The last two festivals in the calendar refer to Israel and are yet to be fulfilled. Amen.

⁴"The festivals you are to observe each year include {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ⁵the Passover, which is to start on the evening of March 14 at sundown. ⁶Next is the Festival of Bread without Yeast, from March 15 to 22, when you are to eat bread cooked without yeast. ⁷Assemble for worship on the first day of this festival and do not work on that day. ⁸For the next seven days offer sacrifices and on the seventh day assemble again and don't work." {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

Lord, thank you for the Passover, for on this day Jesus died for my sins, and the sins of the whole world. Lord, I pray for the salvation of a lost family so they will come to know you. Amen.

⁹The LORD then told Moses to say to the people, 10" When you are in the land I will give you and you have your first harvest, take to the priest the first bundle of wheat. ¹¹He is to wave it to Me on the day after the Sabbath, {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} 12and that same day you are to sacrifice a year-old lamb with no defects. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹³Also offer a grain offering of four pounds of flour mixed with olive oil; when it is burned, I will be pleased with it. Also include a drink offering of a quart of wine. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} ¹⁴Don't eat any bread or grain until you bring this offering to Me. This permanent law is not to be changed."

Lord, You raised up Jesus on the Sunday after Pentecost. His resurrection is the first fruits of all those who will be resurrected after Him. Lord, I praise You for Jesus' resurrection, for I will be raised, because of Him. Amen.

of wheat to Me, ¹⁶count off 50 days and then bring to Me two loaves of bread as a wave offering. ¹⁷The bread is to be made with yeast and four pounds of flour. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ¹⁸Also include seven year-old male lambs with no physical defects, and a bull and two rams. These will be a burnt offering to Me, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and I will be pleased with the sacrifice. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} ¹⁹Also offer a male goat as a sin offering and two one-year-old lambs as a fellowship offering.

²⁰"The priest is to wave to Me the two lambs {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and the bread. These are holy to Me and are food for the priests. ²¹That same day assemble the people who are to do no work then. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} This law too is to be carried out from generation to generation.

²²"At harvest time leave some crops by the edges of the fields and don't pick up what falls on the ground. Leave them for the poor and foreigners living with you, remembering that I am the LORD your God." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

Lord, Pentecost was fulfilled when the Holy Spirit came on the Day of Pentecost to fill every believer. Fill me with Your Holy Spirit to live a holy life and serve You acceptably. Amen.

²³The Lord then told Moses ²⁴to tell the Israelites, "The first day of September is to be a day of rest. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} Call the people together to the Festival of Trumpets by blowing trumpets. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ²⁵Do no work on that day, but bring offerings to the altar."

Lord, the Festival of Trumpets predates the return of Christ. He will return with the sound of a trumpet. My saved family and friends will be raised, and if I die before the rapture, I too will be raised with them.

Lord, thank You for the hope of the rapture. I look for Jesus coming in the clouds. Amen.

²⁶The Lord told Moses, ²⁷"The tenth of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Assemble the people, have them fast, and make an offering on the altar to the Lord. ²⁸Don't do any work that day, {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} and ²⁹if someone does not fast, he is no longer to be a part of the Israelites. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} ³⁰And the same is true if someone does some work on that day. ³¹This law is to be followed by every generation. ³²Again you are to rest and fast from the ninth day of the month until the following evening."

³³The Lord told Moses ³⁴to tell the Israelites, "The Festival of Shelters is to be from the 15th day of September to the 22nd. ³⁵On the first day everyone is to assemble and do no work. ³⁶Then offerings are to be made each day for a week. On the eighth day the people are to assemble for worship {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} and offer a sacrifice to God."

Lord, You have a future prepared for Israel. I look forward to that special day when "all Israel will be saved." Amen.

³⁷"At these annual festivals the people are to bring burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³⁸These are in addition to the Sabbaths, when you bring gifts or make a sacrifice {521 Vow-Prayer,

Rev. 10:6} to keep a promise to the LORD or to give a freewill offering.

³⁹"Beginning on September 15 celebrate the Festival of Shelters for seven days, with the first and the last days of the Festival being days of rest. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 40For each of the seven days pick choice fruit from fruit trees, along with palm-tree branches, and leafy branches, and be joyful before Me. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴¹Celebrate this festival every year for a week in September for generations {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} to come. ⁴²For the week every Israelite is to live in a shelter. ⁴³This is to remind you and your descendants that when I rescued you from Egypt, {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} I had you live in shelters. Remember that I am the LORD, your God."

⁴⁴Then Moses told the people about these six festivals.

Lord, the Festival of Shelters looks back to Your deliverance of Israel from the land of Egypt. It also looks forward to the coming millennium when Israel will live in the Promised Land and enjoy Your special presence in peace. Amen.

Leviticus 24 Care of the Lamps

¹The LORD told Moses ²to tell the people to bring clear olive oil for the lampstand {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} to keep it burning all the time. ³"Aaron is to take care of the lampstand in the holy place {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} so that it burns continually from evening till morning. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴Also he is to tend each of the seven lamps on the lampstand.

Lord, I will let my light shine in a dark world for You. I will be constant in my testimony so others will see Christ in me. Amen.

5"Aaron is to bake 12 bread loaves, {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} using four quarts of flour for each loaf. They are to be placed on the gold table before Me ⁶in two rows of six loaves each.

7"Put some incense by each row as an offering to Me. ⁸Every Sabbath put out fresh bread loaves {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} as an agreement between Israel and Me. ⁹Aaron and his sons are to eat the bread in a holy place; it is part of their share of the offerings given to the LORD."

Lord, I will fellowship constantly with Jesus, the Bread of Life, He will be my strength, and I will serve You. Amen.

¹⁰One day a man whose mother was an Israelite and whose father was an Egyptian got into a fight with an Israelite. ¹¹In the fight the son of the Israelite woman cursed God, and so they brought him to Moses. (His mother's name was Shelomith, daughter of Dibri of the tribe of Dan.) ¹²He was held in jail till the Lord's will was known on what they should do.

{533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ¹³Then the LORD said to Moses, ¹⁴"Take him outside the camp and have everyone who heard him curse God put their hands on his head. Then everyone must stone him. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁵Tell the people that anyone who curses Me will be punished. ¹⁶He is to die by stoning, whether he is an Israelite or a foreign resident." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, I will guard my speech so I don't blaspheme You. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} I want to be a good testimony with my speech so others will glorify You. Amen.

¹⁷"Murderers are to be put to death. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9\ 18 Anyone who kills someone's animal must replace it. 19 And if you injure someone, you must be injured in the same way: 20a broken bone for a broken bone, an eye for an eye, or a tooth for a tooth. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ²¹If you kill someone's animal, you must replace it, but if you murder someone, you must die. ²²This law applies to foreign residents as well as Israelites, because I am the LORD your God." ²³Moses took the man who cursed the Lord outside the camp, and the people stoned him {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} just as God had said to do.

Lord, I will not intentionally harm another person; if I do so intentionally, forgive me. May I glorify You with all my actions. Help me be kind to other people, and keep me from hurting anyone. Amen.

Leviticus 25 The Year of Solemn Rest

¹When Moses was on Mount Sinai, ²the Lord gave him these instructions for the Israelites: "After you enter the land I'll give you, you must let the land rest every seventh year. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ³You may plant your fields, prune your vineyards, and harvest your crops for six years. ⁴But let the land have a rest every seventh year as a Sabbath {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} in honor of Me. Don't plant crops or trim your vineyards that year. 5And don't harvest anything that grows by itself, for the land is to have a year of rest. ⁶But if something grows of itself, it may be eaten by yourselves, your servants, hired workers, and foreign residents ⁷as well as your livestock and any wild animals in the land. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

8-9"Every fiftieth year, blow the trumpets loud throughout the land on September 10, the Day of Atonement. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} \(^{10}\)Dedicate that year to Me as a year of liberty for everyone. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} Everyone is to receive back his original property, as well as his clan. \(^{11}\)Don't plant or harvest crops or gather crops, \(^{12}\)because this is a holy year. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} Eat only what grows on its own. ¹³That year everyone is to return home to his original property.

14"If you sell or buy land in the preceding 49 years, don't cheat each other. 15Determine the price based on the number of potential crops from that time to the Year of Jubilee. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} 16If the Jubilee is many years away, the price is to be higher; or if the Jubilee is only a few years away, the price is to be lower. What you are really buying is the number of crops. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} ¹⁷Don't cheat. Respect Me because I am the LORD your God. ¹⁸"To live safely in the land, obey {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} My laws. 19If you do, you will have abundant crops and plenty to eat. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²⁰You might wonder how you will have food to eat in the seventh year since you won't be planting or harvesting that year. ²¹Don't worry; I will give you such a bumper crop in the sixth year {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28} that it will last for three years—year six, seven, and eight. ²²In the eighth year you will eat from the sixth-year harvest, until the ninth-year

²³"Because the land is Mine and you are My tenants, don't sell any land permanently. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁴When you sell property, you must stipulate that it can be redeemed at any time. ²⁵If someone becomes so poor that he must sell some of his property, his nearest relative must buy back what the poor man sold. ²⁶But if there is no one to buy it and later the man has enough money, ²⁷then he can buy it back at a price determined crops are harvested.

by the number of years left till the Year of Jubilee, and the owners must return the land to him. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} ²⁸But if he doesn't have the money to buy it back, it will be returned to him in the Year of Jubilee.

^{29"}If someone sells a house in a walled city, he has only a year in which to buy it back. ³⁰If he doesn't buy it back in that year, then it is the permanent property of the buyer, and it can't be returned in the Year of Jubilee. ³¹But a house in an unwalled village can be bought back or returned in the Year of Jubilee. ^{382} Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} ³²Levites have the right to buy back their houses. ³³And any houses they don't buy back will be theirs in the Year of Jubilee. ³⁴However, pastureland owned by Levites is never to be sold.

³⁵"If anyone of your people becomes so poor he can't support himself, help him as you would any foreigner living in your land. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ³⁶Don't charge him interest on a loan; respect Me and let him continue to live where he is. ³⁷And don't sell him food for a profit. ³⁸Remember that I am the LORD your God, who rescued you from Egypt {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} to give you the land of Canaan and be your God.

³⁹"If one of your people becomes so poor he sells himself, don't think of him as a slave. ⁴⁰Treat him as a hired worker or a foreign resident, and then he will be released in the Year of Jubilee ⁴¹so he and his children can return to their clan and property. ⁴²Because the Israelites are My servants whom I brought out of Egypt, they are not to be sold as slaves ⁴³or treated harshly. Remember to respect Me. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10}

44"You may buy slaves from other nations,
 45 or from foreigners living in your land.
 46 You may pass them on to your children, but don't treat your slaves cruelly.

⁴⁷"If one of you becomes so poor that he sells himself to a foreign resident, ⁴⁸he has the right to be set free by a relative, ⁴⁹such as an uncle or a cousin or other close relative. Or he may redeem himself if he gets enough money. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} 50He and his buyer are to determine the price by counting the number of years he would still be a slave till the Year of Jubilee. 51If many years remain, he must pay a larger amount, 52 but if only a few years are left, the amount would be smaller. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ⁵³He is to be treated like a servant hired on a yearly basis. 54If he hasn't been freed in any of these ways, he is to be set free in the Year of Jubilee. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} 55Remember that I, the LORD your God, brought you out of Egypt to be My servants." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

Lord, You blessed Your people with rest in the Sabbatical year, and the Year of Jubilee. Thank You for Sunday, my day of rest, the day I will worship and serve You. Amen.

Leviticus 26 Blessings of Obedience and Curses of Disobedience

¹"Don't make or worship idols, images, or shaped stones, {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} for I am the LORD your God. ²Respect the Sabbaths and honor My tabernacle, for I am the Lord. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ³If you obey My laws and commands, 4I will send you rain every year, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and you will have abundant crops and your trees will have plenty of fruit. ⁵You will be harvesting grapes even after you have harvested other crops, and you will be harvesting grapes until it is time to plant crops again. You will have plenty to eat, {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} and you will be safe in the land. ⁶I will give you peace {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} and you will sleep without fear. I will remove wild animals from the land, and chase down your enemies. ⁷You will chase your enemies and kill them with your swords, 8even if there are only five of you against a hundred of them, or a hundred of you against ten thousand of them. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 9"I will favor you and increase your numbers, and I will keep My promises to you. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹⁰You will have so many crops that you will need to get rid of leftovers to make room for the new harvest. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ¹¹I will live among you in My tabernacle, and I won't reject you. 12I will walk with you {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and be your God, and you will be My people. ¹³Remember, I am the LORD your God who rescued you from being slaves in Egypt. I broke the chain of your slavery so that you can now hold your beads high in confidence. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁴"If you will not listen to Me and obey Me, ¹⁵and if you reject My laws and break My covenant {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ¹⁶here is what I will do: you will experience panic, terrible disease, and fever that will affect your eyesight, and your life will slowly ebb away. Your enemies will eat the crops you plant. ¹⁷I will be against you, and your enemies will defeat you and rule over you; and you will be so afraid that you will run even when no one is chasing you. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁸"If you won't obey Me, I will punish you seven times over for your sins. ¹⁹I will destroy your pride, make the sky like iron in holding back rain, and the ground will be hard and dry like bronze. ²⁰You will waste your time in your fields because you will have no crops or fruit. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²¹"If even then you won't obey Me and listen to Me, I will punish you seven times more than your sins. ²²Wild animals will kill your children and your cattle, and there will be so few of you that your roads will be deserted. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²³And if you still are against Me, ²⁴I will be against you, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and as I said, I will punish you seven times more than your sins deserve. ²⁵If you break My agreement, enemies will come against you. When you escape to your cities, you will have terrible diseases and your enemies will defeat you. ²⁶You will have so little bread that women will be able to bake in one oven enough bread for ten families. With your small amount of bread you will still be hungry.

²⁷"If you are still against Me, ²⁸then I will be very angry with you, and I will punish you seven times more than your sins deserve. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁹You will be so terribly hungry that you will even eat your own children. 30I will destroy your pagan shrines and incense altars, and pile your dead bodies on top of your idols, and I will despise you. 31I will wipe out your towns and destroy your places of worship, and the aroma of your offerings will no longer be pleasing to Me. ³²Your land will be so devastated that your enemies will be shocked. 33I will scatter you among the nations, chasing you with My sword. Your land will be deserted, and the cities in ruins. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 34Then while you are in captivity, the land will enjoy its missed Sabbath years. 35By lying in ruins the land will rest, making up for your failure to give it rest every seventh year. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

³⁶"When you are captives, you will be living in such fear that even the rustling of a leaf will frighten you, and you will run as if someone with a sword is chasing you, and you will fall even though no one is after you. ³⁷Even though no one is chasing you, you will stumble over each other. ³⁸Many of you will die in other lands and be destroyed by your enemies, ³⁹and others of you will waste away because of your sins

and the sins of your ancestors. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁴⁰⁻⁴¹"However, if you will confess your sins {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} and the sins of your ancestors in betraying Me and you humble yourselves, ⁴²I will remember My promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and I will remember the land. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ⁴³The land will enjoy its Sabbaths as it lies deserted when you are in captivity being punished for rejecting My laws {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and despising My rules.

⁴⁴"But I will not completely reject My people {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} or destroy them completely. I am the LORD your God. ⁴⁵I will keep the promises I made with your ancestors {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} when I rescued them from Egypt as the nations looked on. I am the LORD." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

⁴⁶These are the laws and regulations the Lord gave Moses when he was on Mount Sinai.

Lord, I will learn from the disobedience of Israel, I will keep Your commands of instruction; I will bring glory to You. Forgive my sins and the sins of my people; have mercy on me and my people. Amen.

Leviticus 27 Laws about Gifts Offered to the Lord

¹The LORD told Moses ²to tell the Israelites, "If someone wants to dedicate a person to Me, based on a vow he made, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} he may do so by paying these amounts: 350 shekels of silver for men between the ages of 20 and 60, 4 or 30 shekels of silver for females, 520 shekels of silver for males between 5 and 20, 65 shekels for males between one month and 5 years and 3 shekels for females between one month and 5 years, ⁷or 15 shekels for males 60 years of age or older, and 10 shekels for females 60 or over. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} 8If anyone is too poor to pay the amount, he is to present the person to the priest who will set the fee. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

9"If someone vows an animal as an offering to Me, that animal is holy. ¹⁰If he tries to substitute a good animal for a bad one, or a bad one for a good one, they will both be holy and will belong to me. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹¹If the animal is ceremonially unclean, ¹²he must take it to the priest who will determine its value. ¹³If the man wants to buy it back, rather than have it sacrificed, he must pay the price plus an additional 20 percent. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

¹⁴"If someone donates his house to Me, the priest is to set the price. ¹⁵But if the man decides to buy it back, he must pay the price plus an additional 20 percent. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ¹⁶If someone dedicates some of his land to Me, its value is to be determined by the bushels of barley seed needed to plant in the land. Fifty pieces of silver is the price for every six bushels. ¹⁷If he dedicates the land in the Year of Jubilee, the value stays

as determined, ¹⁸but if he dedicates it later, the priest is to determine the value based on the number of years till the next Year of Jubilee. ¹⁹If the man decides to buy it back, he is to pay the price set by the priest plus an additional 20 percent. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ²⁰If he sells it, he can't buy it back. ²¹When the field is released in the Year of Jubilee, it will be holy and will become the property of the priests. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

²²"If a man dedicates to Me a field he has bought, ²³the priest is to determine its value based on the number of years till the Year of Jubilee, and the man is to pay the priest that amount. ²⁴Then in the Year of Jubilee the field will return to its original owner from whom it was purchased. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ²⁵Every price is to be set by the standard tabernacle shekel.

²⁶"No firstborn of an ox or sheep can be dedicated to Me because they are already Mine. ²⁷If someone promises an unclean animal to Me, he may buy it back for the price set by the priest plus an additional 20 percent of its value. If he doesn't buy it back, the priest may sell it to someone else at the price he sets. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

²⁸"Anything you dedicate to Me—whether a person, an animal, or land—can be sold or bought back for they are holy to Me. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ²⁹Also no one who is sentenced to die can be bought back; he must be put to death. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³⁰A tenth of your grain and fruit is holy and is to be given to Me. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ³¹If someone buys back some of this grain or fruit, he must add 20 percent to its value. ³²One of every ten animals is to be holy to Me. ³³If a person picks out a bad animal to give Me, and substitutes one animal for another, both animals will belong to Me and cannot be bought back." {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

³⁴These are some of the many instructions the LORD gave to Moses on Mount Sinai.

Lord, You have spoken in the book of Leviticus; help me understand Your commands and instructions and apply them to my life. I want to obey You and keep Your commands. Give me strength to always obey You. When I am weak, forgive me. Amen.

Numbers

CH 1: THE ISRAELITES ARE COUNTED211
CH 2: THE ARRANGEMENT OF THE TRIBES212
CH 3: THE SONS OF AARON213
Ch 4: The Duties of Kohath's Sons215
CH 5: KEEP THE CAMP PURE217
CH 6: THE VOW OF A NAZARITE218
CH 7: THE LEADERS MAKE AN OFFERING219
CH 8: AARON LIGHTS THE LAMPS220
CH 9: OBSERVE THE PASSOVER MEAL222
CH 10: SILVER TRUMPETS223
CH 11: THE PEOPLE COMPLAINED224
CH 12: MIRIAM IS PUNISHED226
CH 13: THE TWELVE SPIES227
CH 14: THE PEOPLE REBEL AT KADESH-BARNEA 228
CH 15: RULES ABOUT OFFERINGS230
CH 16: THE REBELLION OF KORAH232
CH 17: AARON'S WALKING STICK234
Ch 18: The Duties of the Priests and the LIVITES235
CH 19: RULES ABOUT CLEANLINESS236
CH 20: Moses Defies God238
Ch 21: The Israelites Defeat the Canaanites 239
CH 22: BALAAM, THE FALSE PROPHET241

CH 23: BALAAM BLESSES ISRAEL THE FIRST TIME 242
Ch 24: Balaam and Balak (continued)243
Ch 25: The Israelites Are Seduced by the Midianites244
Ch 26: The Israelites Are Counted a Second Time245
Ch 27: The Daughters of Zelophehad246
CH 28: THE DAILY OFFERINGS TO THE LORD247
CH 29: THE OFFERINGS IN SEVERAL FESTIVALS248
Cн 30: Rules About Vows249
CH 31: WAR AGAINST THE MIDIANITES250
Ch 32: Two Tribes Remain East of the Jordan
RIVER251
CH 33: THE JOURNEY FROM EGYPT TO MOAB252
CH 34: BOUNDARIES OF THE PROMISED LAND253
CH 35: THE LEVITES ARE GIVEN LAND254
Ch 36: Land Is Given to the Daughters of Zelophehad255

NUMBERS

Key Words: Wilderness wanderings (Numbers 32:13)

Key Verse: "And the LORD'S anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed" (32:13).

Theme: The book of Numbers gets its name from the two censuses (chapters 1 and 26) at the beginning and end of Israel's wilderness wanderings. The people of God were counted to determine how many there were. God promised to lead the people to a land flowing with "milk and honey" (14:8), but Israel rejected God and refused to enter the Promised Land. Therefore God allowed all people age 20 and older to wander in the wilderness until they died there.

But even in Israel's failure, God's faithfulness is seen in the ways He continually provided for them. We see a picture of our sinfulness in Numbers as we fail to walk with God and serve Him, but even then God is faithful to punish and bring us back to Himself. Lord, great is Your faithfulness in saving me and guiding me through the wilderness of this life. Amen.

Numbers 1 The Israelites Are Counted

the first day of the 14th month after the Israelites left Egypt, the LORD spoke to Moses in the tabernacle when they were in the Sinai Desert. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} He said, ²"Find out how many people are in each of Israel's clans and families. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ³List the numbers of every man 20 years of age or older who are able to serve in the army. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴Get a man from each tribe to help you, including these: ⁵Elizur son of Shedeur from the tribe of Reuben, ⁶Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai from Simeon, ⁷Nahshon son of Amminadab from Judah, ⁸Nethanel son of Zuar from Issachar, ⁹Eliab son of Helon from Zebulun, ¹⁰Elishama son of Ammihud from Ephraim, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur from Manasseh, ¹¹Abidan son of Gideoni from Benjamin, ¹²Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai from Dan, ¹³Pagiel son of Ocran from Asher, ¹⁴Eliasaph son of Deuel from Gad, ¹⁵and Ahira son of Enan from Naphtali. ¹⁶These tribal leaders were chosen by the people."

¹⁷Moses and Aaron with these 12 leaders. ¹⁸called the Israelites together that same day and counted the people by their clans and families, 19as the LORD commanded. in the Sinai Desert. ²⁰The number of men 20 years of age and older from each tribe was as follows: {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ²¹46,500 from the tribe of Reuben, Jacob's oldest, ²²⁻²³59,300 from Simeon, ²⁴⁻²⁵45,650 from Gad, ²⁶⁻²⁷74,600 from Judah, ²⁸⁻²⁹54,400 from Issachar, ³⁰⁻³¹57,400 from Zebulun, 32-3340,500 from Ephraim, ³⁴⁻³⁵32,200 from Manasseh, ³⁶⁻³⁷35,400 from Benjamin, 38-3962,700 from Dan, ⁴⁰⁻⁴¹41,500 from Asher, and ⁴²⁻⁴³53,400 from Naphtali. 44There men were listed by their tribal descent, ⁴⁵and were counted by families. 46 The total was 603,550. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7}

⁴⁷Those from the tribe of Levi were not included ⁴⁸because the Lord had said, ⁴⁹"Don't count the men of the tribe of Levi ⁵⁰because they are in charge of taking care of the tabernacle and its equipment. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} They are to carry it when you move from one location to another, and they are to camp around it. ⁵¹They are to take it down and set it up. If anyone else goes near it, he is to be put to death.

⁵²"All other Israelites are to set up their tents by tribes with a flag at each tent. ⁵³The Levites are to set up their tents all around the tabernacle to keep My wrath from falling on the people. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} The Levites are to be totally responsible for the tabernacle." ⁵⁴The Israelites did everything the

Lord told Moses. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Numbers 2 The Arrangement of the Tribes

¹The LORD said to Moses, ²"The Israelites are to camp around the tabernacle a little distance from it, and each tent is to fly a flag representing the family. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 3The tribe of Judah is to camp east of the tabernacle; its leader is Nahshon, ⁴and their census number is 74,600. 5The tribe of Issachar is to camp on one side of Judah; its leader is Nethanel, ⁶and their census number is 54,400. ⁷The tribe of Zebulun is to camp on the other side of Judah; its leader is Eliab, 8 and their census number is 57,400. Those three tribes total 186,400. and when the Israelites move, they are to go first.

¹⁰"The tribe of Reuben is to camp to the south of the tabernacle; its leader is Elizur, ¹¹and their census number is 46,500. ¹²The tribe of Simeon is to camp on one side of Reuben; its leader is Shelumiel, ¹³and their census number is 59,300. ¹⁴The tribe of Gad is to camp on the other side of Reuben; its leader is Eliasaph, ¹⁵and their census number is 45,650. ¹⁶These tribes total 151,450, and when the Israelites move, these three will follow the three tribes on the east of the tabernacle. ¹⁷When the Levites move with the tabernacle, they will go behind Reuben, leaving in the same order as they camped.

¹⁸"The tribe of Ephraim is to camp west of the tabernacle; its leader is Elishama, ¹⁹and their census number is 40,500. ²⁰The tribe of Manasseh is to camp on one side of Ephraim; its leader is Gamaliel, ²¹and their census number is 32,200. ²²The tribe of Benjamin is to camp on the other side of Ephraim; its leader is Abidan, ²³and their census number is 35,400. ²⁴These three tribes total 108,100, and when the Israelites move, these three will follow the Levites.

²⁵"The tribe of Dan is to camp north of the tabernacle; its leader is Ahiezer, ²⁶and their census number is 62,700. ²⁷The tribe of Asher is to camp on one side of Dan; its leader is Pagiel, ²⁸and their census number is 41,500. ²⁹The tribe of Naphtali is to camp on the other side of Dan; its leader is Ahira, ³⁰and their census number is 53,400. ³¹These three tribes total 157,600, and when the Israelites move, these three will be last.

³²"The total of all these men 20 of age and older is 603,550, ³³not including the Levites." ³⁴The Israelites did everything the Lord told Moses, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} encamping around the tabernacle with their flags. And when they moved from one location to another, they followed in the order the Lord told them.

Lord, I know You do all things decently and in order (1 Cor. 14:40). There were approximately 3 million people in the wilderness. Your common sense demanded them to travel and live in order. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} The counting of the Israelites reminds me that You do not overlook one of Your children. Amen.

Numbers 3 The Sons of Aaron

¹When the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ²Aaron's sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ³They were anointed and set apart to be priests {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ⁴but Nadab and Abihu died in the Sinai Desert when they used unapproved fire in an offering to the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Since Nadab and Abihu had no sons, Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests with Aaron.

⁵The LORD said to Moses, ⁶"Present the Levites to Aaron as his assistants. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ⁷They are to serve him and all the Israelites at the tabernacle, ⁸taking care of all the equipment and doing the work involved in the tabernacle. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ⁹The Levites are to help Aaron and his sons in every way. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹⁰Aaron and his sons are the priests, and anyone else who tries to assume their work will be put to death."

¹¹The LORD said to Moses, ¹²"I have chosen the Levites to be Mine in place of every firstborn son. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} ¹³When I killed all the firstborn of the Egyptians, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I set apart for Me the firstborn son in each of your families. But now the Levites will be Mine in their place." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

¹⁴Then the LORD said to Moses in the Sinai Desert, ¹⁵"Count by clans and families every male Levite a month old and older." ¹⁶So Moses did as the Lord said. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁷The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹⁸Gershon's sons were Libni and Shimei, ¹⁹Kohath's sons were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, ²⁰and Merari's sons were Mahli and Mushi. These sons and grandsons of Levi were heads of Levite clans.

²¹The Gershon clans were the Libnites and Shimeites, ²²and the men and boys of at least a month old totaled 7,500. ²³They were to camp west of the tabernacle. ²⁴Their leader was Eliasaph son of Lael. ²⁵⁻²⁶They took care of the tabernacle, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} its coverings, all its curtains in and around the tabernacle, ropes, and all the related equipment.

²⁷The Kohath clans were the Amramites, Izharites, Hebronites, and Uzzielites, ²⁸and the men and boys at least a month old totaled 8,600. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ²⁹They were to camp south of the tabernacle. ³⁰Their leader was Elizaphan. ³¹They were to take care of the sacred chest, the table with the bread, the lampstand, the incense altar, the altar of burnt offering, various utensils, the curtain between the holy place and the most holy place, and other related items. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ³²Eleazar, Aaron's son, was chief of all the Levites, and was responsible for the care of the tabernacle.

³³The Merari clans were the Mahlites and Mushites, ³⁴and the men and boys at least a month old totaled 6,200. ³⁵Their leader was Zuriel. They were to camp north of the tabernacle. ³⁶They were to take care of the tabernacle frames, crossbeams, posts, sockets, and related equipment, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ³⁷and the posts, sockets, pegs, and ropes.

³⁸Moses, Aaron, and his sons were to camp east in front of the tabernacle, with overall responsibility for the tabernacle. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} Anyone else who tried to get close to the tabernacle was to be put to death. ³⁹The Levite males at least one month old totaled 22,000.

⁴⁰The LORD said to Moses, "Count and list the names of every Israelite male at least a month old. ⁴¹The Levites are to be set apart for Me in place of them, and the firstborn of the Levites' livestock are to be for Me in place of the Israelites' firstborn livestock." {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ⁴²Moses followed the Lord's command and counted all the Israelite firstborn sons at least a month old, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴³and the total was 22,273.

⁴⁴The LORD said to Moses, ⁴⁵"The Levites are to be in place of all the firstborn in Israel, and the Levites' livestock in place of all the Israelites' firstborn livestock. ⁴⁵ Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22 Pleasing God-Pray

{394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ⁵⁰collecting 1,365 pieces of silver, ⁵¹and he gave the money to Aaron and his sons, as the Lord had said to do. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, just as the tabernacle was in the center of the camp, and Your presence was in the tabernacle; so I want Your presence in the center of my life {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}. May others see You living in me. Lord, You choose to live in the center of all believers. When they rebelled, You withdrew Your presence. So, Lord, I worship You and yield to Your will. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} Come live in the center of my life. Lord, at the end You will occupy the center of heaven. "Behold, in the midst of the throne... and in the midst of the elders, stood a lamb" (Rev. 5:6). Amen.

Numbers 4 The Duties of Kohath's Sons

¹The LORD then said to Moses and Aaron, ²⁻³"Find out how many men in the Kohathite clans are between 30 and 50 years old who are able to work in the tabernacle. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ⁴They are to take care of all the holy objects in the tabernacle. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ⁵And when the Israelites move camp, Aaron and his sons are to go into the tabernacle, take down the curtain between the holy place and the most holy place, and cover the sacred chest with it. ⁶Then they are to cover it with leather, and then a cloth of solid blue. Then they are to put the carrying poles in the rings on the chest. ⁷"Aaron and his sons are to spread another blue cloth over the table {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} for the bread, and on the cloth they are to place the dishes, spoons, bowls, cups, and the bread itself. ⁸Over this they are to spread a red cloth, a piece of leather, and put the carrying poles in the rings in the table.

9"They are to cover the lampstand with its lamps with another blue cloth, along with the lamp snuffers, fire pans, and jars of oil. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ¹⁰Then they are to cover all these items with a piece of leather and put it on a frame for carrying it. ¹¹They are to cover the gold altar of incense with another blue cloth and a piece of leather, and put its carrying poles in the rings on the altar.

12"Then they are to wrap in a blue cloth all the other utensils used in the tabernacle, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} and cover them with a piece of leather and place them on a carrying frame. ¹³After removing the ashes from the altar of burnt offering, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} they are to cover it with a purple cloth. ¹⁴Then they are to place on the purple cloth all the utensils used at the altar, including the fire pans, meat forks, shovels, and bowls. They are to cover all of these with a piece of leather and put the carrying poles in the rings on the altar.

all the tabernacle items, and the camp is ready to move, the Kohathites will carry all the items. But they must not touch any of the items, or they will die. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

¹⁶"Eleazar, Aaron's son, is responsible for the oil for the light, incense, the daily grain offering, and anointing oil. He is in charge of seeing that everything {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} is properly cared for."

¹⁷The LORD told Moses and Aaron, ¹⁸"To be sure the Kohathites don't die, ¹⁹when they go near the holy objects {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} have Aaron and his sons go into the tabernacle with them and tell each one what to carry. ²⁰If they look at these objects before they are covered, they will die."

²¹Then the LORD told Moses, ²²⁻²³"Find out how many men in the Gershonite clans are between 30 and 50 years old who are able to work in the tabernacle. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ²⁴⁻²⁵They are to carry the tabernacle curtains and coverings, ²⁶the courtyard curtains, the curtains at the tabernacle entrance, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} and other related equipment. They are to do whatever needs to be done with these items. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ²⁷Aaron and his sons are to supervise the Gershonites, assigning specific duties to each one. ²⁸These are the Gershonite's tabernacle duties, all under the direction of Aaron's son Ithamar.

²⁹⁻³⁰"Find out how many men in the Merarite clans {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} are between 30 and 50 years old who are able to work in the tabernacle. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ³¹They are to carry the tabernacle frames, crossbars, posts, and sockets, ³²and the courtyard bases, pegs, ropes, and all related equipment. Tell each man what he is to carry. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ³³These are the Merarites' duties, all under the direction of Aaron's son, Ithamar."

³⁴Moses, Aaron, and the leaders did as the Lord said, and ³⁵counted all the men between 30 and 50 years old who could work in the tabernacle. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ³⁶⁻³⁷The Kohathites totaled 2,750, ³⁸⁻⁴¹the Gershonites totaled 2,630, ⁴²⁻⁴⁵and the Merarites totaled 3,200. ⁴⁶⁻⁴⁸The total of all these Levite men between the ages of 30 and 50 was 8,580. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ⁴⁹Each one was given a specific responsibility, and the numbering followed the Lord's command. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim, 2:15}

Lord, You had a reason to command a man to begin serving in the tabernacle when he was 30 years old just as You waited for Jesus to be 30 years old before He began His life ministry. Lord, You want people to serve You in wisdom. You want them to learn from childhood and adolescence the important lessons that come from experience. Lord, You have said novices should not be used in the Lord's work (1 Tim. 3:6), lest they be lifted up with pride. You don't want selfishness in ministry. You also want a minister who knows what to do. Lord, may I grow in spiritual maturity as did Christ, {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} so I can serve You effectively. Amen.

Numbers 5 Keep the Camp Pure

¹The LORD told Moses to tell the Israelites, ²"Remove from the camp anyone who has leprosy or a discharge, or who has touched a dead body. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ³This applies to both men and women. Because I live among you, it is important for you to keep the camp clean." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴The Israelites did this just as the Lord commanded.

⁵Then the Lord told Moses ⁶to tell the Israelites, "When someone sins against another person and thus has been unfaithful to Me, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} he is guilty, ⁷and must confess his sin. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} He must pay the person for whatever he did wrong plus 20 percent of its value. 8If the victim has no close relative to whom the payment can be made, the payment belongs to Me {385 Propitiation Intercession-Prayer, 1 John 2:2} and is to be paid to the priest. Also a ram must be offered as a substitute payment for sin. 9All such gifts brought to the priest are to belong to him. ¹⁰Each priest must keep what is given to him."

¹¹The LORD told Moses ¹²to tell the Israelites, "Suppose a man's wife sleeps with another man, ¹³but there are no witnesses, ¹⁴and yet the husband is jealous and suspicious. ¹⁵He is to take his wife to the priest and present an offering of two quarts of barley flour as a grain offering. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} ¹⁶And he is not to put any oil or incense on the flour. The priest will then have the woman stand in the Lord's presence. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁷He will put some dust from the tabernacle floor in some water, ¹⁸ and have her loosen her hair and hand her the barley flour offering, and then hold the jar of water. 19He is to say, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 'If you have been faithful to your husband, this bitter water will not harm you. ²⁰But if you have sinned by sleeping with another man, ²¹you will be unable to have children and people will curse your name.' 22 Then the woman is to say, 'Let it be as you have said.' ²³Then the priest is to write these curses on some leather {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} and wash them into the bitter water. ²⁴The woman is to drink the water, ²⁵and the priest is to take the grain offering from her hands, wave it before the Lord, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁶and burn a handful of it on the altar of burnt offering. ²⁷If she is guilty of adultery, then when she drinks the water she will suffer pain, be unable to have children, and people will curse her. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁸But if she has not been unfaithful, she will be clean and able to have children.

²⁹"This is what you are to do if a woman commits adultery {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ³⁰or if her husband suspects that she has been unfaithful to him. The priest is to have her stand in My presence {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and follow these instructions. ³¹Her husband will not be punished, but if she is guilty, she will suffer the consequences.

Lord, a new believer must learn Your requirements as soon as he or she begins following You. They must be pure inwardly and outwardly, so You make them separate themselves from all sin and filthiness of daily life. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} Lord, You make Your followers separate themselves to protect them from physical contamination and inward filthy attitudes and actions. Just as You commanded Israel to separate unclean people, today all Your followers must separate themselves from all influence that will harm them. Amen.

Numbers 6 The Vow of a Nazarite

¹The LORD told Moses to say to the Israelites, ²"If someone wants to dedicate himself to Me by taking the vow of a Nazarite, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ³he must drink no wine or any fermented drink or any kind of vinegar. ⁴He must not eat or drink grape juice or eat grapes or raisins, not even the grape seeds or skins.

5"During the time he is a Nazarite, he must not cut his hair, because he is set apart to Me. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} 6Also while he is a Nazarite he must not go near a dead body, 7 even if it is his own father, mother, brother, or sister. That would make him ceremonially unclean and would defile his hair, which is a symbol of his separation to God as a Nazarite. 8 So he must remain dedicated to Me. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

9"If someone suddenly dies near him, his hair is defiled. So seven days later he is to shave his head. ¹⁰The next day he is to take two doves and two pigeons to the priest at the tabernacle entrance, ¹¹who will offer one as a sin offering and one as a burnt offering as substitute payments for sin, {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} because he is guilty by being near a dead body. Then his hair will grow back, and he will again be dedicated to the Lord. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹²He must start over as a Nazarite by making a vow again and bringing a year-old male lamb as a guilt offering.

¹³"When he has completed the time of his being a Nazarite {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} he is to go to the tabernacle entrance, ¹⁴and present to the Lord {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} a year-old female lamb without defects as a sin offering, {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} and a ram without defect as a fellowship offering. ¹⁵Also he is to bring a grain offering, a drink offering, and bread baked without yeast, cakes made of fine flour mixed with olive oil, and wafers with oil in them.

¹⁶"The priest is to present to the Lord {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} the sin offering, the burnt offering, ¹⁷the ram as a fellowship offering, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} the bread without yeast, and the grain offering and drink offering. ¹⁸At the tabernacle entrance the Nazarite is to shave off his hair {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} and put it in the fire under the fellowship offering. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁹The priest is to put the boiled shoulder of the ram and a cake and a wafer into the Nazarite's hands, ²⁰and then he will give them back to the priest who is to wave them before Me. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} They and the ram's breast and thigh belong to the priest. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} Then since he is no longer a Nazarite, the man may again drink wine. ²¹These are the regulations for the Nazarites. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} If they can bring more to the LORD than what they vowed, they should do so."

Lord, vowing the Nazarite vow {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} of the Old Testament is similar to vowing a fast today. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} It means I am making a commitment to You so You will answer my prayer that I seek. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} Lord, I know I cannot bargain with You, so that You answer a prayer because I keep my vow. That is good works, and we cannot bargain with You. You answer our prayers because of Your grace. Lord, I fast to know You more intimately and completely. When I abide in You, {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} You answer my request. Lord, when I vow a fast, give me strength. May I be strong enough to discipline myself {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} so I can bring glory to You and worship You. Amen.

²²The LORD told Moses ²³to tell Aaron to bless the people with these words and his sons: {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ²⁴"May the LORD bless you and protect you; {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ²⁵may His face shine on you; may He be gracious to you; {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} ²⁶ may He favor you and give you peace.' {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²⁷In this way Aaron and his sons will place My name on the Israelites, {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} and I will bless them."

Numbers 7 The Leaders Make an Offering

¹The day Moses set up the tabernacle, he dedicated it to the Lord {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} with its furnishings, the altar of burnt offering, and utensils. ²Then the 12 leaders who had counted the people made offerings, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³including six covered carts and 12 oxen, an ox for every leader and a cart for every two leaders. ⁴The LORD told Moses ⁵to accept these gifts so the Levites could use them in their tabernacle work. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7}

⁶So Moses gave the carts and oxen to the Levites: ⁷two carts and four oxen to the Gershonites, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ⁸and four carts and eight oxen to the Merarites, all under the direction of Ithamar, Aaron's son. ⁹None were given to the Kohathites because they were to carry sacred objects on their shoulders.

¹⁰The 12 leaders brought offerings to dedicate the altar of burnt offering to the Lord. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ¹¹The

LORD told Moses to have one leader bring his offerings each day. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} 12The first day Nahshon of the tribe of Judah brought these offerings: 13a silver platter weighing over three pounds; a silver sprinkling bowl weighing about two pounds, both of them filled with flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering; 14a gold box filled with incense and weighing about four ounces; 15a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb as a burnt offering; {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 16a male goat as a sin offering; ¹⁷ and two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

¹⁸⁻⁸³The same offerings were brought by each of these leaders on the following days: On the second day Nethanel of the Issachar tribe, on the third day Eliab of the Zebulun tribe, on the fourth day Elizur of the Reuben tribe, on the fifth day Shemumiel of the Simeon tribe, on the sixth day Eliasaph of the Gad tribe, on the seventh day Elishama of the Ephraim tribe, on the eighth day Gamaliel of the Manasseh tribe, on the ninth day Abidan of the Benjamin tribe, on the tenth day Ahiezer of the Dan tribe, on the eleventh day Pagiel of the Asher tribe, and on the twelfth day Ahira of the Naphtali tribe.

⁸⁴So these offerings for the dedication of the altar of burnt offerings {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} totaled these items: 12 silver platters and 12 silver sprinkling bowls, ⁸⁵weighing about 60 pounds; ⁸⁶12 gold boxes filled with incense and weighing about 4 pounds; ⁸⁷12 bulls, 12 rams, and 12 one-year-old male lambs for the burnt offering with the grain offering; 8824 bulls, 60 rams, 60 male goats, and 60 one-year-old male lambs for the fellowship offering. All these were for dedicating the altar of burnt offering. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

⁸⁹Whenever Moses went into the tabernacle to speak with the Lord, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} he heard the Lord's voice from between the two winged creatures above the lid on the sacred chest in the most holy place. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

Lord, the leaders brought their gifts to You in front of all the people as an example of generosity. May I be a generous example to all. Also they brought offerings of all the various sacrifices that they should make for their sins. Lord, I too ask You to forgive my sins {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} so I may be accepted in Your fellowship. Amen.

Numbers 8 Aaron Lights the Lamps

¹The LORD said to Moses, ²"Tell Aaron to put the seven lamps on the lampstand so that the light shines forward." {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ³Aaron placed the lamps just as the LORD had said. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴The lampstand was made of gold from the base to the blossoms at the top, exactly as God had told Moses.

⁵The LORD said to Moses, ⁶"Set the Levites apart from the rest of the Israelites. Make them ceremonially clean {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} 7by sprinkling water on them. Then have them shave their entire bodies and wash their clothes. 8Have them bring a bull with a grain offering of flour mixed with olive oil, and a second bull for a sin offering. 9Have all the Levites come to the tabernacle entrance and ask all the Israelites to come. ¹⁰Present the Levites to Me {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and have the Israelites lay their hands on them. 11 Have Aaron present the Levites to Me as a wave offering from the people {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} to get the Levites ready to serve Me.

12"The Levites are to place their hands on the bulls, one for a sin offering {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and one for a burnt offering, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} as substitute payments for sin. 13 Have the Levites stand in front of Aaron and his sons who will then dedicate them to Me as a wave offering. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} 14 This will show that the Levites are separate from other Israelites and belong to Me.

15"After you have dedicated the Levites to Me as a wave offering, they will be ready to serve in the tabernacle. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ¹⁶They are to be given completely to Me, {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} and they will be Mine in place of the firstborn sons. ¹⁷When I killed the firstborn sons of the Egyptians, I had set apart the firstborn males in Israel as Mine. ¹⁸But now I have chosen the Levites in place of all the first-born Israelite sons. ¹⁹I have given the Levites as gifts to Aaron and his sons to work in the tabernacle and to provide substitute payment for sin so no disease will come on them when they approach the tabernacle." {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

²⁰Moses, Aaron, and the Israelites dedicated the Levites as the LORD had commanded. ²¹After the Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes, Aaron presented them to the Lord as a wave offering {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} and provided a substitute payment for their sins. ²²Then the Levites began working in the tabernacle, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} supervised by Aaron and his sons, thus doing exactly what the LORD commanded Moses. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²³The LORD said to Moses, ²⁴"Levites between the ages of 25 and 50 are to work in the tabernacle, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ²⁵but they are to retire at age 50. ²⁶When they retire, they can help the Levites in their duties, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} but not take on any regular tasks. This is how duties are to be assigned to the Levites."

Lord, I live in a world darkened by sin and lawlessness. Light my path so I will know where to walk, and not lose my way. {283 Light-Praying, I John 1:7} Lord, teach me to begin walking, when the light moves ahead and teach me to not run ahead of Your lighted path. I will stay close to the light so I'll not get hurt and I can pray and read Scripture in the light. It feels safe in the light, and from it I can see danger; also the light is warm and cozy. Amen.

Numbers 9 Observe the Passover Meal

¹In their 13th month after leaving Egypt the LORD told Moses in the Sinai Desert, ²"Celebrate Passover ³at sundown on the14th day of April." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴So Moses told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover, ⁵and the people did, just as the Lord said.

⁶But because some people had touched a dead body, they were ceremonially unclean. 7So they said to Moses, "True, we have touched a dead body, but why should that keep us from celebrating the Passover?" {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 8Moses responded, "I'll see what the Lord says about this." 9Then the LORD told Moses 10 to tell the people, "If you are unclean because of having touched a dead body or you are away on a journey, you may still celebrate the Passover. 11But like everyone else, you must celebrate it on April 14, eating the lamb and bread without yeast and bitter herbs. 12Don't leave any leftovers till the next morning, and don't break any of the lamb's bones. Follow the regulations carefully. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

13"If you don't celebrate the Passover when you are on a journey, you will no longer be a part of the Israelites. You will suffer this consequence for failing to present a Passover lamb to Me at the proper time. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} ¹⁴If a foreigner living among you wants to celebrate the Passover, he must follow its rules and regulations. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} The regulations for Israelites are the same for foreign residents."

¹⁵On the very day the tabernacle was erected, a cloud that looked like a fire covered the tabernacle all night long. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} ¹⁶Every day the cloud covered the tabernacle, and every night it changed to what looked like fire.

Lord, Israel knew You were with them when they saw the cloud. Today, I know You are with me everywhere because You promised it in the Word of God. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} By faith I will trust You to be with me to protect, guide, and cause me to grow in grace. Lord, thank You for Your promise in the Word of God, for without it I would be left to my own resources. Amen.

¹⁷When the cloud moved above the tabernacle, the Israelites moved on, and wherever the cloud stopped, the Israelites made camp there. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁸This was the LORD's way of telling the Israelites when to move out and when to stop and make camp. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁹As long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, the people did not move out. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁰Sometimes the cloud was over the tabernacle only a few days, and so the people would then set out. ²¹Sometimes the cloud stayed over the tabernacle only overnight, and so when it lifted, whether in the daytime or at night, the people moved out. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²²Other times the cloud didn't move for a couple of days or a month or a year; and so the Israelites stayed encamped. But when it lifted, they set out. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²³The people obeyed the Lord, following whatever He told Moses. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, the church is a mighty thing that You lead. You have set a time for each of us to march, and set a time for each of us to rest. Lord, help me to find my place in this huge parade, help me not to lag or bother those behind, help me not run ahead or bump into those in front. I want to learn to walk at the pace You taught me, and to carry the burdens You have for me. Help me to fit comfortably into Your joyful procession. Amen.

Numbers 10 Silver Trumpets

¹The LORD told Moses, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ²"Make two trumpets of silver to use in calling the Israelites to assemble or in signaling them to move camp. ³If both trumpets are blown, all the Israelites must gather at the tabernacle entrance. ⁴But if only one trumpet is sounded, the 12 tribal leaders are to assemble. ⁵When a different trumpet blast is sounded, the tribes to the east of the tabernacle are to set out. ⁶When a second blast is sounded, the tribes to the south of the tabernacle are to set out. ³⁷⁷ Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11 ⁷Trumpet blasts for assembling the people are to be different from the signals for breaking camp. ⁸The trumpet blowers are to be only the priests, Aaron's descendants. This law is to be the same for generations to come.

⁹"When you are in your land and you go into battle against your enemy, sound an alarm with the trumpets. I will hear it and will rescue you. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ¹⁰Also blow the trumpets when you celebrate your annual festivals and at the beginning of each month and when you offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} These trumpet blasts will remind you that I am with you and I am the LORD your God."

¹¹On the 20th day of the 14th month after the Israelites left Egypt, the cloud over the tabernacle lifted. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹²So the Israelites left the Sinai Desert and followed the cloud till it stopped in the Paran Desert. ¹³This was the first time they followed the cloud after God gave His traveling instructions to Moses. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁴The tribe of Judah behind its flag went first, led by Nahshon. ¹⁵Next was the tribe of Issachar, led by Nethanel, ¹⁶and the tribe of Zebulun, led by Eliab.

¹⁷The tabernacle was taken down, and the Gershonites and Merarites were next and carried the tabernacle. ¹⁸Next was the tribe of Reuben, led by Elizur, ¹⁹followed by the tribe of Simeon, led by Shelumiel, ²⁰and the tribe of Gad, led by Eliasaph.

²¹Next were the Kohathites, who carried the objects for the tabernacle, which was to be erected by the time they arrived. ²²Following them were the tribe of Ephraim, led by Elishama; ²³the tribe of Manasseh, led by Gamaliel; ²⁴and the tribe of Benjamin, led by Ahidan. ²⁵The last three were the tribe of Dan, {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} led by Ahiezer; ²⁶the tribe of Asher, led by Pagiel; ²⁷and the tribe of Naphtali, led by Ahira. ²⁸This was the order in which the tribes marched each time they moved camp.

²⁹Moses said to his brother-in-law Hobab, son of Reuel the Midianite, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} "Finally, we are on our way to the land the LORD promised to give to us. Why don't you join us? We will treat you well, {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} because the LORD has given us wonderful promises." {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ³⁰Hobab replied, "No, thanks. But I should return to my own country and relatives." ³¹Moses pleaded, "Please stay with me. You know this desert, so you can help us know where to camp. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 32And you can share in the blessings the Lord gives us."

³³Leaving the Sinai Desert, they traveled for three days, with the sacred chest as the head of the procession, ³⁴and the cloud over them. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³⁵As the Levites carried the sacred chest, Moses said, "Rise up, LORD, {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} defeat your enemies and make them run." ³⁶Then when the Levites stopped with the chest, Moses prayed, "Return, LORD, and bless Israel's thousands of people."

Lord, keep me from looking down in discouragement; may I look up to see You leading me by Your presence. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Lord, may the cloud remind me to worship You and follow You without complaint. Get glory out of my obedience today. Amen.

Numbers 11 The People Complained

¹The people started complaining about their hardships, and the LORD heard them. And He became so angry that He destroyed the outskirts of their camp by fire. ²The people yelled to Moses for help, {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} and when he prayed the fire went out. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ³So they named the place Taberah (meaning "Burning").

Lord, give me a good memory so I won't forget the places and times I disobeyed You. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} Help me remember my disobedience and the consequences I suffered because I disobeyed You. Lord, may my memory keep me from future consequences; may I always obey You from now on. Amen.

⁴One day some Egyptians who had come with the Israelites complained, "We would like some meat. ⁵We remember the fish we ate in Egypt, and also the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions, and garlic. ⁶But now all we ever see is manna!" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁷The manna was like small white seeds and looked like resin from the bark of a tree. ⁸The people gathered it from the ground, crushed it or pounded it into flour, and boiled it to make thin wafers. It tasted like it was cooked in olive oil. ⁹The manna fell with the dew each evening. {97 Daily-Prayer, Acts 2:42}

¹⁰Moses heard the people weeping at their tents. The LORD got very angry, and Moses was displeased too. ¹¹Moses asked the Lord, "Why are you bringing this trouble on me? What have I done to deserve this? ¹²They aren't my children? So why should I have to nurse them along? {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ¹³They keep wanting meat, but where could I possibly get any? ¹⁴The load of these people is too heavy for me. {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16} ¹⁵If this is how You will trust me, then put me to death {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6} and end my misery."

¹⁶The LORD said to Moses, "Choose 70 leaders of Israel and have them meet with you at the tabernacle. {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} ¹⁷I will talk with you there and I will empower them with My spirit. They will share your responsibilities so you won't have to carry the burden of these people alone. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ¹⁸Tell the people, 'Purify yourselves because tomorrow you will have meat to eat. I heard your complaint. ¹⁹And so you will have meat every day for a month, ²⁰so much so that you will get sick of it, all because you rejected Me {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and complained that you even left Egypt." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

²¹Moses said, "There are 600,000 men here, so how can you give them meat for a whole month? ²²If we slaughter all our flocks and herds and catch every fish in the sea, that wouldn't be enough meat." {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} ²³The LORD answered, "Is my power limited? You will see that my word will come true."

²⁴Moses told the people what God had said. Then he had the 70 leaders stand with him by the tabernacle. ²⁵The LORD came in the cloud {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and spoke to Moses. Then his Spirit took control of them, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and they prophesied (but they did it only this one time).

²⁶Two of the 70, Eldad and Medad, had not gone to the tabernacle with the others. But the Spirit came on them and they prophesied. ²⁷A young man told Moses what happened, ²⁸and Joshua, Moses' assistant, urged Moses to stop them. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁹But Moses replied, "Are you concerned that I don't have this ability to prophesy? I could wish that all God's people were prophets and had God's Spirit on them." {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ³⁰Then Moses and the 70 leaders went to their tents.

³¹Later God sent a strong wind that blew quails from the Mediterranean Sea and completely covered the Israelite camp, flying three feet high for 15 miles or so in every direction. ³²All day and night the people gathered quail, {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} each person getting about 50 bushels. Then they spread them out to dry. ³³But as the people started eating, the Lord in His anger sent a terrible disease and many people died. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³⁴The people called the place Kibroth-Hattaavah (meaning, "Graves for the Greedy" because they buried the people who complained about the manna). {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 35Then Israel traveled to Hazeroth.

Lord, many times I doubt Your ability to do things, just as Moses didn't believe You could feed the multitude. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} Yet You brought quail to feed almost 3 million people. This was exceedingly above and beyond what the people expected. Lord, give me faith to trust You for great answers by faith and take away my unbelieving heart. I believe, help my unbelief. Amen.

Numbers 12 Miriam Is Punished

¹Miriam and Aaron criticized Moses because he married a woman from Ethiopia. ²"So does he think the Lord speaks only through him? The LORD has spoken to us too." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} And the Lord heard them. (3Moses was the most humble man on earth.) {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} 4So the LORD told Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to go to the tabernacle entrance. ⁵Appearing in a cloud, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} He told them to come close. ⁶Telling them to listen carefully, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} He said, "I speak to prophets in visions {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} and dreams, {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} 7but not with Moses, My servant. 8I speak face to face with him {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} and clearly, not in riddles. So you should not be criticizing him." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} 9The Lord was angry with them and He left.

¹⁰As the cloud lifted, Miriam's skin suddenly turned white with leprosy. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} Seeing what happened, Aaron said, ¹¹"Don't punish me for our foolishness. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹²Don't let Miriam's skin be like that of a stillborn child." ¹³So Moses asked the LORD to heal her, {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ¹⁴and the LORD said, "If her father had spit in her face she would have been ceremonially unclean for a week. I'll have her stay outside the camp for a week."

¹⁵A week later, when Miriam returned, the Israelites left Hazeroth ¹⁶and camped in the Paran Desert. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12}

Lord, it is so easy to complain. Even Aaron and Miriam, leaders in Israel, fell into the trap of complaining. But You never allow any sin to go unpunished, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} even when leaders give in to selfish criticism, even for a seemingly small sin like criticizing. Lord, keep my heart's desire pure and straightforward. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} Keep me from comparing myself to others. May I be filled with the fruit of the Spirit. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} May I glorify You with my words. Amen.

Numbers 13 The Twelve Spies

¹The LORD instructed Moses {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 2to explore Canaan by sending in 12 spies, one from each tribe. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} They went from the Paran Desert where the Israelites were camped. ⁴These are their names and tribes: Shammua from the tribe of Reuben, 5Shaphat from Simeon, 6Caleb from Judah, 7Igal from Issachar, 8Hoshea from Ephraim, 9Palti from Benjamin, ¹⁰Gaddiel from Zebulun, ¹¹Gaddi from Manasseh, ¹²Ammiel from Dan, ¹³Sethur from Asher, ¹⁴Nahbi from Naphtali, 15 and Geuel from Gad. 16 At that time Moses changed Hoshea's name to Joshua.

¹⁷As Moses sent them out, he gave them these instructions: "Go south through the Southern Desert and into the hill country {372 Prayer-Walking, Gen. 13:17} 18 to see what the land is like. See if the people are strong and weak and how many live there. ¹⁹See if the land is fertile or not and if the towns are walled or not. ²⁰See if the soil is good and what kind of trees grow there. Bring back some of the crops including grapes, since they should be ripening now." ²¹The 12 men left from the Zin Desert in the south and went all the way to Rehob near Lebo-Hamath in the north. ²²Going through the Southern Desert, they came to Hebron. They saw there clans of giant people, the Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai. ²³When they got to the Eschol Valley, they cut off a branch with such a large cluster of grapes {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} that it took two men to carry it on a pole. They also took some pomegranates and figs. ²⁴The Israelites called the place Eschol (meaning "Cluster") because of the cluster of grapes the spies took.

²⁵After exploring the land for 40 days, ²⁶the 12 spies returned to Kadesh in the Paran Desert and reported to Moses, Aaron, and all the Israelites what they saw, and showed them the fruit they brought back with them. ²⁷They reported, "The land does have lots of milk from many cows and has much honey from bees. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ²⁸But the people there are strong, their cities are well fortified, {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} and we even saw clans of giants. ²⁹Also the Amalekites live in the Southern Desert: the Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live near the Mediterranean Sea and the Jordan River." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

³⁰Then Caleb, the spy from Judah, calmed down the people and said, "Let's go take the land. We can do it." {158 Faith-Validated Prayer, James 2:18} ³¹But the other men said, "We can't go against these people. They are stronger than we are." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ³²They spread discouraging words about the land, saying, "The land devours its people, {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} the people are very tall, ³³and we saw giants there. Next to them we felt as small as grasshoppers."

Lord, unbelief looks at the obstacle and enemies, and cries out in unbelief, "It can't be done!" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} Faith looks at Your promises and Your almighty hand, and cries, "It will be done!" {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} Lord, may I not look at where You're leading me, and draw back in unbelief. May I walk forward in strong faith to do Your will, because You have always kept Your promises. Amen.

Numbers 14 The People Rebel at Kadesh-Barnea

¹After hearing the majority report of the spies, the Israelites cried all night long. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ²They complained to Moses and Aaron, "We wish we had died in Egypt or here in the desert. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12}

³Why is the Lord leading us into Canaan only to be killed and our women and children captured? Let's go back to Egypt. That would be better than here." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁴They said, "Let's choose a leader and go back."

⁵Moses and Aaron fell with their faces down to the ground. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ⁶Two of the spies, Joshua and Caleb, tore their clothing in grief ⁷and told the people, "The land we explored is very good. ⁸The LORD will bring us there into that fertile land and give it to us. ⁹So don't rebel against the LORD, and don't be afraid of the people there. We can easily conquer them because the LORD is with us. So don't be afraid." {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21}

¹⁰The people even talked about stoning Joshua and Caleb. But the Lord appeared in a cloud, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹¹and he said to Moses, "How long will these people reject Me? Will they never believe Me even after all the miracles I have done for them? ¹²So I will destroy them with a terrible disease, but I will make you the ancestor of a nation greater than they are." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

¹³Moses pleaded, "But, LORD, what if the Egyptians hear about it? You brought these people from Egypt by Your great power. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ¹⁴If You destroy them, the Egyptians will tell the people of Canaan about it. And the Canaanites know that You are with us, and talk with us, {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} and that You guide us by a bright cloud in the daytime and a flaming fire at night. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁵If You kill us, the nations who hear about it will say ¹⁶You weren't strong enough to bring us into the land, and so You killed us all in the desert. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

¹⁷"So, LORD, show us Your power. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ¹⁸You don't easily get angry, You are full of love, {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} and You forgive sin. Yet You punish the guilty, even their guilty children and grandchildren. 19 Because of Your love forgive our sins, {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} just as You have forgiven us since we left Egypt." ²⁰The LORD replied, "Okay. I will forgive them. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²¹But as surely as I live and My glory fills the earth, not one of these Israelites will enter the land of Canaan. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²²They saw My miracles in Egypt and in the desert, ²³but they won't see the Promised Land. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ²⁴But My servant Caleb is different and follows Me wholeheartedly. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} I will bring him into the land, and his descendants will live there. ²⁵But since the Israelites are so afraid of the Amalekites and Canaanites, tomorrow My people are to go back in the desert toward the Red Sea." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2\} 26The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, ²⁷"How long will these people complain against Me? {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ²⁸Tell them this: 'I will do the very things I heard you say. ²⁹You said you would rather die in the desert, and you will! {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} This includes everyone 20 years of age and older who complained against Me, {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ³⁰except Caleb and Joshua. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} ³¹You were concerned that your children would be captured, but they will enter the land you rejected, ³²but you will die in the desert. 33You will wander in the desert for 40 years, {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} because of your unfaithfulness to Me. ³⁴You will suffer one year for each of the 40 days the spies explored the land. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} You will see what it is like for Me to be your enemy. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 35I will do these things because you have all been against Me." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

³⁶⁻³⁷The LORD sent a terrible disease on the men who spread a bad report about the land, and they died. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁸Of the 12 spies only Joshua and Caleb lived on. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ³⁹When Moses reported God's words to the people, they were very sad. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31}

⁴⁰Early the next morning they said, "We have sinned. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} But we are now ready to enter the Promised Land." ⁴¹But Moses said, "You are disobeying the LORD. Your plan won't work. ⁴²Don't go up, because your enemies will defeat you. ⁴³The Amalekites and Canaanites will kill you with their swords, because you rejected the LORD."

⁴⁴But the Israelites went into the hill country anyway, though neither Moses or the sacred chest left the camp. ⁴⁵The Amalekites and Canaanites defeated the Israelites and chased them all the way to Hormah, southeast of Beersheba.

Lord, Moses had a difficult job when interceding to You. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} He had to change Your mind so You wouldn't destroy Your people Israel. Moses didn't just plead Your mercy or goodness (which is a good basis for prayer) but Moses based his request on the promises You made to Your people. Moses also reminded You what the pagan would say if You destroyed Your people in the desert. Lord, Moses interceded and You listened to Him. He had the ability to touch Your heart in prayer. Lord, I want that ability in my prayer life so I can get answers. Teach me how to find Your heart in prayer. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} Amen.

Numbers 15 Rules about Offerings

¹The LORD told Moses ²to tell the Israelites, "When you are in the land ³and you want to please Me by bringing a burnt offering or any other offering by fire, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} the sacrifice must be from your sheep, goats, or cattle. Whether you bring a burnt offering, a sacrifice in fulfillment of a vow, or a freewill offering, or an offering associated with the annual festivals, {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ⁴you must also bring a grain offering of two quarts of flour mixed with a quart of olive oil. ⁵With each lamb for a burnt offering, also present a quart of wine as a drink offering. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

6"If you bring a ram as a sacrifice, include with it a grain offering of four quarts of flour mixed with two and a half pints of olive oil; ⁷ and two and a half pints of wine as a drink offering. I will be pleased with this sacrifice. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22}

8"If your offering is a bull as a burnt offering or other sacrifice or to fulfill a vow or as a fellowship offering, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} 9also bring a grain offering of six quarts of flour mixed with two quarts of olive oil. 10 Also bring two quarts of wine as a drink offering. I will be pleased with this sacrifice. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} 11-12 Follow these instructions for each bull, ram, lamb, or young goat you offer. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

¹³"These instructions are to be followed by you Israelites ¹⁴and also foreign residents. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ¹⁵The same laws apply to both and are not to be changed. I view you and foreign residents the same way, and that's why ¹⁶the same laws apply to both." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, help me remember the nature of a sacrifice. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} A sacrifice is giving up something I need, or something I use, or something I enjoy. Lord, when I sacrifice something to You, it's a choice to put You and Your work first, and put me and my plans second. Israel was asked to show their faith and love to You by sacrificing their animals and crops to You. This was quite a sacrifice for those living in an agricultural society; they gave You necessities, not luxuries. May I be willing to sacrifice my necessities to demonstrate my faith and love to You. Amen.

¹⁷Then the LORD told Moses ¹⁸to tell the people, "When you enter the land ¹⁹and you eat the food there, give some of it as an offering to Me. ²⁰From the first of the flour you grind present a cake to Me. ²¹This offering from your threshing floor must be given every year for generations to come. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

²²"Suppose you as a nation fail to keep any of these commands but don't mean to, 23 or suppose some of your descendants fail to do it without meaning to, ²⁴and you are not aware of it at first, {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.} then they must offer a bull as a burnt offering (I will be pleased with it), along with a grain offering, drink offering, and a male goat as a sin offering. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²⁵Then the priest will present these as substitute payments for sin, and the people will be forgiven, since their sin was not intentional and they brought to Me an offering by fire and a sin offering. ²⁶Both Israelites and foreign residents will be forgiven. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

²⁷"Suppose one of you sins without intending to. Then he must bring a year-old female goat as a sin offering. ²⁸The priest is to offer the sacrifice as a substitute payment for sin, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and the individual will be forgiven. ²⁹This law applies to both Israelites and foreign residents.

³⁰"If anyone purposefully sins by blaspheming the LORD, that person, whether an Israelite or a foreign resident, will no longer be part of the Israelites. ³¹Because he has mistreated My word and despised My commands, {509 Unpardonable-Sin Prayer, Matt. 12:30-32} he will not be a part of the nation and he will suffer the consequences of his sin."

³²One time a man was found gathering wood on the Sabbath. ³³He was brought to Moses and Aaron and all the people. ³⁴But no one knew what to do with him so they kept him in custody. ³⁵Then the LORD told Moses that the man must die by stoning by all the people. ³⁶So the people took him outside the camp and stoned him to death, as the Lord had commanded. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

³⁷The LORD told Moses to tell the people, ³⁸"Sew tassels on the bottom of your clothes, and tie each one with a blue string. ³⁹As you look at these tassels, they will remind you of My commands {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} and urge you not to follow your desires. ⁴⁰The tassels will help you remember to obey My commands {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and to be holy before Me. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ⁴¹Don't forget that I am the LORD your God who brought you out of Egypt. Yes, I am the LORD, your God."

Lord, this passage reminds me how much You hate sin, especially when Your followers sin willfully. Lord, I will do my best to obey Your commands and not sin as I live on this earth. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Lord, I don't know everything, so I sin unintentionally; forgive me of all my sins of ignorance. Help me to learn what I must do and give me strength to please You and live above sin. Amen.

Numbers 16 The Rebellion of Korah

¹One day Korah, a grandson of Levi, and three Reubenites, Dathan, Abiram, and On, ²rebelled against Moses. They and 250 well-known leaders {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ³went to Moses and Aaron and said, "Why do you two think you are greater than anyone else in our nation? All of us—not just you—have been set apart by the LORD, and He is with all of us." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

⁴Hearing this, Moses fell with his face to the ground. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ⁵Then he said to Korah and the others, "Tomorrow morning the LORD will show who is set apart to Him, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} and that person will come near to Him. ⁶Korah, you and your followers ⁷tomorrow are to burn fire and incense in some fire pans to the LORD. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Then we will see whom the LORD has chosen to be His priest. You Levites, not Aaron and I, are the ones who have gone too far."

⁸Moses then said to Korah, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} "Isn't it enough that God has separated you and all other Levites from the rest of the Israelites ⁹to serve Him in the tabernacle and minister to the people? {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹⁰He has given you Levites special responsibilities, and now you are trying to be the priest too. ¹¹You and your followers are actually working against the LORD, not against Aaron. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}"

¹²When Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram, they said, "We won't come. ¹³Isn't it enough that you have brought us out of the rich land of Egypt to die in the desert? And now you want to boss us. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁴What's more, you haven't brought us into a land where there is plenty of milk and honey and fertile fields and vineyards. You can't fool us. We won't come."

¹⁵Hearing this, Moses got very angry and said to the LORD, "Don't accept their offering. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} I've done nothing wrong to them. I haven't even taken a donkey from them." ¹⁶Then Moses said to Korah, "Tomorrow you and your 250 followers are to present yourselves to the LORD, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and Aaron will be there too. ¹⁷Put fire and incense in your fire pans, to present them to the LORD, and Aaron is to do the same." 18So each man did that and stood with Moses and Aaron at the tabernacle entrance. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁹Then the LORD's glory appeared to all the Israelites, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁰and He told Moses and Aaron 21 to get away from the Israelites because He would kill them. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²²Moses and Aaron fell with their faces to the ground {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} and prayed, "God, You are the source of life. So why be angry with all the Israelites when only one man sinned?" {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

²³Then the LORD told Moses to tell the people to ²⁴move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. ²⁵Moses went over to Dathan and Abiram, and was followed by the leaders. ²⁶He warned the people, "Get away from the tents of these evil men and don't touch anything of theirs or you will be destroyed." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ²⁷So they moved back from their tents, but Dathan and Abiram stood at their tents with their wives and children.

²⁸Moses said to everyone, "This wasn't my idea, but here is how you will know that the Lord is in this. ²⁹If these men die a natural death, then the Lord didn't send me. ³⁰But if a deep crevice appears in the ground and they with their belongings fall into it and die, you will know they turned against the Lord." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³¹As soon as Moses said this, the ground split open, ³²and Korah, Dathan, and

Abiram and their families and households fell into the large crevice. ³³As soon as they fell into the grave alive, the crevice closed over them, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and they died. ³⁴Hearing the men's screams, the Israelites ran, fearing that the earth would swallow them too. ³⁵Then fire from the LORD killed the 250 men who were offering incense. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

³⁶The LORD told Moses, ³⁷"Tell Eleazar, Aaron's son, to take the fire pans, which are holy, from the fire and scatter the coals far away from the tabernacle. ³⁸That's because these men sinned against Me in burning incense. Hammer the metal of the fire pans into a thin sheet of bronze for a covering over the altar of burnt offering, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} which will be a warning to the Israelites." ³⁹So Eleazar had the bronze fire pans hammered out into a thin sheet of bronze to cover the altar of burnt offering, ⁴⁰as the LORD told Moses. This was a warning to the Israelites that only Aaron's descendants were to burn incense to the LORD. If anyone did, he would meet the same fate as Korah and his followers. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

⁴¹The very next morning the Israelites again complained against Moses and Aaron and said, "You two have killed the Lord's people." ⁴²As the people gathered around Moses and Aaron, suddenly the glory of the LORD appeared and the cloud covered the tabernacle. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴³As Moses and Aaron were standing at the tabernacle entrance, {26 Atmospheric-Worship,

Gen. 32:24-30} 44the Lord told Moses to get away from the people 45so He could destroy them. Falling face down on the ground, {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} 46Moses told Aaron, "Grab a fire pan, put incense and fire in it, so it can be a substitute payment for sin." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Why? Because the LORD is angry and He has already sent a terrible disease on the people. 47-48 Aaron did as Moses said and stood between the living and the dead. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} The disease had started to spread, but Aaron offered the incense in the fire pan to the Lord, thus making a substitute payment for the people's sin. Then the disease stopped spreading. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

⁴⁹But 14,700 people died from the disease besides those who died with Korah and his followers. ⁵⁰Then Aaron joined Moses at the tabernacle entrance.

Lord, You have put Your Spirit on those men You call to serve You fulltime as Your leaders. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} I realize some like the "honor" and "power" of "church leadership," but they were not called by You, nor are they spiritually qualified. Moses was correct to test them by fire, and the church must test false leaders who wrongly want to lead your church today. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} Lord, You said, "Do not despise inspired messages, put all things to the test: Keep what is good, and avoid every kind of evil" (1 Thess. 5:20, 22, TEV). Lord, I will carefully obey what You have said {328 Obligation-Prayer, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} in the inspired Word of God. Amen.

Numbers 17 Aaron's Walking Stick

¹The LORD told Moses, ²"Take 12 wooden sticks, one from each of the tribes, and write the name of the tribal leader on his stick. ³Write Aaron's name on the one from the tribe of Levi. ⁴Then place them in the tabernacle in front of the sacred chest where I meet with you. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁵Buds will sprout on the stick of the man I choose to be My priest. This will put an end to the people's complaining." {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1}

⁶So Moses told this to the Israelites, and their leaders and Aaron brought their sticks to Moses, ⁷who then placed them in the tabernacle. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁸The next day when Moses went into the tabernacle, he saw that Aaron's stick had buds, flowers, and almonds on it. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁹Moses brought out all 12 sticks, showed them to the people, and each man took his own.

¹⁰The LORD told Moses, "Put Aaron's stick in front of the sacred chest, as a warning to any rebellious people. This will put an end to their complaining against Me and keep them from dying." ¹¹Moses did that. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹²But the Israelites shouted. "We'll die! We are all doomed! ¹³We'll all die if we even get close to the tabernacle." {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

Lord, Aaron's dry walking stick that bloomed and bore fruit shows that You are able to make dead bodies live. I thank You for this picture that shows Your resurrection promise and power. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} Lord, I believe Your promise of resurrection throughout Scripture. I know one day I will be raised from death, and that I'll live forever with You. I thank You for the hope of life beyond the grave now. I will live for You on this earth, because I have the hope of heaven after death. Amen.

Numbers 18 The Duties of the Priests and the Levites

¹The LORD said to Aaron, "You, your sons, and your relatives are responsible for any violations against the tabernacle, and you and your sons are responsible for any violations against the priesthood.

²Your fellow Levites are to help you when you serve in the tabernacle. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ³But in performing their duties, they are not to go near the tabernacle furnishings or the altar of burnt offering. If they do, they and you will die.

⁴The Levites are to help you in caring for the tabernacle, and no one else. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

⁵"You are to care for the tabernacle and the altar of burnt offering, so that I won't be angry with you again. ⁶The Levites are a gift from Me to you. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} They are dedicated to Me to serve in the tabernacle. ⁷But only you and your sons are to serve as priests at the altar of burnt offering and the most holy place. {384 Promise of Spiritual Giftedness-Praying, Rom. 12:3-8} Anyone else who tries to do these things will die."

⁸Then the LORD said to Aaron, "You are in charge of all the gifts the people bring to Me. And I am giving you and your sons a regular share in these offerings. ⁹The grain offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings are for you and your sons, along with portions of sacrifices that are not found on the altar of burnt offering. ¹⁰These portions you eat are very holy, {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} and only men may eat them. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

11"Also gifts that are presented to Me as wave offerings are for you and your children to eat if they are ceremonially clean. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 12-13 Also the first-harvested olive oil, wine, and grain that people bring to Me are for you {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} and your children if they are ceremonially clean. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

¹⁴"Everything that the people dedicate to Me is yours. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ¹⁵The firstborn son in every family and the firstborn male of your flocks and herds are yours. But you must buy back from me every firstborn son and every firstborn male of unclean animals. 16Buy them back when they are onemonth old for about two ounces of silver. ¹⁷But do not buy back the firstborn of an ox, a sheep, or a goat because they are set apart to Me. Sprinkle their blood on the altar of burnt offering and burn their fat as an offering to Me. I will be pleased with those offerings. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ¹⁸You may eat the meat of these animals, just as you may eat the heart and right thigh that are offered to Me as wave offerings. 19These offerings the people bring to Me I give to you as your children. This is My everlasting promise (like a covenant of salt) for you and your descendants." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

²⁰The LORD also said to Aaron, "You will not inherit any land or share property with others, because I am your inheritance. ²¹One-tenth of the people's crops and one out of every ten newborn animals are to be given to the Levites as pay {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} for their tabernacle work. ²²No Israelite is to go near the tabernacle, or they will be guilty and will die. ²³Only the Levites are to serve at the tabernacle, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} and they are responsible for any offences against it. They are to receive no inheritance; ²⁴instead their inheritance consists of the crops and newborn animals the Israelites bring to Me." {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

²⁵The LORD told Moses ²⁶to speak to the Levites and tell them, "When the people bring ten percent of their crops and newborn animals to you, {310 Money-Prayer,

Acts 2:44} you are to present a tenth of that to Me. ²⁷This will be as if you are bringing to Me grain from the threshing floor and grape juice from the winepress. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ²⁸By presenting to Me one-tenth of all you receive from the Israelites, you are making an offering to Me. ²⁹This portion to be given to Me is to be the best of everything you receive.

³⁰"When you present the best part to Me, it will be as if it came from your own threshing floor or winepress. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ³¹You and your Levite families may eat this food wherever you wish; it is your pay for serving in the tabernacle. ³²You won't be punished for eating this food so long as you give the best portions to the priests. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} But if you treat the offerings as commonplace and not holy, you will die."

Lord, thank You for the way You take care of Your servants. Amen.

Numbers 19 Rules about Cleanliness

¹The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, ²"Here is another requirement. The people are to bring to you a red heifer with no physical defects and that has not been used for plowing. ³Give it to Eleazar, who is to have it slaughtered outside the camp while he watches. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁴Then he is to sprinkle some of its blood seven times toward the tabernacle, ⁵and the heifer is to be burned completely. ⁶Eleazar is to take some cedar wood, a hyssop branch, and red wool and throw them onto the heifer as it's being burned. ⁷Then he is to wash his clothes and take a bath. ²89 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1 He may return to the camp, but he will be ceremonially unclean all day. The man who burns the heifer must also wash his clothes and take a bath, and he too will be ceremonially unclean all day.

9"A ceremonially clean person is to gather up the heifer's ashes and put them in a clean place outside the camp. The ashes are to be kept there mixed with water for the people to use in the ceremony to wash away sins symbolically. ¹⁰Also the man who gathers up the ashes is to wash his clothes and take a bath, but he too will be ceremonially unclean all day. This is a permanent law to be followed by both Israelites and foreign residents.

11"If someone touches a dead human body, he will be ceremonially unclean for a week. ¹²He can become ceremonially clean by washing on the third and seventh days with the water mixed with the heifer's ashes. If he doesn't do this on those two days, he will remain unclean. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ¹³If someone touches a dead human body and doesn't purify himself, he makes the tabernacle unclean and he will no longer be a part of My people. Since the water of purification was not sprinkled on him, he will remain ceremonially unclean.

14"If someone dies in a tent, anyone who enters the tent or is already in it will be ceremonially unclean for a week, and ¹⁵any open jar in the tent will be unclean. ¹⁶If someone touches the body of a person who has been killed with a sword or has died a natural death, or if he touches a human bone or a grave, he will be ceremonially unclean for a week.

¹⁷"To be ceremonially clean, pour over him some of the water with the heifer's ashes in it. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ¹⁸Then someone who is ceremonially clean is to dip a hyssop branch in the water that has the heifer's ashes and sprinkle the tabernacle and its furnishings and the people who were there. He is also to sprinkle anyone who touched a human bone or a grave or someone who was killed or died a natural death. ¹⁹He is to do this on the third and seventh days. Then the person being cleaned is to wash his clothes and take a bath, and that evening he will be clean. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ²⁰But if he does not purify himself, he is no longer to be a part of the Israelites. ²¹This is a permanent law. The one who sprinkles the water and ashes must wash his clothes, and if someone touches this water he will be ceremonially unclean all day. ²²If a person is unclean, anything he touches becomes unclean, and anyone who touches that object will be unclean all day." {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

Lord, this chapter tells me You want Your servants to be clean from all kinds of defilement. I will separate myself from all that defiles. Amen.

Numbers 20 Moses Defies God

¹In March of the Israelite's 40th year in the wilderness they arrived at the Zin Desert {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} and set up camp near Kadesh. There Miriam, Moses' sister, died {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and was buried. 2No water was there, so the Israelites ³complained to Moses and said, "We wish we had died when the LORD killed our brothers. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6} ⁴You brought us into the desert and now we and our livestock will die. 5Why bring us out of Egypt into this awful place? Here we have no grain, figs, grapes, or pomegranates. And we have no water to drink." {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17}

⁶Moses and Aaron fell face down at the tabernacle entrance, {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} and the LORD's glory appeared to them. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁷The LORD instructed Moses, ⁸"Take your walking stick and you and Aaron gather the Israelites together. Speak to that nearby rock, {445 Speaking a Blessing-Prayer, Num. 6:27} and water will come gushing out of it. This will give plenty of water for all of them and their livestock."

⁹So Moses took his stick, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁰he and Aaron assembled the people, and Moses said, "Listen, you rebellious people. Why must we bring you water out of this rock?" ¹¹Then Moses struck the rock twice, and water gushed out, and the people and their livestock drank. ¹²But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "You did not trust Me {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} and treat Me with respect in front of the Israelites—you hit the rock twice, not once as I said—so you will not be the one to lead them into the land I will give them." ¹³Because the people had complained to the LORD about the lack of water, they named the place Meribah (meaning, "Complaining").

Lord, You called Moses the most humble man {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} on earth (Num. 12:3, KJV), yet he was motivated by pride. "Must we bring water... out of this rock" (Num. 20:10, NKJV). He was tempted at his strongest point of character, yet he sinned. When I am tempted at my strength, may I not sin. Amen.

¹⁴Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of nearby Edom with this message: "We are Israelites, your relatives, and no doubt you have heard about the trouble we've had. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ¹⁵Our ancestors lived a long time in Egypt. But the Egyptians were mean to them. ¹⁶So they prayed to the Lord, {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} and He brought us out of Egypt. We are now at Kadesh near your territory. 17Please let us go through your country. We won't go into your fields or vineyards or drink from any of your wells. We'll stay on the main road until we have passed through your country."

¹⁸The king of Edom answered, "No way! You may not go through our country. If you try, we will attack you." ¹⁹The Israelites answered, "We promise to stay on the main road and if any of our livestock drink any of your water, we will pay for it. We simply want to pass through on foot." ²⁰Again Edom answered, "No, you can't go through our land." Then Edom sent out many strong soldiers. ²¹So since Edom would not let them go through their country, Israel gave up the idea.

²²The Israelites then traveled from Kadesh to Mount Hor, near Edom's border. ²³There the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, ²⁴"Aaron will die here. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} He will not enter the land I promised because both of you rebelled against Me by disobeying Me at Meribah. ²⁵Moses, take Aaron and his son Eleazar up Mount Hor. ²⁶Then take Aaron's priestly garments and put them on Eleazar. Aaron will die there." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

²⁷Moses did as the LORD told him to do. Everyone watched as Moses, Aaron, and Eleazar climbed up Mount Hor. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2} ²⁸Moses took off Aaron's priestly garments and put them on Eleazar. And Aaron died there on the mountaintop. ²⁹And when the Israelites heard the news, they mourned for Aaron for 30 days. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31}

Lord, it's inconceivable that Moses sinned against You, so that You didn't permit him to enter Canaan. Yet Your Word is clear, Moses sinned publicly and You kept him from the Promised Land. Lord, teach me to obey Your Word instantly, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and seek Your will with all my heart. Lord, I will be Your servant and obey You. I will quickly obey Your Word. Amen.

Numbers 21 The Israelites Defeat the Canaanites

¹When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Southern Desert, heard that the Israelites were approaching Atharim, he attacked them and took some as captives. ²Then the Israelites promised the LORD, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} "If you will help us defeat the Canaanites here in the Southern Desert, we will completely destroy their cities." ³The LORD heard their prayer, and helped them destroy the Canaanites and their towns. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} So they named the place Hormah (meaning "Destruction").

⁴The Israelites traveled from Mount Hor eastward to go around Edom. But they got impatient, and complained again to the Lord and Moses. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁵"Why have You brought us here to die in the desert? {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} We have no bread and no water, and we are tired of this awful manna." ⁶Then the LORD sent poisonous snakes which bit the people and many died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁷The people said to Moses, "We admit we did wrong in speaking against the LORD and you. So ask the LORD to take the snakes away." {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} Moses prayed, 8 and the LORD said to Moses, "Make a bronze replica of a snake so people can look at it and be healed." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} "So Moses made a bronze snake and put it on a pole. Anyone who was bitten and looked at the bronze snake lived. {158 Faith-Validated Prayer, James 2:18}

Lord, the bronze serpent points me to Jesus Christ. Both were lifted up as a sign of the peoples' sin. All they had to do was "look and live." I have looked to Christ who bore my sin and I have eternal life. Amen.

¹⁰The Israelites then camped at Oboth, ¹¹and from there they went to Iye Abarim in the desert east of Moab. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} ¹²From there they traveled to the Zered Valley, ¹³and then near the Arnon River and camped in Amorite territory. The Arnon is the border between the Amorites and the Moabites. ¹⁴The Book of the Wars of the Lord mentions the town of Waheb in the Suphah territory, ¹⁵the Arnon River, and the ravine leading to the town of Ar near the southern Moabite border.

¹⁶Then the Israelites went to Beer, a well where the LORD told Moses to gather the people together because {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} He was going to give them water. ¹⁷The Israelites sang about his well in this song: "Spring up, O well. Sing ¹⁸about the well that the princes dug, the well the leaders dug with their scepters and staffs." {531 Well-Digging Prayer, Ps. 84:6} Then they traveled to Mattanah, ¹⁹Nahaliel, Bamoth, ²⁰and the valley in Moab where Mount Pisgah overlooks the desert near the Dead Sea.

²¹Messengers went to Sihon, king of the Amorites, with this request: ²²"Let us pass through your territory. We won't go into your fields or vineyards or drink from any of your wells. We will stay on the main road as we go through your land." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

²³But Sihon refused to let Israel pass through his land. Instead he marched his army against the Israelites at Jahaz. ²⁴But Israel defeated them {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} and took over their land from the Arnon River north to the Jabbok River, but not beyond that with the territory of the Ammonites, whose border was well fortified. ²⁵The Israelites captured the cities of the Amorites {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} including Heshbon and nearby villages. ²⁶Heshbon was the city of Sihon, the Amorite king, who had conquered all the Moabite territory north of the Arnon. ²⁷That's why they wrote this poem about Heshbon:

"Come and rebuild Heshbon, which was King Sihon's capital city. ²⁸Fire went out from Heshbon, Sihon's city, and burned up the city of Ar in Moab, killing its citizens. ²⁹You Moabites are destroyed. Your god Chemosh could not keep your sons and daughters from being taken as captives to Sihon.

³⁰"We Amorites completely defeated the Moabites, including their towns of Heshbon, Dibon, Nophah, and Medeba."

³¹So the Israelites settled in the land of the Amorites. ³²They captured Jazer and surrounding towns, and forced out the Amorites. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³³Then the Israelites went north toward Bashan, and Og, Bashan's king, attacked the Israelites at Edrei. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ³⁴The LORD assured Moses that he would help His people defeat Og, just as they had done to Sihon in Heshbon. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³⁵So Israel defeated Og and his entire army, killing them all. And the Israelites took over the land of Bashan.

Numbers 22 Balaam, the False Prophet

¹The Israelites traveled back to Moab {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} and camped by the Jordan River across from Jericho. ²Balak, son of Zippor, and king of Moab, heard what Israel had done to the Amorites, and ³Moab was frightened. ⁴So the Moabites said to the Midianite leaders, "These people will wipe us out like an ox eats grass." So Balak 5sent a message to Balaam, who was at Pethor near the Euphrates River, with these words: "A great number of people have left Egypt and have settled next to me. 6Come put a curse on them. Then maybe I can defeat them. I know that people you bless will prosper {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} and those you curse will fail."

⁷The leaders of Moab and Midian left and took money to pay Balaam for his help. When they told Balaam why they had come, Balaam ⁸urged them to spend the night and told them he would give them the Lord's answer the next day. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ⁹⁻¹¹When God asked Balaam who those men were, Balaam told him their message. ¹²God told Balaam, "Don't put a curse on these people because they are blessed."

¹³The next morning Balaam told Balak's leaders, "The Lord has refused to let me go with you." ¹⁴So they went back to Balak and told him Balaam would not join them. ¹⁵So Balak sent more princes who were more distinguished than the others. ¹⁶They went to Balaam and said, "Balak urges you not to let anything keep you from coming. ¹⁷He'll pay you well for your services and he'll do whatever you suggest. Please come curse these people."

¹⁸But Balaam responded, "I can't go beyond what the LORD my God has told me even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁹So stay here overnight, and I'll see what the LORD will tell me." ²⁰That night God told Balaam, "Okay, go with these men. But do only what I tell you to do."

²¹The next morning Balaam saddled his donkey and went with the men. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²²But God was very angry with Balaam, and so He had His angel stand in the road to stop him. ²³When the donkey saw the angel in the road with a sword in his hand, the donkey turned into a field. Balaam beat the donkey to get it back on the road. ²⁴Then the angel stood where the road was a narrow path between two vineyards with a wall on each side. ²⁵The donkey got so close to one of the walls that it crushed Balaam's foot. Balaam beat the donkey again. ²⁶Then the angel stood in a place so narrow the donkey couldn't get by. ²⁷So the donkey lay down. And Balaam was so mad he beat the donkey again. ²⁸Then the LORD caused the donkey to speak, and it said, "What have I done to you that made you beat me these three times?"

²⁹Balaam answered, "You've made me look like a fool. If I had a sword with me, I'd kill you." ³⁰The donkey said, "Have I ever done anything like this before?" Balaam answered, "No." ³¹Then Balaam saw the angel with a sword in his hand. And he bowed down.

³²The angel asked, "Why did you beat your donkey three times? I have come to stop you because you are going in the wrong direction. ³³If the donkey hadn't seen me and stopped, I would have killed you." ³⁴Balaam admitted, "I admit I was wrong. I didn't realize you were trying to stop me. If you don't think I should go on, I'll go back home." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ³⁵Then the angel replied, "You may go, but say only what I tell you." So Balaam went on with Balak's princes.

³⁶Balak went to meet Balaam at a town on Moab's northern border. ³⁷Balak asked, "Why didn't you come right away when I asked you? Did you think I wouldn't pay you enough?" ³⁸Balaam answered, "Well, I'm here now. But I can say only what God tells me to say."

³⁹Then Balaam and Balak went to Kiriath-Huzoth, ⁴⁰where Balak sacrificed some cows and sheep, and gave portions of the meat to Balaam and his officials.

⁴¹The next morning Balak took Balaam to Ramoth-Baal and from there Balaam could see some of the Israelites down below.

Lord, Balaam was a false prophet. Keep my heart and mind so I will never deny You or compromise Your Word. Amen.

Numbers 23 Balaam Blesses Israel the First Time

¹Balaam then told Balak to build seven altars there and to bring him seven bulls and seven rams. 2Balak did that and together they sacrificed a bull and a ram on each altar. ³Balaam said, "Wait here while I go see what the LORD will tell me. If He meets with me, I'll tell you what He says." 4Balaam told the Lord about the animal sacrifices he and Balak made. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁵Then the LORD told Balaam to go to Balak with His message. 6When Balaam returned, Balak was standing there by his offerings with his officials. ⁷Then Balaam said, "Balak brought me from the hills of eastern Syria to curse Israel. 8But I can't curse them when God hasn't. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 9I see them from the mountaintops, a people who are different from other nations. ¹⁰There are so many of them, no one could count even a fourth of them. I hope to be righteous all my life and die in peace like them."

¹¹Balak said to Balaam, "Why are you saying all this? I asked you to curse them, and you are blessing them instead." ¹²Balaam answered, "I can say only what the LORD tells me to say." ¹³Balak then said, "Let's go to another place where you can see only a smaller part of the Israelites, and you can curse at least them." ¹⁴So Balak took him to the Zophin plateau on the top of Mount Pisgah, where again he built seven altars and sacrificed a bull and a ram on each one.

15Balaam told Barak to stay by his offering while he went aside to meet the LORD. ¹⁶After the LORD appeared to Balaam and gave him another message, ¹⁷Balaam went back to Barak, who asked, "What did the LORD say?" 18Then Balaam gave this message: "Listen to my words, Balak. ¹⁹I am not a man, so I don't lie or change my mind. I keep every promise I make." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²⁰God has told me to bless Israel, and I can't change His command. 21No problems will come to Israel because the LORD their God is with them and He is their King. ²²God has brought them out of Egypt, and they are strong like a wild ox. ²³No magic or curse can harm them. Instead people will say, 'Look what God has done for them.' 24They are like lions ready to attack, and they won't rest till they've eaten their prey."

²⁵Hearing this, Balak said, "If you aren't going to curse them, at least don't bless them." ²⁶Balaam replied, "As I told you, I can say only what the LORD tells me to say." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁷So Balak suggested they go to yet another place. He said, "Maybe God will let you curse them from there." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁸So he took Balaam to Mount Peor, overlooking the desert. ²⁹Balaam told Barak to build seven altars again and to bring him seven bulls and seven rams. ³⁰Then Balak, like before, offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Lord, teach me to speak only the words that come from You. Amen.

Numbers 24 Balaam and Balak (continued)

¹This time Balaam did not go to meet the Lord as he had done before. Instead he looked toward the desert ² and saw the Israelites camped there. Then God's Spirit came on him, and he said, 3"I am Balaam, and my eyes clearly see the future. 4I hear God's words, I see a vision, I fall down, and my eyes are open. 5Israel, your tents are beautiful. 6They are like wide valleys, gardens by a river, like tall aloe trees, and cedar trees near water. ⁷They will have plenty of water. Their king will be greater than Agag the Amalekite, and their kingdom will be outstanding. 8God brought them out of Egypt, and they are strong like a wild ox. They will defeat their enemies, breaking their bones and shooting them with arrows. 9They are like a lion lying down, and no one dares arouse him. So anyone who blesses Israel will be blessed, and anyone who curses Israel will be cursed."

¹⁰Hearing this, Balak was furiously mad. He said, "I called you out to place a curse on these enemies of mine, but you have blessed them—not once, but three times.

11 So leave here and go home! I said I would pay you well, but because you blessed Israel, I won't pay you anything."

¹²Balaam reminded Balak that he said that ¹³even if Balak gave him his palace, he couldn't go against the LORD's words. He could say only what the LORD told him to say. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁴"Yes, I am going home, but first let me give you a warning about what the Israelites will do to you."

¹⁵Balaam said, "I am Balaam, and my eyes clearly see the future. ¹⁶I hear God's words and the Almighty gives me a vision, and I fall down and my eyes are open. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ¹⁷I see that in Israel's future a king of Israel will rise like a star; he will be important like a scepter. He will crush the people of Moab. ¹⁸Israel will conquer Edom and Seir, and Israel will grow strong. ¹⁹The ruler of Israel will destroy the survivors of every city he conquers." {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20}

²⁰Then Balaam saw a vision about the Amalekites and spoke these words: "Amalek was a prominent nation, but it will be destroyed." ²¹He saw a vision about the Kenites and spoke these words: "You think you are in a safe place, living in the rocks. But you will be destroyed when Assyria takes your people as captives."

²²Then Balaam concluded, ²³"No one can live when God does this. ²⁴Ships will come from Cypress, and those people will oppress Assyria and Eber. But later Cypress will be destroyed." ²⁵Then Balaam left to go home, and Balak also left.

Lord, may I not serve You for money, as Balaam did (2 Peter 2:15). I will serve You out of love. Amen.

Numbers 25 The Israelites Are Seduced by the Midianites

¹When Israel was camped at Shittim, some of the men had sex with some Moabite women. ²These women had invited the men to attend their sacrifices to their gods. The men ate meat from the sacrificed animals and worshiped the Moabite gods. ³This led the Israelites to worship Baal-Peor, which made the LORD very angry. ⁴God said to Moses, "Take these Israelite leaders who are responsible for this and kill them in broad daylight so that I may no longer be so angry with the Israelites." ⁵Moses told the leaders to put to death anyone who worshiped Baal-Peor.

⁶One of the Israelite men brought a Midianite woman to meet his family right in front of everyone. ⁷Phinehas, Aaron's grandson, saw this, grabbed a spear, ⁸followed the man and woman into his tent and killed both of them. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} Then the disease stopped, ⁹though 24,000 Israelites had already died. ¹⁰The LORD told Moses ¹¹that if Phinehas hadn't done that, He would have wiped them all out. ¹²"Because of Phineas' loyalty and zeal for Me, ¹³I promise that he and his descendants will be priests forever."

¹⁴The man who was killed was Zimri, son of Salu, a leader in the Simeon tribe. ¹⁵The name of the Midianite woman was Cozbi, daughter of Zur, a tribal leader in Midian. ¹⁶The LORD said to Moses, ¹⁷"Treat the Midianites as your enemies and kill them for two reasons: ¹⁸because they tricked you into worshiping Baal, and because Cozbi was involved with Zimri."

Lord, may I look at false religions and heresy as You look at them. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} Give me eyes to see their lies and wisdom to understand their danger. Then give me courage to turn my back against it. Amen.

Numbers 26 The Israelites Are Counted a Second Time

¹Then the LORD told Moses and Eleazar ²to take a census of every male 20 years of age or older who is able to serve in the army. ³The Israelites were camped then on the plains of Moab by the Jordan River across from Jericho. Moses and Eleazar told the leaders ⁴to take a census, as the LORD had commanded.

⁵In the tribe of Reuben were the clans of Hanoch, Pallu, ⁶Hezron, and Carmi, ⁷whose total was 43,730. ⁸Pallu was the father of Eliab, whose sons were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. ⁹Dathan and Abiram were the leaders who with Korah had rebelled against the LORD. ¹⁰That is when the Lord caused a huge crevice in the earth into which Korah and his followers fell to their death, and when fire killed 250 others, all as a warning to Israel. ¹¹But Korah's line wasn't destroyed.

¹²In the tribe of Simeon were the clans of Nemuel, Jamin, Jakin, ¹³Zerah, and Shaul, ¹⁴whose total was 22,200. ¹⁵In the tribe of Gad were the clans of Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, ¹⁶Ozni, Eri, ¹⁷Arod, and Areli, ¹⁸whose total was 40,500. ¹⁹Judah's sons Er and Unan died in Canaan. ²⁰In the tribe of Judah were the clans of Shelah, Perez, Zerah, ²¹Hezron, and Hamul, ²²whose total was 76,500.

²³In the tribe of Issachar were the clans of Tula, Puab, ²⁴Jashub, and Shimron, ²⁵whose total was 64,300. ²⁶In the tribe of Zebulun were the clans of Sered, Elon, and Sahleel, ²⁷whose total was 60,500. ²⁸⁻²⁹In the tribe of Manasseh, Joseph's son, were the clans of Makir and his son Gilead, ³⁰and the clans of Makir, were Iezer, Helek, ³¹Asriel, Sechem, ³²Shemida, and Hepher. 33(Hepher's son Zeluphehad had no sons, but he had daughters named Malah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.) 34The total of those in Manasseh's clans was 52,700. ³⁵In the tribe of Ephraim were the clans of Shuthelah, Beker, Tahan, 36 and Eran, Shuthelah's son. ³⁷Their total was 32,500. ³⁸In the tribe of Benjamin were the clans of Bela, Ashbel, Ahiram, 39Shupham, Hupham, 40 and of Bela's sons Ard and ⁴⁴In the tribe of Asher were the clans of Imnah, Ishvi, Beriah, ⁴⁵and of Beriah's sons Heber and Malkiel. ⁴⁶(Asher had a

Naaman, ⁴¹whose total was 45,600. ⁴²In

the tribe of Dan was the one clan of Shu-ram, ⁴³whose total was 64,400.

daughter named Serah.) ⁴⁷Their total was 53,400. ⁴⁸In the tribe of Naphtali were the clans of Jahzeel, Guni, ⁴⁹Jezer, and Shillem, ⁵⁰whose total was 45,400.

51 The total number of the men of Israel 20 years of age and older was 601,730.

⁵²The LORD said to Moses, ⁵³"Divide the land of Canaan among the tribes according to their numbers. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} ⁵⁴Larger tribes are to receive more land than smaller tribes. ⁵⁵⁻⁵⁶Cast lots to find out which tribes are to have which land, and the size of the land is to be based on the number each tribe."

⁵⁷In the tribe of Levi were the clans of Gershon, Kohath, Merari, 58 along with the clans of Libni, Hebron, Mahli, Mushi, and Korah. Kohath was the father of Amram. ⁵⁹whose wife was Jochebed. She was a descendant of Levi, from Egypt. Jochebed and Amram's three children were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam. 60 Aaron had four sons, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 61Nadahb and Abihu died when they offered to the Lord the wrong kind of fire. 62All the Levite males one month old and older totaled 23,000. They were not counted in the census numbers with the other tribes because they would not receive any land in Canaan.

⁶³These are the census figures Moses and Eleazar counted on the plains of Moab by the Jordan River across from Jericho. ⁶⁴These figures included no one Moses and Aaron had counted in the Sinai Desert years earlier, except Caleb and Joshua, because, as ⁶⁵the LORD said, they all died in the desert.

Lord, You number Your people, just as You number the stars. Because everyone is valuable to You, You count them. Thank You for counting me among Your children. Amen.

Numbers 27 The Daughters of Zelophehad

1-2One day the five daughters of Zelophehad—Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah—made a request of Moses, Eleazar, the tribal leaders, and all Israelites at the tabernacle entrance. Zeluphehad was the great-great-grandson of Manasseh. The daughters said, 3"Our father died in the desert, but not because he rebelled with Korah and his followers. He died because of his own sin. ⁴But since he had no sons, we are concerned that his name will not be remembered. So we ask that you give us some property in Canaan with our father's relatives."

⁵When Moses asked the LORD what to do about this request, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁶He said, ⁷"They are right. Give them the property that would have gone to their father. ⁸And tell the Israelites, 'If a man dies without a son, give his land to his daughters. ⁹Or if he has no daughters, give it to his brothers. ¹⁰Or if he has no brothers, then give the land to his uncles. ¹¹If he has no uncles, give the property to his nearest relative. This law is to be followed by My people.'"

¹²The LORD told Moses, "Go into the Abarim Mountains and look out over the land I am giving to My people. ¹³After you have seen it, you will die as did Aaron. ¹⁴Both of you disobeyed me in the Zin Desert at the waters of Meribah near Kadesh. ¹⁵Moses said, ¹⁶"You are LORD, the God of the spirits of everyone. So appoint a leader for the people, {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} ¹⁷someone capable of leading them in battle. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} Otherwise the people will be like sheep with no shepherd."

¹⁸The LORD then told Moses, "Lay your hands on Joshua, in whom is My Spirit. ¹⁹Then as he stands before Eleazar the priest and all the Israelites, have them appoint Joshua as their leader. ²⁰Transfer your authority to him so all My people will follow his leadership. ²¹To get information from Me have him go to Eleazar, who will ask Me through the Urim and Thummim. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} The people are to follow his leadership." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²²Following the LORD's command, Moses had Joshua stand before Eleazar and all the Israelites, ²³while Moses laid his hands on Joshua, as the LORD had told him to do.

Lord, Moses did exactly as You commanded; he elevated Joshua to follow him. When my time comes, I will choose someone to follow me. Amen.

Numbers 28 The Daily Offerings to the LORD

¹The LORD told Moses ²to say to the Israelites, "At the appropriate times offer sacrifices to Me, and I will be pleased with them. ³Each day offer as burnt offerings two one-year-old lambs without any defects. 4One lamb is to be offered in the morning and the other in the evening. ⁵With each of them offer a grain offering of two quarts of flour mixed with a quart of olive oil. 6 This is the same as the offering you first offered to me at Mount Sinai. ⁷Along with each sacrifice, pour out a quart of wine on the altar of burnt offering as a drink offering to Me. 8In the evening offer the second lamb with the same kind of grain offering and drink offering. I will be pleased with the offerings.

⁹"Each Sabbath offer two year-old lambs without defects, along with the drink offering and grain offering of four quarts of flour mixed with olive oil. ¹⁰This is in addition to the regular daily burnt offering and drink offering.

¹¹"On the first day of each month offer to Me a burnt offering of two bulls, one ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects. ¹²With each bull offer a grain offering of six quarts of flour mixed with olive oil. With the ram include a grain offering of four quarts of flour mixed with oil. ¹³And with each lamb offer a grain offering of two quarts of flour mixed with oil. I will be pleased with these burnt offerings. ¹⁴With each bull offer a drink offering of two quarts of wine; with the ram, about one and a fourth quarts; and with each lamb, a quart. ¹⁵Also offer to Me a male goat as a sin offering.

¹⁶"Celebrate the Passover every April 14. ¹⁷The next day begin the week-long Festival of Bread without Yeast. ¹⁸On the first day of this festival assemble together and do no work. ¹⁹Offer to Me a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven oneyear-old male lambs, all with no defects. ²⁰With each bull present a grain offering of six quarts of flour mixed with oil; with the ram, four quarts; and 21 with each lamb, two quarts. ²²Also offer a male goat as a substitute payment for sin. ²³These are to be in addition to the regular daily sacrifices, ²⁴and the sacrifices in this week-long festival will be pleasing to Me. ²⁵Then on the last day of this festival have the people assemble in worship and don't do any work that day. ²⁶On the first day of the Harvest Festival in the fall, have the people assemble in worship, do no work that day, and bring an offering of new grain. ²⁷Offer a burnt offering of five young bulls, one ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs. I will be pleased with their sacrifices. ²⁸With each bull bring a grain offering of six quarts of flour mixed with olive oil; with the ram, four quarts; ²⁹and with each lamb, two quarts. ³⁰Also offer a male goat as a substitute payment for sin. ³¹These animals are to have no defects and are to be offered on this festival day with their drink offerings, and in addition to regular burnt offerings and grain offerings."

Lord, just as daily offerings were brought to You in the Old Testament, I will offer myself to You daily in prayer and Bible study. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Amen.

Numbers 29 The Offerings in Several Festivals

1"For the Festival of Trumpets assemble in worship on the first day of September and don't do any work. ²For a burnt offering bring a young bull, a ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ³With the bull present a grain offering of six quarts of flour mixed with olive oil; with the ram, four quarts; and ⁴with each lamb, two quarts. ⁵Also offer a male goat as a substitute payment for sin. ⁶These are in addition to monthly and daily burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings—offerings that will be pleasing to Me.

7"On the tenth day of this seventh month, the Day of Atonement, assemble in worship and don't do any work. ⁸Present to Me a burnt offering of a young bull, a ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects. ⁹With the bull prepare a grain offering of six-quarts of flour mixed with olive oil; with the ram, four quarts; ¹⁰and with lamb, two quarts—the same as on the Festival of Trumpets. ¹¹Also offer a male goat as a substitute payment for sin, in addition to the sin offering and the regular burnt offering, grain offering, and drink offerings.

¹²"On the 15th day of that same month assemble in worship and don't do any work. For seven days celebrate the Festival of Shelters. ¹³Present to Me a burnt offering of 13 bulls, two rams, and 14 one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects. ¹⁴With each bull include a grain offering of six quarts of flour mixed with olive oil; with each of the two rams, four quarts; ¹⁵and with each of the 14 lambs, two quarts. ¹⁶Also offer a male goat as a substitute payment for sin, in addition to the regular burnt offering, grain offering, and drink offering.

17-34"For the next six days sacrifice one less bull each day than the day before, starting with 12 bulls on the second day and ending with seven bulls on the seventh day. The other sacrifices and offerings are to be the same for each day. ³⁵On the eighth day assemble again in worship and don't do any work. ³⁶Present to Me a burnt offering of a bull, a ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs, all with no defects. ³⁷Also offer the proper grain offerings and drink offerings with each animal. ³⁸Include a male goat as a substitute payment for sin, in addition to the regular burnt offering, grain offering, and drink offering.

³⁹"Present these offerings in your annual festivals, in addition to any offering given with vows you make or any fellowship offerings." ⁴⁰Moses told the people everything the Lord had told him about all these offerings.

Lord, just as Israel brought to You whole burnt offerings, food offerings, drink offerings, and peace offerings, plus additional vow offerings and special gifts, I will serve You in every way I know. Amen.

Numbers 30 Rules about Vows

¹Moses said to the tribal leaders, "The LORD has said that ²when someone makes a vow or a pledge to the Lord, he must carry through with what he promised. ³If a woman who is still living with her parents makes a vow or a pledge, ⁴and her father hears of it but doesn't say anything about it, she must keep her vow or pledge. ⁵But if her father objects to it, she needn't keep it, and I will forgive her.

⁶"If she marries after making a vow, ⁷and her husband hears of it and says nothing, then she must carry through with it. ⁸But if her husband objects to it, she needn't keep it, and I will forgive her. ⁹However, widows and divorced women are to keep their vows.

10"If a married woman makes a vow or a pledge, ¹¹and her husband hears about it and says nothing, then she must carry through with it. ¹²But if her husband objects to it, she needn't keep it, and I will forgive her. ¹³Her husband may confirm or nullify any vow or pledge she makes. ¹⁴If he says nothing about it, on the day he hears about it, she must do what she promised. ¹⁵But if he waits till the next day before trying to stop her, he must be punished."

¹⁶These are the regulations the LORD gave Moses about the relationship between a husband and his wife and the relationship between a father and his daughter who is living at home.

Lord, I will vow to You from the depth of my heart. I will fulfill my vows to You because I love You and want to please You. Amen.

Numbers 31 War against the Midianites

¹The LORD said to Moses, ²"Punish the Midianites for leading the Israelites into idolatry. Then you will die." 3So Moses said to the people, "Prepare for battle against the Midianites to punish them. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ⁴⁻⁵Have each tribe send in 1,000 men." So 12,000 men were chosen, ⁶and Phinehas, Eleazar's son, led them and took some objects from the tabernacle and trumpets for sounding the charge. ⁷They killed every Midianite soldier, 8including their five kings, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba. Also they killed Balaam, son of Beor. 9The Israelites captured all the Midianite women and children and took all their herds and flocks and a lot of miscellaneous items. 10 Also they burned away every Midianite town and camp. 11Gathering all the plunder, captives, and animals, 12the soldiers brought them to Moses and Eleazar and the Israelites where they were camped on the plains of Moab by the Jordan River across Jericho. ¹³Moses, Eleazar, and the leaders went to meet the soldiers outside the camp, 14but Moses was very angry with the officers. ¹⁵He asked, "Why did you bring back the women alive? ¹⁶They are the ones who followed Balaam's advice and encouraged our people to rebel against the LORD at Baal-Peor. That's why thousands of our people died from a terrible disease. ¹⁷So kill every boy and any of the women who have had sex. ¹⁸But keep alive the virgins.

¹⁹"Any of you who have killed anyone or touched a corpse is to stay outside the camp for a week. Then purify yourselves and your captive virgins on the third and seventh days of that week. ²⁰Wash your clothes {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} and anything made from leather, goat hair, or wood."

²¹Then Eleazar told the soldiers that the LORD said, "Put into the fire anything that can stand heat, ²²such as gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, and lead, ²³to make it ceremonially clean. Then purify it with water. ²⁴Wash your clothes on the seventh day and you will be clean, {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} and then you can return to the camp."

²⁵The LORD said to Moses, ²⁶"You and Eleazar and the tribal leaders are to list everything taken from the Midianites, including the captives and animals. ²⁷Then divide them into two parts, half for the soldiers and half for the other people. ²⁸⁻²⁹The soldiers are to give to Eleazar for the LORD one of every 500 captives and animals. ³⁰From their half the Israelites are to give to the Levites, who are in charge of the tabernacle, one of every 50 captives and animals." ³¹Moses and Eleazar did just as the LORD directed them to do.

³²The list of what the soldiers took from the Midianites included 675,000 sheep, ³³72,000 cattle, ³⁴61,000 donkeys, ³⁵and 32,000 young women who were virgins. ³⁶⁻³⁷So from the soldiers' portion they gave to the Lord 675 out of 337,500 sheep, ³⁸72 out of 36,000 cattle, ³⁹61 out of 30,500 donkeys, ⁴⁰and 32 out of 16,200 women. ⁴¹Moses gave these to Eleazar as the LORDs' share.

⁴²⁻⁴⁷From the portions for the people, Moses set aside one of every 500 animals and virgins and gave them to the Levites, as the Lord had commanded.

⁴⁸The army officers said to Moses, ⁴⁹"Not one soldier is missing. ⁵⁰So we want to give to the LORD all the gold jewelry we took from the Midianites—armbands, bracelets, rings, earrings, and necklaces—as a substitute payment for sin." ⁵¹Moses and Eleazar accepted all this jewelry from the officers, ⁵²and this gift to the LORD weighed about 420 pounds, ⁵³not counting anything the soldiers kept for themselves. ⁵⁴Moses and Eleazar accepted the gold and placed it all in the tabernacle as a memorial to the LORD for His help.

Lord, You gave Your people victory in battle because they honored and obeyed You. Teach me the necessity of obedience and may I enjoy its pleasure. Amen.

Numbers 32 Two Tribes Remain East of the Jordan River

¹The tribes of Reuben and Gad, who had many sheep, saw that the lands of Jazer and Gilead were good sheep country. ²So they said to Moses and Eleazar and the other tribal leaders, ³⁻⁴ The LORD helped us conquer the people around Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon, and this is good land for livestock. ⁵If it is okay with you, we would like to stay here on this east side of the Jordan River."

⁶Moses said, "Are you suggesting that you want to stay here while other Israelites cross the Jordan and do all the fighting? ⁷That would discourage them from crossing the Jordan and taking what the Lord has given them. 8A similar thing happened when I sent 12 men into the Canaan from Kadesh Barnea to explore the land. 9When they returned from the Eschol Valley, they discouraged the people from going in. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁰This made the LORD angry, ¹¹and He said, 'No one who was 20 years old or older at the time will enter the land promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, 12 except Caleb and Joshua, because they obeyed Me completely.'

¹³"The LORD in His anger made us wander in the desert 40 years until everyone who had sinned had died. ¹⁴Now you sinners are doing the same thing, and the LORD is even more angry now than then. ¹⁵If you turn from the LORD, He will leave His people in the desert, {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} and it will be your fault."

¹⁶The Reubenites and Gadites responded, "What we would like to do is build pens for our sheep and goats and towns for our wives and children. ¹⁷But we will cross the Jordan ahead of our fellow Israelites and see that they get settled in, but first we'll need to build fortified cities for our wives and children. ¹⁸We won't go home till all the other tribes have settled in. ¹⁹And we won't want any land on the other side of the Jordan, since the land here east of the river will be ours."

²⁰Moses said, "Okay. If you do what you say—prepare for battle, cross the Jordan, and ²¹help your fellow Israelites defeat their enemies—{517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²²then you may return to your land east of the Jordan. ²³But if you don't keep your word, you will have sinned against the LORD, {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} and He will punish you. ²⁴So go ahead and build cities for your families and pens for your flocks."

²⁵The people of Reuben and Gad said, "We will do what you have said. ²⁶Our wives and children and our flocks and herds will stay here in Gilead. ²⁷But our men will be ready for battle as you said."

²⁸Moses then said to Eleazar, Joshua, and the tribal leaders, ²⁹"If the men of Reuben and Gad help you defeat the Canaanites, as they've promised, then after the battles, the land of Gilead will be theirs. ³⁰But if they don't keep their promise, they must be given land on this side of the Jordan."
³¹The men of Reuben and Gad said, "We will do what the Lord has commanded. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ³²We will fight for the LORD in Canaan, and then we will inherit land on this east side of the Jordan." ³³So Moses gave the tribes of Gad, Reuben, and East Manasseh the land of Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan. ³⁴The Gadites built up the cities of Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, ³⁵Atroth-Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, ³⁶Beth-Nimrah, and Beth-Haran, and built pens for their sheep. ³⁷The Reubenites built Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, ³⁸Nebo, Baal-Meon, and Sibmah. The Reubenites renamed some of these cities.

³⁹The Makir clan of the tribe of East Manasseh conquered Gilead, drawing out the Amorites. ⁴⁰So Moses gave Gilead to the Machirites, and they settled there. ⁴¹Jair, another clan of the Manasseh tribe captured a number of towns in Gilead and called their area Harroth-Jair. ⁴²Nobah captured the town of Kenath and surrounding villages and named it Nobah, after his own name.

Lord, I read in this chapter the issue of obeying You in all decisions. May I always consider You as I make any decision in my life, whether great or small. Amen.

Numbers 33 The Journey from Egypt to Moab

¹This is the itinerary the Israelites followed when Moses and Aaron led them out of Egypt. ²Moses wrote down the places where they traveled, as the LORD had told him to do. ³They left the Egyptian city of Ramses on April 15, the day after Passover the night before. As the Egyptians were burying their firstborn sons, they watched the Israelites leave their country. ⁴The LORD had defeated the gods of Egypt!

⁵Leaving Ramses, the Israelites camped at Succoth, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 6then at Ethan at the edge of the desert, 7then they turned back toward Pi Hahiroth, near Baal-Zephon, and then camped at Mount Migdol. 8After crossing the Red Sea, they traveled for three days into the Etham Desert and camped at Marah. Then they camped at Elim, where there were 12 springs of water and 70 palm trees. ¹⁰Leaving Elim, they camped by the Red Sea 11 and then in the Sin Desert. ¹²Next they camped at Dophkah, ¹³Alush, ¹⁴and Rephidim, where there was no water. 15 From there they went to the Sinai Desert ¹⁶and then to Kibroth Hattaavah. ¹⁷⁻³⁷Their other stops included Hazeroth, Rithmah, Rimmon-Parez, Libnah, Rissah, Kehelathah, Mount Shepher, Haradah, Makheloth, Tahath, Terah, Mithkah, Hashmonah, Moseroth, Bene-Jaakan, Hor-Haggidgad, Jotbathah, Abronah, Ezion-Geber, Kadesh (in the Zin Desert), and Mount Hor near Edom.

³⁸At Mount Hor the LORD told Aaron to climb that mountain where he would die. On July 15, 40 years after leaving Egypt, ³⁹Aaron died at the age of 123. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

⁴⁰The Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Southern Desert, heard that the Israelites were coming toward his people. ⁴¹⁻⁴⁴The Israelites went from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah, Punon, Oboth, Iye-Abarim, at the border of Moab. ⁴⁵⁻⁴⁷From there they went to Dihon-Gad, Almon-Diblathaim, and near Mount Nebo in Abarim, ⁴⁸and then to the plains of Moab beside the Jordan River. ⁴⁹They camped along the Jordan River, from Beth-Jeshimoth to Abel-Shittim.

⁵⁰The LORD told Moses ⁵¹to tell the people, "When you cross the Jordan into Canaan, ⁵²you must force all the people out. Destroy their idols, carved stones, and altars, and demolish their hilltop shrines. ⁵³Then settle in the land I have given you. ⁵⁴"Distribute the land according to the size of your tribes. Larger tribes should be given more land than smaller tribes. ⁵⁵If you don't get rid of the people living there, they will be like barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides. ⁵⁶I will destroy you as I had planned for you to destroy them."

Lord, this chapter gives details of Israel's travels and struggles. Thank You that they followed You in small details. May that be true of my life. Amen.

Numbers 34 Boundaries of the Promised Land

¹The LORD told Moses to tell the people, ²"When you come into the land, these will be the boundaries of your land. ³The southern border is to be the Zin Desert at the northwest part of Edom; beginning at the Dead Sea. ⁴It is to continue south past Scorpion Pass toward Zin and to include Kadesh-Barnea, and from there it is to go to Hazar-Adar and Azmon. ⁵It is to follow the brook of Egypt down to the Mediterranean Sea.

6"The western boundary is to be the Mediterranean Sea.

7"The northern border is to begin at the Mediterranean Sea and extend out to Mount Hor, ⁸ and from there to Lebo-Hamath, ⁹Zedad, Ziphron, and Hazar-Enan. ¹⁰"The eastern border is to begin at Hazar-Enan ¹¹ and extend south to Shepham and on to Riblah east of Ai, and along the eastern hills of the Sea of Galilee. ¹²Then the border is to go along the Jordan River to the north end of the Dead Sea."

¹³Moses said, "This is the land you are to divide by casting lots for the nine and a half tribes. ¹⁴⁻¹⁵The land east of the Jordan has already been assigned to the other two and a half tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh."

¹⁶The LORD said to Moses, ¹⁷"Eleazar and Joshua are to divide the land, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁸and one leader from each tribe is to help them. ¹⁹⁻²⁸These are their names: Caleb from Judah, Shemuel from Simeon, Elidad from Benjamin, Bukki from Dan, Hanniel from Manasseh, Kemuel from Ephraim, Elizaphan from Zebulun, Paltiel from Issachar, Ahihud from Asher, and Pedahel from Naphtali." ²⁹These are the names of the men the Lord chose to help Eleazar and Joshua divide the land of Canaan for the tribes.

Lord, You are concerned with both what Your people did and how they did it. May I follow that pattern in my life. Be glorified in both what I do and how I do it. Amen.

Numbers 35 The Levites Are Given Land

¹On the plains of Moab by the Jordan River across from Jericho, the LORD told Moses to tell the Israelites, ²⁻³"You are to give land to the Levites for them to live in, with pasturelands for their animals. ⁴The pasturelands are to be 1,500 feet out from the city walls. ⁵And each pasture is to be 3,000 feet on each of four sides, with the towns in the center.

6"Give the Levites six Towns of Refuge. If a person accidentally kills someone, he can run to one of these towns for safety. Also give the Levites 42 other towns, ⁷ for a total of 46. ⁸The larger tribes are to give more towns than the smaller tribes."

⁹The LORD then told Moses ¹⁰to tell the people, "When you are settled in Canaan, ¹¹choose these 46 Towns of Refuge, where a person can go for protection if he accidentally kills someone. ¹²That way a person will be protected from anyone who might try to kill him before a trial is held. ¹³⁻¹⁴Three of the six towns are to be on each side of the Jordan. ¹⁵The towns will be places of protection for the Israelites and foreign residents who might kill someone accidentally.

¹⁶⁻¹⁹"If anyone strikes someone with a piece of iron, or a huge stone, or a wooden object, and the person dies, it is murder, and the murderer is to be put to death by one of the victim's relatives. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ²⁰⁻²¹If anyone kills a person out of hatred by shoving him, throwing something at him, or hitting him, he is a murderer {269 Justice-Prayer,

Ps. 7:17} and is to be put to death by one of the victim's relatives.

²²⁻²³"If anyone accidentally kills another by shoving him, throwing something at him, or dropping a stone on him, but not in anger, ²⁴then the people are to decide whether he is guilty. ²⁵If they decide the death was accidental, then the person is to be protected from the victim's relative by staying in one of the Towns of Refuge until the high priest dies.

²⁶"If the person leaves the Town of Refuge, ²⁷ and a relative of the victim kills him, the relative is not guilty of murder. ²⁸So the accused should stay in the town until the priest dies. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} Then he can go home. ²⁹This is a permanent law.

³⁰"Any murderer is to be put to death, but at least two witnesses must testify of his guilt. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ³¹No money is to be paid to free a murderer from death. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ³²Nor is money to be paid by a person in a Town of Refuge to allow him to return home before the high priest dies. ³³This will keep the land from being polluted by murder. The only thing that can keep the land pure is putting the murderer to death. A sacrifice for him is not enough. ³⁴So avoid defiling the land where you and I dwell. Yes, I, the LORD, dwell among you."

Lord, just as Israel had Towns of Refuge for those who sinned unintentionally, so Jesus is my "Town of Refuge" when I sin ignorantly. I claim the promise, "the blood of Jesus Christ...cleanses us from all sin" (1 John 1:7, NKJV). Amen.

Numbers 36 Land Is Given to the Daughters of Zelophehad

¹The heads of the Gilead clan of the Manasseh tribe went to Moses and the heads of other Israelite families, ²and said, "When the LORD told you to divide the land among the tribes, He said for you to give Zelophehad's land to his five daughters. ³But if they marry men from other tribes, the daughters' land will go to their tribes. The daughters' land will no longer be part of our tribe's inheritance, ⁴and it can't be returned to the original owner even in the Year of Jubilee."

⁵Moses gave the people this answer from the Lord: "These men from the Manasseh tribe are right. ⁶These daughters may marry anyone, so long as the men are in the Gilead clan of the Manasseh tribe. ⁷No land is to pass to another tribe; it is to remain with the tribe that originally inherited it. ⁸Any daughter who inherits land is to marry someone from her own tribe. ⁹This will help keep inherited land moving from one tribe to another."

¹⁰Zelophehad's daughters did as the Lord commanded. ¹¹Mahlah, Tirzan, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah married cousins on their father's side. ¹²By marrying within the clans of the Manasseh tribe, their land stayed in their father's clan.

¹³Those are the commands and regulations the LORD gave to Moses and the Israelites while they were camped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan River across from Jericho.

Lord, Israel did the right thing when faced with a practical problem of oversight. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} May I always do the right thing when faced with any oversight I have done. Amen.

DEUTERONOMY

Ch 1: Moses Speaks to the People of Israel	259
Ch 2: The People Wander in the Desert	261
Ch 3: Israel Defeated Og, King of Bashan	263
Cн 4: Obey God's Commands	264
Ch 5: The Ten Commands	266
Cн 6: Love the LORD Your God	268
Сн 7: The Lord's People	269
Cн 8: Always Remember the LORD	270
Ch 9: The Israelites Did Not Obey	271
Ch 10: The Second Set of Stone Tablets	273
CH 11: THE IMPORTANCE OF OBEDIENCE	274
CH 12: THE ONE PLACE FOR WORSHIP	276
CH 13: WORSHIP THE ONE TRUE GOD	278
CH 14: CLEAN AND UNCLEAN FOODS	279
CH 15: FORGIVE DEBTORS EVERY SEVEN YEARS	280
Ch 16: Three Festivals Each Year	281
CH 17: JUDGEMENT OF EVIL AND RULES FOR THE KING	282
Ch 18: A Share Given to the Priests and Levites	283
CH 19: THE TOWNS OF REFUGE	284
CH 20: HOW TO MAKE WAR	285
CH 21. UNSOLVED MURDERS	286

CH 22: MISCELLANEOUS INSTRUCTIONS	287
CH 23: BANNED PEOPLE	289
CH 24: DIVORCE AND OTHER MATTERS	290
CH 25: ADDITIONAL LAWS	291
Ch 26: Give God Your Best	292
CH 27: THE ALTAR AT MOUNT EBAL	293
CH 28: THE BLESSINGS FOR BEING OBEDIENT	294
CH 29: THE COVENANT RENEWAL	297
CH 30: God's Promise Remains Constant	298
Ch 31: Joshua Becomes the New Leader	299
CH 32: Moses' Song	301
CH 33: Moses Blesses Israel	303
CH 34: THE DEATH OF MOSES	304

DEUTERONOMY

Key Words: Ye shall (Deuteronomy 11:31)

Key Verse: "For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein. And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day" (11:31, 32).

Theme: Deuteronomy means "second giving of the law." As Israel was camped on the east side of the Jordan River—ready to enter the Promised Land—Moses repeated the law and a history of the wilderness wandering because this generation was under 20 years of age when God delivered them from the Egyptian bondage. This book includes five sermons reminding Israel "you shall" obey the Lord and worship Him in integrity.

Deuteronomy is a picture of what we must do to enter God's promises today and how we must walk in fellowship with Him. Lord, I don't look back to my sin and failure but I look to You for redemption and fellowship. Amen.

Deuteronomy 1 Moses Speaks to the People of Israel book records the speeches Moses gave to the Israelites while they were in Moab east of the Jordan River, {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} camped near Suph between Paran on one side and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab on the other. ² (Traveling by foot from Mount Horeb to Kadesh-Barnea by the Mount Seir Road normally takes only 11 days.) ³Moses gave these speeches from the Lord on February 15th, 40 years after the Israelites left Egypt. ⁴Earlier Moses had defeated King Sihon of the Amorites, and King Og of Bashan, who reigned at Ashtaroth, near Edrei. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁵So Moses addressed the Israelites in Moab east of the Jordan River, giving them God's laws. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁶"At Mount Horeb (Sinai) the LORD told us, 'You have stayed here long enough. ⁷Break camp and go to the land of the Amorites, and the people in the Jordan River Valley, the hill country, the Southern Desert, the Mediterranean coast, the land of Canaan and Lebanon, and all the way to the Euphrates River. ⁸I am giving all this land to you. So go take it, because it is what

I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and their descendants.' {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12}

9"At that time I told you I couldn't lead you by myself, {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} 10 because the LORD has made us as numerous as the stars. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} 11 And I pray He will increase our numbers many times more and bless us, as He promised. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 12 No one man can solve all your problems and settle all your disputes. 13 So I suggested you choose wise and respected leaders from each tribe, and I would make them official leaders. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

¹⁴"You agreed to this idea. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ¹⁵So I supported them as leaders in charge of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens. ¹⁶Also I told the judges to hear disputes and to judge cases fairly, ¹⁷without showing any partiality toward the rich. They are not to be afraid of anyone, for they are judging as God's representatives. If they feel some cases too difficult to settle, then I will hear them. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ¹⁸And I gave you other instructions for them too.

Lord, just as Moses delegated to others, may I learn to do what only I can do and delegate what others can do. Amen.

¹⁹"Then we left Mount Horeb and went toward the Amorite hill country. As we traveled through the terrible desert, we reached Kadesh-Barnea. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ²⁰Then I said to you, 'We have reached the land the Lord is giving us. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} ²¹Go take the land He, the God of our ancestors, told us to take. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} Don't be afraid or discouraged.' ²²But you suggested we send 12 men to inspect the land and bring back a report and tell us what roads we should take and what the towns are like. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

²³"This seemed like a good idea, so I chose 12 men, one from each tribe. ²⁴They explored the hill country, and at the Eshcol valley 25they gathered some fruit and brought it to us. They told us the land is good. ²⁶But you rebelled against the Lord and refused to go in. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁷You grumbled in your tents and said, 'The LORD must hate us by bringing us here from Egypt to be destroyed by the Amorites. ²⁸The men who inspected the land have discouraged us by saying that the people are taller and stronger than we are and the cities are large with high walls, and some of the people are giants, descendants of Anak." {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

Lord, keep the pessimism of others from ruining my trust in You. Amen.

²⁹"Then I said to you, 'Don't be afraid. ³⁰The Lord our God will lead the way, and He will fight for you just as He did in Egypt and in the desert. {528 Warfare-Prayer,

Rev. 12:7} ³¹You now know the LORD took care of you, just as a father cares for his child.' {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³²"But you still refused to trust the LORD your God, ³³who led you by a flaming fire at night and a cloud in the daytime to show you where to camp and where to travel." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

Lord, may Your past provision in my life contribute to greater faith in You. Amen.

³⁴"So the LORD in His anger said, ³⁵'No one of you evil people will be allowed to enter the Promised Land, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁶except for Caleb. He will enter the land because he obeyed Me completely. I will give him some of the very land he walked on in exploring the land.' {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

³⁷"The LORD was angry with me too and He told me, 'You people will not enter the Promised Land either. ³⁸But Joshua will. So encourage him as he leads the people in. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³⁹You thought your children would be taken as captives. But they will enter the land and conquer it. ⁴⁰So you may as well turn around and go back through the desert toward the Red Sea.' {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴¹Then you confessed that you sinned against the LORD and you said you would go in and fight. So you put on your weapons, thinking it would be easy to conquer the area.

⁴²"But the LORD told me to tell you not to do it because He would not be with you, and your enemies could defeat you. ⁴³I told you what the LORD said, but you wouldn't listen. You rebelled and in your pride you went in to the hill country. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ⁴⁴Then the Amorites chased you like bees from Seir all the way to Hormah."

Lord, may I never face the enemy without Your presence. Amen.

⁴⁵"You wept before the LORD, but He paid no attention. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴⁶So you stayed at Kadesh-Barnea for a while."

Lord, I know I have to die, but I don't want to. May I have an easy death. I know I have Christ as my Savior, so I'll go to live with Him at my death. Teach me to use wisely the time I have left so I can glorify You in my life, and I'll leave fruit after I'm gone. Amen.

Deuteronomy 2 The People Wander in the Desert

¹"Then we went back into the desert toward the Red Sea and spent a long time in the area of Mount Seir near Edom. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²Then the LORD said, ³'You have been here long enough. So now turn north. ⁴Tell the people, You will soon go through the land of the Edomites, descendants of Esau who live in Seir. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} They will be afraid of you. But be careful. ⁵Don't start a war because I have given them all the hill country of Seir. ⁶Pay the Edomites for whatever food or water you use. ² {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} The LORD has blessed us and watched over us in our journey of 40 years in the desert, and we have had everything we need. ² {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Lord, I will obey when You say "turn around." Amen.

8"So we passed through the territory of our relatives, the descendants of Esau. We followed the Arabah Road that starts in the south at Elath and Ezion-Geber and traveled north on the desert road that leads to Moab. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 9The LORD warned us not to attack the Moabites either, because He would not give us any of their land since He had given it to Lot's descendants. ¹⁰The Emites who used to live there were as tall as the Anakites. 11The Emites and the Anakites are often called Rephaites, but the Moabites called them Emites. ¹²The Horites used to live in Seir, but the Edomites drove them out, just as Israel would drive the Canaanites from the land the LORD would give them.

¹³"The Lord told us, 'Cross the Zered Valley at the southern border of Moab,' and we did. ¹⁴This was 38 years after we left Kadesh-Barnea, and by then all the Israelite soldiers had died, as God had said. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁵The LORD was against them until they all finally died.

Lord, I fear You because You keep Your word of judgment. Amen.

¹⁶"After these men all died, ¹⁷the Lord said to me, ¹⁸'Today go past Ar and cross Moab's northern border into Ammon. ¹⁹Don't start a war with the Ammonites. I won't give you any of their land because I have given it to Lot's descendants.'

²⁰"That territory used to belong to the Rephaites, and the Ammonites called them the Zamzummites. ²¹They were strong, numerous, and tall like the Anakites. But the LORD helped the Ammonites defeat them, and the Ammonites settled there. ²²The Lord helped them as He had helped the descendants of Esau defeat the Horites. ²³Similarly the Caphtorites from Crete destroyed the people of Avvim in villages as far south as Gaza.

²⁴"Then the Lord said, 'Cross the Arnon River, and I will help you defeat Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon. Attack him and possess his land. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁵I will cause people everywhere to be afraid of you.' {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ²⁶⁻²⁷So I sent messengers to Sihon, asking him to let us pass through his country. 'We will stay on the main road.'"

Lord, I fear You because You keep Your word of judgment. Amen.

²⁸"We will pay for whatever food or water we take. ²⁹The Edomites and Moabites have let us cross their land. We want to cross the Jordan River and get into the land the LORD our God is giving us.' {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12}

30"But Sihon refused to let us cross his land, because the LORD had made him stubborn. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 31But the LORD said, 'I will help you defeat Sihon and take his land.' {356 Possibility-Praying, Mark 9:23} ³²Then Sihon and his army met us at Jahaz, 33 and the LORD helped us defeat them. ³⁴We completely destroyed their towns and killed every man, woman, and child. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} ³⁵We kept their livestock and everything of value. ³⁶The LORD helped us destroy every town from the Arnon Valley north to Gilead. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³⁷But as the LORD told us, we stayed away from the Ammonite towns in the hill country and near the Jabbok River."

Lord, teach me where to go, and where I should not go. Amen.

Deuteronomy 3 Israel Defeated Og, King of Bashan

1"When we turned toward Bashan, King Og attacked us at Edrei. ²But the Lord told us not to be afraid. He said, 'I will give you victory over him, and give you his land. You will defeat him just as you defeated Sihon, king of the Amorites in Heshbon.' {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³The LORD helped us destroy Og and his ous-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} 4And we conquered all 60 of his towns in the Argob region, 5 towns with high walls and barred towns, and many unwalled villages. ⁶We destroyed Og's kingdom—every man, woman, and child—just as we had done with Sihon's kingdom in Heshbon. 7We kept the livestock and loot for ourselves. 8"We now possessed all the territory of the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan all the way from the Arnon River to Mount Hermon in the North. {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 9(Mount Hermon is called Sirion by the Sidonians, and it is called Mount Senir by the Amorites.) ¹⁰We conquered all the towns on the plateau and all of Gilead and Bashan as far as Selecah and Edrei, two of Og's towns. ¹¹Og was the last of the giant Rephaites. His iron bed, more than 13 feet long and six feet wide, is still in the town of Rabbah army, leaving no survivors. {513 Victori-

Lord, I pray for modern-day Israel as she struggles to possess the land You promised to her centuries ago. Amen.

of Ammon." {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

12"To the tribes of Reuben and Gad I gave land, extending north from Aroer by the Arnon River to the southern half of Gilead.
13 To the tribe of East Manasseh I gave the rest of Gilead and all of Bashan, Og's kingdom. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} The whole region of Argob in Bashan was called the land of the Rephaites. 14 Jair, of the tribe of East Manasseh, took this region of Argob east to the borders of Geshur and Maacah. The people started calling that country Havvoth-Jair (meaning "Jair's Villages"). 15Then I gave Gilead to the Makir clan of Manasseh. 16The land I gave to Reuben and Gad extended from the Jabbok River in Gilead down to the Arnon River, ¹⁷and their western border was the Jordan River from the Sea of Galilee to Mount Pisgah east of the Dead Sea (also called the Sea of the Arabah). 18I told the tribes to the east of the Jordan, 'The Lord has given you this land. But first your men in the army are to cross the Jordan and help the tribes there. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} 19Your wives, children, and livestock are to stay in their tribal territories 20 until your fellow Israelites have conquered the land I am giving them. Then you can go back home.' ²¹"I told Joshua, 'You saw what the Lord did to Sihon and Og. He will do the same with the nations west of the Jordan. {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} ²²Don't be afraid, because the LORD your God will fight for you."

Lord, I will build my future on the past victories You've given me. Amen.

²³"Then I asked the LORD, ²⁴'You have shown me your greatness and power. No god can do the great things you have done. ²⁵Please let me cross the Jordan to see the good land there and the hills and the Lebanon Mountains.' {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

²⁶"But the LORD was angry with me because of you people. He said, 'Don't say anything more about this. ²⁷You may go to Mount Pisgah and view the land in every direction, but you are not to cross the Jordan.'" {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18}

Lord, I understand why Moses prayed this request. Help me learn when Your "no" means "no never." Yet in the midst of Your "no" I see glimpses of Your grace. Amen.

²⁸"Appoint Joshua to lead the people across the Jordan, and encourage him. He will help them conquer the land.' {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ²⁹So we stayed in the valley of Beth-Peor."

Deuteronomy 4 Obey God's Commands

1"Listen now, Israel, to the laws I will teach you, and obey them so you can conquer the land the Lord is giving you. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 2Don't add any laws or subtract any. Instead obey them as from the Lord. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 3You saw that the LORD killed everyone at Baal-Peor for worshiping the idol Baal. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} But you who were faithful to the LORD are alive today. {88 Continue in Prayer, Luke 11:8-10} 5 These are the laws from the LORD that you are to obey in the land. 6Obey them carefully and other nations will say you are a wise people. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 7No other nation has a god near them as the LORD our God is near us when we pray to Him. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁸And no other nation has such upright laws as we have.

9"But be careful that you don't forget what you have seen God do for you. {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.} And tell your children and grandchildren about these things. ¹⁰Remember when you stood before the LORD at Mount Horeb and He said, 'Gather My people together so they will learn to reverence Me all their lives and will teach My words to their children.' {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ¹¹As you stood at the foot of Mount Horeb, it was surrounded by black clouds and thick darkness, and flames shot into the sky. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹²Then when the LORD spoke to you, you heard Him but you didn't see Him. ¹³He said He was making an agreement with you, {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} and that you are to obey the Ten Commands, which He wrote on flat stones. ¹⁴At that time He told me to give you the laws and commands you are to obey in the land you will conquer west of the Jordan River.

¹⁵"When the LORD spoke to you from the fire at Mount Horeb, you saw no form. So be careful. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁶Don't make and worship idols whether shaped like a man, woman, {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ¹⁷animal, bird, ¹⁸moving creature, or fish. ¹⁹And when you see the sun, moon, and stars in the sky, don't bow down and worship them. {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} These things in the sky are for the benefit of all nations."

Lord, thank You for Your laws, I will obey them. Keep me from idols. Amen.

²⁰"You belong to the LORD because He took you out of the furnace of Egypt to be His people.

of your sin, and He told me I could not enter the land He would give to you. ²²He told me I will die here, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} but you will cross the Jordan River and take the land. {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} ²³Always remember the agreement you have with the LORD, and don't make an idol in any shape. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ²⁴The LORD wants you to worship only Him. And if you don't, He can be like a fire consuming everything in its path. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

²⁵"In the future, when you have children and grandchildren and you have been in the land a long time, don't make an idol of any kind. If you do this evil thing, the LORD will be angry with you. ²⁶And heaven and earth will be witnesses of your idolatry, and you will die in the land. Your days there will be brief; you will be destroyed. ²⁷The LORD will scatter you into other countries, and only a few of you will survive there. ²⁸There you will worship idols made of wood and stone, idols that can't see, hear, eat, or smell." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Lord, I hate idolatry, just as You do. Amen.

²⁹"But if you seek the LORD with all your heart and soul, you will find Him. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ³⁰"So when these difficult days come, return to the LORD and obey Him. ³¹He is a God of mercy. He won't leave you or destroy you, and He won't forget the agreement He made with your ancestors and which he confirmed by an oath. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

32"Think of all of history, and check everywhere to see if anything as great as this has ever happened: ³³Has any nation heard God speaking out of fire, as you have, and lived to tell about it? ³⁴Has any other god ever taken a nation out from another nation by trials, miracles, war, great power, and awesome deeds, right before your very eyes? {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

35"God did all this so you would realize that the LORD is God, and that there's no one like Him. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1} 36You heard His voice from heaven, and on earth you saw the great flame of fire and you heard His voice. 37Because He loved your ancestors and chose to bless their descendants, {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10} He brought you out of Egypt with great power. 38You now face nations greater and stronger than you, but He will bring you into the land and give it to you as your inheritance. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

³⁹"Remember that the LORD is God both in heaven and on the earth, and there is no other. ⁴⁰If you obey His laws and commands, which I am passing on to you now, all will be well with you and your children, and you will enjoy long life in the land the Lord is giving you." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

Lord, Your promises are awesome! Amen.

⁴¹Then Moses chose three towns of refuge east of the Jordan. ⁴²If someone killed a person unintentionally and without anger, he could run to one of these towns and be safe living there. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ⁴³The towns were Bezer in the desert for the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead for the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan for the tribe of East Manasseh.

⁴⁴⁻⁴⁵When the Israelites had come out of Egypt, Moses gave them their laws and regulations. ⁴⁶This was east of the Jordan where the Israelites had defeated Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, ⁴⁷and Og king of Bashan. ⁴⁸This land extended from Aroer by the Arnon River north to Mount Siyon (another name for Mount Hermon), ⁴⁹and included the land east of the Jordan down to Mount Pisgah east of the Dead Sea (also called the Sea of the Arabah).

Deuteronomy 5 The Ten Commands

¹Moses called the people together and said, "Listen to all the laws and regulations

I am giving you today. Learn them and be sure to obey them. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 2The LORD our God, made an agreement with us at Mount Horeb. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ³That wasn't just for our ancestors; it was for all of us here today. 4The LORD Himself spoke to you out of the fire on the mountain. 5You were afraid of the fire and didn't go up the mountain. So I stood between the LORD and you, and I passed His words onto you. He said, {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} 6'I am the LORD your God who brought you out of slavery in Egypt. ⁷Do not worship any god except Me. {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} 8Do not make idols of anything shaped like birds, animals, or fish. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ⁹Never bow down to them or worship them. Why? Because I am the LORD your God and I want your complete worship. If you hate Me, I will punish the sins of future generations. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 10But I will always love those who love and obey Me.

¹¹'Don't use My name disrespectfully. If you do, I will punish you. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} ¹²Observe the Sabbath Day, keeping it holy. ¹³You have six days each week in which to do your work, ¹⁴but on the seventh day you are to honor Me. No one is to work on that day, including your family members and slaves, and even animals and foreigners living in your cities. ¹⁵Don't forget that I brought you out of slavery in Egypt with great power, and that's why you should keep the Sabbath. {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7}

¹⁶'Respect your parents. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} If you do, you will have a long life in the land I am giving you. ¹⁷Don't murder. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁸Don't commit adultery. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ¹⁹Don't take what doesn't belong to you. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁰Don't tell lies in court. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} ²¹Don't desire to have what belongs to someone else, including someone's wife, slaves, animals, or anything else." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

Lord, You gave us these 10 Commands to tell us how You expect us to guard ourselves from sin. Give me an obedient heart and willing hands and feet to obey You. Amen.

²²"There on the mountain the LORD gave these commands in a loud voice from the fire to all of you, as you were surrounded by the great cloud and heavy darkness. The LORD gave only these commands, and He wrote them on flat stones and gave them to me. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ²³When you heard the voice and saw the fire on the mountain, the tribal leaders came to me {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} ²⁴and said, 'We have seen His glorious majesty and heard His voice. This shows that people can live if God speaks to them. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ²⁵But if He speaks to us again from the fire, we will die. ²⁶Who can survive, as we have, after hearing God speaking from the fire? ²⁷You go and listen to what God says. Then come back and tell me and we will listen and obey.' {298 Many Ways to Pray, Heb. 2:1-4}

²⁸"The LORD heard you and said, 'Moses, I have heard what the people said. ²⁹But I wish they would always revere Me and keep My commands. Then they and their children would prosper. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³⁰Tell them to return to their tents. ³¹But you come back so I can give you all My commands, laws, and regulations, which you are to teach them to obey, in the land I will give them." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

³²So Moses said to the people, "Carefully obey the LORD's commands in every detail. ³³Stay on the path He has given, and you will have long, prosperous lives in the land you will enter." {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10}

Lord, I will be careful in both little and big things. The essence is obedience; I will obey. Amen.

Deuteronomy 6 Love the LORD Your God

¹"These are the commands, laws, and regulations the LORD has me to teach you so you can obey them in the land I am giving you after you cross the Jordan. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²I'm giving you these so that you, your children, {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} and grandchildren will revere the LORD by obeying these laws. Then you will enjoy a long life. ³So listen closely and obey them so that all will go well with you and you will become a great nation in the land of much milk from cows and much honey from bees, just as the LORD has promised. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁴"Israel, listen. The LORD our God is the only true God. ⁵So love Him completely, with all your heart, soul, and strength. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} ⁶Think about them all the time, {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} ⁷and tell them over and over to your children. Talk about them when you are at home or walking along the road, and at bedtime and when you get up in the morning. ⁸Tie copies of them on your hands and foreheads, {546 Written-Prayer, 1 Chron. 4:10} ⁹and write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your city gates. {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16}

¹⁰"The LORD your God promised your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} that He would give you this land. The LORD has large cities you didn't build, ¹¹houses full of good things, wells you didn't dig, and vineyards and olive orchards you didn't plant. When you enjoy this food ¹²don't forget that the LORD is the one who brought you out of slavery in Egypt. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

¹³"Worship the LORD your God and serve only Him. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} When you take an oath, use only His name. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹⁴Don't worship any of the gods of

nations around you, 15 because the LORD wants you to worship only Him. In His anger He may wipe you off the face of the earth. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁶Don't try His patience as you did at Massah. ¹⁷Be sure to obey all the LORD commands, laws, and regulations. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁸Always do what is right and good in His sight. Then all will go well with you 19 and you can go take this land from your enemies just as the LORD promised your ancestors. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} ²⁰"When your children ask why the LORD gave you all these commands, laws, and regulations, 21 tell them, 'We were slaves in Egypt, but the Lord brought us out by His great power. ²²We saw Him perform miracles and do terrible things to the Egyptians. ²³He brought us out of Egypt so He could bring us into this land He promised to our ancestors. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁴He has told us to obey all these laws {527 Walk in the Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 5:16, 25} and to revere Him, {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} so that He can prosper us and keep us alive, as we are now. ²⁵We are righteous when we obey His commands."

Lord, You drew a line at Mount Sinai that separated God-worshipers from idol-worshipers. It was a line that has been repeatedly drawn through the ages. I will get on Your side of the line while the rest of unbelieving humanity lines up on the other side with false gods. Lord, You are my only God. Amen.

Deuteronomy 7 The Lord's People

¹"When the LORD your God brings you into the land, He will destroy the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. ²These nations are larger and stronger than you, but when you defeat them, destroy them completely. {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} Don't make any treaties with them, and show them no mercy. ³Don't let your sons and daughters marry any of them. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} 4If they do, these people will influence your sons to worship other gods, and the LORD will be very angry with you, and He will quickly destroy you. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

5"Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones, cut down the poles they rise in worshiping Asherah, and burn their idols in the fire. You are a holy people, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} dedicated to the LORD your God, who has chosen you to be His special treasure. 7Why did the LORD choose to love you? Not because you are larger than other nations, for you are the smallest. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} 8His choice of you was simply because of His love and His promise to your ancestors. That's why He rescued you with great power from slavery in Egypt. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 9Remember that the LORD your God is the faithful God who will keep His agreement for a thousand generations with those who love and obey Him. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹⁰Those who hate Him will be destroyed by Him and quickly. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹¹So obey these commands, laws, and regulations I am giving you today. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

12"If you are careful to obey these laws, the LORD your God will keep His part of the agreement with you, as He promised your ancestors. 13He will love you and bless you, giving you many children, {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} and many crops of grain, grapes, and olives, and many calves and lambs. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} 14You will be more blessed than any other nation; your men and women and livestock will not be barren. 15 You will be healthy and not suffer the horrible diseases you had in Egypt; {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} instead God will cause your enemies to suffer from them. ¹⁶You must destroy your enemies without pity. And do not worship their gods; if you do, they will trap you. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

17"You may think, 'How can we destroy these nations that are stronger than us?' But don't be afraid. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 18 Just remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and all Egypt. 19 You saw how the LORD used His great power to work mighty miracles and bring you out of Egypt. He will do the same against the nations you fear. 20 Some enemies may hide, but the LORD will send hornets against them. 21 So don't be afraid of these nations, because the LORD your God is great and awesome. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

²²"The LORD will force them out little by little. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} You won't be able to get rid of them all at once, for if you did there would not be enough people to kill all the wild animals, and this would be a dangerous situation. ²³But the LORD will hand them over to you, by causing them to be confused and destroyed. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁴You will defeat their kings, and no one will even remember their names. No one will be able to stand against you as you destroy them all. ²⁵Burn their idols, and don't take the silver and gold from their idols, for idolatry is disgusting to the Lord. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁶If you bring an idol into your home and worship it, {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} you will be destroyed. Hate such detestable things, for they are doomed to be destroyed."

Lord, my house will be clean, my body will be clean, and my mind will be clean. Come cleanse me with the blood of Christ, and then fill me with the Holy Spirit to keep me clean. Amen.

Deuteronomy 8 Always Remember the LORD

¹"Be careful to obey all the commands I am giving you today. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} If you do, you will live, become a great nation, and take over the land

the LORD promised to your ancestors. ²Remember how the LORD led you through the desert for 40 years, {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} humbling you and checking to see if you would obey His commands. ³He caused you to go hungry and then fed you manna, which you and your ancestors had not heard of. He wanted you to realize that you need more than food; {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} you need every word God has spoken to you. 4In those 40 years your clothes didn't wear out, and your feet didn't swell. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} 5Yet the LORD has been disciplining you just as a father disciplines his son. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10}

6"Obey the commands the LORD has given you by following and revering Him. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ⁷The LORD is bringing you into a good land, with streams flowing from springs in the valleys and hills. 8The land has wheat, barley, vineyards, fig trees, pomegranates, olive trees, and honey. 9Food will be plentiful and you will lack nothing. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} Iron is common in the rocks, as is copper in the hills. ¹⁰When you have eaten and are full, praise the LORD for giving you this good land. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} 11"Be careful {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} and don't forget the LORD your God. Be sure to obey His commands, laws, and regulations. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 12When you have plenty to eat, are settled in nice houses, 13 and your flocks and herds are growing, and you have more silver and gold, {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 14don't be proud and forget the LORD your God who brought you out of slavery in Egypt. 15Remember how He led you through the huge and dreadful desert with its dangerous snakes and scorpions. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} There was no water, but He brought water out of a rock. ¹⁶He gave you manna to eat, {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} which your ancestors never heard of. He was testing you to make you humble and put your trust in Him. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} 17When you are tempted to think you got rich by your own power, ¹⁸remember that the LORD your God has given you the ability to become rich. This is to keep the agreement He made with your ancestors.

¹⁹"If you ever forget the LORD and worship other gods, you will be destroyed, ²⁰just as He destroyed other nations you fought." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, I will not forget all You've done for me. Give me good remembrance so I'll live a grateful life of obedience to You. Amen.

Deuteronomy 9 The Israelites Did Not Obey

1"Listen, Israel. You will soon cross the Jordan River to go into the land and defeat the nations that are greater and more powerful than you. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} Their large cities have high walls, ²and some of the people are giants, descendants of Anak. You have heard that no one can defeat them. ³But the LORD your God will destroy them like a fire. And you will defeat them quickly, as the LORD promised. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

4"After the LORD has done this for you, don't think you are such good people. No, the LORD will defeat them because they are so wicked."

Lord, keep me humble when You use me. Amen.

5"Again, He will do this because of their wickedness, not your goodness and honesty, and because of His promises to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} 6Not because of your goodness will the LORD give you this land; in fact you are a stubborn people. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

7"Don't forget how you made the LORD angry in the desert. You have rebelled against Him from the day you left Egypt until now. 8In fact at Mount Horeb (Sinai) He was so angry that He was ready to destroy you." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, forgive every sin of mine. Amen.

9"This was when I was on the mountain for 40 days and nights with nothing to eat or drink. ¹⁰From the fire on the mountain the Lord gave me two flat stones with the Ten Commands written on them while you watched below. ¹¹So at the end of 40 days, when the LORD gave me the flat stones, ¹²He told me to go down right away because you had disobeyed Him by making an idol from gold. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

¹³"The LORD said to me, 'These people are so stubborn. ¹⁴Let Me alone. I will destroy them {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and no one on earth will remember them. But your descendants, Moses, will become an even bigger and more powerful nation than Israel.' ¹⁵So I went down the mountain, carrying the two flat stones."

Lord, help me learn from the sin and judgment of others. Amen.

¹⁶"I immediately saw the idol you had made in the shape of a calf, and I was amazed at how quickly you turned from the LORD. ¹⁷So I threw down the stones and smashed them as you looked on." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, give me righteous indignation against sin, just as Moses had. Amen.

¹⁸"For 40 days and nights I lay prostrate before the LORD {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} and ate and drank nothing all that time. I was so concerned about your terrible sin, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} which aroused the LORD's anger. ¹⁹I was concerned that the Lord was angry enough to destroy all of you. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} But He listened to me. ²⁰And even though the LORD in His anger was about to kill Aaron, I prayed for Aaron. ²¹Then I burned the idol you had made. I took the gold, ground it into powder, and threw the powder into the stream flowing down the mountain. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

²²"You also made the LORD angry at Taberah, Massah, and Kibroth-Hattaavah. ²³Then at Kadesh-Barnea when the LORD told you to take the land, you rebelled and didn't trust or obey the LORD. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ²⁴In fact you have been rebelling against the LORD ever since I have known you." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Lord, forgive my past sins, and keep me from sin in the future. Amen.

²⁵"That is why I lay prostrate before the LORD for 40 days and nights. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ²⁶I prayed, 'Sovereign LORD, please don't destroy Your people, the treasure You rescued from Egypt in Your great power and strength. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ²⁷Remember the promise You made to Your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and overlook the people's stubbornness, wickedness, and sin. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} 28 If you don't, the Egyptians will say, "HiviThe LORD wasn't powerful enough to bring His people into the land He promised them. In fact He hated them, and so He put them to death in the desert." ²⁹But, LORD, they are Your people who belong to You, and You brought them out of Egypt by Your great power and strength." {262 Jesus-Agreement Prayer, Heb. 7:24-25}

Lord, I will be an intercessor for Your people, just like Moses. Amen.

Deuteronomy 10 The Second Set of Stone Tablets

¹"Then the LORD said to me, 'Get two flat stones like the ones I gave you earlier. Also make a wooden chest. ²And I will write on the stones the Ten Commands that were on the first stones. And keep these in the chest.'

3"So I made a chest of acacia wood and chiseled two stones like the ones I broke. I carried the stones up the mountain, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 4the hand of the LORD wrote on them, the Ten Commands, which were the same as what He had given before from the fire on the mountain as you watched below." {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2}

Lord, thank You for grace and mercy. Thank You for a second chance to serve You after I've failed. Amen.

5"I came down the mountain and put the stones in the sacred chest, as the LORD had told me to do and they are there now. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

6"We traveled from the wells of the Jaakanites to Moserah, where Aaron died and was buried, {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2} and Eleazar his son became high priest. ⁷From there we went to Gudgodah and on to Jotbathah, where there are streams of water. {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ⁸The LORD chose the tribe of Levi to carry the sacred chest and to serve Him in the tabernacle, which they still do. ⁹The Levites have no territory allotted to them because the Lord is their inheritance. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

10"After I had stayed on Mount Horeb another 40 days and nights, {88 Continue in Prayer, Luke 11:8-10} the LORD again heard my prayer {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} and said He would not destroy you. He said, 11'Go lead these people into the land I promised their ancestors.' 12Now, Israel, what does the LORD your God want you to do? He wants you to reverence Him, {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} follow Him, love Him, {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} and serve Him with all your heart and soul, ¹³and to obey His commands and laws that I am giving you today. All this is for your own good. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

¹⁴"Everything belongs to the LORD, including the heavens and the earth and everything on it. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ¹⁵And yet He loved your ancestors and chose them and you, their descendants, above anyone else, as is evident today. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁶Therefore cleanse your sinful hearts and stop being stubborn. ¹⁷The LORD your God is the God of gods and LORD of lords. As the mighty and awesome God, He is impartial and He takes no bribes from anyone who might try to change His mind. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹⁸He defends the rights of orphans and widows, and He cares for foreigners and sees that they have food and clothing. 19You too must love foreigners, for you yourselves were foreigners in Egypt. ²⁰Reverence the LORD your God and serve Him. Cling to Him and make promises only in His name. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 21 Make Him the object of your praise because as your God He performed great miracles for you. ²²When your ancestors went to live in Egypt, there were only 70 of them, and now the LORD your God has made you as many as the stars in the sky."

Lord, the greatest inheritance of all is You, Yourself. Beyond the Ten Commands and every other directive, my greatest gift is Yourself. Amen.

Deuteronomy 11 The Importance of Obedience

¹"Love the LORD your God, and always keep His regulations, commands, and laws. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} ²You, not your children, were the ones who were disciplined by the LORD when you saw His majesty, {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} great power and strength. ³They didn't see the miracles the Lord performed in Egypt against Pharaoh and his entire nation. ⁴Nor did

they see how the LORD drowned the Egyptian army and his horses and chariots in the Red Sea as they were chasing us. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁵You, not your children, saw how He cared for you in the desert. ⁶Also you saw what He did to Dathan and Abiram, Eliab's sons, in causing them to fall into a huge crevice with their families and belongings. ⁷You, not your children, saw all these wonderful things the LORD did for you. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

8"So obey all the commands I am giving you today from the LORD. If you do, then you will have strength to take the land {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} you are about to enter after crossing the Jordan River. 9And if you obey these commands, you will live a long time in the land the LORD promised and your ancestors and their descendants, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} this land with lots of milk and honey. 10 The land you are about to enter is not like Egypt, where you had to plant seeds and then irrigate them as in a vegetable garden. 11 The hills and valleys in the land where you are going are watered by rain. 12 The LORD your God cares for this land; {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} He keeps His eyes on it all the time. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} ¹³"So if you obey all the LORD's commands, love Him, and serve Him with all your heart and soul, 14He will send rain in the fall and spring, so that you will have plenty of grain, grapes, and olive oil. 15 You will have good pasture land for your cattle, and you yourselves will have plenty to eat. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

¹⁶"Beware that you don't turn from the Lord and worship other gods. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} ¹⁷If you bow down to them, the LORD will be angry and He will hold off the rain, you will have no crops, and you will die. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁸So keep these words in your mind, {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} and tie copies of them on your hands and foreheads. ¹⁹Teach them to your children, talking about them at home, when you are walking along the road, at bedtime, and when you get up in the morning. {302 Meditation-Prayer, Josh. 1:9} 20 Write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your city gates. ²¹That way as long as the sky is above the earth you and your children will live long lives in the land the LORD promised to your ancestors. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

²²"Obey all the commands I am giving you. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Love the LORD, follow His ways, and cling to Him. ²³Then He will force out of the land the nations that are larger and stronger than you. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} ²⁴Wherever you go the land will be yours, {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} from the desert in the south to Lebanon in the north and from the Euphrates River to the Mediterranean Sea. ²⁵No one will be able to defeat you. The LORD your God will make everyone afraid of you, as He promised." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

Lord, I say "amen" to Your promises. Amen.

²⁶"I am giving you a choice: ²⁷You will be blessed if you obey the LORD's commands. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁸or you will be cursed if you disobey and worship other gods. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ²⁹When you are in the land, you are to announce the blessings on Mount Gerizim {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} and the curses on Mount Ebal. 30As you know, these mountains are west of the Jordan River near the great oak tree of Moreh where the Canaanites live near Gilgal. 31You will soon cross the Jordan River and conquer the land the LORD your God is giving you. {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} When you have settled there, {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³²be sure you obey the commands and laws the Lord is giving you today." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, You chose the land of promise for Israel, and it was just dirt, rocks, and trees. But how greater is Your choice of me and Your care for me. The land of promise was just a place You loved, but I am Your redeemed born-again child. I love You and will serve You with all my heart. I worship You for Your greatness of care that You extend to someone lowly as me. Amen.

Deuteronomy 12 The One Place for Worship

1"These are the commands and laws you must obey in the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, is giving you. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²After you capture the land, destroy all the places where the nations worship their gods, including those on mountaintops, on hills, and under large trees. ³Tear down these altars, smash their sacred stones, and burn the poles involved in their worshiping the goddess Asherah. Destroy these idols and even rename those places. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ⁴Don't worship the LORD your God the way these people worship their gods.

5"When you are in the land, you are not to worship the LORD anywhere you choose, as the nations do. Instead He will choose the place for His tabernacle. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} And you are to 6bring your offerings and sacrifices, tithes, and gifts, offerings to fulfill a vow, freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your cattle, sheep, and goats. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 7There you and your families will eat your sacrifices and rejoice in all the LORD has done for you. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7}

8-9"You now do as you please, but things will be different when you arrive in the place of rest the LORD your God will give you. ¹⁰When you cross the Jordan and settle in the land, {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} the LORD will give you rest and you will be safe. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹¹Bring your burnt offering, sacrifice, tithes, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} and other gifts to the place the LORD your God will choose. {69 Church-Praying, Matt. 16:18} ¹²Rejoice there with your families, servants, and the Levites, who, as you know, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} will have no tribal land of their own. 13 You are not to sacrifice your burnt offerings {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} anywhere you choose. 14You are to offer them only at the place the LORD will choose. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁵"However, you may kill an animal for food anywhere you choose, just as you do when hunting gazelles or deer. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} And anyone can eat the meat, whether he is ceremonially clean or unclean. 16But do not eat the blood; drain it out on the ground. 17You are not to eat in your hometowns any of your offerings including the tithe of your grain, grapes, and olive oil; the firstborn of your cattle, sheep, or goats; or anything you have vowed to give to the Lord, or freewill offerings, or special gifts. 18 Instead eat them before the LORD at the place He will choose for you, your families, servants, and Levites. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} And rejoice in everything you do. 19 And don't forget the Levites.

²⁰"When the LORD your God gives you more land, and you would like some meat to eat, you may eat as much as you want. ²¹But some of you may not be able to travel from your homes to the tabernacle. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} So when you need meat, you may butcher some of your cattle, sheep, or goats in your towns and eat as much as you want. ²²This is the same as eating meat from gazelles or deer that you hunt, and it can be eaten by the ceremonially clean or unclean. ²³But don't eat the blood because it is the animal's life. ²⁴Drain out the blood on the ground. ²⁵Don't eat the blood so that all will go well with you and your children. In this way you will be doing what pleases the LORD your God. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²⁶ Take your sacrifices and offerings to fulfill a vow to the place the LORD will choose. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²⁷When you sacrifice the meat and blood of your burnt offerings on the altar of burnt offering, you may eat the meat, but be sure to drain out the blood beside the altar. ²⁸Obey these laws, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and as I said, all will go well with you and your children, and you will be doing what the LORD your God says is good and right. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} 29When the LORD your God destroys these nations and you settle in the land, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 30don't be trapped into following their gods. And don't think, 'We should worship the same way they worship their gods' 31Don't do that. Why? Because they worship their gods in terrible ways that I hate, even burning their sons and daughters to their gods. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} 32Obey all that I command you. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Don't add any or subtract any."

Lord, today I go to meet You, to Your place, the church. I will tithe to You. Lord, I will fellowship with You in my church. Lord, I commit myself to worship in Your special place. Amen.

Deuteronomy 13 Worship the One True God

1"If someone claims to tell by dreams what will happen in the future or says he has performed a miracle, ²and the miracle takes place and he says, 'Let's worship these other gods, 3don't listen to him. The LORD is checking to see if you love Him wholeheartedly. {516 Victory over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12} 4Follow and reverence the LORD your God. Obey His commands serve Him, and cling to him. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 5Put that dreamer to death. Why? Because he tried to get you to rebel against the LORD your God, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} the one who brought you out of slavery in Egypt and to keep you from following Him." {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6}

Lord, I will reject anyone who pulls me away from You. Amen.

6"Suppose a close relative or friend says, 'Let's worship their other gods' 7(gods of nations around you), 8don't give in and don't pity him or protect him. {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} 9Stone him to death, ¹⁰and if you are the one he tried to influence, then you be the first to throw a stone followed by other Israelites. He deserves to be stoned because he tried to turn you from the LORD your God, who rescued you from slavery in Egypt. ¹¹When the people hear of this, they will be afraid, and this will keep everyone from ever doing such a terrible thing again.

¹²"Suppose you hear a rumor ¹³that some wicked men are in one of your towns encouraging the people there to worship other gods. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} 14You are to see if that rumor is true. And if it is true, 15then you are to kill everyone in that town and all their livestock. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} 16Pile all the loot in the town square, and burn the loot and the town itself as a burnt offering to the LORD your God. And don't ever rebuild the town, ¹⁷ and don't keep any of the loot for yourselves. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Then the LORD will no longer be angry. He will be merciful and compassionate, and make you a great nation, as He promised your ancestors. ¹⁸But this will depend on your obeying all the commands the LORD your God is giving you today and your doing what is right." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, I put to death all evil lust within my life. I will not tolerate anything that You hate. Amen.

Deuteronomy 14 Clean and Unclean Foods

¹"You are God's children, so don't cut yourselves (as people in other nations do when they worship their gods), or shave your foreheads when you mourn the dead. ²That's because you are holy to the LORD your God, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} and of all the nations He has chosen you to be His special people. ³Don't eat any animal that is unclean. ⁴But you may eat the meat of cattle, goats, 5deer, gazelles, roebucks, wild goats, ibex goats, antelopes, and mountain sheep. You may eat meat of any animal that has split hooves and chews the cud. You are not to eat the meat of camels, rabbits, or rock badgers, because they chew the cud but don't have split hooves. They are ceremonially unclean. 8And don't eat pigs; they have split hooves, but they don't chew the cud. In fact, don't even touch a dead pig. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

9"You may eat any fish that has fins and scales. ¹⁰But you are not to eat any other water creatures that don't have fins and scales. ¹¹"You may eat any clean bird. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ¹²But you are not to eat the meat of any of these: eagles, vultures, ¹³kites, falcons, ¹⁴ravens, ¹⁵horned owls and screech owls, gulls, hawks, ¹⁶little, big, and white owls, ¹⁷desert owls, osprey, cormorants, ¹⁸storks, herons, hoopoes, and bats. ¹⁹You are not to eat any flying insects, ²⁰but you may eat certain kinds of winged insects.

²¹"You are not to eat any dead animal you find. You may give it to a foreign resident and he may eat it, or you may give it to a foreigner who is visiting you. But you are a people set apart to the LORD your God. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} Don't boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

²²"Every year set aside a tenth of all your crops. ²³Also bring a tenth of your grain, grapes, and olive oil, and the firstborn of your cattle, sheep, and goats to the place the Lord will choose for His tabernacle. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} You may eat these there, and this will help you learn to respect the LORD your God. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ²⁴But if the tabernacle is too far away from where you live and you can't take all your tithe there, ²⁵then sell your tithe and take the money to the tabernacle. ²⁶There you may buy cattle, sheep, fermented drinks, and feast in the LORD's presence with joy. ²⁷Let the Levites celebrate with you, since they have no tribal territory of their own. ²⁸Every third year store your tithe of that year's produce in your towns. ²⁹That way food will be available for foreigners, orphans, and widows in your towns. Then the LORD your God will be pleased and will bless you." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

Lord, You own everything because You've created all things, yet You allow us to possess things and even own things. Then You allow me to give back to You some of the belongings I own. Accept my gifts to You and use them for Your glory. Amen.

Deuteronomy 15 Forgive Debtors Every Seven Years

1"As the end of every seven years, you must cancel your debts. ²Every creditor is to tell his fellow Israelites that the debt is canceled and no more payment is to be made on the loan. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ³However, this does not apply to foreigners with a debt. 4No one will become poor because of this, because the LORD your God will bless you in the land {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 5if you obey Him and follow His commands that I'm giving you today. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Because of His blessings you will make loans to other nations but you won't have to borrow from any of them. Also you will rule over many nations, but none of them will rule over you." {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

Lord, I will use my money and resources for Your influence. Amen.

7"If there is a poor Israelite in any of the towns in the land the LORD your God is giving you, don't be uncaring and selfish with your money. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} 8Instead be generous and lend him whatever he needs. 9Don't think, 'Well, the seventh year is coming soon, so if I loan him something now, I won't get it back.' If you loan him nothing, he may tell this to the LORD, and He may say you are guilty. 10Give him a generous loan without complaining about it. Then the LORD your God will bless you and give you success in everything you do. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ¹¹Since some of your Israelites will always be poor, be generous toward them.

12"If you buy an Israelite as a servant, you are to set him free after six years. 13Don't send him away empty handed; 14give him sheep and goats and grain and wine. The more the Lord has blessed you, the more you should give to him. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ¹⁵Don't forget that you were slaves in Egypt, and the Lord rescued you. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁶But if your servant says he doesn't want to leave you because he loves you and your family and enjoys being with you, {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹⁷then push a sharp tool through one of his earlobes. He will then belong to you the rest of his life. Do the same for female servants. 18Don't complain when you set a servant free. After all, you got his service for half the cost of hiring someone. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

¹⁹"Give to the LORD your God {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} every firstborn male cow, sheep, or goat. Don't work the firstborn cattle in your fields and don't shear your firstborn sheep. ²⁰Each year you are to take these firstborn animals to the tabernacle, and you and your family are to sacrifice them there and eat the meat from them. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²¹But if an animal is lame or blind or has some other defect, you are not to sacrifice it to the LORD your God. ²²Instead you are to eat it at home. Anyone may eat it whether he is ceremonially clean or unclean, just as anyone may eat a gazelle or deer killed in your hunting. ²³But be sure never to eat the blood; drain it out on the ground." {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22}

Lord, I want to be Your servant; I never want to leave You. I'll be Your servant forever. Amen.

Deuteronomy 16 Three Festivals Each Year

¹"Celebrate the Passover of the LORD your God in the month of April, the month that the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt at night. ²Sacrifice to Him a cow, sheep, or goat at the place where He will choose to be worshiped. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³Eat it with bread without yeast, and eat that kind of bread for seven days, as you did when you left Egypt in a hurry. Eat this bread—the bread of suffering—{465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} because you left Egypt in a hurry. 4Don't have any yeast in your house for seven days, and don't leave any leftovers till morning. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

5"Don't sacrifice the Passover in any town where you live. 6It must be offered and in the place the LORD your God will choose to be worshiped. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} Kill the sacrificial animal at sunset, at the time of day you left Egypt. 7Roast the lamb, and eat it and then return to your tents in the morning. 8Eat bread without yeast for six days. Then on the seventh day meet together to worship the LORD your God, and don't do any work. 9"Seven weeks after the beginning of your grain harvest, 10 celebrate the Harvest Festival by giving a freewill offering, with the size depending on the size of the harvest the LORD has given you. 11 Make this a time of joy with your family, {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} your servants, the Levites in your towns, foreign residents, orphans, and widows. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} 12Obey these laws, remembering that you were slaves in Egypt. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹³"At the end of the harvest season celebrate the Festival of Shelters for a week. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} 14This too is to be a joyful time, with the same people who were with you for the Harvest Festival. 15 This festival is to be for a week at the tabernacle, to be located at the place the LORD will choose. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} You will have good harvests, and this will give you much joy. ¹⁶"Three times every year each man is to go to the tabernacle at the place the Lord will choose for the Festival of Bread without Yeast, the Harvest Festival, and the Festival of Shelters with a gift to the LORD. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁷The size of the gift is to depend on the way the LORD your God has blessed you. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

¹⁸"In every town in the land the LORD your God is giving you appoint judges and officials for each of your tribes, who are to judge fairly. {66 Church Leader-ship-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} ¹⁹They must never twist justice or be partial. And they must not accept bribes, because bribes can keep wise people from seeing the truth and can wrongly influence their decisions. ²⁰To live and enjoy the land the LORD your God is giving you, be sure you always treat everyone with justice. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

²¹"When you build the altar of burnt offering for the LORD your God, never set up next to it a wooden pole dedicated to the goddess Asherah, ²²and don't set up a sacred stone, because the LORD your God hates these." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

Lord, may I never forget Your suffering at Passover that brought me to this hour. Thank You for Pentecost when the Holy Spirit came. Lord, thank You for Your harvest in my life. Amen.

Deuteronomy 17 Judgment of Evil and Rules for the King

¹"Don't sacrifice to the LORD your God any cow or sheep with a physical defect because He despises such offerings. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²If someone sins before the LORD your God {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ³by worshiping other gods and bowing down to them or to the sun, moon, or stars, ⁴you must see if this is true. If it has been proved that this terrible thing has been done in Israel, 5then take that person to the city gate and stone him to death, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 6but only if two or three witnesses confirm his guilt. 7The witnesses must be the first ones to throw stones. In this way you will help get rid of evil among your people." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Lord, I will be harsh with sin in my life because You do not tolerate evil of any kind.

Amen.

8"In some legal cases it may be difficult to know if someone is guilty or not, to know if he is guilty of murder or manslaughter, or an injury intentionally or not. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 9Take the problem to the Levites and to the judge who is in office at the time, and he will decide the case. ¹⁰Then follow their decision, doing whatever they tell you to do. 11 Carry out the verdict they give you, and don't change it in any way. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 12If the defendant shows disrespect for the judge's decision or the priest, he must be put to death. In this way you will help get rid of evil among your people. 13When the people hear about this, they will be afraid and won't challenge the court's decision again.

¹⁴"When you are settled in the land and you say you want a king as other nations have, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁵be sure to appoint the man the LORD your God chooses. He must be an Israelite, not a foreign resident. ¹⁶Also the king is not to have many horses, and he must not send people back to Egypt to get horses. The LORD has told you never to go back there again. ¹⁷Also the king is not to have many wives, because they will lead him away from the Lord. And he must not become unusually rich with silver and gold. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

18"When the man becomes a king, he is to go to the priests and write for himself a copy of the law, ¹⁹and he is to read from it every day. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} This will help him reverence the LORD his God {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} and follow carefully all these laws and commands. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁰The law will keep him from thinking he is better than everyone else, and it will keep him from turning away from the law in even the smallest way. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Then he and his descendants will reign over Israel for many years."

Lord, I will hold the Scriptures in my heart and obey them constantly. Amen.

Deuteronomy 18 A Share Given to the Priests and Levites

¹"Since Levites, including the priests, are to have no tribal territory, they are to eat from the sacrifices brought by the people to the LORD, for that is their inheritance. ²They are to have no tribal territory of their own, because the LORD Himself is their inheritance as He promised. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

³"When you sacrifice a bull or a sheep, the priests are to receive the animal's shoulder, jaws, and stomach. ⁴You are also to give the priests the first part of your grain, wine, and olive oil, and the first wool you shear from your sheep. ⁵This is because the LORD your God has chosen them and their descendants from all your tribes to serve Him always. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

6"If a Levite moves from his hometown to the place where the tabernacle will be set up, ⁷he may serve his fellow Levites in representing the LORD his God. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁸He may have received money from the sale of family belongings, but he should still receive the same amount of food from the sacrifices as other Levites." {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14}

Lord, thank You for ministers today. I will take care of Your servants. Amen.

⁹"When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, don't copy the horrible customs of the nations there. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ¹⁰Don't any of you sacrifice your son or daughter in fire, or practice fortune-telling or witchcraft, or interpret omens, ¹¹or cast spells, or be a medium pretending to contact the dead, or a psychic pretending to tell the future or to talk with the dead. {422 Satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} ¹²Anyone who does any of these is disgusting to the Lord, and that is why He will help you destroy these nations. ¹³By contrast you must be completely blameless before the LORD. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ¹⁴The nations you are about to displace practice magic and witchcraft, but the LORD your God will not allow you to do such things." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Lord, I will flee all dark, evil practices. Amen.

15"The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet from among you who will be like me, and you must listen to him and obey him. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹⁶Remember that at Mount Horeb (Sinai) you said you didn't want to hear the voice of the LORD your God or see the terrible fire again or you would die. ¹⁷Then the LORD said to me, 'Okay, when I want to speak to them, I will choose one of you to be a prophet. ¹⁸I will tell him what to say, and he will tell you what I said. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ¹⁹If anyone doesn't listen to the prophet he will have to deal with Me. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁰And if a prophet claims to give a message from Me, but I didn't give it, or if he claims to have a message from another god, he must be put to death. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²¹'But how will you know if a message is from Me? ²²If what he says will happen does not occur, that message is not from Me. He has made up the message. So you don't need to be afraid of him."

Lord, I will believe only those who speak for You if they speak exactly what the Scriptures say. Amen.

Deuteronomy 19 The Towns of Refuge

¹"After the LORD your God has destroyed the nations {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} in the land He is giving you and you are settled in, ²choose three towns as Towns of Refuge. ³Divide the land into three districts with a Town of Refuge in the center of each district, with roads leading to each town. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

4"This is the rule to follow if a person kills someone unintentionally without any previous hatred toward him, and runs to a Town of Refuge for safety. 5For example suppose a man goes into a forest with a friend to cut wood, and as he swings his ax the ax head comes off the handle and hits his friend and kills him. He may run to one of these three towns and be safe. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} If the distance to the town is not too great, a relative of the dead man might catch up with the innocent 'murderer' and kill him. ⁷That's why it's important to have these Towns of Refuge. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} 8If the LORD your God expands your territory as He promised to your ancestors, and gives you this land, 9then set aside three more Towns of Refuge. (Of course this depends on your obeying His commands and loving Him and following Him.) {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ¹⁰This will help keep innocent people from being killed in your land and keep you from being guilty of murder.

¹¹"But if someone hates his neighbor and attacks and kills him, and then he runs to a Town of Refuge, ¹²the leaders of his hometown are to take him back home and hand him over to a relative of the victim, who will put him to death. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ¹³Don't show any mercy for the murderer. Getting rid of anyone who murders an innocent person is for the good of your nation.

¹⁴"Your ancestors set up stones to mark the boundaries of properties in the land the LORD your God will give you. So don't move these stones.

¹⁵"Never convict someone of a crime based on the words of one witness. Guilt or innocence must be determined by two or three witnesses.

¹⁶"If a false witness accuses a man of a crime, ¹⁷both men are to face the priests and judges in the Lord's presence. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁸The judges are to see if the witness is lying. If he is lying, 19 punish him the way he wanted the man to be punished. This will be for the good of your nation. ²⁰In fact when people hear that this is what happens to witnesses who lie, they will never again lie in court. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ²¹Don't show any pity for the liar. His punishment will be taking his life if he took someone else's life, a gouging out one of his eyes if he gouged out someone's eye, or a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot." {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

Lord, I have a city of refuge for when I sin unintentionally, it is Jesus Christ. Amen.

Deuteronomy 20 How to Make War

1"When you go to war and you see horses and chariots with an army bigger than yours, don't be afraid. The LORD your God, {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} who brought you out of Egypt, will be with you. ²Before you go into battle, the priest is to speak to the soldiers. ³He will say, 'Listen to me. As you go into battle today, don't be discouraged or afraid, and don't panic when you see them. ⁴The LORD your God will go with you, will fight for you, and will give you victory.' {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

5"The officers will tell the soldiers, 'Has anyone just built a house and hasn't dedicated it? You may go home, because if you die in battle, someone else will dedicate it. ⁶Has anyone planted a vineyard and not yet eaten any grapes from it? You may go home, because if you die in battle, someone else will enjoy your grapes. ⁷Has anyone become engaged but isn't yet married? You may go home, because if you die in battle someone else will marry her. ⁸If you are afraid or terrified, you may go home, so you won't discourage the other soldiers.' ⁹When the officers finish giving these words, they are to appoint unit commanders. {464 Striving-Prayer, Rom. 15:30}

10"As you come to a town to attack it, first offer peace to the people there. 11 If they accept your offer, they are to open their gates and to become your servants. 12But if they reject your offer and fight against you, attack the town. 13The LORD your God will help you capture the town, and you are to kill all the men there. ¹⁴Take the women, children, livestock, and everything of value for yourselves. ¹⁵This is how you are to treat all the towns at a distance from you, towns not in the land the LORD your God is giving you. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁶But in the towns you are receiving as an inheritance from the LORD your God, kill every living being. ¹⁷Completely destroy the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, as the LORD your God has told you to do. 18 If you don't, they will influence you to worship their detestable gods, and you will be sinning against the LORD your God. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6}

¹⁹"When you attack a town and the battle continues on don't chop down its fruit trees. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} The townspeople aren't your enemies. ²⁰But you may cut down trees that aren't fruit trees. You may use wood from those trees to build equipment you need to capture the town."

Lord, thank You for spiritual victory in Christ. I will completely separate myself from sin and defilement. Amen.

Deuteronomy 21 Unsolved Murders

¹"Suppose the body of a murder victim is found in a field in the land the LORD your God gave you, and you don't know who the murderer is. ²Leaders and judges in the town near the body are to find out which town is closest to the body. ³Then the leaders of the closest town are to take a heifer that has never been put to work or worn a yoke, ⁴and they and the priests are to take her to a valley where there is a stream where the land hasn't been plowed. There they are to break the heifer's neck. ⁵(The priests are those whom the LORD your God has chosen to be His servants, to pronounce blessings, and to settle legal cases.) The town leaders are to wash their hands over the cow's dead body ⁷and say, 'We did not commit this murder, and we don't know who did. 8Lord, please accept this heifer as a substitute payment for sin for your people, and don't hold your people guilty of this crime.' {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} 9If you do this, following the LORD's orders, you will be forgiven of the alleged crime and not be guilty.

10"When you go to war and the LORD your God helps you defeat an enemy, ¹¹one of the prisoners you take may be a beautiful woman whom you want to marry. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹²Bring her home, have her shave her head and trim her nails, ¹³and get rid of the clothes she wore as a foreigner. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} After she has mourned for her parents for a month, {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} then you may marry her. ¹⁴Later, if you are not pleased with her, you may divorce her and let her go free. You may not sell her or treat her as a slave because you have humiliated her.

¹⁵"Suppose a man has two wives and he loves one more than the other. ¹⁶If both wives have sons, then the firstborn of the son of the wife he loves less is to receive a double share of the father's property. ¹⁷This is because he is the firstborn son.

¹⁸"Suppose parents have a stubborn and rebellious son who refuses to obey even after he has been punished. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁹His parents are to take him to the elders at the town gate ²⁰and tell the elders, 'This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious, doesn't obey us, and is a wicked drunkard.' ²¹Then all the men of the town are to stone the son to death. Getting rid of him will be for the good of the nation, because when your people hear about this, they will be afraid. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

²²"If a criminal is executed and you hang his body on a tree, ²³don't leave it there overnight. Bury it the same day, because any dead body is under God's curse. Don't make unclean the land the LORD your God is giving you as your inheritance."

Lord, Jesus became guilty of all the sins of Israel, in fact the sins of all the world. He was hanged on a tree (cross) for me. Thank You for forgiveness. Amen.

Deuteronomy 22 Miscellaneous Instructions

¹"If you see a cow or sheep wandering around lost, take it back to its owner. ²If the owner lives far away, or if you don't know who the owner is, take the animal with you and care for it. Then when the owner comes looking for it, give it to him. ³Do the same if you find someone's donkey or his clothing or anything he loses. Don't pretend you don't have them. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

⁴"If you see someone's donkey or ox fallen on the road, don't ignore it. Help it get back on its feet.

5"A woman is not to wear men's clothing, and a man is not to wear women's clothing. The LORD your God hates anyone who does this.

⁶"If you see a bird's nest in a tree or on the ground, and the mother bird is in the nest with her eggs or baby birds, ⁷you may take the eggs and the young, but let the mother go free. The Lord will bless you, and you will have a long life.

8"If you build a house, put a railing around the flat roof. This will keep you from being guilty if someone falls off the roof and dies. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

9"If you plant a vineyard, don't plant any other crops with it. If you do, the grapes and other crops will be ruined. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ¹⁰Don't plow with an ox and a donkey hitched together. ¹¹Don't make clothes of wool and linen together. ¹²Sow tassles on the four corners of your cloaks.

¹³"Suppose a man marries a woman and then after sleeping with her doesn't like her,

Lord, You expect us to have "common sense." Help me learn as much as I can, about living practically and wisely. You gave me a good mind at birth help me live wisely and practically. Lord, there are so many ways to get hurt, or lose something or suffer an accident. Help me look out for myself and others. Amen.

14 and gives her a bad reputation by accusing her of not being a virgin when they married. 15 The bride's parents are to bring to the town's elders at the city gate proof that she was a virgin when she got married. 16 The girl's father is to say to them, 'I gave my daughter to be this man's wife, ¹⁷and now he hates her and is accusing her of not being a virgin. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} But here is proof that she was.' 18 The parents are to show them the sheet bed from their daughter's wedding night. ¹⁹Then the elders are to punish him and have him pay his father-in-law 100 silver pieces. And the man is not to divorce her.

²⁰"However, if the man was right and there is no proof that she was a virgin when she married, ²¹the men of the town are to stone her to death at the front door of her father's house. She has done a disgraceful thing by sleeping with someone before she got married. You must get rid of this evil from your nation. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²²"If a man is caught having sex with another man's wife, put to death both him and the woman. You must get rid of this evil from your nation too. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ²³⁻²⁴If a man is caught having sex with an engaged woman, stone to death both of them at the city gate. This is because she was in town and didn't scream for help and he violated another man's wife. You must get rid of this evil too. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁵"If a man raped an engaged woman out in the country, the man is to die. ²⁶Don't punish the woman because she has done nothing that deserves death. She is like being a murder victim, ²⁷because though she screamed no one heard her there in the country. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁸"If a man rapes a virgin who is not married and they are caught, ²⁹he is to pay her father 50 pieces of silver, and marry the girl and not divorce her as long as he lives. ³⁰"A man must not marry a woman who is already married to his father, for this would be a disgrace to his father."

Lord, there are many laws about having sex. I know You have commanded us to have sex only within marriage. Lord, I commit myself to be sexually pure, {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} and I pray for all my friends and relatives that they will make that same commitment. Amen.

Deuteronomy 23 Banned People

1"If a man's private parts are crushed or cut off in connection with pagan worship, he may not worship with the LORD's people. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ²No one born outside a legal marriage may worship with the LORD's people, nor may his descendants for ten generations. ³"No Ammonite or Moabite may worship with God's people, nor may his descendants for ten generations. 4They refused to give you food and water when you left Egypt. And they hired Balaam son of Beor in northern Syria to put a curse on you. ⁵However, because the LORD your God loves you, He refused to listen to Balaam and turned his curse into a blessing. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 6So don't sign a peace treaty with the Ammonites or Moabites or try to help them in any way. 7But don't hate the Edomites, because Edom is your relative. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} And don't hate Egyptians because you lived as foreigners in Egypt. 8Let the great-grandchildren of the Egyptians who came with 9"When you are encamped when at war with your enemies, stay away from everything impure. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ¹⁰For example if a man has a nocturnal emission at night, he is ceremonially unclean and is to go outside the camp and stay there during the day. ¹¹Late afternoon he is to take a bath, and at sunset he may return to the camp. ¹²Set up a place outside the camp as a toilet area. ¹³When you you worship with you.

relieve yourself, use a shovel to dig a hole, and bury the waste in the hole. ¹⁴Because the LORD your God is in your camp to protect you and help you defeat your enemies, keep your camp holy and clean. If He sees something indecent among you, He will turn away from you. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

¹⁵"If a slave escaped from his master and comes to you, don't force him to return. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ¹⁶Let him live in whatever town he chooses, and don't mistreat him. ¹⁷No Israelite man or woman is to become a temple prostitute. ¹⁸And don't bring to the tabernacle of the LORD your God any earnings from prostitutes or homosexuals even if it is to pay a vow, because the LORD your God despises them both. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

¹⁹⁴Don't charge interest on loans you make to another Israelite, whether it is money, food, or anything else. ²⁰You may charge a foreigner interest, but don't charge interest from a fellow Israelite so that the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do in the land you are about to take. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

²¹"If you promise to give a gift to the LORD your God, do it promptly. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} If you don't you will be guilty of sin. ²²However, it is not a sin not to make a vow. ²³But if you do choose to make a vow be careful to do as you have said in making the promise to the LORD your God.

²⁴"You may eat as many of your neighbor's grapes as you want, but don't take any away with you. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ²⁵It is the same with someone else's grain. You may pick some heads of grain, but don't cut down any grain with a sickle."

Lord, these practical instructions are based on Your wisdom. I will do to others as you would have them do to me. Lord, help me live wisely and practically with others. Amen.

Deuteronomy 24 Divorce and Other Matters

1"Suppose a man finds something disgraceful in his wife and he divorces her and sends her away. ²Then she marries another man ³and later he too divorces her or he dies. ⁴Then her first husband is not allowed to marry her again after she has had sex with her other husband. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} That would be disgusting to the LORD and would pollute the land the LORD your God is giving you.

5"If a man has been married less than a year, he must not be drafted into the army or given any related duties. He is to stay home and make his wife happy. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

6"When you loan money to someone, don't take a millstone of his as a guarantee that he will pay back the loan. That's because he needs millstones for grinding grain into flour to make bread. Without his millstones he may starve. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

7"Don't kidnap a fellow Israelite and treat him as a slave or sell him. If you do, you will die. Get rid of this sinful practice.

8"If someone has leprosy, he must do exactly what the priests tell him to do, following the instructions I have given them. Don't forget what the LORD your God did to Miriam after you left Egypt. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

10"When you loan something to a neighbor, don't go into his house to get a guarantee that he will pay you back. 11 Wait outside, and let him bring it to you. 12 If the man is poor, and the only thing he can give you as a guarantee of his repayment is his coat, don't keep it overnight. 13 Take it back to him before sunset, so he can sleep in it. He will thank you, and the LORD your God will see that you have done a good thing. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

¹⁴"Never take advantage of poor people you have hired to work for you, whether they are Israelites or foreign residents. ¹⁵Pay them their wages at the end of each day because they are poor and need the pay to survive. If you don't they will tell the Lord, and you will be guilty. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22}

¹⁶*Don't put parents to death for crimes their children committed, and don't put children to death for crimes their parents committed. Each person is to be put to death for his own sin, not someone else's. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁷Treat foreigners and orphans fairly. If you lend money to a widow, don't take her coat as a guarantee that she will pay you back. ¹⁸Don't forget that you were slaves in Egypt and that the LORD your God rescued you from there. You know what it was like to be treated badly there, so treat your widows fairly. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1}

19"When you are harvesting in your field and you forget to bring in a stack of harvested grain, don't go back for it. Leave it for foreign residents, orphans, and widows, so that the LORD your God will give you success in all you do. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} ²⁰And when you knock down olives from your olive trees, don't go back over the branches again. Leave the remaining olives for foreign residents, orphans, and widows. 21When you pick grapes from your vineyard, go over them only once and leave the rest for foreign residents, orphans, and widows. ²²Remember that you lived in poverty as slaves in Egypt, {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} and that's why the LORD your God is giving you these commands."

Lord, teach me the "sympathy side" of Your law. I want to treat everyone fairly. I want to obey Your law accurately. But I have a sinful nature that distorts the way things really are. Lord, I will be gracious to other needy people, so someone will be gracious to me. Amen.

Deuteronomy 25 Additional Laws

¹"If two men have a dispute and they go to court, the judges are to decide who is innocent and who is guilty. ²If the guilty man deserves a beating, the judge is to make him lie down and be beaten with the number of lashes his guilt deserves. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³But he is not to be given any more than 40 lashes, because that would humiliate him.

⁴"Don't put a muzzle on an ox while it is threshing grain. Let him be free to eat some of the grain.

5"If two brothers are living together, and one of them dies without a son, his widow must not marry outside the family. Instead she is to marry her brother-in-law. 6The first son she has with him is to carry on his dead brother's name. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 7But if the man does not want to marry his sister-in-law, she is to go to the town's elders and explain that he refuses to carry on his brother's name. 8Then the elders are to talk with him. If he doesn't change his mind, 9she is to take off one of his sandals, spit in his face, and say, 'This is what happens to a man who won't provide offspring for his dead brother.' 10From then on the man's family will be called 'The family of the man whose sandal was taken off."

¹¹"If two men are fighting, and the wife of one of them tries to rescue her husband by grabbing the other man's private parts, ¹²you are to cut off her hand, showing her no pity.

¹³"Don't have two different sets of weights, one that is heavy when you are buying things, and one that is light when you are selling things. ¹⁴And don't have two different measures, one that is large for buying, and one that is small for selling. ¹⁵If you use accurate weights and measures, you will live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you. ¹⁶He despises anyone who is dishonest. ¹⁷"Remember what the Amalekites did to you after you left Egypt. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ¹⁸They attacked your people who were tired and couldn't keep up with the others. Obviously they had no respect for God. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ¹⁹The LORD your God will give you rest in the land He is giving you. But don't forget to destroy the Amalekites completely."

Lord, thank You for telling us how to interpret the laws You've given to us. The way Moses interpreted these laws are a pattern of how to interpret them all. Lord, I want to keep all Your laws as best I can. Give me strength and wisdom to always do right. Give me mercy and grace when I fail. Amen.

Deuteronomy 26 Give God Your Best

1"When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you and have conquered it and settled down, {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} ²put the first crops of your harvest in a basket. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} Then go to the tabernacle at the place the LORD your God will choose. ³Tell the priest, 'I thank the LORD for bringing us to the land He promised to our ancestors.' ⁴The priest is to take the basket and place it in front of the altar of burnt offering. {120

Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1} 5 Then you are to say, 'My ancestor Jacob was a wandering Aramean, who went to live in Egypt with a few people. But they became a great and powerful nation with many people. ⁶The Egyptians were cruel to us, making us work hard. 7We prayed to the LORD, the God of our ancestors, {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} and He heard us and saw our hardship and troubles. ⁸He brought us out of Egypt with great power and strength. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} And He terrified the Egyptians with marvelous miracles. 9He brought us here to a land with lots of milk from cows and lots of honey from bees. ¹⁰And now I bring to You the first of the crops from the soil You, the LORD, have given me.' {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

"Place the basket before the LORD your God as you bow down before Him. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ¹¹Then you, the Levites, and foreign residents are to be glad for all the good things the LORD your God has given you and your family.

of your harvest to the Lord. Then every third year you are to give this 10 percent {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} to the Levites, foreign residents, orphans, and widows so they will have enough to eat. ¹³Then pray, 'I have given the 10 percent of my harvest to the Levites, foreign residents, orphans, and widows as You have commanded. I haven't forgotten any of Your commands. ¹⁴Nor have I eaten any of this tithe while I was in mourning, nor touched any of it when I was unclean, nor offered any of it as a sacrifice to the dead. I have fully obeyed Your commands, the LORD my God. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ¹⁵Now please look down from heaven, Your holy dwelling, and bless us Your people {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} and the land You promised to our ancestors, a land with lots of milk and honey.'

¹⁶"The LORD your God is commanding you today to obey these laws {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and commands with all your heart and soul. ¹⁷You have said you will follow the LORD, obey His laws, commands, and regulations. ¹⁸And He has said today that you are His people, His special treasure, as He promised. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁹He will make you greater than any other nation, and you will receive praise, fame, and honor above them all. And you will be set apart to the LORD your God as He promised." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

Lord, I was a sinner lost in my sin. Jesus died for me to forgive every charge against me. Jesus brought me into a new transformed life. Now I give to You, Lord, a portion of what You have allowed me to earn. Amen.

Deuteronomy 27 The Altar at Mount Ebal

¹Moses and Israel's elders told the people, "Keep all these commands I am giving you today. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²When you cross the Jordan River into the land the LORD your God is giving you, set up some large stones, cover them with white plaster. ³Write on them these laws when you have crossed into the land with lots of milk and honey. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} 4Set the stones on Mount Ebal, 5 and build an altar of stones to the LORD your God. Don't use any iron tools on the stone; use only uncut stones. 6And on this altar offer burnt offerings to the LORD your God. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 7Also offer fellowship offerings there and eat the meat with joy in the presence of the LORD your God. 8Write all the words of this law clearly on the stone."

⁹Then Moses and the priests said to Israel, "Be quiet and listen. Today you have become the people of the LORD your God, so {436 Silent-Prayer, Ps. 39:1-3} ¹⁰obey Him and follow His laws and commands." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹¹That same day Moses told the people, 12"After you have crossed the Jordan, go to Mount Gerizim and Mount Ebal. Have the tribes of Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Ephraim, West Manasseh, and Benjamin go up on Mount Gerizim and bless the people. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV 3Then have the tribes of Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali go up on Mount Ebal, and pronounce the following curses. ¹⁴The Levites are to shout these curses to the people. 15'Cursed is anyone who makes an idol from wood or metal which the LORD hates, and worships it, even secretly. ¹⁶Cursed is anyone who disrespects his parents. ¹⁷Cursed is anyone who moves his neighbor's boundary stones to extend his own territory. ¹⁸Cursed is anyone who leads a blind person in the wrong direction. 19Cursed is anyone who is unjust to a foreign resident, an orphan, or a widow. ²⁰Cursed is anyone who has sex with his father's wife, for this man shows no respect for his father's marriage. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ²¹Cursed is anyone who has sex with an animal. ²²Cursed is anyone who has sex with his sister, or half-sister. ²³Cursed is anyone who has sex with his motherin-law. ²⁴Cursed is anyone who murders someone in secret. ²⁵Cursed is anyone who accepts money to murder an innocent person. ²⁶Cursed is anyone who refuses to obey these laws." {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} To each of these curses the people are to say, "Amen."

Lord, it does me good to repeat Your prohibitions, because I will never forget them, or carelessly do them. Lord, keep me from outwardly sinning against You, and keep me from secret sin. Amen.

Deuteronomy 28 The Blessings for Being Obedient

1"If you fully obey the LORD your God and carefully keep all His commands, {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} He will make you the greatest nation in the world. ²The following blessings will be yours if you obey the LORD your God. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³He will make you successful whether you live in a town or in the country. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ⁴You will have many children, {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} and abundant crops, and your cattle and sheep will have many calves and lambs. ⁵You will have much fruit and plenty of bread to eat. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ⁶You will be blessed wherever you go, when you come in and when you go out. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4}

7"The LORD will defeat your enemies. {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} They may come at you in one direction, but they will run from you in seven directions. 8The LORD will fill your barns with large crops, and He will prosper you in everything you do. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} 9The LORD will set you apart as His special people, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} if you obey His commands and follow Him. ¹⁰Everyone will see that you belong to the LORD and they will be afraid of you. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} ¹¹He will prosper you with many children, animals, and crops in the land He promised to your ancestors. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

¹²"He will open His storehouse of clouds to give you plenty of rain at the right time {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} and to give you success in everything. You will have plenty of goods to lend to other nations, but you won't need to borrow any. ¹³The LORD will make you a leader among nations and not a follower, if you obey the commands of the LORD your

God and follow them carefully. You will always be powerful, not weak. ¹⁴But this means you must not turn aside from His commands and must not worship and serve other gods. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

¹⁵"If you don't obey the LORD your God and follow His laws and commands, these curses may come on you: {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁶You will be cursed whether you live in the city or the country. ¹⁷You will have very little food. ¹⁸Your children will be few, your crops will not be large, and your cows and sheep won't have many calves and lambs. 19You will be cursed whether you are coming or going. ²⁰You will be confused and frustrated in everything you try to do, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and you will suddenly perish because of your sin in rejecting the Lord. 21 The LORD will send terrible diseases on you which will cause all of you to die. ²²Diseases will cause you to lose weight, and you will have burning fevers and swelling. Your land will have terrible heat and drought, with diseases and mildew on your plants, all of which will lead to your deaths. ²³The sky above you will give no rain, and it will seem hard as bronze, and the ground beneath you will be dry, and as hard as iron. ²⁴Instead of rain you will have dust storms and sandstorms, and they will ruin your crops. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁵"Your enemies will defeat you. You may attack them in one direction, but you will run from them in seven directions. Other nations will be horrified at what is happening to you. ²⁶When birds and animals eat your carcasses, no one will scare them away. ²⁷The LORD will give you boils, tumors, running sores, and itching, with no cures just as he did to the Egyptians. ²⁸You will become insane and blind and confused. ²⁹In bright sunshine you will grope like a blind person in the dark. You will fail in everything you try to do. Every day you will face troubles and be robbed, with no one to help you. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³⁰"You will be engaged, but before you are married, someone will rape your fiancé. You will build a house, but you won't get to live in it. If you plant a vineyard, you won't be around later to eat some grapes. ³¹Your ox will be slaughtered by someone while you watch, but you won't eat any of it. Someone will steal your donkey, and you won't get it back. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and no one will help you get them back. 32Your own children will be taken captive to a foreign country while you look on, unable to do anything. 33Foreigners you haven't even heard of will eat what you worked hard to produce, and you will have only trouble the rest of your life. ³⁴Seeing tragedies all around you will cause you to go insane. ³⁵You will have painful, incurable boils on your legs and knees. And they will even cover your entire body. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³⁶"The LORD will let you and your king be taken captives to a nation you don't even know. There you will worship idols of wood and stone. ³⁷Nations will be horrified when they see you, and they will make fun of you.

³⁸"When you plant a lot of seeds, you will have only a small harvest, because locusts will eat your crops. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁹When you plant vineyards, you won't have any grapes or make any wine, because worms will eat the grapes. ⁴⁰You will have many olive trees in the land, but you won't have any olive oil, because unripe olives will fall off. ⁴¹You won't even be able to keep your own children, because they will be taken away as captives. ⁴²Locusts will strip your trees of their leaves and eat all your crops. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴³"Foreign residents will become wealthy while you become poor. ⁴⁴You will be so poor you will have to borrow from them. They will be leaders, and you will be followers.

⁴⁵"These problems will overtake you and destroy you if you do not obey the LORD your God {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and keep His commands and regulations. ⁴⁶These will be warnings to you and your descendants. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴⁷If you don't serve the LORD your God with joy when He prospers you, {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 48then you will serve your enemies and you will experience hunger, thirst, and poverty and have nothing to wear. Your enemies will work you so hard it will be like having an animal's iron yoke around your neck until you are destroyed. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴⁹"The LORD will cause a nation that speaks a different language to attack you like an eagle swooping on its prey. ⁵⁰These fierce-looking people will have no respect for elderly people or pity for children. ⁵¹They will take your calves and lambs and your crops, and leave you with no grain, grapes, or olive oil. 52 You may feel safe in your cities but they will attack you and tear down your high city walls. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 53During these attacks you will get so hungry you will eat your own sons and daughters whom the LORD your God gave you. 54-55Because of his hunger even a gentle, kind man will eat his own children and will refuse to give any of the meal to his own brother or wife or children. 56-57 The most tender woman who lives in such luxury she doesn't have to put her feet to the ground to do any work, will secretly eat her own newborn children and the afterbirth and not share any with her husband or other children. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁵⁸"If you can't carefully follow all these words and if you don't reverence the LORD your God, {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ⁵⁹He will send on you and your descendants awful disasters and serious prolonged disease. ⁶⁰Even the diseases you feared in Egypt will stay with you.

61"The LORD may bring on you other kinds of illnesses and disasters not even mentioned here until they destroy you. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 62 Though you were as numerous as the stars, only a few of you will survive. 63 The LORD was pleased to prosper you and help your nation grow, {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} but it will also please Him to destroy you and pull you up by the roots from the land you are entering. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁶⁴"The LORD will scatter you among the nations far and wide. There you will worship idols of wood and stone that neither you nor your ancestors have known. 65In those nations you will have no rest. You will be filled with anxiety, with eyes longing for home, and a heart of despair. 66You will live in constant fear, all day and night. ⁶⁷Every morning you will wish it were evening, and every evening you will wish it were morning, all because of the terrible things you will see. 68 The LORD will send you back to Egypt even though He said He would never send you there again. There you will try to sell yourselves as slaves, but no one will even want to buy you." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, I tremble at the curses You promised to Your people Israel. Lord, You kept these promises when You sent Nebuchadnezzar to destroy the Promised Land and take Israel captive to Babylon. Lord, You did it again when Your people rejected Jesus as their Messiah. It is a terrible fate, but You warned the Jews to worship You only. Lord, one day "all Israel will be saved," and Your people will return to their land, to live happily with You. May I learn from Israel's disobedience, and always obey and worship only You. Amen.

Deuteronomy 29 The Covenant Renewal

¹These are the words of agreement Moses told the Israelites in Moab, in addition to the agreement the LORD made with them at Mount Horeb (Sinai). {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} 2 Then Moses called the people together and said, "In Egypt you saw everything the LORD did there to Pharaoh, his officials, and the land, 3including His great trials, miracles, and amazing wonders. 4Yet even now after 40 years you still don't understand. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} 5When He led you through the desert, your clothes and sandals didn't wear out. 6You ate no bread and drank no wine, but He gave you special food so you would realize He is the LORD your God. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} 7"When we camped here, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan attacked us, but we defeated them. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} 8We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh. 9Therefore obey the terms of this agreement {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} so that you will succeed in everything you do.

10"You are all standing here in the LORD's presence, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} including leaders, elders, officials, ¹¹parents and children, and foreign residents who cut wood and carry water for us. ¹²You are standing here today to enter into an agreement with the LORD your God, {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} an agreement He is confirming with an oath. ¹³This will confirm that you are His people and He is your God, {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} just as He promised to your ancestors, Abraham,

Isaac, and Jacob. ¹⁴He is making this agreement not only with you, {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹⁵but also with your descendants. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹⁶"You remember how we lived in Egypt, {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} and then as you traveled through the lands of enemy nations, ¹⁷you saw their awful idols of wood and stone, silver and gold. 18So be sure not one of you turns from the LORD our God to worship the idols of those nations. Be sure you don't become like a root of a plant that produces bitter, poisonous fruit. 19Don't think someone can go his own way and still expect the LORD to bless him. That will lead to your land being ruined; 20 His wrath will be against him. {509 Unpardonable-Sin Prayer, Matt. 12:30-32} In fact the curses of this book will be on him, and the LORD will remove him from Israel's tribes. 21 The Lord will focus on him, and bring on him the curses written in this book.

²²"Your descendants and foreign residents from distant lands will see the disasters and diseases the LORD has brought on your land. ²³The land will be a burning waste of salt and sulfur, where nothing is planted, nothing sprouts, and nothing grows. It will be like Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, which the LORD destroyed in His anger. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁴People in other nations will wonder why the LORD did this in His burning anger. ²⁵The answer they will receive is this: {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} 'This is because His people rejected the agreement the

LORD made with them when He brought them out of Egypt. ²⁶They worshiped gods they did not know. ²⁷And so the LORD was very angry with them and brought on them the curses recorded in this book. ²⁸In His anger the LORD pulled up Israel by the roots and threw them into another land, where they are today. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁹"Some secret things belong to the LORD our God, {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} but the things He has revealed belong to us and our children to obey forever." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, I will do all You show me. Amen.

Deuteronomy 30 God's Promise Remains Constant

¹"When all these blessings {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} and curses happen to you, you will think about them while you are in the nations where the LORD your God will send you into captivity. 2If you and your children then return to Him and obey Him with all your heart, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³then He will rescue you and bring you back from captivity with His love. He will restore you from the nations where you will be scattered. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} 4Even from the most remote countries ⁵He will bring you to this land of your ancestors and make you more successful and numerous than they were before. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

6"The LORD your God will make your hearts {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} and the hearts of your descendants fully devoted to Him so that you will love Him with all you heart and soul, and enjoy life. ⁷The LORD your God will place the curses on your enemies who hate you and persecute you. 8Then you will obey the LORD {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and His commands, 9and He will help you prosper in all you do and give you many children, and livestock, and abundant crops. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} He will be pleased to bless you in this way, just as He did for your ancestors. 10 But you must obey the LORD your God and all His laws and commands and turn to Him with all your heart and soul. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, I love You with my whole being. Amen.

¹¹"What God is telling you to do isn't impossible. ¹²Since His commands aren't in heaven, you can't say, 'Who will go to heaven and get them for us?' ¹³And since they aren't beyond the ocean, you can't say, 'Who will cross the ocean and get them for us?' ¹⁴No, His commands are close by, even in your mouth and heart, so you can easily obey them. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12}

¹⁵"You have a choice: You can choose life and prosperity or death and disaster. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹⁶If you love the LORD your God, {293

Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} follow Him, and obey His laws, commands, and regulations, then you will enjoy life and increase in numbers, {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} and the LORD your God will bless you in the land you will enter.

Lord, I want Your blessings. Amen.

¹⁷But if you reject Him and disobey him and you worship other gods, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁸you will be destroyed and you won't live long in the land. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ¹⁹"Heaven and earth know that God is giving you a choice between life and death, between being blessed and cursed. So choose life so you and your children can live, ²⁰and so you can love the LORD your God, {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} hear His voice, and be faithful to Him. He can give you life with many years in the land He promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

Lord, I choose life. Amen.

Deuteronomy 31 Joshua Becomes the New Leader

¹Moses said to the people, ²"I am now 120 years old, and I can no longer lead you. The LORD has told me I won't be able to cross the Jordan. {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} ³But He Himself will lead you across the river and destroy the nations there so that you can occupy the land. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} Joshua will lead across, ⁴and the LORD will destroy your enemies there just as he destroyed Sihon and Og, two Amorite Kings. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁵Do to them exactly what I told you to do. ⁶Be strong and brave, without any fear of them because the LORD your God is with you and will never leave you." {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

Lord, thank You for Your promises to me. Amen.

⁷Moses said to Joshua in front of all the people, "Be strong and brave {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} as you lead these people into the land and divide it among the tribes. ⁸The LORD will lead you and be with you {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} and will never leave you. So don't be afraid or discouraged."

Lord, thank You for leaders like Joshua. Amen.

⁹Moses wrote down all these laws and gave the copy to the priests. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} ¹⁰⁻¹¹Then Moses told the priests, "Every seven years, when you cancel people's debts, in the Festival of Shelters, you are to read these laws when the people assemble at the gate of the tabernacle. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹²Men, women, children, and foreign residents are to listen and respect the LORD your God {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and obey these laws carefully. ¹³Also when children in the future are born, they are to listen and respect the LORD your God {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} as long as they are in the land."

Lord, I will teach Your commands to children. Amen.

¹⁴Then the LORD said to Moses, "You will soon die, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} so bring Joshua to the tabernacle and I will appoint him as leader of the people." So Moses and Joshua went to the tabernacle. 15 The LORD appeared there in a heavy cloud over the tabernacle entrance, {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} 16 and He said to Moses, "You will soon die, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and these people will worship gods in the land where they are going, and they will break the agreement I made with them. ¹⁷I will become so angry that I will not answer their prayers, and they will be destroyed. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Terrible disasters will help them realize I am no longer with them. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 18I will ignore them because they will sin in worshiping gods."

Lord, I fear Your absence from my life. Amen.

¹⁹ Write the words of this song and teach it to the people as warning. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ²⁰When I bring them into the land of milk and honey that I promised to their ancestors, they will have plenty to eat, {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} but then they will worship other gods and reject Me and break My agreement. ²¹When they face terrible disasters, this song will remind them {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} and their descendants that these are because they have rejected Me. I know that they are inclined to turn from Me." ²²So Moses wrote down the words of the song and taught it to the people.

²³The Lord told Joshua, "Be strong and brave, {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} because you will lead the people into the land, and I will be with you."

Lord, be with me as You were with Moses and Joshua. Amen.

²⁴After Moses wrote down all these laws, ²⁵⁻²⁶he told the Levites to place them in the sacred chest. ²⁷Then he said, "I know how rebellious and stubborn you are. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} You have been rebellious while I am alive; so I'm concerned that you will be worse after I die. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁸So call together the tribal leaders so I can speak to them with heaven and earth as my witnesses. ²⁹After I die you will become corrupt and turn from the LORD. When you sin, you will face disaster, and I will be angry with you for making idols." ³⁰Moses taught the people the following words for a song. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

Deuteronomy 32 Moses' Song

¹"Listen, sky and earth to my words. ²My teaching will be as gentle as rain and as pleasant as dew.

³"I praise God for His greatness. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} ⁴He is like a firm rock, and all He does is right. He is faithful, He does no wrong, and He is just and fair. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15}

5"People have been dishonest, and instead of being like His obedient children, they are twisted and crooked in their ways. 6Foolish, unwise people treat the LORD unfairly. But He is their Father, the One who created them. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

7"Think about past generations. Your parents or elders will tell you. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ⁸When God gave land to each nation, dividing up the human race, {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ⁹He made Israel His people. ¹⁰"He found Israel in the barren desert, and cared for him and protected him like protecting His very eyes, {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹¹and like an eagle carrying its young on her wings. ¹²He alone did this without the help of any false god. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹³"God will help Israel capture the best of

¹³"God will help Israel capture the best of the land, and will give him crops, honey from rocks, and olive oil from trees growing in a cliff. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ¹⁴God will give Israel curds and milk from their herds and flocks, and meat from lambs and goats and rams in Bashan, along with the best wheat and grape juice.

15"Jeshurun (that is, Israel), grew fat and was bloated, and then rebelled against God. He left God his Creator and rejected God, who like a rock can give security and safety. ¹⁶God wanted Israel to worship only Him not foreign gods; their disgusting idols made Him angry. ¹⁷Israel even offered sacrifices to demons, {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} to gods his ancestors never knew. ¹⁸You turned from God who was strong like a rock and who created you, and you forgot Him.

¹⁹"Because Israel, God's children, rejected Him, He was angry. ²⁰He said, 'I won't listen to them. Why? Because they are wayward and unfaithful. ²¹I wanted them to worship only Me; their worthless idols made Me angry. Now in turn a cruel and foolish nation will make you envious and angry.

²²'My anger burns like a fire in the world of the dead, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} consuming crops and setting mountains on fire. ²³I will bring disasters on them, {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} striking them with arrows, ²⁴starvation, diseases, wild beasts, and poisonous snakes. ²⁵Children, young people, and older people will perish in the streets and their homes. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁶'I wanted to scatter them to other nations so no one would remember you. ²⁷But I didn't want your enemy to say they defeated you with no help from Me.

²⁸ Israel doesn't have good sense or understanding. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ²⁹ If they were wise, they would realize what would happen. ³⁰How could one enemy soldier chase 1,000 Israelites, or how could two soldiers pursue 10,000? Only if the Lord gives up on them. ³¹Even our enemies know their gods are not like God, our Rock. ³²They are like vines from Sodom and Gomorrah; their grapes are poisonous and bitter. ³³Their wine is like the deadly poison of cobras.

Israel for her spies, and her doom will come. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁶ The LORD will have compassion on His people {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} when He sees that the strength of both slave and free is gone. ³⁷He will say, 'Where are the gods they relied on? ³⁸Since they received the fat of sacrifice and drank drink offerings, they should be able to help

³⁴'I am storing up these facts. ³⁵I will repay

³⁹⁴I am the true God. There is no other god. I am the only One who can bring life and death. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I wound and I heal, and no one can stop me. ⁴⁰As sure as the fact that I am alive, ⁴¹I can sharpen My sword and punish My enemies who hate Me. ⁴²My arrows will be covered with the blood of captives and enemy leaders.'

you and protect you.

⁴³"All nations should be glad with God's people, because He will take revenge on His enemies and make substitute payments for the sins of His land and people." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴⁴Moses and Joshua spoke the words of this song to the people. ⁴⁵Then when Moses finished, he said, {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ⁴⁶"Think about all these words so that you can encourage your children to obey the law. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴⁷These are not mere words. They can give you long life in the land you will conquer." {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

Lord, my heart's desire, "Sing them over again to me, wonderful words of life." Amen.

⁴⁸Later that day the LORD told Moses, ⁴⁹"Go up to Mount Nebo in the Abarim Range in Moab, and view Canaan, which I am giving to your people. ⁵⁰You will die there on the mountain just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor. ⁵¹Both of you disobeyed Me at Meribah-Kadesh in the Zin Desert by not promoting My holiness to My people. ⁵²So you will see the land from a distance, but you will not enter the land I am giving to the people." {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

Lord, I want to die very simply in Your presence just as Moses died with You. In the flesh I resist my physical death, but in my spirit I seek You. Amen.

Deuteronomy 33 Moses Blesses Israel

¹Before Moses died, he blessed the tribes of Israel with these words: {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ²"The LORD came from Mount Sinai and dawned on us from Mount Seir, and His glory was shining from Mount Paran. Thousands of His angels were with Him. ³You, O Lord, love Your people and Your angels. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} They bow down in worship and receive instruction from You ⁴in the law Moses gave us. ⁵You were king over Jeshurun (Israel) when the leaders and tribes met together.

6"Reuben will live even though his tribe is small. {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} 7About Judah Moses said, 'LORD, hear Judah's cry and bring him home, and help him defeat his enemies.' {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 8About Levi Moses said, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 'The Urim and Thummin belong to Levi. You tested him at Massah and Meribah. 9He had less concern for his immediate family than for his agreement with the Lord. 10Levi teaches Your laws to Israel and offers up incense and burnt offerings. 11Bless all He does, and attack and defeat his enemies.' {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

12"About Benjamin Moses said, 'Benjamin, the LORD loves you and protects you so you can be secure and rest on Him.' {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

¹³"About Joseph, Moses said, 'May the LORD bless your land with dew and water from wells, {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ¹⁴with the best crops growing in the sun and with fruit every month, ¹⁵with the best crops on the mountains and hills, and ¹⁶with the best gifts from the earth and the favor of God who appeared in the burning bush. May these blessings be on Joseph, a prince among his brothers. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ¹⁷You are strong like a young bull, defeating your enemies no matter where they are, like a wild ox goring them with his horns. These are the blessings of all those in Ephraim and Manasseh.

¹⁸'About Zebulun and Issachar, Moses said, "May you, Zebulun, be joyful wherever you go, and may you, Issachar, be joyful when you are home. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹⁹You will ask people to offer sacrifices on the mountains, and you will enjoy eating fish and treasures from the sand.'

²⁰"About Gad Moses said, 'The Lord will bless you with more land and you will defeat your enemies like a lion tearing at its victim. ²¹You chose good land for your tribe. And when your tribal leaders met, you followed the LORD's will.' {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²²"About Dan Moses said, 'You are like a lion's cub, leaping out from Bashan.' ²³"About Naphtali Moses said, 'You are enjoying the LORD's blessings. You will inherit land to the south toward the Sea of Galilee.' {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

²⁴"About Asher Moses said, 'Asher, you are well liked by your brothers. You will have plenty of olive oil, ²⁵your town gates will be strong with iron and bronze, and you will be strong as long as you live.'

The KJV reads, "As thy days, so shall thy strength be" (Deut. 33:25b). Lord, teach me to live for today, and trust You for strength for today. I'm not responsible for a day I haven't lived and You won't give me strength till I need it. Lord, I'll fill each day with work and faithfulness, knowing You'll give strength for that day. I'll not worry about tomorrow till it gets here, teach me to live for You day by day. Amen.

²⁶Moses continued, "No one is like the God of Jeshurun (Israel), who rides in majesty on the clouds to help you. ²⁷The eternal God is your refuge, {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} and He carries you in His arms. He brings out your enemy and tells you to destroy him. ²⁸You will be safe and secure, {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} with lots of grain and wine because of much dew. ²⁹Israel, you are so blessed. No one has been saved as you have. He protects you as with a shield, and He is like a great sword. Your enemies will bow before you in fear, and you will trample down their hilltop shrines where they worship their false gods." {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8}

Deuteronomy 34 The Death of Moses

¹Later Moses climbed from Moab to Mount Pisgah to the peaks of Mount Nebo, east of the Jordan River and across from Jericho. The LORD showed Moses all the land from Gilead and Dan in the north, {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} ²and the land that would become the territories of Naphtali, Ephraim, Manasseh, and Judah west to the Mediterranean Sea. ³He also showed Moses the Southern Desert and the region from Jericho ("the City of Palm Trees") south to Zoar. ⁴Then the LORD said, "This is the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and their descendants. You have seen it, but you won't enter it." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁵Moses, God's servant, died there, just as the LORD had said. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁶God buried him in a valley in Moab near Baal-Peor, but no one knows where his grave is. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ⁷Moses died at the age of 120, yet his eyesight was still good and he was still strong. ⁸The people of Israel mourned and wept for him for 30 days.

Before Moses died, he had made Joshua the leader of the people, and God gave Joshua wisdom. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} The people listened to Joshua and obeyed the commands God had given Moses. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

¹⁰No one else has ever been a prophet like Moses. The LORD spoke to him closely as to a friend, {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} ¹¹and He sent him to do amazing miracles in Egypt before Pharaoh, his officials, and the entire nation. ¹²No other person has ever shown such power and performed such amazing deeds as Moses did before all the people of Israel. {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16}

Lord, all of us must die, including me—if the rapture doesn't come—so prepare me for that inevitable day. I don't like pain, so make it as easy as possible. I don't want to be a burden on anyone, so make it as quick as possible. I want to live and serve You as long as possible. Yet I love You and want to come live with You. Amen.

Joshua

CH 1: GOD APPOINTS JOSHUA AS THE NEW LEADER 309
CH 2: RAHAB HELPS THE TWO SPIES310
CH 3: THE MIRACULOUS CROSSING311
CH 4: THE TWELVE STONES312
CH 5: CIRCUMCISING THE JEWISH MEN313
Ch 6: The Fall of Jericho314
CH 7: THE SIN OF ACHAN316
CH 8: AI IS CAPTURED AND DESTROYED317
CH 9: THE GIBEONITES TRICK JOSHUA319
CH 10: THE AMORITES ARE DEFEATED320
CH 11: THE NORTHERN CITIES ARE DEFEATED 322
CH 12: THE KINGS DEFEATED BY MOSES324
CH 13: THE UNCONQUERED LAND325
CH 14: THE DIVISION OF CANAAN326
CH 15: DIVIDING UP THE PROMISED LAND327
Ch 16: Ephraim and Manasseh's Share329
CH 17: PROPERTY AND TERRITORIES GIVEN OUT 330
CH 18: THE REST OF THE LAND IS DIVIDED331
CH 19: SIMEON'S SHARE332
CH 20: THE TOWNS OF REFUGE334
CH 21: THE TOWNS OF THE LEVITES335
CH 22: THE EASTERN TRIBES ARE SENT HOME336
CH 23: JOSHUA SPEAKS TO THE LEADERS OF ISRAEL 338

CH 24: JOSHUA'S FAREWELL SPEECH AT SHECHEM......339

JOSHUA

Key Word: Success (Joshua 1:8)

Key Verse: "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success" (1:8).

Theme: The book begins, "Moses my servant is dead" (1:2), and Joshua takes over to lead Israel "out" of its wilderness wanderings, and "into" the Promised Land. God promises Israel success—victory over pagan nations—as they obey and follow Him. "And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein" (21:43).

Joshua is a picture of the victorious Christian life promised to believers today. Victory doesn't come without obedience to God (1:8), plus our struggling or fighting against our spiritual enemy. Victory comes with preparation, discipline, and trust in God. Lord, I want to live victoriously over sin; I want You to be glorified in my life. Amen.

Joshua 1 God Appoints Joshua as the New Leader

¹After Moses, the LORD's servant, died, the LORD said to Joshua, son of Nun, Moses' assistant, ²"Now that Moses is dead, you are to lead My people across the Jordan River into the land I am giving them." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Lord, may I be spiritually ready for the greatest day of my life, as Joshua had to prepare for the greatest challenge of his life. Amen.

³"As I promised Moses, so I promise you that the land will be yours wherever you go. {372 Prayer-Walking, Gen. 13:17} ⁴It will extend from the Southern Desert in the south to Lebanon in the north on to the Euphrates River in the east and the Mediterranean Sea on the west, including all the land of the Hittites. ⁵I will be with you as I was with Moses,

{377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and no one will be able to defeat you. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} I will never leave you on your own or abandon you. 6"Be strong and brave as you lead My people into the land I promised your ancestors. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} 7I repeat, be strong and brave. And obey all the laws Moses gave you. If you follow them carefully, you will succeed wherever you are. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} 8Your success depends on your studying them, thinking about them all the time, {302 Meditation-Prayer, Josh. 1:9} and obeying them. 9As I've said, be strong and brave. Don't be afraid or discouraged; just remember I will be right there with you wherever you go." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Lord, I need to see You in the Scriptures. I'm reaching now for my Bible. Amen.

¹⁰Joshua then told the leaders ¹¹to tell the people to get ready because in three days they would cross the Jordan and possess the land. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹²Then Joshua reminded the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh ¹³that they could have the land to the east side of the Jordan, {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹⁴but that their troops must first cross the Jordan ahead of the other tribes while their wives and children and livestock stayed home. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ¹⁵Then when the troops help the other tribes conquer the land, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} they may return to their homes east of the Jordan. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

¹⁶The men said, "We will do whatever you say and go wherever you tell us to go. ¹⁷We will follow your orders just as we followed Moses. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} And may the LORD be with you as He was with Moses. ¹⁸If anyone rebels against you and doesn't obey you, we will put him to death. So be strong and brave." {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

Joshua 2 Rahab Helps the Two Spies

¹Joshua sent two men as spies from Shittim to look over the land, especially Jericho. So when they were in Jericho, they decided to stay overnight in the house of Rahab, a prostitute. ²Someone heard about them and told Jericho's king that some Israelite spies had come there. ³So he sent word to her to turn the men over to him. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 4But Rahab had hidden the men. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} She told the soldiers, "Yes, they came here, but I don't know where they are from. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} 5 They left just before sunset and just before the city gates were closed. I don't know where they went, but if you hurry maybe you can catch them." {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31} 6She had hidden them under some stalks of flax on the roof. 7So the king's men went down to the

Jordan River, and as soon as they left the city, the city gates were closed. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

⁸Rahab went up to her roof and said to the spies, 9"I know the LORD has given you this land; and we are all terribly afraid. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹⁰Word has spread that the LORD dried up the Red Sea when you came out of Egypt, and that you completely wiped out Sihon and Og, the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹¹Our hearts have melted in fear and we are totally discouraged, knowing that the LORD your God is the one who is over heaven and earth. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹²Promise me that you will be kind to my family in return for my being kind to you. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹³And don't kill my parents and siblings and their families." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

¹⁴The men said, "We'll defend your lives with our lives. If you don't tell what we are doing, we will be kind to you when the Lord gives us this land." ¹⁵Rahab's house was built on top of the city wall, so she let them down by a rope through a window. ¹⁶She told them, "Go hide in the hills where the king's men can't find you. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} Then after three days you can be on your way." {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8}

¹⁷The men said to her, "We'll guarantee your safety {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ¹⁸only if you tie this red rope in the window and if your parents and siblings and their families are here in your house.

{413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ¹⁹If anyone leaves your house, he will be killed. ²⁰Also, if you tell others about our spying, we will not keep this promise." {522 Vow-Violation Prayer, Ps. 65:1} ²¹She agreed to those terms, sent them on their way, and put a red rope in the window. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

²²The spies left and hid in the hills for three days. The soldiers looked for them everywhere along the roads, but didn't find the men. So the soldiers returned to Jericho. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²³Then the two spies crossed the Jordan River and told Joshua everything that had happened. ²⁴They said, "The LORD will certainly give us the land because all the people are scared to death of us." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

Lord, thank You for people like Rahab who hid the spies. Thank You for all the people who have helped me in my Christian walk. I especially thank You for those who helped me when I couldn't help myself. Amen.

Joshua 3 The Miraculous Crossing

¹Early in the morning Joshua and all the Israelites left Shittim and went to the Jordan River, where they camped. ²Three days later leaders went through the camp ³with these instructions: "When you see the priests carrying the sacred chest, {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} you are to follow it. ⁴Since you haven't been this way before, the priests will guide you. But stay back from the sacred chest about half a mile." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

⁵Joshua told the people, "Dedicate yourselves {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} to the LORD because tomorrow He will do some amazing things for us." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 6Joshua told the priests to take the sacred chest and cross the Jordan. So they did and went on ahead of the people. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁷The LORD told Joshua, "Today the people will begin to appreciate you as their leader. They will know that I am with you just as I was with Moses. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 8Tell the priests who are carrying the sacred chest to go a few steps into the Jordan and stand there." ⁹Joshua told the people, "Listen to what the LORD your God will do. 10 You will know that the living God is with you when He forces out of the land the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 11The sacred chest, which belongs to the Lord of all the earth, will go into the Jordan ahead of you. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹²First, choose one leader from each tribe. ¹³Then the very minute the priests carrying the sacred chest step into the Jordan, the water upstream will stop flowing." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

¹⁴So the people left their camps, and the priests with the chest went first. ¹⁵In the spring the Jordan's banks were overflowing. But as soon as the priests' feet touched the river, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

¹⁶the water stopped flowing. It piled up {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} a great distance north at the town of Adam near Zarethan. And the water, south of where the Israelites were, flowed into the Dead Sea so that the riverbed of the Jordan was completely dry. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁷The priests carrying the sacred chest stood on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan while all the people crossed over. {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24}

Lord, I've got a big river to cross. It's a barrier that keeps me from doing what You want me to do. Give me faith to trust You for a solution. Lord, Here I come into the waters. Make a way for me. Amen.

Joshua 4 The Twelve Stones

¹After all the people crossed over, the LORD said to Joshua, ²"Tell the 12 men, one chosen from each tribe, ³each to take a large rock from the river where the priests are standing and to set these rocks up as a monument at the place where you will stay tonight." {251 Interchange with God, Gen. 18:23-33}

⁴So Joshua told these men, ⁵"Go into the riverbed near the sacred chest, and each of you is to pick up a large rock and put it on your shoulder, one stone for each tribe, ⁶and set them up as a memorial. Then when your children ask what this pile of rocks means, {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11}

7tell them that they are to remind us that the Jordan River stopped flowing when the sacred chest was in the river. These rocks are to be a permanent reminder of this miracle." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

8The Israelites did as Joshua told them, taking 12 rocks from the middle of the Jordan, as God had told Joshua. They carried them to their camps and put them up together as a memorial. 9Joshua also built another memorial of 12 stones right in the middle of the Jordan where the priests with the sacred chest were standing when the people crossed over. This memorial is still there. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁰The priests with the sacred chest stood in the dry riverbed until all the people crossed. {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14} ¹¹After all the people crossed, the priests went to the other side of the Jordan. {325 Non-Anxiety Prayer, Phil. 4:6, 7} ¹²The troops from Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹³40,000 of them, went across ahead of the other tribes and were ready for battle near Jericho.

¹⁴From that day on the people appreciated Joshua, just as they had appreciated Moses. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ¹⁵Then the LORD told Joshua to ¹⁶tell the priests with the sacred chest to come out of the Jordan. {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} ¹⁷So Joshua told them. ¹⁸As soon as the priests came out of the river, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} the water of the Jordan filled in and its banks overflowed as before. {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24}

¹⁹On April 10 the people crossed the Jordan and camped at Gilgal, east of Jericho. ²⁰At Gilgal Joshua set up the monument of rocks that were taken from the Jordan. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ²¹He told the people, "In the future when your children ask why this pile of rocks is here, tell them, ²² Our ancestors crossed the Jordan on dry ground. {336 Organized-Corporate Prayer, Luke 19:46} ²³The LORD your God did this so we could cross over on dry ground, just as He had done to the Red Sea. ²⁴He did this because He wants everyone to know that He is powerful {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} and that people should respect Him as the LORD your God." {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10}

Lord, teach me the lesson of memory "stones." You've done wonderful things for me in the past. Don't let me forget Your past "works." I trust You to do "miracles" for me in the future, just as You've done in the past. Amen.

Joshua 5 Circumcising the Jewish Men

¹When the Amorite kings west of the Jordan and the Canaanite kings along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea heard how the Lord had dried up the Jordan River so the Israelites could cross over; their hearts melted in fear and they were totally discouraged from facing the Israelites. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

²The LORD told Joshua to make some flint knives to circumcise the Israelite males. This was the second time this was done in Israel. ³So Joshua did, and he named the place Gibeath Haaraloth (meaning "Hill of Foreskins").

⁴But why was this done? Because all the men 20 years of age and older who left Egypt had died in the desert. 5They had been circumcised but all the males born in the desert had not. ⁶During the 40 years the Israelite men had died in the desert because they had disobeyed the Lord. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} So the LORD promised them that He would not let them enter the Promised Land He promised to our ancestors. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 7Moses then circumcised their sons. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} 8After all the men in Joshua's day were circumcised, the Israelites stayed near Gilgal while the men healed.

⁹The LORD told Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the disgrace of My people being in Egypt." So the Israelites named the place Gilgal (meaning "To Roll Away"). ¹⁰On the evening of April 14 the Israelites celebrated the Passover near Gilgal. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹¹The next day they ate bread without yeast and also ate roasted grain. 12 After they ate this food, {486 Today's Response in Prayer, Heb. 3:7} no more manna ever appeared again. ¹³One day when Joshua was near Jericho, he saw a man standing in front of him with a sword in hand. When Joshua asked him if he was on his side or the enemy's side, {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 14He said, "I am Commander of the LORD's army." Joshua fell with his face to the ground {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} and asked, "Do you have a message for me?" {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹⁵The Commander said, "Take off your sandals because this is holy ground." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} And Joshua did so.

Lord, just as You came to help Joshua fight his battles, come help me fight my battles against sin and satan. Show me Your promises in Scripture, and help me claim them. Give me victory. Amen.

Joshua 6 The Fall of Jericho

¹The people of Jericho had been locking up their city gates because they were afraid of the Israelites. No one was allowed to go in or out. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ²The LORD said to Joshua, "I will give you Jericho with its king and soldiers. Here's what you are to do: ³Have your entire army march around the city once a day for six days. {372 Prayer-Walking, Gen. 13:17} ⁴Also have seven priests walk in front of the sacred chest, blowing trumpets. On the seventh day the soldiers and priests are to walk around the city once a day seven times, with the priests blowing their trumpets. 5When the priests play one long blast, all the people are to shout loudly. {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} Then the walls will fall down, and you can run right into the city."

⁶So Joshua told the priests to carry the sacred chest and have seven priests march ahead of it carrying trumpets. 7In front of them an armed guard was to march, leading the people around the city. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ⁸Then the seven priests marched blowing their trumpets, with the sacred chest behind them. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} The armed guard went ahead of the priests, and a rear guard followed the sacred chest. ¹⁰Joshua commanded, "Don't say anything till I tell you to shout." {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1} ¹¹The people circled the city once {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} and then returned to their tents for the night.

¹²Early the next morning the seven priests took the sacred chest and 13blew their trumpets. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Soldiers went in front of them and a rear guard followed. 14Then they all returned to their tents for the night. And they did this for six days. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} ¹⁵On the seventh day they got up early and marched around the city seven times. ¹⁶The seventh time around, the priests played a long blast on their trumpets, and Joshua said, "Get ready to shout. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} The LORD has given you the city. ¹⁷Destroy everything in the city as an offering to the LORD. Kill everyone except Rahab and all her relatives in her house, because she helped our two spies. ¹⁸Don't take away anything that is set apart for destruction, or you will be destroyed and you will bring disaster on the land. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ¹⁹Silver, gold, and objects of bronze and iron are to be dedicated to the LORD and put in His treasury." {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

²⁰Then the priests played a long blast on their trumpets, the people shouted, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and the walls collapsed, and the soldiers ran in and took the city. ²¹They destroyed every living thing in the city—men, women, young and old, cattle, sheep, and donkeys. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²²Joshua told the two spies, "Go into Rahab's house and bring her and her relatives out, as you promised to do." ²³So the spies brought her and her relatives to a safe place outside the Israelites' camp. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²⁴The soldiers burned down the entire city, but they put in the LORD's treasury anything of silver, gold, bronze, or iron. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ²⁵Joshua spared Rahab and her relatives and her belongings {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} because she had helped Israel's two spies. And they still live with the Israelites.

²⁶Joshua then pronounced a curse on anyone who rebuilds Jericho. He said, "If he lays the foundation, his firstborn son will die, and if he tries to build the city gates, his youngest son will die." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁷The LORD was with Joshua and his name became well known throughout the land. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Lord, I have a battle; help me see Your plan for victory, then give me patience to follow Your instruction. When the conflict finally comes, give me courage to win the victory. Lord, I'm ready. Amen.

Joshua 7 The Sin of Achan

¹The LORD had said that everything in Jericho was to be set apart for destruction. But Achan of the tribe of Judah, took some things for himself, and this made God very angry. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 2Joshua sent some men to Ai east of Bethel to spy out the land. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} 3When they returned to Joshua, they said, "Two or three thousand men can take Ai because it's a small town. You don't need to send the whole army against Ai." 4So three thousand men attacked Ai, but the men of Ai chased the Israelites ⁵down to the stone quarries, killing about 36 of them. The Israelites melted in fear and they became discouraged. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15}

⁶Joshua and the leaders tore their clothes in grief, fell facedown to the ground before the sacred chest, {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} and threw dust on their heads all day. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ⁷Joshua asked, "O Sovereign LORD, why did You bring us across the Jordan {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} to let the Amorites kill us? We would have been okay on the east side of the Jordan. ⁸What can I say now that our army has run from the enemy? {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} When the Canaanites and other nations hear about this, they will surround us and wipe us out. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} How will this affect Your reputation?" {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

¹⁰The LORD answered, "Stand up. You needn't be lying face down. ¹¹Israel has sinned {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} by stealing some of the things that were to be destroyed. After stealing these things, they lied and have hidden the objects. ¹²That is why the Israelites were defeated. I can't help you anymore unless you do what I have said. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10}

¹³"Tell the people, 'Tomorrow set yourselves apart to God. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} He knows that you have taken things that should have been destroyed. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} So if you want to defeat your enemies, you must get rid of these things. {125 Divine-Purity Praying, 2 Peter 1:3}

14"In the morning come to Me tribe by tribe, {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} and I will show you which tribe is guilty. Then the clans in that tribe are to present themselves, followed by all the families in that clan. Then the men in that clan are to present themselves, and I will point out which man is guilty. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 15 This is because he did a terrible thing in breaking the agreement our people had with Me." {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

¹⁶Joshua got up early next morning. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} When each tribe came to the tabernacle, God pointed out the tribe of Judah. ¹⁷Then the clan of Zerah was guilty, followed by Zimri's family. ¹⁸When each man in Zimri's family was brought to the LORD, He showed that Achan, Carmi's son, was the guilty one. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

¹⁹Joshua said, "Achan, my son, give glory to the LORD by telling the truth. Tell me what you have done and don't try to hide anything." {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} 20Achan replied, "It is true. I have sinned against the LORD. 21I stole a beautiful Babylonian robe, 200 pieces of silver that weighed about 5 pounds, and a gold piece that weighed more than a pound. I hid them in the ground under my tent." {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ²²Joshua sent some men to Achan's tent. They ran there and found the items with the silver underneath the other objects. ²³They brought them to Joshua and the Israelites, and put them on the ground before the LORD. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁴Then Joshua and all the people took Achan, the silver, the robe, the gold piece, his sons and daughters, his cattle, donkeys, and sheep, his tent and all his belongings to Achor Valley. ²⁵Joshua said, "Because you have caused a lot of trouble for Israel, the Lord is bringing a terrible disaster on you." The people stoned Achan and his family to death, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and burned their bodies. ²⁶They piled rocks on their corpses, and that pile is still there.

Then the Lord was no longer angry with Israel. Ever since then the place has been called Achor Valley (meaning "Trouble Valley"). {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20}

Lord, I will retreat to You when facing defeat and destruction. I am terrified to stand in Your presence with sin in my life without the covering of the blood of Christ. I will always confess my sin. Amen.

Joshua 8 Ai Is Captured and Destroyed

¹The LORD told Joshua, "Don't be afraid or discouraged about Ai. Take the army and attack Ai. I will help you defeat Ai and his army and capture the city. ²Do to them as you did to Jericho and its king. But you may keep the treasures and livestock. Set up an ambush behind the city." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³So Joshua and his army prepared to attack Ai. He chose 30,000 of his best soldiers and told them, ⁴"While it is dark set up an ambush behind the city. Get close to the city and be on the alert. {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13} ⁵I and the rest of the army will attack the city. Then when the Ai army comes against us, we will run. ⁶They will think we are running from them like before. So when they have all left the city in pursuing us, ⁷you are to jump up from your hiding, {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ⁸capture the town, and set it on fire, as the LORD has commanded. These are your orders." {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2}

⁹The 30,000 soldiers went into ambush near Bethel, west of Ai, and Joshua stayed with the people in the camp that night. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ¹⁰Early the next morning Joshua got his army ready, and he and the leaders of Israel went ahead of them to Ai. ¹¹The troops set up camp north of Ai, with the valley between them and Ai. ¹²Joshua had sent 5,000 troops to the west of Ai. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹³So part of the troops were north of Ai, and some were west of the town. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9}

¹⁴When Ai's king saw Joshua's army, he sent out troops early in the morning against them, not knowing an ambush was behind the city. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} ¹⁵Joshua and his troops ran from the city to the desert, pretending to be beaten. 16As the men of Ai chased after Joshua's army, 17no man was left in Ai or Bethel, so the city was undefended. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ¹⁸Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Point your sword toward Ai, {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} for I will give you the city." 19So as soon as Joshua did this, his troops who were in ambush ran into the town, captured it, {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} and set it on fire. {211 Hallelujah-Praise Prayer, Rev. 19:1} ²⁰When the men of Ai saw smoke rising from their town, they knew they had no way of escape because Joshua's soldiers whom they had been chasing into the desert had turned back against them. ²¹And when Joshua saw the smoke, he and his troops attacked the men of Ai. ²²The Israelite men from the ambush went out of the city and attacked the men of Ai, who were then caught in a trap. All the soldiers of Ai died; no one survived or escaped. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²³The Israelite troops captured the king of Ai and brought him to Joshua.

²⁴When the Israelite soldiers killed all the men of Ai in the fields and the desert, they went back to the city and killed everyone there. ²⁵Everyone in Ai—12,000 in all—died that day, ²⁶as Joshua was pointing his sword toward the city. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁷The Israelite soldiers took all the animals and other belongings in the city, {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} as the LORD had said they could do. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

²⁸Ai became a permanent mound of ruins, desolate as it still is. ²⁹The king of Ai was killed and his body was hung on a tree all day. At sunset they took down his body and tossed it by the city gate. They covered his corpse with a big pile of rocks, which is still there. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³⁰Then Joshua built on Mount Ebal an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, ³¹as Moses had said was to be done. On the altar, which was made of stones that were uncut and were never shaped by iron tools, they sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³²As the Israelites watched, Joshua carved the law on stones. ³³Then all the Israelites, including foreign residents, leaders, officials, and judges, stood in two groups, with half of them in front of Mount Gerizim and half in front of Mount Ebal, facing the sacred chest and the priests who were in the middle. {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} ³⁴Then Joshua read the blessings and curses from the law. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ³⁵He also read to everyone, including women and foreign residents all the commands Moses had given. {407 Revival of Our Nation-Prayer, 2 Chron. 7:14}

Lord, when I am defeated by sin, I will not give up, nor turn back. I will face that enemy again and by Your power; I will be victorious. I know I cannot win this battle in my own strength. I claim Your power for victory. Amen.

Joshua 9 The Gibeonites Trick Joshua

1-2When the kings west of the Jordan heard what happened to Ai, they quickly combined their forces to attack Joshua and Israel. Those kings were from the hill country and foothills to the west, along the shores of the Mediterranean Sea, and all the way north to Lebanon. These were the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

³When the people of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai, ⁴they decided to trick the Israelites {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} by having some of their men pretend to be messengers from a distant country. They loaded their donkeys with old sacks and old patched wineskins. ⁵The men wore old and patched sandals and worn-out clothes. And all their bread was dry and moldy. ⁶Arriving at the Israelite camp at Gilgal, the men said to Joshua and the Israelite men, "We have come from a far country to ask you to make a peace treaty with us." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

⁷The men of Israel said, "But maybe you live near us. If so, we can't make a treaty with you." 8The Gibeonites said, "If we make a treaty, we will be your servants." Joshua asked, "Who are you and where are you from?" {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} They responded, We are from a country far from here. We have heard that the LORD your God is famous, {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} and we have heard of all He did in Egypt 10 and to Sihon and Og, the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan. 11So our leaders told us to go on this journey and tell you we are your servants and ask you to make a peace treaty with us. ¹²This bread was fresh when we left home, but you can see that it is now dry and moldy. 13 And these wineskins were new, but you see how they are now cracked and patched. And our clothes and sandals are worn out." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

¹⁴The Israelites tried some of the food to see if it really was spoiled. But they did not ask the LORD about the matter. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1,

2} ¹⁵They went ahead and made a peace treaty, promising not to kill their people. And Israel's leaders promised they would keep the treaty. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

¹⁶Three days later the Israelites found out that they were neighbors. ¹⁷So the Israelites went to their towns of Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-Jearim, arriving on the third day of their trip. ¹⁸The Israelites went to those towns but not to attack them, because the leaders had promised they wouldn't. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} The Israelite people complained about their leaders' decision not to attack these towns. 19But the leaders explained that they promised before the LORD, God of Israel, that they would not harm them. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ²⁰They said, "We told them we would let them live, so that God wouldn't be angry with us for breaking our promise. ²¹We also told them we would make them chop wood and carry water for all of us." {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

²²Joshua met with some of the Gibeonites and said, "Why did you lie to us, saying you live far away when you actually live close to us? ²³You are now under a curse, and your people will now have to chop our wood and carry water to our tabernacle." ²⁴They responded, "We heard that the LORD your God told Moses to kill everyone here and occupy all this land. So we were afraid for our lives. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} ²⁵What you do to us is up to you. So do what seems right." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

²⁶Joshua kept the Israelites from killing these neighbors. ²⁷And that day he made the Gibeonites wood-choppers and water-carriers for the Israelites and for the altar of burnt offering, wherever the LORD would choose for it. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} And they still do that work.

Lord, teach me how to deal with people who come to seek my help. I will pray to seek Your will. I will examine the facts carefully, to follow the principles of Scripture. I will love people, follow Your leading, and try to glorify You in all my relationships. Amen.

Joshua 10 The Amorites Are Defeated

¹Adoni-Zedek, Jerusalem's king, heard that Joshua had destroyed Ai and Jericho, killing the king of each town. He also heard that the Gibeonites had made a peace treaty with Israel. ²He and his people were afraid, because they knew that Gibeon was a large town, as great as the royal cities and larger than Ai, and Gibeon's men were excellent fighters. ³So Adoni-Zedek wrote to several other kings: Hoham of Hebron, Piram of Jarmuth, Japhia of Lachish, and Debir of Eglon. 4He said, "Come help me destroy Gibeon because the Gibeonites have signed a peace treaty with Joshua and the Israelites." {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

⁵So these five Amorite kings moved all their troops together and attacked

Gibeon. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ⁶The Gibeonites sent men to Joshua at Gilgal with these words: "Don't forget me. Come help us quickly, {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} because five Amorite kings together are attacking us." ⁷When Joshua and his army, with his best fighting men, left Gilgal, ⁸the LORD said, "Don't be afraid of the Amorites. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} I will give you victory over them."

⁹Marching all night from Gilgal to Gibeon, Joshua made a surprise attack. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} ¹⁰The LORD caused the Amorites to panic in surprise, and the Israelite soldiers killed many people in Gibeon, and chased and killed others who were escaping to Beth-Horon, Azekah, and Makkedah. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹¹As the Amorite troops ran down the road from Beth-Horon to Azekah, the Lord made huge hailstorms that killed more of the enemy than those who died in battle. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹²That day Joshua prayed loud enough for everyone to hear, {251 Interchange with God, Gen. 18:23-33} "Sun, stand still over Gibeon, and moon, stand still over Aijalon Valley." ¹³So the sun and moon stopped while Israel was defeating its enemies. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} This prayer is written in the Book of Jashar. The sun stopped at noon and didn't go down for 24 hours. {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} ¹⁴On no day before or after this has the LORD ever done anything like this, all in answer to the prayer of one man. Obviously the LORD was fighting for Israel. ¹⁵Then Joshua and all his army returned to Gilgal. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁶The five Amorite kings had escaped and hid in a cave near Makkedah, about 25 miles away. 17When Joshua heard about this, ¹⁸he told his men to roll big stones over the cave's entrance, and to post men to guard it. ¹⁹To the other soldiers he said, "Keep chasing your enemies and don't let them reach their cities. Remember that the LORD your God is helping you." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁰So almost all the soldiers of the five kings were killed, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} except for a few who reached their cities. ²¹The army returned safely to Joshua at Makkedah, and because of this great victory {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} no one said anything bad about Joshua's troops.

²²Joshua told his men to remove the rocks from the cave's entrance and to bring the five kings out to him. ²³So they did—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon. ²⁴Joshua called all the Israelites together and {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} told his commanders to put their feet on the kings' necks. ²⁵Joshua then said, "Don't ever be afraid or discouraged. Be strong and brave. This is what the Lord will do to all the enemies you will fight." {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

²⁶Joshua killed the five kings {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and hung the corpse of each one on a tree. At sunset ²⁷he told his troops to take down the bodies and throw them in the cave where they had been hiding. They covered the cave entrance with big rocks, and those rocks are still there now.

²⁸Later Joshua and his men attacked Makkedah, killed the kings, and destroyed everything in it, just as they had done at Jericho. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁹Then they attacked Libnah ³⁰and killed the king and everyone in it, just as they had done at Jericho. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³¹From there they went to Lachish and attacked it, ³²and took it on the second day of battle. They killed everyone there, just as they had done at Libnah. ³³King Horam of Gezer went to help Lachish, but Joshua and his troops defeated him and killed all his soldiers. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³⁴From Lachish Joshua and The Israelites went to Eglon ³⁵and captured it, killing everyone and destroying everything in it, just as they had done at Lachish. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³⁶From there they attacked Hebron and nearby villages, ³⁷killing everyone there including its king. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³⁸Next they attacked Debir and its nearby villages, ³⁹killing everyone and destroying everything in it, just as they had done with Hebron and Libnah. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁴⁰So Joshua conquered the whole region, including the people and kings of the hill country, the Southern Desert, and the western foothills and mountain slopes toward the Dead Sea. {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} He killed everyone, just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had told him to do. ⁴¹He killed people from

Kadesh-Barnea to Gaza and from the region of Goshen to Gibeon. ⁴²Joshua and his army took these kings and their land in one campaign, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for them. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁴³Then Joshua and the Israelite army returned to their camp at Gilgal.

Lord, so Joshua defeated the entire country just as You the God of Israel had commanded. He captured all the kings and their lands in a single campaign. (According to Unger, there were 25 city-states in Canaan when Israel entered it, and by 1390 B.C., Israel had swallowed up most of them. The Tel-Amarna letters show that only four city-states were left [Merrill F. Unger, Unger's Commentary on the Old Testament, Joshua (Chicago: Moody Press, 1981), 296.]). This is because You the LORD, the God of Israel, were fighting on behalf of Israel. Give me victory in every area of my personal life just as You gave Joshua victory. Amen.

Joshua 11 The Northern Cities Are Defeated

¹When King Jabin of Hazor heard about Joshua's victories, he sent messages to many kings, asking them to join him in fighting Israel. He sent these messages to Jobab of Madon, the kings of Shimron, and Achshaph, ²the kings in the northern mountains, the kings of the Jordan River Valley south of Lake Galilee, and the kings in the western foothills and in

Naphoth-Dor on the west, ³to the kings of the Canaanites in the east and the west, to the kings of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, and Jebusites in the hill country, and to the Hivite kings below Mount Hermon in the region of Mizpah. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ⁴All these kings and their troops with their huge number of horses and chariots seemed more numerous than grains of sand on a beach. ⁵They met together at the Waters of Merom and set up camp there. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

⁶The LORD said to Joshua, "Don't be afraid of them, because in 24 hours they will all be dead. Cut the leg muscles of their horses, and burn their chariots." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁷So Joshua and his army made a surprise attack at the Waters of Merom, 8 and the LORD helped Israel defeat the enemy. The Israelite soldiers chased them all the way to Greater Sidon in the north, to Misropheth-Maim to the northwest and the Mizpah Valley in the northeast, leaving no survivors. 9Joshua and his men did as the Lord told them to do; {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} they cut the leg muscles of the enemies' horses and burned their chariots.

¹⁰Then Joshua captured Hazor and killed its king Jabin, who had controlled all those cities. Joshua ¹¹and his army killed everyone in Hazor and anything that was alive, and they burned up the town of Hazor. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹²Joshua captured these royal towns and killed all their kings, totally destroying them as God had told them to do. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹³But he did not burn any of these towns built on small hills except Hazor. ¹⁴The soldiers carried off the animals and valuables in these cities, but they killed all the people and anything that breathed. ¹⁵This is what the LORD told Moses to do, and what Moses told Joshua to do, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and this is what Joshua did. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

¹⁶Joshua and his army conquered the entire land—the hill country, the Southern Desert, the Goshen region, the western foothills, the Jordan River Valley, and Israel's mountains and foothills 17 from Mount Halak near Edom, to Baal-Gad in the Lebanon Valley south of Mount Hermon in the north. He captured and put to death all their kings. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁸Joshua was at war with these kings for a long time, ¹⁹but he finally defeated them all except for the Hivites in Gibeon. ²⁰The LORD made these people stubborn so that He might destroy them completely without mercy, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} as He had commanded Moses to do. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²¹Joshua also killed all the descendants of Anak who lived in the hill country of Hebron, Debir, and Anab, and all the hill country of Judah and Israel. ²²No Anakites were left in Israelite territory, except some who survived in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod. ²⁵Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1 ²³Joshua conquered the entire land, as the LORD had told Moses would happen, and he divided the land ²⁵Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22 among the tribes.

Then the land finally had rest from war. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Lord, Joshua took control of the entire country, just as You had told Moses to do long ago. Joshua gave the land as an inheritance to Israel and divided up the land by their divisions and by their tribes. Then Israel had rest; there was no more war. I want the same peace in my life. Deliver me from the evil one. Amen.

Joshua 12 The Kings Defeated by Moses

¹The Israelites had killed two kings east of the Jordan River and took over their territory all the way from the Arnon River Gorge in the south to Mount Hermon in the north, including the eastern side of the Jordan River Valley. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 2 The first king to be defeated was Sihon the Amorite king who reigned in Heshbon. His kingdom extended from Aroer on the Arnon River Gorge north to the Jabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites. His kingdom included half of the Gilead region. ³Sihon also ruled over the eastern half of the Jordan River Valley south from Lake Galilee to Beth-Jeshimoth at the northwest corner of the Dead Sea south to the slopes of Mount Pisgah.

⁴Og, king of Bashan, one of the last of the Rephaites, reigned in Ashtaroth part of each year and in Edrei the rest of the year. ⁵His territory extended from Mount Hermon in the northeast to Slecah, and included the land of Bashan west to Geshur and Maacah. He ruled over the northern half of Gilead.

⁶Moses, God's servant, had conquered Sihon and Og and had given their land to the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} 7Later Joshua and the Israelites defeated the kings on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal-Gad in the Lebanon Valley in the north to Mount Halak near Edom in the south. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 8 This region included the hill country, the foothills, the Jordan River Valley, and its western slopes, and the Southern Desert. This included the lands of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. 9The Israelites defeated the kings of these towns: Jericho, Ai (near Bethel), ¹⁰Jerusalem, Hebron, ¹¹Jarmuth, Lachish, ¹²Eglon, Gezer, ¹³Debir, Geder, ¹⁴Hormah, Arad, 15Libnah, Adullam, 16Makkedah, Bethel, ¹⁷Tappuah, Hepher, ¹⁸Aphek, Lasharon, 19Madon, Hazor, 20Shimron Meron, Acshaph, 21 Taanach, Megiddo, ²²Kedesh, Jokneamon on Mount Carmel, ²³Dor in Naphath-Dor, Goyim in Gilgal, and ²⁴Tirzah. There were 31 kings in all.

Lord, I must conquer my old nature so I can conquer the world, the flesh, and the devil. Fight for me as You fought for Israel. Protect me from evil when I can't protect myself. Lord, work through me as I fight against evil and satan's work. Amen.

Joshua 13 The Unconquered Land

¹Years later when Joshua was old, the LORD said, "You are getting old, but still Israel has not taken all sections of the land. {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} ²This includes the regions of the Philistines and Geshurites, {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} 3which extends from the Shihor River east of Egypt north to Ekron. This Canaanite territory includes the Philistine cities of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. Also the land of the Avites in the south is yet to be conquered. ⁴And the area to the north has not been conquered. This includes the land of the Canaanites from Mearah (which belongs to the Sidonians) north to Aphek at the boundary of the Amorites, 5the land of the Gebalites and all the Lebanon Mountains area to the east from Baal-Gad south of Mount Hermon to Lebo-Hamath, {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} 6and the Sidonians in the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim. I will help Israel force out all the people who live in these areas. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ⁷And you are to divide the land among the nine tribes and the tribe of West Manasseh as I have instructed you. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁸Moses had given the land east of the Jordan River to East Manasseh and the tribes of Reuben and Gad. ⁹That region extended from Aroer at the Arnon River Gorge and from the town in the middle of the gorge and it included the plateau of Medeba to Dibor. ¹⁰This region also included the towns of Sihon, the Amorite king, who ruled in Heshbon. Some of Sihon's towns were east to the Ammonite border.

¹¹This region also included Gilead, the territory of Geshur and Maacah, all of Mount Hermon and all Bashan as far as Salecah. ¹²This was the region of Og, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei and was one of the last Rephaites. Moses had defeated Sihon and Og and their people. ¹³But the Israelites did not force out the people of Geshur and Maacah, and so they still live among the Israelites.

¹⁴Moses gave no land to the Levi tribe because God promised them that instead of land they would receive offerings made to the LORD, the God of Israel. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

¹⁵The land for the clans in the tribe of Reuben was as follows: {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹⁶The territory from Aroer at the Annon River Gorge and from the town in the middle of the gorge north to the plateau of Medeba ¹⁷to Heshbon and all the towns near it on the plateau including Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth-Baal Meon, ¹⁸Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, ¹⁹Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley, 20 Beth-Peor, the slopes of Mount Pisgah, and Beth-Jeshimoth. 21 These were all the towns on the plateau and in the region of Sihon, who ruled at Heshbon, Moses defeated Sihon and killed him and the Midianite chiefs, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, who were allied with Sihon. ²²The Israelites also killed Balaam, son of Beor, who practiced

fortune-telling. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²³These towns and villages were for the Reuben tribe, and the Jordan River was its western boundary. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

²⁴The land for the clans in the tribe of Gad was as follows: {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ²⁵The territory of Jazer, all the towns of Gilead, and half the Ammonite territory to Aroer near Rabbah, ²⁶and from Heshbon in the south to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim in the north and from Mahanaim and Lidebon farther north. ²⁷Gad also received four towns in the valley—Beth-Haram, Beth-Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon—with the rest of King Sihon's territory up to the Galilee Lake. ²⁸These regions with their towns and villages were given to the tribe of Gad.

²⁹The land for the clans of the East Manasseh tribe {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} was as follows: ³⁰The territory extending from Mahanaim which included all of Bashan, the realm of Og king of Bashan, the 60 towns of Jair in Bashan; ³¹the northern half of Gilead; and Og's two towns of Ashtaroth and Edrei. All this was given to the clans of the tribe of Machir, Manasseh's son.

³²This is how Moses divided the land east of the Jordan River when he was in the plains of Moab across the Jordan east of Jericho. ³³He gave no land to the Levi tribe, because the LORD, the God of Israel, said He would be their inheritance.

Lord, You had a predetermined place for each Israelite, just as You have a predetermined place for me in this life. You selected for me parents in a prescribed culture, in a specific city and state. Work through me where I am and glorify Yourself through my life. Amen.

Joshua 14 The Division of Canaan

¹The remaining nine and a half tribes inherited land in Canaan, given to them by Eleazar the priest, Joshua, and the tribal leaders. ²The land each tribe was to receive was assigned by casting lots, as the LORD had told Moses to do. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 3Moses had already given land east of the Jordan to two and a half tribes, but no land was given to the Levites. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ⁴The tribe of Joseph had become two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, and the Levites did not receive any land, but they were given towns to live in with pasturelands for their flocks and herds. 5So the dividing of the land was as the LORD had told Moses. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} 6-7While the Israelites were still at Gilgal, some men from the tribe of Judah went with Caleb to see Joshua. Caleb said, "You know that at Kadesh-Barnea the Lord sent you and me when I was 40 years old to explore the land. I brought back a report of what I felt was true, {17 Anointed-Truth

Praying, 1 John 2:27} 8but the other 10 spies made our people afraid to try to conquer the land. But I trusted the Lord with all my heart. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} 9That day Moses told me {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} that because I trusted the Lord {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} the land I was walking on would belong to me and my descendants forever. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} ¹⁰Moses made that promise to me 45 years ago. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} Though I'm now 85, {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} 11I feel as strong and energetic now as I did then. I can still fight as well now as then. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} ¹²So please give me this hill country that the LORD promised to me. {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} You heard the 10 spies talk about the Anakites there in their large, well-fortified cities. But with the LORD's help I will force them out of the land." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹³So Joshua commended Caleb and told him {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} Hebron would be his. ¹⁴Hebron still belongs to Caleb's descendants, because he trusted the LORD the God of Israel with all his heart. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ¹⁵Hebron used to be called Kiriath-Arba, because Arba was one of the greatest leaders of the Anakites. Then there was peace in the land. {200 Greater-Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:6}

Lord, Caleb trusted You to help him victoriously conquer the mountain that was his lifelong dream. "The Lord helping me I will drive them out" (Josh. 14:12). It's one thing to have a dream, but a dream is only the beginning. It's another step forward when you pray and work for your dream. To capture your dream takes God and man working together. By faith you have to work hard and work smart. And as you work for your dream, you have to know how to work with God. Lord, I'm working on my dream; help me work with all my heart to realize my dream. Amen.

Joshua 15 Dividing Up the Promised Land

¹The land assigned to the clans of the tribe of Judah extended south to the border of Edom, all the way to the Zin Desert. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²Judah's southern border began at the southern tip of the Dead Sea, ³went west just south of Scorpion Pass, on to Zin and south of Kadesh-Barnea. From there the southern border went past Hezron to Addar and turned toward Karka. ⁴Then it passed to Azmon and reached the brook of Egypt, and then ended at the Mediterranean Sea. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

⁵Judah's eastern border was the Dead Sea up to where the Jordan River flows into it. The northern boundary began where the Jordan enters the Dead Sea, ⁶and went west to Beth-Hoglah, and continued north of Beth-Arabah to the Bohan Rock. ⁷The boundary then went to Debir of Trouble

Valley and north to Gilgal, opposite the slopes of Adummim. From there it went to Em Shemesh and Em Rogel 8 and then up the Hinnom Valley along the southern slope of Jerusalem, the Jebusite city. From there the boundary line went to the top of the mountain west of the Hinnom Valley at the north end of the Rephaim Valley. ⁹Then the line went west to the Nephtoah Spring to the towns around Mount Ephron and down to Baalah, now called Kiriath-Jearim. 10 The northern border then went west to Mount Seir and then along the northern side of Mount Jearim (also called Kesalon) and down to Beth-Shemesh and to Timnah. 11The line went to the north side of Ekron, and then turned to Shikkeron, passed by Mount Baalah on to Jabneel. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ¹²The western boundary ended at the Mediterranean Sea. The clans of Judah lived within these borders.

¹³Joshua gave Caleb some land in Judah, which included Hebron, also named Kiriath-Arba, because Arba was an ancestor of Anak. 14 Caleb forced three descendants of Anak to leave Hebron. They were Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ¹⁵Then Caleb went to Debir, formerly called Kiriath-Sepher, ¹⁶and he said, "My daughter Achsah can become the wife of the man who captures Kiriath-Sepher." 17 Caleb's nephew Othniel captured the town, {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} and so Othniel married Achsah. ¹⁸One day Achsah urged her husband to ask her father for a field. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} She went to see her father Caleb, and when she got off her donkey, he asked her what he could do for her. ¹⁹She answered, "The land you gave me is in the Southern Desert. But I need some land with springs of water." {186 Goal-Striving Prayer, Phil. 3:10-14} So Caleb gave her the Upper Spring and the Lower Spring.

²⁰These are the towns given to the clans of the tribe of Judah: ²¹The towns in the Southern Desert near Edom were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, ²²Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, ²³Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, ²⁴Ziph, Telem, Baloth, ²⁵Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth Hezron (also called Hazor), ²⁶Amam, Shema, Moladah, ²⁷Hazar Guddah, Heshmon, Beth-Pelet, ²⁸Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah, ²⁹Baalah, Iim, Ezem, ³⁰Eltodad, Kesil, Hormah, ³¹Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah, ³²Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon. This was a total of 29 towns and their villages. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

³³The towns given to the clans of the tribe of Judah in the western foothills were Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, ³⁴Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam, ³⁵Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, ³⁶Shaaraim, Adithaim, and Gederah (also called Gederothaim), a total of 14 towns and their villages. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

³⁷Also the towns included Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad, ³⁸Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel, ³⁹Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, ⁴⁰Cabbon, Lahmas, Kitlish, ⁴¹Gederoth, Beth-Dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah, a total of 16 towns and their villages. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ⁴²Other towns were Libnah, Ether, Ashan, ⁴³Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, ⁴⁴Keilah, Aczib, and Mareshah, a total of nine towns and their villages. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

⁴⁵Also included were Ekron, with its surrounding settlements and villages; ⁴⁶the area west of Ekron and Ashdod, with their villages; ⁴⁷Ashdod and its surrounding settlements and villages; and Gaza, with its settlements and villages as far west as the brook of Egypt and along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

⁴⁸Another of Judah's regions was the hill country with 38 towns and their villages. Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, ⁴⁹Dannah, Kiriath-Sannah (now called Debir), ⁵⁰Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim, ⁵¹Goshen, Holon, and Giloh were a total of 11 towns and their villages. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

⁵²Arab, Dumah, Eshan, ⁵³Janim, Beth-Tappuah, Aphekah, ⁵⁴Humtah, Kiriath-Arba (now called Hebron), and Zior were a total of nine towns and their villages. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ⁵⁵Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, ⁵⁶Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, ⁵⁷Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah were a total of 10 towns and their villages. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

⁵⁸Halhul, Beth-Zur, Gedor, ⁵⁹Maarath, Beth-Anoth, and Eltekon were a total of six towns and their villages. ⁶⁰And Kiriath-Baal (also called Kiriath-Jearim), and Rabbah were two more towns with their villages. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ⁶¹Six towns and their villages were given to Judah's clans in the desert: Beth-Arabah, Middin, Secacah, ⁶²Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En Gedi. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ⁶³Unfortunately the Israelites could not force out the Jebusites who were living in Jerusalem, so the Jebusites still live there with the people of Judah. {237 Inadequate-Prayer, James 5:17-18}

Lord, remind me that an incomplete victory is also a commitment to future struggles with that same problem. Amen.

Joshua 16 Ephraim and Manasseh's Share

¹The southern borders of the land assigned to Joseph began at the Jordan River at Jericho, and went west through the desert into the hill country of Bethel. ²It went from Bethel to Luz and then to the border of the Archites in Ataroth. ³The line went west to the land of the Japhletites as far as Lower Beth-Horan and Gezer, over to the Mediterranean Sea. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ⁴This is the land given to the descendants of Joseph's sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

⁵The boundary of the territory of Ephraim's clan went from Ataroth Addar in the east to Upper Beth-Horon ⁶in the west and continued to the Mediterranean Sea. The northern border started at Micmethath and went east to Taanath Shiloh, and on to Janoah. ⁷From there the boundary line went down to Ataroth and Naarah toward Jericho and to the Jordan River. ⁸The line went west from Tappuah to the Kanah Ravine and on to the Mediterranean Sea. ⁹Ephraim also had some towns and villages in the territory of the half tribe of Manasseh. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ¹⁰The Ephraimites could not force the Canaanites out of Gezer, so some of them still live with the people of Ephraim. {237 Inadequate-Prayer, James 5:17-18} But now the Canaanite people of Gezer have to work as slaves for the Israelites.

Joshua 17 Property and Territories Given Out

¹Makir was the firstborn son of Manasseh, who was the firstborn son of Joseph. Makir was the ancestor of the Gileadites, who had received Gilead and Bashan because they were good soldiers. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ²The half tribe of Manasseh on the west side of the Jordan River received land for the clans of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³Hepher's son Zelophehad had no sons, but he had these five daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ⁴They went to Eleazar the priest, Joshua, and Israel's leaders and said, "God told Moses to give our daughters some land just as He gave to our male relatives." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} So Joshua gave them some property with their brothers, as the

LORD had commanded. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

⁵Manasseh's land west of the Jordan consisted of ten parts. ⁶This was in addition to the land of Gilead and Barshan that was given to East Manasseh. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

⁷The territory of West Manasseh extended from Asher south to Micmethath east of Shechem and ran farther south to include En Tappuah. 8This town itself was in the Ephraim tribe, though Manasseh had the land around Tappuah. 9The boundary line continued south to the Kanuh Ravine and then went from the north side of the ravine to the Mediterranean Sea. A few towns belonging to Ephraim were north of the ravine, but the land itself north of the ravine belonged to Manasseh. 10 The land on the south belonged to Ephraim, and the land on the north belonged to Manasseh. The western border of the Manasseh tribe was the Mediterranean Sea, and the tribe bordered Asher on the north and Issachar on the east. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

¹¹In the territories of Issachar and Asher, Manasseh had Beth-Shan, Ibleam, and Dor (also called Naphoth Dor), Endor, Taanach, and Megiddo with their surrounding settlements. ¹²But the people of Manasseh could not capture these Canaanite towns. ¹³But when the Israelites grew strong, they forced the Canaanites to work as their slaves, but they could not force them out completely. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

¹⁴One day the people of Manasseh and Ephraim said to Joshua, "Why have you

given us only one portion of land when we have so many people?" {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} ¹⁵Joshua responded, "If you have so many people and not enough land, {356 Possibility-Praying, Mark 9:23} go clear out land in the forest that belonged to the Perizzites and Raphaites." ¹⁶But they answered, "That still wouldn't give us enough land. And even the Canaanites living in Beth-Shan and in the Jezreel Valley have iron chariots." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

¹⁷Joshua then said, "True, there are many of you. But you are powerful. I'll give you more land, ¹⁸along with the forested area, and when you clear the land, it will be yours. {356 Possibility-Praying, Mark 9:23} Yes, the Canaanites are powerful people and have iron chariots. But you can force them out." {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21}

Lord, I will not look at the might of my enemies even when they've got "iron chariots." I look to Your strength when I'm weak; I need Your strength. When I'm blinded to sin, I need Your illumination. When I'm attacked, I need Your victory. Amen.

Joshua 18 The Rest of the Land Is Divided

¹The Israelites all gathered at Shiloh and set up the tabernacle there. The land was under the control of the Israelites, {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21,

23} 2but seven tribes still had not been given their tribal territories. ³So Joshua said, "Why are some of you waiting to occupy the land the LORD the God of your ancestors has given you? {356 Possibility-Praying, Mark 9:23\ \frac{4}{Select three} men from each tribe, and I will have them survey the land {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} 5 and write a description of each of the seven parts of the land. The tribe of Judah, of course, is to remain in its territory on the south and the tribes of Ephraim and West Manasseh are to be in their territory to the north of Judah. ⁶Give me your written descriptions, and I will cast lots to determine which of the remaining seven tribes are to receive which territory. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}⁷As you know, the Levites are not to receive a portion of land because their service as priests is their inheritance. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} Also Gad, Reuben, and East Manasseh have already received their tribal territories east of the Jordan, land given to them by Moses."

⁸As the men started out, Joshua said again, "Survey the land and unite on a description of it. Then when you return, I will cast lots here in Shiloh in the LORD's presence." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ⁹The men did as they were told, writing a report on each town and dividing the land into seven regions, and they returned to Joshua in Shiloh. ¹⁰Then Joshua cast lots to see how to divide the land, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and he told the Israelites what their tribal territories were to be. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21}

¹¹The tribe of Benjamin was given territory between the tribe of Judah on the south and the tribe of Ephraim and Manasseh on the north. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} 12Benjamin's northern border started at the Jordan River and went west past Jericho and on into the hill country to the desert at Beth-Aven. ¹³Then it ran along the ridge south of Luz (also called Bethel), and down to Ataroth Addar on the hill south of Lower Beth-Horon. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ¹⁴From there the boundary line turned south and formed the western boundary at Kiriath-Baal (also called Kiriath-Jearim by Judah). {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

¹⁵The southern border began at Kiriath-Jearim and went east to the Nephtaoh Spring. ¹⁶Then the line went to the foot of the hill that faces the Ben Hinnom Valley. It continued down the Hinnom Valley along the southern slope of Jerusalem on to En Rogel. ¹⁷Then the line curved north and went to En Shemesh, Geliloth which faces the Adummim Pass, and down to the Bohan Rock. 18-19 The line went to the north of Beth-Hoglah and to the north end of the Dead Sea where the Jordan River enters the Dead Sea. 20 The Jordan River was Benjamin's eastern border. These are the borders of Benjamin's tribal land for all its clans. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

²¹The tribe of Benjamin had these 12 towns and villages in one region: Jericho,

Beth-Hoglah, Emek Keziz, ²²Beth-Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, ²³Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, ²⁴Kephar Ammoni, Ophni, and Geba. The tribe had these additional 12 towns and villages in another region: ²⁵Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, ²⁶Mizpah, Kephirah, Mozah, ²⁷Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, ²⁸Zelah, Haeleph, Jerusalem (also called the Jebusite town), Gibeah, and Kiriath. This was the tribal territory given to the tribe of Benjamin and its clans. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

Lord, thank You for using some people to be fair to all people. Amen.

Joshua 19 Simeon's Share

¹The second tribe to be selected by casting lots was Simeon. The region for its clans was inside the territory of Judah. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} 2One region included 13 towns and their villages: Beersheba (also called Shebal), Moladah, 3Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem, ⁴Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, ⁵Ziklag, Beth-Marcaboth, Hazor Susah, ⁶Beth-Lebaoth, and Sharuhen. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ⁷Another region included four towns and their villages: Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan. 8Simeon's land also included villages as far south as Baalath Beer {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} (also called Ramah) in the Southern Desert. Since the tribe of Judah received more land than it needed for its people, part of its land was given to Simeon. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

¹⁰The third tribe to be selected by casting lots was Zebulun. Its boundary started at Sarid. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} 11From there it went west to Maralah, near Dabbesheth, and followed the ravine near Jokneam. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} 12It went east from Sarid toward the territory of Kisloth Tabor and onto Daberath and Japhia. ¹³The line continued east to Gath Hepher, Eth-Kazin, and Rimmon and then curved toward Neah. 14The northern boundary went to Hannathon and ended at the Iphtah El Valley. 15 Five of the 12 towns were Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} ¹⁶This was the tribal territory for Zebulun and its clans. ¹⁷The fourth tribe to be selected by casting lots was Issachar. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ¹⁸Its territory included these 16 towns and their villages: Jezreel, Kesulloth, Shunem, 19Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, ²⁰Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez, ²¹Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah, and Beth-Pazzez. ²²Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth-Shemesh. ²³These were the towns and their villages for the tribe of Issachar and its clans. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

²⁴The fifth tribe to be selected by casting lots was Asher. ²⁵Its territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Acshaph, ²⁶Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal. The western boundary went from Carmel and Shihor

Libnath, {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ²⁷and then turned east toward Beth-Dagon, sharing a border with Zebulun along the Iphtah El Valley. Then the line went north to Beth-Emek and Neiel, passing Cabul on the left. {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ²⁸From there it went to Abdon, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, as far north as the city of Sidon. ²⁹The boundary line then turned west toward Ramah and on to the city of Tyre. From there it turned toward Hosah and ended at the Mediterranean Sea near Aczib, {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ³⁰Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob. Asher has 22 towns and their villages. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³¹This was the tribal territory for Asher and its clans. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

³²The sixth tribe to be selected by casting lots was Naphtali. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ³³Its boundary ran from Heleph and the oak tree at Zaanannim, past Adami Nekeb and Jabneel to Lakkum and ending at the Jordan River. ³⁴The boundary ran west through Aznoth Tabor and ended at Hukkok. The line touched Zebulun on the south, Asher on the west, and the Jordan on the east. 35The cities and their villages were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Kinnereth, ³⁶Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, ³⁷Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor, {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ³⁸Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth-Anath, and Beth-Shemesh. ³⁹These were the towns and their villages for Naphtali and the tribe's clans. {193

Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15}

⁴⁰The seventh tribe to be selected by casting lots was Dan. {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} 41Its territory included Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh, {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} 42Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah, {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ⁴³Elon, Timnah, Ekron, {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1\} 44Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ⁴⁵Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon, {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} 46Me Jarkon, and Rakkon. Dan's land went almost to Joppa. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ⁴⁷The Danites had difficulty taking their land, so they attacked Leshem and killed everyone in it. They settled in Leshem and named it Dan after their ancestor. {22 Appropriate-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 39:5} ⁴⁸These were the towns and villages for Dan and its clans.

⁴⁹After all the land was divided among the tribes, the Israelites gave Joshua some land as his inheritance, ⁵⁰as the Lord had commanded. He asked for Timnath Serah in Ephraim's hill country, and that is what he received. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} He built up the town and settled there. {211 Hallelujah-Praise Prayer, Rev. 19:1}

51 These are the tribal territories that Eleazar the priest, Joshua, and the tribal leaders gave to the tribes by casting lots in the Lord's presence at the tabernacle in Shiloh. So the dividing of the land was completed. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

Lord, the first shall be last and the last shall be first. Joshua was the last to receive his land-inheritance. Let me be last for I want to serve You the most. Amen.

Joshua 20 The Towns of Refuge

¹The LORD told Joshua, {445 Speaking a Blessing-Prayer, Num. 6:27} ² Tell the Israelites to choose Towns of Refuge, as I told Moses. ³If anyone kills a person accidentally, he may run to one of these towns and be protected from a relative wanting to take revenge. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5}

⁴"A person running to one of these towns is to explain to the town leaders at the city gate what happened. They must allow him to live in the town. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 5If the avenging relative comes to take the man's life, the town leaders must not release the accused man to him, because the death was not done on purpose. {148 Expedient-Prayer, Est. 4:16} ⁶He is to stay in the town until a trial has been held and until the high priest dies." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ⁷So the Israelites chose three towns west of the Iordan: Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-Arba (also called Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} 8The Israelites chose three towns east of the Jordan: Bezer in the desert in the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead in the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan in the tribe of East Manasseh. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} 9If any Israelite or foreign resident accidently killed someone, he could run to one of these six Towns of Refuge to be safe from an avenger before a trial is held. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2}

Lord, thank You for looking after those who made a mistake. That means You'll take care of me when I make a mistake. Judge me by what I intend to do, not by those unintentional mistakes I make. Amen.

Joshua 21 The Towns of the Levites

¹In Shiloh the family leaders of the Levi tribe and other family leaders said to Eleazar the priest and Joshua, {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} ²"The LORD told Moses that we are to have towns to live in and pastureland for our livestock." {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} ³So the Levites received the following towns with pastures. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

⁴The Kohath clans who were descendants of Aaron, were given 13 towns in the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin. ⁵Other Kohath clans were given 10 towns in the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and West Manasseh. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4}

6 The Gershon clans were given 13 towns in the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and East Manasseh. 7 The Merari clans were given 12 towns in the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun. 8 So the Israelites did as the LORD had told Moses in giving the Levites those towns and pastures. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

⁹The Israelites gave 13 towns in the tribes of Judah and Simeon 10 to the Kohathite clans of the tribe of Levi. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹¹They received Kiriath-Arba (also called Hebron). Arba was the ancestor of Anak. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} 12And the fields and villages around Hebron were given to Caleb. ¹³Besides receiving Hebron, a Town of Refuge, the Kohathites also received these towns in Judah and Simeon: Libnah, {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ¹⁴Jattir, Eshtemoa, ¹⁵Holon, Debir, ¹⁶Ain, Juttah, and Beth-Shemesh with surrounding pasturelands—nine towns in all. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹⁷Then in Benjamin the Kohathites received the four towns of Gibeon, Geba, {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21 Anathoth, and Almon. ¹⁹This was a total of 13 towns. ²⁰Other Kohathite clans received four towns in the tribe of Ephraim, four in the tribe of Dan, and two in the tribe of West Manasseh. 21 The four towns in the hill country of Ephraim were Shechem, a Town of Refuge, Gezer, ²²Kibzaim, and Beth-Horon. ²³The four towns in the tribe of Dan were Eltekeh, Gibbethon, ²⁴Aijalon, and Gath Rimmon. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

²⁵The two towns in West Manasseh were Taanach and Gath Rimmon {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}—
²⁶10 towns in all. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

²⁷The Gershon clans of the Levi tribe received 13 towns with their pasturelands. Two towns in the tribe of East Manasseh were Golan, a Town of Refuge, and Eshtarah. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ²⁸The four towns in the tribe of Issachar were Kishion, Daberath, ²⁹Jarmuth, and En Gannim. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³⁰The four towns in the tribe of Asher were Mishal, Abdon, ³¹Helkath, and Rehob. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³²And the three towns in the tribe of Naphtali were Kedesh, a Town of Refuge, Hammoth Dor, and Kartan {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} 33—13 in all. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10}

³⁴The Merari clan of the Levites received 12 towns with their pasturelands. ³⁵The four towns in the tribe of Zebulun were Jokneam, Kartah, Dimnah, and Nahalal. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³⁶The four towns in the Reuben tribe were Bezer, Jahaz, ³⁷Kedemoth, and Mephaath. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³⁸The four towns in the tribe of Gad were Ramoth, a Town of Refuge, Mahanaim, ³⁹Heshbon, and Jazer {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ⁴⁰—12 in all.

⁴¹The Levites lived in these 48 towns, ⁴²and had pastureland around each town for their livestock. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2

Cor. 9:7} ⁴³The LORD gave Israel all the land He had promised to their ancestors, and they captured the land and settled in. ⁴⁴No enemy could defeat them, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} because the LORD helped them defeat all their enemies. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁴⁵Every good thing the LORD promised to Israel came true. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8}

Lord, it's wonderful how Israel looked after Your priests back then; may we look after our spiritual pastors and Christian leaders today. Amen.

Joshua 22 The Eastern Tribes Are Sent Home

¹Joshua called together the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh ²and said, "You have done everything Moses told you to do {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and you have done all that I've told you to do. ³This has taken a long time, but you have helped your relatives carry out all the LORD your God told you to do. ⁴Now that He has given these tribes rest, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} you should go to your families in the land Moses gave you east of the Jordan River. ⁵So be sure to obey the commands and laws Moses gave you. Love the LORD your God, follow Him, obey Him, cling to Him, and serve Him with all your heart and soul." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁶Joshua blessed them and sent them on their way to their families. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ⁷Moses had given half of the tribe of Manasseh the land of Bashan east of the Jordan River and the other half of the tribe the land west of the Jordan. In his blessing Joshua said, {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ⁸"When you get home with your livestock, silver, gold, bronze, iron, and clothes, share all this with your relatives." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

°So the soldiers of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh left Shiloh and returned to Gilead, which the Lord had given them. {317 Natural-Bless Prayer, Matt. 5:45} ¹⁰When the soldiers of these two and a half tribes arrived at Geliloth just west of the Jordan River, they built a large altar there. ¹¹When the rest of Israel heard about this, ¹²the men got together at Shiloh and got ready to attack the two and a half tribes. {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24}

¹³The Israelites sent Phinehas, Eleazar's son, ¹⁴and ten tribal leaders to meet with the two and a half tribes in Gilead. ¹⁵They said to them, ¹⁶ "All the Israelites want to know how you could be unfaithful to the LORD by building an altar? {329 Obstinate-Prayer, 2 Cor. 11:4} Why are you rebelling against Him? ¹⁷Wasn't the sin of our people at Peor bad enough? {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} We are still suffering because of that sin. ¹⁸Why turn from the LORD again? If you rebel against the LORD, {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} He will be angry with all of us. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9) ¹⁹If you don't think your land is good enough for worshiping the Lord, then move across the Jordan and worship Him here at the tabernacle. But don't rebel by building a separate altar for yourselves. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ²⁰As you know, when Achan was unfaithful and stole some things that should have been destroyed, God was angry with us, and he and others died because he sinned." {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18}

²¹The leaders of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh replied, ²²"The LORD is the great God. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} If we had been rebellious and disobedient to the Lord, we deserve to die. 23We didn't build an altar because we were rejecting the LORD. And we didn't build it so we could offer burnt offerings, grain offerings, or fellowship offerings. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁴No. We built it because we were concerned that someday your descendants might tell our descendants that {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²⁵because the Jordan River separates us {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} we have no share in the Lord's blessings. {539 Worship-Ministry Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

²⁶"So we decided to build an altar so that this would be not for offerings and sacrifices, ²⁷but as a reminder to worship the LORD at the tabernacle. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} Then your descendants wouldn't tell our descendants that they have no right to worship the LORD. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} ²⁸If our descendants ever ask about this, we will simply explain that this altar is not for sacrifices but is a witness between us and you. ²⁹We are not rebelling against the LORD. This altar is a reminder that we are to worship the LORD only at the tabernacle." {498 Truth in Love Commitment-Prayer, 2 John 1}

³⁰Phinehas and the leaders of the clans were pleased with what the tribal leaders of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh said. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ³¹Phinehas told the men, "Now we know that the LORD is with us {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and that you have not rebelled against Him. In fact you have kept Israel safe from being destroyed by the LORD." {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4}

³²Phinehas and the clan leaders went back to Canaan and told the Israelites about their meeting. ³³Everyone was glad and praised the LORD. So they said nothing more about fighting against the tribes of Reuben and Gad. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ³⁴Then the Reubenites and Gadites named the altar Witness (meaning "A Reminder to Us That the LORD Is God.") {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, rumors divide Your people and lead to fights. May I seek out the truth, and not listen to rumors. Lord, it's good to solve small problems before they become big problems. It's good to live peaceably with the other believers. Amen.

Joshua 23 Joshua Speaks to the Leaders of Israel

¹Years later after Israel had peace with its neighbors {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} and Joshua was getting old, {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} ²he called a meeting of the elders, leaders, judges, and officials and said, "I am an old man now. ³You have seen how the LORD has helped you defeat your enemies. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁴As you know, I have given to each of your tribes land between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea. But you have not defeated some nations. 5But the LORD your God will force them out and you will take over their land, as the LORD your God promised. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

6"So be strong {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} and obey all the laws God gave Moses {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} without turning away from them. ⁷Don't have anything to do with these nations that are still in the land. Don't pray to their gods, and don't make any promises using the names of their gods. Don't serve them and don't bow down to them. ⁸Continue to cling to the LORD your God. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24}

9"God has forced out these powerful nations, with none being able to stand against you. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁰Any one of you can cause a thousand enemy soldiers to run from you because the LORD your God fights for you as He promised. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹¹So be very sure to keep on loving the LORD your God. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

12"If you join with the nations that are left in the land and you marry their sons and daughters, and are friends with them, ¹³then the LORD your God won't defeat those nations when you attack them. They will trip you up and they will be painful to you like whips on your back and thorns in your eyes. Then you will die here in the good land the LORD your God has given you. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁴"I am about to die. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} You know fully well that the LORD your God has kept all His promises. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} ¹⁵Every promise He makes comes true. So also when you sin He will carry out His every threat of calamity until you are all destroyed. 16 If you don't keep your agreement with the LORD your God and you serve and bow down to false gods, the LORD will be very angry with you and you will soon die in the good land He has given you." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, I will separate myself from idols and evil. I will get rid of sin in my life. Amen.

Joshua 24 Joshua's Farewell Speech at Shechem

¹Joshua called the tribes of Israel for a meeting at Shechem. He asked the elders, leaders, judges, and officials to meet with him and stand before the Lord. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²He said to them, "The LORD the God of Israel says 'Your ancestors including Terah, the father of Abraham and Nahor lived on the other side of the Euphrates River and worshiped false gods. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ³But I led Abraham to Canaan and gave him many descendants, including his son Isaac ⁴and Isaac's sons Jacob and Esau. Esau moved to the hill county of Mount Seir, and Jacob and his sons went to Egypt. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

S'Then I sent Moses and Aaron to help you. And I sent terrible disasters on the Egyptians, and I brought your ancestors out of Egypt. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} 6Then when you got to the Red Sea, the Egyptians chased you in their chariots. 7Your ancestors prayed to Me for help, {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} and so I put a dark cloud between them and the Egyptians, {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} and I brought the sea down on them and drowned them. You saw all this. And then you lived in the desert a long time. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12}

8'I brought you into the land of the Amorites east of the Jordan River. They fought against you, {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} but I helped you destroy them all, and you took over their land. 9Balak king of Moab decided to fight against you, but first he asked Balaam, Beor's son, to come put a curse on you. 10But I didn't let Balaam curse you. Instead he blessed you several times. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} And I rescued you from Balak.

fought the people of Jericho, and also the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites, and Jebusites, and I helped you defeat them. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹²I sent hornets ahead of you to drive out the two Amorite kings; they didn't run because you fought with swords and bows and arrows. ¹³Also I gave you a land you didn't work for with cities you didn't build, and grapes from vineyards and olives from olive trees you didn't plant." {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

¹⁴Joshua continued "Now reverence the LORD and serve Him and be faithful. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} Get rid of idols your ancestors worshiped on the other side of the Euphrates River and in Egypt, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and serve the LORD. 15You may think it is difficult to serve the Lord, but you need to choose. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} Will you worship the gods your ancestors worshiped? Or do you want to worship the gods of the Amorites since you are living on their land? As for me and my family we will serve the LORD." {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25}

¹⁶The people answered, "We would never stop worshiping the LORD and worship other gods. ¹⁷We know that the LORD our God Himself brought us out of slavery in Egypt by working great miracles. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} Other nations were around us, but He protected us all the way. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁸He forced out the Amorites and other nations in the land. You said you will serve the LORD; we will too because He is our God." {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25}

¹⁹Joshua said, "Are you sure you will serve the LORD? Remember that He is holy {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} and doesn't want you to worship anyone else. He doesn't readily forgive rebellion. ²⁰So if you leave the LORD and serve foreign gods, He will turn against you {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and cause terrible disasters to come on you, even though He has been good to you." ²¹The people responded, "We promise that we will serve the LORD" {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} ²²Joshua said, "Okay. This is your decision, as you yourselves have said." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} They replied "Yes, it is our decision." {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ²³Then Joshua said, "Then get rid of every idol you have and give your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 24The people said, "Yes we will serve only the LORD our God and obey Him." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

²⁵Then Joshua made an agreement with the people at Shechem. ²⁶He recorded God's laws and commands in the book of the law of God. Then he set up a large rock under the oak tree near the tabernacle. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²⁷"This rock," he said, "has heard what God has said to us. So if you turn from the LORD, this rock will bear witness that you rejected Him." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²⁸Joshua sent everyone back home. {308 Mizpah Benediction-Prayer, Gen. 31:49} ²⁹Then Joshua died at the age of 110. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³⁰He was buried in the hill country of Ephraim at Timnath Serah, north of Mount Gaash. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2}

³¹Israel served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of other leaders {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} who were still living and had experienced what the LORD had done for Israel. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ³²The Israelites had brought Joseph's bones with them from Egypt {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} and buried them at Shechem in a field Jacob bought from Hamor, founder of Shechem. This field became part of the land given to Joseph's descendants, the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh.

³³Eleazar, Aaron's son, died {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and was buried at Gibeah in the hill country of the tribe of Ephraim.

Lord, I have decided to follow You wholly; I will not turn back. Lord, I will gaze into Your face totally; I will not look back. Lord, I will worship You with my whole heart; I will not draw back. Amen.

JUDGES

Ch 1: More Territory Captured345
CH 2: WEEPING AT BOKIM347
CH 3: LOCAL GROUPS REMAIN UNCONQUERED 349
CH 4: DEBORAH'S LEADERSHIP350
CH 5: THE SONG OF DEBORAH AND BARAK352
CH 6: GOD'S CALL TO GIDEON353
Ch 7: God Defeats the Midianites355
CH 8: GIDEON PURSUES ZEBAH AND ZALMUNNA 357
CH 9: DECEPTION OF ABIMELECH359
CH 10: TOLA AND JAIR362
Сн 11: Јернтнан
Ch 12: Jephthah Defeats Ephraim365
CH 13: SAMSON'S BIRTH
CH 14: SAMSON'S FIRST WIFE367
CH 15: MORE WOMEN PROBLEMS368
CH 16: SAMSON AT GAZA369
CH 17: MICAH'S IDOLS371
CH 18: MICAH AND THE TRIBE OF DAN372
CH 19: THE LEVITE AND HIS CONCUBINE373 Ch 20: Israelites Punish the Benjamites for Their Sin
CH 21: WIVES FOR THE BENIAMITES377

JUDGES

Key Word: Delivered (Judges 1:2)

Key Verse: "And when the LORD raised them up judges, then the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge" (2:18).

Theme: Another key verse in Judges is, "Every man did that which was right in his own eyes" (17:6; 21:25). As a result, there was disunity among the 12 tribes; no one completely followed the Lord, and no tribe completely conquered the territory assigned to them. There was apostasy among the priests, and rebellion and sin among the people.

We see in Judges seven cycles of failure where Israel sinned and worshiped the idols of nations around them. Each spiritual failure led to a military defeat and cultural failures. After each failure, God in His mercy raised up a judge to deliver Israel. Judges were much more than legal arbitrators as seen today; they were spiritual leaders who led in reforms, military leaders who fought, and prophets who spoke for God.

Judges teaches the natural tendency of people to selfish disobedience and sin, but it also shows how God uses human leaders to call His people to repent and return to Him for their prosperity and security. Lord, I will not drift from You. Use me to call others back to obedience. Amen.

Judges 1 More Territory Captured

Joshua died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} the Israelites asked the Lord, "Which tribe should attack the Canaanites first?" ²The LORD answered, "Judah; I'll help them take the land." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³The men of Judah went to their relatives of the Simeon tribe, and said, "Come join us in fighting against the Canaanites in our territory. Then we will help you fight against them in your territory." So the troops from Simeon went to help Judah. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

⁴The LORD helped them defeat the Canaanites and Perizzites, killing 10,000 men at Bezek. ⁵They fought against Adoni-Bezek and defeated the Canaanites and Perizzites. ⁶Adoni-Bezek escaped, but the Israelites chased him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁷Adoni-Bezek admitted, "I cut off the thumbs and big toes of 70 kings and made them pick up scraps of food under my table. So now God has paid me back for what I did." The Israelites took him to Jerusalem, and he died there. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

⁸The army of Judah attacked Jerusalem, killed everyone there, and burned it down. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} Then they fought the Canaanites in the hill country, the Southern Desert, and the foothills to the west. ¹⁰Then they attacked the Canaanites in Hebron (formerly called Kiriath-Arba) and defeated the forces of Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹¹From Hebron the soldiers of Judah (formerly attacked Debin called Kiriath-Sepher). 12Caleb said, "Whoever captures Kiriath-Sepher can marry

my daughter Achsah." 13Othniel, Caleb's nephew, captured the city, so Caleb gave his daughter Achsah as Othniel's wife.

¹⁴She urged her husband to ask his Uncle

Caleb for a field. She went to see her father, and as she was getting off her donkey, he asked, "Is something wrong?" {23

Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} 15She said, "You gave me land in the Southern Desert, but I need some land with springs of water." {52

Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} So he gave her the upper springs and lower springs.

¹⁶Descendants of Jethro, Moses' father-inlaw the Kenite, left Jericho to live with the people of Judah in the Southern Desert near Arad.

¹⁷Soldiers of Judah and Simeon together attacked the Canaanite city of Zephath. Because they destroyed the city completely, they renamed it Hormah (meaning "Destruction"). {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14\\ \text{$}^{18}\text{Then the men of Judah captured Gaza, Ashkelon, Ekron, and the land around each town. 19The LORD helped them defeat the people in the hill country, {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} but they couldn't defeat the people in the valleys, because they had iron chariots. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ²⁰The city of Hebron was given to Caleb, as Moses had promised, and Caleb defeated the descendants of the three sons of Anak. 21 The Benjamites could not capture Jerusalem, where the Jebusites lived. {237 Inadequate-Prayer, James 5:17-18}

²²When the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh attacked Bethel (formerly called Luz), the Lord helped them. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²³When spies went to check on Bethel, ²⁴they said to a man coming out of the city, "Show us some secret way into the city and we will see that you and your family are safe." ²⁵He showed them how to get in, and they killed everyone in the city except the man and his family. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ²⁶The man then went to the land of the Hittites, where he built a city and named it Luz.

²⁷The tribe of West Manasseh could not force the Canaanites out of their towns of Beth-Shan, Taanach, Dor, Ibleam, and Megiddo and villages around them, because the Canaanites were determined to stay there. ²⁸So when the Israelites became more powerful, they made the Canaanites work for them as their slaves, but they could not force them out completely. {342 Partial Answer-Prayer, Exod. 33:2-3} ²⁹Also the tribe of Ephraim couldn't force Canaanites out of Gezer, so the Canaanites continued to live there. {342 Partial Answer-Prayer, Exod. 33:2-3\} 30 And the Zebulun tribe couldn't force the Canaanites out of Kitron or Nahalol. so they too were made slaves. {342 Partial Answer-Prayer, Exod. 33:2-3} ³¹The Asher tribe could not drive out the Canaanites in Acco, Sidon, Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphek, or Rehob, 32 and so the people of Asher lived among the Canaanites. {342 Partial Answer-Prayer, Exod. 33:2-3} ³³Also the Naphtali tribe could not force the Canaanites from Beth-Shemesh or Beth-Anath, and so the Naphtalites made them slaves, and the Naphtali tribe lived with Canaanites all around them. {342 Partial Answer-Prayer, Exod. 33:2-3}

³⁴The Amorites kept the tribe of Dan from going from the hill country to the valleys, {284 Limitation-Praying, Jude 3} ³⁵and they were determined to stay on in Mount Heres, Aijalon, and Shaalbim. But later when the Ephraim and West Manasseh tribes grew stronger, they forced the Amorites to become slaves. ³⁶The boundary of the Amorites went from Scorpion Pass to Sela and continued upward from there.

Lord, just as Israel had to both defeat an enemy and take belongings of the land, so I must get victory over bad habits and establish good habits. But, some habits are hard to give up because they have "iron wheels." When Israel didn't win a complete victory, they later became slaves to those they didn't conquer. In the same way, when I don't get victory over a sin, it becomes my master. I want complete victory. Amen.

Judges 2 Weeping at Bokim

¹The angel of the LORD went from Gilgal to Bokim and gave this message to the Israelites: "As I promised your ancestors, {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} when I brought you out of Egypt I said I would give them this land. I said, 'I will never break My agreement with you, ²and you are not to make any agreements or peace treaties with the people in this land. You are to break down their altars.' {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} 3But you have disobeyed Me. Therefore I will not force out these nations. {324 Non-Answer to Prayer, Ps. 18:41} They will be painful like thorns in your sides, and their gods will trap you." {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12}

⁴Hearing this, the Israelites started crying, {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ⁵and they called the place Bokim (meaning

"People Who Cry"). So they offered sacrifices to the Lord.

⁶Joshua then sent the people on their way to take the land as each tribe's inheritance. ⁷The people served the LORD during Joshua's lifetime {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} and during the lives of some elders who lived longer than he did, men who had seen the wonderful miracles God did for Israel. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} 8Joshua died at the age of 110, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 9and he was buried in the hill country of Ephraim at Timnath Heres, north of Mount Gaash. ¹⁰After everyone in Joshua's generation died, the people of the next generation did not know the LORD or what He had done. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1}

Lord, I will teach those who come after me all the great things You have done for me. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} May those who come after me do all the things I've done for You: but may they do even better things in a better way. Amen.

by worshiping the idols of Baal. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ¹²They rejected the LORD, the God of their ancestors, the one who had brought them out of Egypt. Their worshiping false gods {422 Satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} of the people around them angered the LORD, ¹³because in worshiping Baal and the Asherah idols they were rejecting Him. ¹⁴So in His anger He let other nations attack Israel and take their belongings. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} Their enemies easily defeated them, and Israel could not hold them off. ¹⁵Every time they went to fight an enemy, the LORD was against them, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} just as He said He would do. And now they were in great distress. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

¹⁶Then the LORD chose leaders called judges, who rescued the Israelites from their enemies. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ¹⁷But even then, they would not listen to their judges; instead they bowed down in worship to other gods. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} They were quick to reject the way of their ancestors, who obeyed the LORD. 18When the LORD chose a judge, He rescued the Israelites from their enemy, {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} because He felt sorry for them as they moaned under the pressure of their enemies. 19But when the judge died, the Israelites behaved even worse than their ancestors, as they served and worshiped other gods. {422 Satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} They stubbornly refused to stop worshiping idols.

²⁰So in His anger the LORD said, {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} "Because this nation has broken the agreement I made with their ancestors, and don't obey Me, ²¹I will not force out of their land any of the nations still there when Joshua died. ²²I will use them to test Israel {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} to see if they will obey Me as their ancestors did." ²³That explains why the LORD let these nations stay in the land, and didn't let Joshua force them all out.

Lord, I never like being spanked by You, but You do it when I sin and run away. I know You love me and care for me; that's why You spank me. I repent of my sin and come back to You; help me be obedient to You. Amen.

Judges 3 Local Groups Remain Unconquered

¹The LORD left certain nations in the land to test those Israelites who had not been in the previous wars in Canaan. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ²This was so this generation of Israelites would learn how to fight. ³The nations included the five Philistine rulers, and the Canaanites, Sidonians, and Hivites in the hill country of Lebanon from Mount Baal-Hermon to Lebo-Hamath. ⁴The LORD used these nations to test the Israelites to see if they would obey the commands He gave their ancestors through Moses. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

⁵All around the Israelites were the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. ⁶So it's not surprising that the Israelites' young men married young women in these nations and that the Israelites' young women married young men in these nations, and that these nations influenced Israelites to worship their gods. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23}

⁷The Israelites sinned against the LORD by forgetting Him and worshiping images of Baal and Asherah poles. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 8This so angered the LORD that He let Israel be defeated by Cushon Rishathaim, king of northern Syria. After being under his rule for eight years, 9Israel asked the LORD for relief, {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} and He gave them Othniel, Caleb's nephew, to rescue them. ¹⁰The Spirit of the LORD controlled Othniel, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} and he became Israel's judge and fought against Cushan Rishathaim {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} and defeated him. 11Israel then had peace until Othniel died 40 years later. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Lord, You use all kinds of people in Your service; thank You for giving Achsah to make Othniel into the leader You could use. Thank You for the spouse You've given me; make me strong through my spouse. Amen.

¹²The Israelites again sinned against the LORD, and so He let Eglon, king of Moab, defeat them. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹³Together with the Ammonites and Amalekites, Eglon attacked Israel and captured Jericho. ¹⁴Eglon was over Israel for 18 years. ¹⁵Again Israel asked the LORD for help, {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} and He gave them Ehud, a left-handed man of the tribe of Benjamin. The Israelites sent Ehud to take their tax money to Eglon. ¹⁶Ehud made a double-edged dagger about 18 inches long and strapped it under his clothing on his right thigh.

¹⁷Ehud gave the taxes to Eglon, a very fat man. ¹⁸Ehud then told the men with him to leave. 19He went with them as far as the stone idols near Gilgal, and then he returned alone to Eglon. Ehud said to him, "I have a secret message for you." Eglon ordered his officials to leave the room. 20 Then as Eglon was seated in the upper room of his summer palace, Ehud said, "My message for you is from God." ²¹When the king stood up, Ehud pulled out his dagger with his left hand and plunged it so far into Eglon's stomach ²²that even the handle could not be seen. Leaving the dagger there, ²³Ehud locked the doors and escaped by climbing through a window onto a porch.

²⁴When the king's officials went back and found the doors locked; they said, "He is probably relieving himself." ²⁵When the king didn't come out after a long time, they got a key, unlocked the doors, and found him dead on the floor. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

²⁶By this time Ehud had escaped past the stone idols near Gilgal and had gone to the town of Seirah. ²⁷Arriving in the hill country of Ephraim, he blew a call to arms on his trumpet, {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} and some Israelites went with him down the hills. ²⁸He said, "Come with me because God will help us defeat the Moabites." {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} So they went with him and took control of the shallow places where people cross the Jordan. ²⁹They killed about 10,000 Moabites, {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} all of them strong and brave soldiers. ³⁰Moab was then under Israel's rule for 80 years. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

³¹Another judge, Shamgar, killed 600 Philistines with a sharp stake used to prod oxen. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Lord, help me to learn the secret of victory as I struggle to win over sin. You reserve supernatural power for Yourself. This is something only You can do. You expect me to use my learned discipline which I must do. I yield my strength to You. Lord, win the battle through me, because "we are laborers together with God" (1 Cor. 3:9). Amen.

Judges 4 Deborah's Leadership

¹After Ehud died, the Israelites again sinned against the LORD. ²So He let Jabin, a Canaanite king living in Hazor, conquer Israel. Sisera, his army commander, lived in Harosheth Haggoyim. ³Sisera had 900 iron chariots, and he made life miserable for the Israelites for 20 years. So the LORD's people pleaded to the Lord for help. {51 Blocked-Prayer, 1 Peter 3:7}

⁴Deborah, the wife of Lappidoth, was a prophetess, and she was leading Israel. ⁵She would settle Israel's legal cases while sitting under a palm tree between Ramah and Bethel in Ephraim's hill country. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁶One day she sent for Barak, son of Abinoam, who was in Kedesh in the tribe of Naphtali.

When he arrived, she said, "The LORD God of Israel is telling you to take 10,000 men from the tribes of Naphtali and Zebulun and lead them to Mount Tabor. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 7I will trick Sisera, Jabin's army commander, to go with his chariots and troops to the Kishon River, and God will help you defeat him." 8Barak said, "Okay. I'll go if you go with me." 9She replied, "All right, I will. But the honor of defeating Sisera will go to a woman, not you." [517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} So Deborah went with Barak to Kedesh, 10where Barak had gathered 10,000 men from Zebulun and Naphtali. And Deborah went too. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

¹¹The Kenites were descendants of Hobab (also known as Jethro), Moses' father-inlaw. Heber, a Kenite, had moved to live near the great oak tree in Zaanannim near Kedesh, where Deborah and Barak were going.

¹²When Sisera heard that Barak had gone up to Mount Tabor, ¹³Sisera went with his men and his 900 iron chariots from Harosheth Haggoyim to the Kishon River. ¹⁴Deborah told Barak, "It's time to attack Sisera. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} The Lord will help you defeat him." {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} So Barak led his 10,000 troops down the slopes of Mount Tabor. ¹⁵The Lord caused Sisera and all his charioteers to panic, and Sisera even jumped out of his chariot and ran. ¹⁶But Barak chased Sisera's charioteers and soldiers all the way to Harosheth Haggoyim. Every one of Sisera's soldiers was killed. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁷Sisera ran to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenmite. Jabin, king of Hazor, and the Kenites were on good terms. ¹⁸Seeing Sisera, Jael went out to meet him. She said, "Come into my tent. Don't be afraid." So he went in, and she covered him with a blanket. ¹⁹He said, "May I have a drink of water? I'm thirsty." {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} She gave him some milk and then covered him up again. ²⁰He told her, "Stand at the door of your tent so that if anyone asks you if anyone is in the tent, tell them 'No."

²¹Sisera was very tired, so he soon went to sleep. Then Jael took a hammer and drove a tent peg through his head, and he died. ²²As Barak was chasing Sisera, Jael went to meet him and said, "The man you are looking for is inside." He went in her tent and saw Sisera lying there with a tent peg through the temple of his head. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²³Jabin, the Canaanite king, was weakened by the Israelites, {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁴and Israel kept getting stronger against Jabin, until finally they destroyed him. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Lord, You give us victory in many different ways and by different people. Teach me to trust the methods You use. You gave Israel a victory through Barak, Deborah the judge, and Jael a distant relative. You work Your mighty mysterious ways through little things like a tent peg; teach me to trust the details of Your work. Amen.

Judges 5 The Song of Deborah and Barak

¹Deborah and Barak sang this song: {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

²Praise the LORD. Israel's leaders took charge, and the people gladly followed. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

³Listen, kings and rulers, as I sing to the LORD, making music to the LORD, the God of Israel. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

⁴When You, LORD, came from Seir and marched across Edom, the earth shook, and the cloudy sky poured down rain. ⁵Even Mount Sinai trembled in the presence of the LORD, the God of Israel. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

⁶In the days of the judge Shamgar, son of Anath, and in the days of Jael, people avoided the main roads and used winding back roads. ⁷People left their villages until I, Deborah, took command, protecting my people like a mother. ⁸When Israel worshiped false gods, their city gates were attacked {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} and not even 40,000 soldiers had spears or shields to fight with. ⁹But I praise the LORD for Israel's leaders and those who volunteered to serve in the army. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁰You rich people who ride on white donkeys and sit on nice saddle blankets, and you poor people who have to walk, listen to ¹¹the singers at the wells, as they tell of the LORD's great victories through the villages. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} Then the Lord's people marched down to the city gates, ¹²and said "Wake up, Deborah, and sing! {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} And get up, Barak, son of Ahinoam, and capture your enemies."

¹³The people who were left joined with their leaders and fought against mighty warriors. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹⁴Soldiers came from Ephraim, where the Amalekites used to live. Others came from Benjamin. And captains came from Makir of the tribe of Manasseh and Zebulun. ¹⁵The princes of Issachar were with Deborah and pushed with Barak into the valley. But the people of Reuben could not make up their minds. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} 16Why did you stay at home, around the campfires? Was it simply so you could hear the shepherds whistling for their flocks? You could not decide whether to join in battle against Israel's enemies. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁷The people of Gilead stayed on the east side of the Jordan River, and Asher stayed with his ships at the Mediterranean shore.

¹⁸But the soldiers of Zebulun and Naphtali risked their lives on the battlefield. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ¹⁹Canaanite kings fought us at Taanach near the Megiddo springs, but they could not defeat us and rob us of our silver. ²⁰It seemed as if even the stars fought against Sisera, ²¹and the old Kishon River swept their soldiers away. So my soul, march on and be strong. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²²Sisera's horses ran off, their hoofs stamping the ground.

²³The angel of the LORD said, "Put a curse on the town of Meroz because its people did not help the Lord fight His enemies." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁴But Jael, Heber's wife, is to be honored above all women who live in tents. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ²⁵When Sisera asked her for water, she gave him curdled milk in an expensive bowl. ²⁶Then with a tent peg in her left hand and a worker's hammer in her right hand, ²⁷she crushed his head by piercing his temple. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} He fell at her feet and lay dead.

²⁸Sisera's mother looked out her latticed window, wondering why he hadn't returned from the battle. ²⁹Her wise women answered her, and she wept saying to herself, ³⁰"Apparently they are finding a lot of loot, capturing a woman or two for each man, and are bringing back beautifully embroidered garments for me.

³¹"LORD, may all Your enemies die as Sisera did. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} And may those who love You shine brightly like the sun." {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} Then Israel had peace for 40 years.

Lord, You used weak and unlikely people in the past. Do it again; use me. Amen.

Judges 6 God's Call to Gideon

¹Again Israel sinned against the LORD, and so He let the Midianites oppose them. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ²The Midianites were so cruel that many Israelites lived in rock crevices, caves, and dens in the mountains. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} 3Whenever the Israelites planted crops, the Midianites, Amalekites, and other nations attacked Israel. 4They camped in the land and destroyed crops as far away as Gaza, and killed all of Israel's sheep, cattle, and donkeys. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} 5 They came with their own livestock and camels, and set up their tents as numerous as swarms of locusts. They ruined the land wherever they were. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ⁶The Israelites became so poor that they begged God to help them. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

7-8So the LORD sent them a prophet who said, "This is a message from the LORD. 'I rescued you from slavery in Egypt, {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 9setting you free from the Egyptians. When nations here made life miserable for you, I forced them out and gave you their land. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 10I told you I am the LORD your God and you are not to worship the Ammonite gods. But you did not obey Me." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

¹¹The angel of the LORD went to the town of Ophrah and sat down under the oak tree that belonged to Joash, of the Abiezer clan of the West Manasseh tribe. His son Gideon was threshing wheat in a shallow winepress so the Midianites couldn't see him. ¹²The angel of the LORD appeared and said to Gideon, "The Lord is with you, mighty warrior." {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7}

¹³Gideon responded, "But if the Lord is with us, why have all these bad things happened to us? True, our fathers told us how the LORD performed miracles in bringing us out of Egypt. But now the LORD has forgotten us, and the Midianites are treating us terribly." {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

¹⁴The LORD said, "Gideon, you are strong and you can rescue Israel {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} therefore I am sending you to do it." {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ¹⁵Gideon replied, "But how can I rescue the nation? My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my entire family." {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ¹⁶The LORD said, "I will be with you, and you will destroy the Midianites as easily as if they were only one man." {241 Inner-Assurance Praying, 1 John 5:10}

¹⁷Gideon said, "So that I will know that I please You and that You really are speaking to me, please do a miracle to prove it. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ¹⁸Wait here while I go get an offering to bring to You." {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} The Lord said, "Go ahead. I'll wait." {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁹Gideon hurried home, killed and cooked a young goat and made bread without yeast. He put the cooked meat in a basket and poured the broth into a pot. Then he put the meat, broth, and bread under his father's oak tree. {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11}

²⁰The angel of the LORD said, "Put the meat and bread on this rock, and pour the broth over them." When Gideon did this, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²¹the angel touched the meat and bread with a stick, and fire immediately burned up the meat and bread. Then the angel disappeared. ²²Realizing he had actually seen the angel of the LORD, Gideon said, "Oh Sovereign LORD. I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face." {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} ²³But the Lord said, "Everything is okay. Don't be afraid. You won't die." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ²⁴So Gideon built an altar {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} and called it "The Lord Is Peace." That altar is still there outside the town of Ophrah. ²⁵That night the LORD spoke again to Gideon, and said, "Your father has an altar to Baal and an Asherah pole near it. Destroy these, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁶ and build an altar to Me, the LORD your God, on the top of this hill. Using the wood of the Asherah pole, build a fire and offer a bull from your father's herd as a burnt offering to Me." {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} ²⁷Then Gideon took 10 of his servants to help him tear down the Baal altar and Asherah pole. He did this at night because he was afraid that if his family and men of the town found out he did it, they would kill him. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

²⁸In the morning people saw the Baal altar destroyed and the Asherah pole cut down and the remains of a bull sacrificed on a new altar. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²⁹Wondering who did this, {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} they discovered that Gideon, Joash's son, did. ³⁰So the men of the town ordered Joash to bring out his son. They said he must die because he had broken the Baal altar and cut down the Asherah pole. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

³¹Joash told the crowd, "Why are you trying to defend Baal? If he needs your help, then you are the ones to die. If he really is a god, he can defend himself." ³²From then on people called Gideon Jerub-Baal (meaning "Let Baal Take Revenge") because they said, "Let Baal take care of himself." {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4}

³³All the Midianites, Amalekites, and other nations camped together in the Jezreel Valley. ³⁴The Spirit of the LORD came on Gideon, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} and he blew a trumpet as a signal for the men of his clan, the Abiezrites, to follow him. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} 35He sent messengers to the tribes of Manasseh, Asher, Zebulun, and Nephatali, urging them to send their soldiers to join his army. So they did. {89 Convergence-Faith Praying, 1 Cor. 13:2} ³⁶Then Gideon said, "If You will help me rescue Israel as You promised, \{406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} then prove it to me in this way: ³⁷Tonight I will place some wool on the threshing floor. If dew in the morning is on the wool but the ground around it is dry, I will know You will help me." ³⁸That is exactly what happened. Rising early in the morning, Gideon squeezed enough water out of the wool to fill a bowl. {169 Fleece-Prayer, Judg. 6:36-40}

³⁹Then Gideon said, "Don't be angry with me. But I have one more request. This time let the wool be dry and the ground around it covered with dew." {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1} ⁴⁰That night God kept the wool dry and covered the ground around it with dew. {169 Fleece-Prayer, Judg. 6:36-40}

Lord, forgive me when I doubt as Gideon did. It's so easy to doubt when I get my eyes off You. Lord, I'll keep my spiritual eyes on You; I'll follow when You lead, I'll go where You want me to go. Amen.

Judges 7 God Defeats the Midianites

¹The next morning Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) and his men camped at the Harod Spring. The Midianites were camped north of them in the valley near the Moreh Hill. ²The Lord told Gideon, "You have too many soldiers. If you keep them all, the Israelites may boast that they won the battle all by themselves. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ³So tell the soldiers that if anyone is afraid, he can leave and go home." So 22,000 men went home, which left 10,000 with Gideon. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

⁴Then the LORD told Gideon he still had too many soldiers. "Take them down to the spring, and I will tell you which ones can go with you and which ones should go home." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 5When Gideon took his army to the spring, the LORD said, "Some men will lap water like a dog, and others will kneel down to drink." 6Three hundred men lapped water with their hands, and all the others knelt down to drink. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 7The LORD said, "The 300 who lapped water from their hands will rescue you from the Midianites. You may send the others home." $^8 So$ Gideon sent home all but the 300 $\{333$ Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} who kept with them the food and trumpets of the others. The Midianites were camped in the valley below Gideon's army. 9In the night the LORD told Gideon, "Get up and attack the Midianites because I will give you victory over them. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 10But if you are afraid, go down to their camp with your servant Purah {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} 11and listen to what they are saying. This will encourage you." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} So he and Purah sneaked down to the edge of their camp. 12 Their camp had so many people they were like a thick swarm of locusts. And their camels seemed more numerous than the grains of sand on the seashore. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

¹³Gideon heard a soldier telling a friend about his dream. "In my dream a loaf of barley bread tumbled into our camp. And it hit a tent with such force that the tent fell over." {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} ¹⁴His friend said, "Your dream means that Gideon, Joash's son, will come and defeat us all." {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

¹⁵When Gideon heard this, he worshiped the Lord. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} Going back to his camp, he shouted, "Get up! The Lord will help us defeat the Midianites." {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} ¹⁶He divided his army into three groups of 100 men each, and gave each man a trumpet and a clay jar with a burning torch in it. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} ¹⁷Then he told them, "When we get close to their camp, follow what I do. 18 When I and those who are with me blow our trumpets, {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} you blow yours and shout, 'We fight for the LORD and for Gideon." {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

¹⁹Gideon and the 100 men with him got to the edge of the Midianite camp a little after 10 p.m., just as the guards had changed. Gideon and his 100 men blew their trumpets and broke their jars. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁰And the men in the other two groups of 100 each did the same. With the torches in their left hands and holding their trumpets in their right hands, they all shouted, "We fight with a sword for the LORD and for Gideon." ²¹The enemy soldiers awakened in a panic and started running away. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

²²When Gideon's 300 blew their trumpets again, the Lord caused the enemy troops to start fighting each other with their swords.

They ran to Beth-Shittah toward Zererah to the border of Abel Meholah near Tabbath. ²³Israelite soldiers from Naphtali, Asher, and both halves of the Manasseh tribe charged the Midianites. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 24Gideon also sent messengers to the men in the hill country of Ephraim, asking them to fight the Midianites {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} and to put guards at every low spot of the Jordan River as far as Beth-Barah to keep the Midianites from crossing the river. Troops from Ephraim did exactly as Gideon asked of them. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁵The Ephraim troops even captured Oreb and Zeeb, two Midianite leaders. They killed Oreb at the Oreb Rock and Zeeb at the Zeeb Winepress. The Ephraim troops took the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon. {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7}

Lord, I trust You to give me victory over the enemy even when I don't know how it'll come. I'll trust You to use "broken vessels," lamps, and trumpets. Use everything I have. Use me in Your service. Amen.

Judges 8 Gideon Pursues Zebah and Zalmunna

¹However, the Ephraimites were very upset with Gideon. They criticized him, saying, "When you went to fight Midian, why didn't you ask us to help?" ²⁻³Gideon answered, "You were able to do more than

I did. You captured and beheaded Oreb and Zeeb. Even the small, leftover grapes of your tribe are far better than the full grape harvest of my clan of Abiezer." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} This clever answer calmed down the Ephraimites. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8}

⁴Gideon and his 300 men pursued the Midianites to the Jordan River and crossed it. ⁵Tired from the pursuit, {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} they asked the men of Succoth for some bread. They said, "We are tired out, but we need to keep after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ⁶The town leaders of Succoth said, "Why should we feed your troops? Maybe you haven't captured Zebah and Zalmunna. Catch them first and then we will feed you." 7Gideon replied, "Because of your response, after we catch Zebah and Zalmunna, I will return and rip open your flesh with thorns and briers." {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

⁸Leaving Succoth, Gideon and his men went to Penuel and asked the leaders there for some food. But they answered the same way as the Succoth leaders. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ⁹So Gideon said, "After I defeat these two Midianite kings, I will come back and tear down your tower." {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

¹⁰Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, east of the Dead Sea, with only 15,000 men of their original army of 135,000.
{139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}
¹¹Gideon went along the route of the launched a surprise attack against the army. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} 12Zebah and Zalmunna fled, but Gideon captured them and all their soldiers. {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹³On his return home, as Gideon went through the Pass of Heres, {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} 14he caught a young man from Succoth and asked him to write down for him the names of Succoth's 77 town leaders. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 15Gideon then went to the town officials and said, "You questioned whether I already had captured Zeba and Zalmunna. Well, here they are, and you refused to give my soldiers food." {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ¹⁶Gideon then used thorns and briers to kill the 77 town officials. 17Then he went to Penuel and tore down the town's tower and killed all the men there. {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6} ¹⁸Then Gideon asked Zeba and Zalmunna, "What were the men like whom you killed at Tabor?" they said, "They were like you; they all looked like sons of a king." 19Gideon replied, "Those were my very own brothers. The Lord knows that if you had not killed them, I would let you live." {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6} ²⁰Gideon told Jether, his oldest son, to kill Zeba and Zalmunna. But Jether was young and was afraid to pull out his sword and kill them. ²¹Zeba and Zalmunna told Gideon, "Do it yourself. Don't ask a boy to kill two men."

So Gideon killed them and took the fancy nomads east of Nobah and Jogbehah and gold ornaments off their camel's necks. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} ²²The Israelites said to Gideon, "Be our king. Then your son and grandson can follow you as our king." {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ²³Gideon responded, "No, I won't be your king. And my son won't either. The Lord is your king. {95 Crown-Casting Worship, Rev. 4:10} ²⁴But I have one request. Give me the earrings you took from our enemy." The custom of the Ishmaelites was to wear gold earrings. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14\} 25 They gladly gave him the earrings. They spread out a garment and each man tossed down a ring. ²⁶Together these rings weighed over 40 pounds. Also there was gold from the camel's ornaments and from jewelry worn by the Midianite kings. He also took the kings purple robes. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ²⁷He made the gold into priestly vests and placed it in Ophrah. But the Israelites, including even Gideon and his family, started worshiping it. {280 Life-Derailing Prayer, James 4:17} ²⁸Midian was never able to oppose Israel again. And the land enjoyed peace for 40 years. ²⁹Gideon returned home, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 30 and had many wives and 70 sons. ³¹He also had a concubine in Shechem, who had a son he named Abimelech. 32Gideon grew to be an old man. He was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah.

³³Soon after Gideon died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Israel again worshiped Baal idols, with Baal-Berith as their main God. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ³⁴Again they forgot the LORD their

God, who had rescued them from their many enemies. ³⁵Also they were ungrateful to Gideon's family for all that Gideon had done for them. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

Lord, teach me to be as wise as Gideon, to emphasize what others did and minimize what I do. Help me always to do right and never be afraid of reprisals. Life is serious and sin has consequences. Teach me to be thorough in separating myself from sin. Amen.

Judges 9 Deception of Abimelech

¹One day Gideon's son Abimelech went to Shechem and said to his brothers and others in his mother's family, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 2"Ask the people of Shechem whether it is better to have all 70 of Abimelech's half brothers rule over you or just Abimelech himself, who is related to you." {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ³The citizens of Shechem liked the idea of their relative Abimelech being their king. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ⁴Then they gave him 70 pieces of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, and with that money Abimelech hired some rascals who followed him. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8}

⁵Abimelech went to his father's home, in Ophrah and murdered all 70 of his half-brothers except one. That was Jotham, Gideon's youngest son, who escaped by hiding. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 'Then all the citizens of Shechem and Beth-Millo met beside the oak tree by the sacred pillar in Shechem and crowned Abimelech king.

⁷Jotham, Gideon's youngest of his 70 sons, heard about this. So he climbed to the top of Mount Gerizim and shouted, "You citizens of Shechem, listen to me if you want God to listen to you. {407 Revival of Our Nation-Prayer, 2 Chron. 7:14} 8One time the trees asked an olive tree to be their king. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} 9But the olive tree said, 'No, I won't stop producing olive oil, just so I can wave branches over the other trees.' {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹⁰Then the trees asked the fig tree to be their king. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} 11But the fig tree refused. He didn't want to give up producing figs just to wave his branches over the other trees. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} 12Then the trees asked the vine to be their king. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ¹³But the vine refused to give up its grapes for wine just to wave his branches over the other trees. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹⁴Then the trees asked a thornbush to be their king. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ¹⁵The thornbush said to the trees, 'If you really want me to be your king, come enjoy my shade. But if not, then may fire come out of me and burn up the cedars of Lebanon." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4,

¹⁶⁻¹⁷"Have you done the right thing in making Abimelech your king? {424

Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} Is this fair to my father who risked his life for you to rescue you from the Midianites? ¹⁸Actually you have turned against my father by murdering 69 of his 70 sons and making Abimelech your king. 19 If you have done the right thing toward Gideon, then perhaps all of you and Abimelech will be happy. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} ²⁰But if what you did was wrong, then may Abimelech send fire to burn up all of you, and may you send fire to burn up Abimelech." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²¹Then Jotham escaped and lived in Beer, where he was afraid of Abimelech. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2}

²²After Abimelech had ruled for three years, {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ²³God sent a demon to stir up trouble between Abimelech and the Shechem citizens, {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ²⁴and to punish the people of Shechem for killing Gideon's sons. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁵The citizens put some men up on hilltops to watch for and ambush Abimelech, and to rob passersby. Abimelech heard what they were doing. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7}

²⁶Gaal, son of Ebed, moved to Shechem, and the town's citizens trusted him. {152 Faith-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ²⁷At the time of the grape harvest the people picked the grapes and then walked on them in their winepresses to make wine. Then they held a festival in the temple of their god. While eating and drinking, they started cursing Abimelech. {101

Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ²⁸Gaal said, "Why is Abimelech your king? He's not a true Shechemite. He is a son of Gideon, and Zebul is his deputy. Hamor was the founder of Shechem, so we should follow his descendants, not Abimelech. {67 Church-Boss Rejection Prayer, 3 John 9} ²⁹If I was the ruler of Shechem, I would get rid of Abimelech. I would tell him to call out his enemy, and I would easily defeat them all." {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7}

³⁰This made Zebul, Abimelech's deputy, and the city's mayor, very angry. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} ³¹So Zebul sent messengers to Shechem to tell Abimelech, "Gaal is persuading the people to make him king. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ³²So here's what I suggest: Have your men hide in the fields at night. {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14} ³³Then at sunrise, have them attack the town. When Gaal and his men come to fight you, you will defeat them." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³⁴So Abimelech and his troops were hiding at night near Shechem in four companies. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ³⁵Gaal went to the city gate as Abimelech and his men were coming out of their hiding places. ³⁶Gaal said to Zebul, "People are coming down from the mountaintops." Zebul answered, "You are just seeing shadows." ³⁷Gaal said, "No, look. People are coming from the mountaintops, and some are coming along the road by the tree where some men try to predict the future." {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

³⁸Zebul said to Gaal, "Now why are you bragging? Why did you say we shouldn't have Abimelech as our king? Why don't you go fight this army you made fun of?" ³⁹So Gaal and the citizens of Shechem fought Abimelech {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ⁴⁰Abimelech chased Gaal and his men, and many of them fell wounded. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} ⁴¹Then Abimelech stayed in Arumah, and Zebul forced Gaal and his brothers out of Shechem. {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10}

⁴²The next day the people of Shechem were getting ready to go fight in the fields. When Abimelech heard of this, ⁴³he divided his men into three groups to set up an ambush. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} When he saw the men coming out of town, he attacked and fought them. 44He and the men with him rushed to the city gate, and the two other companies rushed on some of the Shechemites and killed them. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ⁴⁵All day long Abimelech kept attacking the city. Finally he captured it and killed everyone in it. Then he and his men demolished the city and scattered salt all over it. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁴⁶Some of the Shechemite citizens who were in the town's tower went to hide in the nearby temple of their false god El-Berith. ⁴⁷When Abimelech heard of this, ⁴⁸he went to Mount Zalmon and cut off some tree branches and put them on his shoulders. He told the men with him to do the same thing he had done. {104 Defenseless

Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31} ⁴⁹So they did. Then they piled the branches against the temple and set them on fire. About 1,000 people died there. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3}

⁵⁰Next Abimelech went to Thebez and captured it. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ⁵¹But everyone in town hid in the tall tower in the city, locking themselves in and climbing up on the roof. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31} ⁵²Abimelech rushed to the tower, but as he approached its gate to set it on fire, ⁵³a woman dropped a heavy millstone on his head and cracked his skull. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

54Abimelech told his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and kill me. I don't want anyone to know a woman killed me." So his servant jabbed Abimelech's sword into him, and he died. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6} 55When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they went home. 56In this way God got even with Abimelech for murdering Gideon's many sons. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 57Also God punished Shechem for helping Abimelech. Thus the curse by Jotham, Gideon's son, came true. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

Lord, You include the evil done by men in Your book to show us that You use evil to punish evil. I will live righteously. Amen.

Judges 10 Tola and Jair

¹After Abimelech died, Israel's next judge was Tola. Though he was from the Issachar tribe, he lived in Shamir in Ephraim's hill country. His father was Puah, and his grandfather was Dodo. ²After leading Israel for 23 years, he died and was buried in Shamir. {379 Prevailing-Prayer, Jer. 12:1}

³Israel's next leader was Jair, from Gilead. He was judge for 23 years, ⁴and had 30 sons, each of whom had his own donkey and owned a town in Gilead. These 30 towns are still called Havvoth-Jair (meaning "The Towns of Jair") ⁵When Jair died, he was buried in Kamon in Gilead. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6}

Once again the Israelites sinned against the LORD. They worshiped not only Baal and the Astareths but also the gods of Syria, Sidon, Moab, Ammon, and Philistia. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} They completely turned from the LORD and did not serve Him at all. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 7-8So He became very angry with them, and He let the Philistines and Ammonites torment them. {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} For 18 years they were cruel to the Israelites in Gilead, east of the Jordan River in the land that used to belong to the Amorites. ⁹The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan and attacked the people of Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim. The Israelites were in a terrible situation, {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ¹⁰so they prayed for the LORD to help them. They admitted, "We have sinned against You by turning from You and worshiping the Baal idols." {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

¹¹The LORD replied, "When you asked Me for help in the past, I rescued you numerous times, from the Egyptians, Amorites, Ammonites, Philistines, ¹²Gideonites, Amalekites, and Maonites. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ¹³Yet you continue to turn from Me and worship other gods. So I won't rescue you anymore. {496 True-Worshipers Prayer, Ps. 15:1} ¹⁴Go ask these gods you've chosen to save you from your trouble." {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

¹⁵Again the Israelites admitted, "We have sinned. So punish us in whatever way You think best. But please rescue us from our enemies." {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} ¹⁶Then the Israelites got rid of the idols and worshiped only the LORD. And He felt bad about all their misery. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

¹⁷Meanwhile the Ammonite soldiers had camped in Gilead, and the Israelites were camped at Mizpah. ¹⁸Seeing that war was about to break out, the leaders in Gilead were concerned about the threat of the Ammonites. So they said, "If someone offers to lead an attack against the Ammonites, we will make him our king." {243 Inner-Strength Request Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:1}

Lord, thank You for recognizing real repentance in the past. It means You will recognize my repentance when I cry to You. Amen.

Judges 11 Jephthah

¹Jephthah was known as a great soldier in Gilead. His mother was a prostitute, ²and his father, whose name was Gilead, had several sons by his legitimate wife. These half brothers made him leave Gilead because, as they said, "As the son of a prostitute, you can't have any of our family property." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ³So Jephthah went to live in Tob, an area north of Gilead. A number of rebels there began following him.

⁴Later when the Ammonites attacked Israel, 5the Gilead leaders asked Jephthah to come back to Gilead ⁶and lead their army against the Ammonites. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ⁷Jephthah said, "How do I know I can trust you? You made me leave my family, so why do you want my help now?" {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.} 8The Gilead elders said, "But we need you now. If you defeat the Ammonites, we will make you our king." {242 Inner-Desires Prayer, Eph. 4:22 ff.} 9Jephthah answered, "If the LORD gives me victory over the Ammonites, will you really make me your king?" {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ¹⁰The leaders said, "The LORD is our witness that we will do what we say."

¹¹So Jephthah went back to Mizpah, where the leaders made him commander in chief and ruler, and he repeated before the LORD his commitment to them. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹²Then Jephthah sent messengers to the Ammonite king, asking him why he was attacking

Israel. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹³The king answered that the Israelites had taken their land from them when the Israelites had come out of Egypt. "This land," he said, "belongs to us, all the way from the Arnon River in the south to the Jabbok River in the north and west to the Jordan River. So give us back this land and there won't be any war." {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25}

¹⁴Jephthah sent his messengers back to the Ammonite king ¹⁵with these words: "Israel did not take any land from Moab or Ammon. ¹⁶When the Israelites came out of Egypt, they crossed the Red Sea and then arrived at Kadesh. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ¹⁷Then they sent messengers to the king of Edom asking permission to go through his country. But he refused. Then they asked the king of Moab the same thing, and he too refused. So the Israelites stayed at Kadesh.

¹⁸"Later they went east of Edom and Moab and camped on the other side of the Arnon River Gorge. So they never entered the land of Moab. ¹⁹Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon, the Amorite king in Heshbon, asking permission for our people to go through his country. {51 Blocked-Prayer, 1 Peter 3:7} ²⁰Sihon didn't trust Israel, so from Jahaz his army attacked the Israelites. ²¹But the LORD, the God of Israel, helped Israel defeat Sihon and his army. ²²Israel then took over all the land from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River, and from the desert to the Jordan River. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

²³"So the LORD, the God of Israel, helped us get rid of the Amorites. So why should

we give it back to you? {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 24You keep whatever land your god Chemosh gives you. So we will keep whatever land the LORD our God has given us. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} ²⁵Are you better than King Balak of Moab? He didn't quarrel with us about land or try to start a war. ²⁶So here you are trying to get back the land where Israelites have been living for 300 years in Heshbon and Aroer and surrounding villages, and along the Arnon River. If the land is really yours, why have you waited till {457 Spiritual-Victory Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} now to say so? ²⁷We haven't done anything wrong against you, but you are weary in trying to start a war. The LORD, the judge, will show which of us is right." {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1}

²⁸The king of Ammon paid no attention to Jephthah's message. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} ²⁹Then the Spirit of the LORD controlled Jephthah, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} and he crossed Gilead and East Manasseh and went past Mizpah in Gilead and attacked the Ammonite army. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} ³⁰He said to the Lord, "If You help me defeat the Ammonites, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} whatever first comes out of my house 31when I return home in peace, I will sacrifice to You." {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ³²When Jephthah fought the Ammonites, the Lord gave him victory. 33He destroyed 20 towns between Aroer and Minnith, all the way to Abel-Keramim. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³⁴When Jephthah returned home to Mizpah, the first one to come out of his house to greet him was his daughter, his only child, who was playing a tambourine and dancing. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} 35When he saw her he tore his clothes in grief and said, "Oh, my daughter! I am terribly miserable because I made a promise to the Lord that I must keep." {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} ³⁶She said, "Father, you must do whatever you promised to the LORD, because He has given you victory over the Ammonites. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ³⁷But first let me go roam in the hills and cry with my girlfriends for two months because I will never get married." {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} ³⁸"Yes," he said, "You may have two months." So she and some girlfriends wandered in the hills for two months, crying because she could never have children. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ³⁹Then she returned home, and did what he had promised to the Lord. Then it became a custom in Israel {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 40that every year young girls would go away for four days to remember what happened to Jephthah's daughter.

Lord, You include these difficult passages in Scripture because they reflect the difficult decisions Your servants had to make. You're not as concerned with our physical birth as You are with our spiritual birth. Thank You that I've been born again. Lord, You're not as concerned about our past just as You were not concerned about Jephthah's past. You are concerned about our future so I dedicate my future to You. Lord, You make me what I am today; I will use all I have for Your glory. Amen.

Judges 12 Jephthah Defeats Ephraim

¹The men of the Ephraim tribe got their armed forces together and went across the Jordan River to Zaphon to meet with Jephthah. They asked him, "Why didn't you ask us to help you fight against the Ammonites? Since you didn't, we are going to burn down your house with you in it." ²Jephthah responded, "But I did ask for your help against the Ammonites, and you wouldn't lift a finger to help. ³So we risked our lives and attacked the Ammonites, and the Lord helped us defeat them. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} So why are you coming now to fight me?"

⁴The men of Ephraim said, "You people of Gilead are nothing more than refugees from Ephraim. You lived on land that belongs to us and Manasseh." ⁵Hearing this, Jephthah called together his soldiers and attacked Ephraim's army. The Gileadites then posted guards where soldiers from Ephraim would try to cross the Jordan to get back home. The guards would say to each soldier, "Are you from Ephraim?" If they said, "No," ⁶the guards would demand that he say "Shibboleth" that is because the people could not pronounce the "sh" sound, so they would say "Sibboleth." Then the guards would kill him right there. A total of 42,000 Ephraimites died there that way. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁷Jephthah led Israel for six years. After he died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} he was buried in a town in Gilead.

⁸The judge after Jephthah was Ibzan, who lived in Bethlehem. 9He had 30 sons and 30 daughters, and he let them all marry outside his clan. After leading Israel for seven years, 10he died and was buried in Bethlehem. 11After Ibzan, Elon from the Zebulun tribe led Israel for 10 years. ¹²After he died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} he was buried in Aijalon in Zebulun. 13The next leader was Abdon, son of Hillel from Pirathon. 14He had 40 sons and 30 grandsons, each one riding on his own donkey. 15 After Abdon led Israel for eight years, he died {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and was buried in his hometown in the hill country of Ephraim, where the Amalekites used to live.

Lord, You used weak and unlikely people in the past. Do it again, use me. Lord, it's so easy for believers to get bitter with one another, and then to argue and fight. Help me be understanding of others. Teach me that arguing and fighting may lead to bloodshed. May I be a person of peace. Amen.

Judges 13 Samson's Birth

¹Again the Israelites sinned against the LORD, and so he let the Philistines control Israel for 40 years. {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16} ²⁻³One day the angel of the LORD appeared {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} to the wife of Manoah of the tribe of Dan who lived in Zorah and who was unable to have children. The angel said, "You have never been able to have children, but soon you will be pregnant and have a son. {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} 4Don't drink any wine or beer or eat any food not allowed by God's laws. 5Your son's hair must never be cut, because he will be a Nazarite, {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} as a special servant of God. And he will begin to free Israel from the Philistines. "

'She ran to tell her husband the news. She said, "A man of God who looked like the angel of the Lord {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} appeared to me. I didn't ask where he is from, and he didn't tell me his name. 7But he said I would get pregnant and have a baby boy. He said I'm not to drink any wine or beer or eat any food forbidden by God's laws. He said the boy will be a Nazarite, as a special servant of God all his life." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} 8Then Manoah prayed, "LORD, please let the man of God come back and tell me more about the child we will have."

The angel of God appeared again to Manoah's wife as she was in the field alone. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} 10She ran to find her husband and told him, "The same man is here again." {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} 11Manoah went back with his wife and asked, "Are you the one who spoke to my wife the other day?" He replied, "Yes, I am." 12 Manoah asked, "Do you have any further word about our future son's life and work?" {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ¹³The angel of the LORD answered, "Be sure your wife follows the instructions I gave her. 14She must not eat grapes or raisins or drink wine or beer, or eat anything forbidden in God's law." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

¹⁵Manoah said, "Please stay here awhile until we get you something to eat." {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁶The angel said, "I won't eat anything but you could offer a goat as a sacrifice to the LORD. (Of course Manoah didn't realize he was talking to the angel of the LORD.) {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹⁷Manoah then said, "What is your name, because when the baby is born, we will want to honor you." ¹⁸The angel replied, "My name is secret." {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13}

¹⁹Then Manoah offered to the LORD a young goat and a grain offering on a rock. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} Then the Lord did an amazing thing. ²⁰As the flames blazed up from the altar, the angel ascended in the fire. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they bowed down to the ground. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ²¹They never saw the angel again, but they realized he was the angel of the LORD. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ²²Manoah was concerned, for he said, "We will die because we have seen God." ²³Manoah's wife said, "No, I don't think the LORD will kill us. If He was going to kill us, He wouldn't have accepted our offerings and appeared to us and given us this wonderful news about our having a son." {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ²⁴Later when Manoah's wife had a son, they named him Samson. The LORD blessed him as he grew up. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ²⁵Then the Spirit of the LORD began to control him {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} when he was staying in Mahaneh-Dan between the towns of Zorah and Eshtaol.

Lord, may I follow You as carefully as the Nazarites mentioned in Scripture. I will abstain from alcohol, unclean activities, and unwholesome things. Thank You for the Holy Spirit that works in your children to prepare them for Your service. Thank You for preparing me to serve You. Amen.

Judges 14 Samson's First Wife

¹One day Samson went to Timnah and there he saw a young Philistine woman. ²When he got home, he told his parents he wanted to marry her. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ³But they objected strongly, saying, "Why don't you marry an Israelite girl? Why get a wife from the pagan Philistines? You could choose from the many girls in our clan or even in all of Israel." {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} Samson said to his father, "Please get her for me. She's the one for me."

⁴His parents didn't know that this was from the LORD, because through her He would set a trap for the Philistines, who were ruling Israel. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ⁵As Samson and his parents were going to Timnah, a lion attacked Samson in the vineyards near town. ⁶But the Spirit of the LORD came on Samson, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and he tore the lion's jaws apart as if it were a young goat. But he didn't tell his parents about it. ⁷In Timnah he talked with the girl and still felt she was the one for him.

⁸Later when he went back to Timnah for the wedding, he left the road to look at the lion's carcass. He saw a swarm of bees had made some honey. ⁹He took some of the honey, ate some of it, and gave some to his parents. But he didn't tell them where he got it. {522 Vow-Violation Prayer, Ps. 65:1}

¹⁰His father was making final arrangements for the wedding, and Samson threw a big drinking party ¹¹for 30 men in the village. ¹²Samson said to them, "Let me tell you a riddle. If you can solve it this week, I will give each of you a linen garment and a plain garment. ¹³But if you can't solve it, then you must give me 30 linen garments and 30 plain garments." They said, "Okay, let's hear it."

¹⁴Samson said, "Out of the eater came something to eat, and out of the strong came something sweet." {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} Three days went by, and they still hadn't figured it out. ¹⁵On the seventh day they said to his fiancée, "Get the answer to this riddle from Samson, or we will burn down your father's house with you in it. Did you invite us here to make us poor by giving all our clothes to Samson?"

¹⁶So she went to Samson and cried, "You must hate me. Because if you loved me, you would tell me the answer to your riddle." {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} Samson replied, "But I haven't even told my parents, so why should I tell you?" ¹⁷She cried all week to try to get the answer from Samson. On the seventh day he finally gave in and told her the answer. Then she gave the answer to the 30 young men. ¹⁸Before sunset on the seventh day they went to Samson and gave the answer: "What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?" Samson replied, "If you hadn't plowed with my heifer (that is, if you hadn't persuaded my fiancée), you wouldn't have found out the answer to my riddle." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

¹⁹The Spirit of the LORD controlled Samson, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and he went to the Philistine town of Ashkelon, about 10 miles west. There he killed 30 men, took their clothing, and gave it to the 30 men at Timnah. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} In anger he left his bride-to-be and went home to live with his parents. ²⁰Then she married one of Samson's wedding attendants.

Lord, outward anger comes from lack of inward self-control. This is a strange mixture of outward "righteous indignation" and fleshly desires. Just as You used Samson who was not perfect, use me; I am not perfect. Amen.

Judges 15 More Women Problems

¹Later during the wheat harvest Samson took a young goat as a gift to the girl he thought was still his fiancée. He wanted to go into her bedroom, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} but her father said, "You can't do that. ²I thought you no longer loved her, so I gave her as the wife of one of your wedding attendants. But her sister is prettier than she is. So why not marry her instead?" ³Samson said, "I now have a right to get even with the Philistines."

⁴So he caught 300 foxes and tied together tails of every two foxes with a torch between each pair. ⁵He lit the torches and let the foxes run in the fields of the Philistines, burning both the standing wheat and the stacks of cut wheat, and destroying the olive trees. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁶When the Philistines asked who did this, someone told them Samson did it because his fiancée's father had given her to another man. So the Philistines went to Timnah, got the woman and her father, and burned them to death. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁷When Samson heard what they did, he said, "I will get even with you." ⁸So after he killed many Philistines, he went to live in a cave at Etam Rock, a few miles southwest of Bethlehem. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁹Then the Philistines set up camp in Judah and raided the town of Lehi. ¹⁰The people of Judah asked them, "Why have you attacked us?" The Philistines said, "We have come to capture Samson and to do to him what he did to some of our people."

¹¹A group of 3,000 men from Judah went to the cave where Samson was and said to him, "Don't you realize the Philistines rule over us? What are you doing to us?" He replied, "I was only getting even with them. I was doing to them what they had done to me." ¹²The men of Judah said, "Because you have endangered our lives by what you have done, we are turning you over to the Philistines." "Okay. But promise me you won't kill me." ¹³"No," they said. "We won't." So they tied him up with two new ropes and led him off.

¹⁴As Samson arrived at Lehi, the Philistines shouted with joy that he was captured. But the Spirit of the LORD controlled Samson, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and he snapped off the ropes on him like they were burnt pieces of cloth. ¹⁵Seeing a donkey's jawbone on the ground, Samson picked it up and used it to kill 1,000 Philistines. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁶He then said, "Using a donkey's jawbone I stacked up bodies in one pile after another. With a donkey's jawbone, I killed a thousand men." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁷Then he tossed the jawbone away and called the place Ramath Lehi (meaning "Jawbone Hill").

¹⁸He was so thirsty that he prayed, "LORD, You helped me defeat this enemy. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} Now please don't let me die of thirst {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} and be at the mercy of these pagans." ¹⁹God made water gush out of a hollow place in the ground, {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} and when Samson drank he felt strong again. He named the spring En Hakkure (meaning "The Caller's Spring"). ²⁰For 20 years Samson led Israel, but Philistines were still in the land. {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14}

Lord, teach me the principle that a solitary individual with limited resources can be influential for You against the crowd, when that individual is filled with the Spirit of God. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} Remind me that when I take a stand for You, many compromising believers will not stand with me, and they may even turn against me. You use ordinary little tools to get Your work done, tools like a donkey's jawbone, so use the little things in my life. Amen.

Judges 16 Samson at Gaza

¹One day Samson went to Gaza, a Philistine city, and slept with a prostitute. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ²Word spread that he was in Gaza, and so some Philistines went to the city gate to wait all night to kill him at dawn. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ³But at midnight he got up, tore the doors and parts of the city gate, put them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill near Hebron. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17}

⁴Later he fell in love with Delilah, who lived in the Sorek Valley in Philistine territory. ⁵The Philistine rulers went to her and said, "Find out why he is so strong and how we can overpower him and tie him up. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} If you do, each of us will give you 28 pounds of silver." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ⁶So she asked Samson the secret of his strength and what it would take to overpower him. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ⁷He said, "If someone were to tie me with seven new wet bowstrings, I'll be weak like everyone else."

⁸So the Philistine rulers gave her seven wet bowstrings and she tied him up with them. ⁹Some men were hiding in a room in her house, so that she yelled at Samson, "Samson, the Philistines are after you." He snapped the bowstrings as if they were charred pieces of string. So they did not know the secret of his strength.

¹⁰Then Delilah said to Samson, "You made fun of me and lied to me. So tell me how you can be tied up securely." {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ¹¹He said, "If you use new ropes, I'll be weak like anyone else." ¹²So she tied him with new ropes, and as before she shouted, "Samson, the Philistines are after you." But he snapped them off as if they were pieces of thread. ¹³Again she said, "You are still making fun of me and lying to me. So tell me how you can be tied up securely." ¹⁴He said, "Okay. Here's what you need to do. Weave the seven braids of my hair into the threads of a weaver's loom. Then I'll be weak like anyone else. So while he slept, she wove his hair braids into the threads of a loom. Again she yelled, "Samson, the Philistines are after you." He woke up and pulled up the loom and yanked his hair out from the fabric.

¹⁵Delilah said, "You say you love me, but three times you have made me look like a fool. And you still haven't told me why you are so strong." ¹⁶Every day she kept nagging him to tell her his secret until he couldn't stand it any longer. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ¹⁷So he told her, "I have never cut my hair because I have been a Nazarite all my life. If my hair were cut off, I would be as weak as anyone else." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

¹⁸Delilah urged the Philistine leaders to come back one more time. So they went to her house with their money in hand. ¹⁹She got him to sleep on her lap. Then she called in one of the men to shave off his hair. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} Delilah woke him up ²⁰and said, "Samson, the Philistines are after you." He woke up and thought, "I'll free myself like before." But he didn't realize that the Lord had left him. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²¹The Philistines grabbed him, blinded him, and took him to Gaza. They put him in prison and chained him with bronze chains. And they made him grind grain using a millstone. ²²But his hair began to grow back, about half an inch every month. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

²³To celebrate their defeat of Samson, the Philistine rulers offered {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} a sacrifice to their god Dagon. ²⁴They praised Dagon, saying, "Dagon has given our enemy Samson to us. He ruined our crops and killed our people" 25In their excitement they asked that Samson be brought out of prison to entertain them. ²⁶They made him stand near some columns that supported the roof of their temple. Then Samson asked the servant who held his hand to take him to the columns so he could lean against them. ²⁷The temple was packed with men and women and the Philistine rulers, and about 3,000 people were on the temple roof looking down into the courtyard.

²⁸Then Samson prayed, "O Sovereign God, please remember me {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} and give me strength so I can get even with the Philistines for putting out my eyes." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²⁹Then he put his right hand on one of the central columns and his left hand on the other. ³⁰He shouted, "Let me die with the Philistines." {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} When he pushed against the columns with all his strength, the temple crashed and killed everyone in it. Thus in this one moment he killed many more Philistines than when he was alive. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³¹His brothers and other relatives went to Gaza to get his corpse and bring it back home. They buried him in the tomb of Manoah his father {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} between Zorah and Eshtaol. He had led Israel for 20 years.

Lord, I think what Samson could have done if he had completely separated himself to You. I thank You for all he accomplished in spite of his lack of separation from sin. Use me... fill me... accomplish Your purpose in me. Amen.

Judges 17 Micah's Idols

¹A man named Micah lived in the hill country of Ephraim. ²One day he said to his mother, "Do you remember that someone stole about 28 pounds of silver from you, and you placed a curse on him. I confess; I'm the one." {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} His mother said, "May the Lord bless you, my son." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ³When he returned the money to her, she said, "In honor of my son I give this money to the Lord {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} so he can make an idol."

⁴After he gave her the money, she took four of the 28 pounds to a jeweler, who made an idol. And Micah and his mother kept the idol in their house. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4}

⁵In their home Micah had a shrine where he placed the idol and a priestly vest he made and some other household idols. He even made one of his sons his priest. ⁶This is not surprising because in those times when Israel had no king, everyone did whatever he wanted. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23}

⁷One day a young Levite from Bethlehem ⁸wanted to find a place where he could be a priest. He happened to arrive at Micah's house in Ephraim. 9When Micah asked him where he was from, he said, "I'm a Levite from Bethlehem, and I'm looking for a place to live." 10Micah said, "You are welcome to live with me. You can be my priest, and in return each year I'll give you 10 pieces of silver, and new clothes and food." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹¹The young man agreed to this and became like one of Micah's sons. ¹²Micah made the Levite his priest, and the Levite lived with Micah. 13 Then Micah said, "I'm sure the LORD will be good to me now that I have my own Levite as a priest." {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6}

Lord, stealing is always wrong, even from relatives. It's never right to do the wrong thing, even for a good purpose. So, may I always worship You in the right way with the right heart attitude. Amen.

Judges 18 Micah and the Tribe of Dan

¹In these days, when Israel did not have a king, the tribe of Dan was looking for a place to settle because they did not have any inherited land of their own. ²The tribe chose five soldiers from Zorah and Eshtaol to explore the land. One time they stayed overnight in Micah's house in Ephraim.

³Hearing the accent of Micah's young priest, they asked him why he was there.
⁴He explained that Micah had hired him as his live-in priest. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}
⁵So they asked him to ask God if their journey would be successful. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}
⁶The priest said, "Yes, the LORD knows where you are going." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

⁷Later the five men arrived in Laish in the north, where the people, like people in Sidon, felt safe and secure. They were prosperous and didn't need to depend on anyone else for protection. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ⁸When the five men returned to Zorah and Eshtaol, their relatives asked about their journey. ⁹The five men said, "We saw some good land up north. We can attack Laish and take it over. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ¹⁰When we all get there, you will see that the people think they are safe. God has given us this land that lacks nothing at all."

¹¹So 600 Danites, ready for battle, left Zurah and Eshtaol. ¹²One night they camped in Judah near Kiriath-Jearim (meaning "Dan's Camp"). ¹³Then they went to Micah's house in Ephraim. ¹⁴The five men who had spied the land said to the 600, "One of these houses has a priestly vest, household idols, and a carved idol. You know what to do."

¹⁵The five men went to see the Levite at Micah's house, ¹⁶while the 600 Danites

stayed by the town gate. ¹⁷The five went in and took the carved idols, priestly vest, and household idols, while the priest was with the 600. ¹⁸Then when he saw them take these items, he said, "Hey! What are you doing?" ¹⁹They said, "Be quiet and come with us. Wouldn't you rather be a priest for the entire tribe rather than for one family?" {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ²⁰The priest liked this idea, and so he took the priestly vest, household idols, and carved idols and went with the 600. ²¹They all started out again, with their children, livestock, and belongings in front of them.

²²When they had traveled a while, Micah asked his neighbors to help him get his idols back. When they caught up with the Danites ²³and shouted at them, the Danites said to Micah, "Why did you ask your neighbors to chase after us?" ²⁴Micah said, "You stole my idols and took my priest. I have nothing left." ²⁵The Danites responded, "Don't argue with us. Some of us are short-tempered and may kill you and your family." ²⁶The Danites then left, and Micah, knowing he was outnumbered, went home. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

²⁷The Danites went on with Micah's priestly vest, idols, and priest, and went to Laish and attacked and burned the city. ²⁸No one could rescue them because they were miles from Sidon and hadn't depended on anyone else for protection. The city was in a valley near Beth-Rehob. Then the Danites rebuilt the city and lived there.

²⁹They gave Laish the name Dan, after one of Jacob's sons. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ³⁰The Danites set up idols there, {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} and Jonathan, son of Gershom, son of Moses, and his sons were their priests until the people were taken away as captives. ³¹The tribe continued to worship the idols Micah had made, but the tabernacle was in Shiloh.

Lord, I want to live in peace like the people of Laish. I want contentment, and respect of others. It's when I don't defend my peace and I'm deceived about the enemy and I'm no longer on guard—that's when I'm in the most danger. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} Lord, I will keep watch over my soul and be on guard against the world, the flesh, and the devil. Protect me when I can't protect myself. Amen.

Judges 19 The Levite and His Concubine

¹In those days, when Israel still had no king, a Levite who lived in Ephraim's remote hill country brought home a concubine from Bethlehem. ²But she was unfaithful to him, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} and she went back to her father in Bethlehem. Four months later ³her Levite husband went with a servant and two donkeys to try to talk her into going back with him. When they arrived there, she invited them in, and her father was glad to see them. He asked them to stay awhile, and so they stayed three days, eating and drinking.

⁵On the fourth day the Levite and his servant got up early and were getting ready to go. But the woman's father suggested they have something to eat before they leave. ⁶So they did, ⁷and the father suggested they stay overnight. They finally gave in and stayed that night too. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} 8On the fifth morning the man and his servant again got up early and were ready to leave. But again the father urged them to stay, have something to eat, and leave that afternoon. ⁹But when afternoon came, as the man and his concubine and his servant were ready to leave, her father said, "It's getting late. So please stay overnight, and then you can leave in the morning." 10But this time the man didn't want to stay any longer. So they left and went toward Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), 11 and the Levite's servant suggested they stay overnight there. ¹²But the master said, "No, this is a city of foreigners. Let's go to Gibeah. 13We can spend the night either there or in nearby Ramah." 14As the sun was going down, they went into the town square of Gibeah, but no one invited them in.

¹⁵⁻¹⁶That evening an old man from Ephraim who was living in Gibeah was going home from working in the fields. ¹⁷Seeing the three in the town square, he asked them where they were from and where they were going. ¹⁸The Levite said, "We are going from Bethlehem to a remote place in Ephraim where I live. On the way we will stop at the tabernacle. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ¹⁹We have food for our donkeys and ourselves, so we don't need anything."

²⁰"Come stay at my place," the old man said. "No need for you to sleep here in the town square." ²¹The man took them home and fed their donkeys. After they washed their feet, they ate and drank. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 22While they were eating supper, some scoundrels pounded on the door and shouted to the old man, "Bring out the man who came to your house so we can have sex with him." {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ²³The old man went outside and said, "Don't do such a terrible thing. This man is my guest, and what you are suggesting is shameful. 24You can have my virgin daughter and this man's concubine, and do with them whatever you want. But don't do such a shameful thing to this man, who is my guest." ²⁵The men wouldn't listen to him. So the Levite pushed his concubine out the door, and they raped her all night. ²⁶At daybreak she went back to the door,

²⁷When her husband got up in the morning, he saw her lying there. ²⁸He said, "Get up. It's time to go." But there was no answer since she was dead. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} So he put her body on his donkey and left. ²⁹When he got home, he cut her body into 12 parts and sent one part to each tribe of Israel. ³⁰People who saw this were shocked. They said, "We've never seen anything like this before since we left Egypt several hundred years ago. What can we do about it?"

and fell down there.

Lord, evil comes in many different ways; help me recognize it and protect myself. A "lesser sin" is not any better in Your eyes than a "greater sin." May I never bargain with sin. Remind me that going against common sense and compromise leads to terrible results. Amen.

Judges 20 Israelites Punish the Benjamites for Their Sin

¹When the word about this crime appeared, all the Israelites from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south and Gilead east of the Jordan assembled in Mizpah. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²The tribal leaders and 400,000 soldiers were there, ³and the Benjamites heard about it. The leaders asked how this terrible thing happened.

⁴The Levite whose concubine was raped and killed said, "My concubine and I arrived in Gibeah to spend the night. ⁵During the night some men from town planned to kill me. But they raped my concubine and she died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁶Then I cut her body into 12 parts and sent one part to each tribe because of this terrible act. ⁷So what should we do about this?"

⁸Together the people said, "We'll not go home; ⁹Instead we'll cast lots to decide who will attack Gibeah. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁰We'll take one-tenth of the men from each tribe to give the soldiers food, and the others will give Gibeah what it deserves because of the terrible thing it did." ¹¹So the Israelite men were united and went to attack the town. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2}

¹²Messengers went through the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "A terrible crime was committed in Gibeah. ¹³So turn over to us these wicked men so we can put them to death and get rid of this sin." But the people of Benjamin refused to listen. ¹⁴They came from towns all over Benjamin to fight against the Israelites at Gibeah. ¹⁵In all, 26,000 soldiers with swords joined the 700 soldiers in Gibeah. ¹⁶Among these soldiers were 700 left-handed men who could sling a rock at a target the size of a hair and never miss.

¹⁷But the other tribes had 400,000 experienced soldiers. 18When the Israelites went to Bethel to ask God which tribe should go against the Benjamites first, He said, "Judah." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁹The next morning the Israelites camped near Gibeah 20 and started to go fight the Benjamites. 21But the Benjamites killed 22,000 Israelites that day. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ²²But the others encouraged each other, ²³and then cried before the Lord all day. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} When they asked the Lord whether they should again fight the Benjamites, their fellow Israelites, {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} the Lord said, "Yes, go against them." {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

²⁴⁻²⁵On this second day when the Israelites got ready to fight, the Benjamites killed

another 18,000 Israelite swordsmen. ²⁶So again the Israelites went to Bethel and cried before the LORD {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} and ate nothing all day. And they brought burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the LORD. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} ²⁷They asked the LORD if they should fight the Benjamites, their relatives. {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} (In those days the sacred chest was in Israel with ²⁸Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, as the high priest.) The LORD told them to fight them again because this time He would give them victory.

²⁹So the Israelites set an ambush against Gibeah. ³⁰And on the third day they did the same. ³¹Then as the Benjamites ran out of their city to kill Israelites as before, they killed about 30 Israelites in the fields and on the roads to Bethel and Gibeah. ³²The Benjamites thought they were winning as before, but the Israelites were running in order to draw the Benjamites away from the city of Gibeah. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

³³The Israelites ran toward Baal-Tamar. While the Israelites in ambush west of Gibeah charged against the Benjamites from behind, 10,000 ³⁴of Israel's best soldiers made a surprise attack on Gibeah. ³⁵The Lord helped Israel defeat Benjamin, striking down 25,100 Benjamite swordsmen. ³⁶Then the Benjamites knew they were defeated. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

The Israelites had retreated from Benjamin because they depended on the men in ambush against Gibeah. ³⁷These men in ambush rushed and went through all the city, killing everyone there. ³⁸Then they sent up a huge cloud of smoke as a signal ³⁹ for the Israelites to turn back {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} and attack the Benjamite soldiers. When the Benjamites had killed about 30 Israelites, they thought they were winning. 40But when the Benjamites saw the smoke going up, ⁴¹they were terrified {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} because they realized they were defeated. 42So they ran toward the desert but they couldn't escape. 43The Israelites surrounded the Benjamites, chased them down, and overtook them east of Gibeah. 44A total of 18,000 Benjamites died in that battle. 45As they fled to the desert to the Rimmon Rock in the desert, 5.000 of them were killed on the road, and as the Israelites chased them to Gidom, they killed 2,000 more.

⁴⁶That day 25,000 Benjamite brave soldiers died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁴⁷But 600 men made it alive to the Rimmon Rock, where they stayed for four months. ⁴⁸The Israelites went back to the tribe of Benjamin and killed every living thing, and they set every Benjamite town on fire.

Lord, the leaders of Benjamin made a foolish decision, and everyone paid a price. Help me make smart decisions for those I lead. Also help those who lead me to make smart decisions. Amen.

Judges 21 Wives for the Benjamites

¹The men of Israel had promised at Mizpah never to give their daughters in marriage to Benjamites. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²The people went to the place of worship at Bethel and sat in the Lord's presence all day. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³And they cried, "LORD, God of Israel, why has this happened to Israel? Now one of our own tribes is missing."

⁴The next day the people built an altar and presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the Lord. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 5 Then they wondered if any tribe was missing when they met in Mizpah to worship the LORD. They had made a promise {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} that if anyone didn't show up there, he would be put to death. 6The Israelites felt sad because they realized that the tribe of Benjamin was almost completely wiped out. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} They said, 7"A few Benjamite men are left, but how can we get wives for them since we promised the LORD that we would not give them our daughters as their wives?" {522 Vow-Violation Prayer, Ps. 65:1}

8-9When they asked if anyone was absent from their assembly at Mizpah, they counted the people and discovered that no one from Jabesh in Gilead had been there. 10-11So they sent 12,000 soldiers to Jabesh Gilead and told them to kill every male and every woman who was not a virgin. 12The soldiers found 400 young virgins in Jabesh Gilead and brought them to the camp in Shiloh in Canaan.

¹³The Israelites offered a peace treaty to the few remaining Benjamites at the Rimmon Rock. 14So the 400 women from Jabesh Gilead were given as wives to the Benjamites. But there were not enough. 15 This made the Israelites sad because one of their tribes was almost wiped out. 16-17 The elders were concerned about how to get wives for the other Benjamite men so the tribe would not be wiped out. 18 They said, "We can't give them our daughters because we promised the Lord we wouldn't do that." ¹⁹Then someone thought of the annual festival to the LORD in Shiloh, north of Bethel, south of Lebonah, and east of the road leading to Shechem. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} ²⁰So they told the Benjamites who did not have wives, "Hide in the vineyards, 21 and when the girls of Shiloh come out to dance, run out and each of you grab one of them to be your wife. ²²If their fathers or brothers object to this, we will say, 'Please understand. We couldn't find enough virgins for our men when we destroyed Jabesh in Gilead. And since you didn't give your daughters to them in marriage, you did not break a promise." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

²³So the men of Benjamin did this. As the young women were dancing, each man grabbed one of them and took her to be his wife. They went back to their land, rebuilt their towns, and lived there. ²⁴Then the Israelites left Shiloh and returned to their tribal territories and their homes. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²⁵In

those days Israel had no king, and so everyone did what he thought was right. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

Lord, these "Dark Ages" of Israel were terrible; people lived contrary to Your law, they were often wrong and suffered for it. Teach me to live according to what You've revealed as Your standard in the Word of God. Many of the people thought they were doing right when actually they were foolishly wrong. Lord, I know that sincerity and prayer are not enough to live and serve You correctly; I will live by Your law in the Bible. Amen.

Ruth

Ch 1: Elimelech and His Family Move to
Moab	381
Ch 2: Ruth Works in the Field of Boaz	383
CH 3: PLANS FOR A HUSBAND	384
Ch 4: Boaz Marries Ruth	385

RUTH

Key Word: Kinsman (Ruth 4:14)

Key Verse: "So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son" (4:13).

Theme: The author (possibly Samuel) tells a short story that begins with a crisis when Elimelech and his family abandon the Holy Land and move to the nation of Moab. Complications follow with Elimelech and his two sons dying, leaving a wife and two daughters-in-law with husbands. When Naomi tells the two widows to return to their family and idol worship, one of the two widows—Ruth—decides to follow the LORD of Israel and goes with her mother-in-law (Naomi) back to the Holy Land and Bethlehem. What appears to be a chance choice of a field to pick up leftover grain was obviously divine guidance {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} because the field was owned by Boaz, a family relative who becomes the "Kinsman Redeemer." Boaz redeems Ruth out of bankruptcy and marries her. Their son is Obed, the grandfather of King David.

Ruth is a picture of the Gentile bride—the church—which is redeemed by the family of David—Jesus Christ. It's also a picture of Gentiles who choose the salvation of the LORD, as did Ruth. Lord, I choose to follow Jesus Christ and will serve Him all my life. Amen.

Ruth 1 Elimelech and His Family Move to Moab the days of the judges a man from Bethlehem in Judah moved to Moab because of a famine. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ²The man's name was Elimelech, and his wife was Naomi and his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ³In Moab Elimelech died, and Naomi was left with her two sons. ⁴The two sons married Moabite women, Orpah and Ruth. Then 10 years later ⁵Mahlon and Kilion died." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} So Naomi was a lone widow and mother.

Lord, we don't mean to rebel against Your ways, it's just that we follow our rationalizations rather than seeking Your will in Scripture. It's amazing how we never consider Your will when making plans for our lives. Forgive our self-inclination. Amen.

⁶Hearing that the LORD had given His people crops again, Naomi decided to go back to Judah with her two daughters-inlaw. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ⁷As they started on their journey, ⁸Naomi said to her daughters-in-law, "Why don't you go back home? {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} The LORD will be kind to you just as you were to your husbands and me. 9May the LORD give each of you another husband." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} She kissed them good-bye and they cried, 10 and the two women said, "We will go with you." 11-12 Naomi insisted, "Why come with me? I'm too old to have another husband and to have sons whom you could marry. 13 And you wouldn't want to wait for them to grow up. No, life has been more difficult for me than for you because it seems that the LORD is against me." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁴Then they cried again and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-bye, but Ruth stayed with Naomi. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ¹⁵Naomi said, "Ruth, you see that your sister-in-law is going back home and to her gods. Why don't you go back too?"

¹⁶Ruth replied, "Please don't make me go back. I want to go where you go and live where you live. I want your people to be my people and your God to be my God. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ¹⁷When you and I die, I want to be buried next to you. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} And may the LORD punish me severely if we are ever separated."

Lord, Naomi was wrong to send Orpah back to idolatrous gods. May I never counsel this way. Lord, I will choose You, as did Ruth. Amen.

¹⁸Seeing that Ruth had made up her mind, Naomi stopped trying to urge her to go back to Moab. {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} 19When Naomi and Ruth reached Bethlehem, everyone was excited to see them. And the women asked, "Can this really be Naomi?" ²⁰She responded, "Don't call me Naomi (which means 'Pleasant'), call me Mara (which means 'Bitter'), {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} Why? Because God has made me bitter. ²¹I went away full, but I've returned with nothing. The LORD has been against me and has sent me tragedy." {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

²²The barley harvest was just beginning in March when Naomi and Ruth, her daughter-in-law from Moab, arrived in Bethlehem.

Lord, Ruth had absolutely no positive incentives to choose and follow You. May I have single vision as Ruth did, to choose You rather than anything else. I choose to follow You, no matter what. Amen.

Ruth 2 Ruth Works in the Field of Boaz

¹Boaz, a relative of Naomi's husband, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} was an important man in Bethlehem. ²One day Ruth said to Naomi, "Let me go pick up leftover grain in the fields. Maybe someone will be kind to me." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} Naomi said, "Sure, go ahead." 3So Ruth did, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} and it so happened that she was in Boaz's field. 4When she went to his field and greeted his workers with the words, "The LORD bless you," they responded, "And may the Lord bless you." {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ⁵Boaz asked the foreman, "Who is that young woman over there?" ⁶The foreman answered, "She came back from Moab with Naomi. 7She asked me if she could gather grain behind the harvesters. She has been working hard all morning except for a quick break in the shelter." {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

⁸Boaz went over and talked with her. He said, "Don't go gather grain in anyone else's field. Stay here and follow along after my servant girls. ⁹I've told the men not to bother you. And when you are thirsty, {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} feel free to get a drink from their water jars." ¹⁰She bowed to the ground and said, "Why are you so kind to me? You know I am a foreigner."

¹¹Boaz answered, "I have been told that you have been kind to your mother-in-law and that after your husband died you left your parents and your country to come live here in a foreign country. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} ¹²I pray that the LORD, under whose wings you will find protection, the God of Israel, will bless you." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

¹³Ruth said, "May I continue to please you. You have spoken so kindly to me, though I am not even one of your servant girls." ¹⁴At lunch Boaz said to Ruth, "Come eat with us." When she sat down with the workers, Boaz gave her some roasted grain, and she had more than she could eat.

¹⁵When she went back to work, Boaz told his workers to let her gather grain where it was stacked, 16 and to pull out some stalks from the bundles for her to pick up. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ¹⁷She worked till evening, and when she beat the grains of barley from the stalks, she had half a bushel. ¹⁸When she took back to Naomi the grain along with leftovers from her lunch, 19Naomi asked her, "In whose field did you work today? May the LORD bless the man who noticed you and was so kind to you." {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} Ruth told her she had been working in the field of a man named Boaz. ²⁰"May the LORD bless him!" Naomi said. "God continues to be kind to us and our dead loved ones. Boaz is a close relative, responsible to redeem us." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²¹Ruth then said, "Boaz even said I could continue working in his field during the entire harvest time."

²²Naomi said, "That's good that you can do that. You'll be safer there than in other fields." ²³And so Ruth gleaned with the servant girls during the barley and wheat harvests. All this time she was living with her mother-in-law. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

Lord, thank You for the example of Ruth. Give me character to work anywhere, under any conditions, to work faithfully until a job is done. Amen.

Ruth 3 Plans for a Husband

¹One day Naomi said to Ruth, "My daughter, I think it's time I found a home for you so you will be provided for. ²Tonight Boaz, a relative of yours, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} will be winnowing barley on the threshing floor. ³So I suggest you take a bath, put on some perfume, and wear some nice clothes. Then go to the threshing floor, but don't let him see you till he's finished supper. ⁴Notice where he lies down to sleep, and then quietly go lift the cover off his feet and lie down as a way of suggesting marriage."

⁵Ruth said, "I'll do whatever you say." ⁶She went to Boaz's threshing floor that night and did what her mother-in-law suggested. ⁷After Boaz ate, he lay down by a pile of grain and went to sleep. Ruth quietly uncovered his feet and lay down. ⁸During the night Boaz suddenly work up, {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} and he saw a woman lying near his feet. He asked, ⁹"Who are you?" She said, "I am Ruth. Please spread the corner of your blanket over me because you are a close relative responsible to redeem me." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

¹⁰Boaz said, "The Lord bless you. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} You are certainly loyal to your family. You could have preferred a younger man, whether rich or poor. ¹¹Don't worry; I'll do what you asked. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} Everyone in town knows you are a wonderful person. ¹²True, I am a close relative, but someone I know is more closely related to you than I am. ¹³I'll check with him in the morning to see if he is willing to redeem you, and then he can marry you. But if he isn't, then, as surely as the Lord lives, I'll marry you. So lie down here till morning." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

¹⁴Ruth got up before daybreak because Boaz had said he didn't want anyone to know she had been there. ¹⁵Then he put into her shawl six scoops of barley. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ¹⁶When Ruth went back to town, Naomi asked how everything went. ¹⁷Ruth said, "Boaz gave me this grain because he didn't want me to return to you with nothing for you." ¹⁸Naomi said, "It will be interesting to see what happens. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} I'm sure Boaz will take care of this matter today."

Lord, You put love in the hearts of men and women for each other. Teach me to love deeply those related to me, and deeply as You love me. Amen.

Ruth 4 Boaz Marries Ruth

¹Meanwhile Boaz went to the town gate and the other close relative came by. "Come over and sit down," Boaz said. The man did. ²Then Boaz got 10 town leaders to join them as witnesses. ³Then Boaz said to the man, "Naomi has returned from Moab and is putting up for sale the land her husband Elimelech owned. ⁴As his closest relative you have first choice on buying the land. If you want it, buy it now before these 10 witnesses. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} But if you don't want it, say so, because I am next in line to purchase it." The man said, "I'll buy it." ⁵Then Boaz said, "If you buy the land, you must also marry Ruth. That way her children will carry on the family name and the property will stay in the family." ⁶The other relative said, "I've changed my mind. If I marry her, that could make problems for my own estate. So you may redeem it; I can't." {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ⁷To finalize a sale of property

⁹Boaz told the 10 town leaders and others, "You are witnesses that today I have bought the property of Elimelech, Mahlon, and Kilion, ¹⁰and I have agreed to marry Ruth, Mahlon's widow. This will keep the property in the family and our children will carry on Mahlon's family name." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹¹The 10 leaders and others said, "We are one person would take off his sandal and give it to the other person. 8So the man let

Boaz buy the property, and he took off one of his sandals and gave it to Boaz.

witnesses. {468 Support-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} May the Lord give Ruth many children as He did for Leah and Rachel. May you be important in Ephratah and famous in Bethlehem. ¹²May your and her children be like those of Perez, the son of Tamar and Judah." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

¹³So Boaz married Ruth, and the LORD gave her a son. ¹⁴The women said to Naomi, "Praise the LORD. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} He has given you a grandson. We hope he will be famous throughout Israel. ¹⁵He will take care of you in your old age. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} He is the son of your daughter-in-law, who is better to you than your having seven sons."

¹⁶Naomi loved the boy and took care of him. ¹⁷The women of the neighborhood named him Obed, who became the father of Jesse and the grandfather of David. ¹⁸The family line from Perez to David was as follows: Perez, ¹⁹Hezron, Ram, ²⁰Amminadab, Nashon, ²¹Salmon, Boaz, ²²Obed, Jesse, David.

Lord, You sent Jesus to be my Kinsman-Redeemer; He came to be my relative (see Heb. 2:11). Then He took my sin and died for me (see 2 Cor. 5:21); Jesus paid my sin debt. He gave me life and freedom and now I choose to love and follow You. Amen.

1 SAMUEL

CH 1: HANNAH PRAYS FOR A SON389
CH 2: HANNAH PRAISES GOD391
CH 3: THE LORD CALLS SAMUEL393
Ch 4: The Philistines Capture the Sacred Chest
394
CH 5: TROUBLE RESULTED395
Ch 6: The Philistines Return the Sacred Chest
396
CH 7: SAMUEL LEADS ISRAEL397
CH 8: THE PEOPLE INSIST ON HAVING A KING398
Ch 9: Saul Meets Samuel399
Ch 10: Saul Becomes King400
Ch 11: Saul Rescues Jabesh Gilead401
CH 12: SAMUEL MAKES A SPEECH TO ISRAEL402
Ch 13: Saul Sinned at Gilgal404
Ch 14: Jonathan Attacks the Philistines405
Ch 15: God No Longer Wants Saul to Be King 407
Ch 16: Samuel Secretly Anoints David to Be the New King409
Ch 17: David Defeats Goliath410
CH 18: JONATHAN AND DAVID BECOME GOOD FRIENDS413
CH 19: SAUL TRIES TO KILL DAVID414
CH 20: IONATHAN HELPS DAVID ESCAPE416

CH 21: DAVID RECEIVES HELP FROM THE HIGH
Priest	418
CH 22: DAVID'S HIDEOUTS	419
CH 23: DAVID SAVES THE PEOPLE OF KEILAH	420
CH 24: DAVID SPARES SAUL'S LIFE	421
Ch 25: Samuel Dies	423
CH 26: DAVID SPARES SAUL'S LIFE AGAIN	425
CH 27: DAVID LIVES AMONG THE PHILISTINES	426
CH 28: SAUL CONSULTS A WITCH AT ENDOR	427
Ch 29: Achish Sends David and His Men to Ziklag	428
CH 30: DAVID DEFEATS THE AMALEKITES	429
CH 31: SAUL KILLS HIMSELF	430

1 SAMUEL

Key Word: King Saul (1 Samuel 11:15)

Key Verse: "And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, 'Samuel, Samuel.' Then Samuel answered, 'Speak; for thy servant heareth'" (3:10).

Theme: First Samuel marks the end of the time of the judges when, "Everyone did what he thought was right" (Judg. 21:25). The priesthood under Eli became corrupt, and Samuel introduced the office of prophets, and from then on a prophet, not a priest, primarily spoke the "words of God." Also this book introduces the office of king, when Samuel first anointed Saul. Then after Saul's rebellion against God, Samuel anointed David as the next king.

First Samuel contrasts the bad leadership of Saul with the godly leadership of David who was "a man after his (God's) own heart" (1 Sam. 13:14). Lord, I will seek You as did David, and I will follow You with all my heart. Amen.

1 Samuel 1 Hannah Prays for a Son lived in Ramathaim in Ephraim's hill country. His tather was Jeroham, his grandfather was Elihu, his great-grandfather was Tohu, and his great-grandfather was Zuph. So Elkanah was known as a Zuphite. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²He had two wives, Hannah and Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah didn't. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ³Once every year Elkanah went to Shiloh to worship the Lord of the Heavens and offer sacrifices at the tabernacle. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Eli was priest, as were Hophni and Phinehas, his sons. ⁴Elkanah gave some meat from his sacrifices to Peninnah and his sons and daughters. ⁵He {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} gave Hannah twice as much as he gave them to show his love for her since she had no children. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ⁶Peninnah made fun of Hannah since she couldn't get pregnant, and this bothered Hannah. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ⁷This happened every year. At the tabernacle Peninnah provoked Hannah so much that Hannah cried and didn't eat. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ⁸Elkanah would ask, "What's wrong, Hannah? Why don't you eat? Why do you feel so sad? You have me; aren't I better than if you had 10 sons?"

⁹One time when they were at Shiloh Hannah got up after supper and went to the tabernacle. Eli was sitting in a chair by the tabernacle entrance. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ¹⁰Hannah was so sad that she cried as she prayed. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} 11She promised the LORD, "Please notice my misery. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} If you give me a son, I will give him back to You for his entire life. {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} And as a sign of my dedicating him to You, we will never cut his hair." ¹²As she kept praying, Eli watched her. ¹³He noticed that her lips were moving, but he heard no words. {436 Silent-Prayer, Ps. 39:1-3} So, thinking she was drunk, 14he said, "How long will you stay drunk? Stop drinking wine." 15She said, "Sir, I am not drunk. I am deeply disturbed, {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} and so I was telling the LORD my problem. 16Please don't think I am wicked. I was praying because I am deeply grieved." {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10}

¹⁷Eli said, "In that case, stop worrying. May the God of Israel answer your prayers." {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ¹⁸She said, "I hope you will be pleased with me." Then she left, ate something, and no longer looked depressed.

¹⁹The next morning Elkanah and his family worshiped the LORD {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} and then went home to Ramathaim. Later the Lord helped Hannah get pregnant, {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} and ²⁰she had a son. She named him Samuel (meaning "Asked of God") because she had asked the LORD for him. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

²¹The next year Elkanah and his family went to Shiloh to give a sacrifice and to keep a promise he had made to the LORD. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²²But Hannah stayed home. She said, "I'll wait till I wean the boy, and then I'll present him to the LORD, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and he can be there the rest of his life." ²³Elkanah said, "That's fine. Stay with Samuel till you have weaned him. The LORD will help you keep your promise." {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} So Hannah stayed home and nursed the child.

²⁴Then when Samuel was still a small boy, Hannah took him and a three-year-old bull, half a bushel of flour, and some wine to Eli at Shiloh, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁵They killed the bull as a sacrifice to God and then took Samuel to Eli. ²⁶She said, "Do you remember that a few years ago I stood here, ²⁷praying that the LORD would give me a child? {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} Well, here he is. The LORD answered my prayer. ²⁸Now I am giving him to the Lord {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} to belong to Him as long as he lives." And they worshiped the LORD there. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

Lord, motivate me to keep praying when answers don't come. Then teach me how to pray the right thing in the right way. Also, teach me how to fast and when to fast for answers. I yield my prayer life to You. May Your will be done. Amen.

1 Samuel 2 Hannah Praises God

¹Then Hannah prayed {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} this prayer: "My heart is glad in the LORD; He has given me strength. Now I have an answer to my enemies {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} because You have given me relief from my problem.

²"No one is holy like You. And no one is as reliable like a rock as You are. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ³I can tell proud people to stop boasting, because the LORD knows all about us and judges what we do. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

4"The Lord breaks the bows of soldiers, and also He gives strength to the weak. 5People who had plenty to eat are now starving, and the hungry are now filled. The woman who had no children now has seven, but the one who had many children now has none. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

6"The LORD causes death and gives life. He brings some to the grave and raises some up. ⁷He makes some people poor and others rich. He puts some in low positions and others He lifts up.

8"He lifts the poor from being low in the dust, and He lifts up the needy from a pile of ashes. He gives them high positions with princes, and puts them in places of honor. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} He has set the world on pillars, making it stable and secure.

9"He protects every one of His people but the wicked will die in darkness. No one can succeed by himself. ¹⁰Anyone who opposes the LORD will be broken. He will thunder against them, and He will judge all the earth. He will give strength to His anointed king." {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

¹¹Then Elkanah and his family went home to Ramah, and the boy Samuel served the Lord as Eli's helper. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

¹²Eli's sons were wicked with no respect for the LORD. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ¹³Whenever someone was boiling meat from a sacrificed animal, 14a servant of Eli's sons would stick a fork into the pot, and give the meat to the priests. This is how they treated every Israelite who made a sacrifice at Shiloh. 15Sometimes even before the animal fat was burned, the servant would demand that some new meat be given so it could be roasted, not boiled. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ¹⁶If the man making the sacrifice said, "Okay. Take what you want, but first let me burn the fat," then the servant would say, "No. Give it to me now, or I'll take it by force." {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ¹⁷This sin of Eli's sons was terrible because they showed no respect for the sacrifices.

¹⁸By contrast Samuel was serving the LORD. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} He was wearing a priestly vest. ¹⁹Each year his mother made him a sleeveless garment and took it to him when she and her husband went to offer sacrifices in Shiloh. ²⁰Each year Eli blessed Elkanah and Hannah {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} and said, "May the LORD give you more children to take the place of Samuel." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} Then they would go home. ²¹The LORD gave Hannah three more sons and two daughters. And Samuel grew up in the tabernacle. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16}

²²When Eli, who was very old, {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} heard what his sons were doing to the people's sacrifices, and that they were sleeping with the women who served at the tabernacle entrance, {51 Blocked-Prayer, 1 Peter 3:7} ²³he said to them, "I have heard reports of your wicked ways. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²⁴You must stop doing this. These reports are not good. ²⁵If someone sins against another person, things can be made right. But if you sin against the LORD, no one can help you." {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} However, his sons paid no attention to their father's words. The LORD had already planned to kill them. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} ²⁶By contrast the boy Samuel continued to grow taller, and the people and the Lord liked him more. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

²⁷One day a prophet went to Eli and said, "The LORD says, 'As you know, I showed Myself to your ancestors when they were in Egypt under Pharaoh. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ²⁸Out of all the tribes of Israel I chose Aaron to be My priest, offering sacrifices, burning incense, while wearing a priestly vest. And I said that the priests could eat the meat from the sacrifices. ²⁹Why then do you and your sons have no respect for the sacrifices and offerings people bring? {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} And why do you put yourself and your sons ahead of Me by getting fat from the choice parts of the animal offerings?

³⁰"I had promised that you and the Levites would be My priests forever. But not now! {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} If you honored Me, I would honor you. But since you despise Me, I will despise you. ³¹So I will put an end to you and your family, ³²so that no one will live a long life. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³³You will cry with grief, and all of your descendants will die young. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

34"As proof that what I have said will come true, your two sons Hophni and Phinehas will die on the same day. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 35 Then I will choose someone to be My priest who will be faithful and will obey Me. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} I will bless his descendants, and they will serve as priests before My king. 36 If any one of your descendants is alive, he will beg My priest for money and food and he will ask to be a priest so he can have some food." {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13}

Lord, make me godly so I can have a godly influence on my children and grandchildren. I will be tough on sin so both my children and I can be godly. Don't let anything hinder my prayers from being answered. Amen.

1 Samuel 3 The Lord Calls Samuel

¹The boy Samuel served the LORD by helping Eli. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} In those days the LORD seldom spoke to His people, and He did not appear to them in visions. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} 2One night Eli, now almost blind, was in bed, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³and Samuel was lying down in the tabernacle near the curtain leading to the holy of holies. 4When the LORD called Samuel's name, Samuel said, "I'm here." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} 5Then he ran to Eli and said, "I'm here. What do you want?" Eli said, "I didn't call you. Go back to bed." So he did. ⁶Again the LORD called Samuel's name. So he got up and said to Eli, "I'm here." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Eli said, "Son, I didn't call you. Go back and lie down." ⁷The LORD had not spoken to Samuel before, and so he didn't realize the Lord was calling his name. 8Once more the LORD called Samuel's name, and he went to Eli and said as before, "I'm here." {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

Then Eli realized the LORD was the one calling the boy. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} °So he told Samuel, "Go, lie down, and if He calls you again, say, 'Yes, LORD, I am listening." {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} So Samuel went back to bed, ¹⁰and the LORD said, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} as before, "Samuel. Samuel." {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} And the boy answered, "Speak, LORD. I am listening." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

¹¹The LORD said, "I am going to do a shocking thing in Israel. ¹²I will do all the terrible things I warned Eli about. ¹³He knew his sons were doing disgusting things but he didn't stop them, so I told him I would punish him and his family. ¹⁴I told him that I would never forgive him and his family by sacrifices and offerings." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁵Samuel stayed in bed the rest of the night, and in the morning he opened the tabernacle doors. He was afraid to tell Eli what the Lord had said. {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} ¹⁶But Eli called him, and Samuel said, "I'm here." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹⁷Eli said, "What did the Lord say to you? If you don't tell me everything He said, may God punish you." ¹⁸So Samuel told Eli everything the Lord said. And Eli responded, "He is the LORD, and He will do what He thinks best." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹⁹As Samuel grew, the LORD was with him, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and everything he said came true. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ²⁰Everyone from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south knew that Samuel was a prophet of God. ²¹The LORD often appeared to Samuel in Shiloh, {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} and Samuel passed those words on to Israel.

Lord, forgive me when You've called and I didn't answer. Speak to me again, and I will answer, "Here am I to serve You." I will stop doing those things that block out Your call. Help me recognize Your call to me. I want to listen to everything You say. Amen.

1 Samuel 4 The Philistines Capture the Sacred Chest

¹One day when the Israelites went to fight the Philistines, the Israelite soldiers camped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines at Aphek. ²The Philistines defeated Israel, {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} killing about 4,000 of them. ³When the remaining Israelite soldiers went back to camp, the elders asked, "Why did the LORD let the Philistines defeat us? {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} Here's what we can do: Let's get the sacred chest from Shiloh and take it with us on the battlefield." {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

⁴So some of the soldiers went to Shiloh and brought back the sacred chest. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Hophni and Phinehas went with them and brought the sacred chest back to camp. ⁵When the group arrived with the sacred chest at the camp, the Israelites shouted with such joy that the ground shook. ⁶Hearing the noise, {290 Loud-Rejoicing}

Prayer, Ps. 100:1} the Philistines learned that the sacred chest was now in the Israelite camp, ⁷and they were frightened. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} They said, "A god has come into their camp. So we are in deep trouble. 8Who can save us from these gods? {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} They are the ones who destroyed the Egyptians with terrible disasters when they were in the desert. 9Be strong, all you Philistines. If we don't, we will become their slaves just as they were our slaves." ¹⁰The Philistines fought hard, and again defeated the Israelites, killing 30,000 soldiers, and the others ran to their tents. ¹¹The Philistines captured the sacred chest, and Hophni and Phinehas died. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

¹²A Benjamite ran to Shiloh with his clothes torn and dust on his head to express his grief. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} ¹³When he arrived, Eli was sitting in a chair by the roadside, just waiting and concerned about the sacred chest. The man told people in the town about the battle, and the people started crying. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 14Hearing this, Eli asked what was wrong. The man went over to Eli, 15 who was now 98 years old and blind, 16 and he said, "I just now escaped from the line of battle." Eli asked what happened, ¹⁷ and the man said, "Israel ran from the Philistines, many soldiers were killed, your two sons Hophni and Phinehas are dead, {311 Morning-Prayer, John 21:4} and the sacred chest has been captured."

¹⁸When the man mentioned the sacred chest, Eli fell backward off his chair by the town gate. He was a very heavy old man, and he broke his neck and died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} He had been a leader of Israel for 40 years.

¹⁹Eli's daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was about to give birth. When she heard that the sacred chest had been taken {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} and that her husband and his father had died, {311 Morning-Prayer, John 21:4} she went into hard labor. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 20 As she was dying, the women with her said, "Don't be afraid. It's a boy." But she didn't pay any attention or respond. ²¹Thinking about her husband and her father-in-law, she said, "My son's name is Ichabod (meaning 'No Glory')." 22 She said, "That's because God's glory left our people when the sacred chest was captured." {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59}

Lord, forgive me when my empty worship and secret sin have allowed the enemy a victory. I will not be indifferent in the future; I will fight to be spiritual and stay close to Your presence. Amen.

1 Samuel 5 Trouble Resulted

¹After the Philistines captured the sacred chest, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod, ²and they put it in their temple next to the statue of Dagon. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ³Early the next morning the people in Ashdod went to see the chest, the image of Dagon was lying face down in front of the chest. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} So they set it up in its place. ⁴The following morning the image of Dagon had fallen over again face down in front of the chest. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} And its head and both hands were broken off and were in the doorway. ⁵That is why the priests of Dagon and its worshipers will step over that part of the doorway and not on it. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4}

⁶The LORD caused sores to break out on the bodies of the people of Ashdod and their neighbors. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 7When the people saw this, they said, "The God of Israel has done this to us and our god Dagon, so we must get rid of their sacred chest. 8The people asked the Philistine rulers what to do about the Israelites' sacred chest. They said, "Move it to Gath." So they did. 9But there in Gath everyone, both old and young, got terrible sores, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and the people were in a panic. ¹⁰So they sent the sacred chest to Ekron, another Philistine town. Before the sacred chest even entered the city, the people yelled, "They've brought the Israelites' sacred chest here, and it will kill all of us." ¹¹So the people of Ekron got the Philistine rulers together and said, "Please send the Israelite sacred chest away, or it will kill us." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} The people of the city were in a panic because a lot of people were dying. 12Even those who didn't die were suffering from the sores, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and the whole city was in tears.

Lord, I will not carry You any place where I can't magnify You. I won't go there either. I will do what I know You want me to do; I will bow before You. Amen.

1 Samuel 6 The Philistines Return the Sacred Chest

¹After the sacred chest had been in Philistia seven months, ²the people asked their priests and fortune-tellers what to do with the sacred chest and how to send it back. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ³They said, "Send it back with a gift. Send with it an offering that admits your guilt. And then you will be healed {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} and realize why you have had this problem."

⁴When the Philistines asked what guilt offering they should send, the priests and fortune-tellers said, "Since all five Philistine rulers have these sores just as you do, send five gold models of the sores and five gold models of the rats that are destroying your crops. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ⁵In this way you will honor Israel's God, and perhaps He will then stop bringing all this trouble on you, your gods, and your crops. ⁶Don't be stubborn like the Egyptians and Pharaoh. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} As you know, God sent terrible plagues on them, and they finally let Israel go.

⁷"Get a new cart and two cows that have young calves and have never pulled a cart.

Hitch the cows to the cart, but put their calves back in the barn. ⁸Put the sacred chest on the cart, and put the gold sores and gold rats in a box next to the sacred chest. Send it away, ⁹and watch it to see if it goes to the town of Beth-Shemesh. If it does, you know that the Lord brought this disaster on us. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} But if it doesn't go into Israelite territory, then you'll know that this just happened by chance, and was not caused by the Lord. ⁸ {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹⁰So they hitched two cows to a cart and put the calves back in the barn. ¹¹They put the sacred chest on the cart and next to it the box with the models of the gold rats and sores in it. ¹²The cows went straight to Beth-Shemesh, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} mooing as they went. The Philistine rulers followed them up to the border of Beth-Shemesh. ¹³The people of the town were harvesting wheat in the valley, and when they saw the sacred chest, they were very happy. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

¹⁴The cart came to the field of Joshua from Beth-Shemesh, and the cows stopped by a large rock. The people chopped up the cart and sacrificed the cows as a burnt offering to the Lord. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁵Some Levites who were there took down the sacred chest and the box with the gold objects and placed them on a rock. Then the people of the town offered more sacrifices to the LORD. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ¹⁶The five Philistine rulers watched all this and then returned to Ekron.

¹⁷These gold sores sent from the Philistines as a guilt offering to the Lord represented the five towns of Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. ¹⁸The five gold rats also represented these same five towns and their surrounding villages. The large rock where the Israelites set the sacred chest is a reminder there in Joshua's field of what happened.

¹⁹However, 70 of the men of Beth-Shemesh looked inside the sacred chest. And so God killed them all. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Because of this the people of the town grieved over this loss. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ²⁰The men said to each other, "Who can stand in the LORD's presence and live? {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Where can we send the sacred chest from here?" ²¹They sent messengers to Kiriath-Jearim to say, "The Philistines have sent back the sacred chest. Please come back and get it."

Lord, I know You want worship, so I will be clean mentally, physically, socially, sexually, and spiritually so I can worship You effectively. Amen.

1 Samuel 7 Samuel Leads Israel

¹The people of Kiriath-Jearim got the sacred chest and took it to Abinadab's house on a hill, and they chose his son Eleazar to guard it. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²It was there for 20 years. During this time everyone was sad and asked the LORD to help them. {399

Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 3Samuel told everyone, "To get back with the Lord completely, you need to get rid of all your foreign idols and the images of the goddess Ashtoreth. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Commit yourselves to the Lord and serve only Him, He will rescue you from the Philistines." {417 Samuel Fast and Prayer, 1 Sam. 7:6} ⁴The Israelites got rid of their idols of Baal and Ashtoreth {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} and served only the Lord. 5Then Samuel said, "Have everyone meet at Mizpah, and I will pray for you there." 6So they all met at Mizpah, {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} and drew water from a well and poured it out as an offering to the LORD. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} They ate nothing all day, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and they confessed that they had been unfaithful to the LORD. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9}

⁷When the Philistine leaders heard that all the Israelites were at Mizpah, they sent an army to attack them. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} Hearing of this, the Israelites were afraid. 8They told Samuel, "Keep praying, {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} and ask God to rescue us." ⁹Then Samuel offered a young lamb as a burnt offering, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and he prayed to the LORD for help, {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} and the LORD answered. 10 Just as the Philistines were ready to attack, the LORD made it thunder so loud {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} that it scared the Philistines. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} They were in such a panic that they ran from the Israelites. ¹¹The Israelites ran after the Philistines, killing many of them on the way to Beth-Car. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

¹²Samuel propped up a stone between Mizpah and Shen and called it Ebenezer (meaning "Stone of Help") to remind Israel that the Lord had helped them. ¹³So the Philistines did not attack Israel again for a long time, {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} including all of Samuel's lifetime. ¹⁴The Israelites were able to retake towns from Ekron to Gath. Also there was peace between Israel and the Amorites. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

¹⁵Samuel was a judge in Israel all his life. ¹⁶Every year he went to the towns of Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah to serve as judge over disputes among the people. ¹⁷He always returned to his home town in Ramah where he served as judge. And he built an altar there to the LORD. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

Lord, I will live for You today and worship You today because yesterday's victories are the foundation for another victory tomorrow. Forgive my doubts and make me strong. Amen.

1 Samuel 8 The People Insist on Having a King

¹When Samuel grew old, he made his two sons as judges. ²One was Joel, and the other was Abijah, and they were judges at Beersheba. ³But his sons did not follow him. They accepted bribes and were dishonest. ⁴So Israel's leaders went to Samuel in Ramah, ⁵and they said to him, "You are old, and your sons are not following your ways. So we suggest you choose someone to be our king, like kings of other nations." ⁶Their asking for a king displeased Samuel, so he asked the LORD about it. ⁷The LORD said, "The people have rejected Me, not you. ⁸They are turning from you just as they turned from Me and have been worshiping other gods ever since I rescued them from Egypt. ⁹So warn them and tell them what a king will do to them."

¹⁰Speaking to the people, ¹¹Samuel said, "Here's how a king will treat you. He will draft your sons into his army. Some of them will ride chariots and others will run ahead of the chariots. 12 Some will be made commanders, others will farm his land and harvest his crops, and he will have some of them make weapons and chariot equipment. 13He will force your daughters to work for him, making perfume and doing cooking and baking. 14He will take the best of your fields, vineyards, and olive groves and give them to his officials. 15 Also he will require you to give him a tenth of your grain and grapes for his officials. ¹⁶⁻¹⁷He will take your servants and the best of your livestock and a tenth of your sheep and goats, all for himself. In fact you will become his slaves. ¹⁸Then you will beg the Lord for relief. But He won't answer you." ¹⁹The people refused to respond to this warning. They said, "We want a king anyway. 20 He can rule over us and lead us in battles against our enemies." 21When

Samuel told the LORD how they responded, ²²He said, "Okay. Go ahead and give them a king." Then Samuel told them to all go back home.

Lord, teach me when it's wrong to pray. I don't want to be blinded to Your will. Keep reminding me about the enemy and don't let me substitute earthly protection for Your divine protection. Amen.

1 Samuel 9 Saul Meets Samuel

¹⁻²Saul was a handsome man and was a head taller than anyone else. His father Kish was an influential man of the tribe of Benjamin. Saul's grandfather was Abiel, and Abiel's lineage included Zeror, Becorath, and Aphiah. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

³One day some of Kish's donkeys ran off, and so he told his son Saul to go look for them. ⁴So he and a servant of his went all through the hill country of Ephraim and around Shalishah, but couldn't find them. They even went to Shaalim and Benjamin, but they couldn't find them anywhere. {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3}

⁵When they got to the district of Zuph, Saul suggested to his servant that they go on home "because my dad may be worried about us." ⁶But the servant said, "I have an idea. In this town there is a highly respected man of God. Maybe he can tell us where to look." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁷Saul said, "Yes, but what can we give him as a gift? All our food is gone." {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} 8The servant said, "I have a small silver piece we could give him." 9-10Saul said, "Good. Let's go." 11Going up the hill to the town, they saw some girls coming to draw water and they asked them, "Is the seer here?" (In those days prophets were called seers, men who received messages from God in visions.) {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

12-13"Yes," they said. "He just got back in town. And he's on his way to offer a sacrifice up the hill {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and to eat with the villagers. If you hurry, you'll find him." ¹⁴As Saul and his servant went toward town, Samuel was coming their way to go to the hilltop shrine. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} ¹⁵⁻¹⁶The day before this, the LORD had told Samuel that he would meet a man from Benjamin and that Samuel was to make him the leader of the Israelites {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} to rescue His people from the Philistines. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

¹⁷When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said, "This is the man. He will rule My people." ¹⁸Saul asked Samuel at the town gate, "Can you tell me where we can find the seer?" ¹⁹Samuel said, "I am the seer. Come on up to the hilltop shrine {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} and eat with me. In the morning I will tell you whatever you need to know. ²⁰Don't worry about your father's donkeys that ran off three days ago. They have been found. All Israel is now focused on you and your family." ²¹Saul said, "But I am from Israel's smallest tribe {307}

Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} and the least important clan in my tribe."

²²Samuel took Saul and his servant into the hall at the hilltop shrine and seated them at the head of the 30 or so who had been invited. ²³Samuel told the cook to bring the best piece of meat, 24 and when he did, Samuel said to Saul, "This is for you, and I invited these guests to eat with you." {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} ²⁵Then they went back to town and Samuel and Saul visited on the roof of Samuel's home. ²⁶In the morning Samuel woke Saul up and told him he would help him get ready to leave. {168 First Prayer Each Day, Luke 11:1-2} ²⁷Then at the edge of town Samuel suggested that Saul have his servant go ahead. "But," Samuel said, "You stay here with me for a few minutes because God has something for me to tell you."

Lord, I will study carefully how Saul corrupted himself, and I will think differently, and do things differently, so I will not backslide. Then I will look for Your hand working in my life in small circumstantial ways. I want to accomplish something greater with my life than what I'm doing now. Anoint me for service. Lord, stretch me... fill me... guide me... and use me. Amen.

1 Samuel 10 Saul Becomes King

¹Samuel took a small jar of olive oil and poured it on Saul's head. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} He kissed Saul and said, "The LORD has chosen you to be the leader of His people. ²When you are on your way today, you'll meet two men near Rachel's tomb at Zelzah in the territory of Benjamin. They will tell you your father's donkeys have been found. Your father has forgotten about them and is now worried about you. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

³"So go on from there to the big oak tree at Tabor. There you'll meet three men going up to Bethel. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} One of them will have three young goats, another will have three loaves of bread, and another some wine in a wineskin. 4They will give you two loaves of bread. 5Then go on to Gibeah where some Philistines are camped. You'll meet some prophets coming down from the nearby hilltop shrine, playing musical instruments and prophesying. ⁶The Spirit of the LORD {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} will control you, and you will be like a different person, prophesying with them. ⁷Then do whatever you feel is best, because God will be with you. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} 8Then go to Gilgal. Wait for me there, and in seven days {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14} I will go there to sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} Then I'll tell you what to do next."

⁹As Saul turned to leave, God changed his heart and all the things happened just as Samuel had said. ¹⁰At Gibeah some prophets met Saul, and again the Spirit of God controlled Saul {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and he joined them in prophesying. ¹¹People who had known

Saul before said, "What's happened to him? Is he really a prophet?" ¹²A man who lived there said, "Why not? It doesn't matter who his father is. God can cause anyone He wants to prophesy." Yet everyone was so amazed that Saul prophesied, that the people began saying, "Is Saul also a prophet?" ¹³Then Saul went to the hilltop shrine to worship. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

¹⁴Saul's uncle asked Saul and his servants, "Where have you two been?" Saul said, "We were looking for my dad's donkeys. We couldn't find them, so we went to talk with Samuel." 15 Saul's uncle asked, "What did he say?" 16Saul replied, "He told us the donkeys had been found." But Saul said nothing about his being chosen as king. ¹⁷Samuel had all the people meet together at Mizpah. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁸He said, "Here's what the LORD, the God of Israel says, 'I rescued you from Egypt's power and from other nations that have troubled you. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 19But you have rejected Me, even though I rescued you from many problems, and you insisted that you have a king.' So each tribe and clan must now present themselves to the Lord."

²⁰So Samuel brought each tribe to the Lord, and he chose the tribe of Benjamin. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ²¹Then when each clan in that tribe was brought to the Lord, he chose the clan of Matri, and from that clan he chose Saul, Kish's son. But when they looked for him, he was nowhere to be found. ²²So the people asked the LORD where he was, {207

Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} and the LORD said, "He is hiding with the baggage." {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9}

²³The people ran to find him, and as he stood there he was a head taller than anyone else. ²⁴Samuel said, "This is the man the LORD has chosen. You can see that no one is like him." {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} Then the crowd shouted, "May the king live a long life."

²⁵Then Samuel told the people the rights and duties of a king and he wrote them all down on a scroll. And he put the scroll in the tabernacle. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Then Samuel sent everyone home. ²⁶Saul went home to Gibeah, and some men who felt led by the Lord went with him. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ²⁷But some rascals said, "How can Saul rescue us from our enemies?" They hated him and didn't give him any gifts. But Saul said nothing about them.

Lord, teach me the difference between real humility and fake humility. Then may I be bold when I should lead, and may I "hide behind the baggage" when I should be humble. Amen.

1 Samuel 11 Saul Rescues Jabesh Gilead

¹When Nahash, king of the Ammonites, attacked Jabesh in Gilead, the leaders of the town suggested that if he made a peace treaty with them, the Israelites would be their servants. {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} ²Nahash answered, "Yes, I will make a treaty with you, but first I will gouge out the right eye of every man in your town."

³The elders said, "Give us seven days to see if we can get some help. And if not, we will surrender to you." {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18}

⁴The messengers arrived in Gibeah, Saul's hometown, and when they told about the problem at Jabesh, the people cried. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} 5Just then Saul was coming from plowing in the fields, walking behind his oxen. "Why is everyone crying?" he asked. When they told him the situation, 6the Spirit of God controlled Saul in a powerful way, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and he was very angry. ⁷He killed two of his oxen, cut them in pieces, and had messengers take the pieces and say to the Israelites, "Come follow Saul and Samuel into battle. If you don't, this is what will happen to your oxen." The LORD made the people so afraid that they all came together as one. 8A total of 30,000 came from Judah, and 300,000 from all the other tribes, and they assembled at Bezek. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8}

⁹Saul told the messengers to say to the people of Jabesh, "We will rescue you by tomorrow afternoon." {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} When the people heard this, they were excited. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹⁰So they told the Ammonites, "We will surrender to you tomorrow, and then you can do whatever you want." ¹¹The next day Saul divided his army into three groups and launched a surprise attack in the late hours of the night. They killed Ammonite soldiers well into the afternoon of the next day. A few escaped, but no two of them were together. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

12Some of the people of Israel went to Saul and said, "Who said they didn't want you to be king? We will kill them." 13Saul said, "No. Don't do that. We can all be grateful that the LORD has rescued us today." {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 14Then Samuel said, "Let's all go to Gilgal and agree together there that Saul should be our king." 15So everyone went to Gilgal, and before the LORD they agreed that Saul should be their king. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} They sacrificed fellowship offerings to the LORD, and everyone enjoyed a great celebration.

Lord, I don't have much but what I have I give to You. Use me according to Your usefulness. Make me better than I am, and help me accomplish more than I could without Your power working through me. Amen.

1 Samuel 12 Samuel Makes a Speech to Israel

¹Samuel told the Israelites, "I have given you a king as you asked. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ²I am now old and my hair is gray, {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} and my sons are grown. I have been your leader since I was a young man. But now you have a king as your leader. ³Think back on my life. Have I ever taken anyone's ox or donkey or cheated you or troubled you in any way? Have I ever accepted a bribe to keep me from being honest? If I have done any of these things, I will make it right. ⁴The Israelites said, "No. You have never cheated or troubled us or stolen from us." ⁵Samuel said, "The LORD and the king are witnesses of what you said." {308 Mizpah Benediction-Prayer, Gen. 31:49} They replied, "Yes, that is true."

6 Then Samuel said, "The LORD used Moses and Aaron to rescue your ancestors from Egypt. 7 Now I want to remind you of all the LORD has done for you and your ancestors. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 8 After Jacob went to Egypt, your ancestors asked the Lord to help them, and He sent Moses and Aaron to lead your ancestors out of Egypt and to settle them here. 9 But when they forgot the LORD, He let them be defeated by Sisera, commander of Hazor's army, and the Philistines and the king of Moab.

¹⁰"Again your ancestors asked the LORD to help them. They admitted that they had sinned {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} by forgetting Him and worshiping idols of Baal and Astarte, and they promised to worship Him if He would rescue them. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ¹¹So the LORD sent Gideon, Barak, Jephthah, and myself to rescue you from your enemies. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹²When you saw that Nahash, king of the Ammonites, was going to attack you, you said you wanted a king to rule over you, even though the LORD your God was your king.

¹³"So here is the king you've chosen, the one the LORD has made your king. ¹⁴Now you need to reverence the LORD {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} and serve and obey Him and not rebel against His commands. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁵But if you don't obey Him and you rebel against His commands, you will face serious problems. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁶"Stand here and watch what the LORD will do. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁷It never rains during the wheat harvest, but I'm going to ask the LORD to send thunder and rain. Why? This will be a sign that you were wrong in asking for a king." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁸Then Samuel prayed, and the LORD sent thunder and rain. The people all stood amazed. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} 19So they asked Samuel to pray that they would not die. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} They admitted they had sinned in the past many times, including asking for a king. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9}

²⁰Samuel answered, "Don't be afraid. True, you sinned. But now follow the LORD and serve Him wholeheartedly. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²¹Don't worship idols. They are powerless and can't help you in any way. ²²The LORD won't reject you. That's because of His reputation, {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} and because you belong to Him. ²³I won't stop praying for you. {248

Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} If I did, I would be sinning against the LORD. I will continue to teach you how to live for the Lord, ²⁴and your part is to continue to reverence and serve the LORD {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} with all your heart and to remember all the wonderful things He has done for you. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ²⁵But if you and your king continue to sin, you and he will be destroyed." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, I will pray continually for my family, leaders, and those I lead. I want to become effective in prayer; teach me to pray. Amen.

1 Samuel 13 Saul Sinned at Gilgal

¹Saul was 30 years old when he became king, and he ruled Israel for 40 years. ²Of the 3,000 men Saul chose as special troops, two-thirds of them were with him at Micmash in the hills near Bethel, and one-third were with Jonathan at Gibeah in the tribe of Benjamin.

³Jonathan, Saul's son, attacked the Philistine army at Geba, and news of this spread among other Philistines. So Saul sounded an alarm throughout the land. ⁴He announced that because he had attacked the Philistine outpost, the Philistines now hated Israel more than ever. So he ordered all the soldiers to join him at Gilgal. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

⁵The Philistines had 3,000 chariots with two chariot drivers in each one, and their soldiers were as numerous as grains of sand on the seashore. They camped at Micmash, just east of Beth-Aven (that is, Bethel). ⁶The Israelites, seeing they were outnumbered, {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} hid in caves, under thick bushes, under rocks, and in pits and dry wells. ⁷Some even crossed the Jordan River to Gad and Gilead. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} Saul stayed at Gilgal, and the men with him were terribly frightened. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

8Saul waited at Gilgal seven days as Samuel had told him to do. But when Samuel didn't come, 9Saul ordered his men to help him offer a burnt offering and a fellowship offering. 10 Just as Saul was finishing with the burnt offering, Samuel arrived and Saul went over to greet him. 11Surprised, Samuel said, "What have you done, {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} making a burnt offering?" Saul replied, "My soldiers were running off in all directions and you hadn't come when you said you would, and the Philistine soldiers were gathering at Micmash. 12I was afraid the Philistines would attack us here at Gilgal, and since you weren't here, I went ahead and offered a sacrifice." {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} 13Samuel said, "Saul, that was a stupid thing to do. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} If you had obeyed the Lord your God, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} He would continue to have someone from your family as king from now on. 14But because you sinned, that won't happen. In fact He has already chosen the one to be Israel's next king, a man who loves what God loves."

¹⁵Then Samuel left Gilgal and went to Gibeah, and about 60 men were with Saul. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

¹⁶Saul and his son Jonathan were at Geba, and the Philistines were at Micmash.

¹⁷Every day some Philistine soldiers attacked the Israelites. One group went north toward Ophrah near Shual, {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

¹⁸another went west to Beth-Heron, and a third went east toward the desert near the Zeboiim Valley.

¹⁹No blacksmiths were in Israel those days because the Philistines made sure the Israelites couldn't make swords and spears. ²⁰So whenever the Israelites needed to have their plowshares, picks, axes, and sickles sharpened, they had to go to the Philistines. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ²¹And their prices were high. ²²So in their battles no one had a sword or spear, except Saul and Jonathan.

²³Some Philistines moved their camp to the pass at Micmash.

Lord, keep me from presumptuous sins and teach me patience. From now on I'll obey; I'll meet You each day. Amen.

1 Samuel 14 Jonathan Attacks the Philistines

¹One day Jonathan said to his armorbearer, "Let's go to the Philistine camp on the other side of the valley." He didn't tell his father, {52 Boldness Request in Prayer,

2 Tim. 1:8} ²who was near Gibeah, sitting under a pomegranate tree in Migron. About 600 men were with him, ³including Ahijah, who was wearing a priestly vest. He was a great-grandson of Eli. And so he knew Jonathan had left. ⁴⁻⁵A cliff to the north of Micmash was called Bozez, and a cliff to the south was called Seneh.

⁶Jonathan suggested, "Let's go toward the outpost of these pagans. Maybe the LORD will help us. {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} He can help a few soldiers like us just as easily as He can help a large number." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁷The armor-bearer responded, "Whatever you say. I'm with you completely." {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} 8So Jonathan said, "Here's the plan. We'll cross over and let them see us. 9If they say, 'Wait there where you are in the valley, we won't climb up to their camp. 10But if they say, 'Come up here and fight us,' that will be the sign that the Lord will help us win." {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8}

¹¹So Jonathan and his armor-bearer stood in the valley where the Philistines saw them. The Philistines said, "Look. These Israelites are crawling out of their holes." ¹²Then they yelled to Jonathan and his armor-bearer, "Come up here, and we'll teach you a lesson on how to fight." So Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "Climb on up after me. The LORD will help us win." {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23}

¹³Jonathan climbed up the side of the hill, with his armor-bearer right behind him. Jonathan killed some soldiers in front of him, and his armor-bearer killed those who were behind him. ¹⁴That day they killed about 20 men in an area of about half an acre. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁵The whole Philistine army panicked—those in the camp, those on guard at the outposts, and the attacking forces. Then God sent an earthquake, and the earth shook. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

¹⁶When Saul realized the Philistines were running off in every direction, ¹⁷he asked that his officers see who was missing from their forces. When he learned that Jonathan and his armor-bearer were the ones missing, ¹⁸he asked Ahijah the priest to bring the sacred chest. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 19But when Saul and Ahijah were talking, they heard that the noise and confusion among the Philistines kept getting louder. So Saul said to Ahijah, "Never mind." 20 Saul got his men together and led them to the Philistines, and saw that they were in such a panic of confusion that they were killing each other. ²¹Some men who had joined with the Philistines now left and went back with the Israelites. ²²Some Israelites had hidden in the hills of Ephraim, but when they heard that the Philistines were on the run, they joined in the chase. ²³So the Lord rescued Israel that day. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²⁴The Israelite soldiers were weak because Saul had made them agree {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} that if they are anything that day, while he was getting even with the Philistines, they would be under a curse. ²⁵The army went into a forest ²⁶and saw some honey on the ground. {388

Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} No one dared eat any of it because of Saul's words about the curse. ²⁷But Jonathan didn't know about this, so he dipped the end of his stick in the honey. As soon as he ate some of it, he felt stronger. ²⁸One of the soldiers told him, "Saul said a curse would be on any soldier who ate any food today. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} That explains why we are all so weak."

²⁹Jonathan said, "That is a foolish command. Notice how much stronger I feel after eating just a little bit of honey. ³⁰If the men had eaten some of the food they took from the Philistines, they would feel better and they could have killed even more Philistines." {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24}

³¹That day after the Israelites had killed Philistines from Micmash to Aijalon, about 20 miles away, they were very tired. ³²That evening they butchered sheep, cows, and calves belonging to the Philistines and ate the meat from the animals with the blood. ³³Someone told Saul they were eating blood. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} Saul said, "That's wrong. Roll a big rock over here. ³⁴Then tell the men to bring me their cows and sheep and kill them here on this rock. And tell them not to sin against the Lord by eating meat with blood in it." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} So they did. 35Then Saul built an altar to the Lord.

³⁶Saul said to his soldiers, "Let's attack the Philistines again and fight them all night and kill every one of them." {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} They said, "We'll do whatever you think is best."

But Ahijah the priest suggested they ask the Lord about this. ³⁷So Saul asked God if they should attack the Philistines, but God did not answer him. {324 Non-Answer to Prayer, Ps. 18:41} 38So Saul said, "Let's find out who has committed some sin today. 39Even if it's my own son Jonathan, he must die." No one said anything. ⁴⁰Saul told the soldiers, "You stand there, and Jonathan and I will stand opposite of you over here." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} The men agreed. 41 Then Saul asked the LORD, the God of Israel, for the answer. 42When they cast lots, everyone was cleared except Jonathan and Saul. Then when the lots were cast again, Jonathan was chosen. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁴³Saul then asked Jonathan what he had done. He said, "I simply tasted a little honey on the end of my stick. Why must I die for that?" 44"Yes, Jonathan, you must die."

⁴⁵The soldiers were against the idea. They said to Saul, "Why should he die when he has rescued us from the Philistines? Not even a hair on his head will be touched because of what he did for us with the LORD's help." In this way the army kept Saul from killing Jonathan, his own son. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ⁴⁶Then Saul stopped hunting the Philistines, and everyone went home.

⁴⁷⁻⁴⁸Saul fought Israel's enemies in every direction, against the Moabites, Ammonites, Edom, kings of Zobah, Philistines, and Amalekites. He had victory over them all. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ⁴⁹Saul had these sons: Jonathan, Ishri (also called Ish-Bosheth), and Malki-Shua. His two daughters were Merab and Michal. ⁵⁰His wife was Ahihoam, daughter of Ahimaaz. His army commander was his cousin Abner. ⁵¹And his father was Kish. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

⁵²All his life Saul fought the Philistines. And he drafted into his army every brave man he saw.

Lord, forgive my faulty perceptions that make me fail. Amen.

1 Samuel 15 God No Longer Wants Saul to Be King

how, I am the one the LORD sent to appoint you king over Israel. So here is a message from Him, the Lord of the Heavens. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} 'I will punish the Amalekites and destroy them all and everything they own. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 'Put to death men, women, children, babies, and all their livestock."

⁴So Saul gathered soldiers at Telaim in southern Judah, including 200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 from the tribe of Judah. ⁵After getting an ambush ready, ⁶Saul told the Kenites to leave that area so they wouldn't be destroyed. That's because the Kenites were kind to the Israelites in the desert. So the Kenites left. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} ⁷Then Saul attacked the Amalekites all the way from Havilah to Shur, east of Egypt. ⁸Saul kept Agag their king but destroyed all the people. ⁹Saul and his army also kept alive the best of the livestock, but killed their animals that were weak or sickly.

¹⁰Then the LORD said to Samuel, ¹¹"I feel bad that I made Saul king because he has not obeyed Me." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} This disturbed Samuel, and he cried out in prayer to the LORD all night. 12 Early in the morning Samuel got up to go talk with Saul. But someone told him Saul had gone to Carmel, south of Hebron, where he set up a monument to honor himself, and then went to Gilgal. 13When Samuel located Saul, said, "The LORD bless you. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} I have done what the Lord wanted me to do." ¹⁴Samuel answered, "Why then do I hear sheep bleating and cows mooing?" {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 15Saul answered, "It's not my fault that they are alive. My soldiers kept the best of the Amalekites' livestock to offer as sacrifices to the LORD your God. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} But we killed all the other animals."

¹⁶Samuel said, "Stop! Don't say any more. Let me tell you what the LORD told me last night." Saul replied, "Okay. Tell me." ¹⁷Samuel said, "When you thought little of yourself, {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} the LORD chose you to be Israel's king and to be over all the tribes. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ¹⁸Then He told you to completely destroy the wicked Amalekites. ¹⁹Why then didn't you obey the LORD? {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Why did you keep some animals for yourself? That was a sinful thing to do." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

²⁰Saul said, "But I did obey the Lord. I killed all the Amalekites and captured alive only Agag their king. ²¹I didn't take the best of the sheep and cows; the soldiers did. And they did it to sacrifice them to the LORD your God at Gilgal."

²²Samuel said, "Does the LORD want offerings and sacrifices? No. He wants obedience. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} To obey Him is far better than offering Him a sacrifice or giving Him the fat of rams. ²³Rebelling against Him is as bad as fortune-telling, {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} and pride is as bad as worshiping an idol. You have not done what the Lord wanted you to do, and so He has rejected you from being king." {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

²⁴Saul said, "Yes, I have sinned. I disobeyed the LORD and you. I was afraid of my soldiers, and I gave in to them. ²⁵Please forgive me and come with me to worship the LORD." {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ²⁶Samuel said, "No. I won't go with you. You rejected The LORD's word, and so He has rejected you." ²⁷As Samuel started to leave, Saul grabbed his robe and it tore. ²⁸Samuel said, "The LORD has torn away the kingdom from you, and He will give it to someone better. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 29God, who is the Glory of Israel, isn't a human. So He doesn't lie or change His mind." {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

30 Again Saul admitted, "I have sinned. But could you honor me before the leaders and the people {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} by going with me to worship the LORD your God?" 31So Samuel finally agreed and went with Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ³²Samuel then told Saul to bring Agag to him. Agag came, thinking, "Maybe they won't kill me after all." 33But Samuel said, "You have caused mothers to lose their children, so now your own mother will be without children." Samuel then put Agag to death at Gilgal, by chopping him to pieces. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 34Samuel went home to Ramah, and Saul went home to Gibeah. 35Samuel never went to see Saul again, though Samuel mourned for him. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} The Lord felt bad He had made Saul king of Israel.

Lord, sin is so attractive; it blinds me to the realities of Your Word. Take away my blindness and help me see sin as it really exists. Then give me strength to overcome temptation. Make me victorious. Amen.

1 Samuel 16 Samuel Secretly Anoints David to Be the New King

¹The LORD said to Samuel, "Why keep mourning for Saul? Put some olive oil in a container and go {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} see a man named Jesse who lives in Bethlehem. I have chosen one of his sons to be king of Israel." {152 Faith-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ²Samuel said, "But if Saul hears about it, he will kill me." The LORD said, "Take a calf with you and say that you have come to sacrifice to Me. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³Invite Jesse to the sacrifice. Then pour oil on the head of the one I will point out." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

⁴When Samuel went to Bethlehem, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} the elders were afraid, and they asked if this was a friendly visit. ⁵He answered, "Yes. I have come to offer a sacrifice to the Lord. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} So purify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." He invited Jesse and his sons to join him. {152 Faith-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

⁶When Jesse and his sons came, Samuel saw Eliab and thought he might be the LORD's choice. 7But the LORD said, "Don't consider his appearance or height. He's not the one. I don't choose people based on their appearance. That's what most people do, but the LORD considers the person's character." {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} 8-10 Then Jesse had Abinadab, and Shammah, and four others come to Samuel, who said that not one of these was the one God had chosen. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} 11"Are these all of your sons?" Samuel asked. Jesse answered that the youngest was taking care of his sheep. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} So Samuel said, "Send for him. We'll wait till he arrives." 12So David was brought in, and he was a healthy, nice-looking young man.

Then the LORD said, "He's the one. Make him king." {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ¹³So Samuel poured oil on David's head as his brothers looked on. From then on the Spirit of the LORD came on David in a powerful way. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} And Samuel went home to Ramah.

¹⁴The Spirit of the LORD left Saul, and the Lord sent a demonic spirit on him that tormented him. ¹⁵Saul's officials suggested a remedy. ¹⁶They said, "We'll find a harpist to play for you whenever the demonic spirit is tormenting you. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} Then you will feel better." ¹⁷Saul responded, "Okay. Find me a good harpist." ¹⁸One of the officials said, "One of Jesse's sons plays the harp. He is brave, a good fighter, can express himself well, and is handsome. And besides all that, the LORD is with him."

¹⁹Then Saul sent messengers to Jesse, asking that he send David to Saul. ²⁰Jesse sent his son David with a donkey carrying a loaf of bread and wine and also a young goat. ²¹Right away David started working for him, and Saul liked him very much and made David his bodyguard. ²²Then Saul sent a message to Jesse with the words, "I really like David, so please let him stay here." {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

²³Whenever the demonic spirit tormented Saul, David played his harp. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} This made Saul feel better, and the demonic spirit left him.

Lord, I want to be used by You. I don't want to sin and have Your anointing taken from me as You took Your Spirit from Saul. I want to be like David, "a man after Your own heart" (1 Sam. 13:14). Amen.

1 Samuel 17 David Defeats Goliath

¹Again the Philistines got ready to attack the Israelites. They camped between Socoh in Judah and Azekah in Ephes Dammim. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ²⁻³Saul and the Israelites camped in the Elah Valley. They occupied a hill on one side of the valley, and the Philistines were on a hill opposite them. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

⁴A Philistine hero named Goliath, who was from Gath and was over nine feet tall, came out of the Philistine ranks to challenge the Israelite soldiers. ⁵He wore a bronze helmet, a 125-pound chest armor, ⁶bronze to protect his legs, and a bronze sword strapped on his back. ⁷His spear was long like a weaver's beam and weighed about 15 pounds. And a man carrying his huge shield walked in front of him. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

⁸Goliath shouted to the Israelite soldiers, "Why are all of you lining up for battle? I represent the Philistines, and you are only servants of Saul. So choose someone to represent you. ⁹If he can kill me, we will all be your slaves. But if I kill him, you will all be our slaves. ¹⁰I challenge you! Choose someone to come fight with me."

¹¹Hearing Goliath's challenge, the Israelite army, including tall Saul, felt helpless and very much afraid. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} ¹²Jesse, who was now getting old, had eight sons, including David. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹³⁻¹⁴Three sons, Eliab, Abinadab, and Shammah were in Saul's army. ¹⁵But David worked for Saul part of the time, and other times he helped his father care for his sheep. ¹⁶For 40 days Goliath challenged the Israelite soldiers every morning and evening.

¹⁷One day Jesse told David, "Take this bushel of roasted grain and these 10 bread loaves to your brothers in the army camp. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹⁸Also take these 10 hunks of cheese to the commander. See how your brothers are doing. ¹⁹As you know, they are with Saul in the Elah Valley facing the Philistines. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

²⁰Early the next morning David left the sheep with another shepherd and loaded up the food. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} He reached the camp as the Israelites were leaving for the battlefield and were shouting battle cries. ²¹The two armies were facing each other. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²²David left his things with the men in charge of supplies, and ran to greet his brothers. ²³Just then David heard Goliath shout his usual challenge to the Israelite soldiers. ²⁴As before, when the Israelites heard him, they were afraid and ran off. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

²⁵The Israelites had said, "This man keeps coming out to challenge us. Yet Saul says

he will reward whoever kills him, and he will give his daughter to be his wife, and he and his family won't have to pay any more taxes." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ²⁶David asked the men near him, "So is taxes." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} this true that whoever kills Goliath will be rewarded this way? And who does this uncircumcised Philistine think he is, making fun of the armies of the living God?" ²⁷They told David what the king had said he would do for the man who kills Goliath. ²⁸When Eliab, David's oldest brother, heard him talking with the soldiers, {434 Sibling-Intercession Prayer, Gen. 27:11} he got very angry and said, "What are you doing here? You are supposed to be taking care of our father's sheep. You are so proud and wicked. You just came here to watch the battle." ²⁹David responded, "What have I done now? Can't I even ask a question?" 30He walked out to some other soldiers and asked them the same question and got the same answer. {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} 31Someone told Saul that David had asked about rewards for killing Goliath. So Saul sent for him. ³²David said to Saul, "Don't be discouraged because of this Philistine. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} I'll go fight him myself."

³³Saul said, "You can't do that. You are only a boy, {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} and Goliath has been a soldier all his life." {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ³⁴David responded, "I take care of my father's sheep. And when a lion or bear carried off one of the lambs, ³⁵I ran after it, hit it, and took the lamb out of his mouth. If the lion or bear attacked me, I grabbed its hair, hit it, and killed it. ³⁶I have killed a lion and a bear that way, and so this uncircumcised Philistine will be like that because he has mocked the armies of the living God. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ³⁷The LORD who saved me from the lion and the bear will save me from this Philistine." {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} Saul said to David, "Okay. Go, and may the Lord be with you." {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13}

³⁸Saul put on David his own military clothes and armor and bronze helmet. ³⁹David strapped on a sword, and walked around, but he wasn't used to wearing such things. {237 Inadequate-Prayer, James 5:17-18} He said, "I can hardly move. I'm not used to wearing these things." So he took them off. ⁴⁰He walked to a stream, picked up five smooth stones, and put them in his shepherd's bag. Carrying his shepherd's rod and his sling, he walked toward Goliath. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16}

⁴¹Goliath went toward David, walking behind the man carrying his shield. ⁴²Seeing that David was only a young man, healthy and good-looking, he hated him. ⁴³He said to David, "What do you think I am? A dog? So that's why you are coming at me with a stick." And he cursed David in the name of the Philistine gods. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ⁴⁴"Come here and I'll kill you and feed you to the birds and wild animals." {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10}

⁴⁵David said, "You come out to fight with a sword and a spear and a dagger. But I am coming against you in the name of the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel's army, the One you have mocked. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ⁴⁶Today the LORD will help me defeat you. I will kill you and cut off your head. {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} And I will give the dead bodies of your soldiers to the birds and wild animals. ⁴⁷Then everyone here will know that the LORD doesn't need swords or spears. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} He can win battles without our help. He will help us defeat you."

⁴⁸As Goliath started toward David, David ran to the battle line, 49 took a stone out of his bag, {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} hurled it from his sling, and hit the Philistine in the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} 50So David defeated the Philistine with a sling and a stone; he killed him without even using a sword. 51He pulled out the Philistine's sword and used it to cut off his head. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Then the Philistine soldiers all ran. 52The Israelites then pursued the Philistines all the way to their towns of Gath and Ekron. Their dead bodies were all along the Shaaraim road to Gath and Ekron. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁵³Then the Israelites went back to the Elah Valley and took what they wanted from the Philistine camp. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} 54Later David took Goliath's head to Jerusalem, {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} and he put the giant's big weapons in his own tent.

55As Saul had watched David go to fight Goliath, he asked Abner, his army guard, "Who is that young man?" Abner said, "I don't know." 56So Saul said, "Please find out." 57When David returned from killing Goliath, Abner took him to Saul, and David still had the Philistine's head in his hand. 58When Saul had asked him, "Whose son are you?" David replied, "My father is Jesse, and we live in Bethlehem." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

Lord, I will get mentally ready to fight. Give me ingenuity and strength against satan's weapons. I will look to You and not to others. I will take up Your cause, I will win today's battles, and not worry about future big battles. I need Your strength today... help me. I surrender all. Amen

1 Samuel 18 Jonathan and David Become Good Friends

¹After David and Saul finished talking, David met Jonathan, and they became good friends. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ²Saul kept David with them and did not let him make any trips home. ³Jonathan liked David so much that he agreed to be his loyal friend. ⁴To seal their friendship Jonathan gave David his robe, sword, and belt. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

⁵David was successful in doing whatever Saul asked him to do. Then Saul made him a high-ranking officer in his army, and everyone, including Saul's officers, was pleased with this decision. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ⁶When the soldiers were returning home after David killed Goliath, women came out from every town along the way to welcome King Saul. They were singing and dancing {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} to the music of tambourines and cymbals. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ⁷They sang, "Saul has killed thousands, and David has killed tens of thousands."

⁸This made Saul very angry. "They are saying David has killed ten times as many as I have. What's next? Will they want to make him king?" ⁹From then on Saul was suspicious of David. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ¹⁰The very next day a demonic spirit overwhelmed Saul, and he began acting like a madman. David came to play his harp for Saul as he usually did at such times. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} But Saul had a spear in his hand, and ¹¹threw it at David twice, thinking he could pin him to the wall. But both times David jumped aside. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17}

¹²Saul was afraid of David, {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} because the LORD had left Saul and was now with David. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹³So to get rid of David, Saul made him commander of a thousand men and sent him off to fight. ¹⁴David continued to succeed in everything he did because the LORD was with him. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ¹⁵When Saul saw this, he was even more afraid of David than before. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹⁶But all the Israelites appreciated David {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} because he was so successful in leading his troops into battle.

¹⁷Saul thought to himself, "Rather than my killing David, I'll let the Philistines do it." So he said to David, "If you fight the LORD's battles, including defeating the Philistines, I will give you my daughter Merab as your wife." {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} 18But David said, "Who am I that I could become the son-in-law of the king?" {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} 19But when the time came for David to marry Merab, Saul had her marry some guy named Adriel of Meholah. 20 Meanwhile Michal, Saul's other daughter, was in love with David, and this pleased Saul. 21He thought "I'll let him marry Michal, but I'll arrange things through her so he'll be killed by the Philistines." {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1}

²²Then Saul told his officials to tell David privately that because he likes him and they all like him, the king now wants him to be his son-in-law. ²³When they told David this, he said, "How can a little-known, poor man afford a bride price for the king's daughter?" {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ²⁴When Saul's officials told this to Saul, ²⁵he said, "Tell him the only bride price I need is for him to bring me our enemies." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Saul's real plan was to have David killed fighting the Philistines. ²⁶David was pleased to become the king's son-in-law. Saul set a time limit for this to be done,

²⁷but before that time ran out, David and his men killed not 100, but 200 Philistines and he took their foreskins to Saul. Then Saul gave him Michal as his wife. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8}

²⁸Saul realized how much the LORD was with David {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and that his daughter loved David. ²⁹This made him even more afraid of David, {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} and Saul hated him the rest of his life. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} ³⁰Whenever the Philistine army attacked the Israelites, David was more successful than all of Saul's other officers. And David became very famous in all of Israel. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

Lord, I will not let others make me compromise myself. Don't let me be ground under someone's feet. I will deal with my feelings; will You deal with the unjust person? May I always do the right thing, no matter what's done to me. Help me endure hatred and help me glorify You in all I do. Amen.

1 Samuel 19 Saul Tries to Kill David

¹Saul told Jonathan and his officers to kill David. But Jonathan was a good friend of David, ²and so he warned David, ⁴⁴² Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5 ³"My father is trying to get you killed. So tomorrow morning go hide in the fields. I'll take my father with me there and I'll talk with him about you. If I find out something, I'll let you know." ⁴The next morning Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul, and urged him not to be against David. ⁵"Remember how he risked his life to kill Goliath, and the Lord used him to give us a great victory, and you were happy? {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} So why kill an innocent man? That doesn't make sense." ⁶Saul agreed and said, "No, I won't have David killed." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

⁷Jonathan told David what happened. And so he brought David to Saul, and things were okay, as they were before. ⁸Also like before when there was war again with the Philistines, David killed many of them and forced the retreat. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

One day as Saul was sitting at home, listening to David play his harp, {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} a demonic spirit took control of Saul. 10 He threw his spear at David, trying to pin him to the wall. But David jumped aside and ran to his house. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} 11Saul sent troops to guard David's house that night and then kill him in the morning. Somehow his wife Michal knew of this plan. So she told David he better get away that night. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ¹²She helped him get down through a window and he escaped. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} ¹³Then she put an idol in his bed, covered the idol with some of David's clothes, and put goat hair on the idol's head.

¹⁴In the morning the troops went to kill David, Michal said, "He is sick." ¹⁵But Saul ordered his troops to bring David to him in his sick bed, so Saul himself could kill him. ¹⁶When the men went there, they saw the idol in his bed with goat hair on its head. ¹⁷They told Saul, so he said to his daughter Michal, "Why did you trick me this way and help my enemy get away?" She lied when she said, "He said he would kill me if I didn't help him get away."

¹⁸David went to see Samuel in Ramah and he told him what happened. So the two of them went to Naioth, a section in Ramah, and stayed there awhile. 19Somehow Saul heard David was there, ²⁰so he sent some soldiers to capture him. But when they got there, they saw Samuel and others prophesying. And the Spirit of God took control of these soldiers too and they began prophesying. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} ²¹Saul heard about it, so he sent other soldiers to capture David, but they prophesied too. And this even happened with a third group Saul sent. ²²Then Saul himself went to Ramah and at the well in Sechu he asked where Samuel and David were. When someone told him they were in the section called Naioth, ²³he went in that direction. And on the way he too began to prophesy. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} ²⁴He took off his clothes and lay that way all night. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} Because he prophesied, people, when amazed at something, would say, "Is Saul a prophet too?"

Lord, my friend is my enemy, and is a friend of iniquity. He thinks constantly of harming me. He always is digging a trap but he falls into his self-made destruction. His attack on me ends up hurting himself; his wounds are self-inflicted. I pray You will bless him, so he will listen to You and do right. But You, O Lord, will I praise for You always deal with everyone rightly; I will praise Your name. Amen.

1 Samuel 20 Jonathan Helps David Escape

¹David left Ramah and went to see his good friend Jonathan. David asked him, "What have I done wrong? Why do you think your father is trying to kill me?" {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} ²Jonathan answered, "I don't think he's wanting to kill you. He always tells me everything he's going to do, and so I'm sure he wouldn't hide this from me."

3"Jonathan, it's true. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} He knows we are good friends. And so he didn't tell you of his plans to kill me because he doesn't want to hurt your feelings. I know for a fact that I'm very close to death." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} *Jonathan then said, "Tell me what to do and I'll do it." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

⁵So David said, "Tomorrow is the new moon festival, and each month at this time your father has me eat with him. But this time I'll go hide in a field until tomorrow evening. ⁶If your father asks where I am, tell him I asked you if I could go to my hometown of Bethlehem for a celebration my relatives are having. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 7If he says, 'Okay,' then I'm safe. But if he gets angry, you'll know he wants to kill me. 8I know you'll be kind to me because of our agreement {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} to be good friends. If I have done something wrong, then you may kill me. Just don't hand me over to your father."

⁹Jonathan said, "Don't worry. If I find out that my father plans to kill you, I will certainly let you know." {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} 10David asked, "But how will I know?" 11Jonathan answered, "Let's go to the field, and I'll tell you." So when they got to the field, ¹²Jonathan said, "I promise that by the day after tomorrow I'll talk with my father about you and let you know how he feels about you. 13 If he wants to kill you, I will certainly let you know. I pray that the LORD will be with you just as he used to be with my father. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁴Please be kind to me as long as I live. But if I die, 15 be kind to my family after all your enemies are defeated."

¹⁶Jonathan made an agreement with David and said, "May the Lord destroy all your enemies." {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ¹⁷And because Jonathan appreciated David so much, he asked David to promise once more his deep friendship for him. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

¹⁸Then Jonathan said, "At the new moon festival tomorrow you will be missed at the dinner table. ¹⁹So the day after that, go in the evening to the place by the Ezel Rock

where you hid before. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} 20I will shoot these arrows to the side of the rock as if I were doing target practice. 21I'll tell a boy to get the arrows. If you hear me tell him the arrows are on this side of the Ezel Rock, you'll know there is no danger. ²²But if I tell him to keep going because the arrows are farther on, that will mean you need to leave. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} ²³The LORD will keep watching us to see if we keep our agreement to each other." {308 Mizpah Benediction-Prayer, Gen. 31:49} ²⁴So David hid in the field, as Jonathan suggested. At the dinner of the new moon festival, Saul sat down to eat; ²⁵Jonathan sat across from him, and Abner was next to Saul. But David's place was empty. ²⁶Saul didn't mention that that day because he thought David may have been ceremonially unclean. 27But when David wasn't there the second day, Saul asked Jonathan, "Why hasn't the son of Jesse been here for dinner yesterday and today?"

²⁸Jonathan replied, "He asked me if he could go to Bethlehem {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²⁹for a family celebration, and he said his father told him he needed to be there. He wanted to see his brothers, so I told him he could go." ³⁰Immediately Saul became furious with anger, and he yelled at Jonathan, "You So-and-So! I know that you and this son of Jesse, this nobody, are close friends. Shame on you and on your mother. ³¹As long as David is alive, you'll never be king. So go get him so I can kill him." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} boy out to the field. ³⁶He told the boy to run to get his arrows after he shot them. ⁴²Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ³⁷When the boy got near the place where the arrows landed, ³⁸Jonathan shouted, "Keep going. The arrows are a little farther on. Hurry." So the boy picked up the arrows and took them to Jonathan. ³⁹Of course the boy didn't know what this meant. Only Jonathan and David knew. ⁴⁰Then Jonathan gave his bow and arrows to the boy and told him to take them back into town.

³²"Why do you want to kill him? What has he done wrong?" Jonathan asked. ³³Saul threw his spear at Jonathan to kill him, so Jonathan knew Saul really did want to kill David. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³⁴Jonathan was so angry he left the table. He didn't eat anything all the next day because he was so hurt by his father's awful words about David.

⁴¹After the boy left, David left Ezel Rock where he had been hiding and bowed to Jonathan three times with his face to the ground. They hugged each other and cried, especially David. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} ⁴²Jonathan then said, "Be on your way, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} because we have each asked the LORD to be sure we and our descendants keep our promise of friendship." {308 Mizpah Benediction-Prayer, Gen. 31:49} Then David left, and Jonathan returned to town.

Lord, help me always be faithful to Your principles. Help me be faithful to my friends as Jonathan was to David. Lord, help me be the kind of friend to others that I want to have for myself. Amen.

1 Samuel 21 David Receives Help from the High Priest

¹David went to Nob to see Ahimelech the priest. {132 Elijah Fast and Prayer, 1 Kings 19:4-16} Concerned when he saw David, Ahimelech asked, "Is something wrong? Why are you by yourself?" {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} 2David answered, "The king sent me on a mission and asked me not to tell anyone, so my men are someplace else. {148 Expedient-Prayer, Est. 4:16} ³Do you have some food you can give me? Can you give me five loaves of bread?" {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ⁴The priest said, "I don't have any ordinary bread. All I have is the bread in the tabernacle. You can have that if your men have not slept with any women last night." {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ⁵David replied, "Don't worry. My men are never with women when they are on a regular mission, and this trip is more than ordinary." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} 6So Ahimelech gave David the bread from the Table of Bread without Yeast in the tabernacle {124 Divine-Presence Answer to Prayer, Gen. 32:30} which had already been replaced that day by fresh loaves.

⁷It so happened that one of Saul's men was there that day. He was Doeg, an Edomite, Saul's chief shepherd. ⁸David asked the priest if he had a spear or sword he could use. "I had to leave on this mission so quickly that I didn't grab any weapon." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ⁹The priest said, "The only sword here is the one used by Goliath, whom you killed. It's wrapped in a cloth behind the priestly vest." {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} David said, "Perfect. I'll take it." {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

¹⁰Then David hurried on to the Philistine city of Gath where Achish was king. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} ¹¹Achish's officers said, "Isn't he like the king of the land? Isn't he the one the people sing about as they dance, {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} saying, "Saul has killed thousands, and David has killed tens of thousands?"

¹²When David heard these words, he was afraid of Achish. {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13} ¹³So he pretended to be insane. He scratched on doors at the city gate, and he let his saliva drool on his beard. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ¹⁴Achish said to his men, "Look at this insane person Why did you bring him here? {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} ¹⁵Do you think I need more madmen carrying on like this? I sure don't want him in my palace."

Lord, David saved his life by shrewd actions. Help me to be loyal to truth, yet shrewd when it's necessary. Help me tell the truth, but remind me I don't have to tell people all I know. Amen.

1 Samuel 22 David's Hideouts

¹So David left Gath and went to the Adullam Cave. His brothers and other relatives heard where he was and joined him there. ²Others went there too, including people in trouble, in debt, and discontent for one reason or another. He was the leader of about 400 people. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10}

³Later David went to Mizpeh in Moab and said to the Moabite king, "May I bring my parents to live here until I know what God will do for me?" {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ⁴They stayed in Moab while David was in hiding. {468 Support-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

⁵One day the prophet Gad told David to go back to Judah. So David left and went to the Hereth Forest. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 6When Saul was sitting under an oak tree in Gibeah surrounded by his officers and with his spear in hand, he heard where David was. 7Saul said to them, "Listen, you Benjamites. If the son of Jesse becomes king, will he give you fields and vineyards? Will he make you commanders in his army? 8Is that why you are all against me? Not one of you has told me that my own son has made a friendship agreement with Jesse's son. And not one of you has told me that my own son has encouraged Jesse's son to kill me." {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18}

⁹Doeg, who was standing there, said, "When I was at Nob, I saw Jesse's son talking with Ahimelech the priest. ¹⁰Ahimelech asked the Lord about him and then gave him food and Goliath's sword." {471 Surveillance-Prayer, Ps. 59:1-3} 11Immediately Saul sent for Ahimelech and all his relatives and the other priests at Nob. When they arrived, 12 Saul said, "Listen to me, you son of Ahitub." The priest asked, "What is the problem, my lord?" {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹³Saul said, "Why are you and Jesse's son plotting against me? Why did you give him food and a sword and ask God about him? Now he is preparing to kill me." {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18}

¹⁴Ahimelech answered, "But, Sir, no one is as loyal to you as David, your son-in-law and captain of your bodyguard. Everyone in your family respects him highly. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹⁵That day wasn't the first time I talked with God for David. So why accuse me and my relatives? We don't know anything about a plot against you." {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹⁶Then Saul said, "Ahimelech, you and all your relatives will die." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

¹⁷Saul ordered his bodyguards, "Kill these priests because they helped David. They knew he was running from me, but they didn't tell me." But the king's officers refused to kill the Lord's priests. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ¹⁸So Saul turned to Doeg and said, "You do it." Doeg turned on them and killed 85 priests. {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} ¹⁹Then he went to their town of Nob and killed every person and animal there. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31}

²⁰One of Ahimelech's sons, Abiathar, escaped and ran to see David, {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²¹and told him what Saul had done. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} ²²Then David said, "That day when I saw Doeg there, I knew he would tell Saul. I have caused the death of all your relatives. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ²³Stay with me and I'll protect you with my own life. The same person is trying to kill us both. You'll be safe here with me." {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5}

O Lord, deliver me from evil people; protect me from those who would hurt me. They arrogantly set a trap for me, and plan to trip me up and catch me by their deceit. You are my God; hear my cry for help. Amen.

1 Samuel 23 David Saves the People of Keilah

¹One day word reached David that the Philistines were at Keilah and were robbing wheat from the threshing floors there. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31} ²When David asked the Lord if he should go attack them, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} the LORD said, "Yes." ³But David's men there in Judah were afraid of the Philistines. So they said,

"We'll be terrified if we try to fight them at Keilah." {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} 4So again David asked the LORD if they should attack the Philistines, and again the LORD said, "Yes. Go to Keilah, and I will help you defeat the Philistines." {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6}

⁵So David and his men went to Keilah, killed the Philistines, took their cattle, and rescued the people of Keilah. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} ⁶Abiathar, Ahimelech's son, went with David to Keilah, taking his priestly vest with him. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ⁷When Saul heard that David was at Keilah, he said, "Now we can kill David. He is trapped inside a city with high walls and gates that can be locked." {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18}

⁸So Saul got his soldiers together and went to Keilah to capture David and his men. ⁹David heard what Saul was planning to do. So he asked Abiathar to bring the priestly vest. ¹⁰David prayed, "O LORD God of Israel, I heard that Saul is coming to destroy Keilah because I am here. ¹¹Will the town leaders turn me over to him? {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} Is he actually coming? Please tell me." The LORD said, "Yes. He will come." ¹²Then David asked, "Will the Keilah leaders turn me over to Saul?" The LORD answered, "Yes. They will." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

¹³So David and his 600 men left Keilah and kept going from place to place. When Saul heard that David escaped, he didn't go to Keilah after all. {142 Escaping-Danger

Prayer, Acts 12:5} 14David stayed in caves in the Ziph Desert. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} Saul kept searching for him, but never found him. 15When David was at Horesh in the Ziph Desert, he heard that Saul was after him. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} ¹⁶Hearing this, Jonathan found David at Horesh and encouraged him. {343 Partner-Prayer, Acts 3:1} ¹⁷Jonathan said, "Don't be afraid. My father won't hurt you. You will be king over Israel, and I will be your chief official. My father knows this." {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ¹⁸Again they renewed their agreement to be loyal to each other. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} Jonathan went home, and David stayed at Horesh.

¹⁹Some people from Ziph went to Saul in Gibeah and told him David was hiding in caves at Horesh on the Hachilah Hill near Jeshimon. ²⁰"So if you come, we'll help you catch him." {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} ²¹Saul replied, "Thank you, and bless the LORD for being concerned about me. {378 Pretend-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ²²Find out exactly where he is and where he goes, because I know he is very tricky. ²³Find out his hiding places and come back and tell me. I'll go with you, and if he's in the area, I will find him." {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

²⁴So the men of Ziph went home. They found out that David and his men were in the Maon Desert south of Jeshimon. ²⁵Saul and his men began searching for David, and when David heard about it, he went to a place in the Maon Desert called the Rock. ²⁶He and Saul were on opposite sides of a mountain. {142 Escaping-Danger

Prayer, Acts 12:5} But just as Saul and his men were about to capture David, {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²⁷a messenger ran to Saul and told him the Philistines were raiding Israel again. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ²⁸So Saul stopped chasing David and went to fight the Philistines. Ever since then, that place has been called The Rock of Escape. ²⁹David then went to live in the hideouts at En-Gedi. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5}

Lord, my enemy is great. I'm like David; I'm not always sure about the loyalty of those around me. Teach me when to go help another. Help me seek Your will for the things I do. Keep me safe, and keep me from getting into trouble. Amen.

1 Samuel 24 David Spares Saul's Life

¹When Saul returned from fighting the Philistines, he heard that David was in the desert near En-Gedi. ²So he took 3,000 top soldiers to go with him to look for David near the rocks of the wild goats. ³Some sheep pens were by the road, and a cave was close by. So Saul went in to relieve himself. And David and his men were hiding in that very cave, way in the back.

⁴David's men said to him, "Now is your opportunity to kill Saul. The LORD said He would help you defeat your enemies and do with them as you wish." {335 Optional Answer-Prayer, Mark 10:38} So

David quietly crept forward and cut off a corner of Saul's robe. ⁵But then David's conscience began bothering him. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ⁶He told his men, "I shouldn't have done that {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} because Saul is the LORD's anointed king." {205 Guard Your Heart-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7} ⁷David then told his men not to attack Saul. After Saul woke up, he left and started on his way.

⁸David went out of the cave and shouted to Saul, "My lord, the king." Saul looked back and saw David bowing low. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} 9Then David shouted to Saul, "Why do you listen to people who say I'm trying to harm you? {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} ¹⁰You can see that isn't true. The LORD put you at my mercy in the cave, and some of my men wanted me to kill you. But I said, 'I can't do that, because he is the LORD's anointed king.' {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} 11 Notice that I'm holding this piece of your robe. I cut it off but I didn't kill you. This proves I'm not trying to harm you or rebel against you. I haven't harmed you in any way, and yet you keep hunting for me to kill me. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} 12The LORD will decide which of us has done anything wrong. He may punish you, {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} but I will never harm you. ¹³As the old saying has it, 'Only evil people do evil things.' So I will not do any evil thing to you. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} 14Why are you trying to catch me anyway? Why chase me like I'm as worthless as a dead dog or a flea?

{255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24} ¹⁵May He help me escape from you." {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15}

¹⁶Saul called, "Is that really you, my son?" And he cried. 17He said to David, "You are a better man than I am. You have been kind to me, but I have treated you badly. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} 18You have been good to me because when you could have killed me, you didn't. 19Who else would have let his enemy get away, as you have? I pray that the LORD will reward you well for the way you treated me today. {245 Insincere-Prayer, Matt. 12:38-39} ²⁰Israel will be blessed under your leadership. ²¹Promise me that you won't kill my descendants, but let them live so my name can be remembered." {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13}

²²David promised to do as Saul asked. Then Saul went home, and David and his men went to their hideout. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

Lord, wind doesn't make a kite good, and resistance doesn't make just any kite fly higher. No, a kite must be a good kite for the resisting breeze to lift it into the sky. Wind, or persecution, didn't make David great. No, David was great long before he first met Saul. But wind resistance makes a good kite even greater. And so 13 years of running from Saul made the great David even greater. Lord, thank You for the resistance I face in life, for resistance can make me strong as it demonstrated David's strength. May I be strong on the inside so I can be victorious over resistance. Amen.

1 Samuel 25 Samuel Dies

¹Samuel died and the entire nation of Israel mourned his death. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} They buried him near his home in Ramah. Then David moved to the Paran Desert. ²A wealthy man from Maon had property near Carmel. He had 1,000 goats and 3,000 sheep, and his men there were cutting wool from the sheep. ³His name was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigail. She was intelligent and beautiful. But Nabal, a descendant of Caleb, was irritable and mean.

⁴When David was in the desert, ⁵he sent 10 young men to Nabal with this message: ⁶"May you and your family have long, healthy lives. ⁷I hear you are cutting wool from your sheep. When your servants were with us in Carmel, we treated them well and we never stole anything from them, {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ⁸as your own servants can tell you. Please be kind to us and give us any provisions you can." {155 Faithful-Request Prayer, Heb. 3:2} ⁹David's men gave this message to Nabal and waited for his answer.

¹⁰Nabal asked, "Who is this David, this son of Jesse? A lot of servants are running from their master, and maybe he is one of them. ¹¹Why should I give my bread, water, and meat to some man I don't even know?" {421 Sarcastic-Worship, John 19:2-3} ¹²David's men returned and told David what Nabal had said.

¹³Immediately David told his men to get their swords and he strapped his on. About 400 men went with him, and 200 stayed behind to guard their supplies. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁴One of Nabal's servants told Abigail, "David sent some men from the desert to talk with our master, but he insulted them. ¹⁵But David's men were good to us. They never hurt us or stole anything from us when they were nearby. ¹⁶While we were herding our sheep near them, they protected us. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁷Think fast, because Nabal may cause trouble for himself and his family. He's so stubborn no one can even talk with him." {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20}

¹⁸Abigail quickly loaded some food on donkeys, including 200 loaves of bread, two skins filled with wine, meat from five sheep, five bushels of roasted grain, 100 raisin cakes, and 200 fig cakes. ¹⁹She told her servants to take these to David and she would catch up with them. But she didn't tell her husband what she was doing. {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4}

²⁰As Abigail was riding her donkey into a mountain ravine, she saw David and his men coming toward her. ²¹David has just said, "Helping this fellow sure didn't do us any good. We guarded his flocks so that not one animal was stolen or lost. Now he has paid me back with insults. ²²By tomorrow morning every male in his family will be dead. If I don't kill them all off, may

God take my life." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²³Abigail quickly got off her donkey and bowed down in front of David. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ²⁴She said, "I accept blame for this problem. Let me explain. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ²⁵Don't pay any attention to that wicked man Nabal. His name means 'Fool,' and that fits him perfectly. If I had seen the men you sent, perhaps I could have kept him from being so rude. 26I pray that since the LORD has kept you from taking innocent lives, all your enemies will be like Nabal. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ²⁷Please accept this gift of food for you and your men. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

²⁸ Please forgive me if I have offended you. The LORD will reward you with a lasting dynasty because you fight for Him and because you have done nothing wrong all your life. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} ²⁹Even though some may be chasing you to take your life, the LORD your God will keep you safe. And your enemies' lives will disappear as quickly as a stone from a sling. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} 30When the LORD has done for you everything He promised and has made you king, {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} ³¹your conscience will be clean because you will not have killed innocent people. When the LORD has done all these things for you, please remember me." {351 Personal-Request Prayer, Rom. 15:36} you to me today. ³³Blessings on you for being so wise and keeping me from killing innocent people. ³⁴If you hadn't come here quickly, Nabal and all his men would have been dead by morning." {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ³⁵David accepted her gifts and told her, "You may return home now. I will not kill your husband."

³²David replied to Abigail, "Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, for sending

Nabal was having a big party as if he were a king. He was very drunk, so she didn't tell him anything about her seeing David until the next morning. ³⁷Next day when he was sober, she told him what she had done. Right then he had a heart attack and he lay in bed paralyzed. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ³⁸Ten days later the Lord took his life. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

³⁹When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Praise the LORD for paying back Nabal for his sin and for keeping me from taking his life." {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} Then David sent messengers to Abigail to ask her to marry him. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} 40When they arrived at Carmel and gave her this message, 41 she bowed down and said, "Yes. And I will gladly be his slave and wash the feet of his servants." {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} 42She quickly got ready, and went back with David's messengers. She took with her five of her servant girls. And she became his wife. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁴³David had also married Ahinoam of Jezreel, so he had two wives. ⁴⁴Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to be the wife of a man from Gallim named Palti, son of Laish.

Lord, may I die well and be buried just as Samuel was. In my grave I will wait for the return of Jesus Christ. Carry on my work when I'm gone. Help me be as influential to my generation as Samuel was to his. "Help, O Lord! For the godly man is gone, the faithful are vanishing from the earth" (Ps. 12:1, ELT). Amen.

1 Samuel 26 David Spares Saul's Life Again

¹Again some people from Ziph went to Gibeah to tell Saul that David was hiding at Mount Hakilah near Jeshimon. ²So Saul took his 3,000 top soldiers and went to the Ziph Desert to look for him. ³Saul camped along the road beside Mount Hakilah near Jeshimon where David was hiding. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} ⁴David sent out spies to check on Saul. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

⁵One night David went to Saul's camp, and he saw Saul and his general, Abner, son of Ner, sleeping in the middle of the camp with soldiers sleeping all around them. ⁶David asked if Ahimelech the Hittite or Abishai, Joab's brother, and David's nephew would go with him into Saul's camp. {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} Abishai volunteered. ⁷So David and Abishai went into the camp and saw Saul asleep with his spear stuck in the ground beside his head. Abner and

Saul's soldiers were asleep all around him. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28}
8 Abishai whispered to David, "God has put your enemy right in your hands. Let me go pierce his spear through him. One strike and he's dead." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

PDavid said, "No. Don't kill him. You will be held guilty for destroying the Lord's anointed king. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ¹⁰The LORD will take care of him. Either he'll die in some battle or of old age. {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} ¹¹But I won't kill the LORD's anointed one. Let's get his spear and water jug and leave." {326 Non-Violence Prayer, Luke 6:28}

12So David took the spear and water jug near Saul's head, and he and Abishai left. No one knew about it or woke up because the LORD had put them into a deep sleep. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 13David stood on the top of a hill some distance away 14and shouted "Wake up, Abner!" Abner replied, "Who is it?" {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8}

¹⁵David said, "What kind of man are you? No one is as great as you. So why haven't you guarded your king? Someone would have come into your camp and killed him. ¹⁶You have fallen down on the job. You and your men deserve to die because you didn't guard your king, the LORD's anointed. Where are the spear and the water jug that were beside his head?" {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

¹⁷Saul recognized David's voice and called out, "Is that you, my son David?" David answered, "Yes, it is. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ¹⁸Why are you chasing me? What have I done wrong? {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} 19If the LORD has caused you to be against me, maybe I should give Him an offering. But if this is someone else's idea, I hope the LORD will punish them. You have driven me from home so that I can't worship there as I would like to do. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} 20I don't want to die in some place away from home. Why have you come after me as if I were a flea or hunt me like a partridge in the mountains?" ²¹Saul responded, "I confess I have sinned. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} Come back home, and I will not harm you. You had opportunity to kill me, but you didn't. I have been a fool, and I was very wrong." {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ²²David then said, "Here is your spear. Have one of your men come get it. ²³The LORD gives rewards to people who are good and are loyal. I could have killed you today, but I wouldn't harm the Lord's anointed king. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ²⁴Since I saved your life, may the LORD keep me safe and rescue me from trouble." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, ²⁵Saul said, "May the LORD bless you, my son. You will do great things and be successful." {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} So David left, and Saul went back home.

3}

Lord, help me learn from David how to treat my enemies. Help me do good to them for their evil. I pray for Your blessing on their lives. Help them know that I am not their enemy, but that I love them and pray for them. Amen.

1 Samuel 27 David Lives among the Philistines

¹Then David got to thinking to himself, "Can I really trust Saul? Someday he may kill me. So I think I'll go to Philistia. Then Saul will stop hunting for me and I'll be safe." {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

²So David and his 600 men and their families went to live in Gath, where Achish was king. ³David had with him his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal's widow. ⁴Saul heard that David was in Gath, so he stopped trying to find him. {342 Partial Answer-Prayer, Exod. 33:2-3} ⁵One day David said to Achish, "We would prefer to live in one of your towns in the country rather than here in the capital city." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ⁶Achish agreed and he gave him Ziklag, and that town has been in Judah ever since. ⁷And David was there was for 16 months.

⁸David attacked the Geshurites, Girzites, and Amalekites who lived in the area from Shur to Egypt. ⁹In these attacks David and his men killed every person and kept for themselves the livestock and clothes. Returning from a raid, he would go see Achish, {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ¹⁰who would always ask him, "Where did you attack today?" And David would explain where he had been. ¹¹He killed everyone in those towns, because he thought that if he didn't someone would go to Gath and tell Achish what David had been doing. He did this while living in Philistia. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ¹²Achish thought the Israelites probably hated David now, and so he would have to stay there and be his servant.

Lord, there are times I don't think David did the right thing. I will not justify my faults with the things David did. Help me always be truthful and then protect me when I can't protect myself. Amen.

1 Samuel 28 Saul Consults a Witch at Endor

¹The Philistines got all their forces together to attack Israel again. Achish told David that he and his men must join his forces. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ²David answered, "That's fine. Then you will see for yourself what I can do." Achish then told David he would make him his permanent bodyguard.

³Samuel had died and Israel mourned his death {311 Morning-Prayer, John 21:4} and buried him in Ramah. Saul had forced out everyone who was a medium (who claimed to talk with the dead) or a psychic. ⁴The Philistines camped in Shunem, and the Israelites camped at Gilboa. ⁵When Saul saw the vast Philistine army, he began panicking in fear. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ⁶So he asked the LORD what to do, but the LORD didn't answer him either in a dream or by the Urim and Thummim or by a prophet. {324 Non-Answer to Prayer, Ps. 18:41} ⁷So he told his officers, "Find me a woman who can talk with the dead so I can ask her what to do." They told him there was such a woman in nearby Endor.

⁸That night Saul put on ordinary clothes in place of his royal robes and he and two of his men went to see her. He asked her to bring up the spirit of a dead man so he could talk with him. {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} ⁹She said, "Are you trying to trick me and get me killed? You know that Saul has gotten rid of everyone who says he talks to the dead. You are spying on me." {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ¹⁰Saul responded, "I promise you in the LORD's name that nothing will happen to you because of this." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

¹¹She said, "What dead person do you want to talk with?" He said, "Samuel." ¹²When the woman saw Samuel, she screamed and said to Saul, "You tricked me. I see now that you are Saul." ¹³He said, "Don't be afraid. Just tell me what you see." She answered, "I see a spirit coming out of the ground." {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ¹⁴Saul asked, "What does he look like?" She said, "He is an old man wearing a robe." Saul then knew it was Samuel, and he bowed down his face to the ground. {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18}

¹⁵Samuel then spoke to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me this way?" Saul replied, "Because I am in deep trouble. The Philistines are getting ready to attack us, and God has left me and won't reply to me through prophets or by dreams. So I've come to you to ask for help." {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

¹⁶Samuel said, "But if the Lord has left you and is your enemy, why turn to me? ¹⁷The LORD has done what He said He would do. He will take the kingdom from you and give it to David. ¹⁸Why? Because when He told you to destroy the Amalekites, you didn't do it. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁹So the Philistines will defeat the Israelite army tomorrow, and you and your sons will be with me here." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁰Saul fell and lay flat on the floor, frightened because of Samuel's words. He was weak because he hadn't eaten anything that day or the night before. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} ²¹When the woman saw how terrified {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} he was, she said, "I risked my life by doing what you asked. So now let me give you something to eat so you'll have strength to get back to your army camp." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²³He refused to eat. But when the two men with him also urged him to eat something, he got up and sat on her couch. ²⁴The woman killed a calf, cooked some of the meat, and baked some bread without yeast. ²⁵She served them the food, and then they left that night. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

Lord, satan's forces are huge as we approach the end of the age. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} I know there is an evil spirit world; protect me by the Holy Spirit. Be with me when I walk through the valley of death (Ps. 23:4). Amen.

1 Samuel 29 Achish Sends David and His Men to Ziklag

¹The Philistine army was at Aphek, and the Israelites camped by the Jezreel Spring.
²As the Philistine commanders were leading their troops in groups of hundreds and thousands, David and his men marched at the rear with Achish.
³The Philistine commanders asked, "What are these Israelites doing here?" Achish said, "They are with David who was an officer in Saul's Israelite army. He's been with me for over a year, and he's done nothing wrong."

⁴The Philistine leaders were angry and they said, "Send him back to the town you gave him. We don't want him going into battle with us. He will turn against us. Saul would take him back if he cut off our soldiers' heads and took them to Saul. ⁵After all, this is the same man about whom the woman of Israel sang and danced with the words, {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} 'Saul has killed the thousands, and David has killed tens of thousands."

⁶So Achish spoke to David, "I know you are reliable, and I want you to fight with me. I have found nothing wrong with you, but my commanders don't want you to come with us. ⁷I suggest you go home so you won't upset them." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 8"But what have I done?" David asked. "Why can't I fight the enemies of my king?" {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

⁹Achish said, "In my view you are as good as an angel of God. But my commanders don't want you to be with them in battle. ¹⁰So I suggest you and your men leave early in the morning as soon as the sun is up." ¹¹So David and his men got up early and went back toward Philistia, and the Philistine soldiers went to Jezreel. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, help me see the big picture—Your picture—when I get fired, as David was sent home. Help me see Your plan on the other side of being dismissed. Lord, You are the God of "closed doors" and open doors, I'll walk through Your open doors. Choose my future, Lord, and open doors for me. Amen.

1 Samuel 30 David Defeats the Amalekites

¹Three days later when David and his men arrived back at Ziklag, they found that the Amalekites had raided the Southern Desert and had attacked Ziklag and burned it to the ground, ²and had taken women and children as captives. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} ³Seeing the ruins and realizing their wives and children had been carried off, ⁴David and his men cried loudly and kept crying till they couldn't cry any more. ⁵Of course David's two wives, Ahinoam and Abigail, were among the captives. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ⁶David was terribly worried

because his men in their grief talked about stoning him. But the Lord strengthened and encouraged him. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

⁷David asked Abiathar the priest to bring him the priestly vest. He did, ⁸and David asked the LORD if he should go after the Amalekites. God said, "Yes. Go after them. You will rescue your wives and children." {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} ⁹So David and his 600 men went to the Besor Ravine, south of Ziklag. ¹⁰Of that number, 200 were too tired to keep going so they didn't cross the ravine, but the other 400 did. {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14}

¹¹David's men found an Egyptian in a field and took him to David. They gave him water to drink and food to eat-12 part of a fig cake and two raisin cakes. He hadn't had anything to eat or drink in three days, so now he felt much better. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ¹³David asked him, "Who are you, and where are you from?" He said, "I am an Egyptian, a slave of an Amalekite. He left me here three days ago because I was sick. 14We raided the towns of the Kerethites in the Southern Desert and the territory of Judah, and the desert where Caleb lives. And we burned Ziklag." ¹⁵David asked, "Can you tell me where they are now?" The man said, "If you promise me you won't kill me or give me back to my master, I'll take you to them." {79 Conditional-Prayer Promise, 2 Chron. 7:14} ¹⁶So he led David and his men to the Amalekite camp, and there they were, eating, drinking, and dancing because of all they had taken from the Philistines and Judah. ¹⁷David and his men rushed in on them and fought them all that night and the next day. The only ones who escaped were 400 young men who rode off on camels. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ¹⁸David got back everything the Amalekites had stolen, including his two wives. ¹⁹The men got back all their family members and all their belongings. ²⁰His troops gathered all the sheep and cattle and drove them on ahead and said, "These are all for David." {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

²¹When David reached Besor Ravine where the 200 exhausted men were, David greeted them. ²²But some of the men with David were rascals, and they said, "Since they didn't go with us to the battle, they don't deserve to get any of the things we brought back. Let them get their wives and children and go." {234 Impatient-Judgmental Prayer, Rev. 6:10} 23But David said, "No. You mustn't do that. That's being greedy. God has protected us and helped us defeat the enemy. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 24No one will listen to you when you talk like that. Those who go to battle and those who stay behind with the equipment will share the goods equally." {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ²⁵David made that a law from then on. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

²⁶When David got back to Ziklag, he sent some of the things they had taken from the Amalekites to the elders of Judah. He said, "Here is a present for you from the Lord's enemies." {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²⁷⁻³¹He sent gifts to the elders of these cities: Bethel, Ramoth Negev, Jattir, Aroer, Siphmoth, Eshtemoa, Racal, the towns of the Jerahmeelites and Kenites, the cities of Hormah, Bor Ashan, Athach, and Hebron. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7}

Lord, I trust You to deliver me; don't let me be embarrassed. Come down here to listen to me; I need You quickly. I need You to be as strong as a rock to keep me from being defeated. I need to hold Your hand so You can lead me out of this trouble. Get me out of this predicament; I know You can do it. I put myself into Your hands because You are my Redeemer. Amen.

1 Samuel 31 Saul Kills Himself

¹The Philistines attacked Israel at Mount Gilboa, killing many Israelite soldiers and forcing many to run. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 2The Philistines closed in on Saul and his sons, and they killed Saul and Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua. 3When the archers wounded Saul, {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} 4he said to his armor-bearer, "Kill me. I don't want these uncircumcised Philistines to capture and torture me and make fun of me." But his armor-bearer was afraid to do it, so Saul took his own sword and fell on it. 5When his armor-bearer saw Saul was dead; he fell on his sword too and died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁶So that same day Saul, his three sons, his armor-bearer, and many Israelite soldiers were killed. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

When the Israelites on the other side of the Jezreel Valley and beyond the Jordan River heard that the Israelites had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they left their cities. And the Philistines moved into those towns. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 8The next day when the Philistines went to the battlefield to take weapons from the dead soldiers, they found the bodies of Saul and his three sons on Mount Gilboa. 9They cut off Saul's head, pulled off his armor, and sent messengers to spread the news to their people and to announce the news in the temple of their idols. 10 They put Saul's armor in the temple of the goddess Astarte and nailed his body to the city wall of Beth-Shan.

¹¹When the Israelites of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done, ¹²some brave men one night went to Beth-Shan and took down the bodies of Saul and his sons {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} and brought them to Jabesh, and burned them. ¹³Then they buried their bones under the oak tree at Jabesh, and they fasted for seven days. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

Lord, remind me that partial obedience is complete disobedience. Amen.

2 SAMUEL

CH 1: DAVID MOURNS THE DEATH OF SAUL AND
Jonathan	435
Ch 2: David Becomes King of Judah	436
CH 3: THE SONS OF DAVID WHO WERE BORN IN
Hebron	438
Cн 4: Ish-Bosheth Is Murdered	440
Ch 5: David Becomes King over All Israel	441
Ch 6: David Brings the Sacred Chest to Jerusalem	442
Ch 7: God's Promise to King David	443
Ch 8: The Military Victories of David	445
Ch 9: David Befriends Mephibosheth	445
Ch 10: David Defeats the Ammonites and
Syrians	446
Ch 11: David and Bathsheba	447
CH 12: THE RESULTS OF DAVID'S SINS	449
CH 13: AMNON RAPES TAMAR	450
CH 14: JOAB PLANS THE RETURN OF ABSALOM	452
CH 15: THE CONSPIRACY OF ABSALOM	453
Ch 16: David and Ziba	455
Ch 17: Ahithophel's Plan	456
Ch 18: The Death of Absalom	458
Ch 19: King David Returns to Jerusalem	459
CH 20: SHEBA'A REVOLT AND DEFEAT	462

CH 21: THE GIBEONITES ARE AVENGED	463
CH 22: THE SONG OF DAVID	464
CH 23: THE LAST PSALM OF DAVID	466
CH 24: A CENSUS IS TAKEN	468

2 SAMUEL

Key Words: King David (2 Samuel 2:4)

Key Verse: "So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a league with them in Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years" (5:3-4).

Theme: First Samuel records the failure of Eli and King Saul, and Second Samuel reflects the restoration of peace to the nation of Israel through the strength of King David. The tenderhearted David—the shepherd king—conquers the enemies of Israel and sets up a godly rule in Jerusalem.

Yet even in the midst of strength and prosperity, evil slipped into David's life. He sinned with Bathsheba and murdered her husband. God judged David's sin, just as God punishes sin today. Bathsheba's baby died, David's family was ravaged by sin, and David's oldest son Absalom tried to kill him. Lord, I vow to live a pure life; keep me from sin. And when I sin ignorantly—or otherwise—deal with me in mercy and cleanse me by the blood of Christ (1 John 1:7-9).

2 Samuel 1 David Mourns the Deaths of Saul and Jonathan

Saul died, David went home to Hebron after defeating the Amalekites.
²Three days later a man came from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and dust on his head as signs of grief. He kneeled to the ground in front of David in respect.
{231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ³When David asked him where he came from, he said, "I escaped from the Israelite army." {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5}

⁴David asked, "Tell me what happened. How did the battle go?" The man responded, "Our army ran, but many were wounded and are dead. And Saul and Jonathan are dead." ⁵David asked, "Are you sure Saul and Jonathan are dead? How do you know?"

6"I was on Mount Gilboa and I saw Saul leaning on his spear with enemy chariots coming at him. ⁷When he saw me, I asked him what I could do. ⁸He asked me who I was, so I told him, 'I'm an Amalekite.' ⁹He said to me, 'Come kill me. I'm in terrible pain.' {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} ¹⁰So I killed him because I could see he couldn't live any longer. I took his crown and arm band to bring to you." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

¹¹David and his men tore their clothes in grief. ¹²They cried all day long, {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} and ate nothing, saddened by the deaths of Saul and Jonathan and the deaths of so many of their soldiers. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} ¹³Then David asked the man, "Where are you from?" He replied, "I am an Amalekite, but I live in Israel." ¹⁴David asked, "Why weren't you afraid to kill the king, the LORD's anointed one?"

¹⁵Then David told one of his men to kill this Amalekite and he did, and the man died. ¹⁶David had said, "It's your fault, not mine that you will die. Why? Because you admitted that you killed the one the LORD chose to be king." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁷David then wrote a funeral song in honor of Saul and Jonathan. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ¹⁸And he ordered his men of Judah to teach it to everyone in Israel. It is known as "The Lament of the Bow" and is written in the Book of Jashar. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3}

¹⁹"Israel, your glorious king lies dead on the hills, and his great heroes have fallen. ²⁰"Don't tell the news in the Philistine cities of Gath or Ashkelon. You don't want the daughters of the pagan Philistines to be glad.

²¹"Don't let dew or rain fall on the hills of Gilboa, and don't let crops grow in the fields. There the soldiers' shields were useless, and Saul's shield will no longer be polished with oil.

²²"Jonathan's bow and arrows caused his enemies' blood to be spilled, and Saul's sword killed the enemy's best soldiers.

²³ Saul and Jonathan were appreciated and were wonderful men. They were together in life, and they even died together. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1}

²⁴"Women of Saul, cry for Saul. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} He provided fine red cloth for you and gold jewelry.

²⁵"Our great soldiers have died in battle and Jonathan lies dead on the hills of Gilboa.

²⁶"I miss you, my brother Jonathan. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} I appreciated you so much, and your appreciation for me was greater than that of a wife for her husband. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

²⁷"Our great heroes have fallen, and their weapons are destroyed."

Lord, may I never "lie" or "stretch the truth" to get on anyone's good side. I'll remember the consequences of the man who lied to David. Amen.

2 Samuel 2 David Becomes King of Judah

¹Eventually David asked the LORD if he should move back to one of the towns in Judah. The LORD said, "Yes." So David asked, "Which town should I go to?" And the LORD said, "Hebron." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²So David moved to Hebron with his two wives Ahinoam and Abigail, ³and he also had his men and their families move with him to Hebron and nearby villages. ⁴The people of Judah went to Hebron and made him their king. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

When David learned that people in Jabesh Gilead had buried Saul, ⁵he sent messengers to tell them, "May the LORD bless you for being kind in giving Saul a decent burial. {22 Appropriate-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 39:5} ⁶And may the LORD be kind and faithful to you. And I too will be kind to you because of what you have done. {78 Compliment-Blessing Prayer, Luke 6:31} ⁷Now that Saul your king is dead, and Judah has made me their king, be strong and courageous." {342 Partial Answer-Prayer, Exod. 33:2-3}

⁸Meanwhile Abner, Saul's cousin, and his army commanders had taken Saul's son Ish-Bosheth to Mahanaim on the east side of the Jordan River, ⁹and made him king over Israel, including Gilead, Asher, Jezreel, Ephraim, and Benjamin. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ¹⁰Ish-Bosheth was 40 years old at the time, and he ruled for two years. ¹¹However, David reigned over the tribe of Judah in Hebron for seven and a half years.

¹²Abner and the soldiers with Ish-Bosheth went to Gibeon. ¹³Joab, David's commander and nephew, and David's soldiers met Abner and Ish-Bosheth's men at the pool in Gibeon. Abner and his men sat on one side of the pool, and Joab and his men sat opposite them on the other side. ¹⁴Abner suggested to Joab that their men do some hand-to-hand combat. Joab said, "Okay." {464 Striving-Prayer, Rom. 15:30} ¹⁵Each group chose 12 men. ¹⁶Then they grabbed each other by the hair, and each one stabbed his opponent in the side, and all 24 died. So that place is called Helkath Hazzurim (meaning "Field of Daggers"). ¹⁷The two groups then started fighting and the battle was fierce. But David's men defeated Abner and his soldiers. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ¹⁸Three of David's nephews, Joab, Abishai, and Asahel (sons of Zeruiah, David's sister), were there at this battle. 19 Asahel, who could run as fast as a gazelle, ran straight ahead after Abner. 20When Abner looked back and saw Asahel he asked, "Is that you, Asahel?" Asahel answered, "Yes." 21Then Abner said, "Why don't you go after someone else and take his weapons?" But Asahel just kept running after him.

²²Again Abner said, "Stop chasing me! If I have to kill you how could I face your brother Joab again?" {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ²³Asahel kept going, and so Asahel hit him in the stomach with the back end of his spear, and the spear went all the way through him to his back. Asahel fell and died. Everyone who came there and saw Asahel lying dead stopped and looked. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} ²⁴But Joab and Abishai went after Abner. About sunset they arrived at the Ammah Hill near Giah on the road to the Gibeon Desert. ²⁵Men from Benjamin went to Abner to the top of a hill and were ready to fight. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

²⁶Abner yelled to Joab, "Why do we keep on killing each other? Why don't you order your men to stop chasing their own relatives?" {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²⁷Joab answered, "Well, you are right. If you hadn't said something, we would have chased our own relatives all night." ²⁸So Joab signaled on his trumpet for his men to stop chasing the Israelites soldiers. And so the fighting stopped. ²⁹All that might Abner and his soldiers went across the Jordan River and crossed a deep ravine and arrived at Mahanaim. ³⁰Joab and his men went home. When he counted his soldiers, he found that only 19 soldiers were missing, in addition to Asahel. 31But Abner lost 360 of his men, all Benjamites. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 32Asahel was buried in his family tomb in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men marched all night and reached

Lord, fruit doesn't fall very far from the roots of a tree, and Ish-Bosheth was just like Saul his father. May I plant myself by rivers of living water (see Ps. 1:3) and bring forth the fruit of holiness to Your glory. Amen.

Hebron at daybreak. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3}

2 Samuel 3 The Sons of David Who Were Born in Hebron

¹War continued on between those who were loyal to Saul and those who were loyal to David. David's position became stronger, and Saul's followers grew weaker. {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17} ²While David was in Hebron, he had six sons. His oldest was Amnon, whose mother was Ahinoam. ³His second was Kileab, whose mother was Abigail. The third son was Absalom, whose mother was Maacah, daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur. ⁴David's fourth was Adonijah, whose mother was Haggish; and the fifth was Shephatiah, and his mother was Abital. ⁵And David's sixth son was Ithream, whose mother was Eglah. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

⁶During the war between the followers of Saul and David, Abner became more powerful. {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17} ⁷He even slept with Saul's concubine Rizpah, daughter of Aiah. Ish-Bosheth told Abner he should not have done that. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 8This made Abner very mad and he said, "Do you think I'm nothing but a dog? I have been loyal to your father's family and friends, and I haven't turned you over to David. So why do you accuse me of some crime with Rizpah? 9-10So I will now hand your kingdom over to David and help set up his reign from Dan in the far north to Beersheba in the far south." {421 Sarcastic-Worship, John 19:2-3} ¹¹This made Ish-Bosheth so afraid that he didn't say a word. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

¹²Abner sent messengers to David to suggest that David make an agreement with him so that he could persuade everyone in Israel to make David their king. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹³David said, "Good idea. But first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, back to me." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ¹⁴Then David sent some officials to Ish-Bosheth, demanding that he give David his wife Michal, whom he bought by killing many Philistines. ¹⁵So Ish-Bosheth agreed and had her taken from her husband Palti. ¹⁶Her husband Palti went with her to Bahurim, crying all the way. When Abner told him to go home, he left. {49 Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

¹⁷Abner told the elders of Israel, "You have wanted to make David your king. ¹⁸So now's the time to do it. Remember that the LORD promised to use David to rescue His people from all your enemies." {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} ¹⁹Abner persuaded the Benjamites to go along with this idea. Then he went to Hebron to tell David everyone was interested in making him king. ²⁰Abner arrived with 20 men, and David gave a big feast for them. ²¹Then Abner said, "Let me go get all Israel to come make an agreement with you and make you king of all Israel." So Abner left. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

²²Right after Abner left, Joab and some of his men returned from a raid, bringing with them everything they had taken from a town. ²³Someone told Joab that Abner had come to see David and Abner left with his blessing. {471 Surveillance-Prayer, Ps. 59:1-3} ²⁴Joab went immediately to the king and said, "What have you done? Why did you let him get away? ²⁵Don't you realize he came to spy on you?" {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

²⁶Joab sent messengers to catch up with Abner and bring him back from the well at Sirah. But David didn't know about this. ²⁷Then when Abner got back to Hebron, Joab pulled him aside to the town gate as if to speak with him privately, and he stabbed Abner in the stomach, and he died. {234 Impatient-Judgmental Prayer, Rev. 6:10} ²⁸When David heard about this, he said he was innocent of killing Abner. ²⁹"Joab is the guilty one. I pray his family will always have some physical problems with sores or lameness or die in war or starve." {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

³⁰So why did Joab and his brother Abishai kill Abner? Because Abner had killed their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon. ³¹Then David ordered Joab and all the people to mourn Abner's death by tearing their clothes and wearing clothes made of old rough materials and walking in front of Abner's body. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} David himself walked behind the coffin. ³²Abner was buried in Hebron, and David and all the people cried. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} ³³Then the king sang a funeral song about Abner: {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} "Should Abner have died like a fool? ³⁴Your hands weren't tied nor were your feet chained. And yet you died as a victim of wicked men." And the people cried again.

³⁵People urged David to eat something while it was still daytime. But he refused, saying he would not eat anything till after sunset. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} ³⁶His attitude pleased the people, just as everything he did pleased them. ³⁷The people knew by his actions that he had no part in the murder of Abner. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

³⁸David said, "Today a great leader has fallen in Israel. ³⁹As you know, I am the king, but these nephews of mine–Joab and Abishai–are too strong to control. So may the LORD repay these wicked men for the wicked things they have done." {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20}

Lord, give me patience to accept things that come slowly, as David was slowly given rulership over the kingdom. Help me understand how bad things happen. Teach me Your patience, and put within my heart a spirit of determination to do Your will. Amen.

2 Samuel 4 Ish-Bosheth Is Murdered

¹When Ish-Bosheth heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he was very afraid, and everyone in Israel was very frightened. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} ²Ish-Bosheth had put two men in charge of raiding bands. They were Baanah and Recab, sons of Rimmon of the Benjamin tribe. Rimmon was from Beeroth, which was part of Benjamin. ³People who used to live in Beeroth were considered Benjamites even though they moved to Gittuim and still live there. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15}

⁴Saul's son Jonathan had a son named Mephibosheth who couldn't walk since age five. When someone told his nurse that Saul and Jonathan had died, she hurried off carrying him in her arms, but he fell and injured his legs. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15}

⁵Recab and Baanah went to the house of Ish-Bosheth, arriving there when it was hot and he was taking a nap. ⁶They went into the house, pretending to get some flour. Then they went to the bedroom, and stabbed Ish-Bosheth in the stomach, and ran off.

⁷After they stabbed him, they cut off his head. They took his head with them as they traveled all night to the Jordan River. ⁸When they got to Hebron, they said to David, "Here is the head of the man Ish-Bosheth, who tried to kill you. This is how you are getting even with Saul and his family." {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3}

⁹David answered, "The LORD is the one who rescues me from trouble. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁰Awhile back when someone told me that Saul was dead, he thought he was giving me good news. But I killed him. ¹¹Now you two have killed Ish-Bosheth, an innocent man on his own bed. So you too deserve to die." {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹²So David ordered his men to kill Baanah and Recab. They cut off their hands and feet and hung their bodies by the pool in Hebron. But they buried Ish-Bosheth's head in Abner's tomb in Hebron.

Lord, when I read of those who murder for political gain, may I always do right, in the right way, at the right time, for the right reasons. Amen.

2 Samuel 5 David Becomes King over All Israel

¹Leaders from all Israel's tribes met with David in Hebron and said, "We are all related. ²When Saul was king, you led us in battle as our real leader. And the Lord said you would be our leader, taking care of us as a shepherd cares for his sheep." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ³Then David made an agreement with them in the Lord's presence, and the leaders crowned him king over all Israel. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ⁴At the time he was 30 years old, and he ruled for 40 years. ⁵This included seven and a half years in Hebron over Judah, and 33 years in Jerusalem over all Israel.

⁶David and his men went to Jerusalem to attack the Jebusites who lived there. When the Jebusites saw them outside their city, {421 Sarcastic-Worship, John 19:2-3} they said, "You can't get in here. Even our blind and lame can keep you out." 7But David did capture the fortress of Zion, now called the City of David. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} 8David said, "To capture the Jebusites, we'll have to go up through the water tunnel to reach these blind and lame enemies of mine." That's the origin of the saying, "The blind and the lame enemies can't enter the palace." {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8}

⁹After defeating the Jebusites, David moved to Zion and named it the City of David. He built up the area around it. ¹⁰David became more and more powerful because the LORD, {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} the God of the Heavens, was with him. {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17}

¹¹Hiram, king of Tyre, sent messengers to David, with carpenters and stone workers who took cedar logs to build David's palace. 12 David realized that the Lord had made him king over Israel and had blessed his rule for their benefit. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ¹³After David moved to Jerusalem, he married several more concubines and wives 14 and had these sons: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ¹⁵Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, ¹⁶Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ¹⁷The Philistines heard that David was now king of Israel, and so they took a lot of soldiers to try to find him, but he went into hiding. 18When David heard that the Philistines soldiers were in the Rephaim Valley, {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} 19he asked the Lord if he should attack the Philistines and if he would win. The Lord said, "Yes, I will help you defeat them." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 20So David defeated them at Baal-Perazim. He said, "The LORD went against my enemies like a flood." So he named the place Baal-Perazim (meaning "The Lord Broke Through"). {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²¹The Philistines left their idols there, and David's men picked them up. {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

²²Again the Philistines went against David in the Rephaim Valley. ²³When David asked the LORD what to do, He said, "Don't attack them from the front. Go around behind them and attack them near the balsam trees. ²⁴When you hear a sound in the tops of the trees like troops marching, then attack the Philistines. That sound will mean I have gone ahead of you to defeat them." {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} ²⁵So David did as the LORD said and he chased them all the way from Gibeon to Gezer. {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

Lord, help me overlook those who offend me, just as David overlooked these elders. It is written that David was "a man after Your own heart." May it be said of me that I pursued Your heart. Amen.

2 Samuel 6 David Brings the Sacred Chest to Jerusalem

¹David got together 30,000 of Israel's best soldiers ²and they went to Baalah of Judah, also called Kiriath-Jearim. They went there to bring back to Jerusalem the sacred chest, {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} which is named after the LORD of the Heavens, whose throne is above the winged creatures. {21 Approach Worshipfully, Heb. 12:22} ³They put the sacred chest on a new ox cart and brought it down from the hillside home of Abinadab. Two of his sons, Uzzah and Ahio, were guiding the cart, ⁴and Ahio was walking in front. {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1} ⁵David and many Israelites were very happy as they sang and played music on harps, lyres, tambourines, castanets, and symbols. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

⁶When they got to Nacon's threshing floor, the oxen stumbled, and so Uzzah grabbed the sacred chest to steady it. {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ⁷This made the LORD very angry, and so He killed Uzzah right next to the chest. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁸This in turn made David angry, and so the place is called Perez Uzzah (meaning "Outbreak against Uzzah"). {234 Impatient-Judgmental Prayer, Rev. 6:10}

⁹Fearful of the LORD, David wondered how he could ever take the sacred chest to Jerusalem. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ¹⁰So instead of taking it there, he took it to the home of Obed-Edom, from Gath. ¹¹It was there for three months, and God blessed Obed-Edom and his family. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4}

¹²Hearing that the LORD had blessed Obed-Edom and his family because of the sacred chest, David went to Obed-Edom's house and took the chest to Jerusalem and everyone was happy again. {22 Appropriate-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 39:5} ¹³After the men who were carrying the chest took six steps, they stopped and David sacrificed a bull and a calf. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁴Dancing with enthusiasm, David was wearing a priestly vest, ¹⁵while

he and the people who brought the sacred chest were shouting and playing trumpets. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52}

¹⁶Michal, Saul's daughter and David's wife, looked out a window and saw them bringing the sacred chest to Jerusalem. Seeing David jumping and dancing for the Lord made her feel disgusted. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁷They put the chest in a tent David had set up for it. He then sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the Lord. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} 18 Then he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of the Heavens. {445 Speaking a Blessing-Prayer, Num. 6:27} ¹⁹He gave everyone a loaf of bread, a cake of dates, and a raisin cake, and everyone went home.

²⁰When David went home, his wife Michal said in disgust, "You sure made a fool of yourself today, dancing partially clothed in front of your slave girls like an indecent man." {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ²¹David responded, "I was doing this in thanks to the LORD because he chose me and not your father to be Israel's king. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²²I am willing to act like a fool to show my joy in the LORD. But my slave girls still respect me." {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10} ²³Michal never had any children. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, give me a holy fear of disobeying You. Come be at the center of all my plans. Teach me how to please You. I will worship You with all I do. Lord, be King of my life. Amen.

2 Samuel 7 God's Promise to King David

¹When David was living in his palace and Israel was not at war, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²he said one day to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am living in this nice palace made with lots of cedar, but the sacred chest is still in a tent." {540 Worshiping God in the Backyard, Ps. 134} ³Nathan said, "Do whatever you feel the Lord wants you to do." {540 Worshiping God in the Backyard, Ps. 134}

⁴That night the LORD told Nathan to give this message to David: ⁵"Are you the one to build a temple for Me to live in? {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 'Ever since bringing you out of Egypt, I have lived in a tent. ⁷I never said to any of the Israelite leaders, who are like shepherds, 'Why haven't you built a house of cedar for Me?' {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

8""I, the LORD of the Heavens, chose you, David, from being a shepherd to being the prince of My people. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} °I have been with you, and I have defeated your enemies, and I will now make you very famous. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁰I have given your people a permanent homeland, where they can live in peace and where wicked nations will no longer bother them {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹¹as they used to do when I appointed judges over them. I will keep enemies away from you.

"Many of your descendants will be kings. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} 12After you die, I'll choose a descendant to follow you, and I will make his kingdom strong. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} 13He will build a house—a temple—for Me, and his kingdom will last forever. 14I will be his father, and he will be My son. If he sins, I will use other nations to punish him. 15But My unfailing love will always be with him, though I took it from Saul. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1} ¹⁶One of your descendants will always be king, and your throne will be established forever." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

¹⁷Nathan told David everything the LORD said. {49 Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

¹⁸Then David sat in the LORD's presence and said, {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} "Who am I and my family, Sovereign Lord, that You have blessed me? ¹⁹And besides that, You have promised to bless my family in the future. How interesting that You treat people this way. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} ²⁰What more can I say? {251 Interchange with God, Gen. 18:23-33} ²¹You have done this great thing, and you have let me know about it. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ²²You are so great, O Sovereign Lord. No one is like You, as we well know. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²³No other nation is like Israel, the people You rescued from Egypt for Yourself. You did wonderful things for them by forcing out other nations and their gods from their land. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ²⁴You chose Israel to be Your people forever, and You are their God. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

²⁵"Now, LORD God, please keep Your promise to me and my descendants. ²⁶Then You will be honored and people will say, 'The LORD of the Heavens is the God of Israel.' {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} And my descendants will be established before You. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

²⁷"O LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, You have told me my descendants will be kings. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} That's why I have the courage to pray this way to You. ²⁸Sovereign Lord, You are God, and You can be trusted to do as You say, including this promise to me, Your servant. ²⁹Please bless my descendants so they can continue as kings. Sovereign Lord, please bless my descendants forever." {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4}

Lord, thank You for not giving me all the things for which I pray. I will learn Your Scriptures, think Your thoughts, and pray Your words. I will humble myself so You can use me. Amen.

2 Samuel 8 The Military Victories of David

¹Eventually David defeated the Philistines, including conquering Metheg Ammah, also known as Gath. ²He also defeated the Moabites. He made their soldiers lie down on the ground, and measuring them with a rope, he killed every two men and let every third man live. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} The Moabites were subject to him and paid him taxes.

³When Hadadezer, king of Zobah, went to the Euphrates River to regain some land there, ⁴David captured 1,700 chariot drivers and 20,000 foot soldiers, and he cut the leg muscles of all but 100 of the horses. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ⁵The Syrians of Damascus went to help Hadadezer, but David killed 22,000 of them. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ⁶He set up military posts in Damascus, and the Syrians were subject to him and paid him taxes. The LORD gave David victory in every battle he fought. {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

⁷Hadadezer's officers had gold shields, and David took these to Jerusalem. ⁸He also took a lot of bronze from the cities of Betah and Berothai, which had been under Hadadezer.

⁹When Toi, king of Hamath, heard that David had defeated Hadadezer, ¹⁰he sent his son Joram to congratulate David on his victory, because Toi and Hadadezer were enemies. Joram gave David a number of gifts made from silver, gold, and bronze. ¹¹And David gave these to the LORD just as he had done with silver and gold from the many other nations he defeated, {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ¹²such as Edom, Moab, Ammon, the Philistines, the Amalekites, and goods taken from Hadadezer of Zobah.

¹³David killed 18,000 Edomites soldiers in the Salt Valley, south of the Dead Sea. ¹⁴He then set up military posts throughout Edom, and the Edomites were subject to David as their ruler. The LORD gave him victory in every battle. {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

¹⁵David reigned over all Israel, always doing for his people what was fair and right. ¹⁶His chief officers were his nephew Joab, army commander; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud, who was government recorder; ¹⁷Zadok, son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech, son of Abiathar, who were priests; Seraiah, chief secretary; ¹⁸Benaiah, son of Jehoiada, captain of David's bodyguard consisting of Kerethites and Pelethites; and David's sons, who were advisers. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Lord, I claim victory no matter what strategy the enemy uses against me. You are the source of my victories. I give You all credit for all my victories. Amen.

2 Samuel 9 David Befriends Mephibosheth

¹David had promised Jonathan that he would be kind to Saul's family. So he wondered if any of them were alive. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ²David asked Ziba, a servant in Saul's family, to see him. When David asked if he was Ziba, he said, "Yes. I am." {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ³Then David asked him if he knew if any of Saul's family was alive because he wanted to keep his promise to be kind to them. Ziba answered, "Jonathan's lame son is still alive." {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ⁴"Where is he?" David asked. Ziba replied, "He is in Lo Debar at the home of Machir, son of Ammiel." ⁵So David had Jonathan's son brought to Jerusalem.

⁶When Jonathan's son, who was Saul's grandson, came to David, he bowed down in honor. "Are you Mephibosheth?" David asked. "Yes. I am your servant." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ⁷David said, "Don't be afraid. I want to be kind to you because of my promise to your father. I'm going to give you back the land of your grandfather Saul, and I want you to live here at the palace with me." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

⁸Mephibosheth bowed down again and said, "I don't know why you are interested in me. I'm nothing more than a dead dog." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ⁹David then told Ziba, Saul's servant, "I'm giving to your master's grandson everything that belonged to Saul and his family. ¹⁰I want you and your sons and servants to work for Mephibosheth, farming his land and his ways. And he will always eat with me at my table." Ziba had 15 sons and 20 servants. {22 Appropriate-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 39:5} ¹¹Ziba said, "I will do whatever you tell me to do." So Mephibosheth ate every meal at David's table as if he were one of his sons. ¹²Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica. All of Ziba's family members were Mephibosheth's servants. ¹³And Mephibosheth, crippled in both feet, moved to Jerusalem and lived in the palace.

Lord, most kings would have killed any heir to the throne, but David exercised grace. Thank You for giving me grace, the opposite of what I deserve. I deserve nothing, but thank You for giving me Your riches in grace. Thank You for being a God of mercy, kindness, and grace. Amen.

2 Samuel 10 David Defeats the Ammonites and Syrians

¹Later Nahash, king of the Ammonites, died, and his son Hanun became king. ²David said, "Nahash was kind to me, so I will be kind to his son." David sent messengers to express sympathy to Hanun about the death of his father. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ³When David's men arrived, Hanun's officials told Hanun, "They aren't here to express sympathy. They are spies." {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ⁴So Hanun took David's men and shaved off half of each man's beard and cut off their clothes at their buttocks, and sent them off. {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18}

⁵David sent messengers to meet his men and to tell them to stay in Jericho until their beards grew back. {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14} ⁶The Ammonites realized they made David angry, so they hired 20,000 Syrian soldiers from Beth-Rehob and Zobah, 1,000 soldiers from the king of Maacah and 12,000 men from Tob. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ⁷So David sent Joab with all his soldiers to attack them. ⁸The Ammonites were ready to fight by the city gate, and the Syrians of Zobah, Rehob, Tob, and Maacah were in the fields. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28}

⁹Joab realized he would have to fight the enemy behind him and ahead of him. So he chose his best troops and went against the enemy. ¹⁰And he put the rest of his soldiers under Abishai, his brother. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹¹Joab told him that each one should be ready to help the other if either group was in trouble. ¹²Joab told Abishai to be brave and fight to protect their people and their cities. He added, "We are in the Lord's hands." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

¹³When attacked, the Syrians began to run. ¹⁴And when the Ammonite soldiers saw the Syrians running, they too ran from Abishai and retreated into the city. Then Joab returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁵The Syrians now saw they could not defeat Israel themselves; ¹⁶so Hadadezer recruited more Syrians from beyond the Euphrates River. They went to Helam under Shobach, Hadadezer's commander. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

¹⁷David then recruited his soldiers, crossed the Jordan River, and went to Helam. The Syrians fought David, {511 Urgent-Prayer, Luke 11:1-11} ¹⁸but again they ran from the Israelites. David's men killed 700 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers, and he killed Shobach. {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹⁹All the allies of Hadadezer surrendered to David and were subject to him as their leader. The Syrians then were afraid to help the Ammonites any more. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Lord, keep me from being suspicious of people. May I live with an open hand and an open heart. Amen.

2 Samuel 11 David and Bathsheba

¹Armies usually go to war in the spring. David sent Joab and his army to attack the Ammonites and lay siege to their capital city of Rabbah. But David stayed behind in Jerusalem. ²One evening he got out of bed and walked on the flat roof of his palace. From his roof he saw a beautiful woman taking a bath. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} 3He sent someone to find out who she was, and the man told David she was Bathsheba, daughter of Eliam and wife of Uriah the Hittite. ⁴Then David sent for her, and she came to him, and he slept with her. (She had just completed the cleansing ritual after her monthly period.) She went home, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ⁵and then realizing she was pregnant, she informed David.

⁶So David ordered Joab to send Uriah home. ⁷Uriah arrived, and David asked him about Joab, the soldiers, and the war. ⁸Then David told him to go home and relax. David even gave him a gift. ⁹But Uriah didn't go home. Instead he slept that night at the palace entrance with David's servants.

¹⁰David heard that Uriah didn't go home to sleep with his wife. So he asked him why. ¹¹Uriah said, "The sacred chest and our soldiers are all in tents, and Joab and his officers are camped in open fields. So it wouldn't be fair for me to go home, eat and drink, and sleep with my wife. I couldn't do that." ¹²David told him, "Okay. Stay here tonight, and go back to the battlefield tomorrow." So Uriah stayed there that day and the next. ¹³Then David invited Uriah for dinner and got him drunk. But still he didn't go home to his wife. Again he slept at the palace entrance. {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

¹⁴Next morning David wrote a letter to Joab, ¹⁵telling him to position Uriah in the battle's front lines, and then to pull the troops back so he would be killed. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ¹⁶So Joab put Uriah at a place near the city wall where the enemy's strongest men were fighting. ¹⁷And Uriah was killed, along with several fellow soldiers.

Lord, I have sinned, just as David sinned. I sinned in a different way, at a different time, to satisfy a different selfish reason. Forgive me, cleanse me, and restore me. Just as You used David after his sin, use me again. Amen.

¹⁸Joab wrote a report to David, ¹⁹and he said to the messenger, "After David reads this report, ²⁰he may get angry and ask you why we were fighting so close to the city wall where arrows could be shot at us. ²¹He might mention Abimelech who was killed in Thebez when a woman threw a millstone down on him from a city wall. If he says this, just say, 'Uriah the Hittite was killed too.'"

²²The messenger gave this report to David, and added, ²³"The enemy chased us out into the fields, but we pushed them back to the city gate. ²⁴There the enemy shot arrows at us, and some of your men were killed including Uriah the Hittite." ²⁵David told the messenger to say to Joab, "Don't be upset by this. Different ones are killed in battle. So keep fighting against the city." {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

²⁶Uriah's wife heard that her husband was dead, and she grieved for him. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} ²⁷When her days of mourning were ended, David brought her to his house, married her, and they had a son. The LORD was very displeased with what David had done. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3}

Lord, You know me better than I know myself. When I drift from Your fellowship, rattle my cage. When I begin to cool off, burn my soul with conviction. If I turn around, hit me in the back. If I wander from You, YELL. Don't let me trip into sin. Amen.

2 Samuel 12 The Results of David's Sins

¹Then the LORD sent Nathan the prophet to tell this story to David: {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} "A rich man and a poor man lived in the same town. ²The rich man had many sheep and cattle, ³but the poor man had only a little lamb, which was like a pet to him and his children. He let it eat from his own plate and drink from his cup, and it slept with him. ⁴One day a traveler arrived at the home of the rich man. Instead of killing one of his sheep for food for the guest, the rich man stole the poor man's lamb and killed it and roasted it and served it to his guest.

5"This made David terribly angry. He told Nathan, 'The man who did this should be killed. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ⁶He must pay four times what the lamb was worth." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁷Then Nathan said to David, "You are that man. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} The LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'I made you king of Israel, and I kept you safe from Saul. ⁸I gave you his palace and his wives and the kingdoms of Israel and Judah, and I could have given you much more. ⁹Why then did you disregard My word by doing this evil thing? You murdered Uriah and stole his wife. ¹⁰From now on murder will occur often in your family, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} all because you disregarded My word and took Uriah's wife to be yours. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹¹Your own family members will rebel against you. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} One who is close to you will go to bed with your wives and everyone will see it. ¹²You sinned in secret, but this sin will be done in the open for everyone to see."

¹³David confessed to Nathan, "Yes. I have sinned against the LORD." {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} Nathan replied, "True. But the LORD has forgiven you, and you won't die. ¹⁴But your sin has caused the LORD's enemies to scoff at Him. So your child will die." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹⁵Nathan went home. Then Bathsheba and David's baby got very sick. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ¹⁶David begged God to make the boy well. David didn't eat, and he slept at night on the ground. {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} ¹⁷His officials tried to get him to get up and eat, but he refused. ¹⁸When the baby was only a week old, he died. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} David's officials were hesitant to tell him the baby died, because they said, "He was so disturbed when the child was alive. What would he do now that the baby is dead?" {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

¹⁹When David heard them whispering, he knew what had happened. So he asked, "Is my child dead?" "Yes," they said. ²⁰Then David got up, washed, put on some lotion, and got dressed, {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} and went into the tabernacle and worshiped the LORD. Then he went to the palace and he ate. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²¹His servants were surprised. They said, "Why are you acting this way? When the baby was alive, you cried and wouldn't eat. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} And now that the baby is dead, you are up and eating."

²²David replied, "I cried and didn't eat when my baby was alive because I thought, {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 'Perhaps the LORD will let him live.' ²³But now that he is dead, there is no need to go without eating. I can't bring him back. But someday I will go to where he is." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

²⁴David comforted Bathsheba, and he slept with her. She got pregnant and gave birth to another son and they named him Solomon. The LORD loved Solomon, {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ²⁵and Nathan the prophet told David that his name should be Jedidiah (meaning "Loved by the Lord"). {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

²⁶Meanwhile Joab and the Israelite army fought against Rabbah, capital of Ammon. ²⁷He sent word to David telling him he captured the city and cut off its water supply. ²⁸Joab said to David, "Bring the rest of the army and capture the city so that you will get the credit for the victory instead of me." {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7}

²⁹So David got the rest of the soldiers together and they captured Rabbah. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} ³⁰He took the crown off of the king's head and put it on his own head. The crown was made of gold and had several gems in it, and it weighed about 75 pounds. He carried off many things of value. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} ³¹And he made the people work as slaves with saws, picks, and axes, and to make bricks. He did this with all the Ammonite cities. Then David and his army returned to Jerusalem. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Lord, keep me from sin so I don't have to suffer as David did. Help me repent early and completely. Amen.

2 Samuel 13 Amnon Rapes Tamar

¹David had a beautiful daughter Tamar, the sister of Absalom. Amnon, her half brother, fell in love with her. ²But because he could not win her love, he was so frustrated he became ill. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ³Amnon's cousin Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, was a crafty man. ⁴One day he asked Amnon, "Why do you look so sad? What's the problem?" Amnon said, "I'm in love with Tamar, my half sister, but she doesn't pay any attention to me."

⁵Jonadab said, "Here's what to do. Pretend to be very sick. Then when your father comes to see you, ask him to have Tamar cook you something to eat while you watch and then serve you the food." {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ⁶So Amnon pretended to be very sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon asked that Tamar cook him something to eat, {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} ⁷and David agreed and told her to go cook some food for him.

8So she went to Amnon's house so he could watch her mixing dough and baking some bread. 9When she brought it to him, he told all the servants to leave. 10He then told her to bring the bread to his bedroom and for her to feed him there. So she did. ¹¹The he grabbed her and said, "Come to bed with me, my beautiful sister." {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} 12"No!" she said. "Don't do this. Such a wicked thing should never be done in Israel. ¹³This would bring awful shame to me, and you would be known as one of the worst fools in all Israel. Just ask the king and he will let you marry me." 14But he wouldn't listen, and since he was stronger than she was, he raped her. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} 15 Then his love turned to hate and he yelled at her to get up and leave. 16Then she said, "Don't send me away. That would be worse than what you have already done." But again Amnon wouldn't listen. 17 He called his servant to come and he said, "Get this woman out of here and lock the door."

¹⁸So the servant put her out. Like the king's other unmarried daughters, she was wearing a long beautiful robe. ¹⁹In grief Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the robe she was wearing. Holding her head in her hands, she went away crying. ²⁰Her brother Absalom said to her, "I'm sorry Amnon has done this to you. But don't be so upset. After all, he's your brother." Tamar lived in her brother Absalom's house, and she was devastated beyond words. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ²¹David heard of this and he was fuming mad. ²²Never again did Absalom speak to Amnon. He hated Amnon because of what he had done to his sister.

²³Two years later Absalom's servants were cutting wool from his sheep in Baal-Hazor near Ephraim's border. ²⁴He invited all his brothers and half brothers and David and his officials to come join him for a feast. ²⁵David objected, saying they would all be too many for him. Absalom kept asking him, but David refused. ²⁶Absalom finally suggested David send Amnon. ²⁷So finally David let Amnon and his other sons go.

²⁸Absalom told his men, "I will get Amnon drunk, and then when I give the signal, kill him. Don't be afraid. Just do as I say, and be strong and courageous." ²⁹So Absalom's men murdered Amnon. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Then David's other sons all jumped on their mules and ran off. ³⁰Someone told David, "Absalom has killed all your sons." ³¹He tore his clothes in grief, {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} lay on the ground, and his servants also tore their clothes.

³²Jonadab, David's nephew, said, "Not all your sons have been killed. Only Amnon. And Absalom has been planning this ever since Amnon raped Tamar. ³³Don't think all your sons are dead. Only Amnon was killed." Meanwhile Absalom escaped.

³⁴A man standing on guard saw a lot of people coming down the side of the hill, and he told David. ³⁵Then Jonadab said to the king, "Your sons are coming, just as I said." ³⁶Then the sons arrived, crying loudly. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} And David and his servants were crying bitterly.

³⁷Absalom went to his grandfather Talmai, king of Geshur. ³⁸Absalom stayed with Talmai three years. ³⁹David finally got used to the loss of Amnon, but he longed for Absalom.

Lord, help us all control this powerful thing called sex. Amen.

2 Samuel 14 Joab Plans the Return of Absalom

¹Joab knew how much the king wanted to see his son Absalom. ²So he sent someone to bring to him a wise woman from Tekoa. He said, "Put on funeral clothes and don't wear any perfume. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} 3Pretend you have been grieving a long time and go to the king." Then Joab told her what to say. ⁴The woman from Tekoa went to David, bowed with her face to the ground, and said, "O King, please help me." 5David asked, "What's the problem?" 6She said, "I am a widow with two sons. They got into a fight, and one of them killed the other. ⁷Now the rest of my clan wants me to hand over my only son so they can kill him. But then there will be no one to continue my husband's name." 8David said, "Go on home, and I'll see that no one harms your son." ⁹She said, "I'll bear the blame if anyone accuses you for helping me." ¹⁰David said, "If anyone objects, bring him to me. I'll see that he never complains again." ¹¹She said, "Please pray that the Lord will keep anyone from killing my son." David said, "You can be sure no one will even mess up your son's hair." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

¹²She said, "May I mention one other thing?" He said, "Sure." ¹³She said, "Why don't you do for God's people what you have said you will do for me? You said you would protect my son, so why don't you care for your son? ¹⁴All of us must die. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Our lives end, like water spilled on the ground that can't be picked up again. But God doesn't take away life. He figures out ways to bring us back if we have been separated from Him. And may I suggest you should do the same?

15"I have come to you because I am afraid of what people might do to me and my son. 16I thought, 'Perhaps the king will listen to me and rescue me and my son from those who want to cut us off from God's people.' 17I know you will help me relax because you know the difference between good and evil for my lord the King is like an angel of God. May the LORD your God be with you.' {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13}

¹⁸The king replied, "I need to know one thing." "Yes?" she asked. ¹⁹He asked, "Did Joab put you up to this?" She replied, "Yes. I can't deny it. Joab sent me and told me what to say. ²⁰He wanted to help you see the situation and to change it, and in your wisdom like an angel of God you know everything that goes on."

²¹David sent for Joab and told him, "Okay. Go bring back Absalom." ²²Joab fell to the ground to honor the king, and he said, "Now I know you approve of me because you have granted me this request." ²³So Joab went to Geshur and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem. ²⁴But the king said, "He may go to his own house, but I don't want to see him." So Absalom did not see his father. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

²⁵No one in all Israel was as handsome and well-built as Absalom. 26He cut his hair only once a year and only then because it got too heavy. It weighed five pounds. ²⁷He had three sons and a beautiful daughter Tamar. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} ²⁸After living in Jerusalem for two years without seeing his father, ²⁹Absalom asked Joab to talk with David about seeing him, but Joab refused. Absalom sent for Joab a second time, but again Joab refused. ³⁰So Absalom said to his servants, "Go set on fire Joab's barley field, which is next to mine." So they did. 31 Joab went to Absalom and demanded, "Why did your servants set my field on fire?"

³²Absalom replied, "I wanted you to ask my father why he brought me back from Geshur. Since I can't see him, I might as well have stayed there. I want to see my father. And if he thinks I'm guilty of murder, he may kill me." ³³So Joab told the king what Absalom had said. Then David sent for Absalom, and he bowed low before David with his face to the ground. And

David kissed him. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

Lord, like David, I mourn for those who sin and refuse to return to You. Amen.

2 Samuel 15 The Conspiracy of Absalom

¹Later Absalom bought a fancy chariot and chariot horses, and had 50 men run in front of it. ²Every morning he got up early and waited by the side of the road that led to the city gate. Whenever anyone came that way to bring a problem to David for trial, Absalom would ask, "Where are you from?" and he would tell him his tribe. ³Then Absalom would say, "You have a strong case. It's too bad the king has no one to help him in cases like yours. ⁴If I were judge, people could bring their complaints to me, and I would see that he is treated fairly." {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23}

⁵Whenever anyone would start to bow down before Absalom, he would take him by the hands and hug him. ⁶In this way Absalom stole the hearts of all Israel from David. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ⁷Four years later Absalom said to David, "When I was in Geshur in Syria, I made a vow to the LORD. ⁸I told Him that if He brought me back to Jerusalem, I would go worship Him in Hebron." {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ⁹The king said, "Okay. You may go." So Absalom went to Hebron.

¹⁰Then Absalom sent messengers to all the tribes of Israel, with this message: {471 Surveillance-Prayer, Ps. 59:1-3} "When you hear trumpets being played, you will know that I have been crowned king in Hebron." ¹¹With him were 200 men from Jerusalem he invited as his guests, but they didn't know his plans. ¹²While Absalom was offering sacrifices in Hebron, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} he sent for Ahithophel, David's adviser, who lived in Giloh, to join him. And many others joined Absalom too.

¹³A messenger arrived in Jerusalem and told David that many people were joining with Absalom against David. ¹⁴David told his men, "We better leave Jerusalem right away. If we don't, he'll come here and kill us and everyone in our city." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁵His officials said, "We'll do whatever you say." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁶So he left with his family, but he left 10 concubines to take care of the palace. ¹⁷He stopped at the edge of the city ¹⁸to let his soldiers go past him, along with his bodyguard of Kerethites and Pelethites, and 600 men from Gath.

¹⁹One of the men from Gath was Ittai. David said to him, "Why are you here? You are a foreign resident. ²⁰You arrived in Jerusalem just yesterday. So why should you go with us when you don't even know where I'm going? Take your troops and stay with Absalom. And may the Lord be kind and faithful to you." {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ²¹But Ittai said, "As surely as you and the Lord lives, I will go wherever you go, even if it costs me my life." {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ²²David responded, "Okay. Come along with us." So Ittai and his 600 men and their families continued on with David.

²³The people of Jerusalem cried as David and his people passed by them and crossed the Kidron Valley, and went toward the desert. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ²⁴Abiathar and Zadok and all the Levites were with David and were carrying the sacred chest. They set it down and Abiathar offered sacrifices while the people were leaving the city. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²⁵Then David said to Zadok, "Take the sacred chest back to Jerusalem. If it's the Lord's will, He will bring me back to the tabernacle. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁶But if not, I am in His hands." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ²⁷David said to Zadok, "You are a prophet, so your son Ahimaaz and Jonathan son of Abiathar could relay to me any message you receive from the Lord. ²⁸I will wait at the shallow shores of the Jordan in the desert." ²⁹So Zadok and Abiathar took the sacred chest back to Jerusalem and stayed there. {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} ³⁰David went up to the Mount of Olives, crying as he went. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} He had covered his head in grief and he was barefoot. Everyone with him was crying and covered their heads too. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21}

³¹Someone told David, "Ahithophel, your adviser, has joined with Absalom against you." David prayed, "LORD, have Ahithophel give Absalom foolish advice." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ³²When

David got to the top of the Mount of Olives, Hushai the Arkite was waiting for him. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} His robe was torn, and dust was on his head. ³³David told him, "If you go with me, you may slow us down because of your age. ³⁴So I suggest you go to the city and tell Absalom you will be his adviser as you were mine in the past. Hopefully you can help me ruin Ahithophel's plans. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} 35Zadok and Abiathar will be there, and you can tell them anything you hear in the palace about Absalom. 36Then their sons, Ahimaaz and Jonathan, can tell me what is happening." {471 Surveillance-Prayer, Ps. 59:1-3}

³⁷David's friend Hushai got back to Jerusalem just as Absalom arrived from Hebron.

Lord, help me see through the lies that people tell me. Help me see through propaganda and false media reports. Keep me from panicking with the crowd. Help me always see things as they are. Amen.

2 Samuel 16 David and Ziba

¹When David was going down the other side of the Mount of Olives, Ziba, a servant of Mephibosheth, met David. Ziba had two donkeys loaded with 200 loaves of bread, 100 raisin cakes, 100 fig cakes, and some wine. ²The king asked Ziba, "What are these for?" Ziba answered, "The donkeys are for your family to ride, the bread and cakes are for your men to eat, and the wine is for your men to drink when they get tired in the desert." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ³David asked, "Where is Saul's grandson Mephibosheth?" Ziba answered, "He is staying in Jerusalem because he thinks the people will make him ruler over his grandfather Saul's kingdom." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ⁴David told Ziba, "Everything that used to belong to Mephibosheth is now yours." Ziba said, "I bow as your humble servant. I hope I continue to please you." {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23}

⁵As David and his men were near Bahurim, a man came out of the village and started cursing David. He was Shimei, son of Gera, and was of Saul's family clan. ⁶He threw rocks at David and his officials and David's bodyguards who were on each side of David. ⁷He said to David, "Get out of here, you murderer and rascal. ⁸The Lord is paying you back for murdering Saul and his family. The Lord has now handed your kingdom over to Absalom. You are finished because you are a murderer." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

⁹Abishai, David's nephew, said "Why should this dead dog curse the king? Let me go cut off his head." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁰But David said, "No. I have so little in common with you and your brothers. If the Lord told him to curse me, who are we to tell him to stop?" {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹¹Then David said to Abishai and all his officials, "My own son Absalom is trying to kill me. And now this man from Benjamin is merely cursing me. So let him curse, because maybe the LORD told him to. ¹²And maybe the LORD will see the trouble I'm in and will bless me." {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

¹³David and his men continued on, and Shimei was on the hillside opposite him, cursing and throwing rocks and dirt at David. ¹⁴David and his men were tired when they reached their destination. So they rested and then felt better.

¹⁵Absalom and his men, with Ahithophel, arrived in Jerusalem. ¹⁶Hushai, David's friend, greeted Absalom, saying, "Long live the king." ¹⁷But Absalom said, "Why aren't you with your friend, the king?" ¹⁸⁻¹⁹Hushai said, "I will stay with and serve the one the LORD and His people have chosen. I served your father, so now I will help you."

²⁰Absalom turned to Ahithophel and asked, "What's your advice? What shall I do next?" {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²¹Ahithophel said, "Go have sex with the 10 concubines your father left to take care of the palace. Then everyone will know that you have shamed your father and ruined your relationship with him beyond repair. Then everyone will give you their full support." 22So a tent was set up for Absalom on the palace roof, and everyone watched as he went into the tent with his father's concubines. 23 Absalom did whatever Ahithophel told him to do, just as David had done. Ahithophel's advice always seemed wise to both David and Absalom as though it came directly from God.

Lord, help me see through the compliments people give me, and help me see beyond the gifts people give me to get on my "good" side. They usually want me to do something for them. Lord, give me wisdom to see through compliments and bribes. I will not give "evil for evil" when people treat me in an evil way. Thank You for many friends who have provided for my needs throughout the year. Amen.

2 Samuel 17 Ahithophel's Plan

¹Ahithophel then advised Absalom, "Choose 12,000 men to go with you after David. ²Attack him tonight while he is tired and discouraged. He will panic and the people with him will run off. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} But kill only David, ³and bring everyone else back. When the people learn of his death, they will be glad to return home." ⁴This plan sounded good to Absalom and Israel's tribal leaders. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

⁵Absalom said, "Let's ask Hushai what he thinks." ⁶When Absalom told Hushai what Ahithophel advised he said, "What do you think?" ⁷Hushai replied, "His advice is not good. ⁸You know that your father and his men are excellent soldiers. They can be as fierce as a mother robbed of her cubs. Also you know your father is an experienced fighter. ⁹Even now he's probably spending the night in a cave. As soon as he attacks your men and a few are killed, you will think your entire army has been destroyed. ¹⁰Then the bravest of your soldiers who have hearts like lions will be afraid. Everyone knows that your father and his soldiers are brave fighters." {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

¹¹"So here's my advice: Gather every fighting man in Israel from Dan to Beersheba, and you yourself lead them into battle. ¹²Fight David wherever he is, falling on his men, like dew falls on the ground, and killing every one of them. ¹³If he escapes into some city, then take ropes and pull down the walls of the city, dragging them into the nearest valley and don't leave even one stone in the city." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

¹⁴Absalom and all the others liked Hushai's advice better than Ahithophel's. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} This was the Lord's way of defeating Ahithophel's advice and bringing trouble on Absalom. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

¹⁵Hushai told Zadok and Abiathar, "Ahithophel has given Absalom advice on how he can defeat David, but I have given a different suggestion. ¹⁶Send someone right away to tell David not to spend the night at the shallow shores by the Jordan River but to cross the river so he and those with him won't be wiped out." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

¹⁷Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En Rogel south of Jerusalem because they didn't want anyone to see them entering the city. A girl gave them the message for David. ¹⁸But a boy saw them leave, and he told Absalom. Jonathan and Ahimaaz went to the house of a man in Bahurim, and climbed into the man's well. 19His wife put a cover on the well and poured grain on the lid. 20When Absalom's men got to that house, they asked where Jonathan and Ahimahaaz were. She said, "They went across the brook." The men looked for them, but couldn't find them. So they went back to Jerusalem. ²¹After they left, the two climbed out of the well and went to David and said, "Hurry and cross the river," and they told them of Ahithophel's plan. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ²²So David and all those with him crossed the Jordan, and by sunrise everyone was across. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

²³Ahithophel heard that Hushai's advice, not his, was being followed. So he went to his home town of Gilo, set his affairs in order, and then hanged himself. He was buried in his family's burial place. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

²⁴David went to Mahanaim, and Absalom with his many soldiers was crossing the Jordan. ²⁵Absalom put Amasa in Joab's place as his army commander. Amasa was a cousin of Joab, a nephew of David, and Amasa's grandfather was Nahash, an uncle of David. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²⁶The Israelites under Absalom were in Gilead.

²⁷When David arrived in Mahanaim, he was welcomed by Shobi from Rabbah, Machir from Lo Debar, and Barzillai from Rogelim. ²⁸They brought bedding, towels, pottery jars, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, ²⁹honey, yogurt, sheep, and cheese. They knew David and the people with him would be hungry, tired, and thirsty. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

Lord, teach me when it's best to settle down to wait and when it's best to keep going. Give me the ability to move quickly according to circumstances. Teach me how to use time effectively. Amen.

2 Samuel 18 The Death of Absalom

¹David appointed officers in charge of groups of 100 men and 1,000 men. ²He put a third of his soldiers under Joab, a third under Abishai, and a third under Ittai, and he told the troops he would go into battle with them. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ³But the men objected to this idea. They said, "It won't matter to our enemy if all of us have to run or if they kill half of us. They want to kill you because that would be like killing 10,000 of us. You should stay here and send us help if we need it." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

⁴David said, "Okay, if you think that is best." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} He then stood by the city gate as his men marched out. ⁵He then ordered Joab, Abishai, and Ittai to be gentle with his son Absalom. And all the troops heard this. ⁶The battle took place in the Ephraim Forest. ⁷David's men defeated Absalom's troops, {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} killing 20,000. ⁸The battle ranged all over the countryside, and more died from the terrible terrain of the forest than from the battle itself.

⁹Absalom was riding his mule under a huge oak tree when his hair caught in the branches. His mule kept going, leaving him hanging in the air. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} 10One of David's men saw this and told Joab, "I saw Absalom hanging in a tree." 11Surprised, Joab said, "Why didn't you kill him? I would have given you 10 pieces of silver and a fancy belt." 12The man replied, "But I couldn't kill the king's son, even if you gave me a thousand pieces of silver. We all heard King David say to protect Absalom. ¹³He always knows what is going on, and you would have told him I killed his son." {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

¹⁴Joab said, "I'm not going to waste my time with you." Then he took three spears and thrust them into Absalom's heart as he was hanging alive from the oak tree. ¹⁵Ten of Joab's armor-bearers surrounded Absalom and made sure he was dead. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁶Joab blew a trumpet to signal his troops {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} to stop fighting Israel's soldiers. ¹⁷They put Absalom's body in a pit and piled huge stacks of rocks over him. And all the Israelites ran back to their homes. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2}

¹⁸When Absalom was alive, he had set up a monument to himself in the King's Valley. He thought, "I don't have any sons to carry on my name." He named the column Absalom's Monument, and it is still called that today.

¹⁹Zadok's son Ahimaaz said to Joab, "Let me run and take the good news to the king that the Lord has saved him from his enemy Absalom." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁰Joab said, "No, you aren't the one to take the news. You can be my messenger some other time but not today." ²¹Then Joab said to a man from Ethiopia, "Go, tell the king what you saw." The man bowed and ran off. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²Ahimaaz asked Joab if he could run with the news. Joab replied, "Why? You won't get any reward for giving the news." {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} ²³Ahimaaz said, "I know. But I still want to." Joab said, "Okay. Run!" then Ahimaaz took a shortcut across the plain and got to Mahanaim before the Ethiopian did. {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7}

²⁴While David was sitting between the inner and outer gates of the city wall, a guard climbed to the top of the wall and saw a man running toward them. ²⁵He shouted down to David to tell him this man was coming. David said, "If he is alone, he probably has good news." As the man got closer, ²⁶the guard saw another man coming and shouted to David, "Here comes another man." The king said, "He must have good news too." ²⁷The guard said, "The first one looks like Ahimaaz." The king replied, "He's a good man, so he's probably bringing good news."

²⁸Ahimaaz yelled to David, "We won!" He bowed to the king and said, "Praise the Lord because He has given you victory." {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 29When David asked, "Is Absalom all right?" Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent me, everyone was shouting but I don't know why." $^{30}\mathrm{David}$ told him to step aside, and he did. ³¹Then the man from Ethiopia arrived and said, "The good news is that the Lord has given you victory over your enemies." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 32The king asked, "Is Absalom all right?" and the man answered, "May all your enemies be like him." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³³Immediately the king was emotionally disturbed. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} So he went up to the room over the gate and cried and kept saying, "O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! I wish I could have died instead of you. O Absalom, my son, my son!" {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21}

Lord, give me a love for my children, even as David loved Absalom the rebel. Amen.

2 Samuel 19 King David Returns to Jerusalem

¹Joab heard that the king was mourning for Absalom. {540 Worshiping God in the Backyard, Ps. 134} ²And when David's troops heard of his grief for his son, the joy of that day's victory turned to sadness. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ³They slipped back into Mahanaim like men ashamed after losing a battle. ⁴David held his hands over his face and kept on crying aloud, "O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!" {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21}

⁵Joab went to the house where David was staying and said, "You have made your soldiers all feel ashamed. They saved your life and the lives of your sons, daughters, wives, and concubines. 6You seem to love those who hate you and hate those who love you. {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} All of us seem to mean nothing to you. You would be happy if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead. 7I suggest you go out there and thank the troops for what they did. If you don't, they'll all leave during the night. Then you'll be worse off than ever before." 8So the king went out and sat at the city gate. As news spread that he was there, everyone went to see him. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Meanwhile the Israelite soldiers had gone home. ⁹People everywhere started arguing, saying to each other, "David saved you from the Philistines, but then we made Absalom our king, and he chased David out of the country. ¹⁰But now that Absalom is dead, let's ask David to return and be our king again" {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

¹¹So David sent a message to Zadok and Ahiathar, the priests, to tell the leaders of the tribe of Judah, "I've heard that the nation wants me to continue as their king. But you don't seem interested. Why? ¹²After all, we are related. So why haven't you done anything to welcome me back?" {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹³Then David told them to tell Amasa, "You are my nephew, and I am making you my army commander in place of your cousin Joab." ¹⁴Amasa convinced the leaders of Judah that he was David's commander, and so they told David to come back and bring his soldiers with him. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁵David started back, and when he got to the Jordan River, he saw that the people of Judah had come all the way to Gilgal to help him cross the river. {468 Support-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹⁶Shimei, son of Gera the Benjamite, went from his hometown of Bahurim to welcome David back. He is the one who earlier had cursed David and thrown rocks and dirt at David. 17With Shimei were 1,000 Benjamites, Saul's servant Ziba and Ziba's 15 sons and 20 servants. They rushed to the Jordan, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 18 and crossed over to bring the king's belongings across the river. After crossing the Jordan, Shimei fell down before David, ¹⁹ and he said, "Please forgive me and forget the awful thing I did when you left Jerusalem weeks ago. ²⁰I know I sinned. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} That's why I am one of the first ones to come greet you." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ²¹Abishai, David's cousin said, "Shimei should be killed because he cursed the Lord's chosen king." ²²David said, "What am I going to do with you and your brother Joab? This is a day for celebration, not killing anyone, because I have again been made king of Israel." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ²³Then he promised Shimei he would not be killed.

²⁴Mephibosheth, Saul's grandson, was with those who went to meet the king. He had missed David, so he hadn't washed his feet or clothes or trimmed his beard since David left. ²⁵David asked him why he hadn't gone with him when he left Jerusalem. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ²⁶Mephibosheth said, "I wanted to and I told Ziba to saddle my donkey. ²⁷But Ziba lied about me, saying I didn't want to come. But you are wise like an angel of God, so I know you will do what is right. ²⁸You could have killed all my relatives and me. But instead you let me eat all my meals with you. So I have no complaints." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

²⁹David replied, "Here's what I'll do. I'll divide all of Saul's property between you and Ziba." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ³⁰Mephibosheth responded, "No. Let him have it all. I'm glad to have you back." {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34}

³¹Barzillai had come from Rogelim in Gilead to go across the Jordan with David. ³²he was about 80 years old and was very wealthy. {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} He was the one who had given a lot of food to David and his soldiers in Mahanaim. ³³David invited him to come live in Jerusalem and would take care of him there. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ³⁴But Barzillai said, "No. I'm too old for you to have to do that. ³⁵At my age of 80 I don't enjoy food and I am hard of hearing. I would be nothing but a burden to you. ³⁶Just crossing the river with you will be a great honor. ³⁷Then I'll go to my hometown, where I can be buried near my parents. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Why not let Kimham here go with you and you can be kind to him." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

³⁸The king said, "Good idea. I'll take Kimham with me and I'll do for him what I would have done for you." ³⁹All the people crossed the Jordan with David. He hugged Barzillai, {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} who then went home to Rogelim, 40 and David went on to Gilgal, taking Kimham with him. And all of David's soldiers and half of Israel's army went with him across the river. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} 41But the men of Israel went to him and said, "Why did the people from Judah do all the work in taking all your belongings across the river?" 42 The men of Judah heard this and said, "Why not? He is from our tribe. Why be so angry? We haven't eaten any of his food, and he hasn't given us any gifts." {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5}

⁴³"True," they responded. "But Judah isn't the only tribe in our nation. We have 10 times as much right to him as you do. So why didn't you ask us to help? Don't forget that we were the first ones to suggest he come back as our king." {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} The people of Judah spoke harshly in their replies.

Lord, may I listen to those You send to rebuke me about my failings. Amen.

2 Samuel 20 Sheba's Revolt and Defeat

¹A scoundrel named Sheba, son of Bicri, a Benjamite, blew a trumpet and yelled, "We have nothing to do with David, this son of Jesse. Let's all go home; he's not our king." 2So everyone except the people of Judah left David and followed Sheba. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} But the men of Judah stayed with David all the way from the Jordan River to Jerusalem. ³When he got back to his palace in Jerusalem, he placed his 10 concubines whom he left there, and whom Absalom raped, in a separate house and under guard. He took care of their needs, but he did not sleep with them. They lived like widows the rest of their lives. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

⁴David ordered Amasa to gather the troops in Judah in three days and report back to him. ⁵But Amasa took longer than the three days. {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} ⁶So David said to Abishai, "Sheba the scoundrel may do us more harm than Absalom did. So take my bodyguard, the Kerethites and Pelethites, and go after him before he gets into a fortified city and we can't capture him." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ⁷So Joab's men and David's bodyguard and David's best soldiers went out under Abishai's command to try to capture Sheba.

⁸As they arrived at the great rock at Gibeon, Amasa met them. Joab was wearing his uniform with a dagger at his belt. As he greeted his cousin, Amasa, he secretly slipped the dagger from its holder. ⁹With his right hand he grabbed Amasa by his beard as if to kiss him. {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} ¹⁰Amasa didn't see the dagger in Joab's left hand, and Joab stabbed him in the stomach, and his insides spilled out onto the ground. Amasa died after Joab stabbed him that one time. Then Joab and his brother Abishai went after Sheba. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

¹¹One of Joab's officers said to Amasa's troops, "If you are for David, come follow Joab." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ¹²As Amasa was lying in his blood in the middle of the road, people stopped and stared at him. So Joab's officers dragged him to the side of the road and put a blanket over him. ¹³Then everyone went with Joab to capture Sheba.

¹⁴Sheba went through Israel all the way north to the town of Abel Beth-Maacah. He enlisted more troops, some of whom were his relatives. 15 Joab's troops surrounded the city and built a ramp against the city wall and began battering against the wall. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ¹⁶A wise woman called out to Joab to come listen to her. 17When he did, she asked, "Are you Joab?" and he replied, "Yes. I am." 18Long ago people used to say, "'If you want good advice go to Abel.' {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} 19We are a peace-loving and faithful people. You can trust us. Why are you trying to destroy a city that is loyal to Israel like a mother? Why destroy what belongs to the LORD?" {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

²⁰Joab said, "No, I don't want to destroy your city. ²¹All I want is a man in your town named Sheba, who led a rebellion against King David. Hand him over to me, and we will leave your city." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} The woman responded, "Okay. We will throw his head to you over the wall."

²²The woman went to the town leaders and talked them into following her plan. So they cut off Sheba's head and threw it over the wall to Joab. Then he played his trumpet to signal his victory, and each of Joab's men went home. And Joab went back to David in Jerusalem. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²³Joab was the Israelite army commander-in-chief; Benaiah, son of Jehoiada in charge of the king's bodyguard of Kerethites and Pelethites; ²⁴Adoram was in charge of the labor force; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud kept government records; ²⁵Sheva was royal secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; ²⁶and Ira the Jairite was David's priest.

Lord, help me learn a negative lesson from Joab. Help me never do the right thing in the wrong way. I will pray for people who do right in a ruthless way. Amen.

2 Samuel 21 The Gibeonites Are Avenged

¹When David was king, a famine lasted three years. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} When David asked the LORD about this problem, He said, "This is because Saul and his family murdered the Gibeonites." 2So David asked the Gibeonites to come see him. They were not Israelites; they were Amorites. And the Israelites had promised not to kill them, but Saul had tried to kill them all. ³David said to them, "What can I do for you to make up for what Saul did so that the LORD will bless His people again?" {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ⁴They answered, "We don't want you to give us any money, and we don't want any Israelites to be put to death." "What then can I do?" David asked. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

5-6"Give us seven descendants of Saul, the one who almost killed us all, so we can kill them and hang their bodies near Gibeah, Saul's hometown." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} David said, "I'll give them to you." 7He did not include Mephibosheth, Saul's grandson, because of the promise he made to Jonathan, Mephibosheth's father. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 8But he gave them Armoni and another person named Mephibosheth, two sons of Rizpah, Saul's concubine. He also took five sons of Merab, Saul's daughter, and Adriel her husband. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} David gave these seven to the Gibeonites who killed them and hung their bodies on a hill. They died in March, at the beginning of the barley harvest.

¹⁰Rizpah spread a rough cloth on a rock and stayed there through the entire several-month-long harvest to keep birds from her sons' bodies in the daytime and wild animals from eating them at night. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹¹When David learned what she did, ¹²he had their bones buried in the grave of Saul's father Kish at Zela. ¹³(Earlier he had taken the bones of Jonathan and Saul from Jabesh Gilead and buried them in that grave. ¹⁴The men of Jabesh Gilead had taken their bodies from the public square of the Philistines town of Beth-Shan after they died in battle on Mount Gilboa.)

¹⁵On another occasion the Philistines were again fighting Israel. David was in the battle with his men, and he became weak and tired. ¹⁶Ishi-Benob, a giant whose spearhead weighed several pounds and who had a new sword, said he would kill David. ¹⁷But Abishai, David's nephew, killed the Philistine. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} David's men urged David never to go into a battle with them again. They said, "Why risk putting out the light of Israel?" {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

¹⁸Later the Philistines fought Israel in yet another battle. This was at Gob, and Sibbecai from Hushah killed Saph, another giant. ¹⁹In another battle at Gob Elhanan son of Jaare killed the brother of Goliath from Gath. The handle of his spear was huge like a weaver's beam. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁰In yet another Philistine-Israelite battle, this time at Gath, another giant there had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²¹Jonathan, son of Shimeah, David's brother killed him. ²²These four were descendants of giants in Gath, and David and his troops killed them all.

Lord, it appears the giant was about to kill David—and David would have died—if Abishai had not intervened. Thank You for people who saved me from destruction.

Amen.

2 Samuel 22 The Song of David

¹David sang the following song to the Lord after God had rescued him from Saul and his many enemies. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

²"The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my Savior, ³my God where I am safe, the strength of my salvation. He is my shield and He is strong for me like the horn of an animal. I go to Him for security and safety; He rescues me from violent men. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

4"I call on the LORD, who deserves to be praised, and He saves me from my enemies. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

5"Death, like waves of the ocean, surrounded me, and its waves just about destroyed me. 6The grave wrapped its ropes around me, and I faced the trap of death. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

7"But in my distress I called to the LORD, my God, and He heard me from heaven, His temple, and my cry reached His ears. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

⁸"The earth shook and trembled, the columns holding up the sky quaked because He was angry.

⁹"In His anger smoke poured from His nostrils and fire and burning coals came from His mouth.

¹⁰"He opened the heavens and came down to the earth, and He walked on dark clouds.

¹¹"He rode on the backs of winged creatures, and He appeared in the wind as if He had wings.

¹²"Darkness was all around Him, and dark rain clouds were thick. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹³"Brightness shone around Him, and bolts of lightning flashed.

¹⁴"The LORD thundered from heaven, and it was like the Most High God shouting.

15"Then He shot arrows of lightning at His enemies, and they ran. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

¹⁶"At His command and the blast of His breath, the very bottom of the sea was revealed and could be seen. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁷"He reached down and grabbed me and pulled me out of the deep water.

¹⁸"He rescued me from my powerful enemies, from those who were stronger than me.

¹⁹ They attacked me when I was in trouble, but the LORD supported me.

²⁰"He brought me to a place of safety and rescued me because He takes delight in me. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

²¹"The LORD rewarded me for doing what is right and because I lead a clean life {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

²²"I follow what the LORD desires, and I have not sinned by turning away from Him.

²³"I always keep God's laws in mind, and I have not turned from His commands.

²⁴"I have been blameless before Him and have avoided sin.

²⁵"The LORD has done so much for me because He knows I am clean spiritually. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²⁶"You are faithful to those who are faithful to You. And You are trustworthy to those who are innocent.

²⁷"You show Yourself pure to those who are pure. And you are against those who are wicked.

²⁸"You rescue the humble, but you keep watching the proud to bring them down.

²⁹"You are like a lamp to me, LORD, turning my darkness into light.

³⁰"With Your help I can defeat any army and climb up any wall to capture the city. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³¹"God's ways are always perfect. And the LORD's word is true. He is like a protective shield for everyone who runs to Him for safety.

³²"Our LORD alone is the true God. He is reliable like a solid rock.

33"God gives me strength and makes my way perfect. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ³⁴"He helps me run as fast as a deer, and helps me stand on the mountainsides like a mountain goat.

³⁵"He teaches me how to fight in war, and strengthens my arms to use a bow made of bronze.

³⁶"You are like a shield giving me victory over my enemies, and Your help has made me great. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ³⁷"You clear the way for me to keep me from stumbling.

³⁸"I chased my enemies and crushed them, not stopping once till I defeated them.

³⁹"I crushed them completely, and they could not get up. They fell at my feet. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

⁴⁰"You have strengthened me for battle. You have made my enemies fall victims to me.

⁴¹"You made my enemies turn and run, and I destroyed them all.

⁴²"They called for help, but no one answered. They even cried to the Lord, but He refused to respond.

⁴³"I ground them to dust, and I stomped on them like mud in the streets. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

⁴⁴"You have given me victory over attacks from my people. You kept me as the leader of many nations, and people I didn't even know now serve me.

⁴⁵"Foreigners cringe before me, and as soon as they hear me, they obey me.

46"They lose courage and come trembling from their hiding places. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10}

47"The Lord lives. Praise to my Rock. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} May God, the Rock of my salvation be exalted. 48"He destroys those who are against me, and puts them under my power. ⁴⁹"He frees me from my enemies, {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} keeps me where they can't reach me, and rescues me from violent enemies.

50"Therefore I will praise You, Lord, among the nations, and praise You with singing. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

⁵¹"God gives me, His king, great victories. He shows unfailing love to His chosen king, to me David and my descendants forever."

Lord, thank You for protecting me, guiding me, anointing me, using me, and allowing me to worship You. Amen.

2 Samuel 23 The Last Psalm of David

¹David, the son of Jesse, speaks. "The Most High God made me king. I was anointed by the God of Jacob. I am known as Israel's psalmist.

²"The Spirit of the Lord spoke through me, telling me what to say. {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14}

³"He, the Rock of Israel, said to me 'The person who rules righteously and respects God ⁴is like a sunrise in a cloudless sky, and like refreshing rain that brings grass from the ground.' {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ⁵"He has chosen my family and made an eternal agreement with me, an agreement that is eternal and secure. He will always help me and fulfill my desires. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ⁶He will toss aside evil people like thorns.

They are not dug up by hand, ⁷but with an iron tool or sharp spear and are burned on the spot." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

8These are the names of David's best men: Chief of his three greatest soldiers was Josheb-Bassebeth the Tahkemonite. In a single battle he used his spear to kill 800 men. 9Next was Eleazar son of Dodo, a descendant of Ahoah. He and David fought the Philistines of Pas Pammim. The Israelite soldiers retreated, 10 but Eleazar killed the Philistines till his hand was too tired to lift his sword. With this great victory, David's men simply returned and took the enemies' weapons and equipment. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹¹Next was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. One time the Philistines at Lehi attacked the Israelites in a field of lentils. The Israelites fled, 12but Shammah stood in the middle of the fields and killed the Philistines. The Lord gave Israel a great victory. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

¹³One year in the summer at harvest time these three went to see David in the Adullam Cave while the Philistines were at the Rephaim Valley. ¹⁴The Philistines had occupied Bethlehem, and David was in a hideout. ¹⁵David mentioned that he was thirsty for some good fresh water from the well near Bethlehem. {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ¹⁶The three broke through the Philistine lines, got water from the well, and took it to David. But instead of drinking the water, he poured it out as a sacrifice to the Lord. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁷He explained, "I can't drink

this because it is as precious as the blood of you three men who risked your lives to bring it to me."

¹⁸Abishai, Jacob's brother, was over the three. One time he speared and killed 300 men. ¹⁹Because of this he was as famous as the three. But he was not one of them; he was their leader.

²⁰Another great warrior, but not one of the three, was Benaiah, son of Jehoiada. He was from Kabzeel. His deeds included killing two of Moab's best warriors, killing a lion down in a snowy pit, ²¹and killing a tall Egyptian soldier. Benaiah had only a club in his hand, and the Egyptian had only a spear. Benaiah grabbed the spear and killed the Egyptian with it. ²²These deeds made Benaiah as famous as the three, ²³and he was not one of the thirty. David put him in charge of his bodyguard. ²⁴The thirty also included:

Asahel, Joab's brother,

Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem;

²⁵Shammah from Harod;

Elika from Harod;

²⁶Helez the Paltite;

Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa;

²⁷Abiezer from Anathoth;

Mebunnai from Hushah;

²⁸Zalmon from Ahoah;

Maharai from Netophah;

²⁹Heleb son of Baanah from Netophah Ittai son of Ribai from Gibeah (of Benjamin);

³⁰Benaiah from Pirathon;

Hiddai from Nahale-Gaash;

³¹Abi-Albon the Arabathite;

Azmaveth from Bahurim:

³²Eliahba from Shaalbon;

Bene-Jashen;

33 Jonathan; Shammah from Harar;
Ahiam son of Sharar from Harar;
34 Eliphelet son of Ahasbai from Maacah;
Eliam son of Ahithophel from Giloh;
35 Hezro from Carmel;
Paarai from Arba;
36 Igal son of Nathan from Zobah;
Bani from Gad;
37 Zelek from Ammon;
Naharai from Beeroth (Joab's armor-bearer);
38 Ira the Ithrite;
Gareb the Ithrite
39 Uriah the Hittite.
There were 37 in all.

As you read the short stories of these great battles in this chapter, remember: (1) victory never came easy, (2) they always had to fight hard, (3) the enemy kept coming back, (4) they only enjoyed peace with strength, (5) but God always worked through strength. Lord, I will remember. Amen.

2 Samuel 24 A Census Is Taken

¹Again the LORD was angry with the nation Israel. He led David to have a census taken of his soldiers (though God had allowed satan to encourage David to do this). {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ²So David told Joab to go through all the tribes, from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south to count the number of soldiers. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ³Joab replied, "May you live to see your kingdom with 100 times more people than it has now. But why do you want this census taken?" ⁴The king insisted they take the census, so Joab and his officers left to count the people. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁵They first crossed the Jordan River and camped south of the Aroer and then went to Gad and on to Jazer. ⁶From there they went north to Gilead and on west to Sidon. ⁷Then they arrived at the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites. Then they went south all the way to Beersheba in the Southern Desert. ⁸They got back to Jerusalem after nine months and 20 days. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁹Joab told David the number of soldiers was 800,000 in Israel's 10 tribes and 500,000 in Judah.

¹⁰David's conscience then began to bother him, and he said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly. Taking this military census was wrong. Please forgive me for doing this foolish thing." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹¹The next morning God spoke to the prophet Gad, who was David's seer. ¹²The LORD told Gad to tell David that He was giving him a choice of one of three options. {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} ¹³So Gad said to David, "You may choose three years of famine throughout the land, or three months of running from your enemies, or three days of terrible disease throughout the land. Think this over and let me know what answer I should give to the Lord." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁴David said, "That's a tough decision. But I would rather fall into the hands of the LORD because of His mercy than the hands of our enemies." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁵So the LORD sent a disease that morning, and it lasted three days and 70,000 men in the nation died. ¹⁶But when the death angel was ready to destroy Jerusalem, the LORD felt sorry for what was happening, and He told the angel to stop. So the angel stopped at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

¹⁷When David saw the angel striking the people down with the disease, he said, "I have sinned terribly, but these people, my sheep, have done nothing wrong. Let your punishment be only on me and my family." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁸In response, Gad went to David and told him to build an altar to the LORD on Araunah's threshing floor. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁹So David went to see Araunah, ²⁰and when Araunah saw David and his men coming, he bowed before the king with his face to the ground. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²¹When Araunah asked David why he came to see him, David said, "I want to buy your threshing floor so I can build an altar to the LORD, so the disease on my people will stop." {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ²²Araunah said, "Use whatever you like. Here are oxen for the offering, threshing sledges and yokes for wood to build a fire. ²³I will not sell these; I will give all of these to you." {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ²⁴David said, "No. I insist on buying these things. I won't sacrifice something to the LORD that costs me nothing." So David paid him 50 pieces of silver for the threshing floor and oxen. {412

Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15] ²⁵David built an altar there to the LORD and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. And the LORD answered his prayer and stopped the disease and no one else died from the illness. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, we never get too good that we're beyond sin. Keep me from being blind to evil, and keep me in the hour of temptation. I purpose not to sin against You. Amen.

1 Kings

CH 1: ADONIJAH ATTEMPTS TAKE-OVER OF DAVID'S Throne
Ch 2: King David's Final Instructions to
SOLOMON475
CH 3: KING SOLOMON RECEIVES WISDOM, RICHES, and Honor477
CH 4: SOLOMON'S STATE OFFICIALS479
Ch 5: Building of the Temple of God480
Ch 6: Building of the Temple of God481
Ch 7: Other Building Projects of King
SOLOMON483
Ch 8: The Sacred Chest Is Brought into the Temple485
Ch 9: The Lord Appears to Solomon a Second Тіме488
CH 10: THE QUEEN OF SHEBA VISITS KING SOLOMON
489
CH 11: KING SOLOMON TURNS AWAY FROM THE TRUE
God491
CH 12: REHOBOAM IGNORES WISE COUNSEL OF Older Men493
CH 13: THE MAN OF GOD FROM JUDAH494
Ch 14: Ahijah's Prophecy against Jeroboam 496
Cн 15: Авјіан Becomes King after Rehoboam 498
CH 16: BAASHA RULES OVER ISRAEL499

CH 17: THE LORD TAKES CARE OF ELIJAH	501
Ch 18: Elijah Confronts King Ahab	502
Cн 19: Elijah Runs Away то Mount Horeв	504
Ch 20: Syria and Israel at War	506
Ch 21: The Vineyard of Naboth	508
Ch 22: The Prophet Micaiah Predicts Ahab's
Defeat	509

1 KINGS

Key Words: King Solomon (1 Kings 1:30)

Key Verse: "And Zadok the priest took a horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save King Solomon" (1:39).

Theme: First Kings records the attempt by Adonijah, a son of David, to steal the throne of Israel. David wisely led Solomon to ascend properly to the office. Solomon built the temple, but fell away from God. The kingdom was separated under Jeroboam and Rehoboam, and First Kings traces the history of the divided nations until Jehoram was king over the southern godly kingdom of Judah, and Ahaziah was king over the northern ungodly kingdom of Israel.

We see how godly kings led the people to obey God's law and ungodly kings led the people away in disobedience. Since there is a principle that obedience brings blessings, we see events of prosperity when God's people obey Him, and likewise, events of suffering when God's people forsake Him. Lord, may I never forsake You; may I always obey You from the heart. Amen.

1 Kings 1 Adonijah Attempts Take-Over of David's Throne

his old age King David couldn't keep warm in bed even with several blankets over him. ²So his officials found a very beautiful young woman to lie beside him and keep him warm. ³She was Abishag from Shunem. ⁴She took care of him, but he did not have sex with her. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

⁵Adonijah, son of David and Haggith, decided to make himself king in place of his father. So he hired chariots and horses, and 50 men to run in front of him. ⁶Unfortunately David didn't ask him what he was doing. Adonijah was Absalom's younger brother and was very handsome.

⁷Adonijah asked his half-brother Joab and Abiathar the priest to help him become king, and they agreed. {468 Support-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ⁸But Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the prophet Nathan, Shimei, Rei, and David's bodyguard refused to support Adonijah. {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14} ⁹Then Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and calves at the Zoheleth stone near the En-Rogel spring, where he invited his brothers and royal officials of Judah to join him for his coronation. ¹⁰But he did not invite the prophet Nathan or Benaiah or the king's bodyguard or his half-brother Solomon.

¹¹Nathan asked Bathsheba, "Have you heard that your step-son Adonijah has made himself king, and David knows nothing about it? ¹²Here's what I suggest you do to save your life and the life of your son Solomon. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ¹³Go tell David, 'You promised me that Solomon will be the next king. So why is Adonijah king?' {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ¹⁴When you are talking with David, I'll come in and tell him what you said is true."

¹⁵Bathsheba went to David's bedroom where Abishag was taking care of him, ¹⁶and she bowed down to him. He asked her what she wanted. {464 Striving-Prayer, Rom. 15:30} ¹⁷And she said, "You promised that Solomon would be the next king. 18But I'm concerned that you don't realize Adonijah has made himself king. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 19He has sacrificed a lot of oxen, calves, and sheep, and invited to his coronation all David's sons, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the army commander, but not Solomon. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ²⁰Everyone is waiting for you to announce the next king. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 21If you don't, Solomon and I will be killed as soon as you die." {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11}

²²The prophet Nathan arrived just then, ²³and he bowed before the king, {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ²⁴and asked, "Did you say Adonijah would be the next king? ²⁵He has sacrificed many oxen, calves, and sheep in a coronation ceremony, and he invited all the king's sons, Joab your army commander, and Abiathar the priest. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ²⁶But he did not invite me, Zadok the priest, Benaiah, and Solomon. ²⁷Did you do this without telling us who would be the next king?" {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

²⁸David said, "Call Bathsheba." So she came in and stood there. ²⁹Then David said, "The Lord has been good to me. ³⁰Now I'll keep the promise I made to him that Solomon will be the next king." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ³¹Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground and said, "May you live many more years." {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} 32David then said, "Have Zadok the priest, the prophet Nathan, and Benaiah come in." When they arrived, 33he said, "Take my servants and put Solomon on my mule and go to the Gihon Spring. 34When you get there, have Zadok and Nathan announce that he is the next king. Blow a trumpet and shout, 'Long live King Solomon!' {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ³⁵Then bring him here to sit on my throne as Israel's next king." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

³⁶Benaiah responded, "Amen! May the Lord, the God of David, make it happen. ³⁷May He be with Solomon as He was with you, and may he be an even greater king." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

³⁸Zadok, Nathan, Benaiah, and David's bodyguard led Solomon to the Gihon Spring as he was riding on David's mule. ³⁹Zadok took oil from the tabernacle and poured it on Solomon's head. They blew a trumpet, and everyone shouted, "Long live King Solomon." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴⁰On the way back to Jerusalem the people were playing flutes and were shouting for joy. They made such a noisy celebration that the ground shook. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6}

⁴¹As Adonijah and his guests were finishing eating at a banquet, Joab asked, "Why all this noise?" {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} ⁴²Just then Jonathan, son of Abiathar the priest rushed in, and Adonijah said, "I assume you have good news." {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3\} 43"Not so. David has made Solomon king. 44David put him on his own mule and sent him to the Gihon Spring with Zadok, Nathan, Benaiah, and David's bodyguard. ⁴⁵Zadok poured oil from the tabernacle on Solomon, making him the next king. The noise you hear is the people celebrating and rejoicing. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} 46Solomon is now sitting on the throne. ⁴⁷David's officials have said to him. 'May God make Solomon an even greater king then you.' {152 Faith-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:6} David then worshiped in his bed {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} ⁴⁸and prayed, 'Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who has made my son king and let me live to see it." {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

⁴⁹Adonijah's guests quickly left the banquet, and went their separate ways because they were afraid for their lives. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ⁵⁰And Adonijah, afraid that Solomon might kill him, ran to the tabernacle and grabbed the corners of the altar of burnt offering. ⁵¹Solomon heard about this ⁵²and said, "If he behaves himself, I won't hurt him. But if he doesn't, I'll kill him." {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ⁵³Solomon had some men get Adonijah. When he bowed down to Solomon, the king said, "Adonijah, go on home." {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12}

Lord, may I always go about Your work in the right way, at the right time, at the right place and may I seek the wisdom and approval of godly people when doing Your service. May I act quickly when a crisis approaches and may I wait patiently when time dictates problems will solve themselves. Then, Lord, teach me how to interpret the differences between these two periods of time. Give me good, godly, and smart counselors. I will listen to them to find Your plan for my life. Amen.

1 Kings 2 King David's Final Instructions to Solomon

¹When David knew he was about to die, he gave these final words to Solomon: {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²"I will soon die, as must everyone. I encourage you to be strong and mature. {243 Inner-Strength Request Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:1} ³Obey God's laws, regulations, and commands in the Law of Moses. Then you will be successful in all you do and wherever you go. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴If you and your descendants obey the Lord wholeheartedly, then one of them will always be king of Israel. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

5"You know that Joab killed my two commanders, Abner and Amasa. He did it as an act of war, but it was in a time of peace, and their blood stained his belt and sandals. 6Do with him what you think is best, but don't let him die in peace. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

7"The sons of Barzillai the Gileadite helped me when I was escaping from Absalom. So be kind to them and let them eat their meals with you. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} *You remember Shimei son of Gera from Bahurim in Benjamin who cursed me when I was going to Mahanaim. Later when he came to greet me at the Jordan River, I told him I wouldn't kill him. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} *But he is still guilty. So plan to have him killed." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

¹⁰Then David died and was buried in Jerusalem. ¹¹He had reigned over Israel for 40 years, seven and a half years in Hebron and 33 years in Jerusalem. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹²Solomon became king of Israel, and his reign went well. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

¹³One day Adonijah went to see Bathsheba, his stepmother. When she asked him if he was coming to make trouble, he said, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹⁴"No, I have a favor to ask." She said, "Go ahead; tell me." {325 Non-Anxiety Prayer, Phil. 4:6, 7} ¹⁵He replied, "You know that I was king for a short while. But now the Lord has made my brother king. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ¹⁶So I have a small request." She asked, "What is it?" ¹⁷He said, "Please ask Solomon to let me marry Abishag, the girl from Shunem. I know he won't say no to you." {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ¹⁸Bathsheba said, "Okay. I will ask him." {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

¹⁹When Bathsheba went to speak to Solomon, he stood up and then bowed down before her. He sat down and had another throne brought in for her. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ²⁰She said, "I have a small request." He asked, "What is it, my mother?" ²¹She said, "Please let your half-brother Adonijah marry Abishag." {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8}

²²Solomon said, "What? Since he is my older brother, that is like asking that the kingdom be his. And Abiathar the priest and Joab the army commander are on his side. {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} ²³May God strike me dead if Adonijah doesn't die today. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²⁴The Lord has made me king of Israel and has promised that my descendants will also be Israel's kings." ²⁵So the king had Benaiah go kill Adonijah. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

²⁶Solomon then told Abiathar the priest, "Go back home to Anathoth. You should die too, but I won't kill you now because you carried the sacred chest, and you suffered with my father in his troubles." {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ²⁷Solomon took away the priesthood from Abiathar. And this fulfilled God's promise made at Shiloh that Eli's descendants would not continue to serve as priests.

²⁸When Joab heard about Adonijah's death, he ran to the tabernacle and grabbed the corners of the altar of burnt offering. ²⁹Solomon heard about this, and he told Benaiah to kill him. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} 30When Benaiah went to the tabernacle and told Joab that the king said to come out, Joab refused. He said, "Kill me here." Benaiah told this to Solomon, {148 Expedient-Prayer, Est. 4:16} ³¹and Solomon said, "Do what he said. Kill him there. Then my family won't be responsible for his foolishly murdering innocent men. 32He will be responsible for the death of Abner and Amasa. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ³³Joab and his descendants will always be guilty of these murders, but may the Lord give David and his descendants peace." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

³⁴Benaiah killed Joab, and Joab was buried near his house in the desert. ³⁵Solomon then made Benaiah the army commander in place of Joab, and he made Zadok the priest in place of Abiathar. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4}

³⁶The king told Shimei, "Build a house here in Jerusalem, but don't go outside the city. ³⁷The minute you cross Kidron Valley, you will die." ³⁸Shimei said, "That's okay with me." So he lived in Jerusalem a long time. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³⁹But three years later two of Shimei's slaves escaped to King Achish in Gath. ⁴⁰Shimei saddled his donkey, searched for them, found them, and brought them to Jerusalem.

⁴¹Solomon heard that Shimei had done this. ⁴²So he called in Shimei and said, "I warned you that if you left Jerusalem, you would die. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ⁴³So why have you broken this promise? {522 Vow-Violation Prayer, Ps. 65:1} ⁴⁴And by the way, I haven't forgotten all the terrible things you did to my father David. The LORD will punish you for what you have done. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ⁴⁵The LORD will bless me, and my descendants will be Israel's kings." {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1}

⁴⁶Then Solomon told Benaiah to kill Shimei, and he did. Solomon was now in complete control of the kingdom with no one opposing him. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

Lord, I will obey Your commands to demonstrate I have repented of the sins of my past. I will be decisive in dealing with sin, rebellion, and divisiveness in my heart. Forgive me! Cleanse me! Give me strength of resolve! Make me decisive for You; use me in Your service. Amen.

1 Kings 3 King Solomon Receives Wisdom, Riches, and Honor

¹Solomon signed a treaty with Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and married his daughter.

She lived in the City of David until his palace, the temple, and the city wall were completed. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8}

²Because the temple had not yet been built, people offered sacrifices at shrines on hilltops. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ³Solomon loved the LORD and followed his father David's instructions, except that he, like others, offered sacrifices and burned incense on hilltop shrines. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1} ⁴The most important of the hilltop altars was in Gibeon, and Solomon offered there 1,000 animals as burnt offerings. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

⁵At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream and told him to ask for anything he wanted. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} 6Solomon answered, "You were kind to my father David because he was faithful and honest. And now You have given him a son as king. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} ⁷You made me king in place of my father David, but I am young and inexperienced. ⁸And here I am among Your chosen people who are almost more than can be counted. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ⁹Make me wise and help me know the difference between right and wrong. No one by himself could lead this great people of Yours." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

10God said, "I like what you have asked for. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} 11Since you didn't ask for a long life or riches or the defeat of your enemies but for wisdom, {414 Saint Paul Fast and Prayer, Isa. 58:8} ¹²I will give you wisdom and insight greater than anyone else. {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17} ¹³And I will give you what you didn't ask for – wealth and honor – greater than any other king. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ¹⁴And you will live a long time if you obey Me and follow My commands as your father David did." {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

¹⁵Solomon woke up and realized that God had spoken to him in a dream. He went back to Jerusalem and into the tabernacle. He offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar of burnt offering as he faced toward (but could not see) the sacred chest. Then he gave a feast for all his officials. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4}

¹⁶One day two prostitutes went to Solomon to settle an argument. ¹⁷One of them said, "This woman and I live in the same house. My baby was born at home, 18 and three days later her baby was born. 19Her baby died during the night when she rolled over on him. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ²⁰So she got up and took my son from me while I was asleep, and she put her dead son next to me. 21 And when I got up in the morning, I saw he was dead. Then in the morning light I could see it wasn't my son at all." {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ²²The other woman said, "Wrong. The dead son is yours and the living one is mine." They argued back and forth. ²³Then Solomon said, "You each claim the living child is yours, and the dead one belongs to the other." {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor.

4:3-4} ²⁴The he said, "Bring me a sword." ²⁵And he ordered "Cut the baby in half. That way each mother can have half of the child."

²⁶The woman whose son was alive said to the king, "Please don't kill my son. Give him to her." But the other woman said, "Go ahead and cut him in half." {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ²⁷Then Solomon said, "Give the baby to the woman who wants him to live. Obviously she is his mother." {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} ²⁸Everyone is Israel was amazed when they heard the king's decision and realized that God had given him great wisdom.

Lord, give me wisdom. I will study; I will memorize Your Word; I will review often. For my work help me be smart. But that's only the beginning, I want Your indwelling Holy Spirit to speak to me and help me understand Your will for my life. Give me wisdom. Give me everything I need to serve You and worship You. Like Solomon, I know I'm weak and human. Give me Yourself. Amen.

1 Kings 4 Solomon's State Officials

¹In Solomon's rule over Israel ²he had these nine top officials: The high priest was Azariah son of Zadok. ³Secretaries were Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha. The government record-keeper was Jehoshaphat, son of Ahilud. ⁴The army commander was Benaiah son of Jehoiada. The priests were Zadok and Abiathar. ⁵In charge of regional officers was Azariah son of Nathan. A priest and adviser to the king was Zabud son of Nathan. ⁶The manager of palace affairs was Ahishar. And in charge of the labor force was Adoniram son of Abda.

⁷The regional officers, one for each tribe, provided food for the king and his household, each one giving supplies for a month.

8 These are their names:

Ben-Hur was in charge of the hill country of Ephraim.

⁹Ben-Deker was in charge of the towns of Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth-Shemesh, and Elon-Beth-Hanan.

¹⁰Ben-Hesed was in charge of the towns of Arubboth and Socoh, and the region of Hepher.

¹¹Ben-Abinadab was in charge of Naphoth-Dor and was married to Solomon's daughter Taphath.

¹²Baana son of Ahilud was in charge of the towns of Taanach and Megiddo. He was also in charge of the whole region of Beth-Shan near the town of Zarethan, south of Jezreel from Beth-Shan to Abel-Meholah to the other side of Jokmeam.

¹³The son of Geber was in charge of the town of Ramoth in Gilead and the villages in Gilead belonging to the family of Jair, a descendant of Manasseh. He was also in charge of the region of Argob in Bashan, which had 60 walled towns with bronze bars on their gates.

¹⁴Ahinadab son of Iddo was in charge of the territory of Mahanaim.

¹⁵Ahimaaz was in charge of the territory of Naphtali and was married to Solomon's daughter Basemath.

¹⁶Baana son of Hushai was in charge of the territory of Asher and the town of Bealoth. ¹⁷Jehoshaphat son of Paruah was in charge of the territory of Issachar.

¹⁸Shimei son of Ela was in charge of the territory of Benjamin.

¹⁹Geber son of Uri was in charge of Gilead, where King Sihon of the Amorites and King Og of Bashan had lived. And one officer was in charge of the territory of Judah.

²⁰So many people were living in Israel and Judah at this time that they seemed like grains of sand on a beach. Everyone had plenty to eat and drink, and all were happy. ²¹Solomon's reign extended from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines and south to Egypt. These kingdoms paid him taxes every year.

²²Solomon's provisions for one day were 185 bushels of fine flour, 375 bushels of coarsely ground flour, ²³10 grain-fed cattle, 20 pasture-fed cattle, 100 sheep, and many deer, gazelles, roebucks, and geese. ²⁴His reign extended over all the kingdoms west of the Euphrates River, from Tiphsah to Gaza. And there was peace in that entire region. 25In Solomon's lifetime Judah and Israel were free from warfare and each family had its own grapevine and fig tree. ²⁶Solomon had 40,000 stalls for chariot horses and 12,000 charioteers. ²⁷Each month the regional officers brought food to Solomon and his officials. ²⁸They also brought barley and straw for the horses.

²⁹God gave Solomon great wisdom and insight, and he had a lot of interests. ³⁰He was wiser than anyone else, including the wise people of the East and in Egypt. ³¹He was wiser than anyone else in the world, including Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Calcol, and Darda, sons of Mahol. He was famous in all the countries around Israel and Judah. ³²Solomon wrote 3,000 proverbs and 1,005 songs. ³³He knew all about animals, birds, reptiles, fish, and plant life from the cedars of Lebanon to the hyssop plant. ³⁴Kings from nations everywhere sent people to listen to his wisdom.

Lord, teach me to live wisely as I read Solomon's proverbs. I don't know all things, and I never will. Teach me what I need to know, and guide me where I need to go. Meet my needs when the time is necessary, and even when I can't learn what I need to know; work all things together for Your good. Amen.

1 Kings 5 Building of the Temple of God

¹King Hiram of Tyre had always been a good friend of David. So he sent officials to meet with Solomon. {115 Difference-Making Prayer, Jude 22} ²Solomon wrote back this message: ³"As you know, my father David wanted to build a temple for the Lord. But he couldn't because of wars he was engaged in. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8} ⁴But now the LORD my God has given us peace in my kingdom with no threat of war anywhere. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} So I am planning to build a temple for my LORD, just as He told my father that I should do. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} Please have cedars from Lebanon cut down for me. I'll send some men to work with yours, and I will pay your men whatever you suggest. No one here can cut down timber the way you Sidonians can." {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

Lord, You gave David a promise that his son would build a temple, and it happened. You have promised that Your Holy Spirit would dwell in me and it happened (John 14:26). Thank You for keeping Your promises. Amen.

⁷Hiram was pleased to hear from Solomon. He said, "I am glad the LORD gave David a wise son {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} as king of Israel." ⁸Then he sent this reply to Solomon: "I will give you all the cedar and cypress logs you need. ⁹My men will carry them down from Lebanon to the Mediterranean Sea and build them into rafts and float them to wherever you want them. There we will untie the loop and your workers can take them from there. You can pay me with food for my workers." {22 Appropriate-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 39:5}

¹⁰Hiram produced for Solomon all the cedars and cypress timber he needed. {379 Prevailing-Prayer, Jer. 12:1} ¹¹And every year Solomon sent him 125,000 bushels of wheat and 115,000 gallons of olive oil. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ¹²The Lord blessed Solomon with great wisdom, and Hiram and Solomon signed a formal peace alliance. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

¹³Solomon ordered 30,000 workers from all over Israel to cut logs for the temple. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ¹⁴Each month he sent 10,000 workers to Lebanon, so that each worker was in Lebanon for one month and home for two months. Adoniram was in charge of the labor force. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹⁵Solomon also had 80,000 workers to cut stones, 70,000 men to carry the stones, {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} ¹⁶and 3,300 others to supervise the workers. ¹⁷They cut and shaped large blocks of stone for the temple foundation. ¹⁸Solomon and Hiram's men worked with men from Gebal in Lebanon in getting the logs and stones ready for the temple. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

1 Kings 6 Building of the Temple of God

¹In the spring of Solomon's fourth year as king (966 B.C.) his workers began building the temple. This was 480 years after the Israelites left Egypt. ²The temple was 90 feet long, 30 feet wide ³and extended 15 feet from the front of the temple. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ⁴Narrow windows were made in the temple. ⁵Three levels of storage rooms were built along the sides and back of the temple.

6The rooms on the bottom level were 7 ½ feet wide, the rooms on the second level were 9 feet wide, and the rooms on the third level were 10 ½ feet wide. The rooms were connected to the temple walls by beams or ledges from the wall. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} 7To avoid the noise of hammers and chisels at the temple site, workers shaped the stones at the quarry. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10}

Lord, fit all the "stones" of my life perfectly together, just as the stones for Solomon's temple were cut in the quarry but assembled on site. May my life be a "temple" where You dwell and where You are worshiped. Amen.

⁸Entrance to the bottom rooms was on the south side of the building, with stairs leading to the other levels. ⁹The temple roof was made of cedar beams. ¹⁰The storage rooms around the temple were each 7 ½ feet high, and were attached to the temple by cedar beams. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22}

¹¹The Lord told Solomon, {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} ¹²"If you follow My regulations and obey My commands, I will keep My promise to David. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹³I will live among the Israelites and I will not leave them." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹⁴So at last the temple was finished. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹⁵The workers paneled the inside walls with cedar, and they covered the floor with cypress. ¹⁶The most holy place at the back of the temple was 30 feet square. It was paneled from floor to ceiling with cedar. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} ¹⁷In front of this was the holy place, 60 feet long. ¹⁸The inside stone walls were covered with cedar paneling that was decorated with carved gourds and flowers. ¹⁹In the most holy place was the sacred chest. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} ²⁰This room was 30 feet square and 30 feet high, and the walls and ceiling were covered with pure gold. The altar of incense, just outside the room, was covered with cedar. ²¹⁻²²The inside walls of the temple were covered with gold, and gold chains hung at the entrance to the most holy place, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} and the cedar-covered altar of incense was also covered with gold. {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5}

²³Solomon made two winged creatures of olive wood, each 15 feet high, for the most holy place. ²⁴Each one had two wings, 7 ½ feet long. ²⁵The creatures were identical in size, {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} ²⁶each 15 feet high. ²⁷Their spreadout wings extended from wall to wall, and touched each other at the center of the room, and ²⁸they were covered with gold. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5}

²⁹Carved on the walls of the most holy place and the holy place were winged creatures, palm trees, and flowers. ³⁰And the floor of both rooms was covered with gold. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} ³¹The double doors to the most holy place were made of olive wood with five-sided doorposts. ³²Carved on the doors were winged creatures, palm trees, and flowers, all covered with gold. {14 Angel-Appreciation

Prayer, Heb. 2:7} ³³Two doorposts to the main entrance to the temple were made of olive wood, ³⁴and the two folding doors were made of cypress. ³⁵Carved on these doors were winged creatures, palm trees, and flowers, all covered with gold.

³⁶The walls of the inner courtyard had three levels of cut stones and one layer of cedar beams. ³⁷The foundation of the temple was finished in May of Solomon's fourth year, {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³⁸and the entire building was completed in seven years in the fall of Solomon's 11th year (959 B.C.). {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8}

Lord, I want Your presence in my life, and it's more than Your influence or "spiritual" presence. I want You living in me. Amen.

1 Kings 7 Other Building Projects of King Solomon

¹However, Solomon's palace took 13 years to build. ²One of the largest rooms, called Lebanon Forest Hall, was 150 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high. ³Cedar ceiling beams rested on four rows of cedar columns; with 15 columns in each row. ⁴Three rows of windows were on each wall, facing each other. ⁵And all six doorways were rectangular, hung in sets of three, facing each other. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

⁶Pillars Hall was 75 feet long and 45 feet wide, and had a porch at the front covered by a canopy supported pillars. ⁷The walls of Judgment Hall, which is where Solomon sat to hear legal cases, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} were paneled with cedar from floor to ceiling. ⁸The place where he lived was behind the Judgment Hall and surrounded a courtyard. He built a palace much like his palace for Pharaoh's daughter, his wife. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8}

⁹All these structures from top to bottom were made entirely of huge stones cut to size and trimmed with saws. ¹⁰Some of the foundation stones were 15 feet long, and some were 12 feet long." ¹¹Above these foundation stones were other stones cut to size, with cedar beams over them. ¹²The walls of the great courtyard had three layers of cut stones topped with one layer of cedar beams, just like the front porch and the inner courtyard of the temple. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

¹³Hiram was a bronze worker in Tyre. His father, now dead, had been a bronze worker too, and he was half Jewish because ¹⁴his mother was from the tribe of Naphtali. King Solomon asked Hiram to come to Jerusalem to do all the bronze work for the temple; and he did. {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} ¹⁵He made two bronze columns 27 feet tall and 18 feet around. ¹⁶He made a bronze top for each column; each top was 7 ½ feet high. ¹⁷These tops were decorated with seven rows of chain-like designs ¹⁸and with two rows of designs that looked like pomegranates. ¹⁹The tops of the two columns were shaped like lilies and were six feet high. ²⁰The chain-like designs were above the lily-shaped tops, and around each top were 200 pomegranates in each of two rows. ²¹Hiram placed the columns on each side of the temple door. He called the one on the south Jakin (meaning "He Makes Secure") and the one on the north he named Boaz (meaning "He Is Strong"). ²²The tops of the columns were shaped like lilies. The construction of the columns was completed. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

²³Then Hiram made a large round water tank called "The Sea." It was 15 feet across from rim to rim, about 7 ½ feet deep, and 45 feet around. ²⁴Just below the rim were two rows of bronze gourds, 10 gourds to every 18 inches. ²⁵The tank was set on top of 12 bronze bulls, with these facing outward in each of four directions. ²⁶The sides were about three inches thick, and the rim flared out like a lily blossom. The tank held about 11,000 gallons.

²⁷Hiram then made 10 movable bronze stands. Each one was six feet square and 4 ½ feet high, ²⁸ and each stand had square side panels braced with crossbars. ²⁹On the panels were carved figures of lions, bulls, and winged creatures. 30 Each stand had bronze wheels and axles, and on each stand a basin rested on four supports with flower designs. ³¹A round frame over each stand was 27 inches across, and an opening in each stand was 18 inches high and decorated with floral designs. The side panels of the stands were square. ³²The wheels under the panels were 27 inches across with axles attached to the stand. 33 The wheels were like chariot wheels. The axles, rims, spokes, and hubs were made of bronze. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

³⁴Each stand had four handles, one at each corner. ³⁵At the top of each stand was a rim nine inches wide. The supports and panels were attached to the stands, ³⁶and the supports and panels were decorated with winged creatures, lions, palm trees, and floral designs. ³⁷The stands were all the same size and were alike, cast from the same mold. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

³⁸Hiram also made 10 bronze bowls for washing, one for each stand. Each bowl was six feet across and could hold about 230 gallons. ³⁹He put five stands on the south side of the temple and five on the north. And he put the large basin at the southeast corner of the temple. 40He also made pans, shovels, and sprinkling bowls. These are the items Hiram made for King Solomon for the temple: {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 41two columns, two bowl-shaped tops for the columns, two chain-like designs on the tops of the columns, 42400 pomegranates for the chain designs, 4310 moveable stands with their 10 basins, 44the round water tank with 12 bulls under it, ⁴⁵and pots, shovels, and sprinkling bowls. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} All these items were made for the temple from bronze. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} 46 These were made in clay molds in the Jordan Valley between Succoth and Zarethan. 47 Solomon did not weigh all the utensils because there were so many. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ⁴⁸Solomon also had these items made from gold for the temple: the gold altar, the gold table for the Bread without Yeast, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴⁹10 lampstands in front of the most holy place, flowered designs, lamps and tongs, ⁵⁰dishes, lamp snuffers, bowls, incense bowls, fire pans, {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} and door sockets for the most holy place and door sockets for the main room of the temple. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

⁵¹When Solomon finished the construction of the temple he put into the storage rooms the gold and silver items David had dedicated to the Lord. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4}

Lord, I worship You who sat upon the mercy seat, on top of the sacred chest. Amen.

1 Kings 8 The Sacred Chest Is Brought into the Temple

¹Solomon asked all the tribal leaders and family heads to come to Jerusalem {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} to see him moving the sacred chest from Zion, the City of David, to the temple. {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11} ²This was during the Festival of Shelters in September. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ³When all the leaders had arrived, the priests and Levites brought the sacred chest {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} ⁴and the tabernacle and its furnishings to the temple. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ⁵Solomon and many Israelites walked in front of the chest, and they sacrificed more sheep and cattle than could be counted. {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5}

6The priests carried the sacred chest into the most holy place {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} and put it under the winged creatures. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 7The wings of the creatures covered the chest and its carrying poles. 8The poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the holy place. And they stayed there from then on. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} 9The only objects in the sacred chest were the two stone tablets Moses had put in it at Mount Horeb (Sinai), where God made an agreement with the Israelites after they left Egypt. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

10-11 When the priests went out of the temple, a cloud that pictured God's glory filled the temple so that the priests could not serve there. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 12Then Solomon said, "This cloud, as the LORD said, shows God is with me. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹³I have built for Him a great temple." {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} ¹⁴Then Solomon blessed the people, {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26\) 15 and he said, "Praise the LORD, the God of Israel. He has kept the promise He made to my father David. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} 16He told David He had not yet chosen the city where His temple would be built, but He chose a man to be the leader of the people. ¹⁷David wanted to build a temple for the LORD. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ¹⁸But the LORD said, 'That's good that you wanted to do that, {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ¹⁹but your son, not you, will build a temple to honor Me.' {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²⁰As He promised, the LORD has made me king, and I have built the temple for the LORD. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²¹I also made a place in the temple for the sacred chest, and in that chest the two flat stones on which is written the agreement the Lord made with our ancestors." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

²²Solomon stood facing the altar with his hands lifted toward heaven in front of all the Israelites. {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} ²³He prayed, "O LORD, God of Israel, no God is like You. You keep Your agreement based on Your unfailing love. You are loyal to Your servants who obey you. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ²⁴Today You have kept Your promise to David my father. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} 25Now LORD, God of Israel, You promised David that his descendants will always be king of Israel if they obey You as he has done. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁶So now please keep this promise too. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7

²⁷"How could you live on the earth in this temple, when even the highest heavens cannot contain You? {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} ²⁸Yet please hear and answer my prayer. {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11} ²⁹Please watch over this temple day and night, where You said You would be worshiped. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1} ³⁰Hear my prayer and the prayer of Your people; hear from heaven and forgive them. {360 Power-Seeking Prayer, Matt. 9:8}

³¹"Suppose someone accuses a person of a crime, and the accused stands in front of the altar and says he is innocent. {308 Mizpah Benediction-Prayer, Gen. 31:49} ³²Then in heaven decide who is right. Punish him if he is guilty, or let him go free if he is innocent. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ³³Suppose Your people sin and their enemies defeat them. Then if they confess and turn from their sin, {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ³⁴hear and forgive them and bring them back to this land You gave their ancestors. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} of a crop disease or crops being eaten by locusts or caterpillars, as if enemies surround their cities, or Your people become deathly sick, {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ³⁸ if the people pray with their hands lifted at the temple, {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} ³⁹ then hear and forgive them. Deal with each person as You should because You know what is in everyone's heart. {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} ⁴⁰ Then they will revere You as they live in the land You gave their ancestors. {496 True-Worshippers Prayer, Ps. 15:1} ⁴¹⁻⁴² "Foreigners will hear about You and

³⁵"Suppose there is no rain because Your people sin against You. But if they confess their sin, {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ³⁶then hear and forgive them. Teach them to do what is right and send rain on the land you promised is theirs. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

Your mighty power. If they pray toward the temple, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 43 hear them and answer their prayers. Then everyone on the earth will come to know You and revere You and will know that I have built this temple to honor You. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

44"Suppose You send Your people to war, and they pray to You toward the temple which I have built to honor You. {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} 45Hear their prayer and help them {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} ⁴⁶Everyone sins. But suppose Your people sin against You and You become angry and let their enemies take them captive to other countries. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ⁴⁷Then if they have a change of heart and repent and admit they sinned {55 Brokenness-Prayer, Joel 2:12} 48and pray toward Jerusalem and the temple that honors You, {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} ⁴⁹hear their prayer from heaven, where You live, and help them. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} 50Please forgive Your people of their sins against You, and make their captors be kind to them. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ⁵¹They are Your people whom You brought out of Egypt, which was like being in a furnace. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 52May Your eyes see and Your ears hear their plea for help. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} 53You brought our ancestors out of Egypt, and You told Moses that out of all the nations You had chosen them to be Your special people." {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

⁵⁴When Solomon finished this prayer, he had been kneeling with his hands lifted toward heaven. Then he stood up from before the Lord {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} 55and blessed the Israelites in these words: {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 56"Praise the LORD! He has given us peace, as He promised. And every good promise has happened. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ⁵⁷May the LORD our God be with all of us as He was with our ancestors, and may He never leave us. {83 Confident-Praying in God's Presence, Heb. 13:5} 58 May He help us follow Him and obey the commands, laws, and regulations He gave our ancestors. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} 59And may He remember this prayer day and night, and may He meet all their needs. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} 60 Then people everywhere will know that the LORD is the true God. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 61May you always be faithful to the Lord our God, obeying His laws and commands, just as you are doing now." {190 God-Hunger Prayer, Matt. 5:6}

⁶²Solomon and the people dedicated the temple to the LORD {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ⁶³by offering 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep and goats as fellowship offerings. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ⁶⁴Also that day Solomon dedicated the courtyard in front of the temple. He offered burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat of the fellowship offerings there because the bronze altar of burnt offering was too small for all the offerings being given. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

65 Solomon and all Israel celebrated the Festival of Shelters for seven days. The people had come all the way from Lebo Hamath in the north to the brook of Egypt in the South. Actually they celebrated for two weeks, one week for the fellowship offerings and one week for the Festival of Shelters. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} 66 After the Festival, the people blessed the king and went home happy because the LORD had been good to David and His people Israel. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21}

Lord, I will pray in Your church building, because I pray everywhere. Let my outward body posture reflect my inner reverence to You. Thank You for every time I've been able to enter Your presence in Your house. Amen.

1 Kings 9 The Lord Appears to Solomon a Second Time

¹After Solomon finished building the temple, the royal palace, and other projects, {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²the LORD appeared to him again in a dream as He had done in Gibeon. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³The LORD said, "I heard your prayer and your request. I have set apart this temple you have built to honor My name. I will always watch over it. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ⁴If

you follow Me with integrity and sincerity, as your father David did, obeying My laws and commands, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁵I will see that a descendant of yours is always king over Israel, as I promised David. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

6"But if you or your descendants turn from Me and disobey My commands and laws, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and worship other gods, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 7I will take them from this land and I will reject this temple that I have set apart to honor Me. Israel will then be made fun of and ridiculed. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 8And the temple will become a pile of rocks, and people who see it in ruins will be shocked, and they will say, 'Why has the Lord done this to this land and the temple?' {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 9Then they will answer, 'We know why. It's because they have rejected the Lord their God who brought their ancestors out of Egypt, and they worshiped false gods." {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2}

¹⁰It took 7 years for Solomon to build the temple and 13 years to build the royal palace, 20 years in all. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ¹¹Then he gave 20 towns in Galilee to King Hiram in Tyre as payment for all the cedar, cypress, and gold Hiram had given Solomon. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ¹²But when Hiram went to see the towns, he didn't like them. ¹³He said, "Solomon, my friend, why are you giving me these towns? {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} They are worthless." So Hiram called the area Cabul (meaning "Worthless"). 14Yet Hiram had sent Solomon almost five tons of gold. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ¹⁵After Solomon's workers finished the temple and royal palace, he had them fill in the Millo with terraces on the east side of Jerusalem, build a wall around the city, and rebuild the towns of Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer. {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} 16Earlier Pharaoh of Egypt had captured Gezer, burned it, and killed the Canaanite people who lived there. Then Pharaoh gave Gezer to his daughter when she married Solomon, {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ¹⁷and Solomon rebuilt it. Also he built up Lower Beth-Horan, ¹⁸Baalath, and Tamar in the Judean desert. 19He also built towns for storing his grain supplies, and towns where he would keep his chariots and horses, and he built whatever he wanted in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and elsewhere in Israel. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4}

²⁰Some non-Israelites were still living in the land; they were Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not killed when Joshua conquered the land. ²¹So Solomon made them slaves. ²²But he did not make slaves of his own people. Instead he made them his soldiers, government officials, army officers, commanders, chariot commanders, and chariot drivers. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ²³He appointed 550 men to oversee the slave labor. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

²⁴After Pharaoh's daughter moved from the City of David to the royal palace, {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} he built the Millo by filling it with terraces. ²⁵Three times a year Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the temple altar, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and burned incense on it. ²⁶He had several ships at Ezion-Geber, near Elath in Edom on the shore of the Red Sea. ²⁷Hiram sent some of his sailors to work with Solomon's sailors. ²⁸They sailed together to Ophir and brought back 16 tons of gold for Solomon. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

Lord, You had a challenge for Solomon; You wanted him to be both wise and godly. I ask for wisdom from You (see James 1:5), but I also ask You to make me godly. Amen.

1 Kings 10 The Queen of Sheba Visits King Solomon

¹When the Queen of Sheba heard how wise Solomon was, she went to Jerusalem to challenge him with some difficult questions. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²She arrived with many camels loaded with lots of spices, gold, and jewels. She asked him many difficult questions, {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} ³and he answered each one. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ⁴She was amazed at his wisdom and at the beauty of his palace, and was overwhelmed ⁵with all the food he served, and his officials and servants in their uniforms, the people who served his wine, and the burnt offerings

he made at the temple. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

⁶She said to Solomon, "In my country I heard about your wisdom and all you've done. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ⁷I didn't believe it until I saw it with my own eyes. But I hadn't heard even half of it. Your wisdom and wealth are greater than I was told. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} 8How happy your people and officials must be as they listen to your wisdom. {212 Happiness Inspired by Prayer, Matt. 5:3-8} Praise be to the LORD your God, who is pleased with you and made you king. Because of His love for Israel He has made you king so you can rule with justice and make right decisions." {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

¹⁰She gave Solomon 4 ½ tons of gold, and large amounts of spices and jewelry; in fact, this was the largest single gift of spices he ever received. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} 11As stated earlier, King Hiram's sailors brought gold from Ophir, as they also brought large amounts of sandalwood and precious gems. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ¹²Solomon used the sandalwood to make steps for the temple and palace, and to make harps and lyres for his musicians. No one had ever seen so much sandalwood. ¹³Solomon gave the Queen of Sheba everything she asked for plus other items. Then she and her officials returned to her country. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7}

¹⁴Every year Solomon received 25 tons of gold, ¹⁵besides what he collected from merchants, dignitaries, and Arabian kings. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21}

¹⁶He made 200 gold shields, using about 7 ½ pounds of gold for each shield, and ¹⁷300 smaller shields, using about four pounds of gold for each shield. He put them in his palace in the Lebanon Forest Hall. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

¹⁸His huge throne was made of ivory and covered with gold. {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} ¹⁹It had six steps, a rounded back, and the statue of a lion on each side. ²⁰Also it had two lions on each step, 12 in all. Nothing was like his throne in any other kingdom. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

²¹His cups and dishes and household items in his Lebanon Forest Hall were made of gold. ²²His many trading ships sailed with Hiram's ships, and every three years they brought back gold, silver, ivory, and apes and peacocks. ²³King Solomon was richer and wiser than any other king. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ²⁴Everyone wanted to meet with him to hear the wisdom God had given him. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ²⁵Every year people brought him gifts of silver and gold, and clothes, weapons, spices, horses, and mules. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ²⁶He also had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses that he kept in Jerusalem and other cities. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²⁷Silver was as common as rocks, and cedar was as common as Sycamore-fig trees in the foothills. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23

²⁸⁻²⁹His merchants purchased horses and chariots in Egypt and Cilicia, paying about 15 pounds of silver for each chariot and almost four pounds of silver for each horse. His merchants also sold chariots and horses to the Hittite and Syrian kings.

Lord, may I use my business ability as a Christian testimony to outsiders, even as Solomon's business impressed the Queen of Sheba. I will be a good witness so others will see You are the greatest God...that You are the only God. Amen.

1 Kings 11 King Solomon Turns Away from the True God

1-2 The LORD told the Israelites not to marry women from other nations because they worship foreign gods and they could influence the Israelites to worship those gods. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} However, Solomon loved not only Pharaoh's daughter. He also loved women from Moab, Ammon, Edom, Sidon, and the land of the Hittites. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} 3Seven hundred of his wives were daughters of kings, and he also had 300 concubines, and they turned his heart from the Lord. {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} ⁴As he grew older, some of his wives led him to worship their gods instead of trusting completely in the LORD, as his father David had done. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 5He worshiped Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and Molech, the disgusting god of the Ammonites. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ⁶This was sinful, {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} and he did not follow the LORD completely, as David had done. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁷He even built a shrine on the Mount of Olives for Chemosh, the disgusting god of Moab, and one for Molech. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ⁸He built shrines for each of his wives so they could burn incense and offer sacrifices to their gods. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23}

⁹The LORD was very angry with Solomon because he turned away from Him, even after the LORD appeared to him twice {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} 10 to warn him against worshiping foreign gods. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹¹He said, "Because you have not kept My agreement and have disobeyed My laws, I will take the kingdom from you {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and give it to one of your officials. {522 Vow-Violation Prayer, Ps. 65:1} 12But because David was your father, I won't do this while you are alive. I will take the kingdom from your son. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹³But I will still let him be king of one tribe because of David My servant and the city of Jerusalem." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

¹⁴The LORD brought against Solomon an enemy Hadad, a descendant of the Edomite king. {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} ¹⁵Years before, when Joab, David's army commander, had gone to Edom to bury some Israelite soldiers, ¹⁶he stayed in Edom six months killing every male, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁷except Hadad, then a boy, and some Edomite officials who escaped to Egypt.

{142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5}

¹⁸After leaving Midian, they went to Paran, where some others joined them. Pharaoh gave Hadad a house, land, and food. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

¹⁹And Pharaoh gave him his sister-in-law, Queen Tahpenes, as his wife.

²⁰They had a son Genubath, who was raised in Pharaoh's palace as his son.

²¹While in Egypt Hadad heard that David and Joab had died. So he asked Pharaoh if he could return to his country. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²²Pharaoh asked, "Why? Don't you have everything here that you need?" Hadad answered, "Yes, I do. But I just want to visit my country." {353 Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer, 1 Cor. 15:46} ²³God brought against Solomon another enemy, Rezon son of Eliada, who had escaped from Hadadezer, king of Zobah. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10} ²⁴After David destroyed Zobah, Rezon led some rebels to Damascus and controlled the city. ²⁵Rezon and Solomon were enemies from then on. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²⁶Another rebel against Solomon was Jeroboam son of Nebat. He was one of Solomon's officials, and he came from Zeredah in Ephraim. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ²⁷When Solomon was building the terraces on the east wall of the City of David, ²⁸he put Jeroboam in charge of the labor force because he saw he was a hard worker. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ²⁹One day when Jeroboam was leaving Jerusalem, Ahijah, a prophet from Shiloh, 30grabbed Jeroboam's new robe and tore it into pieces. ³¹He said to Jeroboam,

"God said, 'I will tear 10 tribes from Solomon's kingdom and give them to you. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ³²But I will give Judah and Benjamin to Solomon, since David was My servant and Jerusalem is My city. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

33-34"I'm doing this because Solomon has turned from Me and is worshiping Asthoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and Chemosh, the god of Moab, and Molech, the god of the Ammonites. He is not following Me, {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} and he has not done what I consider right, and he has disobeyed My laws and commands. 35I will take the kingdom from his son and make you ruler over 10 tribes. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³⁶That way David will always have a descendant ruling in Jerusalem, where I have chosen to be worshiped. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³⁷You will rule over Israel, and every nation you want. {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8} ³⁸I will be with you if you obey Me and do what is right and keep My commands and laws, as David did. And I will have your descendants rule Israel. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} 39I will punish David's descendants, but not forever." {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10} 40 Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but he escaped to Egypt, where he was with Pharaoh Shishak until Solomon died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

⁴¹Everything Solomon did as king and his wisdom are recorded in the book about him. ⁴²He ruled in Jerusalem 40 years, {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} ⁴³and then died and was buried in the city of his father David. His son Rehoboam became king. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Lord, Solomon was a sex addict! Keep me from illegal sex, keep me from addiction. May I find my greatest love in You. I give You first place in my life. Sit on the throne of my life and rule me from the inside out. Amen.

1 Kings 12 Rehoboam Ignores Wise Counsel of Older Men

¹Rehoboam went to Shechem, where he was to be crowned king. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} 2Jeroboam heard about this while he was still in Egypt. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 3Some Israelite leaders sent for Jeroboam. Then they said to Rehoboam, 4"Your father Solomon was a hard taskmaster. We will serve you but only if you lighten our workload." {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ⁵Rehoboam responded, "I'll think about it and I'll give you an answer in three days." {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} ⁶He asked the elders who served his father Solomon what they thought. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁷They said, "If you do as they suggest, and make their workload easier, they will serve you well." {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

8-9 Then Rehoboam asked for advice {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} from the young men he knew growing up. {534

Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹⁰They answered, "Tell them, compared to my load, my father's load was light. It will be like saying my little finger is bigger than his waist. ¹¹He made you work hard, but I will make you work harder. He used whips on you, but I will use whips with sharp metal tips that will feel like scorpion stings." {368 Prayer-Excursion Prayer, Ps. 137:1-4}

¹²Three days later Jeroboam and all the people went to see Rehoboam in Schechem. ¹³He told the people he would follow the advice of the young men, {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} 14He said, "My father used whips on you, but I'll use scorpions." 15He refused to do what the people wanted. Actually this was of the LORD because it carried out what God had said to Jeroboam through the prophet Ahijah. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1} ¹⁶The people then said, "We don't need to follow David and his family. Let's all go home, and ¹⁷Rehoboam can rule his own people." {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} So the people of Israel went home, but the tribe of Judah accepted Rehoboam as their king.

¹⁸When Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of the forced labor, to talk with the people, they stoned him to death. Then Rehoboam jumped in his chariot and hurried home to Jerusalem. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} ¹⁹And Israel has continued to oppose David's family in Judah. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁰When the Israelites heard that Jeroboam was back from Egypt, they made him king over all Israel, except for Judah and Benjamin. {407 Revival of Our Nation-Prayer, 2 Chron. 7:14}

²¹When Rehoboam got back to Jerusalem,

he called together his army of 180,000 soldiers, and planned to force the 10 tribes of Israel to accept him as their king. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} ²²But God told the prophet Shemaiah to warn Rehoboam {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ²³not to go to war against Israel because they are all his relatives, ²⁴ and to tell him to tell the soldiers to go home, {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} because this was planned by the LORD. So the soldiers all went home. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10} ²⁵Jeroboam rebuilt Shechem in Ephraim and moved there and made it his capital. And he built Peniel. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3 ²⁶⁻²⁷Later he got to thinking, "Everyone goes to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices at the temple, {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} and so they may become loyal again to Rehoboam. They might kill me and go back to Rehoboam as their king." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²⁸On the advice of his counselors he made two gold calf-idols and told the people, "You don't need to go to Jerusalem to worship. Here are your gods who rescued your ancestors from Egypt." {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ²⁹He put one of these idols in Bethel and the other in Dan. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} 30 This was a terrible sin for the Israelites to worship these idols. {422 satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} ³¹Jeroboam also made shrines on hills and appointed as priests people who were not descendants of Levi, the priestly tribe. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ³²Jeroboam also said that the Festival of Shelters would be held in October, not in September. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ³³He went to Bethel on that day and offered sacrifices to the calf-idol he had made. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6}

Lord, help me to listen to the advice of older people, give me the wisdom of the elders, and I will always measure it by the Word of God before I follow any advice. Amen.

1 Kings 13 The Man of God from Judah

¹As Jeroboam was at the altar in Bethel, ready to burn incense to the calf-idol, a man of God came up from Judah {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ²and said, "O altar, the LORD says that a son named Josiah will be born to David's descendants, and he will sacrifice on you, O altar, the priests who make offerings here, and human bones will be burned on you." {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} ³He added, "Proof that my message is from God is that the altar will split in half and the ashes will fall to the ground." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁴This made Jeroboam angry. So he pointed to the prophet and said, "Grab him!" But Jeroboam's arm shriveled up and he couldn't move it. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts

5:4, 9} ⁵And the altar split in two and its ashes poured out, as the prophet had said. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁶Jeroboam begged the man of God to ask the LORD to heal his arm. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} The prophet prayed, and the LORD healed his arm. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

The king then asked the prophet to go with him to his palace and have something to eat and he would give the prophet a gift for healing his arm. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 8 The prophet answered, "No, I wouldn't do that even if you gave me half your palace. Why? {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 9 Because the Lord told me not to eat or drink anything here and not to go home the same way I came." {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13} 10 So he went home a different way. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

11"An old prophet was living in Bethel, and his sons told him about the prophet from Judah. 12"Which way did he go?" the father asked. After his sons told him which road the prophet took to go home, {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ¹³the old man said, "Saddle my donkey." {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ¹⁴He found the prophet sitting under an oak tree. "Are you the man of God from Judah?" he asked. "Yes, I am." {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ¹⁵So the old man said, "Come home with me and have a nice meal." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 16"I can't," the young prophet said. {49 Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 17"The LORD told me not to eat or drink anything in Bethel.

And He told me to go home by a different road." {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13} ¹⁸But the old man said, "I'm a prophet too. And an angel told me to tell you to come home with me and have a meal and a drink." But the old man was lying. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} 19So the man of God went with him and ate and drank in his home. {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1} ²⁰As they were eating, a message came from the LORD to the old prophet. {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} ²¹The old man said to the prophet from Judah, "The LORD says you have disobeyed Me {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²²by coming here and eating and drinking when I told you not to do it. So you will not be buried in your father's tomb." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²³The man of God finished eating and the old man saddled the prophet's donkey. 24On the way a lion attacked and killed him, and the lion and the man's donkey stood there. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁵Some people saw the body and the lion there and told the city officials. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ²⁶The old prophet heard about this and said, "This must be the prophet from Judah. The LORD warned him, but he disobeyed and so a lion has killed him." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ²⁷So he told his sons to get his donkey ready. {49

Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ²⁸He found the body lying on the road, with the lion and donkey standing there. The lion had not eaten the body or attacked the donkey. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1

John 5:16} ²⁹The old man put the body on his donkey and took it to Bethel where he was buried. And he mourned for him, and said, "Oh, my brother." {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3}

³⁰He buried the prophet {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2} 31and said to his sons, "When I die, bury me in the grave next to this prophet. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} 32What he said will happen to the altar in Bethel and the shrines on the hills." {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ³³Jeroboam did not turn from his evil ways. He kept on appointing non-Levitical people to be priests at the shrines. Anyone who wanted to be a priest could be one. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} 34This sin of Jeroboam led to the downfall of his kingdom. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

Lord, I know there are lying prophets in the world. Give me wisdom to discern who they are and courage to not let them influence my life. I know the devil as a roaring lion walks about trying to eat me up (see I Peter. 5:8). Protect me when I am defenseless. Enlighten me when I am wrong. Empower me to stand against my enemy (1 John 4:4). Amen.

1 Kings 14 Ahijah's Prophecy against Jeroboam

¹Jeroboam's son Abijah got sick. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ²So Jeroboam told his wife to disguise herself, go to Shiloh and see the prophet Abijah. "He's the one who said I would be king of Israel. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ³Take 10 loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey to him, and ask him what will happen to our son." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 4So Jeroboam's wife got ready and left. {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} ⁵Abijah was old and blind, but the LORD told him the king's wife was coming to ask about their son. "I will tell you what to say." {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} 6When Abijah heard her walking to the door, he shouted, "Come in, Jeroboam's wife! Why are you pretending to be someone else? ⁷The LORD has told me to give your husband this bad news: 'I made you a leader of My people Israel. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} 8I even took tribes from David's descendants and gave them to you. But you have not kept My commands and obeyed Me and done what is right. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 9In fact you have done more sinful things than any king before you. You made false idol-gods out of gold, and I am very angry because you have rejected Me. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 10Therefore I will destroy your family by killing every male in it, whether slave or free. I will wipe out your family the way fire burns up trash. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 11Dogs will eat the bodies of your relatives who die in Jerusalem, and birds will eat the bodies of those who die in the country. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹²"Go back home, Mrs. Jeroboam, and as soon as you get home, your son will die. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹³All Israel will mourn his death. And he is the only one of Jeroboam's relatives who will have a proper burial, because he is the only one of Jeroboam's family the LORD is pleased with. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ^{14}I will very soon choose a new king of Israel, who will destroy Jeroboam's family. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} 15When I strike Israel, it will shake like a reed swaying in the water. I will remove them from this land and scatter them as far away as the Euphrates River. This will all be because they made Asherah poles, which made Me angry. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 16I will desert Israel because Jeroboam sinned and caused Israel to sin." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

¹⁷Jeroboam's wife left and went home to Tirzah. The minute she stepped in her house, her son died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁸All Israel mourned him, just as the LORD's servant Abijah had said. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2} ¹⁹The other events of Jeroboam's reign, including his battles, are written in the book about the kings of Israel. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ²⁰He reigned for 22 years and died. His son Nadab became king. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

²¹Rehoboam, king in Judah, was 41 years old when he began to reign, and he ruled for 17 years in Jerusalem, the city God had chosen where He is to be honored. His mother was Naamah, an Ammonite. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ²²The people of Judah, like those in Israel, sinned and caused the LORD to be angry. {440

Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²³They built shrines and sacred stones and Asherah poles on hills and under every green tree. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} ²⁴Male shrine prostitutes were in the land, and the Israelites did the very same disgusting things as the nations the LORD had forced out of the land. {422 satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13}

²⁵In Rehoboam's fifth year, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ²⁶He took everything of value from the temple and the royal palace including the gold shields Solomon had made. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁷So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace the gold shields, and the palace guards used them. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²⁸Whenever he went to the temple, the guards carried the shields and then put them back in the guardroom. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5}

²⁹The other events of Rehoboam's reign are written in the book about the kings of Judah. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ³⁰War continued between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ³¹Rehoboam died and was buried in the City of David. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} His mother was Naamah an Ammonite, and his son Abijah was the next king.

Lord, I will faithfully tell others what You say in the Bible. Amen.

1 Kings 15 Abijah Becomes King after Rehoboam

¹When Jeroboam had been king of Israel for 18 years, ²Abijah became king of Judah, and he ruled for 3 years in Jerusalem. His mother was Maacah, daughter of Absalom. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ³He was sinful like his father Rehoboam. He did not obey the LORD as his great-grandfather David had done. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ⁴But for David's sake the LORD allowed David's line to continue and for Jerusalem to be strong. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} 5All his life David had done what pleased the LORD and obeyed the LORD's commands except when he had Uriah the Hittite murdered. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁶The war between Rehoboam's line and Jeroboam continued, with Abijah and Jeroboam fighting. {499 Truth-Living Prayer, 3 John 4} ⁷The events of Abijah's reign are recorded in the book about the kings of Judah. {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} ⁸He died and was buried in the City of David. And his son Asa became king. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁹When Jeroboam was in his 20th year as

When Jeroboam was in his 20th year as king of Israel, Asa became king of Judah ¹⁰and Asa ruled in Jerusalem 41 years. His grandmother was Maacah, daughter of Absalom. ¹¹He pleased the LORD as David did. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹²He forced the male shrine prostitutes to leave the country, and he destroyed the idols his ancestors had made. {399

Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8 ¹³His grandmother Maacah had made a disgusting idol of Asherah, and so Asa burned it and got rid of her as queen mother. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} 14He was faithful to the LORD even though he didn't destroy all the hilltop shrines. ¹⁵He placed in the temple all the silver and gold objects he and his father had dedicated to the Lord. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ¹⁶Asa and King Baasha of Israel were constantly at war. {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} ¹⁷So one time Baasha went to Ramah in Judah, and he kept soldiers there so people couldn't leave or enter Judah. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ¹⁸When Asa heard about this, he sent silver and gold to Damascus for Ben-Hadad, king of Syria. 19 Asa suggested they make a treaty like the one their fathers had and that Ben-Hadad break his treaty with Baasha so that Baasha would leave Judah. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

²⁰Ben-Hadad agreed and sent soldiers to capture the Israelite towns of Dan and Abel-Beth-Maacah, and the territories of Kinnereth and Naphtali. ²¹So Baasha left Ramah and went to Tirzah. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ²²Then Asa ordered everyone in Judah to go take the stones and wood Baasha had at Ramah, and build up Geba and Mizpah. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²³Asa's victories and towns he rebuilt are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah. As he grew older, his feet became diseased. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps.

41:3, 4} ²⁴Then he died and was buried in the City of David. And his son Jehoshaphat became king. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

²⁵When Asa was in his second year as king of Judah, Jeroboam's son Nadab became king of Israel and reigned two years. ²⁶Nadab disobeyed the Lord and did as his father did in causing the people to sin. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ²⁷Baasha from the tribe of Issachar killed Nadab when Nadab was attacking the Philistine town of Gibbethon. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} ²⁸Baasha then became king of Israel, replacing Nadab in Asa's third year. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

²⁹⁻³⁰The LORD's prophet Abijah had said that Jeroboam's whole family would be killed because Jeroboam had made the LORD angry with his sins. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} And Baasha killed Jeroboam's entire family. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³¹Nadab's reign is recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ³²Asa of Judah and Baasha of Israel were constantly at war. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

³³When Baasha became king of Israel, Asa was in his third year as king of Judah. Baasha ruled for 24 years from Tirzah. ³⁴Just like Jeroboam, he disobeyed the Lord and caused the Israelites to sin. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

Lord, I know You have used non-Christians to accomplish Your will. Thank You for working behind the scenes to bless my life through those who don't live for You. I give myself to You. I want to be godly and useful. So use me to accomplish Your will in my life and in the lives of many others. Amen.

1 Kings 16 Baasha Rules over Israel

¹The Lord sent the prophet Jehu son of Hanani to say to Baasha, ²"You were a nobody, but I made you king of Israel. As you are doing the same thing Jeroboam did, sinning and causing My people Israel to sin, I am very angry, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³so I will destroy you and your family just as I did Jeroboam. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ⁴Dogs will eat the bodies of your relatives who die in the city, and birds will eat those who die in the country." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

The other events of Baasha's reign are written in the book of the kings of Israel. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} He died and was buried in Tirzah. And his son Elah became the next king. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} The LORD spoke to Baasha through His prophet Jehu because of Baasha's sins, which made the LORD angry, and because he killed all Jeroboam's family. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

⁸After Asa had been king of Judah 25 years, Elah son of Baasha became king of Israel. He reigned in Tirzah only two years. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession,

1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} 9Zimri had charge of half of Elah's chariots, and he planned to kill Elah when Elah was drunk at the home of Arza who was in charge of the palace. {442 Sober-Praying, Prov. 23:31} ¹⁰Zimri simply walked over to him and killed Elah, and made himself king. 11Then he killed all Elah's relatives and close friends. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} ¹²This killing was just as God had said through His prophet Jehu. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹³Baasha and Elah both sinned by worshiping idols, and this made the LORD angry. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 14Other events in Elah's short reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel.

¹⁵Zimri ruled Israel only one week. The Israelite army was camped at Gibbethon, a Philistine town, where Nadab was killed. ¹⁶The soldiers heard that Zimri had killed Elah, so they made Omri king. {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} ¹⁷Omri left Gibbethon and went to Tirzah, Israel's capital. 18Zimri realized he was cornered, so he went into the palace at Tirzah and set it on fire. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 19He died in the flames because he had disobeyed the LORD and followed Jeroboam's evil example. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} ²⁰The other events of his brief reign and his rebellion are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²¹Some Israelites wanted Tibni son of Ginath as king, but others wanted Omri. ²²Omri's followers were stronger than Tibni's, so Tibni was killed and Omri became king. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

²³This happened in Asa's 31st year as king in Judah. Omri reigned for 12 years, six of them in Tirzah. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ²⁴He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for 150 pounds of silver, and built the town of Samaria on that hill. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ²⁵Omri did more sinful things than any king before him. ²⁶He followed Jeroboam's sinful ways, and like Jeroboam he caused the Israelites to sin by worshiping idols, and made the LORD angry. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4\} 27The events of Omri's reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. ²⁸He died and was buried in Samaria, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and his son Ahab was the next king. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

²⁹When Asa had reigned 38 years in Judah, Ahab was made king of Israel, and he ruled for 22 years in Samaria. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} 30Ahab committed more sins than any king before him. ³¹Following in the ways of Jeroboam was bad enough, but worse than that, he married Jezebel, daughter of King Ethbaal of Sidon, and worshiped the false god Baal. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 32He even built an altar and temple for Baal in Samaria. ³³Also he built a repulsive Asherah pole. He did more to make the Lord angry than any king of Israel before him. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³⁴A man named Hiel from Bethel was rebuilding the town of Jericho. When he was laying the foundation of the town, his oldest son Abiram died, and when he was finishing the gates his youngest son Segub died. This was the LORD's curse on Jericho as Joshua had spoken centuries earlier. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, help me turn away from false religion and false worship. I pray against evil religions so You will stop the spread of their influence. I pray that You will destroy false religions. Amen.

I Kings 17 The LORD Takes Care of Elijah

¹Elijah was a prophet from Tishbe in Gilead. One day he went to King Ahab and said, "I worship and serve the living LORD, God of Israel. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} He says there will be no dew or rain for several years." {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} ²Then the LORD told Elijah {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7} ³to leave right away and go across the Jordan River to the Kerith Brook. {49 Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 4The LORD said, "You can drink water from the brook, and I have told the ravens to bring you food." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 5So Elijah did what the LORD said and went to the Kerith Brook. {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} 'Ravens brought him bread and meat twice every day, and he drank water from the brook. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ⁷Then later the brook dried up because there was no rain. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

8-9Then the Lord told Elijah {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} to go to Zarephath, where a widow would feed him. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹⁰⁻¹¹He saw a widow at the town gate gathering sticks and he asked her for a drink of water {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} and some bread. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹²She said, "I don't have any bread. All I have is a little bit of flour and a little olive oil. With these sticks I'm going home to cook a last meal for my son and me, and then we'll die from starvation." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹³Elijah said, "Here's my suggestion. Bake me some bread first and give it to me. Then bake some for you and your son. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹⁴The LORD, the God of Israel, will see that you have plenty of flour and oil until He sends rain for the crops." {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} 15She did as he said, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and she and her son had plenty of food for a long time. {49 Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹⁶As the LORD promised, she did not run out of flour and oil. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

¹⁷Later her son got sick and kept getting worse and finally died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁸She said to Elijah, "What have you done to me? Have you caused my son to die as punishment for my sins?" {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} ¹⁹Elijah took her son upstairs, {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} ²⁰and he prayed, "LORD my God, why did you let this woman's son die?" {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ²¹He stretched himself over the boy three times and asked the Lord to bring the boy back to life. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ²²The LORD answered Elijah's prayer, and the boy came back to life. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ²³Then Elijah carried the boy downstairs, gave him to his mother, and said, "Your son is alive." {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} ²⁴The woman said to Elijah, "Now I know you are prophet of God and that the LORD speaks through you." {89 Convergence-Faith Praying, 1 Cor. 13:2}

Lord, help me look only to You when I pray, and not keep my eye on surrounding circumstances. I will pray according to Your Word, not according to pressures around me. I will not look to the stock market, nor to jobs to provide for my needs. I look to You. Yet, I'll not be lazy and refuse to work. Teach me faith's balance—to trust You to supply my needs as I work daily at the jobs You give me. Amen.

I Kings 18 Elijah Confronts King Ahab

¹Three years after the drought began, God told Elijah to go tell Ahab He would soon send rain again. {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} ²So Elijah did. The famine was very serious in Samaria. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ³Obadiah, who worshiped the Lord, was in charge of Ahab's palace. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ⁴When

Jezebel was trying to kill the LORD's prophets, he hid 100 of them in two caves and gave them food and water. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ⁵Ahab told Obadiah to look for some grass for his horses and mules so they wouldn't have to kill them. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} ⁶Obadiah went in one direction, and Ahab in another. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

⁷Obadiah saw Elijah, bowed to the ground before him and said, "Is that really you, Elijah?" {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} 8"Yes," Elijah replied. "Go tell Ahab I am here." 9Obadiah said, "But if I do that, he'll kill me. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ¹⁰He has been looking everywhere for you, and if anyone said he wasn't there, Ahab made them swear you weren't. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} ¹¹So suppose I go tell him I saw you {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} 12and then the LORD takes you someplace else. If he can't find you, he'll kill me. I have served the LORD all my life, {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} 13and I risked my life by hiding 100 prophets in two caves to keep them safe from Jezebel. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 14And now you want me to tell Ahab you are here? If I do, he'll kill me." {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

¹⁵Elijah said, "I serve the LORD of the Heavens, and I will go see Ahab today." {115 Difference-Making Prayer, Jude 22} ¹⁶So Obadiah told Ahab that he had seen Elijah, {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} and Ahab went to meet him. ¹⁷Ahab said, "Is it really you, you troublemaker?" {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ¹⁸Elijah replied, "I'm not a troublemaker; you are. You have disobeyed the Lord by worshiping the false god Baal. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ¹⁹Here's a suggestion: Have all the people of Israel meet me on Mount Carmel, with 450 prophets of Baal and 400 prophets of Asherah, who are supported by Jezebel." {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23}

²⁰So Ahab did. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ²¹And Elijah said to the people and the false prophets, "How long will you try to worship the true God and false gods too? If the LORD is God, follow Him. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} But if Baal is god, follow him." But the people said nothing. ²²Then Elijah said, "I am the LORD's only prophet, but Baal has 450. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²³Bring two bulls, and the Baal prophets can choose one and cut it up and put the pieces on the wood on an altar, but don't light the fire. I will cut up the other bull and put it on the wood of my altar without lighting a fire. {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24} ²⁴Then you pray to your god, and I'll pray to mine. And the one who starts a fire is the true god." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} They agreed to this plan. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15}

²⁵Elijah told the prophets of Baal to go first because there were more of them. ²⁶So they cut up their bull and shouted their prayers to Baal all morning, dancing wildly around the altar. But there was no answer. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer,

Isa. 59:1, 2} ²⁷At noon Elijah began making fun of them. "Pray louder, "he said. "Baal may be thinking of other things or relieving himself. Or maybe he's away on a trip or is asleep." {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ²⁸So they shouted louder and cut themselves with swords and knives. ²⁹They kept doing this all afternoon, but there was no answer at all. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4}

³⁰Then Elijah asked the people to gather around him as he repaired the LORD's altar, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³¹⁻³²using 12 stones representing Israel's 12 tribes. He dug a trench around the altar to hold about three gallons. {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24} ³³Then he piled wood on the altar, cut the bull into pieces, and put the pieces on the wood. Then he told the people to fill four large jars with water and pour it on the offering and the wood. After they did this, {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} 34he said, "Do it again." Then he said, "Do it a third time." ³⁵The water ran down the altar and filled the trench. {222 Hindrances to Prayer (See Blocked-Prayer, and Various "No" Answers to Prayer)}

³⁶When it was time for the evening sacrifices, Elijah prayed, "O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} show that You are the true God and that I am Your servant. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} ³⁷Please answer me, O LORD, so that these people will know that You are the true God and that {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} You are turning their hearts back to You."

³⁸The Lord immediately sent fire, and it burned up the sacrifice, the wood, and the stones. It scorched the ground around the altar and dried up the water in the trench. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³⁹Seeing this, the people bowed down and shouted, "The LORD is God. The LORD is God." {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ⁴⁰Then Elijah told the people to catch all 450 prophets of Baal. They did, and Elijah took them down to the Kishon Valley and killed all of them there. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁴¹Elijah told Ahab to go get something to eat and drink because a rainstorm is coming. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 42So Ahab left, but Elijah climbed back on Mount Carmel and prayed. {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} 43When he told his servant to look toward the sea, his servant looked but he said he didn't see anything. Elijah told him seven times to look, and each time the servant saw nothing. {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14} 44Finally the seventh time the servant said, "I see a small cloud {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24} no bigger than a man's hand." Then Elijah shouted, "Hurry and tell Ahab to get into his chariot and go home before the rain stops him." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

⁴⁵Soon the sky was black with clouds, and it was windy, and a heavy rain poured down as Ahab was driving back to Jezreel. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ⁴⁶Elijah tucked his coat into his belt and he ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel, a distance of about 25 miles. {360 Power-Seeking Prayer, Matt. 9:8}

Lord, I know there is nothing in false religion, and prayers to false gods are not answered. You, Lord, are the only God. I will stand for You, no matter what other believers do. Even if no one stands with me, I will stand alone. Amen.

I Kings 19 Elijah Runs Away to Mount Horeb

¹When Ahab told Jezebel what Elijah had done {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} on Mount Carmel and that he had killed the 450 Baal prophets, 2she sent him a message saying, "Tomorrow I'll kill you." {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} 3Elijah was afraid, and so he went south {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} to Beersheba. 4Leaving his servant there, he walked another whole day, {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} sat down under a tree, and prayed to die. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} He said, "Take my life. I'm no better than my ancestors." 5He lay down in the shade and went to sleep. An angel woke him up and told him to eat. 6So he ate some baked bread that was by his head and he drank some water, and went back to sleep. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} ⁷The angel woke him up again and told him to eat some more because he would need strength for his long trip. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

⁸So Elijah got up and ate and drank again. That gave him strength to travel 40 days to Mount Horeb (Sinai), the mountain of God, {132 Elijah Fast and Prayer, 1 Kings 19:4-16} and he slept in a cave there. Then the LORD asked him, "Why are you here, Elijah?" {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} He answered, "I have served You, the LORD of the Heavens, enthusiastically, but the Israelites have not kept their agreement with You. They have torn down Your altars and killed Your prophets, and I'm the only one left. And now they want to kill me." {251 Interchange with God, Gen. 18:23-33}

¹¹The LORD said, "Go stand before me on the mountain." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} As Elijah stood there, a windstorm hit the mountain causing a landslide and an earthquake. But the Lord was not in the wind. 12Then there was a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire either. Then Elijah heard a soft whisper, {437 Silent-Worship Prayer, Rev. 8:1} ¹³and he covered his face with his cloak {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} and stood at the cave's entrance. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} He heard a voice ask, "Why are you here, Elijah?" {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7} ¹⁴He said, as he had said before, "I have served You, the LORD of the Heavens, enthusiastically, {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} but the Israelites have not kept their agreement with You. They have torn down Your altars and killed Your prophets, and I'm the only one left. And now they want to kill me." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

¹⁵The Lord told him, "Elijah, go back the way you came and keep going till you get to the Damascus desert. There I want you to appoint Hazael king of Syria, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹⁶and anoint Jehu son of Nimshi king of Israel. Also have Elisha son of Shaphat to be My prophet in your place. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ¹⁷Jehu will kill anyone who escapes from Hazael, and anyone who escapes from Jehu will be killed by Elisha. ¹⁸I have 7,000 in Israel who have not worshiped Baal {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} by bowing to him and kissing him." {125 Divine-Purity Praying, 2 Peter 1:3}

¹⁹Elijah found Elisha plowing a field with two oxen. Ahead of him were 11 farmers each with a pair of oxen, and Elisha had the 12th pair. Elijah went over to Elisha and threw his cloak over him. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ²⁰Elisha left his oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "I'll go kiss my parents good-bye, and then I'll go with you." Elijah said, "Okay, but don't forget what I have done to you." {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62}

²¹So Elisha left and then came back and killed his oxen. He used the wood from his plow to make a fire. He cooked the meat and shared it with the other plowmen. Then he left with Elijah and became his assistant. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

Lord, help me realize I need food and rest to be physically strong so I can remain spiritually strong. I will look after the needs of my body. Keep me from discouragement and despondency. Help me look at everything in life through Your eyes, not through my eyes. Keep me from doubt and fear. I confess my sin of feeling sorry for myself. I look at my problem rather than looking to You and searching for Your solutions to my predicament. I will listen for Your whisper. Come to me in the darkness of my lonely night and speak to me in quietness. Lord, when I'm seeking answers from You, speak. Amen.

I Kings 20 Syria and Israel at War

¹Ben-Hadad II, king of Syria, called his soldiers together, and 32 kings with their chariots and horses joined him and marched against Samaria, Israel's capital. {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} ²Ben-Hadad sent this message to King Ahab: ³"Give me your gold and silver and your best wives and children." ⁴Ahab replied, "Okay, all I have is yours."

⁵Ben-Hadad sent another messenger to Ahab: "Besides your giving me your gold, silver, wives, and children, {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} ⁶my officials will search your palace and your people's homes, and take whatever is valuable." {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} ⁷Then Ahab called a meeting of the elders and said, "Ben-Hadad is causing trouble. I agreed when he said he wanted my wives and children and gold and silver." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁸The elders and the people said, "Don't give in to his demands."

°So Ahab told the messengers of Ben-Hadad that he couldn't meet their demands. {216 Heavy-Prayer, Matt. 11:28:30} ¹⁰Then Ben-Hadad said, "I'll completely destroy Samaria. There won't even be enough dust for each of my soldiers to have a handful." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹¹Ahab told the messengers, "Don't brag about winning a battle before you've even begun to fight." {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ¹²When Ben-Hadad heard this, he and the 32 kings were drinking in their tents. So he said, "Get ready to attack Samaria." {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8}

13 Just then a prophet told Ahab, "Look at all these enemy soldiers. The LORD will help you defeat them, and then you will know that I am the LORD." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 14 Ahab asked, "How will this be done?" And the prophet said, "The young officers of the district governors will do it." When Ahab asked, "Who will lead them in battle?" the prophet answered, "You will." {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

¹⁵So Ahab called together the 232 young soldiers and the 7,000 troops. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8} ¹⁶At noon Ahab and the 32 kings with him were getting drunk, {442 Sober-Praying, Prov. 23:31} ¹⁷but the young officers marched out of the city. Ben-Hadad's scouts told him some troops were coming from Samaria. ¹⁸Ben-Hadad said, "Capture them, whether they have come to fight or surrender." {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1}

¹⁹The young officers led Israel's troops into battle, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁰and each Israelite killed an enemy soldier. Then the rest of the Syrian army ran, and the Israelites went after them. But Ben-Hadad and a few others escaped on horses. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²¹The Israelite soldiers destroyed most of the Syrian chariots and killed their horses, and many Syrians were killed. {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7} ²²Later the prophet told Ahab to be ready for another attack by the Syrians next year. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

²³Ben-Hadad's officers told him, "The Israelite gods are gods of the hills. That's why Israel's army defeated us. But if we fight them on the plains, we will win. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁴So next time get rid of the 32 kings and put commanders in their places. ²⁵Get the same number of horses, chariots, and soldiers, and if we fight them on the plains, we will win." So Ben-Hadad did as they suggested. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

²⁶In the spring Ben-Hadad led his army against Israel at Aphek. ²⁷The Israelites prepared to fight, but their small number made them look like two flocks of goats compared with the Syrian soldiers who filled the countryside. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ²⁸The prophet said to Ahab, "The Syrians think the LORD is a God of the hills and not the plains. But God will help you defeat their vast army, and then you will know that He is the LORD." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

²⁹The two armies faced each other for a week. Then on the seventh day the Israelites killed 100,000 Syrian soldiers in that one day. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³⁰The other Syrian soldiers ran to Aphek, but the city wall collapsed and killed another 27,000 Syrians. Ben-Hadad ran to the city and hid in a back room of a house. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³¹Ben-Hadad's officers said to him, "We've heard that the Israelite kings are kind. So let's put coarse cloth around our waists and ropes around our heads, and ask Ahab to let us live." {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} 32So they did that and said to Ahab, "Your servant Ben-Hadad asks you to let him live." {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} Ahab asked, "Is he still alive? He is my brother." ³³Glad to hear him say Ben-Hadad was his brother, {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} they said, "Yes, you two are like brothers." Then Ahab said, "Bring him here." When Ben-Hadad arrived, Ahab had him get into his chariot with him. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ³⁴Ben-Hadad said, "I'll give back to you the towns my father captured from your father, and you can set up shops in Damascus as my father did in Samaria." Ahab said, "Okay. If you will do this, I will set you free." {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

³⁵Then a prophet told a man nearby to hit him. But the man refused. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ³⁶So the prophet said, "You disobeyed the LORD, and so as soon as you walk off a lion will kill you." And as he left, a lion attacked and killed him. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³⁷Then the prophet asked another person to beat him up, and the man did. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ³⁸The prophet placed a bandage over his eyes to disguise himself, and he stood by the road, waiting for Ahab. {345 Patience-Prayer, James 5:7-8} ³⁹The prophet said to the king, "I went into battle, and someone brought a prisoner to me and told me to guard him. He said if the prisoner gets away, I would be killed or I would have to pay 75 pounds of silver. ⁴⁰When I was busy doing something else, the prisoner got away." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁴¹The prophet pulled the bandage off his eyes, and Ahab saw he was a prophet. ⁴²He said to Ahab, "The LORD told you to kill Ben-Hadad, but you let him go. Therefore you, not Ben-Hadad, will die and your people, not his, will die." {176 Frailty-Confession Prayer, Ps. 90:12} ⁴³Ahab then went back to his palace in Samaria, depressed and angry. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Lord, You are my strength and wisdom. I know I win battles in Your strength and with Your guidance. Thank You for Your presence in my life. I do not boast in myself, I glory in Your protection. Amen.

I Kings 21 The Vineyard of Naboth

¹Naboth owned a vineyard near King Ahab's palace in Jezreel. ²Ahab said to Naboth, "I would like to buy your vineyard and use it as a vegetable garden since it's so close to my palace. I'll give you a better vineyard or pay you cash for yours." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ³Naboth responded, "No way. This vineyard has been in my family for years. I won't sell it or trade it." {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 4Ahab went home, depressed and angry, and he lay on his couch in a bad mood, and wouldn't eat. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ⁵Jezebel said, "What's wrong? Why don't you eat something?" {459 Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9} 6Ahab said, "I asked Naboth to sell me his vineyard or trade it, and he refused." {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

⁷Jezebel said, "But you are Israel's king. So get up and eat, and I'll get his vineyard for you." {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ⁸Jezebel then wrote letters in Ahab's name and sent them to the leaders of Jezreel. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ⁹The letters said, "Have everyone come together and not eat anything. Put Naboth in a central place. ¹⁰Then have two rascals accuse him of cursing God and the king. Then take him outside and stone him to death." {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10}

¹¹Then the leaders in Jezreel did what Jezebel said. {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} ¹²They told the people not to eat anything that day. They put Naboth in a central place, ¹³and two rascals sat opposite him and accused him of cursing God and the king. Then they took him outside and stoned him to death. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁴The leaders sent word to Jezebel that Naboth was dead. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ¹⁵When she got this message, she told Ahab, "You can now have Naboth's vineyard. He is dead." {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} ¹⁶So Ahab got up and took over the vineyard. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

¹⁷The LORD then told Elijah ¹⁸to go to Ahab, who was in Naboth's vineyard, ¹⁹and to say to him, "You have murdered a man and stolen his property. And so in this very place where dogs licked his blood, they will lick your blood." {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ²⁰Ahab said, "So you, my enemy, have found me." "Yes, I have. You have done everything sinful before the LORD. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ²¹So every male in your family will die, whether slave or free. ²²You have made Me angry {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} by sinning and causing Israel to sin, so your whole family will be wiped out just like the families of Jeroboam and Baasha. 23 And dogs will eat Jezebel's body in Jezreel. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ²⁴Dogs will eat the bodies of your relatives who die in the city, and birds will eat the bodies of those who die in the country." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

²⁵No one was as sinful as Ahab, and his wife Jezebel influenced him to do all kinds of evil. ²⁶He was especially sinful in worshiping idols, {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} just as the Amorites had done before the Lord forced them out of the land. ²⁷In grief Ahab tore his clothes, {55 Brokenness-Prayer, Joel 2:12} put on coarse clothing, and refused to eat. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²⁸Later the LORD said to Elijah, ²⁹"I'm sure you've seen how Ahab is sorry. Therefore I won't punish his family while he is alive. I will destroy his descendants." {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

Lord, You are my strength and wisdom. I know I win battles in Your strength and with Your guidance. Thank You for Your presence in my life. I do not boast in myself; I glory in Your protection. Amen.

I Kings 22 The Prophet Micaiah Predicts Ahab's Defeat

¹For three years there was peace between Israel and Syria. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²During the third year Jehoshaphat king of Judah went to visit Ahab. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ³Ahab said to his officials, "You know that the Syrians took Ramoth-Gilead from us, and yet we haven't done anything about it." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁴Then he asked Jehoshaphat to go with him to Ramoth {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} and attack the Syrians. ⁵Jehoshaphat said, "Sure. We can join forces. But first let's ask the LORD." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

"Yes. The LORD will help you." {505 Unbiblical-Prayer, James 4:3} 7But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there a prophet of the LORD? I'd like to ask him." {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} 8Ahab said, "Well, Micaiah son of Imlah is a prophet, but I hate him. He's always giving me bad news." Jehoshaphat said, "Don't talk like that. Let's see what he says." {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} 9So Ahab had an official bring Micaiah. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

¹⁰Ahab and Jehoshaphat, dressed in their royal robes, were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor by the Samaria city gate, and the prophets were prophesying to the kings. {422 satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} 11Zedekiah, one of the prophets, made horns out of iron and said, "Ahab will destroy the Syrians like a bull killing people with its horns." {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ¹²All the other prophets predicted victory for Ahab too. "Attack Ramoth-Gilead and you will defeat the Syrians." {422 satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} ¹³The man who went to get Micaiah told him that all these other prophets were predicting victory over the Syrians, and that Micaiah should say the same thing. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 14But Micaiah said, "I can say only what the Lord tells me to say." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁵Ahab then asked him if he should go attack the Syrians at Ramoth. Micaiah answered, "Yes. And the LORD will give you victory." {421 Sarcastic-Worship, John 19:2-3} 16But Ahab said, "How many times have I told you to tell me the truth? What did the LORD really say?" {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁷Micaiah responded, "I saw Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd. Since they have no leaders, they should all go home." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

¹⁸Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "I told you he would give us bad news." {222 Hindrances to Prayer (See Blocked-Prayer, and Various "No" Answers to Prayer)} ¹⁹Then Micaiah added, "I saw the LORD seated on his throne in heaven with all the armies of heaven around him. And the 20LORD said, 'Who can trick Ahab into going into battle {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} so he can be killed there?' They talked about it for a while, 21 and then a spirit said, 'I will trick him.' When the LORD asked 'How?' {422 satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} ²²the spirit said, 'I'll cause a spirit to lie to the prophets.' {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} The LORD replied, 'Okay, go ahead.'" ²³Then Micaiah said, "Ahab, the Lord has made your prophets lie to you, and you will be defeated." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁴Zedekiah walked up to Micaiah and slapped him in the face, and said, "What makes you think the LORD left me to speak to you?" {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁵Micaiah said, "You'll find out when you are hiding for safety in a back room of a house." ²⁶Ahab shouted, "Arrest Micaiah. And take him to Joash, Jehoshaphat's son, and to Amon, the mayor of Samaria. ²⁷Put him in prison, and give him only bread and water until I get back to Samaria." {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ²⁸Micaiah said, "If you come back, then the Lord didn't speak through me." Then he told the people, "Remember what I said." {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18}

²⁹Ahab and Jehoshaphat went to fight against Ramoth-Gilead. ³⁰Ahab suggested that Jehoshaphat wear his royal robes and that he, Ahab, disguise himself. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ³¹The king of Syria told his 32 chariot commanders to attack only Ahab. ³²When they saw Jehoshaphat in his royal robe, they thought he was Ahab. When they started to attack him, he shouted. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ³³So the chariot commanders stopped chasing him.

³⁴A soldier shot an arrow at Ahab's troops, and it hit Ahab between the joints of his armor. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} He told his chariot driver, "I've been hit. Get me out of here." {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} 35 The battle continued on all day, and Ahab was propped up in his chariot so he could see the battle. The blood from his wound covered the bottom of the chariot, and that evening he died. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} ³⁶At sunset someone shouted, "Go home. The king is dead." {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ³⁷Ahab was buried in Samaria. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 38They washed his chariot at a pool in Samaria, and the dogs licked his blood just as God had predicted. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ³⁹The other events in Ahab's reign, including the towns he rebuilt and the palace he built using lots of ivory, are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. ⁴⁰Ahaziah, Ahab's son, became the next king. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

⁴¹When Ahab had ruled for four years, Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king of Judah. ⁴²He was 35 years old and ruled from Jerusalem for 25 years. His mother was Azubah, daughter of Shilhi. ⁴³Jehoshaphat obeyed the LORD as his father Asa had done, and he did what pleased the LORD. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} However, he did not remove the hill-top shrines, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ⁴⁴During his reign he was at peace with the king of Israel. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

⁴⁵The events of Jehoshaphat's reign and his military victories are written in the book of the kings of Judah. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 46He got rid of the male shrine prostitutes who were still there in his father Asa's reign. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ⁴⁷Edom had no king at the time, so a deputy ruled. 48 Jehoshaphat built seagoing vessels to sail to Ophir for gold. But they were wrecked at Ezion-Geber. ⁴⁹Ahab's son Ahaziah suggested that his sailors sail with Jehoshaphat's sailors, but Jehoshaphat refused. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} 50Jehoshaphat died {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. And Jehoram his son was the next king of Judah. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

⁵¹Ahab's son Ahaziah became king of Israel in Jehoshaphat's 17th year as king of Judah. And Ahaziah reigned for two years. ⁵²He disobeyed the LORD, just as Ahab, Jezebel, and Jeroboam had done and led Israel to sin. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁵³He worshiped Baal {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} and made the LORD very angry just as his father Ahab had done.

Lord, there are false prophets in my world, just as false prophets deceived King Ahab. I will judge them by the Word of God. Not every preacher who claims to be a Christian actually speaks the truth. Help me see things from Your perspective of time. While You wait patiently to judge sin, I'm impatient. Lord, open my eyes to see as You see. Amen.

2 KINGS

CH 1: ELIJAH PREDICTS DEATH OF KING AHAZIAH 515
CH 2: ELIJAH TAKEN UP TO HEAVEN516
CH 3: MOAB REBELS AGAINST ISRAEL517
Ch 4: Elisha Helps a Widow519
CH 5: NAAMAN CURED OF LEPROSY521
CH 6: AN IRON AX HEAD FLOATS522
CH 7: OPEN WINDOWS OF HEAVEN523
Ch 8: The Shunammite Woman Returns524
Ch 9: Jehu Is Privately Anointed King of Israel
526
CH 10: AHAB'S DESCENDANTS ARE KILLED527
CH 11: JOASH BECOMES KING529
CH 12: KING JOASH RULES OVER JUDAH530
CH 13: JEHOAHAZ RULES OVER ISRAEL531
CH 14: JEOBOAM II RULES OVER ISRAEL532
CH 15: UZZIAH RULES OVER JUDAH533
CH 16: AHAZ RULES OVER JUDAH535
CH 17: HOSHEA RULES OVER ISRAEL536
Ch 18: Hezekiah Rules over Judah538
Ch 19: King Hezekiah Seeks Avdvice from Isaiah540
CH 20: THE LORD HEALS KING HEZEKIAH541
CH 21: MANASSEH RULES OVER JUDAH542

CH 22: JOSIAH RULES OVER JUDAH	544
CH 23: KING JOSIAH ENFORCES GOD'S LAWS	545
Ch 24: Jehoiakim Rules over Judah	547
CH 25: THE FALL OF JERUSALEM	548

2 KINGS

Key Words: Babylon Captivity (2 Kings 24:15)

Key Verse: "And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon" (24:15).

Theme: This book records two great tragedies as the result of God's people who disobeyed Him and polluted themselves with idols. First, in 723 B.C. the northern kingdom of Israel fell to Assyria and was carried away in slavery. Second, in 586 B.C. the southern kingdom of Judah fell to Babylon, Jerusalem was destroyed and the people were carried away in slavery.

This book emphasizes the ministry of Elijah and Elisha (plus warnings from other prophets) to the northern kingdom. It also contains the ministry of Isaiah and Jeremiah (plus warnings from other prophets) to the southern kingdom. The lesson is obvious; when people turn away from God to give themselves to sin; they end up in slavery to sin. Lord, I want to be Your slave; keep me from addictive slavery of sin. Amen.

2 Kings 1 Elijah Predicts Death of King Ahaziah

Ahab died, the country of Moab rebelled against his son Ahaziah. ²Ahaziah had fallen from an upstairs room of his palace and was badly injured. So he sent messengers to Ekron to ask the god Baal-Zebub if he would get well. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ³The angel of the LORD told Elijah to meet these messengers and ask them, "Why are you going to Baal-Zebub instead of trusting the LORD? ⁴Because the king has done this, he will die." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁵When the messengers went back to Ahaziah, he was surprised they were back so soon. ⁶They said, "A man met us on the road and told us that because you are going to Baal-Zebub, {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2} you will soon die." ⁷The king asked, "What did he look like?" ⁸They replied, "He was hairy and was wearing a leather belt." The king said, "That was Elijah!"

⁹Then Ahaziah sent 50 men with a captain to arrest Elijah. {491 Trial-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7} Finding Elijah sitting on a hilltop, the captain ordered him to go with them to see the king. 10 Elijah responded, "If I am a man of God, fire will come from heaven on you and your 50 men." Then lightning killed them all. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 11So the king sent another 50 men and a captain to arrest Elijah. 12 Again Elijah said, "If I am a man of God, fire will come from heaven on you and your 50 men." Again lightning killed them all. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹³A third time Ahaziah sent 50 men and a captain. But the captain begged Elijah to spare their lives. {464 Striving-Prayer, Rom. 15:30} 14"Please don't destroy us," he said. 15The angel of the LORD then told Elijah to go with them to see the king. So he did. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10}

¹⁶Elijah asked Ahaziah, "Why did you send messengers to Baal-Zebub to ask about your injury? Why didn't you ask the God of Israel? Because you did this, the LORD said you will die." ¹⁷Then Ahaziah died, just as the LORD had said. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Since Ahaziah did not have a son to be the next king, his brother Jehoram became the king. This was in the second year of the reign of Jehoram, son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah. ¹⁸The other events of Ahaziah's reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel.

Lord, if I'm spiritually blinded to anything like an idol in my life, please reveal it to me.

I will repent and put it out of my life. I will worship You alone. I will follow and serve You alone. Amen.

2 Kings 2 Elijah Taken Up to Heaven

¹The LORD was soon going to take Elijah to heaven in a strong wind. ²Leaving Gilgal, Elijah told Elisha, "Why don't you stay here {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} while I going on to Bethel?" Elisha said, "I prefer to stay with you no matter what." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} So they went together to Bethel. ³Some prophets at Bethel asked Elisha, "Did you know that the Lord will take Elijah from you today?" Elisha replied, "Of course. But I don't want to talk about it." 4Then Elijah said, to Elisha, "Why don't you stay here in Bethel while I go on to Jericho?" Elisha replied, "I prefer to stay with you no matter what." So they went together to Jericho. 5Then some prophets in Jericho asked Elisha, "Did you know that the LORD will take Elijah from you today?" {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} Elisha replied, "Of course. But I don't want to talk about it."

⁶Then Elijah said to Elisha, "Why don't you stay here in Jericho while I go on to the Jordan River?" Elisha replied, "I prefer to stay with you no matter what." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} So they went on to the river. ⁷As 50 prophets watched from a distance ⁸Elijah hit the water with his cloak, and the river divided, and the two of them walked across on dry ground. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ⁹On the other side Elijah said to Elisha, "Can I do something for you before I am taken away?" Elisha replied, "Yes, let me have twice as much power as you have." {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} 10"That's a difficult request. But it will happen if you see me as I am taken away." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ¹¹As they were walking along and talking, a fiery chariot pulled by horses of fire suddenly appeared between them. 12Elisha saw this and shouted, "Israel's chariots have taken my master away." Then he tore his clothes in grief. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ¹³He picked up Elijah's cloak ¹⁴and hit the bank of the Jordan River with it, as Elijah had done. Wondering if Elijah's God would be with him, Elisha saw that the river divided, and he went across on dry ground. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18}

¹⁵When the prophets of Jericho saw this, they said, "Yes, Elisha has Elijah's power." They bowed down before him in respect, ¹⁶and they said, "Fifty of us will be glad to go hunt for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD carried him off to some mountain or valley." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} Elisha said, "No. There's no need to do that." ¹⁷They kept urging him to let them send 50 prophets to hunt for Elijah. So finally he said, "Okay, go ahead." The 50 look for three days and couldn't find him. 18When they got back to Jericho, Elisha told them, "I told you not to go look for him." {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6}

¹⁹One day some city officials of Jericho told Elisha, "We have a problem. Our city is in a nice location, but the water is bad and so we have no crops." ²⁰Elisha said, "Bring me a new bowl filled with salt," and they did. ²¹Then he threw the salt into the city well, and said, "The LORD has made the water good again. Now crops will grow." ²²The water was fine ever since then. {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6}

²³As he was walking from Jericho to Bethel, some young boys began making fun of him because of his bald head. {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2} ²⁴He looked at them and cursed them in the name of the LORD. Just then two bears came out of the woods and killed 42 of the boys. ²⁵Then Elisha went to Mount Carmel and then to Samaria.

Lord, I want to experience Your presence when You manifest Yourself among Your people. Since I don't know what will happen, I'll always be in church because You command it (Heb. 10:25) and You promise to be there (Matt. 18:20). I want to have the faith of Elisha—give me a double portion. I will pay the price. Amen.

2 Kings 3 Moab Rebels against Israel

¹Ahab's son Jehoram began reigning over Israel in the 18th year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. He ruled for 12 years in Samaria. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²He was evil, but not as bad as his parents. For one thing he tore down the stone column to Baal that his father made. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³But he kept doing the sinful things Jeroboam son of Nebat had done.

⁴King Mesha of Moab and his people raised sheep, and as a subject of Israel he had to pay Israel 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams. ⁵But after Ahab died, Mesha rebelled against Israel. ⁶So Jehoram got his army together. ⁷And he sent his message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah: "Moab has rebelled against us. I need your help to defeat him." Jehoshaphat agreed {9 Agree-Bless Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ⁸and said, "But which way should we go?" {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} Jehoram said, "Let's go through the Edom Desert south of the Dead Sea."

⁹The king of Edom joined them, and all three armies traveled in a roundabout way for a week. Then the soldiers had no more water for themselves or their animals. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} 10Jehoram said, "What can we do? Has the LORD brought us here to be captured by Moab's army?" {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ¹¹Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there a prophet of the LORD here so we can ask him what to do?" {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} One of Jehoram's officers said, "Elisha, Elijah's assistant, is here. You could ask him." ¹²Jehoshaphat said, "Yes, he can tell us what to do." So the three kings went to see him. 13But Elisha said to Jehoram, "Don't ask me. Go ask the false prophets of your parents." Jehoram replied, "I can't do that because the LORD has brought us here, so we need His help."

¹⁴Elisha said, "I wouldn't have anything to do with you except for the fact that Jehoshaphat is here. 15So bring to me someone who can play the harp." {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} As the harp was being played, this message came to Elisha: ¹⁶"Dig a number of ditches in this valley. ¹⁷You won't hear any wind or see any rain, but this valley will be filled with water, plenty for you and your animals. {531 Well-Digging Prayer, Ps. 84:6} 18 This is an easy thing for the LORD to do. Greater than that is the fact that He will help you defeat Moab's army. 19 You will conquer the best of their cities. You will chop down every good tree, stop up all their springs, and cover their fields with stones." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²⁰Then next day at the time of the morning sacrifice, water began flowing from Edom toward Moab and water was everywhere. {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} ²¹The Moabites had heard that three armies were coming against them, so everyone who could fight was stationed at the border. ²²When they got up next morning the sun shining on all the water made it look red. ²³The Moabites looked and shouted, "Blood! Those kings must have killed each other. Let's go take what's left in their camps." {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

²⁴When the Moabites got to the Israelite camp, the Israelites attacked them and they turned and ran. The Israelites chased the Moabite soldiers all the way back to Moab. ²⁵They destroyed their towns, tossed stones in their fields, stopped up their springs, and chopped down every good tree. The only city left standing was Kir-Hareseth, but the soldiers with slings surrounded it and defeated it too. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²⁶King Mesha of Moab saw that he was almost defeated. So he took 700 soldiers with swords to break through the enemy line next to the king of Edom, but they failed. ²⁷Then he offered his son as a sacrifice on the city wall, where everyone could see it. The Israelites were so horrified they left and went home.

Lord, give me Your eyes to see my problems. Lord, give me faith to obey Your commands. Lord, give me courage to "dig holes." And help me do it quickly before the water passes me by. Amen.

2 Kings 4 Elisah Helps a Widow

¹One day the widow of one of Elisha's prophets said to Elisha, "As you know, my husband who served you and the LORD is dead. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} He owed a man some money, and now that man says he'll take my two sons as slaves." ²"How can I help you?" Elisha asked. "What food do you have?" She said, "I have only a little bit of olive oil." ³Elisha said, "Borrow a lot of empty jars from your neighbors. {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} ⁴Then pour your olive oil into one jar, and it will fill up. Then keep doing this with all the jars you have." ⁵So she did this, and as each jar was filled, she told her sons to bring her another jar. ⁶When all the jars were filled, the oil stopped flowing. {356 Possibility-Praying, Mark 9:23} ⁷When she told Elisha what happened, he said, "Sell the oil and pay what you owe to the man. And you and your sons can live on the money left over."

Lord, give me faith to provide things I must provide as the widow had to provide empty vessels. Continue the flow of oil in my life. Amen.

⁸One day when Elisha was in Shunem a rich woman invited him to dinner. Then whenever he was there in town, he stopped at her place for a meal. The woman said to her husband, "Since he is obviously a prophet, 10 we should make a small room for him on our flat roof, and put in it a bed, table, chair, and lamp. Then he can stay overnight whenever he's in town." {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹¹One day when Elisha was staying in this room, ¹²he told his servant Gehazi to have the woman come up to see him. ¹³Gehazi said to her, "We appreciate your kindness. Now what can we do for you? Can we put in a good word for you to the king or the army general?" She replied, "No, I don't need anything." 14Elisha then asked Gehazi, "What do you suggest we do for her?" He said, "Her husband is old, and I know she doesn't have a son."

¹⁵Elisha then asked her to come back, and as she stood in the doorway, he said, ¹⁶"Next year at this time you'll be holding your baby boy in your arms."

{34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} She objected, "No. Please don't lie to me." ¹⁷Soon she became pregnant and she gave birth to a son, as Elisha had said. 18One day when her child was older, he went to a field to see his father who was harvesting crops. ¹⁹Suddenly he said, "My head hurts." {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4\ 20A servant took him home, and about noon the boy died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²¹His mother put him in Elisha's bed, ²²and then she sent a message to tell her husband, "Send me a donkey so I and a servant can go see the prophet." 23He asked, "Why today? It's not the new moon festival or a Sabbath." She said, "That's not the problem."

²⁴So she saddled the donkey and told the servant, "Hurry. Don't slow down unless I tell you to." ²⁵Elisha was at Mount Carmel, and when he saw the woman coming, he told Gehazi {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} to ²⁶run and ask her if she, her husband, and son are okay. She responded, "Yes, everyone is fine." ²⁷But when she got to Elisha, she grabbed his feet. When Gehazi started to push her away, Elisha said, "Don't. Something is bothering her, but I don't know what it is." {50 Blind-Prayer, John 11:22}

²⁸She said to Elisha, "I told you not to get my hopes up. Remember, I didn't even ask for a son." ²⁹Sensing something was wrong with her son, Elisha told Gehazi to hurry and put his (Elisha's) rod on the boy's face." ³⁰But the woman said to Elisha, "Please come with me." So he did. ³¹Gehazi went on ahead and put Elisha's rod on the boy's face, but there was no response. Gehazi ran back to Elisha and said, "The boy is still dead." {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ³²Elisha saw the boy lying on his bed. ³³He shut the door so he could be by himself and the boy, and he prayed for the boy. ³⁴Then he stretched out on the boy's body, put his mouth to the boy's mouth, his eyes on the boy's eyes, and his hands on the boy's hands. And the boy's body became warm. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

³⁵Elisha walked back and forth, and he stretched out on the boy again. This time the boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³⁶"Call the boy's mother," Elisha said to Gehazi. When she came in, Elisha said, "Here is your son." ³⁷She bowed down at Elisha's feet and then took the boy downstairs. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³⁸Later Elisha went back to Gilgal, and a famine was in the land. He told his servant to cook some stew for the prophets who were there with him. 39One of them went out to get some vegetables, and he came back with some gourds from a wild vine. He put them in the kettle, not knowing they were poisonous. 40When the men began to eat the stew, they knew it was poison, so they stopped eating it. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 41Elisha said, "Put some flour in with the stew." Then the stew was okay for them to eat. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ⁴²One day a man from Baal-Shalishah brought Elisha some grain and 20 loaves of barley bread baked from the first barley that was harvested. Elisha told him to give it to the people so they could eat. ⁴³But the man said, "This isn't enough to feed 100 people." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} Elisha responded, "Just give it to them. The Lord says there will be enough and then some." ⁴⁴And as the LORD promised, they ate and some was left over. {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20}

2 Kings 5 Naaman Cured of Leprosy

¹Naaman was the commander of the Syrian army. The king of Syria, Ben-Hadad II, appreciated him because the LORD had helped Naaman and his troops defeat their enemies. But Naaman had leprosy. ²His army had captured a young Israelite girl who became a maid for Naaman's wife. ³One day the girl told Naaman's wife, "Naaman should go to the prophet in Samaria. He could heal him."

⁴So Naaman told the king what she said. ⁵And the king responded, "Fine with me. Go ahead and I'll give you a letter of introduction to Israel's king." Naaman left with 750 pounds of silver, 150 pound of gold, and ten sets of clothing. ⁶The letter said, "I am sending my servant Naaman to you. Please heal him of his leprosy."

When the king read the letter, he tore his robes in disgust and said, "Who does he think I am? I have no power over life and death. He's just trying to get an excuse to attack us again." ⁸Elisha heard about the king's reaction, and he sent him this message: "Don't be upset. Send Naaman to me, and he'll see that there is a true prophet of God here in Israel."

⁹When Naaman arrived with his horses and chariots at Elisha's place, ¹⁰Elisha sent someone outside to tell him, "You want to be healed? Then go wash yourself seven times in the Jordan River." ¹¹This made Naaman angry. He said, "I thought he would come out and wave his hand over my leprosy and ask the LORD his God to heal me. ¹²Why couldn't I have washed in the Abana River or the Pharpar River in Syria? They are better than any river in Israel." So Naaman stormed off mad.

¹³Naaman's servants said to him, "If the prophet had told you to do something really difficult, you would have done it. So why not just do this simple thing and wash in the Jordan and be healed?" ¹⁴This persuaded Naaman, so he dipped himself seven times in the Jordan. And he was cured right away, and his skin was like that of a young child.

¹⁵Naaman then went to see Elisha, and he said to him, "Now I know that there is no god in all the world like the God of Israel. So please accept these gifts." ¹⁶Elisha said, "No, I won't take any gifts from you." Naaman kept urging him to take the gifts, but he refused. ¹⁷So Naaman said, "Okay. Then let me take home as much soil as two mules can carry. From now on I will offer sacrifices only to the LORD. ¹⁸However, I pray that the LORD will forgive me if I bow with my king to the temple of the God Rimmon." ¹⁹Elisha said, "No problem. May you have a safe trip home." So Naaman started toward home.

have accepted some of Naaman's gifts. So I will chase him and get some of those gifts for myself." 21When Naaman saw Gehazi running after him, he stopped his chariot, got out, and asked if something was wrong. ²²Gehazi said, "Everything is okay, but my master sent me to tell you that two young prophets have come from Ephraim to see him. So could you spare 75 pounds of silver and two sets of clothing for them?" ²³Naaman said, "Of course. Here are 75 pounds of silver and clothes for them." He tied the silver and two sets of clothing in two bags, and had two of his servants go back with Gehazi to take the gifts. ²⁴When Gehazi got back, he hid the silver and clothes in his house, and sent the servants away. 25When he went to see his master, Elisha asked him where he had been. "Nowhere," he replied. ²⁶But Elisha said, "Don't you realize that I was there in spirit when Naaman got off his chariot to meet you. This is not the time to receive money and clothing or anything else like olive groves, vineyards, sheep, oxen, and servants. ²⁷Because you have done this, you, your children, and your grandchildren will suffer from leprosy." When Gehazi left, his ²⁰Gehazi said to himself, "Elisha should

2 Kings 6 An Iron Ax Head Floats

skin suddenly turned white with leprosy.

¹One day some prophets said to Elisha, "The place where we meet is too small. ²We suggest we all go to the Jordan River, get logs, and build a new meeting place." Elisha said, "Good idea; go ahead." ³One of them asked Elisha to go with them, and he agreed. ⁴So they got to the Jordan River, and as they began chopping down trees, ⁵the ax head of one of the men fell into the river. He shouted, "Oh, no. I had borrowed this ax." ⁶Elisha asked him where it fell. So he showed him the place, and Elisha cut a stick and tossed it into the river at that spot. Then the ax head floated to the top, ⁷and the worker grabbed it.

⁸The Syrians and Israelites were at war. The king of Syria would check with his officers and then decide where to have their soldiers set up camp. ⁹Elisha would say to the king of Israel, "Don't go that way because the Syrians are going there." ¹⁰So the king of Israel would warn the Israelite troops to be on guard in those places. ¹¹When the Syrian king heard what was happening, he got very mad. He asked his officers, "Which of you has been telling the king of Israel our plans?" ¹²One of his men said, "It's not us. Elisha the prophet tells Israel's king everything, even what you say in your bedroom."

¹³The king said, "Go find where he is so I can send soldiers to capture him." They learned he was in Dothan, ¹⁴so one night the Syrian king sent many soldiers with chariots and horses to surround the town. ¹⁵Early the next morning Elisha's servant saw this army and said, "What shall we do?" ¹⁶Elisha responded, "No need to be afraid. More troops are on our side than are on theirs." ¹⁷Elisha prayed, "LORD, open his eyes." And when the servant looked up, he saw the hillside was covered with fiery horses and flaming chariots.

¹⁸When the Syrian army marched toward Elisha, he prayed, "Lord, make these soldiers blind." And He did. ¹⁹Then Elisha told them, "You've taken the wrong road. This isn't the right city. I'll lead you to the men you are looking for." And he led them to Samaria. ²⁰As they arrived in Samaria, Elisha asked the LORD to let them see. And the LORD did, and the soldiers saw that they were in the middle of the city of Samaria.

²¹The king of Israel asked Elisha if he should kill them, ²²and Elisha said, "No. These are like prisoners of war, and we don't kill POWS. Instead feed them and send them home." ²³So the king gave them a great feast and sent them on their way. Then for a while the Syrians stayed away from Israel.

²⁴However, sometime later King Ben-Hadad sent his army against Samaria. ²⁵As a result, the people in Samaria had nothing to eat. Things were so scarce that the head of a dead donkey sold for two pounds of silver, and a bowl of pigeon's droppings sold for about two ounces of silver.

²⁶One day the king of Israel was walking on the city wall when a woman shouted, "Help me, my king." ²⁷He said, "I can't help you. Only the LORD can. I don't have any food or wine to give you. ²⁸What's your problem?" She replied, "Another woman and I were so hungry we agreed to eat our sons. ²⁹So we cooked my son and ate him. Then the next day, when we were to kill her son, she said she had hidden him." ³⁰The king tore his clothes in despair, and people could see coarse clothing under his outer cloak. ³¹He said, "May God kill me if I don't kill Elisha today."

³²Elisha was meeting in his house with Israel's leaders when a messenger arrived. But before he arrived, Elisha said, "A man will arrive to kill me. But when he comes, shut the door tight. His master the king of Israel will come right behind him." ³³While Elisha was talking, the messenger came. Then King Joram said, "The LORD has brought this problem on us. Why should I expect any help from Him?"

2 Kings 7 Open Windows of Heaven

¹Elisha answered, "Listen to what the LORD says. By this time tomorrow you will be able to buy several quarts of flour or ten quarts of barley for only half an ounce of silver each." ²A special assistant to the king asked, "How can that be? Even if the LORD sends a rainstorm that much grain couldn't be produced tomorrow." Elisha responded, "You will see it appear, but you won't eat any of the food."

³Four men with leprosy were sitting just outside the Samaria gate. ⁴They said, "The famine is so bad that we'll die whether we stay here or go in the city. But if we surrender to the Syrians, they might kill us but then maybe they won't." ⁵So that evening they walked to the Syrian camp, but no one was there. ⁶The Syrians had heard what sounded like speeding horses and chariots and a great army. And, thinking the king of Israel had hired Hittite and Egyptian kings to attack them, ⁷they left their tents, horses, and donkeys and ran for their lives. ⁸When the men with leprosy got to the Syrian camp, they entered one tent after another eating and drinking. And they carried off clothes and silver and gold and hid them.

⁹Then the four got to thinking, "This isn't right to keep this good news to ourselves. If we wait till morning, we might be punished. So let's go to the king's palace and tell the news." ¹⁰So they went back to Samaria and told the gatekeepers what happened. They said the soldiers were gone, horses and donkeys were tied up, and no one was there. ¹¹The gatekeepers shouted the news to the people in the palace. ¹²The king got out of bed and said, "It's obvious what the Syrians have done. They are hiding in the fields, thinking we'll go there for food and then they'll attack us."

¹³One of his officers suggested scouts take five horses and see what happened. He said, "It may be risky, but we may all die anyway." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ¹⁴So they got two chariots, and the king sent them on their way. 15On the way to the Jordan River the scouts saw clothes and equipment the Syrians had thrown away as they hurried to leave. The scouts went back and told the king what they saw, {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} 16and the people in Samaria ran to the Syrian camp and took what was left. They took so much that prices went way down. As the Lord had said, half an ounce of silver would buy several quarts of flour or ten quarts of barley. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

¹⁷The king put his special assistant in charge of the gate, but he was trampled on as people ran out of the city, and he died. ¹⁸This is the man who questioned what Elisha had said about flour and barley selling for so little. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ¹⁹This officer had said those prices wouldn't happen even if the LORD sent a rainstorm. Elisha had said to him, "You will see it happen, but you won't eat any of the food." ²⁰And that is what happened because the assistant was trampled to death. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, I don't want money, but I wrongly want the joy that money gives. Give me Your joy, even if I live in poverty on this earth. Teach me satisfaction that comes from Your presence. Amen.

2 Kings 8 The Shunammite Woman Returns

¹Elisha had told the woman whose son he brought back to life, "A famine will last here for seven years. So you and your family should move away for a while." ²She moved to Philistine territory {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} and lived there seven years. ³Then she moved back to Israel and went to see the king about getting back her house and land. ⁴The king was asking Gehazi, Elisha's servant, to tell about the things Elisha had done. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ⁵Just then the woman came in with her son, and Gehazi said to the king, "This is the woman, and here is her son." {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ⁶The king asked her about this, and then he said to an official, "See that she gets back her house and land, and give her the money her crops would have made since she left Israel." {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

⁷Later Elisha went to Damascus to see Ben-Hadad II, king of Syria, who was sick. ⁸When Ben-Hadad II heard Elisha was there, he asked Hazael to take him a present and ask if the king would get well. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} So Hazael took 40 camel-loads of the best things made in Damascus. Hazael asked Elisha if Ben-Hadad would get well, 10 and Elisha said, "Yes, he will recover, but he will soon die." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹¹Elisha stared at Hazael and then started crying. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ¹²Hazael asked, "Why are you crying?" Elisha replied, "Because I know you will burn down Israel's walled cities, kill their young men, crush their babies against rocks, and rip open their pregnant women." 13Hazael said, "I'm not a dog. I would never do that." But Elisha said, "The LORD told me you will be the next king of Syria." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

¹⁴When Hazael went back, Ben-Hadad asked him what Elisha said, and Hazael said, "He told me you will get well." ¹⁵The next day Hazael soaked a thick blanket in water and held it over the king's face until he died. Then Hazael became king of Syria. ¹⁶Jehoram, Jehoshaphat's son, became king of Judah in Joram's fifth year as king of Israel. Jehoram reigned with his father

Jehoshaphat. Judah's king ¹⁷Jehoram began reigning when he was 32, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eight years. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁸He was as evil as Ahab had been in the northern kingdom, and he even married one of Ahab's daughters. ¹⁹But the Lord did not destroy Judah, because he had promised that a descendant of David would always rule in Judah.

²⁰When Jehoram was king, Edom revolted from Judah and set up their own king. ²¹Jehoram went with his cavalry to Zair, but the Edomites surrounded him. At night he tried to attack the Edomites, but his soldiers escaped. ²²Edom continued to rebel against Judah, and Libnah did the same. ²³Jehoram's other events are recorded in the books of the kings of Judah. ²⁴He died and was buried in the City of David. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} And Ahaziah his son became the next king. ²⁵When Ahaziah began to rule over Judah, Joram was in his 12th year as king of Israel.

²⁶Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} and he reigned only one year. His mother was Athaliah, grand-daughter of king Omri of Israel. ²⁷Ahaziah was an evil king, and this was no surprise because he was related to Ahab by marriage. ²⁸He joined King Joram of Israel in war against King Hazael and his Syrian troops at Ramoth-Gilead. Joram was surrounded in that battle, ²⁹and Ahaziah king of Judah went to Jezreel to see Joram.

Lord, I know You use evil men to punish Your rebellious children. Don't punish me. I repent of my rebellion. I look to You for grace. Amen.

2 Kings 9 Jehu Is Privately Anointed King of Israel

¹Elisha asked a prophet to take some olive oil, go to Ramoth-Gilead 2 and find Jehu, son of Jehoshaphat, ³and pour oil over his head {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} in a private room. "Tell him he is to be the next king of Israel. Then leave quickly." 4So the prophet went to find Jehu and told him 5he had a message for him. 6The two of them went into a house and the prophet poured oil on Jehu's head, {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} and said, "The LORD says, 'I anoint you king of Israel. ⁷you are to destroy Ahab's family. This way Jezebel will be punished for killing the prophets and my servants. 8Every male in Ahab's family will die, whether slave or free. 9I will destroy Ahab's family just as I destroyed the families of Jeroboam son of Nebat and of Baasha son of Ahijah. 10 Dogs will eat Jezebel in Jezreel, and she will not be buried." Then the prophet left quickly. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹¹When Jehu went back to his officers, one of them asked, "What did that crazy guy want? Is everything okay?" Jehu replied, "You know who he is." ¹²They said, "No. We don't. Tell us." So he told them that he, Jehu, had been made king of Israel. ¹³They quickly put their coats down on the steps where Jehu was standing, and they shouted, "Jehu is king."

¹⁴King Jehu formed a plot against King Joram, 15 who had been wounded fighting against Hazael of Syria at Ramoth-Gilead. Joram was in Jezreel, and King Ahaziah of Judah was visiting him there. Jehu told his men, "Don't let anyone skip out and tell people in Jezreel that I am to be king. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ¹⁶Jehu got in his chariot and rode to Jezreel. ¹⁷A watchman on a tower saw Jehu coming and he shouted, "Troops are coming." Joram said, "Send someone out to ask him if this is a friendly visit or not." 18So a horseman rode out and asked Jehu if he was coming in peace. Jehu said, "What do you know about peace? Get behind me." Then the watchman told the king the rider wasn't coming back. 19So the king sent a second rider who asked Jehu if he was coming in peace. Jehu said, "What do you know about peace? Get behind me." 20The watchman told King Joram, "The second rider isn't returning either. The chariot driver is so reckless it must be Jehu."

²¹So King Joram said, "Get my chariot ready right away." He and Ahaziah rode out together to meet Jehu, and they met at the field of Naboth. ²²Joram asked Jehu, "Are you coming in peace?" Jehu replied, "How can there be peace when your mother Jezebel caused everyone to worship idols and practice witchcraft?" {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²³Joram turned the chariot around and said, "Ahaziah, this is a trap. Let's get out of here." {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

²⁴Jehu shot an arrow between Joram's shoulders and then it went through his heart. He sank down dead in his chariot. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁵Jehu told Bidkar, his chariot commander, to throw Joram's body out in Naboth's field. He said, ²⁶"You'll remember that the Lord told Ahab he would be punished in the field where he had killed Naboth and his sons. So throw him out." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²⁷Meanwhile King Ahaziah of Judah had tried to escape to Beth-Haggan. Jehu chased him and shouted, "Kill him too." So they shot him in his chariot where the road goes up to Gur, near Ibleam. He got as far as Megiddo, but he died there. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²⁸His officials took him in a chariot back to Jerusalem and buried him in the City of David. ²⁹His reign over Judah had started when Joram, Ahab's son, was in his 11th year.

³⁰Jezebel heard that Jehu was on his way to Jezreel. So she painted her eyes and fixed her hair. She watched at a window for Jehu, and when he entered the city gate, ³¹she shouted at him, "Why have you come here? You are a murderer just like Zimri." ³²He looked up toward the window and said, "Is anyone there on my side?" Two or three men looked out, ³³and he said, "Throw her down." So they did, and her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses that trampled on her. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³⁴Jehu got something to eat and drink. Then he told some workers, "Even though she was wicked, she was a king's daughter. So please bury her." ³⁵But when they went to bury her, they found only her skull, her feet, and her hands. ³⁶They told Jehu and he said, "The LORD told Elijah this would happen. He said her body would be eaten by dogs here in Jezreel, ³⁷and her bones would be spread out like manure, so no one could tell who it was." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, Your prophecies always come true. Forgive me when I don't believe Your predictions. I will take comfort in Your sovereignty, that You rule in the affairs of men. Amen.

2 Kings 10 Ahab's Descendants Are Killed

¹Ahab had 70 sons living in Samaria. Jehu wrote a letter to the leaders of Samaria, in which he said, ²"You have chariots and horses, a fortified city, and weapons. When you receive this letter, ³choose one of Ahab's sons to be your king and to fight for Ahab's family." ⁴But they were afraid. They said, "Since Jehu has already killed King Ahaziah and King Joram, how can we stand against him?"

⁵So the city mayor, manager of the palace affairs, and city council members, and others sent this message to Jehu: "We are your servants, and will do whatever you say. We won't choose a king. You do what you think is best." ⁶Jehu sent this answer: "If you are on my side and will obey me, then bring me the heads of Ahab's sons in 24 hours." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} These sons had been living with some important people in the city. 7So when the leaders of Samaria read the letter, they murdered all 70 sons, put their heads in baskets, and gave them to Jehu in Jezreel. 8When a messenger told Jehu the heads had been delivered, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} he said, "Put them in two piles by the city gate and leave them there overnight." Then in the morning Jehu spoke to the people, "You are innocent. I'm the one who had Jorum killed. But I didn't kill these 70. ¹⁰They were killed because the LORD had told Elijah this would happen to Ahab's sons."

¹¹Jehu then killed the rest of Ahab's relatives in Jezreel, and his officials, friends, and priests. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹²Then he went to Samaria and at Beth-Eked of the Shepherds. ¹³He met some relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} When he asked who they were, they said, "We are relatives of King Ahaziah. We are going to visit his family and the queen mother." ¹⁴Jehu shouted, "Grab them." So they took them to a nearby well and killed all 42 of them. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁵As he left, he met Jehonadab's son of Recab, who was coming to meet Jehu. Jehu asked him, "Are you on my side?" Jehonadab said yes. ¹⁶"Then get with me in my chariot, and I'll show what I have done for the LORD." ¹⁷When they arrived in Samaria, Jehu killed any remaining relatives of Ahab, just as the Lord had predicted through Elijah. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁸Jehu called a meeting of the people and said, "Ahab served Baal a little but I'll serve him a lot more. 19So get together all the prophets, servants, and priests of Baal. Have every Baal worshiper here because I will hold a great sacrifice for Baal. I will kill anyone who doesn't come." Actually this was a trick because Jehu was planning to kill all the worshipers of Baal. 20 Jehu said, "Announce the day when all are to assemble to worship Baal." So they did. 21 All of Baal's priests came and crowded into the Baal temple. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ²²He told the men in charge of the priestly robes to be sure every priest had a robe.

²³Jehu and Jehonadab went into the temple, and Jehu said, "Allow only Baal worshipers in here. Don't let anyone in who worships the LORD." {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} ²⁴As Baal's priests began sacrificing to Baal, Jehu had 80 men posted outside and told them, "Don't let any of them escape. If you do, you will be killed." ²⁵After Jehu sacrificed a burnt offering, he told the 80 men to come in and kill them all. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} So they did and they tossed their bodies outside. Then they went back into the Baal temple and ²⁶brought out the image of Baal and burned it. ²⁷They broke it into pieces and destroyed the temple. And since then the place has been a public toilet. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16}

²⁸That is how Jehu got rid of Baal worship.²⁹But he did not stop the people from worshiping the calf-idols that Jeroboam had set up in Bethel and Dan. ³⁰Later the Lord told Jehu that because he had destroyed all Ahab's relatives, the next four kings in Israel would be Jehu's descendants. ³¹Yet Jehu did not obey the Lord completely. He kept sinning as Jeroboam had done. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

³²Then the Lord began to reduce the size of Israel's territory. King Hazael of Syria defeated the Israelites ³³east of the Jordan, taking over the regions of Gilead and Bashan—the land of the tribes of Eastern Manasseh, Gad, and Reuben—north from Aroer near the Arnon River.

³⁴The other events in Jehu's reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. ³⁵Jehu died and was buried in Samaria, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and his son Jehoahaz became king. ³⁶Jehu reigned over Israel for 28 years.

Lord, I will obey outwardly, as did Jehu. But, my obedience will also come from the heart. I worship You. Amen.

2 Kings 11 Joash Becomes King

¹Athaliah was the mother of King Ahaziah of Judah. When she heard that he was dead, she killed all his children so she could be queen. But one son she did not kill was Joash. ²Ahaziah's half-sister Jehosheba, who was the priest's wife, hid her nephew Joash {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} and his nurse in a room in the temple. ³And they were hidden there for six years while Athaliah was queen. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁴In Athaliah's seventh year Jehoiada the priest sent for the commanders of units of hundreds and bodyguards to come to the temple. He made them promise to be loyal to the temple, {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} and then he showed them Joash. ⁵He said, "A third of you are to guard the palace, ⁶a third are to be at the Sur Gate, and a third are to be guarding the palace gate. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ⁷Though two-thirds of you normally go off duty on the Sabbath, please stay here and protect the young king. 8Surround the king with your weapons in hand. And kill anyone who tries to get near the king. Stay beside him all the time." {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

⁹The commanders did what Jehoiada the priest ordered. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Those going on duty and also those normally going off duty ¹⁰were given spears and shields that had been David's and were kept in the temple. ¹¹The guards with their weapons in hand surrounded the king from the south of the temple to the north side and around the altar of burnt offering. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

¹²Jehoiada placed a crown on young Joash's head and gave him a copy of the Law and said, "He is king." Olive oil was poured on his head, {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} and the people clapped and shouted, "Long live the king."

¹³Athaliah heard all this noise and so she went to the temple to see what was going on. ¹⁴She saw young Joash crowned and standing by one of the columns, the usual place for the king. The officers and trumpeters were around him, and people were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. When Athaliah saw all this, she tore her clothes in anger and shouted, "This is a trick. You betrayed me."

¹⁵Then Jehoiada the priest told the commanders of units of hundreds, "Take her out of the temple and kill her. Don't kill her here in the temple. And kill anyone who tries to rescue her." ¹⁶So they grabbed her and led her to the gate where horses enter the palace grounds, and they killed her there. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁷Then Jehoiada encouraged the people to agree {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} to be the LORD's faithful people. ¹⁸Then the people tore down the Baal temple, smashed altars to Baal, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and other idols, {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} and killed Mattan the priest of Baal. Jehoiada posted guards at the temple.

¹⁹Then the commanders of units of hundreds, and bodyguards, and all the people led the new king from the temple to the palace, and he sat on the throne. ²⁰Everyone was glad. And the city was peaceful {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} because Athaliah had been killed. ²¹Joash was seven years old when he was made king.

Lord, I thank You for Jehosheba who changed history. In a small way, I can change history. Lord, thank You for Jehoiada the high priest who changed history. Use me in the same way. Amen.

2 Kings 12 King Joash Rules over Judah

¹When Joash became king, Jehu was in his seventh year as king of Israel. Joash ruled in Jerusalem from age 7 to 47. His mother was Zibiah from Beersheba. ²All his life Joash did what pleased the Lord because Jehoiada taught him. {39 Bible-Bless Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ³But Joash didn't destroy the hilltop shrines, and so people still offered sacrifices and burned incense at the shrines.

⁴Joash told the priests to collect money from the people {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}—money from offerings, payments of vows, voluntary gifts—⁵to repair the temple. ⁶But by Joash's 27th year the priests still hadn't repaired the temple. ⁷So Joash called Jehoiada and the other priests and asked why they hadn't repaired the temple. He said, "Don't take any more money for yourselves. From now on use the money you receive for temple repairs." ⁸So the priests agreed not to use any money for themselves. And they also decided not to do the repairs themselves. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

⁹Jehoiada cut a hole in the top of a wooden box and set it to the right of the altar of burnt offering. The priests guarding the temple put money from the people in the box. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ¹⁰When it seemed that the box was getting full, Jehoiada and the royal secretary counted the money and put it in bags. ¹¹Then they gave money to the construction supervisors who paid the workers—carpenters, builders, ¹²masons, and stonecutters. They also bought lumber and stones and whatever else was needed. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

¹³Money was not used to make silver cups, lamp snuffers, bowls, trumpets, and other gold or silver articles. ¹⁴The money was paid to the workers, who used it for repairs. ¹⁵The supervisors were honest men, so no one kept a record of money given to them. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} ¹⁶However, the money the people gave with guilt offerings and sin offerings was given to the priests.

¹⁷King Hazael of Syria attacked and captured the Philistine city of Gath. Then he went to attack Jerusalem. ¹⁸When Joash heard about this, he gathered up all the objects he and his ancestors Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah had dedicated to the Lord, and all the gold in the storage rooms in the temple and the palace, and he sent all these to Hazael. So Hazael did not attack Jerusalem.

¹⁹The rest of Joash's events in his reign are written in the books of the kings of Judah. ²⁰But his officials killed him at Beth-Millo, on the road to Silla. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²¹The assassins were Jozacar, son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad, son of Shomer. Joash was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. His son Amaziah became king.

Lord, I want to be like those carpenters and stone cutters who could be trusted. I commit myself to honesty. Use me in Your work. Amen.

2 Kings 13 Jehoahaz Rules over Israel

¹In the 23rd year of Joash's reign over Judah, Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, became king of Israel. He was king for 17 years. ²He sinned by following the example of Jeroboam who worshiped idols and led Israel to sin. ³This made the LORD angry with Israel, and so He let Hazael of Syria and his son Ben-Hadad defeat Israel and rule over them for a long time. ⁴Jehoahaz, Jehu's son, prayed for help from the LORD, and He responded. Seeing how Syria was treating Israel, 5the Lord rescued the Israelites and Israel lived in peace again. ⁶But the people continued to sin following Jeroboam's example. They even set up in Samaria a repulsive pole used in worshiping the goddess Asherah. ⁷Jehoahaz's army had nothing left except 10 chariots, 50 cavalrymen, and 10,000 regular soldiers. Hazael had killed all the others and made them like dust. 8Everything else Jehoahaz did as king is recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. 9He was buried in Samaria. And Jehoash became king.

¹⁰Jehoash became king of Israel in the 37th year of Joash's rule in Judah, and he ruled for 16 years from Samaria. ¹¹He did what was evil just like Jeroboam who worshiped idols and led Israel to sin. ¹²The rest of his reign, including his war with King Amaziah of Judah, is recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. ¹³When he died, he was buried in Samaria. His son Jeroboam II became the next king.

¹⁴Elisha was sick and about to die. King Jehoash of Israel went to visit him and he cried, and he said, "My father, you are the strength of Israel, like chariots and horsemen." ¹⁵Elisha said, "Get a bow and some arrows." And the king did so. ¹⁶Then Elisha said for the king to hold the bow, and Elisha put his hands on the king's hands. ¹⁷Then he told the king to open the window facing east, and he opened it. And Elisha said, "Shoot." So he did. Then Elisha said, "This arrow means the LORD will give you victory over Syria at Aphek."

¹⁸Then Elisha said, "Pick up the other arrows and hit the ground with them. The king did this three times. ¹⁹Elisha was disappointed with him. He said, "You should have hit the ground five or six times. Then you would have defeated Syria and completely destroyed it. But now you will have victory over Syria three times." ²⁰Then Elisha died and was buried.

Moabite soldiers invaded Israel every spring. ²¹One time some Israelites were burying a man's body and they looked up and saw some Moabite soldiers. So they quickly tossed the dead man's body into Elisha's tomb and when the body touched Elisha's bones the dead man came to life and stood up.

²²King Hazael of Syria kept controlling Israel all during Jehoahaz's reign. ²³But the LORD in His grace did not let Syria destroy Israel. He was concerned for them because of His agreement with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and so He has never completely rejected Israel. ²⁴After Hazael died, his son Ben-Hadad became king of Syria. ²⁵Jehoash, Israel's king, defeated Ben-Hadad three times and took back from Ben-Hadad all the towns Hazael had captured from his father Jehoahaz.

2 Kings 14 Jeroboam II Rules over Israel

¹Amaziah, Joash's son, became king of Judah in the second year of Jehoash, king of Israel. ²He was 25 years old, and he reigned in Jerusalem 29 years. His mother was Jehoaddin, from Jerusalem. ³He obeyed the Lord, following the example of his father Joash, but he was not as faithful to the LORD as David was. ⁴He did not destroy the hilltop shrines, and so people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

⁵Amaziah killed the men who had assassinated his father. ⁶But he didn't kill their children for that would have violated the law of Moses which says, "Parents are not to be put to death because of their children, nor children for the sins of their parents."

⁷Amaziah killed 10,000 Edomites in the Salt Valley, and captured Sela and renamed it Joktheel. ⁸One day he wrote to

Israel's king Jehoash, Jehu's grandson, and asked him to face him in battle. ⁹Jehoash replied, "A small thorn bush in Lebanon said he wanted to marry the daughter of a big cedar tree. But a wild animal crushed the small bush. ¹⁰True, you have defeated Edom and you are proud of it. But I suggest you stay home and celebrate. Don't bring trouble on you and Judah."

¹¹Amaziah didn't listen, so Jehoash marched to Beth-Shemesh in Judah, ¹²and caused Amaziah's soldiers to run in defeat. ¹³Jehoash captured Amaziah at Beth-Shemesh and went to Jerusalem and tore down 600 feet of the city wall from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. ¹⁴He took all the gold and silver and valuable articles from the temple and the palace treasury. He also took hostages and went home to Samaria.

¹⁵Other events in the reign of Jehoash, including his war with Amaziah, are written in the book of the kings of Israel. ¹⁶After he died, he was buried in Samaria with Israel's king. And Jeroboam II became the next king.

¹⁷Amaziah lived for 15 years after Jehoash died, ¹⁸and the rest of the events in his reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah. ¹⁹Some people in Jerusalem were plotting against Amaziah, and so he escaped to Lachish. But some men caught up with him and killed him. ²⁰They brought him back to Jerusalem and buried him in the city of David. ²¹The people made 16-year-old Uzziah king in Amaziah's place. ²²He recaptured and rebuilt the town of Elath.

²³Jeroboam II, son of Jehoash, began reigning in Israel in Amaziah's 15th year in Judah. He reigned in Samaria 41 years. ²⁴He followed the sinful example of Jeroboam I in worshiping idols and influencing Israel to do the same. ²⁵Jeroboam II recovered the land from Lebo-Hamath to the Dead Sea, as God had promised through Jonah, son of Amattai from Gath-Hepher. ²⁶The LORD saw how the people, both slaves and free people, were suffering and had no one to help them. ²⁷The LORD had said He wouldn't let Israel be destroyed, so He used Jeroboam II to rescue them. ²⁸The other events in Jeroboam's reign, including his power and wars and how he recaptured for Israel the towns of Damascus and Hamath, are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. ²⁹When he died, he was buried with other kings of Israel. And his son Zechariah became the next king.

2 Kings 15 Uzziah Rules over Judah

¹Uzziah son of Amaziah became king of Judah in the 27th year of Jeroboam II's reign over Israel. ²Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 52 years in Jerusalem. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} His mother was Jecoliah from Jerusalem. ³He obeyed the Lord as his father Amaziah did, ⁴but he did not destroy the hilltop shrines, {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} where people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense to their idols. ⁵The Lord punished Uzziah with leprosy for the rest of his life, and he lived in a house by himself. His son Jotham ruled in place of Uzziah. ⁶The rest of the events in Uzziah's reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah. ⁷When he died, he was buried near his ancestors in Jerusalem. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} His son Jotham became Judah's next king.

⁸Zecharaiah, son of Jeroboam II, became king of Israel in Uzziah's 38th year. And he was king in Samaria for only six months. 9He sinned against the Lord, as his ancestors had done, following Jeroboam's idolatry and leading Israel to sin. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁰Shallum son of Jabesh assassinated Zechariah as people looked on. And Shallum became the next king. ¹¹The events of Zechariah's brief reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. 12The LORD had told Jehu that the next four kings of Israel would be his descendants, and this came true. Those four were Jehoahaz, Jehoash, Jeroboam II. and Zechariah.

¹³Shallum son of Jabesh became king in Azariah's 39th year. But he reigned in Samaria only one month. ¹⁴Menahem son of Gadi assassinated Shallum {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and became the next king. ¹⁵The other events in Shallum's short reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel.

¹⁶Menahem destroyed the town of Tappuah and surrounding towns. He killed everyone in Tappuah and ripped open pregnant women. ¹⁷He became king of Israel in the 59th year of Azariah king of Judah, and he ruled in Samaria 10 years. ¹⁸Like many kings before him, he disobeyed the LORD by following the sins of Jeroboam who caused Israel to worship idols. ¹⁹Then Tiglath Pileser, king of Assyria, invaded Israel. But Menahem gave him about 37 tons of silver to gain his support. ²⁰Menahem then required every rich person to give him 20 ounces of silver, and he gave that money to Tiglath-Pileser, who then left Israel.

²¹The other events in Menahem's reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. ²²When he died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} his son Pekahiah became the next king. ²³Pekahiah began reigning in Uzziah's 50th year in Judah. He reigned in Samaria only two years. ²⁴He too sinned against the LORD by following the sins of idol worship Jeroboam caused Israel to commit. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

²⁵Pekah, an officer of Pekahiah, and 50 men from Gilead assassinated him along with Argob and Arieh in the palace at Samaria. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Then Pekah became king of Israel. ²⁶The other events in Pekahiah's reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. ²⁷Pekah began his 20-year reign in Samaria in Uzziah's 52nd year. ²⁸But like many before him, he disobeyed the LORD by not turning from the worship of idols Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

²⁹During Pekah's reign Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria attacked Israel again and captured the towns of Ijon, Abel-Beth-Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, and Hazor. He also conquered the regions of Gilead, Galilee, and Naphtali. And he took people as captives to Assyria. ³⁰Then Hoshea son of Elah assassinated Pekah {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and began to reign over Israel in the 20th year of Jotham, son of Uzziah. ³¹The events in Pekah's reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel.

³²Jotham son of Uzziah began to reign over Judah in the second year of Pekah. ³³Jotham was 25 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem 16 years. His mother was Jerusha, a daughter of Zadok. ³⁴Jotham pleased the Lord, just as Uzziah had done. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³⁵But like other kings before him, he did not destroy the hilltop shrines where people offered sacrifices and burned incense. He rebuilt the upper gate of the temple.

³⁶The other events of Jotham's reign are written in the book of the kings of Judah. ³⁷In those days the Lord began to send Rezin king of Syria and Pekah king of Israel to attack Judah. ³⁸When Jotham died, he was buried in the city of David, and his son Ahaz became king.

Lord, You are my ultimate ruler, no matter who sits in power on this earth. I will obey You, follow Your commands, and worship Your majesty. Come sit on the throne of my life. Whatever Your word commands, I will do. Whatever You want me to say, I will speak. I yield to Your leadership and rule. Amen.

2 Kings 16 Ahaz Rules over Judah

¹Ahaz son of Jotham began to reign over Judah in the 17th year of Pekah king of Israel. ²Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king, and he ruled for 16 years. But Ahaz did not please the Lord as David had done. ³He was even more wicked than Israel's kings because he sacrificed his own son in the fire and he followed other terrible practices of nations the LORD had forced out of the land. ⁴He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the hilltop shrines and under every green tree.

⁵King Rezin of Syria and King Pekah of Israel attacked Jerusalem but could not take it. ⁶Rezin recovered the Edomite city of Elath, drove out Jews who were there, and sent Syrians to live there. ⁷Ahaz sent messengers to tell Tiglath-Pileser that he was his servant and that he was asking the Assyrian king to rescue him from the armies of Syria and Israel. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} 8Then Ahaz took silver and gold from the temple and the palace treasury and sent them to Tiglath, just as Menahem, Israel's king, had done. ⁹So the Assyrians left Judah and attacked Damascus and took its people away to Kir. And Tiglath killed Rezin.

¹⁰Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath of Assyria, and while there he saw an unusual altar. He sent Uriah the priest to make a sketch of the altar, and he asked Uriah to build one like it. ¹¹So Uriah did and he finished before Ahaz got back. ¹²When Ahaz got back, he made offerings on it, ¹³including a peace offering, a burnt offering, a grain offering, and a drink offering. He sprinkled the blood of the peace offering on the altar. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ¹⁴Then he moved the old bronze altar of burnt offering to the north side of the new altar. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹⁵Then Ahaz told Uriah the priest, "Offer morning and evening sacrifices and gifts of grain and wine on this new altar. And sprinkle blood from the animal sacrifices on this altar. I will use the old altar to ask the LORD what I should do." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁶Uriah did everything Ahaz told him.

¹⁷Then Ahaz removed the side panels and barriers from the moveable stands. He also removed the large water tank that sat on the backs of 12 bronze oxen and he set it on a stone base. ¹⁸He also removed the canopy that had been built at the temple and the king's outer entrance to the temple. He did all this to please Tiglath-Pileser. ¹⁹The other events in Ahaz's reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah. ²⁰When Ahaz died, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Hezekiah his son became the next king.

Lord, stop me when I take a first step away from You. Give me ears to hear Your warnings, and eyes to see spiritual dangers, and an obedient heart to follow You. Amen.

2 Kings 17 Hoshea Rules over Israel

¹Hoshea son of Elah became king over Israel in Ahaz's 12th year as king of Judah. He reigned in Samaria for nine years. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²Though he sinned before the Lord, he wasn't as bad as some of the kings before him. ³Hoshea had to pay heavy taxes to Shalmaneser king of Assyria as a result of the Assyrian king's attack against Israel. ⁴Then Hoshea asked So, king of Egypt, for help against Assyria, and Hoshea stopped paying the taxes to Assyria. So Shalmaneser put Hoshea in prison. 5Then Shalmaneser attacked Samaria for three years. Finally in Hoshea's last year, Samaria fell, and the king of Assyria took Israelites away as prisoners to his country. He put some of them in Halah near the Habor River in Gozan and in some towns of the Medes. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁷This happened because the Israelites sinned against the LORD who had rescued them from slavery in Egypt. 8They worshiped the idols of the people God had forced out of their land, and they were sinful like the Israelite kings before them. ⁹They secretly had done these sinful things {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} even building hilltop shrines in all their towns, whether small or large fortified cities. 10 They set up sacred stones and poles for worshiping Asherah on every hilltop and under every open tree. 11They burned incense at these shrines just like the nations the Lord forced to leave the land. The Lord was very angry because of all these terrible sins. ¹²The Lord had kept telling them not to do these things, but they did them anyway. ¹³God had sent His prophets to warn them to turn from their sinful ways and obey His commands and laws {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} that He gave to their ancestors.

¹⁴But they were as stubborn as their ancestors in refusing to trust the LORD. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹⁵Rejecting His laws and the agreement He made with their ancestors, they worshiped worthless idols and they became worthless themselves. God had told them not to follow the ways of the nations around them, but they did anyway. ¹⁶Ignoring the LORD's commands, they made two idols shaped like calves, set up an Asherah pole, and worshiped Baal and the stars. 17 They even sacrificed their children and practiced fortune-telling and witchcraft and sold themselves to evil. No wonder the Lord was angry with them. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22}

¹⁸So in His anger the LORD allowed them to be taken away to Assyria as prisoners. Only the tribe of Judah was left, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹but they too did not obey the LORD. They sinned just as the Israelites did, ²⁰so the LORD punished the Israelites by letting them be defeated. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²¹When the LORD took the 10 northern tribes from David's family, the people there chose Jeroboam son of Nebat as their king. And he is the one who led the people away from the LORD. ²²Stubbornly the people refused to turn from his evil ways, including the worship of idols.

²³So as the LORD had warned through His prophets, Israelites were taken captive to Assyria, and that's where they remained. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁴The king of Assyria took many people who were living in Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim and made them move to Israel and other towns in Samarai. ²⁵These people from Assyria did not worship the Lord, so He sent lions to kill some of them. ²⁶A messenger told the king of Assyria that the people he relocated to Israel did not know how to worship the LORD, so He sent lions {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} to kill them. ²⁷The Assyrian king responded, "Send back to Israel one of the priests we took captive. Have him teach the new residents how to worship the LORD." ²⁸One of the Israelite priests went back, and he lived in Bethel and taught the people how to worship the LORD. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7}

²⁹However, many of these new residents from Assyria worshiped their own gods, placing their idols in the Israelites' hilltop shrines. ³⁰People from Babylon worshiped the God of Succoth Beneth, people from Cuthah worshiped Nergal, and the people from Hamath worshiped Ashima. 31The Avvites worshiped Nibhaz and Tartak. And the people from Sepharvaim sacrificed their children in the fire to their gods Adrammelech and Anammelech. 32They also worshiped the LORD, but they chose their own people to serve as priests at the hilltop shrines. 33Though they worshiped the LORD, they followed the religious practices of their homeland nations. {323

"No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} 34And they still do this even now. None of them worships only the LORD. They follow their former practices instead of obeying the LORD's laws, regulations, and commands that He gave to the descendants of Jacob, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} whom He renamed Israel. 35The Lord had told them, {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} "Don't worship other gods or bow down to them or serve them or offer them sacrifices. ³⁶Worship only the LORD, who rescued you from Egypt with great power. Offer sacrifices only to Me. ³⁷Always obey My laws, regulations, instructions, and commands, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and worship no other gods. ³⁸And don't forget the agreement I made with you. ³⁹Worship Me, the LORD your God, and I will give you victory over your enemies."

⁴⁰But the people in Israel refused to listen and continued to sin. ⁴¹Instead of worshiping the LORD, they worshiped their idols. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} And their descendants do the same thing.

Lord, I'm a member of the true Body of Christ. May the world see Your powers in the true church and may they not focus on the people. May the world see Your presence in my life, and not focus on me. Not I, but Christ. Amen.

2 Kings 18 Hezekiah Rules over Judah

¹Hezekiah son of Ahaz began to rule over Judah when Hoshea was in his third year as king of Israel. ²Hezekiah was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem 29 years. His mother was Ahijah, a daughter of Zechariah. ³He obeyed the LORD just as David had done. ⁴He destroyed the hilltop shrines, smashed the sacred stones, and cut down the detestable pole used in worshiping Asherah. He also broke into pieces the bronze snake Moses had made. The people had named it Nehushtan (meaning "Snake" or "Bronze") and were burning incense to it.

⁵Hezekiah was an unusual king. No king before or after him trusted the LORD as he did. ⁶Faithful to the LORD in everything, he carefully obeyed all His commands. ⁷So the LORD gave him success in all he did. He refused to pay the king of Assyria tribute. ⁸He also defeated the Philistines, destroying their small and large cities all the way to Gazu.

⁹In Hezekiah's fourth year, which was Hoshea's seventh year in Israel, King Shalmaneser of Assyria attacked Samaria ¹⁰and finally defeated it after three years. This was in Hezekiah's sixth year. ¹¹As noted earlier, Shalmaneser took some Israelites as prisoners and forced them to live in Halah near the Habor River in Gozan and in some cities of the Medes. ¹²This is because the people had refused to obey the LORD and had not kept His agreement given though Moses.

¹³In Hezekiah's 14th year as king of Judah Sennacherib of Assyria attacked every walled city in Judah except Jerusalem. ¹⁴So Hezekiah sent this message to Sennacherib at Lachish: "I admit that I've done wrong in not paying you tribute. But if you stop attacking Jerusalem, I'll pay you whatever you say." So Sennacherib required him to pay 11 tons of silver and a ton of gold. ¹⁵So Hezekiah collected the silver from the temple and the royal treasury. ¹⁶And he stripped gold from the temple doors and doorposts, and gave it to the Assyrian king.

¹⁷But the Assyrian king sent his three highest military officers with many soldiers to go see Hezekiah. In Jerusalem they stopped outside the city at the aqueduct from the Upper Pool, near the road that leads to the field where cloth is bleached. ¹⁸They called for Hezekiah to meet them. But he sent three officials instead. They were Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was the palace administrator, Shebna the royal secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the royal historian. ¹⁹One of the Assyrian leaders said, "The king of Assyria says, 'Why is Hezekiah so sure of himself? ²⁰Does he think he can win a battle with mere words? Who will help him? 21 If you depend on Egypt, it will be like leaning on a broken stick that will go through your hand. You can't rely on Egypt's Pharaoh. ²²If you are depending on the LORD, didn't Hezekiah tear down His shrines and altar and make everyone worship here in Jerusalem?'

²³"The king of Assyria says that if you can find 2,000 horsemen, he will give you 2,000 horses to ride on. ²⁴Then with this small cavalry you can try to defeat us. But don't get your hopes up. You won't be able to defeat our lowest ranking officer even if you had help from Egypt. ²⁵Besides that, the Lord has told us to come here and destroy your nation."

²⁶Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Assyrian spokesman, "Speak to us in Aramaic; we understand it. If you speak in Hebrew, our people will know what you are saying." 27But Sennacherib's representatives said, "My master sent me to speak so everyone hears this, not just you. These people will soon become so hungry they will eat their own body waste and drink their own urine." ²⁸Then he shouted in Hebrew, "Listen to what the great king of Assyria says. ²⁹'Don't let Hezekiah fool you. He can't save you. 30 Don't trust him when he says the LORD will rescue you and that the city won't be conquered by the Assyrian king. 31Stop listening to Hezekiah. If you surrender, I will let you eat from your own garden and drink from your own well. 32Then I will take you to another land where there is plenty of grain, new wine, bread, vineyards, olive trees, and honey. You can really enjoy life there, but if you stay here, your choice is death.

"So don't listen to Hezekiah. He says the LORD will save you, but he was wrong. ³³Have the gods of any other nation saved them from Assyria? ³⁴What about the gods of Hamath and Arpad? And the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Did they save their nations from me? ³⁵None of these gods saved their countries from me.

So what makes you think the LORD can save Jerusalem?'"

³⁶The people of Jerusalem kept silent because Hezekiah told them not to say anything. ³⁷Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah tore their clothes in grief and went back to Hezekiah and told him what the Assyrian representatives had said.

2 Kings 19 King Hezekiah Seeks Advice from Isaiah

¹When Hezekiah heard their report, he too tore his clothes in grief, and went into the temple to pray. ²Then he asked Eliakim, Shebna, and the leading priests, all in coarse clothing, to go to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz and tell him, 3"Hezekiah says we are in difficult and disgraceful times. This is like a woman about to give birth but she's too weak to deliver. 4We hope the LORD your God has heard the Assyrian representative insulting Him, and will punish him. Pray for those of us who are still alive." 5When the leaders told this to Isaiah, 6he said, "Tell Hezekiah not to worry about the words of these messengers from the Assyrian king. ⁷The LORD will cause the Assyrian king to receive bad news from home. So he will leave Jerusalem, and when he gets home, I will have him killed."

⁸The Assyrian representative heard that Sennacherib had gone from Lachish to Libnah, so he went to Libnah. ⁹Then Sennacherib heard that Tirhakah king of Ethiopia was on his way to fight the Assyrian king. Then the Assyrian king sent this word to Hezekiah: ¹⁰"Don't let your God fool you into thinking He can keep me from capturing you. ¹¹You know how we have destroyed other nations. And your situation won't be any different. ¹²Have the gods of other nations like Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Tel-Assar delivered them? No, the former Assyrian kings destroyed them all. ¹³Also, think what happened to the kings of Hamath, Arpad, Sepharraim, Hena, and Ivvah."

¹⁴When Hezekiah read this letter, he spread it in the temple for the Lord to see. ¹⁵Then he prayed, "O LORD, God of Israel, your throne is above the winged creatures. You alone created the heavens and the earth. ¹⁶So please listen to the way Sennacherib has insulted You. ¹⁷True, the Assyrian kings have destroyed many nations. ¹⁸And they have burned the idols these other nations have worshiped. Of course they could do that because those gods were made of wood and stone. ¹⁹Now LORD our God, rescue us from the Assyrians. Then everyone will know that You are the only God."

²⁰Then Isaiah told Hezekiah that the LORD, the God of Israel, said, "I have heard your prayer about Sennacherib, ²¹and this is what I say to him: 'The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and makes fun of you. They laugh behind your back. ²²Who is it you have been insulting, and against whom have you shouted? Against whom have you looked down in pride? The Holy One of Israel!

²³ Your messengers have insulted the LORD and you said, "With my many chariots I have gone to the highest mountain in Lebanon. I have cut down its cedars and cypress trees. I have gone deep into its forests. ²⁴And I have dug wells in several countries and have drunk water there, and I even stopped up the rivers of Egypt."

²⁵ But have you heard, Sennacherib? I planned long ago what I will now make happen. I planned that you will turn fortified cities into ruins. ²⁶This is why the people have so little power and are ashamed. They are as weak as wild flowers or grass growing on housetops, scorched by the sun before they mature.

²⁷'But I know everything about you—where you come and where you go and how you are so angry against Me. ²⁸Because of your anger and your pride, I will put a hook in your nose and a bit in your mouth and I will make you go back where you came from."

²⁹Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Here is proof that the LORD will protect Jerusalem from Assyria. This year you will eat crops that grow on their own, next year you will eat what springs up from that, and in the third year you will plant crops and then have a wonderful harvest. ³⁰Those who survive in Judah will be like a vine that takes root and then bears fruit. ³¹Some survivors will leave Jerusalem and Mount Zion. Because of My devotion to My people I will see that this happens. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³²"And this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria: 'He will not enter Jerusalem and shoot arrows there. He will not surround the city and then build a bank of earth against it. ³³He will go back to Assyria and will not even enter Jerusalem. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³⁴I will defend this city for My sake and for the sake of My servant David." {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

³⁵That night the angel of the Lord killed 185,000 Assyrian troops. Some Assyrians survived, and when they got up in the morning, they saw corpses everywhere. ³⁶Then Sennacherib went home to Nineveh. ³⁷One day while he was worshiping in the temple of Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} They escaped to the land of Ararat, and his son Esarhaddon became the next king of Assyria.

Lord, I will listen to those who know Your Word and do Your will. I will listen to those who will pray for me and have my best interests at heart. Speak to me through the godly counsel of Your servants. Amen.

2 Kings 20 The LORD Heals King Hezekiah

¹Hezekiah became terribly sick and almost died. The prophet Isaiah went to see him and said, "The LORD says you will soon die, so you need to take care of your affairs." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²Then Hezekiah prayed, ³"Remember, LORD, I have been faithful to You and have done what is right." Then he cried bitterly. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31}

⁴As Isaiah was leaving, the LORD told him to ⁵go back to Hezekiah and tell him, "The LORD says, 'I have heard your prayer and seen your tears. I will heal you {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} in three days and you will worship Me in the temple. ⁶I will give you another 15 years to live. And I will rescue you and this city from the king of Assyria. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} I will do this for My sake and to honor My servant David."

⁷Isaiah told Hezekiah's servants to crush some figs and put them on the king's sore. They did this, and he got well. ⁸Hezekiah had asked Isaiah, "How will I know the Lord will heal me so I can go worship Him in three days?" ⁹Isaiah said "Here's how: You can ask that the shadow on the sundial go forward on the stairway 10 steps or backward 10 steps." ¹⁰Hezekiah replied, "The shadow often goes forward, so please make it go backward." {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ¹¹Isaiah asked the LORD to do this, and He caused the shadow from the sun to go 10 steps backward on Ahaz's sundial.

¹²Merodach-Baladan, son of Baladan, king of Babylon, heard that Hezekiah had been very sick, and so he sent him a letter and a gift. ¹³Hezekiah welcomed the messengers {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} and showed them all the silver, gold, spices, and oils in his storehouse. He also showed them where he kept his weapons, and He showed them everything in his palace. ¹⁴Then Isaiah asked Hezekiah, "What did these men want? And where are they from?" Hezekiah said they came from Babylon. ¹⁵And Isaiah asked, "What did you show them in your palace?" Hezekiah said, "Actually everything in my palace." ¹⁶Then Isaiah told the king, ¹⁷"One day everything you and your ancestors have stored up will be taken to Babylon. ¹⁸Some of your own descendants will be taken as captives to Babylon and they will be made servants in the Babylonian king's palace." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹Hezekiah thought, "At least our nation will be at peace for a while." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

²⁰The other events in Hezekiah's reign, including the pool he built and the tunnel he dug to bring water into Jerusalem, are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²¹When Hezekiah died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} his son Manasseh became king.

Lord, I'm in good health today; use preventive medicine to keep me in good health. When I need it, use therapeutic healing to return my health. And, if it's Your will that I die, I pray with Paul, "For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better" (Phil. 1:23). Lord, I yield my body to You today. Heal me when I need it, but always glorify Yourself through my body. Amen.

2 Kings 21 Manasseh Rules over Judah

¹Manesseh was 12 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem 55 years. His mother was Hephzibah. ²He disobeyed the Lord, following the disgusting practices of the nations the Lord had forced out of the land. ³He rebuilt the hilltop shrines his father Hezekiah had demolished. He built altars to Baal and made a sacred pole for use in worshiping Asherah, just as Ahab king of Israel had done. He worshiped the stars. ⁴He even built altars to pagan gods and placed them in the temple. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 5 These altars for all the stars he placed in the courtyards of the LORD's temple. 6He sacrificed his son in the fire, and practiced witchcraft and fortune-telling and consulted mediums and psychics. All these terrible evil practices made the LORD very angry.

⁷Manasseh even set up an Asherah pole in the temple, where God has said He was to be honored forever. ⁸God had said, "I won't make My people leave this land if they obey the law I gave Moses." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁹But the people disobeyed the Lord and followed Manasseh's ways and were more evil than the nations the Lord had destroyed.

¹⁰Then the LORD said to some of His prophets, ¹¹"Manesseh has done things more terrible than the Amorites, and he caused the people to worship idols." ¹²So the LORD says, "I will destroy Jerusalem and Judah {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} and those who hear about it will be horrified. ¹³I will judge Jerusalem by the same standard I used for Samaria, and for Ahab's family. I will wipe away the people of Jerusalem as one wipes a dish and turns it over. ¹⁴I will reject even those who survive, and their enemies will rob them. ¹⁵Why?

Because all their sins have made Me angry ever since their ancestors left Egypt."

¹⁶Manasseh killed so many innocent people that the streets of Jerusalem were covered with blood. And this was causing so many people in Judah to disobey the Lord. ¹⁷The other events in Manasseh's life, including his deeds and his many sins, are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah. 18When he died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} he was buried in the Uzza Garden near his place. Amon, his son, became the next king. ¹⁹Amon was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem two years. His mother was Meshullemeth, daughter of Haruz from Jotbah. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²⁰He sinned against the LORD just as his father Manasseh did, 21 worshiping the same idols Manasseh had worshiped. ²²He rejected the LORD the God of his ancestors, and he refused to obey the LORD. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²³Amon's own officials assassinated him. ²⁴Then the people killed the assassins and made Josiah his son king. 25 The events in Amon's reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah. ²⁶He was buried in the Uzza Garden near the palace. His son Josiah was the next king. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

Lord, I know the deception of my evil heart, so be faithful to "pull" me toward righteousness. Don't give up on me when I am tempted to sin. Capture my soul and make me pure. Amen.

2 Kings 22 Josiah Rules over Judah

¹Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem 31 years. His mother was Jedidah, daughter of Adaiah from Bozkath. ²He obeyed the Lord as his ancestor David had done. He always did what was right. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21}

³In the 18th year of his reign, Josiah told the royal secretary Shaphan, son of Azaliah and grandson of Meshullam, 4to ask Hilkiah the high priest to count the money the gatekeepers had received in donations for repairing the temple. 5He then told Shaphan to tell Hilkiah to give the money to the project supervisors who were to pay the temple workers, 6including carpenters, builders, and masons. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} Also the supervisors were to buy wood, and stones for repairing the temple. 7"But," Josiah said, "these are honest men so the supervisors don't need to record their responses." {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

⁸Hilkiah said to Shaphan, "Guess what I found here in the temple—a copy of the law of Moses!" Hilkiah gave him the scroll and Shaphan read it. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} ⁹Then Shaphan told the king that the officials gave the money to the project supervisors who will pay the workers. ¹⁰Then he said, "I have something here you'll be interested in. It's a scroll Hilkiah gave me." Then Shaphan read it to Josiah. {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14}

¹¹When the king heard what Shaphan read from the law of Moses, he tore his clothes in despair. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹²The he told Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achor son of Micaiah, Shaphan, and his personal servant Asaiah, ¹³"Go to the temple and ask the LORD about what we've read today. He must be angry with us because we and our ancestors have not been obeying the laws written in this book." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

¹⁴The five men went to talk with Huldah the prophetess. Her husband was Shallum son of Tikvah and grandson of Harhas, in charge of the temple wardrobe. She lived in the Mishneh (northern) section of Jerusalem. 15She said, "Go tell Josiah that this is what the Lord says to him: 16'I will destroy this city and its people, just as this book says. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ¹⁷The people of Judah have rejected Me and burned incense to false gods, and I am angry because of everything they have done. I am utterly disgusted with them.' {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 18Tell the king that the LORD says, this about what you read: 19'You were sorry when you heard that I will wipe out this country. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} You tore your clothes in despair and I heard you cry. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ²⁰So I will not destroy this place while you are still living." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} So they took Huldah's message to the king.

Lord, I want revival in my life. I will seek Your presence in Your Word. I will read it to know You. I will memorize it to lodge Your presence in my life. I will follow its teachings to live for You. Lord, live Your life in me as I hide Your Word in my life. Amen.

2 Kings 23 King Josiah Enforces God's Laws

¹King Josiah called together the older leaders of Judah and Jerusalem. 2He and they went to the temple with the people of Judah and Jerusalem, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} and the priests and prophets. Everyone was there, from the least to the greatest. Josiah read to the people the words of the law of Moses that had been found in the temple. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} 3Standing by a temple column be asked the people to promise {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} to obey the LORD by keeping His commandments, regulations, and laws. The people promised to do everything written in the book. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

⁴Then Josiah told Hilkiah the high priest and other priests and gatekeepers to remove from the temple every utensil used in worshiping Baal, Asherah, and the stars. He had all these things burned in the Kidron Valley, and he had the ashes carried off to Bethel. ⁵He also got rid of the pagan priests who burned incense at the hilltop shrines in Judah. These priests also burned incense to Baal, and the sun, moon, and stars. ⁶He also removed the Asherah pole that was in the temple and had it burned in the Kidron Valley. {441

Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} Then he ground the ashes into dust and threw the dust over the public cemetery. ⁷He also tore down the houses where the male prostitutes lived next to the temple, and where the women sewed sacred robes for the Asherah idol.

⁸Priests in many towns of Judah had offered sacrifices and burned incense at hilltop shrines, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} from Geba north of Jerusalem to Beersheba in the south. He also destroyed the shrines left of the entrance to the Joshua Gate. ⁹The priests who had served at these pagan shrines were not allowed to serve in the temple, but they could eat bread without yeast with the other priests.

¹⁰Josaih demolished the altar of Topheth in the Ben-Hinnon Valley, so no one could use it to sacrifice a child by fire to the god Molech. ¹¹Some kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun some horses and kept them near the temple entrance. Josiah removed them and burned the chariots which also had been dedicated to the sun. These horses were kept near the house of Nathan-Melech, a royal officer. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

¹²Josiah also tore down and smashed the altars some kings had built on the palace roof and the altars Manasseh had built in the temple courtyards. Josiah threw the broken pieces into the Kidron Valley. ¹³Solomon had built pagan shrines east of Jerusalem to honor Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and Chemosh, the God of the Moabites, and Molech, the God of the Ammonites. Josiah destroyed these shrines. 14He also tore down the sacred stones and the pole used in worshiping Asherah, and he scattered human bones over the places where they had been. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 15Jeroboam son of Nebat had built a pagan hilltop shrine at Bethel. Josiah tore this down, smashed the stones to dust, and burned the Asherah pole. 16Seeing graves on the hillside in Bethel, Josiah had the bones dug up and he burned them on the altar at Bethel so the altar could no longer be used. This all happened just as the LORD had predicted. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 17When Josiah asked about a particular grave, the people there told him it was the grave of a man who came years ago from Judah and they said that the very things you have done to the altar would be carried out. 18 Josiah said, "Leave that grave alone. Don't dig up its bones." So the people of Bethel didn't burn his bones nor those of an old prophet from Samaria.

¹⁹Josiah then sent men to towns in Samaria to destroy buildings near hilltop shrines. These had been built by various kings of Israel, and this had made the LORD very angry. ²⁰Josiah killed the priests at these shrines in the towns of Samaria, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and he burned human bones on the altars so the altars could no longer be used. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

²¹Josiah told the people to celebrate the Passover to honor the LORD, just as written in the law of Moses. ²²This festival had not been celebrated for hundreds of years. ²³But finally it was, in the 18th year of Josiah's reign. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} ²⁴Josiah also got rid of medicine, psychics, household idols, and every form of idolatry. He did this as instructed in the scroll Hilkiah the priest had found in the temple. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁵No other king before or after Josiah obeyed the LORD and His law so completely. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7}

²⁶However, the LORD was still very angry with Judah because of Manasseh's many sins. ²⁷As the Lord had said, "I will reject Judah just as I rejected Israel. And I will reject Jerusalem and this temple which was built to honor Me." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁸Everything else Josiah did in his reign is written in the book of the kings of Judah.

²⁹While Josiah was king, King Neco of Egypt went north to the Euphrates River to help the king of Assyria. Josiah and his troops went against Neco and in Megiddo Josiah was killed. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³⁰Josiah's servants took his body in a chariot back to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. Then the people found Josiah's son Jehoahaz, poured oil on his head, and made him king of Judah. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10}

³¹Jehoahaz was 23 years old, and he reigned in Jerusalem only three months. His mother was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah, and she was from Libnah. ³²He sinned against the LORD just as many of his ancestors had done. ³³Pharoah Neco of Egypt arrested Jehoahaz and put him in prison in Riblah near Hamath. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} He demanded that Judah pay Egypt 4 tons of silver and about 75 pounds of gold. ³⁴Neco then made Eliakim son of Josiah king, and he changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. He took Jehoahaz off to Egypt, where he died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³⁵Jehoiakim forced the people to pay high taxes so he could pay what Neco demanded.

³⁶Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem 11 years. His mother was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah, and she was from Rumah. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ³⁷He sinned against the LORD just as his ancestors had done.

Lord, I pray for the leaders of my generation. Revive them so they will lead the church in revival. Lord, revive me so I can revive the people I lead. May my life be an example to them and may my words touch their hearts. Lord, make me a spiritual leader of those I influence. Lord, if I don't stand for You, I will become the slave of the ungodly. I will stand. Amen.

2 Kings 24 Jehoiakim Rules over Judah

¹When Jehoiakim was king, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded Judah. Jehoiakim surrendered and paid him taxes for three years and then rebelled. ²Then troops from Babylon, Syria, Moab, and Ammon attacked Judah, intending to destroy it, just as the LORD had said through His prophets. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³This was because the Lord had planned it. He intended to wipe out Judah because of Manasseh's many sins. ⁴Manasseh had shed a lot of innocent blood in Jerusalem, and the LORD would not forgive that.

⁵The other events in Jehoiakim's reign are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah. ⁶When he died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} his son Jehoiachin became the next king. ⁷Nebuchadnezzar defeated Neco of Egypt and controlled the vast region from the brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

⁸Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king, and reigned in Jerusalem only three months. His mother was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan from Jerusalem. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 9He sinned against the LORD just as many of his ancestors had done. 10When Jehoiachin was king, Nebuchadnezzar sent troops ahead to attack Jerusalem, 11 and he arrived later. ¹²Jehoiachin, his mother, his servants, and his officials surrendered to him. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} This was in Nebuchadnezzar's eighth year as king of Babylon. 13Then, just as the Lord had said would happen, Nebuchadnezzar took all the treasures from the temple and the royal palace, including the gold objects Solomon had made for the temple. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁴He took 10,000 prisoners, including officers, soldiers, craftsmen, and skilled workers. He left in Judah only the very poorest people.

¹⁵Nebuchadnezzar also took Jehoiachin as a captive to Babylon, with his wives, officials, mother, and leaders. ¹⁶He also took 7,000 soldiers and 1,000 skilled workers and craftsmen. ¹⁷Nebuchadnezzar then made Mattaniah as the next king, and he changed his name to Zedekiah. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

¹⁸Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king and he reigned in Jerusalem 11 years. His mother was Humutal, the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. Zedekiah and Jehoahaz were brothers. ¹⁹Zedekiah sinned against the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done. ²⁰So the Lord in His anger {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} turned His back {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} on Judah and let them be taken into captivity. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2 Kings 25 The Fall of Jerusalem

¹In the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on January 15, 588 B.C., Nebuchadnezzar's army surrounded the city of Jerusalem and built ramps up to the city walls. ²The siege continued for a year and a half. ³Then in Zedekiah's 11th year (586 B.C.), the food was entirely gone. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁴On July 18 of that year the Babylonians broke through the city wall. The soldiers in Jerusalem ran at night through the gate near the royal garden. ⁵They ran toward the Jordan Valley, but the Babylonians caught the king and his men had run off near Jericho. ⁶The Babylonian soldiers brought Zedekiah to Nebuchadnezzar at Riblah, where he was pronounced guilty. ⁷Zedekiah's sons were killed as he watched, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and then the soldiers gouged out his eyes, bound him with bronze chains, and led him away to Babylon. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁸On August 4 of that year (586 B.C.), the 19th year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuchadnezzar, captain of the guard, arrived in Jerusalem. ⁹He burned down the temple, the royal palace, all the houses in Jerusalem, and every important building. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁰Then he ordered the soldiers to tear down the city walls. ¹¹Nebuchadnezzar took as captives the people who were still in the city, along with any who had become loyal to Nebuchadnezzar. ¹²Only the very poorest people were left in the city to care for the vineyards and the fields. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17}

¹³The Babylonians broke up the bronze columns, the bronze water carts, and the bronze water tank in the temple and took the bronze to Babylon. ¹⁴They also took the pots, shovels, wick snuffers, dishes, and all the other bronze utensils used in the temple. ¹⁵Nebuzaradan also took the fire pans and bowls made of gold and silver.

 16 The bronze from the columns, the water carts, and the huge water tank was too much to be weighed. 17 Each column was 27 ½ feet high. The bronze on top of one column was 4 ½ feet high and was decorated with bronze pomegranates all around it.

¹⁸Nebuzaradan took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah his assistant priest, and three gatekeepers. ¹⁹Then he arrested an army commander, the king's five personal advisors, an army secretary in charge of recruitment, and 60 other residents in Jerusalem. ²⁰Nebuzaradan took them to Nebuchadnezzar at Riblah, ²¹where they were all put to death. So the people of Judah were taken captive from their land. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²²Nebuchadnezzar appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan as governor of the people left in Judah. ²³When Judah's army officers heard that Gedaliah was governor, they joined him in Mizpah. These included Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth from Netophah, and Jaazaniah from Maazah. 24Gedaliah assured them that the Babylonians did not intend to harm them. He said, "If you settle in Babylon and serve the king, all will go well with you." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²⁵But in September of that year Ishmael son of Nethaniah and grandson of Elishama went to Mizpah with 10 men and assassinated Gedaliah and everyone with him, both Judeans and Babylonians. ²⁶Then the people in Mizpah were afraid of what the Babylonians might do, and so they went to Egypt. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

²⁷After Jehoiachin was a captive in Babylon for 37 years, Evil-Merodach became king of Babylon. He released Jehoiachin from prison in April of that year (561 B.C.). ²⁸He was kind to Jehoiachin and treated him better than anyone else in prison in Babylon. ²⁹He gave Jehoiachin new clothes so he could put aside his prison clothes, and let him eat with him the rest of his life. ³⁰Evil-Merodach also gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance to buy whatever he needed the rest of his life.

Lord, I know You punish hypocrisy, so I will seriously seek Your presence in my life. I will serve You wholeheartedly, not because of what the world thinks, but because I love You. Remind me constantly that my faith is all about my relationship with You. Amen.

1 CHRONICLES

CH 1: ADAM TO ABRAHAM553
CH 2: DESCENDANTS OF JACOB554
CH 3: DESCENDANTS OF DAVID556
Ch 4: Descendants of Judah557
Ch 5: Descendants of Reuben558
CH 6: DESCENDANTS OF LEVI560
CH 7: DESCENDANTS OF ISSACHAR562
Ch 8: Descendants of Benjamin563
Ch 9: The Return from Captivity to Jerusalem
564
CH 10: THE DEATH OF SAUL AND HIS SONS566
CH 11: DAVID IS KING OF ALL ISRAEL566
CH 12: DAVID'S ARMY EXPANDS568
CH 13: THE ARK IS MOVED FROM KIRIATH-JEARIM 570
CH 14: DAVID PROSPERS AS KING570
Ch 15: The Ark of God Is Moved to Jerusalem571
CH 16: THE ARK IS MOVED TO JERUSALEM572
CH 17: God's Promise to David574
Ch 18: David's Victories in Battle575
CH 19: DAVID CONQUERS AMMON AND SYRIA576
CH 20: DAVID DEFEATS RABBAH577
CH 21: DAVID TAKES A CENSUS577
Ch 22: David Prepared to Build the Temple 578

CH 23: THE LEVITES AND THEIR DUTIES57	9
CH 24: THE PRIESTS ARE ORGANIZED58	1
CH 25: THE MUSICIANS AND THEIR DUTIES58	2
CH 26: THE GATEKEEPERS AND THEIR DUTIES58	2
CH 27: THE MONTHLY SCHEDULE FOR THE MILITARY58	3
Ch 28: David Tells of Plans for the Temple 58	5
CH 29: OFFERINGS FOR THE HOUSE OF GOD58	6

1 CHRONICLES

Key Words: All Israel (45 times)

Key Verse: "Then all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh" (1 Chronicles 11:1).

Theme: The chronicler wanted to see "all Israel" united because they were God's people, and they all came from Abraham. He traces the genealogy from Adam to Saul (chaps. 1-11). Then he traces David's life, but was kind to David in not mentioning his sins. The book ends with David's death.

The Bible is all about how God dealt with His people. We should read about them to avoid their mistakes and follow their exploits. Then we should commit ourselves in prayer to always be faithful to God, and to always strive against sin. Lord, I want to learn from Your servants. Help me to be strong against sin and be kind to the needy. Amen.

1 Chronicles 1 Adam to Abraham

¹The sons of Adam were Seth, Enosh, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared, ³Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, ⁴and Noah. The sons of Noah were Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

⁵The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. ⁶The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.

⁷The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish the Kittim, and the Rodanim.

⁸The sons of Ham were Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. ⁹The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan. ¹⁰Cush was the ancestor of Nimrod, a heroic warrior.

¹¹Mizraim was the ancestor of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites, ¹²Pathrusites, Casluhites (from whom the Philistines came) and the Caphtorites. ¹³Canaan's oldest son was Sidon, the ancestor of the Sidonians. Canaan was also the ancestor of the Hittites, ¹⁴Jebusites, Amorites, Girgashites, ¹⁵Hivites, Arkites, Sinites, ¹⁶Arvadites, Zemarites, and Hamathites.

¹⁷The sons of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram. The sons of Aram were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshech. ¹⁸Arphaxad was the father of Shelah, and Shelah was the father of Eber. 19Eber had two sons. The first was named Peleg (meaning "Division"), because in his lifetime the people of the world were divided into different language groups. His brother's name was Joktan. 20 Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, ²¹Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, ²²Ebal, Abimael, Sheba, ²³Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. ²⁴So this is the family line descended from Shem: Arphaxad, Shelah, 25Eber, Peleg, Reu, ²⁶Serug, Nahor, Terah, ²⁷and Abram, whose name God changed to Abraham.

²⁸The sons of Abraham were Isaac and Ishmael. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ²⁹The sons of Ishmael were Nebaioth, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, ³⁰Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, ³¹Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

³²The sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine, were Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. The sons of Jokshan were Sheba and Dedan. ³³The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. ³⁴Abraham was the father of Isaac. The sons of Isaac were Esau and Jacob, whose name God changed to Israel.

³⁵The sons of Esau were Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. ³⁶The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, Kenaz, Timna, and Amalek. ³⁷The sons of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. ³⁸The sons of Seir were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. ³⁹The sons of Lotan were Hori and Homam. Lotan's sister was named Timna. ⁴⁰The sons of Shobal were Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi, and Onam. The sons of Zibeon were Aiah and Anah. ⁴¹The son of Anah was Dishon. The sons of Dishon were Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran. ⁴²The sons of Ezer were Bilhan, Zaavan, and Jaakan. The sons of Dishon were Uz and Aran. ⁴³These are the kings who ruled in Edom before there were kings in Israel: Bela son of Beor, who ruled from his city of Dinhabah.

44When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah became king. ⁴⁵When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites became king. 46When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad became king and ruled from the city of Avith. He had destroyed the Midianite army in the land of Moab. ⁴⁷When Hadad died, Samlah from the city of Masrekah became king. 48When Samlah died, Shaul from the city of Rehoboth-onthe-River became king. 49When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan son of Acbor became king. ⁵⁰When Baal-Hanan died, Hadad became king and ruled from the city of Pai. His wife was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred and granddaughter of Me-Zahab.

⁵¹Then Hadad died. The clan leaders of Edom were Timna, Aliah, Jetheth, ⁵²Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, ⁵³Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, ⁵⁴Magdiel, and Iram.

1 Chronicles 2 Descendants of Jacob

¹The sons of Israel were Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, {249

Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ²Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

³Judah had three sons through Bathshua, a Canaanite woman. Their names were Er, Onan, and Shelah, But the LORD saw that the oldest son, Er, was a wicked man, so He killed him. 4Later Judah had twin sons from Tamar, his widowed daughter-in-law. Their names were Perez and Zerah. 5The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul. ⁶The sons of Zerah were Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Darda. ⁷Achan son of Carmi, one of Zerah's descendants, brought disaster on Israel by taking items that had been set apart for the LORD. 8The son of Ethan was Azariah. 9The sons of Hezron were Jerahmeel, Ram, and Caleb. ¹⁰Ram was the father of Amminadab. Amminadab was the father of Nahshon, a leader of Judah. 11 Nahshon was the father of Salman. Salman was the father of Boaz. 12Boaz was the father of Obed. Obed was the father of Jesse. 13 Jesse's sons were Eliab, Abinadab, Shimea, ¹⁴Nethanel, Raddai, ¹⁵Ozem, and David. ¹⁶Their sisters were named Zeruiah and Abigail. Zeruiah had three sons named Abishai, Joab, and Asahel. 17 Abigail married a man named Jether, an Ishmaelite, and they had a son named Amasa. 18Hezron's son Caleb had two wives named Azubah and Jerioth. Azubah's sons were Jesher, Shobab, and Ardon. 19 After Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath, and they had a son named Hur. 20 Hur was the father of Uri, and Uri was the father of Bezalel. 21When Hezron was 60 years old, he married Gilead's sister, the daughter of Makir. They had a son named Segub. ²²Segub was the father of Jair, who ruled over 23 towns in the land of Gilead. ²³(But Geshur and Syria captured Havvoth Jair and Kenath and its 60 surrounding villages.) All these were descendants of Makir, the father of Gilead. ²⁴Soon after Hezron died in the town of Caleb, Ephrathah, his wife Abijah gave birth to a son named Ashhur (the father of Tekoa). ²⁵The sons of Jerahmeel, the oldest son of Hezron, were Ram, Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah. ²⁶Jerahmeel had a second wife named Atarah. She was the mother of Onam. ²⁷The sons of Ram, the oldest son of Jerahmeel, were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker. ²⁸The sons of Onam were Shammai and Iada. The sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur. 29The sons of Abishur and his wife Abihail were Ahban and Molid. 30The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim. Seled died without children, ³¹but Appaim had a son named Ishi. The son of Ishi was Sheshan. Sheshan had a son named Ahlai. 32Shammai's brother, Jada, had two sons named Jether and Jonathan. Jether died without children, ³³but Jonathan had two sons named Peleth and Zaza. 34Sheshan had no sons, though he had daughters. He also had an Egyptian servant named Jarha. 35Sheshan gave one of his daughters to be the wife of Jarha, and they had a son named Attai.

³⁶Attai was the father of Nathan. Nathan was the father of Zabad. ³⁷Zabad was the father of Ephlal. Ephlal was the father of Obed. ³⁸Obed was the father of Jehu. Jehu was the father of Azariah. ³⁹Azariah was the father of Helez. Helez was the father of Eleasah. ⁴⁰Eleasah was the father of Sismai.

Sismai was the father of Shallum, 41Shallum was the father of Jekamiah. Jekamiah was the father of Elishama. 42The oldest son of Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel, was Mesha, the father of Ziph. Caleb's second son was Mareshah, the father of Hebron. ⁴³The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema. 44Shema was the father of Raham, and the father of Jorkeam. Rekem was the father of Shammai. 45The son of Shammai was Maon. Maon was the father of Beth-Zur. ⁴⁶Caleb's concubine Ephah gave birth to Haran, Moza, and Gazez. Haran was the father of Gazez. ⁴⁷The sons of Jahdai were Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph. ⁴⁸Another of Caleb's concubines, Maacah, gave birth to Sheber and Tirhanah. 49She also gave birth to Shaaph (the father of Madmannah) and Sheva (the father of Macbenah and Gibea). Caleb also had a daughter named Acsah. 50 The sons of Hur, the oldest son of Caleb's wife Ephrathah, were Shobal the father of Kiriath-Jearim, 51Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Beth-Gader, 52The sons of Shobal the father of Kiriath-Jearim were Haroeh, half the Manahathites, 53 and the families of Kiriath-Jearim—the Ithrites, Puthites, Shumathites, and Mishraites, from whom came the people of Zorah and Eshtaol. 54The sons of Salma were the people of Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth-Beth-Joab, the other half of the Manahathites, the Zorites, 55 and the families of scribes living at Jabez—the Tirathites, Shimeathites, and Sucathites, All these were Kenites who descended from Hammath, the father of the family of Recab.

1 Chronicles 3 Descendants of David

¹These were the sons who were born to David in Hebron: The oldest was Amnon. whose mother was Ahinoam from Jezreel. The second was Daniel, whose mother was Abigail from Carmel. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom.10:1} 2The third was Absalom, whose mother was Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur. The fourth was Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith. ³The fifth was Shephatiah, whose mother was Abital. The sixth was Ithream, whose mother was Eglah. 4These six sons were born to David in Hebron, where he reigned 71/2 years. Then David moved the capital to Jerusalem where he reigned another 33 years. 5The sons born to David in Jerusalem included Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon. Bathsheba, the daughter of Ammiel, was the mother of these sons. David also had nine other sons: Ibhar, Eliishama, Eliphelet, ⁷Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, 8Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet. 9These were the sons of David, not including the sons of his concubines. David also had a daughter named Tamar. ¹⁰The descendants of Solomon were Rehoboam, Abijah, Asa, Jehoshaphat, ¹¹Joram, Ahaziah, Joash, ¹²Amaziah, Azariah, Jotham, 13 Ahaz, Hezekiah, Manasseh, ¹⁴Amon, and Josiah. ¹⁵The sons of Josiah were Johanan, Jehoiakim, Zedekiah, and Shallum. 16 Jehoiakim was succeeded by his son Jehoiachin, who was succeeded by his uncle Zedekiah. ¹⁷The sons of Jehoiachin (also called Jeconiah), who was taken prisoner by the Babylonians, were Shealtiel, ¹⁸Malkiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah. 19The sons of Pedajah were Zerubbabel and Shimei. The sons of Zerubbabel were Meshullam and Hananiah. He also had a daughter named Shelomith. 20 His five other sons were Hashubah, Ohel, Berekiah, Hasadiah, and Jushab-Hesed. 21The sons of Hananiah were Pelatiah and Jeshaiah. Jeshaiah's son was Rephaiah. Rephaiah's son was Arnan. Arnan's son was Obadiah. Obadiah's son was Shecaniah. 22 Shecaniah's descendants were Shemaiah and his sons, Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat. ²³The sons of Neariah were Elioenai, Hizkiah, and Azrikam.

²⁴The seven sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani.

1 Chronicles 4 Descendants of Judah

¹Some of the descendants of Judah were Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ²Shobal's son Reaiah was the father of Jahath. Jahath was the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites. ³The sons of Etam were Jezreel, Ishma, Idbash, Hazzelelponi (his daughter), ⁴Penuel (the father of Gedor), and Ezer (the father of Hushah). These were the descendants of Hur (the firstborn of Ephrathah), the ancestor of Bethlehem. ⁵Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, named Helah and Naarah. 6Naarah gave birth to Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. ⁷Helah gave birth to Zereth, Izhar, Ethnan, 8 and Koz, who became the ancestor of Anub, Zobebah, and all the families of Aharhel son of Harum. 9Jabez was more distinguished than any of his brothers. His mother named him Jabez (meaning "Pain") because his birth had been so painful. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ¹⁰He was the one who prayed to the God of Israel, "Oh, that you would bless me {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} and extend my lands! Please be with me in all that I do, and keep me from all trouble and pain!" And God answered his prayer. 11Kelub the brother of Shuhah was the father of Mehir. Mehir was the father of Eshton. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom.10:1} 12Eshton was the father of Beth-Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah. Tehinnah was the father of Ir-Nahash.

¹³The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah. Othniel's sons were Hathath and Meonothai. ¹⁴Meonothai was the father of Ophrah. Seraiah was the father of Joab, the founder of the Crafts Valley, so-called because many craftsmen lived there. ¹⁵The sons of Caleb son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam. The son of Elah was Kenaz. ¹⁶The sons of Jehallelel were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel. ¹⁷The sons of Ezrah were Jether, Mered, Epher, and Jalon. Mered married an Egyptian woman, who became the mother of Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah. Ishbah was the father of Eshtemoa. ¹⁸Ishbah also married a woman of Judah, who became the mother of Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. Mered's Egyptian wife was named Bithiah, and she was an Egyptian princess. 19 Hodiah's wife was the sister of Naham. One of her sons was the father of Keilah the Garmite, and another was the father of Eshtemoa the Maacathite. 20 The sons of Shimon were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon. The descendants of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth. 21Shelah was one of Judah's sons. The descendants of Shelah were Er, the father of Lecah, Laadah, the father of Mareshah, the families of linen workers at Beth-Ashbea; ²²Jokim; the men of Cozeba, Joash and Saraph, who ruled over Moab and Jashubi-Lehem. ²³They were pottery makers in Netaim and Gederah. They all worked for the king. ²⁴The sons of Simeon were {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} Jemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zohar, and Shaul. 25 The descendants of Shaul were Shallum, Mibsam, and Mishma.

²⁶The descendants of Mishma were Hammuel, Zaccur, and Shimei. ²⁷Shimei had 16 sons and 6 daughters, but none of his brothers had large families. So Simeon's tribe never grew as large as the tribe of Judah. ²⁸Before David was king, the people of the Simeon tribe included Moladah, Hazar-Shual, ²⁹Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, ³⁰Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, ³¹Beth-Marcaboth, Hazar-Susim, Beth-Biri, and Shaaraim. ³²Their descendants also lived in Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Token, and Ashan, ³³and nearby villages as far away as Baal. ³⁴Other descendants of Simeon included

Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah son of Amaziah, 35 Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah, son of Seraiah, son of Asiel, 36Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, ³⁷and Ziza son of Shiphi, son of Allon, son of Jedaiah, son of Shimri, son of Shemaiah. 38These were the names of some of the leaders of Simeon's wealthy clans, ³⁹who traveled to the region of Gedor, in the east part of the valley to get pastureland for their flocks. 40They found good pastures there, and the land enjoyed peace. Some of Ham's descendants had been living in that region. 41But when Hezekiah was king of Judah, Simeon invaded it and completely destroyed the homes of the descendants of Ham and of the Meunites. They killed everyone who lived there and took the land for themselves, because they wanted its pastureland for their flocks. ⁴²Later 500 men from the Simeon tribe went to Mount Seir (Edom), led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi. ⁴³They killed the last of the Amalekites who had survived, and they have lived there ever since. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

1 Chronicles 5 Descendants of Reuben

¹Reuben was the oldest son of Israel. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} But since he dishonored his father by sleeping with one of his father's concubines, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} his rights as the firstborn were given to the sons of his brother

Joseph. That is why Reuben is not listed as the firstborn son. 2Judah became the most powerful tribe {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} and provided a ruler for the nation, but the birthright belonged to Joseph. ³The sons of Reuben were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. ⁴The descendants of Joel were Shemaiah, Gog, Shimei, 5Micah, Reaiah, Baal, 6and Beerah, a leader of the Reubenites. Later King Tiglath-Pileser of Assyria took Beerah away as prisoner. 7Beerah's relatives are listed by their clans: Jeiel, the leader, Zechariah, 8 and Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel. They lived in the area from Aroer to Nebo and Baal-Meon. 9And since they had so many livestock in the land of Gilead, they spread toward the desert just west of the Euphrates River. 10When Saul was king, the Reubenites defeated the Hagrites and then settled on the eastern edge of Gilead.

¹¹The tribe of Gad lived in the Bashan region north of the Reuben tribe. Their territory extended past to the town of Salecah. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ¹²Their leaders were Joel, Shapham, Janai, and Shaphat. 13 Their relatives, the leaders of seven other clans, were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber. ¹⁴These were all descendants of Abihail son of Huri, son of Jaroah, son of Gilead, son of Michael, son of Jeshishai, son of Jahdo, son of Buz. 15Ahi son of Abdiel, and grandson of Guni, was the leader of their clans. 16 The people of the Gad tribe lived in the land of Gilead, in Bashan and its villages, and in the Sharon Plain. 17 Their family records were written when Jotham was king of Judah and Jeroboam was king of Israel. 18The tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh had 44,760 soldiers skilled in combat and armed with shields, swords, and bows. 19They fought against the Hagrites, the Jeturites, the Naphishites, and the Nodabites. ²⁰In battle they prayed for the Lord to help them, {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} and He did. So the Hagrites and all their allies were defeated. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ²¹The Israelites took from the Hagrites 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, 2,000 donkeys, and 100,000 captives. ²²Many of the Hagrites were killed in the battle because God was fighting against them. So the Israelites lived in their land until they were taken as captives.

²³East Manasseh, a large tribe, settled {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} from Bashan to Baal-Hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ²⁴The leaders of their clans were Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. These men were known as great warriors and leaders. ²⁵But they were unfaithful to the God of their ancestors by worshiping the gods of the nations that God had destroyed. ²⁶So God sent King Pul of Assyria (also known as Tiglath-Pileser) to attack these tribes and take many of the people as captives. The Assyrians forced them {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} to live in Halah, Habor, Hara, and the area near the Gozan River, where they remain to this day.

1 Chronicles 6 Descendants of Levi

¹The sons of Levi {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} were Gershom, Kohath, and Merari. ²The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. ³The sons and daughter of Amram were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, 4Eleazar was the father of Phinehas. Phinehas was the father of Abishua. ⁵Abishua was the father of Bukki. Bukki was the father of Uzzi. 6Uzzi was the father of Zerahiah. Zerahiah was the father of Meraioth. 7Meraioth was the father of Amariah. Amariah was the father of Ahitub. 8Ahitub was the father of Zadok. Zadok was the father of Ahimaaz. 9Ahimaaz was the father of Azariah. Azariah was the father of Johanan. 10 Johanan was the father of Azariah who was the high priest when Solomon built the temple in Jerusalem. 11 Azariah was the father of Amariah. Amariah was the father of Ahitub. 12 Ahitub was the father of Zadok. Zadok was the father of Shallum. 13Shallum was the father of Hilkiah. Hilkiah was the father of Azariah. 14Azariah was the father of Serajah. Serajah was the father of Jehozadak, 15 who was taken into captivity by Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁶The sons of Levi were Gershom, Kohath, and Merari. ¹⁷The sons of Gershom were Ladan and Shimei. ¹⁸The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. ¹⁹The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The following were the Levite clans, listed according to their ancestral descent: ²⁰The descendants of Gershom were Ladan, Jahath, Zimmah, ²¹Joah, Iddo, Zerah, and Jeatherai. ²²The descendants of Kohath included Amminadab, Korah, Assir, ²³Elkanah, Ebiasaph, Assir, ²⁴Tahath, Uriel, Uzziah, and Shaul. ²⁵The descendants of Elkanah included Amasai, Ahimoth, ²⁶Elkanah, Zophai, Nahath, ²⁷Eliab, Jeroham, Elkanah, and Samuel. ²⁸The sons of Samuel were Joel and Abijah. ²⁹The descendants of Merari included Mahli, Ladan, Shimei, Uzzah, ³⁰Shimea, Haggiah, and Asaiah.

³¹After David moved the sacred chest to Jerusalem, he appointed the following men to lead the music at the tabernacle. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} 32Later they ministered with music at the temple Solomon built. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} They followed all the regulations handed down to them. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ³³These are the men who served, along with their sons: Heman the musician was from the clan of Kohath. His genealogy was traced back through Joel, Samuel, ³⁴Elkanah, Jeroham, Eliel, Toah, 35Zuph, Elkanah, Mahath, Amasai, 36Elkanah, Joel, Azariah, Zephaniah, ³⁷Tahath, Assir, Abiasaph, Korah, ³⁸Izhar, Kohath, Levi, and Jacob (Israel). ³⁹Heman's first assistant was Asaph from the clan of Gershom. Asaph's ancestors included Berekiah, Shimea, ⁴⁰Michael, Baaseiah, Malkijah, 41Ethni, Zerah, Adaiah, 42Ethan, Zimmah, Shimei, ⁴³Jahath, Gershom, and Levi. 44Heman's second assistant was Ethan from the clan of Merari. Ethan's ancestral line included Kishi, Abdi, Malluch, ⁴⁵Hashabiah, Amaziah, Hilkiah, ⁴⁶Amzi,

Bani, Shemer, ⁴⁷Mahli, Mushi, Merari, and Levi. ⁴⁸Their relatives, also Levites, performed various duties in the tabernacle. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

⁴⁹Only Aaron and his descendants served as priests. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} They presented the offerings on the altar of burnt offering and the altar of incense, {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} and they performed all the other duties related to the most holy place. They provided substitutionary payments for sin {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} by following all the commands Moses had given them. ⁵⁰The descendants of Aaron were Eleazar, Phinehas, Abishua, ⁵¹Bukki, Uzzi, Zerahiah, ⁵²Meraioth, Amariah, Ahitub, ⁵³Zadok, and Ahimaaz.

⁵⁴This is a record of the towns and territory assigned by casting lots to the descendants of Aaron, who were from the clan of Kohath. 55This included Hebron and its surrounding pasturelands in Judah, 56but the fields and outlying areas belonging to the city were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh. ⁵⁷So the descendants of Aaron were given the following towns, each with its surrounding pasturelands in Judah: Hebron, a refuge town, {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} Libnah, Jattir, Eshtemoa, 58Hilen, Debir, ⁵⁹Ashan and Beth-Shemesh. ⁶⁰And from the territory of Benjamin they were given Geba, Alemeth, and Anathoth, each with its pasturelands. So 13 towns were given to the descendants of Aaron. ⁶¹The remaining descendants of Kohath received 10 towns from East Manasseh. 62The descendants of Gershom received 13 towns in the territories of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and in the Bashan area of East Manasseh. 63The descendants of Merari received 12 towns from the territories of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun. 64So the people of Israel assigned all these towns and pasturelands to the Levites. ⁶⁵All the towns were chosen by casting lots including towns in the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin. 66The descendants of Kohath received from the tribe of Ephraim these towns, each with its surrounding pasturelands: ⁶⁷Shechem (a refuge town in the hill country of Ephraim), Gezer, ⁶⁸Jokmeam, Beth-Horon, ⁶⁹Aijalon, and Gath-Rimmon. 70 The remaining descendants of Kohath were assigned these towns from the territory of East Manasseh, Aner and Bileam, each with its pasturelands. 71The descendants of Gershom received from the territory of East Manasseh the towns of Golan in Bashan with its pasturelands and Ashtaroth with its pasturelands. 72The Gershomites were given four towns in Issachar, Kedesh, Daberath, 73Ramoth, and Anem, with their pasturelands. 74From the territory of Asher they received Mashal, Abdon, 75Hukok, and Rehob, with their pasturelands. 76And the Gershomites received three towns in Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon, and Kiriathaim, each with its pasturelands. 77The remaining descendants of Merari received from the tribe of Zebulun the towns of Rimmon and Tabor, each with its pasturelands. ⁷⁸From the territory of Reuben, east of the Jordan River opposite Jericho, the Merari descendants received Bezer in the desert, Jahzah, 79Kedemoth, and Mephaath, with their pasturelands. 80 And from the territory of Gad, they received Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim, ⁸¹Heshbon, and Jazer, with their pasturelands.

1 Chronicles 7 Descendants of Issachar

¹The four sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} 2The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, and Shemuel. Each of them was the leader of an ancestral clan. At the time of King David, the number of men available for military service from these families was 22.600. The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah. The sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Ioel, and Isshiah. These five became the leaders of clans. ⁴All of them had many wives and many sons, so the total number of men available for military service among their descendants was 36,000. 5The total number of mighty warriors from all the clans of the tribe of Issachar was 87,000. All of them were listed in their genealogical records.

⁶Three of Benjamin's sons were Bela, Beker, and Jediael. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ⁷The five sons of Bela were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri. These five warriors were the leaders of clans. The number was 22,034. ⁸The sons of Beker were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. ⁹The number of soldiers in their clan was 20,200, in addition to their clan leaders. ¹⁰Jediael was the father of Bilhan and the grandfather of Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Kenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar. ¹¹They were leaders in their clan, which included 17,200 men available for military service. ¹²The sons of Ir were Shuppim and Huppim, and Hushim was the son of Aher. ¹³The sons of Naphrali were Jahziel, Guni.

¹³The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum. They were descendants of Jacob's concubine Bilhah. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1}

¹⁴The sons of Manasseh, born to his Syrian concubine, were Asriel and Makir, father of Gilead. 15 Makir found a wife for Huppim and one for Shuppim. Makir's sister was named Maacah. One of Manasseh's descendants was Zelophehad, who had daughters but no sons. 16 Makir and his wife, Maacah, had two sons, Peresh and Sheresh. The sons of Peresh were Ulam and Rakem. 17 The son of Ulam was Bedan, All these were descendants of Gilead, Makir and grandson of Manasseh. 18 Makir's sister Hammoleketh was the mother of Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah. 19The sons of Shemida were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

²⁰The sons of Ephraim {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} were Shuthelah, Bered, Tahath, Eleadah, Tahath, ²¹Zabad, and Shuthelah. Ezer, and Elead, two other sons of Ephraim, were killed trying to steal livestock from local farmers near Gath. ²²Their father, Ephraim, mourned for them a long time and his relatives came to comfort him. ²³Later Ephraim's wife gave birth to a son, and Ephraim named him Beriah (meaning "Misery") because of the tragedy his family had suffered. ²⁴Ephraim had a daughter named Sheerah. She built the towns of Lower Upper Beth-Horon, and Uzzen-Sheerah. ²⁵Ephraim's line of descent was Rephah, Resheph, Telah, Tahan, 26Ladan, Ammihud, Elishama, ²⁷Nun, and Joshua. ²⁸The descendants of Ephraim lived in the territory that included Bethel and its surrounding towns to the south, Naaran to the east, Gezer and its villages to the west, and Shechem and its villages to the north as far as Ayyah and nearby villages. ²⁹Along the border of West Manasseh were the towns of Beth-Shean, West Taanach, Megiddo, Dor, and their surrounding villages. The descendants of Joseph, son of Jacob, lived in these towns. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

³⁰The sons of Asher {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah. They had a sister named Serah. ³¹The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malkiel, the father of Birzaith. ³²Heber was the father of Japhlet, Shomer, and Hotham, and a daughter Shua. 33 The sons of Japhlet were Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath. 34The sons of Shomer were Ahi, Rohgah, Hubbah, and Aram. 35 The sons of his brother Hotham were Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal. ³⁶The sons of Zophah were Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, ³⁷Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran, and Beera. ³⁸The sons of Jether were Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara. ³⁹The sons of Ulla were Arah, Hanniel, and Rizia. ⁴⁰Each of these descendants of Asher was the head of a clan. They were all skilled warriors and prominent leaders. The tribe of Asher had 26,000 soldiers.

1 Chronicles 8 Descendants of Benjamin

¹The sons of Benjamin were {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} Bela, Ashbel, Aharah, ²Nohah, and Rapha. ³The sons of Bela were Addar, Gera, Abihud, ⁴Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, ⁵Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram. ⁶The sons of Ehud were leaders of the clans living at Geba, but later they had to move to Manahath. ⁷Ehud's sons were Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera, Gera, the father of Uzza and Ahihud, led them when they moved. 8After Shaharaim divorced his wives Hushim and Baara, he had children in the land of Moab. 9He and Hodesh, his new wife, were parents of Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, ¹⁰Jeuz, Sakia, and Mirmah. These sons all became the leaders of clans. 11Shaharaim's wife Hushim had already given birth to Abitub and Elpaal. ¹²The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham, Shemed (who built Ono and Lod and their villages), ¹³Beriah, and Shema. They were the leaders of the clans living in Aijalon, and they forced out the inhabitants of Gath. 14The son of Beriah were Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, ¹⁵Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, ¹⁶Michael, Ishpah, and Joha. ¹⁷The sons of Elpaal were Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, ¹⁸Ishmerai, Izliah, and Jobab. ¹⁹Shimei's sons were Jakim, Zicri, Zabdi, 20Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, ²¹Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath. ²²Shashak was the father of Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, 23 Abdon, Zicri, Hanan, ²⁴Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, ²⁵Iphdeiah, and Penuel. ²⁶Jeroham's sons were Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, ²⁷Jaareshiah, Elijah, and Zicri. ²⁸These were family leaders in their clans, and they were listed in their tribal genealogy. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} They all lived in Jerusalem. 29 Jeiel settled the town of Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah, 30 and his sons were Abdon, Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 31Gedor, Ahio, Zeker, ³²and Mikloth, father of Shimeah. All these families lived near each other in Jerusalem. 33Ner was the father of Kish and the grandfather of Saul. Saul's sons were Jonathan, Malkishua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal. 34 Ionathan was the father of Meribbaal, Meribbaal was the father of Micah. 35 Micah was the father of Pithon. Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz. 36Ahaz was the father of Jehoaddah, who was the father of Alemeth, Azmayeth, and Zimri, Zimri was the father of Moza. ³⁷Moza was the father of Binea. Binea was the father of Rephah. Rephah was the father of Eleasah. Eleasah was the father of Azel. ³⁸Azel had six sons: Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. 39Azel's brother Eshek had three sons: Ulam, Jeush, and Eliphelet. 40The sons of Ulam were all skilled warriors and expert archers. They had 150 sons and grandsons.

1 Chronicles 9 The Return from Captivity to Jerusalem

¹Everyone in Israel was listed in the family records included in the book of the kings of Israel. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} The people of Judah were taken as captives to Babylon because they were unfaithful to the LORD. ²The first to return to their towns were priests, Levites, temple assistants, and others. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} ³People from the tribes of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and West Manasseh settled in Jerusalem. 4One family that returned was that of Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, a descendant of Perez, son of Judah. 5Others returned from the Shilonite clan, including Asaiah and his sons. ⁶Jeuel and his relatives were from the clan of Zerah. In all, 690 families from the tribe of Judah returned. 7From the tribe of Benjamin came Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hassenuah; 8Ibneiah son of Jeroham; Elah son of Uzzi, son of Micri; and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibnijah. 9These men were all leaders of clans. In all, 956 families from the tribe of Benjamin returned. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

¹⁰Among the priests who returned were Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jakin, ¹¹Azariah, a temple official and son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub. ¹²Other returning priests were Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malkijah, and Maasai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer. ¹³In all, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 1,760 priests returned. They were capable heads of clans and they served in the temple.

¹⁴The Levites who returned were Shemaiah, son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, a descendant of Merari;

¹⁵Bakbakkar; Heresh; Galal; Mattaniah, son of Mica, son of Zicri, son of Asaph; ¹⁶Obadiah, son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun; and Berekiah, son of Asa, son of Elkanah, who lived in the area of Netophah. 17The gatekeepers who returned were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their relatives. Shallum was the chief gatekeeper. ¹⁸Before this, they had guarded the King's Gate on the east side. These men served as gatekeepers for the camps of the Levites. 19Shallum was the son of Kore, a descendant of Ebiasaph, from the clan of Korah. He and his relatives, the Korahites, guarded the entrance to the temple just as their ancestors had guarded the tabernacle entrance. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 20Phinehas, son of Eleazar, had been in charge of the gatekeepers in earlier times, and the LORD had been with him. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²¹And later Zechariah, son of Meshelemiah guarded the tabernacle. ²²In all, there were 212 gatekeepers in those days, and they were listed by their family records in their villages. David and the prophet Samuel had appointed their ancestors because they were reliable men. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ²³These gatekeepers and their descendants guarded the temple entrance. 24The gatekeepers were stationed on all four sides of the temple. ²⁵Occasionally their relatives in the villages came regularly to share their duties for a week at a time. ²⁶The four chief gatekeepers were Levites, responsible for the treasuries in the temple rooms. ²⁷They guarded the temple {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} day and night, and they opened the gates every morning. {168 First Prayer Each Day, Luke 11:1-2} ²⁸Some of the gatekeepers were assigned to care for the various utensils used in worship, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} and they counted them before and after each time they were used. ²⁹Others were responsible for the temple furnishings, various items in the temple, and supplies such as flour, wine, olive oil, incense, and spices. 30But only the priests mixed the spices and incense. ³¹Mattithiah, a Levite {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} and the oldest son of Shallum the Korahite, baked bread used in the offerings. 32And some Levites of the clan of Kohath prepared the bread to be set on the table each Sabbath day. 33 The musicians, {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} all prominent Levites, lived at the temple. They were on duty day and night. 34All these men lived in Jerusalem. They were the heads of Levite families and were listed as prominent leaders in their family records.

³⁵Jeiel, the father of Gibeon, lived in the town of Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah, ³⁶and his sons were Abdon, Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, ³⁷Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth. ³⁸Mikloth was the father of Shimeam. All these families lived near each other in Jerusalem. ³⁹Ner was the father of Kish and the grandfather of Saul. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malkishua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal. ⁴⁰Jonathan was the father of Meribbaal and the grandfather of Micah ⁴¹and the great-grandfather of Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz. ⁴²Ahaz was the father of Jarah. Jarah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri was the father of Moza. ⁴³Moza was the father of Binea. Binea's son was Rephaiah. Rephaiah's son was Eleasah. Eleasah's son was Azel, ⁴⁴who had six sons: Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan.

1 Chronicles 10 The Death of Saul and His Sons

¹The Philistines attacked Israel at Mount Gilboa and killed many of them. And others ran. 2The Philistines killed three of Saul's sons, Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malkishua. ³Philistine archers caught up with Saul and wounded him severely. ⁴Saul said to his armor bearer, "Take your sword and kill me. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} I don't want these pagan Philistines to make fun of me." But his armor bearer was afraid and would not do it. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it. 5When his armor bearer realized that Saul was dead. he fell on his own sword and died. {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} 6So Saul and his three sons died there together. 7When all the Israelites in the Jezreel Valley learned that their army had run and that Saul and his sons were dead, they ran away too. So the Philistines moved into those towns. ⁸The next day the Philistines went back to the battlefield to get the weapons and equipment of the dead men. When they saw the bodies of Saul and his sons on Mount Gilboa, 9they took his armor and cut off his head. Then they spread the good news of Saul's death before their idols and to the people throughout Philistia. ¹⁰They placed his armor in the temple of their gods, and they hung his head in the temple of their god Dagon.

¹¹But when the people of Jabesh-Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²some men {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} got the bodies of Saul and his sons and brought them back to Jabesh. Then they buried them under the oak tree at Jabesh, and fasted for seven days.

¹³So Saul died because he was unfaithful to the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} He failed to obey the LORD'S command, and he even consulted a medium ¹⁴instead of asking the LORD for guidance. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} So the LORD killed him and turned the kingdom over to David, son of Jesse.

1 Chronicles 11 David Is King of All Israel

¹Then all Israel went to David at Hebron and told him, "We are your relatives. ²For a long time, even while Saul was our king, you were the one who really led Israel in our military campaigns. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} And the LORD promised you that you will be our leader like a shepherd." ³So at Hebron, David made an agreement with the elders of Israel. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} They poured oil on him to show he was now their king, just as the prophet Samuel had said. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10}

⁴Then David and all Israel went to attack Jerusalem (which used to be called Jebus). ⁵The people of Jebus said to David, "You'll never get in here!" But David captured the fortress of Zion, now called the City of David. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} David had said to his troops, "Whoever leads the attack against the Jebusites will become the commander of my armies." {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} And Joab, the son of David's sister Zeruiah, led the attack so he became the commander of David's armies. 7David made the fortress his home, and that is why it is called the City of David. 8He extended the city from the supporting terraces in the Millo to the surrounding area, while Joab rebuilt the rest of Jerusalem. 9And David became more and more powerful, because the LORD of the Heavens was with him. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

¹⁰Together with all Israel, David's leaders determined to make him their king, just as the LORD had promised.

¹¹The first was Jashobeam the Hacmonite, who was commander of the three—the three greatest warriors among David's men. He once killed 300 men with his spear. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹²Next in rank among the three was Eleazar son of Dodo, a descendant of Ahoah. ¹³He was with David in the battle against the Philistines at Pas-Dammim. The battle took place in a barley field, and the Israelite army fled. ¹⁴But Eleazar and David stood in the field and defeated the Philistines. So the LORD gave them a great victory. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁵Once when David was at the rock near Adullam Cave, the Philistine army was camped in the Rephaim Valley. The three (who were among the thirty—an elite group among David's fighting men) went down to meet him there. 16David was staying in the fortress at the time, and some Philistines had occupied the town of Bethlehem. ¹⁷David said to his men, {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} "How I wish I had some of that good water from the well by the gate in Bethlehem." 18So the three broke through the Philistine lines, got some water from the well by the gate in Bethlehem, and brought it back to David. But he refused to drink it. Instead he poured it out before the LORD. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} 19"God forbid that I should drink this," he said. "This water is as precious as the blood of these men who risked their lives to bring it to me." So David did not drink it.

²⁰Abishai, brother of Joab, who was also David's nephew, was the leader of the thirty. In one battle he killed 300 men with his spear. He was not one of David's three, {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} but he was as famous as they were. 21But he was the most famous of the thirty and was their commander. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²²Benaiah son of Jehoiada, was a brave soldier from Kabzeel. He did some amazing things, {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} including killing two of Moab's best soldiers. Another time he chased a lion down into a pit, and despite the snow and slippery ground, he caught the lion and killed it. ²³Another time he killed an Egyptian warrior who was 7 ½ feet tall and whose spear was as thick as a weaver's beam. Benaiah grabbed the spear from the Egyptian and killed him with it. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁴These are some of the deeds that made Benaiah as famous as the three, though he was not one of them. ²⁵Yet he was more famous than the other members of the thirty. And David made him captain of his bodyguard.

²⁶These were also included among David's mighty men: Asahel, Joab's brother; Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem: ²⁷Shammoth from Haror; Helez from Pelon; ²⁸Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa; Abiezer from Anathoth; ²⁹Sibbecai from Hushah; Ilai from Ahoah; 30Maharai from Netophah; Heled son of Baanah from Netophah; 31Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin; Benaiah from Pirathon; 32Hurai from near Nahale-Gaash; Abiel from Arbah; 33Azmaveth from Bahurim: Eliahba from Shaalbon: 34the sons of Hashem from Gizon; Jonathan son of Shagee from Harar; 35Ahiam son of Sacar from Harar; Eliphal son of Ur; ³⁶Hepher from Mekerah; Ahijah from Pelon; ³⁷Hezro from Carmel; Naarai son of Ezbai; 38 Joel, the brother of Nathan; Mibhar son of Hagri; 39Zelek from Ammon; Naharai from Beeroth (Joab's armor bearer); 40Ira from Jattir; Gareb from Jattir; 41 Uriah the Hittite; Zabad son of Ahlai; 42Adina son of Shiza, the Reubenite leader who had 30 men with him: ⁴³Hanan son of Maacah; Joshaphat from Mithna; 44Uzzia from Ashtaroth; Shama and Jeiel, the sons of Hotham, from Aroer; ⁴⁵Jediael son of Shimri; Joha, his brother, from Tiz:

⁴⁶Eliel from Mahavah; Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam; Ithmah from Moab; ⁴⁷Eliel and Obed; Jaasiel from Mezobah.

1 Chronicles 12 David's Army Expands

¹While David was hiding from Saul in Ziklag, {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} the following 23 men joined David there and fought with him. ²They were experts in using bows and arrows and they could sling a stone with either hand. They were all relatives of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin. 3Their leader was Ahiezer son of Shemaah from Gibeah, and his brother Joash was second-in-command. These were the other warriors: Jeziel and Pelet, sons of Azmaveth; Beracah and Jehu from Anathoth; ⁴Ishmaiah from Gibeon, a famous warrior and leader among the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad from Gederah; 5Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, and Shephatiah from Haruph; ⁶Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, who were Korahites; ⁷Joelah and Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham from Gedor. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} 8Some brave soldiers from the tribe of Gad also joined David while he was at the fortress in the desert. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} They were good with both shield and spear, as fierce as lions and as swift as gazelles on the mountains. 9Ezer was their leader, and Obadiah was second in command. The others were Eliab. ¹⁰Mishmannah, Jeremiah, ¹¹Attai, Eliel, ¹²Johanan, Elzabad, ¹³Jeremiah, and Macbannai. 14All these warriors from Gad were army commanders. The weakest among them could take on 100 regular troops, and the strongest could take on 1,000. ¹⁵They crossed the Jordan River during its seasonal flooding at the beginning of the year and forced out all the people living in the valleys on each side of the river. ¹⁶Others from Benjamin and Judah joined David at his fortress. ¹⁷David went out to meet them and said, "If you have come to help me, you are welcome. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} But if you try to turn me over to my enemies, the God of our ancestors will punish you." 18 Then the Spirit came on Amasai, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} who later became a leader among the thirty, and he said, "We are yours, David! We are on your side, son of Jesse. Peace and prosperity be with you, and success to all who help you, for your God is the one who helps you." {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} So David let them join him, and he made them officers over his troops. 19Some men from West Manasseh left the Israelite army and joined David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. But as it turned out, the Philistine leaders refused to let David and his men go with them. They sent them back to Ziklag because they said, "If David turns against us, he will kill us." 20 These are the men from Manasseh who joined David as he was returning to Ziklag: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai. Each commanded 1,000 troops, and as brave men ²¹they helped David defeat raiding bands.

{105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²²Every day more men joined David until he had a great army.

²³These are the many thousands of armed warriors who joined David at Hebron. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} They were all eager to see David become king instead of Saul, just as the LORD had promised. These soldiers included ²⁴6,800 from Judah, armed with shields and spears; ²⁵7,100 from Simeon; ²⁶4,600 troops from Levi, ²⁷including Jehoiada, leader of the family of Aaron, who had 3,700 under his command, ²⁸and Zadok, a young warrior with 22 of his relatives who were all officers; ²⁹3,000 from Benjamin, Saul's tribe; ³⁰20,800 from Ephraim, all famous in his tribe; 3118,000 from West Manasseh, chosen to help make David king; 32200 leaders and their relatives from Issachar, men who knew the times and the best course of action Israel should take; 3350,000 from Zebulun who were skilled, armed for battle, and loyal to David. 341,000 officers and 37,000 warriors from Naphtali, all armed with shields and spears; 3528,600 warriors from Dan; 3640,000 from Asher; 37 and 120,000 from Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh, armed with all kinds of weapons. ³⁸All these men {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} came to Hebron to make David king of Israel. Everyone in Israel wanted David to be their king ³⁹They feasted and drank with David for three days, enjoying food prepared by their relatives for their arrival. 40 And people from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen. Vast supplies of flour, fig cakes, clusters of raisins, wine, olive oil, cattle, and sheep were brought to the celebration. Everyone in Israel was very glad. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

Lord, those who love You attract followers who love them. I will love You with all my heart; put people around me so we can follow You together. Amen.

1 Chronicles 13 The Ark Is Moved from Kiriath-Jearim

¹David talked with his officials, and army commanders ² and then said to all Israel, "If you approve and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let's invite all the Israelites throughout the land, including the priests and Levites in their towns and pasturelands, to come join us here. 3It is time to bring back the sacred chest, for it was ignored when Saul was king." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 4The people agreed to this, for they could see it was the right thing to do. 5So David asked all the people of Israel, {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} from one end of the country to the other, to join in bringing the sacred chest from Kiriath-Jearim.

⁶Then they all went to Kinath (also called Baalah of Judah) to bring back the sacred chest. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁷They placed it on a new ox cart, guided by Uzzah and Ahio. ⁸David and the Israelites sang praises to the LORD with great enthusiasm, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and they played music on lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16}

⁹When they arrived at Kidon's threshing floor, the oxen stumbled, and Uzzah steadied the chest. ¹⁰The LORD was so angry that Uzzah touched the sacred chest that He killed him right there. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 11David too was angry, and he named the place Perez-Uzzah (meaning "Outbreak against Uzzah"). ¹²Afraid of what the LORD might do to him, {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} David asked himself, "Am I really the one to bring the sacred chest to the City of David?" 13So he decided to take the chest to Obed-Edom, in Gath. 14The chest was there for three months, and the Lord blessed Obed-Edom and his family. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

1 Chronicles 14 David Prospers as King

¹King Hiram of Tyre sent masons and carpenters and cedar logs to build a palace for David. ²David knew that God had made him a powerful king for the benefit of his people. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

³David moved to Jerusalem, where he married more wives, ⁴and had these sons there: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ⁵Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, ⁶Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁷Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet. ⁸Hearing that David was king of Israel, the Philistines went to capture him. David heard they were coming, so he and his men went to meet them. 9The Philistines were attacking villages in the Rephaim Valley. 10So David asked the LORD if he should attack the Philistines, and if the LORD would help him. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} The LORD said, "Yes, go attack them, and I will give you the victory." {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} 11So he attacked and defeated the Philistines at Baal-Perazim, and he said, "God has helped me defeat my enemy much like water breaking through a dam." That's why the place was called Baal-Perazim (meaning "The Lord Broke Through"). 12The people then burned the idols the Philistines left there. 13 Again the Philistines raided the Rephaim Valley, 14 and David asked the Lord what he should do. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} God replied, "Circle around behind the mulberry trees and attack them there. ¹⁵In the treetops you will hear what sounds like soldiers marching. That will mean I have moved against the Philistines, and so you should attack them." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 16So David did what the LORD said to do, and he chased the Philistines all the way from Gibeon to Gezer. ¹⁷So David became very famous, and people everywhere feared him. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

Lord, there's one thing I want from You. I want to be in Your house to see Your beauty, I want to delight in Your presence. When You said to me, "Seek My face." I answered, "Your face will I seek." Lord, I will wait courageously for You because I know You will deliver me; I know You will come to me. Amen (from Ps. 27).

1 Chronicles 15 The Ark of God Is Moved to Jerusalem

¹David built several buildings for himself in the City of David, and then he built a tent for the sacred chest. {540 Worshiping God in the Backyard, Ps. 134} 2He said, "Only Levites are to carry the chest because God has chosen them as the ones to carry it and serve Him forever." {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 3David invited all Israel to come to Jerusalem to celebrate bringing the sacred chest to the tent that was set up for it. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 4The following are the priests and Levites who were there for the occasion: 5120 from the Kohath clan, with Uriel as their leader; 6220 from the Merari clan, with Asaiah as their leader; 7130 from the Gershom clan, with Joel as their leader; 8200 descendants of Elizaphan, with Shemaiah as their leader; 980 descendants of Hebron, with Eliel as their leader; and 10112 descendants of Uzziel, with Amminadab as their leader. ¹¹Then David said to the priests Zadok and Abiathar and the six Levite leaders. Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab, 12"as leaders of the Levite families, you must be ceremonially clean {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} so you can bring the sacred chest to the tent that I have set up for it. ¹³Because you Levites didn't bring the chest the first time, the LORD was angry. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} We didn't ask the LORD how to carry it." 14So the priests and Levites made themselves ceremonially clean to get ready to take the sacred chest to Jerusalem. 15The Levites carried the chest with poles that rested on their shoulders, as God had told them to do. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 16David also had the Levites select some of their group to sing and play lyres, harps, and cymbals. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ¹⁷The music directors were Heman son of Joel, Asaph son of Berekiah, and Ethan son of Kushaiah, all from the Merari clan. 18 Their assistants were Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, and two gatekeepers: Obed-Edom and Jeiel. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 19Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} ²⁰And Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah were to play lyres according to the alamoth tune. 21 And Mattithiah, Eliphelelu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah were to play the harps according to the Sheminith tune. ²²The song leader was Kenaniah, {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} a skilled musician, ²³Berekiah and Elkanah were chosen to guard the sacred chest. ²⁴And the priests Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer were to blow trumpets as they marched in front of the sacred chest. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were also chosen to guard the chest.

²⁵David, the elders of Israel, and army commanders were very happy when they went to the home of Obed-Edom to bring the sacred chest to Jerusalem. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ²⁶God helped the Levites to carry the chest, and so they sacrificed seven bulls and seven lambs. ²⁷David, the Levites carrying the chest, the singers, and Kenaiah the song leader were all dressed in linen robes, and David was also wearing a priestly vest. ²⁸So the sacred chest was brought to Jerusalem as the people shouted and as the Levites played horns, trumpets, cymbals, harps, and lyres. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} ²⁹As the chest arrived in Jerusalem, Michal, David's wife who was Saul's daughter, saw David dancing in honor of the Lord, and she was disgusted with him.

1 Chronicles 16 The Ark Is Moved to Jerusalem

¹They put the chest in the tent David had made for it, {540 Worshiping God in the Backyard, Ps. 134} and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

Lord, I will come to David's tabernacle to worship You, for that's where Your presence dwelt. Amen.

²Then David blessed the people, {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ³and he gave each Israelite a loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake. ⁴David selected the following Levites to lead the people in worshiping at the sacred chest {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} in praising and thanking the God of Israel: {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ⁵Asaph, the leader of the group, sounded the cymbals. His assistants were Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel. They played harps and lyres. ⁶The priests Benaiah and Jahaziel played trumpets regularly in front of the sacred chest. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16}

⁷David told Asaph and his Levites to sing this song of thanks to the LORD: {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

8"Praise the LORD and pray to Him. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} Tell everyone what He has done. Sing praises to Him. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} Tell everyone about His miracles. Glory in His holy name, and rejoice in worshiping Him. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} Seek the LORD and His strength, and seek Him always.

¹²Remember the wonderful miracles He did {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} and His decisions, ¹³O Israelites and descendants of Jacob. ¹⁴ The LORD is our God and His justice is seen throughout the land. ¹⁵Remember His agreement {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} and His promises to a thousand generations. ¹⁶⁻¹⁷He made an eternal promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob ¹⁸ when He said, 'I will give you Canaan as yours forever.' {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

¹⁹"At the time there were only a few of us, strangers in Canaan. ²⁰We wandered all from one nation to another, and God did not let them mistreat us. ²¹He warned their kings ²²not to touch us, the people He had chosen, and His prophets.

²³"The whole earth should sing to the LORD {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} and say each day that He saves. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁴Tell every nation about His wonderful and marvelous deeds. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²⁵He is great, and is worthy of all praise. He is to be revered above all gods. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ²⁶The gods of other nations are only man-made idols, but the LORD made the heavens. ²⁷Honor and majesty are around Him, and power and beauty fill His temple.

²⁸"Nations of the world recognize His glory and strength. ²⁹Give Him the praise He deserves. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} And worship Him with your offerings. 30 Everyone on the earth should tremble before Him. The world is firm and can't be shaken. 31Let everyone in the heavens and on the earth be glad. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} Let all nations know that the LORD reigns. ³²Let everything in the oceans shout praise to the LORD, and let the fields and their crops rejoice. 33Let all the trees in the forest praise the LORD. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} He is coming to judge everyone.

34"Thank the LORD for being so good. Thank Him that His love endures forever. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15}

³⁵Say to the LORD, 'Save us, O God of our salvation. Rescue us from the nations so we can thank Your holy name and praise You with joy.' ³⁶May the LORD, the God of Israel, be blessed forever!" And all the people shouted "Amen" and praised the LORD. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

³⁷David selected Asaph and the Levites in his clan to serve each day in front of the sacred chest, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} doing whatever needed to be done each day. ³⁸In this group were Obed-Edom, Hosah, and 68 other Levites as gatekeepers. 39Also David left Zadok the priests and his fellow priests on the hill of Gibeon, 40to sacrifice burnt offerings {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} each morning and evening on an altar there. ⁴¹David also appointed Heman, Jeduthun, and others to praise the LORD for His loyal love. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} 42Heman and Jeduthun played trumpets and cymbals and other musical instruments in praise to the LORD. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} Jeduthun's sons were guards at Gibeon. ⁴³Then everyone went home, and David went home to bless his family.

1 Chronicles 17 God's Promise to David

¹After David had moved into his palace, he told the prophet Nathan that he was concerned that he was living in a beautiful cedar palace, but the sacred chest was still in a tent. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps.

16:11} ²Nathan said, "So whatever you'd like, the LORD is with you."

3-4 That night God said to Nathan to tell David, "David, you are My servant. But you are not the one to build Me a temple. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁵From the time I rescued Israel from Egypt, I have lived in a tent, moving from one location to another. 6I never complained to Israel's leaders, shepherds of My people, that they didn't build Me a temple of cedar. ⁷This is what the LORD of the Heavens says: 'When you were a shepherd, I chose you to be ruler over Israel. 8I have been with you, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and I have helped you defeat your enemies. I have made you a very famous person. 9I have provided a homeland for My people, where they can live in peace. Wicked nations won't trouble them as they did in the past and have done since I appointed leaders over the people. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁰I will conquer all your enemies.

"And I will build a house for you. But this house will be a dynasty of kings. ¹¹When you die, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} I will place one of your sons on your throne and he will be a strong ruler. ¹²He will build Me a temple, and I will continue his rule from generation to generation. ¹³I will be like a father to him, and he will be like a son to Me. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} I will never take away My unfailing love as I did from Saul. ¹⁴I will be sure your sons and his descendants will rule My people forever." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ¹⁵Nathan told David all that God had said.

¹⁶Then David prayed, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} "Who am I and my family that You have done so much for me? ¹⁷And with everything else You have done, You now promise to make my descendants kings as if I were an important person. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ¹⁸How You have honored me. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ¹⁹This was Your choice to promise me these things. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ²⁰No one is like You. In fact there is no other God. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} as we well know. ²¹And no other nation is like Israel, the nation You rescued from slavery in Egypt to be Your own. You became well known because of the great miracles {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} by which You forced out other nations. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²²You have chosen us to be Your own forever, and You are their God.

²³"Now, please do as You promised about me and my descendants. ²⁴Then You will be famous forever, and people will know that You, LORD of the Heavens, are our God. ²⁵I'm praying to You because You said You would make my descendants kings. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ²⁶You are the LORD God, and You have given me this wonderful promise. ²⁷Now bless my descendants. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} You have blessed my family, and I know You will continue to bless them."

1 Chronicles 18 David's Victories in Battle

¹Later David defeated the Philistines, capturing Gath and nearby villages. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²He also defeated the Moabites and required them to pay him taxes. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³Also Hadadezer king of Zobah was trying to control the area near the Euphrates River. But David fought him in a battle at Hamath, ⁴and David captured 1,000 chariots, 7,000 chariot drivers, and 20,000 soldiers. He also cut the leg muscles of all but 100 of the chariot horses. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

⁵Syrian troops from Damascus went to help Hadadezer, but David killed 22,000 of them. ⁶David stationed some soldiers in Damascus, and the Syrians paid him taxes. The LORD gave David victory in all his battles. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁷Hadadezer's officers had gold shields, but David brought them to Jerusalem. 8He also took a lot of bronze from Hadadezer's towns of Tibhath and Cun, and later Solomon melted the bronze and used it to make the huge water tank and columns, and various bronze articles for the temple. ⁹Tou king of Hamath heard that David defeated Hadadezer. 10So he sent his son Joram to commend David for his victory. Joram gave David many gifts made of gold, silver, and bronze. 11David gave all these gifts to the LORD, {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} along with the silver and gold he had taken from Edom, Moab, Ammon, Philistia, and Amalek.

¹²Abishai, David's nephew, killed 18,000 Edomites in the Salt Valley.

¹³David stationed some troops in Edom, and David was their ruler. The LORD gave David victory in all his battles. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁴David ruled over all Israel and was fair to everyone. ¹⁵His nephew Joab was his army commander; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was government recorder; ¹⁶Zadok son of Ahitub and Abimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was court secretary; ¹⁷and Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over David's bodyguard of Kerethites and Pelethites. David's sons were his chief assistants.

1 Chronicles 19 David Conquers Ammon and Syria

¹Later Nahash king of Ammon died, and his son Hanun became king. ²David decided to be kind to the new king Hanun because Nahash had been kind to David. So David sent some men to express {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38} his sympathy to Hanun. ³When David's men arrived, the Ammonite leaders said to Hanun, "Surely you don't think David's men are here to express sympathy. They have come to spy on us so David can defeat us." ⁴So Hanun arrested David's men, shaved off their beards and cut off their clothes just below the waist and sent them off.

⁵These men were very embarrassed, and so when David heard what happened, he sent messengers to tell them to stay at Jericho till their beards grew back. ⁶The Ammonites realized they had made David very mad, so Hanun sent 38 tons of silver to hire chariots and chariot drivers from Mesopotamia and the Syrian kingdoms of Maacah and Zokah. ⁷He hired 32,000 chariots and chariot drivers and the king of Maacah with his troops. These all camped at Medebah, and the Ammonite soldiers joined them. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} 8When David heard about this, he sent Joab with his army to meet them in battle. 9The Ammonite soldiers positioned themselves near the city gate, and the others were in the open fields. ¹⁰Seeing that he would need to fight on two fronts, he selected his best soldiers to fight the Syrians in the fields. ¹¹He put his other troops under Abishai his brother to fight the Ammonites. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ¹²Joab told him, "If the Syrians are too much for me, then come and help me. Or if the Ammonites are too much for you, I'll help you. 13Be brave and fight hard. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} May the Lord do what He feels is best." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹⁴Joab and his army attacked the Syrians, and they ran away. 15When the Ammonites saw this, they too left the battlefield and went into the city. Then Joab went back to Jerusalem. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁶After the Syrians saw all this, they sent for additional Syrian troops from near the Euphrates River, who were under the Syrian commander Shophach. ¹⁷Hearing of this, David got Israel's entire army to cross the Jordan River and advance against the Syrians. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} David fought the Syrians, ¹⁸and

they ran from the Israelites. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} David's men killed 7,000 of their chariot drivers and 40,000 soldiers including Shophach, their army commander. ¹⁹When the kings under Hadadezer saw that Israel had defeated their armies, they made peace with David. The Syrians never helped the Ammonites again.

1 Chronicles 20 David Defeats Rabbah

¹In the spring Joab, not David, led David's soldiers to battle the Ammonites. He destroyed their city of Rabbah, leaving it in ruins. ²David took the gold crown of their king, which weighed 75 pounds and had several gems in it, and placed it on his head. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} He took away a lot of valuable things from the city, ³ and he forced the people of Rabbah to work for him with saws, picks, and axes. David did the same thing to people in other Ammonite cities. Then David and his army went back to Jerusalem.

⁴Later Israel fought the Philistines at Gezer. Sibbecai from Hushah killed Sippai, a descendant of the giant Rephaites, {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} and the Philistines were defeated. ⁵In another battle Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi, Goliath's brother. Lahmi's spear was as thick as a weaver's beam. ⁶In a battle at Gath a tall man had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. He too was a descendant of the Rephaites who were giants. ⁷When he made fun of Israel, Jonathan, son of Shimea and David's nephew, killed him. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 8These three descendants of the giant Rapha in Gath were killed by David's soldiers.

1 Chronicles 21 David Takes a Census

¹Satan encouraged David to take a census of Israel. ²So David told Joab and his commanders to count everyone in Israel from Beersheba in the south to Dan in the north, and to report the number to him. ³But Joab said, "Why? Even if you had 100 times the present number of soldiers, you would still be their ruler. Why cause Israel to sin?" {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

⁴But David insisted Joab take the census. So Joab did, ⁵and they reported the number to David. He said, "In Israel there were 1,100,000 men of military age, and in Judah the number was 470,000." ⁶Joab didn't like this idea of counting the soldiers, so he didn't count anyone in the Levi or Benjamin tribes.

⁷God was not happy that David did this, so He punished Israel. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁸Then David said to God, "I see now that I have sinned. This was foolish of me to take this count. Please forgive me." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

⁹The LORD told the prophet Gad ¹⁰to tell David, "I'll let you choose one of three ways in which I will punish Israel." {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} ¹¹So Gad went to David and said, "God is letting you choose one of three ways for punishment. ¹²You may have three years of famine. Or you may be defeated by your enemies for three months. Or I will send a terrible disease on the nation. Take your choice and I will tell the LORD." {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17}

¹³David said to Gad, "This is a tough decision. The LORD is king, so I prefer to have Him punish me rather than someone else. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} 14So the LORD sent a terrible disease throughout Israel, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and 70,000 people died. 15God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem, but when the LORD saw the people's suffering, he told the angel to stop. This was at the threshing floor that belonged to Ornan, the Jebusite. ¹⁶David saw the angel there holding a sword in his hand over Jerusalem. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Then he and his men, all clothed in coarse clothing in grief, fell down. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} 17David said to God, "I admit I am the one who had the soldiers counted. It's my fault. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} These people, innocent like sheep, have done nothing wrong. So punish me and my family, not these people." {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} 18The angel then told Gad to tell David to build an altar on Ornan's threshing floor, {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} 19and David did. ²⁰While Ornan was threshing wheat, he and his four sons saw the angel and ran and hid. 21When David arrived there, Ornan bowed to the ground before David. ²²David said, "Please sell me your threshing floor so I can build an altar to the LORD {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} so that the disease on our people will be stopped." ²³Ornan said, "It's yours. Do as you wish with it. You can take my oxen for your burnt offering {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and use the threshing sledges for wood, and take my wheat for your grain offering." ²⁴But David said, "No. I'll pay you what it's worth. I can't just take what is yours and offer a burnt offering that costs me nothing." {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

²⁵David paid Ornan about 15 pounds of gold for the site. ²⁶He built an altar {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} there and sacrificed burnt offerings and peace offerings. David prayed, and the LORD sent fire to burn up the offerings. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁷Then the LORD told the angel to put away his sword. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} 28When David saw that God answered his prayer, he offered more sacrifices on the altar. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²⁹The tabernacle and the altar that Moses had made in the desert were at Gibeon. 30 David didn't want to go there to sacrifice to the LORD {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} because he was afraid of the angel's sword.

1 Chronicles 22 David Prepared to Build the Temple

¹Then David said, "The temple of the LORD must be built right here at this threshing floor. And the altar of burnt offering will be here too." {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} 2So David ordered all resident foreigners in Israel to go to Jerusalem. He assigned some to cut stones for the temple. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ³He got a lot of iron for nails and hooks, and more bronze than could even be weighed. ⁴He also had many cedar logs brought from Sidon and Tyre. ⁵David said, "The temple must be great in every way so everyone will know about it. But since my son Solomon is young and inexperienced, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} I will get everything ready for it to be built."

⁶David then told Solomon to build a temple to the LORD, the God of Israel. ⁷He said to Solomon, "I wanted to build a temple. ⁸But the LORD told me I couldn't because I had killed a lot of people in many battles. ⁹But the LORD said, {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} "You will have a son who will have peace throughout his reign. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} His name Solomon (meaning 'Peaceful') will remind you of this peace. ¹⁰He will be like a son to Me, and I will be like his father. One of his descendants will always be on the throne.

11"May the LORD be with you and give you success in building the temple. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹²And may He give you wisdom and understanding to obey the law as you lead Israel. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹³If you obey the regulations and laws the LORD gave Moses, you will succeed. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} So be strong and courageous. Don't be afraid or discouraged. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

¹⁴"I have provided for the temple about 3,750 tons of gold and about 37,500 tons of silver, and so much bronze and iron that it can't even be weighed. I also have lots of wood and stone, although you may want to get even more. ¹⁵I have assigned many men {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} to be stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and many men skilled in working ¹⁶gold, silver, bronze, and iron. Now as you begin the work, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} I pray that the LORD will be with you."

¹⁷David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ¹⁸He said to them, "The LORD is with you and has given you peace. He has helped me defeat the people who lived here, {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} and now this land belongs to the LORD and His people. ¹⁹Obey the Lord with all your heart. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Build the temple of the LORD God so you can bring the sacred chest and items into the temple to honor Him." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Lord, I will focus on You in worship, not on the place, nor the method, nor the music. Amen.

1 Chronicles 23 The Levites and their Duties

¹When David was an old man, he made his son Solomon king over Israel. ²He called together all the leaders of Israel and priests and Levites for a ceremony to crown Solomon king. ³The Levites who were 30 years of age or older totaled 38,000. ⁴Then David said that 24,000 of them would oversee the temple construction, 6,000 would be officials and judges, ⁵4,000 would be gatekeepers, and 4,000 would be musicians to praise the LORD. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} ⁶Then David divided the Levites into three groups according to the descendants of Levi's three sons, Gershom, Kohath, and Merai.

⁷Gershom had two sons Ladan and Shimei. 8Three of Ladan's descendants were Jehiel, Zetham, and Joel. 9Three of Shimei's descendants were Shelemoth, Haziel, and Haran. 10-11 Four other sons of Shimei were Jahath, Ziza, Jeush, and Beriah. Jeush and Beriah didn't have many children, so their descendants were counted as one family. ¹²Kohath had four sons, Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. 13 The sons of Amram were Aaron and Moses. Aaron and his descendants were chosen to be in charge of the sacred things, to offer sacrifices to the LORD, {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} and to bless people in His name. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ¹⁴Moses, the man of God, had 15two sons, Gershom and Eliezer, and their descendants were considered Levites. ¹⁶The descendants of Gershom included Shebuel, the family leader. ¹⁷Eliezer had only one son, Rehabiah, the family leader. Rehabiah had numerous descendants. 18The descendants of Izhar included Shelomith, Kohath's second son, the family leader. ¹⁹The descendants of Hebron included Jeriah Kohath's three sons, Amariah, Jahaziel, and Jekameam.

²⁰The descendants of Uzziel were Micah Kohath's youngest son, and Isshiah.

²¹The descendants of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish. ²²Eleazar died with no sons, only daughters. His daughters married their cousins, the sons of Kish. ²³The three sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. ²⁴These were the descendants of Levi by clans, the leaders of their family groups, registered by name. Each had to be 20 years old or older to qualify for service in the temple. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²⁵David had said, "The LORD, the God of Israel, has given us peace, and He will live in Jerusalem. ²⁶Now the Levites won't need to carry the tabernacle and its furnishings. ²⁷All Levites, 20 years of age and older, ²⁸are to help Aaron's descendants in serving in the temple. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} They are to keep the courtyards and temple rooms clean, and to be sure everything used in worship is pure. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ²⁹They are to be in charge of the bread loaves for the table, the flour for the grain offerings, the wafers without yeast, cakes cooked in olive oil, and other ingredients for baking. 30Also every morning and evening they are to thank and praise the LORD. {168 First Prayer Each Day, Luke 11:1-2} ³¹They are to do the same when they offer burnt offerings on Sabbaths and New Moon festivals and other scheduled festivals." {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} There were always as many Levites present as were needed for the work in the temple. 32The Levites, supervised by the priests, took care of the temple and carried out their duties faithfully. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

Lord, I want to serve You in the right place, and in the right way. Amen.

1 Chronicles 24 The Priests Are Organized

¹Aaron's descendants, the priests, were divided into groups for service. Aaron had four sons, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 2But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and they had no sons. So that left Eleazar and Ithamar to be priests. 3With the help of Zadok, who was a descendant of Eleazar, and of Ahimelech. who was a descendant of Ithamar, David divided Aaron's descendants into groups. ⁴Eleazar's descendants were divided into 16 groups and Ithamar's into 8, for there were more family leaders among the descendants of Eleazar. 5 Tasks were assigned to the various groups by means of casting lots to be sure the work was divided fairly, for there were many qualified officials serving God in the temple. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} 6Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, was secretary and wrote down the names and assignments in the presence of the king, the officials, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the family leaders of the priests and Levites. The descendants of Eleazar and Ithamar took turns casting lots. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 7The lots fell on these priests, in the following order: Jehoiarib, Jedaiah, ⁸Harim, Seorim, ⁹Malkijah, Mijamin, ¹⁰Hakkoz, Abijah, ¹¹Jeshua, Shecaniah, ¹²Eliashib, Jakim, ¹³Huppah, Jeshebeab, ¹⁴Bilgah, Immer, ¹⁵Hezir, Happizzez, ¹⁶Pethahiah, Jehezkel, ¹⁷Jakin, Gamul, ¹⁸Delaiah, and Maaziah. ¹⁹These men were assigned their duties at the temple, just as God had commanded Aaron. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²⁰Here are the other descendants of Levi: Amram was the ancestor of Shubael and Jehdeiah. ²¹Rehabiah, was the ancestor of Isshiah, the oldest son in his family. ²²Izhar was the father of Shelomith and the grandfather of Jahath. ²³Hebron had four sons: Jeriah, Amariah, Jahaziel, and Jekameam. ²⁴Uzziel was the father of Micah and the grandfather of Shamir. ²⁵Isshiah, Micah's brother, was the father of Zechariah. ²⁶Merari was the father of Mahli, Mushi, and Jaaziah. 27 Jaaziah had three sons: Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri. 28-29 Mahli was the father of Eleazar, and Kish. Eleazar had no sons, but Kish was the father of Jerahmeel. ³⁰Mushihad three sons: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the descendants of Levi, according to their clans. ³¹Each one was assigned their duties without regard to age or rank. This was done as David, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} Zaduk, Ahimelech, and family leaders of the priests and Levites looked on.

Lord, I will serve You today according to the task You have given me for this day. Bless me, use me, and reward me according to Your grace. Amen.

1 Chronicles 25 The Musicians and Their Duties

¹David and his army commanders chose descendants of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun to proclaim God's messages while playing harps, lyres, and cymbals. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} These are the musicians: ²From the sons of Asaph, were Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah. They worked under the direction of their father, Asaph, who proclaimed God's messages. ³Jeduthun had six sons: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah. They worked under the direction of their father, Jeduthun, who proclaimed God's messages to the accompaniment of the harp, offering thanks and praise to the LORD. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} 4Heman's sons were Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael, Ierimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth, 5All these were the sons of Heman, one of the king's prophets, for God had honored him with 14 sons and 3 daughters. ⁶All these men were under the direction of their fathers as they made music at the temple, playing cymbals, lyres, and harps. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman reported directly to the king. ⁷They and their relatives—288 of them-were all skillful musicians. ⁸Everyone was assigned his duties without regard to age or rank. 9The 288 musicians were divided into 24 groups of 12 each: they were chosen in the following order: Joseph, Gedaliah, ¹⁰Zaccur, ¹¹Zeri, ¹²Nethaniah, 13Bukkiah, 14Asarelah, 15Jeshaiah, ¹⁶Mattaniah, ¹⁷Shimei, ¹⁸Azarel, ¹⁹Hashabiah, ²⁰Shubael, ²¹Mattithiah, ²²Jerimoth, ²³Hananiah, ²⁴Joshbekashah, ²⁵Hanani, ²⁶Mallothi, ²⁷Eliathah, ²⁸Hothir, ²⁹Giddalti, ³⁰Mahazioth, and ³¹Romamti-Ezer.

Lord, even when I don't sing perfectly like professionals, may my singing glorify You and advance Your work. Amen.

1 Chronicles 26 The Gatekeepers and Their Duties

¹The gatekeepers were also divided into groups according to clans. Meshelemiah son of Kore was from the Korah clan and a descendant of Asaph. ²His sons were Zechariah, Jediael, Zebadiah, Jathniel, ³Elam, Jehohanan, and Eliehoenai.

⁴God had blessed Obed-Edom with eight sons, all of whom were gatekeepers: Shemaiah, Jehozabad, Joah, Sacar, Nethanel, ⁵Ammiel, Issachar, and Peullethai. ⁶⁻⁷Obed-Edom's oldest son Shemaiah had four sons, Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad. They were capable men who were highly respected. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ⁸All 62 descendants of Obed-Edom were capable and strong men. ⁹Meshelemiah's 18 sons and relatives were capable leaders.

¹⁰⁻¹¹Hosah was from the Merari clan, and his sons were Shimri, Hilkiah, Tebaliah, and Zechariah. Hosah made Shimri the family leader, though he wasn't the first-born son. Thirteen of Hosah's relatives were gatekeepers.

¹²These gatekeepers were divided into groups by their family leaders, and they were assigned duties at the temple. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 13By casting lots they determined at which gate these men would serve. 14Meshelemiah was in charge of the East Gate, Zechariah his son was to guard the North Gate, 15Obed-Edom guarded the South Gate, and his sons guarded the storerooms. ¹⁶Shuppim and Hosah were to guard the West Gate and the Shalleketh Gate on the upper road. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁷Six Levites each day were to guard the East Gate, four to the North Gate, four to the South Gate, and two to each of the storerooms. 18 Four were stationed along the road leading to the courtyard on the west, and two guards were in the courtyard itself. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3 ¹⁹These were the duties assigned to the descendants of Korah and Merari. ²⁰Ahijah and other Levites were to be in charge of guarding the temple treasury {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} and gifts given to the LORD. 21 Ladan was a descendant of Gershom and the father of Jehiel. He and his sons Zetham and Joel also guarded the treasury. 22-23 Other leaders who descended from Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel were these. ²⁴From the clan of Amram the chief official in charge of the temple treasury was Shebuel; he was a descendant of Gershom. ²⁵Descendants of Eliezer, Gershom's brother, included Rehabiah, Jeshaiah, Joram, Zicri, and Shelemoth.

²⁶Shelemoth and his relatives were in charge of all the gifts David and his family leaders and army officers dedicated to the LORD. ²⁷These included items soldiers took from towns they captured. ²⁸Shelemoth and his relatives also took care of items dedicated to the LORD by the prophet Samuel, Saul son of Kish, Abner Saul's uncle, and Joab David's nephew.

²⁹Kenaniah was from the clan of Izhar, and his sons were government officials and judges. They did not work at the temple. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ³⁰Hashabiah was from the clan of Hebron. He and his 1,700 relatives, all capable men, were in charge of Israelite affairs west of the Jordan River. They were responsible for religious and political matters.

³¹Jerijah was also from the clan of Hebron. In the 40th year of David's reign he found a list of all capable men from the Hebron clan at Jazer in Gilead. ³²These relatives of Jerijah included 2,700 men. King David sent them east of the Jordan River to be in charge of all religious and political matters in the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

Lord, I will guard Your money, both when it's in my possession, and after I give it to You. Amen.

1 Chronicles 27 The Monthly Schedule for the Military

¹Family leaders, army commanders, and other officers supervised the following men who served as soldiers in David's army. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} Each division served for a month and included 24,000 men.

²⁻³In the first month the commander was Jashobeam son of Zabdiel, a descendant of Perez. Commanders in the other months were these: 4second month, Dodai a descendant of Ahoah, assisted by Mikloth; 5third month, Benaiah son of Jehoiada the priest, 6who commanded David's elite Thirty Warriors, and was assisted by his son Ammizabad; ⁷fourth month, Asahel, Joab's brother, who was followed by his son Zebadiah: 8fifth month, Shamhuth of the Izrah clan; 9sixth month, Ira son of Ikhesh from Tekoa; 10 seventh month, Helez from Pelon Ephraim; 11eighth month, Sibbecai from Hushah of the Zerah clan; 12ninth month, Abiezer from Anathoth in Benjamin: 13tenth month, Maharai from Netophah of the Zerah clan; 14eleventh month, Benaiah from Pirathonin Ephraim; 15 and twelfth month, Heldai from Netophah and a descendant of Othniel.

¹⁶The leaders of each tribe were these: Eliezer son of Zicri was over Reuben; Shephatiah son of Maacah was over Simeon; ¹⁷Hashabiah son of Kemuel was over the Levites; Zadok was over the descendants of Aaron; ¹⁸Elihu, David's brother, was over Judah; Omri son of Michael was over Issachar; ¹⁹Ishmaiah son of Obadiah was over Zebulun; Jerimoth son of Azriel was over Naphtali; ²⁰Hoshea son of Azaziah was over Ephraim; Joel son of Pedaiah was over West Manasseh; ²¹Iddo son of Zechariah was over East Manasseh:

Jaasiel son of Abner was over Benjamin; ²²and Azarel son of Jehoram was over Dan. ²³David did not list anyone 20 years of age or younger because the LORD had promised that Israel would have as many people as stars in the sky. ²⁴Joab, David's nephew, began to count the people but he did not finish because God was not pleased that a census was being taken. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} So the number was not written in the royal records.

²⁵David selected a number of men to oversee his property. Azmareth son of Adiel was in charge of the palace storage rooms. Jonathan son of Uzziah was in charge of the storage rooms in towns, villages, and watchtowers. ²⁶Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the workers who farmed David's land. ²⁷Shimei from Ramah was in charge of the vineyards. Zabdi from Shepham was in charge of the wine vats. ²⁸Baal-Hanan from Geder was in charge of the olive trees and sycamore trees in the western foothills. Joash was in charge of the supplies of olive oil. 29 Shitrai from Sharon was in charge of the cattle on the Sharon Plain; and Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the cattle in the valleys. ³⁰Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the king's camels, Jehdeiah from Merenoth was in charge of the king's donkeys, ³¹and Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the king's sheep. These 12 officials were in charge of David's property. ³²David's uncle Jonathan was a wise advisor {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} and a scribe. Jehiel son of Hacmoni taught David's sons. ³³Ahithophel was the royal advisor, and Hushai the Arkite was a close friend of David. 34After Ahithophel, Jehoida son of Benaiah was the king's advisor, followed by Abiathar. Joab was commander of Israel's army.

Lord, You protected Israel many different ways, just as You protect me in many different ways. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} Thank You for a hedge of protection (Job 1:1). Amen.

1 Chronicles 28 David Tells of Plans for the Temple

¹David called all leaders to meet with him in Jerusalem. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} These included tribal leaders, army commanders, men in charge of his property, palace officials, and other leaders and warriors. ²He said to them, "My people, I wanted to build a temple where the sacred chest will be located. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} I made plans to build it, {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ³but God said, 'You are not the one to build a temple in My honor, because you have killed many people in warfare.' 4Yet God chose me to be king over Israel. He chose Judah, and from Judah he chose my father's family, and from my brothers He chose me to be king. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 5The LORD has given me many sons, and from them He chose Solomon to be the next king after me. 6The LORD said, 'I have chosen your son Solomon to build My temple. He will be like a son to Me and I will be like a father to him. 7If he continues to obey Me as he now does, I will make his kingdom last forever.' {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁸So now with God as our witness, promise me that you will obey the LORD's commands. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} If you do, this land will always be yours and that of your descendants.

9"My son Solomon, worship and obey the God of your ancestors with all your heart and do so willingly. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} Remember that the LORD knows our hearts and our motives. If you turn to Him, you will find Him. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} But if you reject Him, He will reject you. 10Since He has chosen you to build a temple for worshiping Him, be confident and do the work." {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ¹¹Then David gave Solomon his plans for the temple and everything around it and in it, including the storage rooms, upstairs rooms, downstairs rooms, and the most holy place where the sacred chest and its lid, the place of substitutionary payment for sin, would be kept. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} 12David also gave Solomon the plans the LORD gave him for the courtyards, outside rooms, and rooms for storing valuable items and gifts. ¹³David gave Solomon instructions about the work of the priests and Levites, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} and about the articles to be used in the temple.

¹⁴⁻¹⁵David also told Solomon how much gold and silver were to be used in making various objects ¹⁶including how much gold and silver to use for each table for the bread without yeast, how much silver for the tables made of silver, ¹⁷and how much

gold for the meat forks, sprinkling bowls and cups, ¹⁸ and the altar of incense. David also gave Solomon the plans for the gold winged creatures which were to be on the lid of the sacred chest. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹⁹David said, "The LORD showed me how the temple is to be built, and so I put this in writing. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²⁰So be confident and don't get discouraged. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} The LORD will help you finish the temple {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and He will be with you. ²¹The priests and Levites are ready to do their work, and many skilled workers are ready to build. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} The people and their leaders are willing to do as you tell them."

1 Chronicles 29 Offerings for the House of God

¹Then David said to everyone there, "God chose my son Solomon to build the temple, but he is young and inexperienced. This is a big task because this building is for God, not any of us. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²I have gathered a lot of materials for building the temple, {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} including gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, onyx, turquoise, various gems, and stone and marble. ³I am also giving all of my own personal treasures of gold and silver for the temple, ⁴including 110 tons of gold from Ophir, 260 tons of refined silver to decorate the temple walls, ⁵and to make gold and silver objects. Who else will follow my example and give gifts for building the temple?" {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

⁶The family leaders, tribal leaders, army commanders, and men in charge of David's property all voluntarily gave gifts for the temple. ⁷They gave over 190 tons of gold, about 375 tons of silver, 675 tons of bronze, and about 3,750 tons of iron. ⁸People also donated precious stones, which were kept in the temple treasury guarded by Jahiel from the Levite clan of Gershom. David and all the people were so glad that so much was given and so willingly. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ¹⁰David praised the LORD as everyone listened. "LORD, the God our ancestor Jacob worshiped, we praise You forever. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} 11You are great and powerful, and Your glory and majesty are everywhere in heaven and on the earth. You are Ruler over everything in heaven and on earth. ¹²Riches and honor come from You, the Ruler of everything. You are powerful and strong, and You honor and strengthen everyone. 13We give You our thanks, and we praise You. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21}

¹⁴"Why are we happy that we could give anything for Your temple? Everything belongs to You already, so we just gave back to You what already belongs to You. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ¹⁵We are only visitors and foreigners here for a while, as were our ancestors. Our days on earth suddenly disappear like a shadow. ¹⁶LORD our God, we realize that everything we have given for Your temple has come from You. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ¹⁷You know what everyone is like inwardly and You are pleased when people are honest. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} I gave willingly, and I've seen how Your people have given to You with joy and willingly. ¹⁸LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, help Your people always to have this desire to give and keep them loyal to You. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ¹⁹Give my son Solomon the desire to obey Your laws and commands {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} and to build the temple I have provided for."

²⁰Then David said to the crowd, "Praise the LORD your God." So everyone praised the LORD, the God of their ancestors. The people bowed down {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} to honor the LORD and the king. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} ²¹The next day the people sacrificed 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, 1,000 male lambs, and drink offerings to the LORD, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} along with many other sacrifices. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ²²The people ate and drank there in the LORD's presence with great joy. Then they made Solomon king {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} by pouring olive oil on his head. They also poured oil on Zadok, making him their high priest. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} ²³So Solomon became king in place of his father David. He had success in everything he did, and all Israel obeyed him. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁴All the royal officials, army commanders, and David's sons were loyal to David. ²⁵The LORD honored Solomon, and he had greater wealth and honor than David.

²⁶David, son of Jesse, ruled over all Israel 40 years. ²⁷He ruled for 7 ½ years in Hebron and 33 years in Jerusalem. ²⁸He died at a good old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth, and honor. Then his son Solomon succeeded him as king. ²⁹All the events of David's reign are recorded in the records of Samuel, Nathan, and Gad, ³⁰including his great accomplishments and everything that happened to him in Israel and surrounding nations.

2 CHRONICLES

Ch 1: Prayer for Wisdom	.591
CH 2: PLANS TO BUILD THE TEMPLE	.592
CH 3: CONSTRUCTION BEGINS	.593
Ch 4: The Temple Is Completed	.594
Ch 5: Bringing the Ark into the Temple	.595
CH 6: SOLOMON SPEAKS TO THE PEOPLE	.596
Ch 7: The Temple Is Dedicated	.598
Ch 8: Solomon's Other Accomplishments	.599
Ch 9: The Queen of Sheba and Solomon	.600
Cн 10: Revolt against Rehoboam	.601
Cн 11: Shemaiah's Prophecy	.602
Ch 12: Egypt Invades Judah	.603
Cн 13: Авіјан Is King	.604
Ch 14: Asa Is King	.605
Ch 15: The Reforms of Asa	.606
Ch 16: The Treaty between Judah and Syria	.607
Ch 17: Jehoshaphat Is King	.608
Cн 18: Micaiah's Prophecy	.609
Cн 19: Jehoshaphat's Reforms	.611
Ch 20: Defeat of Ammon, Moah, and Mount
Seir	.611
Cн 21: Jehoram Is King	.613
CH 22: AHAZIAH IS KING	.614

CH 23: JOASH IS KING	615
CH 24: JOASH REPAIRS THE TEMPLE	616
CH 25: AMAZIAH IS KING	618
Ch 26: Uzziah Is King	619
Cн 27: Jotham Is King	621
Ch 28: Ahaz Is King	621
Cн 29: Неzeкiah Is King	623
CH 30: CELEBRATING THE PASSOVER	624
CH 31: REVIVAL	626
CH 32: Assyria Invades Judah	628
CH 33: MANASSEH IS KING	629
Cн 34: Josiah Is King	631
CH 35: THE PASSOVER IS RESTORED	633
Ch 36: Jehoajaz Is King	634

2 CHRONICLES

Key Words: Temple, also see Sanctuary and the House of the LORD (2 Chronicles 2:1).

Key Verse: "When Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the temple" (7:1)

Theme: The word "temple" occurs more in this book than any other Old Testament book, but the temple is also described as "the house of the Lord" and "sanctuary." The chronicler saw the temple as essential for the unity of the people and the strength of the kingdom. While God used human kings to rally His people to spirituality, it was God's house where the people expressed their faith and reflected their repentance and/or worship. Therefore 2 Chronicles emphasizes the southern kingdom of Judah, and refers to the northern kingdom of Israel only when they interacted with the south. Also 1 and 2 Chronicles emphasize the priesthood more than the office of king.

The southern kingdom allowed apostasy to grow by worshiping idols. And apostasy goes hand in hand with immorality. Then God judged them and allowed Nebuchadnezzar to destroy Jerusalem and the temple and take the people of God into captivity. Lord, I will stay true to biblical doctrine; keep me from sin. I will not drift from You. Amen.

2 Chronicles 1 Prayer for Wisdom

David's son, was in full control of his kingdom because the LORD his God was with him {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} and made him a powerful king. ²One day Solomon asked all the Israelites, including army commanders, officials, and family leaders, ³to meet with him at the hill at Gibeon where the tabernacle was located. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} This was the tabernacle Moses had made in the desert. ⁴David had already moved the sacred chest from Kiriath-Jearim to the tent he had set up for it in Jerusalem. {540 Worshiping God in the Backyard, Ps. 134} ⁵But the bronze altar of burnt offering made by Bezalel son of Uri and grandson of Hur was still at Gibeon in front of the tabernacle. Solomon and the people gathered in front of the altar, 6 and Solomon sacrificed 1,000 burnt offerings there. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁷In a dream that night God told Solomon he could ask whatever he wanted and God would give it to him. Solomon answered, {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} 8"You have been so kind to my father David, and now you have made me king in his place. 9LORD God, You have made me king over these people. And there are so many of them they are like dust particles on the earth. So please keep Your promise to David 10 and make me wise so I can rule this great nation of Yours." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

¹¹God replied, "You could have asked Me to make you rich or famous or for you to defeat your enemies or for you to have a long life. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} But instead you asked for wisdom to rule My people. ¹²So I will certainly make you wise. But I will also make you richer and more famous than any other king before or after you." ¹³Then Solomon left Gibeon and went back to Jerusalem and reigned over Israel.

¹⁴Solomon had a military force of 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses. He kept the horses in various cities, including Jerusalem. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁵Silver and gold was as common as rocks. And expensive cedar was as common as wood from ordinary sycamore trees in the foot-hills. ¹⁶Solomon bought horses from Egypt and Cilicia. ¹⁷His merchants paid about 15 pounds of silver for an Egyptian chariot and about four pounds of silver for a horse. He sold many of the horses to the Hittite and Syrian kings.

2 Chronicles 2 Plans to Build the Temple

¹Solomon decided to build a temple for the LORD and a palace for himself. ²So he enlisted 70,000 men to carry building supplies, 80,000 men to cut stone in the hill country, and 3,600 men to work as foremen. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ³He wrote this message to Hiram king of Tyre: "Years ago you sent cedar logs to my father David when he was building his palace. Could you now send me some cedar logs? 4I am planning to build a temple where my people can worship the LORD my God. Incense and sweet spices will be burned there, sacred bread will be set out there daily, and sacrifices will be made every morning and evening and on every Sabbath, the first day of each month, and in our several religious festivals throughout the year. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} God wants us to do this continuously. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 5"This will be a great temple because our God is greater than all other gods. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 6Of course no one can build a temple great enough for Him, because even the highest heavens are too small for Him. Who then am I to build a temple for Him, except as a place to burn sacrifices to Him?

⁷"So please send me a worker who can work with gold, silver, bronze, and iron, who is skilled in working with purple, red, and blue cloth, and who can work with my skilled craftsmen here in Judah and Jerusalem, men my father already chose. ⁸Also send me cedar, pine, and sandalwood logs. I know your men are experts at cutting down timber. I'll send some men to work with yours, ⁹because a lot of lumber will be needed for the large temple I will build. ¹⁰I will pay your workers 25,000 bushels of wheat, 125,000 bushels of barley, 115,000 gallons of wine, and 115,000 gallons of olive oil." {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

¹¹Hiram sent this reply to Solomon: "Obviously the LORD loves His people because He has made you their king. 12I praise the LORD, the God of Israel, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} who made the heavens and the earth. He has given David a wise and intelligent son who has knowledge to build a temple for the LORD and a palace for himself. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹³As you requested, I will send you an expert craftsman named Huram-Abi. 14His mother is an Israelite from the tribe of Dan, and his father is from Tyre. He is skilled in working with gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood, and he is an expert in weaving with purple, blue, and red cloth and linen. He is also an engraver and can work with your craftsmen and those your father David chose. 15Go ahead and send the wheat, barley, olive oil, and wine that you mentioned. 16We will cut down trees in Lebanon and float the logs down the Mediterranean coast to Joppa. Then you can take them from there to Jerusalem."

¹⁷Solomon counted all the foreign residents in Israel, just as David had done, and the total was 153,600. ¹⁸He assigned 70,000 of them to carry building supplies, 50,000 to cut stone from the hill country, and 3,600 to be foremen.

Lord, I know the place where You are worshiped should reflect Your holiness and almighty power. May my body—the temple of the Holy Spirit—bring praise to You. Amen.

2 Chronicles 3 Construction Begins

¹Solomon began building the temple in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to David at Araunah's threshing floor. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²The work began in the fourth year of Solomon's reign (966 B.C.) on the second day of the second month. ³The foundation of the temple was 90 feet long and 30 feet wide. ⁴The porch across the front of the temple was 30 feet wide and 30 feet high. The inner walls of the porch and the ceiling were covered with gold. 5The inside walls of the temple's main room were paneled with pine and then covered with gold. Then they were decorated with palm trees and chain designs. 6All the temple walls were decorated with beautiful jewels and gold from Parvaim. 7Gold covered all the walls, ceilings, beams, doors, and doorframes, and designs of winged creatures were carved on the walls.

⁸The most holy place was 30 feet wide, the same as the width of the temple, and it was 30 feet deep, and its walls were covered with 23 tons of gold. ⁹Each gold nail weighed about 20 ounces. The walls of the storage rooms were also covered with gold. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

¹⁰Solomon made two figures of winged creatures for the most holy place, and he covered them with gold. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} 11 The wingspan of the creatures was 30 feet. Each one had two wings, each 7 ½ feet long. One wing touched the temple wall, and the other wing touched the wing of the other creature. 12 The second figure was like the first, with one wing touching the wall and the other wing touching the first creature. ¹³They formed the entrance to the most holy place. 14Across this entrance Solomon hung a curtain of fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn, embroidered with figures of winged creatures.

¹⁵At the entrance to the temple were two columns, each 52 ½ feet tall and each with a cap 7 ½ feet high. ¹⁶The columns were decorated with chain-like designs and 100 decorative pomegranates were attached to the chains. ¹⁷One of these columns was south of the temple entrance and was named Jakin (meaning "He Established") and the other column was north of the temple entrance and was named Boaz (meaning "In Him Is Strength").

Lord, help me organize my life so I can do more for You, and do it better. I will give attention to details; help me see Your hand in the minutia of life. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} Teach me to prepare to work, long before I begin the task of work. I yield my gifts to You. Use me when and where I can do the most good for You and bring the most glory to You. Amen.

2 Chronicles 4 The Temple Is Completed

¹Solomon made a bronze altar 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 15 feet high. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 2Then he made a large water tank, 15 feet from rim to rim, which he called the "Sea." It was 7 ½ feet deep and 45 feet around. 3Just below the tank's rim were two rows of carved bulls, 10 bulls to every 18 inches. They were all made from the same piece of bronze as the tank. 4The tank was set on the backs of two rows of bulls carved from bronze. The bulls all faced outward, three in each of the four directions. 5The sides of the tank were about three inches thick, and its rim was shaped like a cup and flared out like a flower petal. The tank could hold up to 17,000 gallons of water.

⁶Solomon also made 10 small bowls and put five of them on each side of the water tank. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} They were to be used for washing the items used in the burnt offerings. The tank itself was to be used only by the priests to wash their hands. ⁷Solomon also had 10 gold lampstands, made according to the plans. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} He placed these inside the temple, five on each side of the main room. ⁸He also made 10 tables and placed five along the temple's south wall and five along the north wall. He also made 100 small gold sprinkling bowls.

⁹He built a courtyard for the priests and a large outer courtyard. He covered the doors to these courtyards with bronze. ¹⁰He placed the large water tank near the southeast corner of the temple. 11Huram made shovels, sprinkling bowls, and pans for the hot ashes. Huram completed the following items for the temple: 12 two columns, two bowl-shaped caps for the tops of the columns, 13 two rows of 200 pomegranates each on the chains on the tops of the columns, 14small water bowls, 15the water tank and 12 oxen under it, ¹⁶pans for hot ashes, shovels, and meat hooks. Huram-Abi made all these out of bronze. just as Solomon had asked. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ¹⁷Solomon had all these cast in clay molds in the Jordan Valley between Succoth and Zarethan. 18So much bronze was used that no one ever knew the weight of it all.

¹⁹So Solomon had these items made for the temple: the gold altar, the tables for the bread without yeast, {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ²⁰the gold lamps and lampstands, {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ²¹the floral decorations, lamps, and tongs (all of solid gold), ²²lamp snuffers, small sprinkling bowls, dishes, fire pans (all of pure gold), and the gold doors for the entrance to the most holy place and for the temple's main room.

2 Chronicles 5 Bringing the Ark into the Temple

¹Work on the temple was finally finished. Solomon placed in the temple's storage rooms everything his father David had dedicated to the LORD, including silver and gold and various utensils. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} ²Solomon asked all the tribal and family leaders to meet in Jerusalem for the ceremony of bringing the sacred chest from the City of David to the new temple. ³This was while everyone was in Jerusalem for the Festival of Shelters in the fall. ⁴The Levites took the chest, 5 and brought it along with the tabernacle and its utensils to the temple. ⁶King Solomon and the Israelites sacrificed countless numbers of sheep and oxen. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁷Then the priests carried the sacred chest into the most holy place of the temple and placed it under the winged creatures. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} 8The wings towered the chest and its carrying poles. ⁹The poles were so long they could be seen from just outside the most holy place but not from anywhere else. The poles stayed there from then on. ¹⁰The only thing in the sacred chest were the flat stones Moses placed there at Mount Horeb (Sinai), where the Lord made an agreement with the Israelites. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

11The priests then left the holy place and made sure they were ceremonially clean. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} 12The Levite musicians, including Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and relatives, were dressed in linen robes and stood to the east of the altar of burnt offering, and were playing cymbals, harps, and lyres. They were joined by 120 priests playing trumpets. ¹³Together they praised the LORD by playing instruments and singing, {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} "The LORD is good. His steadfast love lasts forever." Then a cloud filled the temple. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} ¹⁴The bright cloud kept the priests from their work. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

2 Chronicles 6 Solomon Speaks to the People

¹Then Solomon prayed, "O LORD, You said You would live in a dark cloud. {377

Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 2But I have built a great temple for You where You can live forever." {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} ³Solomon turned toward the Israelites standing there and he blessed them with these words: {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 4"Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who has kept the promise He made to my father David. He told my father, {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} 5'When I brought My people out of Egypt, I had not chosen a city where a temple would be built nor had I chosen someone to be king of My people. ⁶But now I have chosen Jerusalem as that city, and David as that king.' {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ⁷My father David wanted to build a temple to honor the LORD, {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11} ⁸but the LORD said, 'I appreciate your wanting to build a temple for Me. ⁹But one of your sons, not you, will build it.' {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} ¹⁰Now the LORD has kept His promise in making me king and helping me build this great temple to honor Him, the God of Israel. {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11} ¹¹And I have placed the sacred chest in the temple, and in the chest is a copy of the agreement the LORD made with our ancestors."

¹²Solomon was standing on a platform in front of the Israelites. ¹³The bronze platform was 7 ½ feet square and 4 ½ feet high. It was in the center of the outer courtyard near the altar. He knelt down, {21 Approach Worshipfully, Heb. 12:22} lifted his hands to heaven, 14 and prayed, "O LORD, the God of Israel, there is no god like You in all of heaven and earth. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} You keep Your promises and You show Your unfailing love to everyone who obeys You and eagerly does what You want. ¹⁵And You kept Your promise to David Your servant. ¹⁶You also promised him that his descendants will reign over Israel if they obey You. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁷So now O LORD, God of Israel, please keep this promise You made to Your servant David. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

¹⁸"But will You really live in the temple I built? Even the heavens can't contain You. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

¹⁹Please hear this prayer I, Your servant, am making to You. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²⁰Please watch over this temple day and night, this place where You have chosen to be worshiped. And may You always hear and answer My prayers. ²¹Hear the requests of me Your servant and Your people Israel {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} and answer from heaven and forgive us. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

²²"Suppose someone accuses a person of a crime and the accused stands in front of the altar and says, 'I am innocent.' {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} ²³Hear from heaven and decide which person is right. Punish the guilty person, and let the innocent one go free. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁴Suppose your people Israel sin against You, and an enemy defeats them, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²⁵then hear from heaven {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} and forgive them {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and bring them back to the land You gave our ancestors.

²⁶"Suppose Your people sin and You withhold rain. Then when they pray {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} and turn from their sin, ²⁷hear from heaven and forgive them, Your servants. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} Teach them what is right, and send rain on the land You gave them. ²⁸If a famine {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} or plagues or crop disease or attacks by locusts or grasshoppers come or if enemies attack our towns, or if some other disaster occurs, ²⁹if Your people pray to You, {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} raising their hands toward the temple, ³⁰then hear from heaven, {216 Heavy-Prayer, Matt. 11:28:30} forgive them, and do whatever they deserve since You know what is in every person's heart. ³¹Then they will reverence You and obey You as long as they live. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10}

³²"Foreigners from distant lands will hear about You and Your power and will come to pray at this temple. When they do, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ³³hear from heaven and answer their prayers. That way everyone will know of You and will reverence You, just as Your own people Israel do, and they will know that I built this temple in Your honor. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

³⁴"Sometimes Your people will fight their enemies. If they pray toward Jerusalem {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} and the temple that honors You, 35then hear from heaven {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} and answer their prayers and give them victory. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} 36When they sin against You and who hasn't-You may get angry with them and let their enemies defeat them and take them away as captives. ³⁷Then if they turn to You and admit they have sinned, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³⁸and they turn wholeheartedly toward You and pray toward this land You gave their ancestors and toward the temple I built to honor You, 39then hear their prayers from heaven and help them and forgive them. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

⁴⁰"Hear us when we pray to You in this place. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph.

3:20-21} ⁴¹And come enter this resting place of Yours {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} where I have placed the sacred chest. May Your priests, O LORD God, enjoy Your salvation and be glad because You are so good. ⁴²Don't reject Your anointed king, and remember Your steadfast love for Your servant David." {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

2 Chronicles 7 The Temple Is Dedicated

¹The minute Solomon finished praying, fire came from heaven and burned up the burnt offerings and sacrifices, {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} and the LORD's glory filled the temple. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, come in fire to burn up my sin; make me holy. Also send Your Spirit to fill the temple of my body; make me spiritual. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} Amen.

²The priests could not go into the temple because of the LORD's glory. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ³When the people saw the fire and the glory, they fell with their faces to the ground {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} and worshiped the LORD. They prayed, "God is so good. His steadfast love lasts forever." {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} ⁴The king and the people offered sacrifices to the LORD. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁵Solomon sacrificed 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep, and he and the people dedicated the temple to the LORD. 6The priests were in their assigned places, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} and the Levites sang, {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} "His steadfast love lasts forever," and played musical instruments David had made. Opposite the Levites the priests blew trumpets as the Israelites were standing. ⁷Solomon dedicated the courtyard {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} in front of the temple so they could offer burnt offerings and fat from the animals for the fellowship offerings there. That's because the bronze altar was not big enough for all his burnt offerings, grain offerings, and fat from other offerings. 8For a week Solomon and the people observed the Festival of Shelters, and people came from as far away as the brook of Egypt in the south to Lebo Hamath in the north. 9On the eighth day they had a ceremony that concluded the seven-day dedication of the altar and the Festival of Shelters. 10 Then at the end of the celebration everyone went home, happy because the LORD had been so good to David, Solomon, and His people Israel. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹¹Solomon had now completed the building of the temple and the royal palace, as he had planned. 12 Then one night the LORD appeared to Solomon {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and said, "I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this temple as the place where you are to offer sacrifices to Me. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ¹³Sometimes I might hold back rain {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} or send locusts to eat your crops or cause My people to suffer some terrible diseases. ¹⁴Then if My people will humble themselves {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and pray and turn back to Me and away from their sinful ways, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} I will hear in heaven and forgive them {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and make their land fertile again. ¹⁵I will hear every prayer made here {284 Limitation-Praying, Jude 3} ¹⁶in the temple I have chosen and dedicated so that I will be honored here. I will always watch over this place. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹⁷"If you, Solomon, obey Me as your father David did, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} and observe all My laws and commands, ¹⁸I will keep My promise to David {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} that a descendant of his will always rule over Israel. 19But if you do not observe My decrees and commands and if you worship other gods, 20then I will pull you out of this land {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and destroy this temple which was dedicated to honor Me, and people will joke about it. 21 True, the temple is great now, but people who walk by it will be horrified and will ask, 'Why did the LORD do such a terrible thing to this land and His temple?' ²²And the answer will be, 'All these disasters came because His people rejected the LORD, the God of their ancestors, who rescued them from Egypt, and they worshiped other gods" {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

2 Chronicles 8 Solomon's Other Accomplishments

¹Twenty years after Solomon had become king and he had completed building the temple and his royal palace, 2he rebuilt the towns King Hiram of Tyre had given him, and he had Israelites move into those towns. ³And at that time he conquered the town of Hamath Zobah. 4He also rebuilt Tadmor in the desert {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} and some towns in Hamath, which he used as supply centers. ⁵He added walls and barred gates to the towns of Upper Beth-Horon and Lower Beth-Horon. ⁶He did the same thing for Baalath and other supply centers and built cities where his chariots and horses could be kept. He built whatever he wanted in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and throughout his kingdom.

⁷Some foreigners still living in the land were Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. ⁸They were descendants of those who had not been completely forced out of the land. So Solomon used them as his labor force. ⁹But he did not use his own people as laborers; they served as soldiers, army commanders, and chariot drivers. ¹⁰He appointed 250 men as officers to oversee his various building projects. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹¹Solomon moved his wife, Pharaoh's daughter, from the City of David to the new palace he had built for her. He did not want her to live in David's palace in the City of David {223 Holiness-Prayer,

1 Peter 1:16} because the sacred chest had been there.

LORD on the altar of burnt offerings in front of the temple. ¹³The number of sacrifices followed Moses' instructions {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} for the daily sacrifices and sacrifices on the Sabbaths, the first day of each month, and the Passover Festival, the Harvest Festival, and the Festival of Shelters. ¹⁴Solomon assigned the priests and the Levites their duties, following the instructions given by his father David. He also assigned some of the Levites to lead music and to help the priests in their duties. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} And he assigned gatekeepers to guard the gates, following God's commands to David. 15The priests and Levites followed Solomon's instructions on these matters exactly, including the storerooms. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 16So Solomon finished everything he planned to do in building the temple, from the laying of the foundation to its completion. {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7} ¹⁷Later Solomon went to the seaport towns of Edom. ¹⁸Hiram of Tyre had sent Solomon some ships and experienced sailors. They went with Solomon's sailors to Ophir and brought back to Solomon about 17 tons of gold.

¹²Solomon offered burnt offerings to the

2 Chronicles 9 The Queen of Sheba and Solomon

¹When the Queen of Sheba heard how famous Solomon was, she went to Jerusalem {479 Testing Response of Prayer,

James 1:12} to challenge him with some difficult questions. She arrived with a large number of attendants and a great caravan of camels loaded with lots of spices, gold, and jewels. She talked with Solomon about many subjects. ²Solomon answered all her questions, no matter how difficult they were. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ³She was amazed at how wise he was, and also at his palace, ⁴all his delicious food, his officials, his servants in their uniforms, the people who served his wine, and the burnt offerings he made at the temple of the LORD. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10}

⁵She said to Solomon, "Everything I heard in my country about what you have done and your wisdom is certainly true. 6I had a difficult time believing it until I saw it with my own eyes. And I hadn't heard even half of it. Your wisdom is far greater than what I was told. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} 7What a privilege for your officials to be here every day, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} listening to your wise counsel. 8I praise the LORD, your God, {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} who delights in you and has made you king because of His love for Israel and His desire to see this kingdom last forever. He has made you king to rule with justice and honesty."

⁹The Queen of Sheba gave Solomon 4 ½ tons of gold, large amounts of spices, and lots of precious stones. This was the largest gift of spices he ever received. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7}

¹⁰King Hiram's and Solomon's sailors brought gold from Ophir and they also brought large amounts of sandalwood and precious jewels. 11Solomon used the sandalwood to make harps and lyres for his musicians. No one in Judah had ever seen such beautiful instruments. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ¹²Solomon gave the Queen of Sheba everything she asked for, even more than she gave him. Then she and her officials returned to her country. ¹³Every year Solomon received 25 tons of gold, ¹⁴besides what he received from merchants, traders, and the gold and silver given to him by the kings of Arabia and other leaders. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ¹⁵Solomon made 200 gold shields, using about 7 ½ pounds of gold for each shield. 16He also made 300 smaller shields, using about four pounds of gold for each shield. He put those 500 shields in his palace in the Lebanon Forest Hall.

¹⁷His huge throne was made of ivory and covered with gold. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ¹⁸It had six steps, a gold footstool, and armrests on each side with the statue of a lion on each side. ¹⁹Also Solomon made two lion statues on each step, 12 in all. Nothing in all the world compared with his throne. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

²⁰All of Solomon's drinking cups and dishes in his Lebanon Forest Hall were made of gold. They were not made of silver because silver was not considered very valuable in his day. ²¹His many trading ships were manned by Huram's sailors, and every three years they brought back gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21,

23} ²²King Solomon was richer and wiser than any other king. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ²³Kings from every nation came to meet with him and hear the wisdom God had given him. ²⁴Every year people who came to visit him brought him silver, gold, clothes, weapons, spices, horses, and mules. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ²⁵He had 4,000 stalls for his chariots and 12,000 horses that he kept in various cities and some in Jerusalem near him. ²⁶He ruled over all the area from the Euphrates River in the north to the land of Philistia in the south and as far as the border of Egypt. ²⁷Silver was as common in Jerusalem as rocks, and valuable cedar was as common as the wood of sycamore-fig trees in the foothills. ²⁸He bought horses from Egypt and many other countries. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

²⁹Everything Solomon did in his reign is written in the records of the prophet Nathan, the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh, and the prophet Iddo, who also wrote about Jeroboam son of Nebat. ³⁰Solomon ruled from Jerusalem for 40 years. ³¹After he died, he was buried in the City of David, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and his son Rehoboam became king. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

2 Chronicles 10 Revolt against Rehoboam

¹Rehoboam went to Shechem where he was to be crowned king. ²Jeroboam heard about this in Egypt, where he had gone to hide from Solomon. So he returned from Egypt. ³He and many Israelites went to Rehoboam and said, ⁴"Your father was a hard taskmaster. {216 Heavy-Prayer, Matt. 11:28:30} We will serve you only if you lighten our workload."

5Rehoboam told them to come back in three days and he would give them an answer. {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} 6He asked the elders who served his father Solomon what they thought. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ⁷They said, "If you do as they suggest and make their workload easier, they will serve you well." {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ⁸But refusing their idea, Rehoboam asked for advice from the young men he knew when he was growing up. 9"What do you think I should say to these people who want me to lighten their workload?" 10 His young advisers said, "Tell them 'Compared to the load I will place on you, my father's load was light. It will be like saying my little finger is bigger than his waist. ¹¹He made you work hard, but I will make you work harder. {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} He used whips on you, but I will use whips with sharp metal tips that will feel like scorpion stings."

¹²Three days later Jeroboam and all the people went to see Rehoboam in Shechem. ¹³He told the people he would follow the advice of the young men. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ¹⁴And he said, "My father used whips on you, but I will use whips with sharp metal tips that will feel like scorpion stings." ¹⁵He refused to do what the people wanted. Actually this was of the LORD because it carried out what God had said to Jeroboam through the prophet Ahijah.

¹⁶When the Israelites saw that Rehoboam refused to lighten their workload, they said, "We don't need to follow David and his family. Let's all go home, and Rehoboam can rule his own people." So the Israelites went home, ¹⁷but the people in Judah {123 Diversionary-Answer to Prayer, Mark 10:38} accepted him as their king.

¹⁸When Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of the labor force, to talk with the people, they stoned him to death. Then Rehoboam jumped in his chariot and hurried home to Jerusalem. ¹⁹And Israel has continued to oppose David's family in Judah.

2 Chronicles 11 Shemaiah's Prophecy

¹When Rehoboam got back to Jerusalem, he called together his army of 180,000 soldiers and planned to force the 10 tribes of Israel to accept him as their king. ²But the LORD told the prophet Shemaiah ³to warn Rehoboam not to go to war against Israel because they were all his relatives, ⁴and to tell him to tell the soldiers to go home, {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} because this was planned by the LORD. So the soldiers all went home. ⁵Rehoboam built up towns for defense in Judah, including ⁶Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, ⁷Beth-Zur, Soco, Adullam, ⁸Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, ⁹Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, ¹⁰Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron. After fortifying these cities, ¹¹he assigned an army commander to each town, and gave them plenty of food, olive oil, and wine, ¹²and also spears and swords. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

¹³The priests and Levites living among the northern tribes supported Rehoboam. ¹⁴The Levites even left their pasturelands and property and went to Judah because Jeroboam did not want them as priests. ¹⁵He appointed his own priests to worship goat and calf idols at hilltop shrines. 16If an Israelite wanted to worship the LORD, the God of Israel, he went with the Levites to Jerusalem and {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} offered sacrifices there. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁷This strengthened the kingdom of Judah and helped support Rehoboam for the next three years as they had followed David and Solomon.

¹⁸Rehoboam married his cousin Mahalath, the daughter of David's son Jerimoth {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} and Abihail, daughter of Eliab, and granddaughter of Jesse. 19 Mahalath had three sons, Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham. ²⁰Later Rehoboam married another cousin, Maacah, Absalom's daughter. Maacah had four sons: Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. 21Rehoboam loved Maacah more than any of his other 18 wives or 60 concubines. He had 28 sons and 60 daughters. ²²His favorite son was Abijah, son of Maacah, whom he chose to be the next king. ²³Rehoboam wisely {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} put his sons in charge of the fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin. He gave whatever supplies they needed, and he found wives for each of them.

2 Chronicles 12 Egypt Invades Judah

¹Just when Rehoboam's position as king was strong, he and everyone in Judah stopped obeying the LORD. ²As a result, King Shishak of Egypt attacked Jerusalem. This was in Rehoboam's fifth year as king. ³Shishak came from Egypt with 1,200 chariots and 60,000 horsemen, and a vast number of foot soldiers from Libya, Sukktoh, and Ethiopia. ⁴After capturing a number of fortified cities in Judah, he went on to attack Jerusalem. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 5 The prophet Shemaiah went to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah who had gone to Jerusalem to escape Shishak. Shemaiah told them, "The LORD has said that since you have left the LORD, He is leaving you to Shishak." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 6The king and the leaders admitted that the LORD was right in doing this.

⁷The LORD saw that the people were sorry for what they had done. So He said to Shemaiah, "Since the people are sorry for their sin, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} I will give them some relief. I won't let Shishak destroy them. ⁸But they will have to pay him annual taxes. In this way they will learn that it is better to serve Me than to serve a foreign king."{431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

⁹So Shishak attacked Jerusalem and took away all the treasures in the temple and the palace, including the gold shields Solomon had made. ¹⁰Rehoboam then made bronze shields to replace the gold shields, {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} and he ordered the guards of the city gate to keep them safe. ¹¹When Rehoboam went to the temple, the guards carried the shields and then took them back to the guardroom. ¹²Because Rehoboam turned back to the LORD, He was no longer angry with him, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and He did not let Jerusalem be destroyed. And Judah enjoyed the LORD's blessings again.

¹³Rehoboam was 41 years old when he became king, and he ruled 17 years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen as the place to honor His name. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonite. ¹⁴Though he was a good king in some ways, in other ways he was evil because he did not obey the LORD completely. {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3}

¹⁵The rest of the events in Rehoboam's reign are written in the records of the prophet Shemaiah and the seer Iddo. Rehoboam and Jeroboam were at war continually. ¹⁶When Rehoboam died, he was buried in the City of David, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and his son Abijah became king.

2 Chronicles 13 Abijah Is King

¹Abijah became king of Judah in Jeroboam's 18th year. ²He reigned in Jerusalem three years, and his mother was Micaiah, a daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. Abijah and Jeroboam were constantly at war. ³In one of their battles, Abijah had 400,000 soldiers, and Jeroboam had twice as many, with 800,000 men. 4In Ephraim Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim and said, "Jeroboam and all Israel, listen. 5Don't you realize that the LORD, the God of Israel, made a covenant of salt, that is, an unbreakable promise, to David that his descendants will be on his throne forever? {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ⁶Yet Jeroboam, an official under Solomon, rebelled and became a traitor to Solomon. ⁷Then a number of rascals joined him and opposed Rehoboam when he was young and inexperienced.

8"Now you think you can stand against the LORD's kingdom, which is led by a descendant of David. True, you have a huge army, but your gods are only the gold calves that Jeroboam made for you to worship. 9You have forced out the LORD's priests and Levites and appointed your own priests. You say that whoever wants to can become a priest by offering a bull and seven rams. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20}

10"But the LORD is our God, and we have not turned from Him. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} Only Aaron's descendants can be priests, and the Levites help them. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} 11 They offer sacrifices and burn incense twice every day, they place fresh bread each day on the Table of the Bread without Yeast, and they light the gold lampstand. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} We follow the Lord's commands, but you don't. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹²Obviously then God is our Leader. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} His priests will blow their trumpets and will sound the battle cry. So Israel, don't fight against the LORD, because you will not succeed." {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17}

¹³While Abijah was talking. Jeroboam sent some troops to attack Judah from behind. ¹⁴When Judah realized they were being attacked from the front and the rear, they prayed to the LORD for help. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} The priests blew their trumpets, ¹⁵and the soldiers of Judah shouted a battle cry. And God defeated Jeroboam and the Israelite army and they ran from Abijah and the soldiers of Judah. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14\} \text{16}God handed the Israelites over to Judah. ¹⁷Of Jeroboam's 800,000 soldiers, 500,000 were killed. ¹⁸Judah defeated Israel because they trusted in the LORD, the God of their ancestors. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 19Abijah chased Jeroboam's troops and captured the Israelite towns of Bethel, Jeshanah, and Ephron and surrounding villages.

²⁰Jeroboam never regained his power during Abijah's reign. The LORD caused his death and he died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²¹But Abijah grew more powerful. He married 14 wives and had 22 sons and 16 daughters. ²²The rest of the events in his reign are recorded in the records of the prophet Iddo.

Lord, I will obey the Bible; I will fight spiritual warfare by biblical means, and I will trust Your power to give me victory. Amen.

2 Chronicles 14 Asa Is King

¹When Abijah died, he was buried in the City of David, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and his son Asa became the next king of Judah, and there was peace for 10 years. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²Asa pleased the LORD his God because ³he destroyed the pagan altars and shrines, smashed the stone images of idols and cut down the poles used in worshiping Asherah. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 4He told everyone in Judah to worship the LORD and to obey His commands. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 5He also removed the hilltop shrines and incense altars in every town in Judah. So God blessed his kingdom with peace, ⁶and he fortified many cities in Judah. No one opposed Judah in war because of God's blessing of peace in the land. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

⁷Asa said to his people, "Let's build towns and fortify them with walls, towers, gates, and bars to lock the gates. We can be grateful that the land still belongs to us, and the LORD has given us peace, and that is because we have obeyed Him." The people did as Asa suggested in building and fortifying the towns. {348 Perception-Expectation Prayer, 1 Sam. 14:8}

⁸Asa had a large army of 300,000 men from Judah armed with large shields and spears, and 280,000 men from Benjamin, armed with small shields and bows. All these men were brave fighters. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

⁹Zerah an Ethiopian attacked Judah with an army of a million men and 300 chariots. ¹⁰Asa took his soldiers to meet Zerah's army in Zephathah Valley near Mareshah. ¹¹Asa prayed, "LORD, no one but You can help us, {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} who are powerless, against this mighty army. Help us because we trust in You, {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} and we will fight this vast army to honor You. O LORD, You are our God, and so we trust that You will not let mere humans defeat You." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹²The LORD defeated the Ethiopians. Many of them fled, ¹³but Asa and his army chased them as far as Gerar. Countless Ethiopians died, and those alive could not fight back. They were crushed by the LORD. And the soldiers of Judah carried off lots of loot. ¹⁴When they were at Gerar, they attacked all the towns in that area and the people there were terrified. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} The soldiers of Judah took lots of loot from those towns too. ¹⁵They also attacked nearby herdsmen and took a lot of their sheep, goats, and camels, and then returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15 The Reforms of Asa

¹Later the Spirit of God came on Azariah son of Oded, ²and he went to Asa and said, "Listen, Asa, and everyone in Judah and Benjamin. The LORD will be with you as long as you obey Him. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} When you look for Him, you will find Him. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} But if you desert Him, He will desert you. ³For a long time your ancestors did not worship Him and did not have a priest to teach them the law. 4But in their trouble they turned back to the LORD, the God of Israel, {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} and He responded to their concerns. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ⁵In those terrible days of confusion it wasn't safe to travel anywhere. 6Nations were destroying each other, {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} and cities were fighting each other, because God was causing trouble and distress. 7But you need to be strong and courageous so that God will bless you." {391 Race-Preparation Prayer, Heb. 12:1}

⁸Encouraged by Azariah's words, Asa removed all the terrible pagan idols from everywhere in Judah and Benjamin and from the towns he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was in front of the temple porch. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁹Then he called together all the people of Judah and Benjamin, and people from the tribes of Ephraim, the LORD was with Asa. ¹⁰They met in Jerusalem in the spring of Asa's 15th year as king. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 11 That day they sacrificed to the LORD 700 oxen and 7,000 sheep and goats from what they brought from Gerar. ¹²They promised to worship the LORD, the God of their ancestors, wholeheartedly. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹³And they agreed that anyone who did not worship the LORD, the God of Israel, would be put to death, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} whether young or old, man or woman. 14They agreed to be loyal to the LORD, and they celebrated by blowing trumpets and horns. 15 Everyone was happy about this promise they made to the LORD wholeheartedly. They eagerly sought God, {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} and He responded by giving them rest from all their enemies. ¹⁶Asa even got rid of his grandmother Maacah as queen mother because she had made a disgusting Asherah pole. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} Asa cut down the pole, broke it into pieces, and burned it in the Kidron Valley. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8 17 Asa was faithful to the LORD throughout his life, even though he didn't destroy all the hilltop shrines. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ¹⁸He placed in the temple all the silver and gold objects he and his father had dedicated to the LORD. 19 Judah had peace until Asa's 35th year of his reign.

West Manasseh, and Simeon who had settled among them when they saw that

Lord, I will search for You with all my heart. I will search for You everywhere. I will go back to search for You at the place I lost You. I will keep searching, and I will not give up. Amen.

2 Chronicles 16 The Treaty between Judah and Syria

¹In Asa's 36th year as king of Judah, King Baasha of Israel invaded Judah and he fortified Ramah so people couldn't leave or enter Judah. ²Asa then sent silver and gold from the temple treasury and the palace treasury to King Ben-Hadad, king of Syria, who was in Damascus at the time. Asa sent him this message: 3"Let's make a treaty just as your father and my father did. This silver and gold is a gift for you. Please break your treaty with King Baasha of Israel so that he will leave my country." 4Ben-Hadad agreed and sent soldiers to attack Israel. They captured the Israelite towns of Ijon, Dan, Abel-Beth-Maacah, and storage cities in Naphtali. ⁵When Baasha heard of this, he left Ramah. ⁶Then Asa ordered the men of Judah to carry away the stones and wood that Baasha used to build up Ramah. Asa used these materials to build up Geba and Mizpah. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

⁷The prophet Hanani went to Asa and told him, "You put your trust in the king of Syria instead of in the LORD; now you won't be able to destroy his army. ⁸Remember the vast army of the Ethiopians and Libyans with all their many chariots and charioteers. You relied on the LORD, {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} and He helped you defeat them. ⁹The LORD knows what's going on, and He gives strength to those who obey Him completely. But because of your foolish action, you will be at war from now on. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ¹⁰Asa was so angry with Hanani for saying this that he put him in prison. And then Asa began to be cruel to some of his own people.

¹¹The rest of the events in Asa's reign are recorded in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ¹²In the 39th year of his reign, Asa got a bad foot disease, but he refused to ask the LORD {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} for help and he relied only on doctors. ¹³Asa died in the 41st year of his reign. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁴He was buried in the tomb he had earlier carved out for himself in the City of David. The tomb was filled with sweet smelling spices and oils. The people built a huge bonfire in his honor.

Lord, I will search my heart for unbelief and disobedience. I will repent of every rebellious thing I find in my life. Then You Lord—Your eyes are perfect—search me thoroughly. Show me any resistance I have to Your will and I will remove it. Amen.

2 Chronicles 17 Jehoshaphat Is King

¹Asa's son, Jehoshaphat, became king. He immediately got troops together in case Israel would attack. ²He put troops in every fortified city in Judah, as well as in towns in Ephraim that his father Asa had conquered. ³The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the example of his father's early years and did not worship images of Baal. 4He obeyed Asa's God and followed His commands and not the sinful practices of Israel. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} So the LORD helped Jehoshaphat gain firm control of Judah. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Many people in Judah brought him gifts, so he became very wealthy, and everyone thought highly of him. Devoted to the LORD, he removed the hilltop shrines and destroyed the Asherah poles. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

7In his third year Jehoshaphat chose five officials and sent them to teach the law in every town in Judah. They were Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8} *He sent nine Levites to go with them. They were Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-Adonijah. Also two priests, Elishama and Jehoram, were sent. *Traveling from town to town, they taught the people from the book of the law of the LORD, which they carried with them. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7}

¹⁰The nations around Judah were afraid of Judah, {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} so no nation fought against Jehoshaphat. ¹¹Some Philistines brought him silver and gold as tribute money and the Arabs brought him 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats. 12As Jehoshaphat became more powerful, he built fortresses and storage cities, 13where he kept numerous supplies. He also stationed some experienced soldiers in Jerusalem. 14These soldiers were grouped according to family clans. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} Adnah was the commander of 200,000 troops, organized in units of 1,000 each. ¹⁵Next was Jehohanan, commander of 280,000 troops. 16Under Amasiah son of Zicri were 200,000 troops. ¹⁷Eliada, a brave soldier, commanded 200,000 troops from Benjamin, equipped with bows and shields. ¹⁸Next was Jehozabad who was commander of 180,000 troops. 19These were the troops in Jerusalem besides those Jehoshaphat placed in fortified cities throughout Judah.

Lord, forgive me for trusting in religious symbols, or church services, or music, or anything that takes Your place. Forgive me. Cleanse me by the blood of Christ. I look to You, Lord, for direction. Amen.

2 Chronicles 18 Micaiah's Prophecy

¹Jehoshaphat had great wealth and was highly respected. He made an alliance with Ahab king of Israel by having his son marry the daughter of Ahab, ²who prepared a big feast to honor him and his officials by butchering many sheep and oxen. Then Ahab suggested that Jehoshaphat go with him to attack Ramoth-Gilead.

³He asked, "Will you join me in fighting against Ramoth-Gilead?" Jehoshaphat replied, "Of course. We are all Israelites, so my troops can join yours in battle. ⁴But first let's see what the LORD says about this idea." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁵So Ahab brought together 400 prophets and asked them if he and Jehoshaphat should attack Ramoth-Gilead. They all said, "Sure. Go ahead and God will give you a great victory." {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2} 6But Jehoshaphat asked, "Isn't there a prophet of the LORD here so we can ask him?" {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ⁷Ahab said, "Yes, there is one prophet of the LORD. But I hate him because he always has bad news for me. He is Micaiah son of Imlah." Jehoshaphat said, "Wait a minute. There's no need to talk like that. Let's see what he says." 8So Ahab told an official to go get Micaiah son of Imlah right away.

⁹Ahab and Jehoshaphat were dressed in their royal robes and were seated on their thrones at the threshing floor near the gate of Samaria, listening to Ahab's prophets prophesying. ¹⁰One of them, Zedekiah, son of Kenaanah, made some horns out of iron and said, "Ahab, the LORD says that you will kill the Syrians like a bull with horns like these." ¹¹All the other prophets agreed that Ahab should go attack the Syrians at Ramoth-Gilead and the LORD would give him a great victory.

¹²The messenger who went to get Micaiah said to him, "All Ahab's prophets are promising him victory. So I suggest you agree with them." ¹³Micaiah replied,

"I'll say only what the LORD tells me to say." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁴When he arrived in Samaria, Ahab asked him if they should go fight the Syrians at Ramoth-Gilead. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} Micaiah replied facetiously, "Sure. Go ahead. You'll have a great victory."

¹⁵Ahab said, "I've told you over and over to tell me only the truth. So is that what the LORD really said?" 16 Micaiah responded, "In a vision I saw all Israelites wandering on the hills like sheep without a shepherd. And the LORD said to me, 'Their master has been killed so the troops may as well go home." 17Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "See. I told you he would give me nothing but bad news." 18Then Micaiah continued, "I saw the LORD on his throne {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} with many angels around him. 19And the LORD said, 'Can anyone trick Ahab into going to Ramoth-Gilead so he will be killed there?' Many suggestions were given, 20 but finally a spirit said, 'I can do it.' When the LORD asked how, 21the spirit said, 'I will make all his prophets lie to him.' {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} The LORD said, 'Okay. Go ahead and do it.' ²²So the LORD has made all your prophets lie to you, telling you the opposite of what will actually happen." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²³Zedekiah, son of Kenaanah, walked up to Micaiah and slapped him in the face, and he said to Micaiah, "What makes you think the Spirit of the LORD left me to speak to you?" {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} ²⁴Micaiah replied,

"You'll find out when you have to hide in the back room of a house." ²⁵Immediately Ahab ordered, "Arrest Micaiah and take him back to Amon, the city's governor, and to my son Joash. ²⁶Tell them I said to put him in prison and give him only bread and water until I get back safely from battle." ²⁷Micaiah said, "If you return safely, then the LORD hasn't spoken through me." Then he told everyone there, "Remember what I said."

²⁸So King Ahab and King Jehoshaphat went to Ramoth-Gilead, 29 and Ahab said, "As we go into battle, I'll disguise myself {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} so no one will recognize me, but you, Jehoshaphat, wear your royal robes." So Ahab disguised himself and they went into battle. 30The king of Syria told his charioteers, "Attack only the king of Israel." ³¹Then when the charioteers saw Jehoshaphat in his royal robes, they thought he was Ahab, and they attacked him. Jehoshaphat prayed, and God helped him by turning the attack away. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 32So the LORD caused the Syrian charioteers to stop chasing him.

³³A Syrian soldier shot an arrow without even aiming, and the arrow hit Ahab between two pieces of his armor. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} Ahab told his chariot driver, "Get me out of here. I've been hit." ³⁴The fighting lasted all day, and Ahab propped himself up in his chariot so he could see the Syrians. Then as the sun was setting, he died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

2 Chronicles 19 Jehoshaphat's Reforms

¹When King Jehoshaphat got home in Jerusalem, ²the prophet Jehu son of Hanani went to meet him. He asked the king, "Why did you try to help wicked Ahab and why did you love the people of Israel who hate the LORD? You have caused the LORD to be very angry with you. ³But a good thing you did was to get rid of the Asherah poles and you are trying to obey the LORD." {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

⁴Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, but he went to visit his people, traveling from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and encouraging them to trust and obey the LORD. 5He appointed judges in each of Judah's fortified cities, 6 and he told them "Make your court decisions carefully, keeping in mind that in your decisions you are to please the LORD, not people, and He will be with you in each case. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁷Remember the LORD in every decision, {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} and judge fairly, remembering that He does not tolerate injustice or partiality or the taking of bribes."

⁸Jehoshaphat also appointed some Levites, priests, and clan leaders to settle cases in Jerusalem related to the law and civil matters. ⁹He told them, "Always reverence the LORD and serve Him faithfully and wholeheartedly. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} ¹⁰When a case is brought to you from fellow citizens in other towns, whether a case of murder or some other violation of God's laws, commands, and regulations, warn the person not to sin against the LORD {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} so that He won't be angry with you. Following these instructions will keep you from sinning.

¹¹"In religious cases Amariah the high priest will have the final word, and in civil cases Zebadiah son of Ishmael, of the tribe of Judah, will have the final word. The Levites will assist you {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} in making sure justice is carried out. So be brave, and I pray the LORD will always help you do what is right." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, I want Your presence for every decision I make just as judges had to do in Jehoshaphat's time. Guide me to always make right decisions in the right way. Amen.

2 Chronicles 20 Defeat of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir

¹The Moabites, Ammonites, and some Meunites went to war against Jehoshaphat. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²Messengers told him, "A vast army is coming from Edom across from the Dead Sea. They are already at Hazazon-Tamar. (This was another name for En-Gedi.) ³Alarmed by this news, Jehoshaphat asked the LORD {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} about this, and he told the people to go without food for a while to show their sorrow. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt.

6:16-19} ⁴The people went to Jerusalem from every town in Judah to ask for the LORD's help. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} 5Then Jehoshaphat stood before the people in front of the temple courtyard, ⁶and prayed this prayer: "You, O LORD, the God of our ancestors, are the God in heaven and You rule over all nations in the world. Because of Your power no one can defeat You. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 7O God, You forced out the inhabitants of this land and gave it to the descendants of Abraham, Your friend. 8Our ancestors lived here and built a temple to honor You. They said that 9if war or plagues or famines hit them, they would stand here at the temple {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and pray for Your help, {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} and You would hear their prayer and save

10"Now the armies of Ammon, Moab, and Edom are attacking us. Those are nations You would not allow our ancestors to invade when they came from Egypt. So our ancestors did not destroy them. 11Now they are coming to take back the land You gave us as an inheritance. 12O God, please judge them, because we can't possibly defeat them ourselves. We don't know what to do, so we are looking to You for help." {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ¹³While every man, woman, and child stood there before the LORD, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 14the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel son of Zechariah, grandson of Benaiah, great-grandson of Jeiel, great-great-grandson of Mattaniah, a Levite and descendant of Asaph. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} 15 Jahaziel said, "Jehoshaphat and all of you in Judah, God says, 'Don't be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} The battle is God's, not yours, {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ¹⁶Here's what you need to do. Tomorrow these enemy armies will be going over the Ziz Pass and on to the gorge in the Jeruel Desert. ¹⁷You won't have to fight this battle. Just take your positions and watch the LORD rescue you {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} from this enemy. Don't be afraid or discouraged. Just go out there tomorrow, and the LORD will go with You."

¹⁸Jehoshaphat bowed to the ground and worshiped the LORD, {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} and all the people of Judah and Jerusalem did the same. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹⁹Some Levites of the Kohath and Korah clans stood up and praised the LORD with loud voices. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6}

²⁰Early in the morning they all left for the Tekoa Desert. Jehoshaphat said, "Listen, you people. Trust in the LORD {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} and believe what His prophets have said, and you will succeed." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²¹After Jehoshaphat checked with the people, he appointed some men to march ahead of the army and praise the LORD {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} for His holiness and to say, "Give thanks to the LORD, for His steadfast love lasts forever." {230 Hymn-Prayer,

Col. 3:16} ²²As these men began to sing, the LORD caused the soldiers of Ammon, Moab, and Edom to fight against each other. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²³Not one soldier of the enemy had escaped. The Ammonites and Moabites completely defeated the Edomites, and then they started killing each other.

²⁴When the men of Judah arrived at the place that overlooks the desert, they saw only dead bodies there. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ²⁵So Jehoshaphat and his men carried off a lot of loot, including equipment, clothing, and many valuable articles. In fact it took them three days to collect it all. ²⁶On the fourth day they assembled in the Beracah Valley {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} (meaning "Valley of Blessing") where they praised the LORD.

²⁷Jehoshaphat led all the men of Judah and Jerusalem back to Jerusalem. They were all so happy because the LORD had given them victory over those enemies. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ²⁸When they reached the city, they went straight to the temple, playing harps, lutes, and trumpets. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ²⁹All other nations were afraid of the LORD when they heard how He defeated Israel's enemies. ³⁰Jehoshaphat's kingdom enjoyed peace because the LORD was with him. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

³¹When Jehoshaphat became king of Judah, he was 35 years old and he reigned for 25 years. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} His mother was Azubah daughter of Shilhi. ³²He obeyed the LORD as his father Asa had done. {327

Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³³However, he did not get rid of all the hilltop shrines, and many people were still not serving the LORD faithfully.

³⁴Other events in Jehoshaphat's reign are recorded in the records of Jehu, son of Hanani, and the book of the Kings of Israel. ³⁵When Jehoshaphat was king of Judah, he made an alliance with Ahaziah, king of Israel, a wicked king. ³⁶They agreed to build together a fleet of ships at Ezion-Geber. ³⁷Hearing of this, the prophet Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah told Jehoshaphat, "Because you made an alliance with Ahaziah, the LORD will destroy these ships." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} And that's what happened. The ships were destroyed and never sailed.

Lord, I want Your presence for every decision I make just as judges had to do in Jehoshaphat's time. Guide me to always make right decisions in the right way. Amen.

2 Chronicles 21 Jehoram Is King

¹After Jehoshaphat died, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} And Jehoram his son became the next king. ²Jehoram had six sons, Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael, and Shephatiah. ³Jehoshaphat, their father, gave each of them silver and gold and other valuable items, and he put them in charge of the fortified cities in Judah. Jehoshaphat gave the kingdom of Judah to Jehoram because he was his firstborn son. ⁴But when he began his reign, he had all his brothers and some national leaders killed. ⁵He was 32 years old when he became king, and he reigned for eight years.

⁶Jehoram, king of Judah, followed the sinful example of the kings of Israel including Ahab's family. And he married a daughter of Ahab. He did evil in the sight of the LORD. ⁷However, the LORD was not willing to end David's dynasty because of His promise {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} that some of his descendants would always rule in Judah.

⁸Edom rebelled against Judah and set up their own king. ⁹So Jehoram went to Edom with his officers and all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded his army and chariot commanders, but somehow Jehoram got away at night. ¹⁰Edom has been free from Judah ever since then, {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} and even the town of Libnah rebelled against Judah. All this resulted from Jehoram turning from the LORD, the God of his ancestors. ¹¹He also built hilltop shrines in Judah and led the people to worship pagan gods.

¹²One day the prophet Elijah wrote this to Jehoram: "This is what the LORD, the God of your ancestor David, says: 'You have not followed the good example of your father Jehoshaphat or your grandfather Asa. ¹³You have been as sinful as the kings of Israel, and you have led the people of Jerusalem and Judah to worship idols just as Ahab did. And you have murdered your own brothers, men who were even better than you. ¹⁴So now the LORD will punish you, your family, and the people in your kingdom and destroy everything you own. ¹⁵You will have a painful stomach disease that will cause your bowels to come out."

¹⁶Then the LORD caused the Philistines and the Arabs who lived near the Mushites to get angry with Jehoram. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁷They attacked Judah and carried off everything valuable in the palace, and his sons and wives. Only his youngest son Amaziah was not taken. ¹⁸Then, just as Elijah had said, the LORD struck Jehoram with a severe stomach disease. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} 19After two years the disease caused his bowels to come out, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and he died in awful pain. The people did not build a bonfire for him as they did for his ancestors. ²⁰Jehoram was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. No one was sorry when he died. He was buried in the City of David but not with Judah's other kings. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

2 Chronicles 22 Ahaziah Is King

¹Some Arabs had killed all of King Jehoram's sons except the youngest, Amaziah. So Amaziah was made king. ²He was 22 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year. His mother was Athaliah, a granddaughter of King Omri of Israel. ³She influenced Amaziah to sin, and he was wicked just like Ahab and his father. ⁴After Ahaziah's father Jehoram died, Ahaziah followed the counsel of Ahab's advisers, and this led to his downfall.

⁵Ahab's advisers suggested he make an alliance with Jehoram, Ahab's son. Together they went to fight against King Hazael of Syria at Ramoth-Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Jehoram. 6So he went to Jezebel to recover. And Amaziah king of Judah went to visit him there. ⁷Through this visit God brought about Ahaziah's downfall. Amaziah and Jehoram went to meet Jehu, grandson of Nish, and God had already told Jehu to kill Ahab's relatives. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 8While Jehu was killing them, he ran across some of Judah's leaders and Ahaziah's nephews and Jehu killed them all. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 9He and his men went to find Amaziah, and they captured him while he was hiding in Samaria. Jehu's men brought Amaziah to Jehu, who put him to death. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} They buried Amaziah only because they respected Jehoshaphat, who served the LORD with all his heart. No one was left then in Ahaziah's family to become king of Judah.

¹⁰When Athaliah heard that her son Amaziah {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} was dead, she decided to kill every relative of his. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹¹But Ahaziah's sister Jehosheba, daughter of King Jehoram and wife of Jehoiada the priest, took Ahaziah's infant son Joash away from the other children who were about to be killed. She hid Joash and his personal servant. That way Athaliah could not murder him. ¹²He hid in the temple for six years while Athaliah ruled as queen of Judah.

2 Chronicles 23 Joash Is King

¹After Joash had hidden in the temple for six years, Jehoiada decided something had to be done. So he got the support of five army officers: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri. ²They went throughout the towns of Judah and met with Levites and clan leaders. They all went to Jerusalem, ³and at the temple they agreed to help Joash. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

Jehoiada said to them, "Joash will be our next king, because the LORD promised that a descendant of David will always be king. 4So here is what I suggest we do. A third of your priests and Levites are to guard the temple gates on the Sabbath, {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 5a third are to guard the palace, and a third are to guard the Foundation Gate. The others will guard the temple courtyards. ⁶No one is to enter the temple except the priests and Levites on duty {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} because they are the only ones who will have made themselves ceremonially clean. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} The others are to follow the LORD's instructions and stay outside. ⁷The Levites must protect King Joash, keeping close to him wherever he goes.

And they must have their weapons handy, {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ready to kill any unauthorized person who enters the temple. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

⁸The Levites and the people of Judah followed Jehoiada's orders. Each commander had his guards with him, including those going off duty, and those coming on duty. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 9Jehoiada gave the commanders swords and shields that once belonged to David and were stored in the temple. ¹⁰He had the guards with their weapons positioned around the king and in positions on the north and south sides of the temple and by the altar. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 11Jehoiada and his sons brought Joash outside, placed a crown on his head, and gave him a copy of God's law. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} They poured oil on his head, {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} and everyone shouted, "Long live the king!"

¹²When Athaliah who was the daughter of Ahab, heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she went to the temple to see what was happening. ¹³She saw the king standing by the column at the temple entrance, surrounded by officers and trumpeters and people rejoicing and blowing trumpets. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} Singers with musical instruments were leading the people in praise. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} Athaliah tore her clothes and shouted, "Treason! You betrayed me." ¹⁴Jehoiada told the army commanders, "Take her out of the temple, and kill anyone who tries to rescue her. Don't kill her in the temple." ¹⁵So they grabbed her and took her to the horse gate by the palace, and killed her there. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁶Jehoiada asked the king and the people to be faithful to the LORD. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹⁷The people then went to the Baal temple and tore it down. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} They smashed the pagan altars and idols, and killed Mattan the Baal priest. 18Then Jehoiada put in charge of the temple the Levitical priests, as David had instructed them to do. He also told them to present burnt offerings to the LORD, as Moses wrote, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and to sing as David instructed. 19He also told the gatekeepers at the temple gates to keep out anyone who was ceremonially unclean. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22}

²⁰Then the army commanders, nobles, rulers, and the people led the king from the temple through the Upper Gate and into the palace, and Joash sat on the throne. ²¹So all the people rejoiced {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} because Athaliah was killed, and Jerusalem was peaceful. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

2 Chronicles 24 Joash Repairs the Temple

¹When Joash became king, he was seven years old, and he reigned in Jerusalem 40 years. His mother was Zibiah, from Beersheba. ²While Jehoiada the priest was alive, Joash pleased the LORD. ³Jehoiada chose two wives for Joash, and he had sons and daughters.

⁴Later Joash decided to repair the temple. ⁵So he told the priests and Levites to go right away to the towns of Judah and collect annual taxes to repair the temple. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} But the Levites didn't hurry to follow his orders. ⁶So he asked Jehoiada the high priest, "Why haven't you sent the Levites out to collect the taxes? As you know, years ago Moses required this tax of our people for the upkeep of the temple."

⁷Some people who followed wicked Queen Athaliah had broken into the temple and stole sacred objects to use in worshiping Baal. 8So now Joash gave instructions for a box to be made and placed outside the temple gate. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} 9Then he sent word throughout Judah telling people to bring their temple tax, just as Moses had required their ancestors to do in the desert. 10The people and leaders agreed and brought their money and put it in the box. ¹¹When the box was full, the Levites took it to the king's officials. Then the court secretary and an officer of the chief priest counted the money and took the box back to the temple. This happened every day, and soon a large amount of money was collected. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ¹²The king and Jehoiada gave the money to the construction foreman, who hired masons and carpenters to repair the temple of the LORD. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} They also hired men who were experts in working with iron and bronze.

¹³The foremen worked hard, and the workers made good progress. The temple then looked just like its original design. ¹⁴When they finished the repairs, they brought the rest of the money to Joash and Jehoiada, who then used the money to make utensils for the temple and dishes and various gold and silver objects. Burnt offerings were sacrificed continually in the temple during Jehoiada's lifetime. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

¹⁵Jehoiada had a full life and died at age 130. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁶He was buried with the kings in the City of David because he had done so much good for the people, the LORD, and the temple. ¹⁷After Jehoiada's death the leaders of Judah talked with Joash ¹⁸and encouraged him to let them worship Asherah poles and pagan idols. God was very angry because of this sin. ¹⁹The LORD sent prophets to bring them back to the LORD, but they would not listen.

²⁰Then the Spirit of God came on Zechariah, Jehoiada's son. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} He said to the people, "Why do you destroy the LORD's commands? You can't succeed. You have deserted the LORD, and now He will desert you." ²¹The leaders planned to kill Zechariah, and even King Joash ordered the people to stone him in the temple courtyard. ²²Joash forgot that Zechariah's father had been a good friend. As Zechariah was dying, his last words were, "May the LORD see what you are doing and hold you accountable." {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6}

²³In the spring of the following year the Syrian army marched against Joash, invaded Judah and Jerusalem, and killed all the nation's leaders. They sent lots of loot back to their king in Damascus. ²⁴The Syrians had only a small army, but the LORD helped them defeat Judah's much larger army. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} This defeat against Judah and Joash was because Judah had deserted the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

²⁵The Syrians left Joash severely wounded. His own officers decided to kill him because he had murdered the son of Jehoiada the priest. They killed him as he lay in his bed. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} He was buried in the City of David, but not with the other kings. ²⁶The assassins were Zabad son of an Ammonite woman named Shimeath, and Jehozabad son of a Moabite woman named Shomer. ²⁷The story of Joash's sons, and the prophecies about him, and the details of his restoring the temple are written in the history of the book of the Kings. When Joash died, his son Amaziah was the next king.

2 Chronicles 25 Amaziah Is King

¹Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem 29 years. His mother was Jehoaddin from Jerusalem. ²He did what was right before the LORD, but not wholeheartedly. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

³He killed the two men who had killed his father. ⁴But he did not kill their children because in the law of Moses {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} God had said that parents are not to be put to death for their children's sins, and children are not to be put to death for their parents' sins.

⁵Amaziah called together the people of Judah and appointed commanders of thousands and of hundreds, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} Then he counted the men 20 years of age and older and found there were 300,000 men able to fight with spears and shields. ⁶He also paid almost four tons of silver to hire 100,000 soldiers from Israel. 7A man of God said to him, "O king, don't hire these troops from Israel. Why? Because the LORD will not help any of the people from the northern kingdom. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} 8Even if you fight well, He will let your enemies defeat you. He has the ability to help or defeat any army."

⁹Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what should I do about the silver I paid to hire troops from Israel?" The man of God answered, "The LORD will give you back a lot more than that." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ¹⁰So Amaziah sent the troops from Israel back home. But this made them angry with Judah, and they went home furiously mad.

¹¹Then Amaziah led his soldiers to the Salt Valley and killed 10,000 Edomites. ¹²His soldiers captured another 10,000, took them to the top of a high cliff, and pushed them over the side. They were all killed on the rocks below. ¹³Meanwhile the troops that Amaziah sent home to Israel raided towns in Judah between Samaria and Beth-Horon, killed 3,000 people, and carried off lots of loot.

¹⁴When Amaziah returned to Jerusalem after defeating the Edomites, he brought with him the idols worshiped by the people of Edom. He set them up as his own gods and bowed to them, and offered sacrifices to them. 15 This made the LORD very angry, and He sent a prophet to Amaziah with these words: "Why have you worshiped these gods who couldn't even save their own people from your attack?" {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹⁶Amaziah interrupted him and said, "Nobody asked you to be my advisor! Don't say another word, or I'll have you killed." So the prophet stopped. But then he said, "I know God will punish you because you sinned in worshiping these idols and now you have ignored my warning."

¹⁷Amaziah talked with his advisers and then sent a challenge to Israel's king Jehoash, Jehu's grandson, "Come face me in battle." ¹⁸Jehoash replied, "A small thornbush in Lebanon wrote to a big cedar tree, 'Give your daughter to be my son's wife.' But a wild animal crushed the thornbush. ¹⁹You are so proud because you defeated Edom. But you should just stay home. Otherwise you and Judah will be destroyed." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

²⁰However, Amaziah wouldn't listen because God was planning to punish him for worshiping the gods of Edom. ²¹So Jehoash's army attacked Amaziah's army at Beth-Shemesh. ²²Israel's army chased Judah's army, and the soldiers ran home. ²³Jehoash captured Amaziah at Beth-Shemesh and took him to Jerusalem, and he broke down 600 feet of the city wall from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. ²⁴He carried off from the temple all the gold and silver utensils that had been under the care of Obed-Edom. He also carried off treasures from the king's palace, took hostages, and went back to Samaria. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁵King Amaziah of Judah lived 15 years after King Jehoash of Israel died. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²⁶The other events in his reign are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷When Amaziah started disobeying the LORD, some people planned to kill him. Hearing of this, he fled to Lachish, but some men went after him and killed him there. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²⁸They brought his corpse back to Jerusalem on a horse and buried him with his ancestors in the City of David.

Lord, I will do my best to keep away from the snares of evil men. Thank You for helping me see people as they really are. Protect me when I can't protect myself. Amen.

2 Chronicles 26 Uzziah Is King

¹The people of Judah then made 16-yearold Uzziah, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} Amaziah's son, as their king. ²He recaptured and rebuilt Elath. ³He ruled in Jerusalem 52 years. His mother was Jecoliah from Jerusalem. ⁴He obeyed the LORD as his father Amaziah had done. ⁵Zechariah was Uzziah's spiritual adviser, and as long as Zechariah was alive, Uzziah sought the LORD and God gave him success. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁶Uzziah fought against the Philistines and broke down the walls of Gath, Jabneh, and Ashdod. He rebuilt towns around Ashdod and other areas of Philistia. ⁷God helped him defeat not only the Philistines but also the Arabs who lived in Gur Baal and the Meunites. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁸He even required the Ammonites to pay taxes to him. People as far away as Egypt heard about Uzziah because he had become very powerful.

⁹In Jerusalem he built fortified towers at the Corner Gate, the Valley Gate, and at the corner angle in the wall. ¹⁰He also built towers in the desert and dug many cisterns to catch rainwater for his livestock in the foothills and flatlands. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} He loved farming and so he hired people to look after his crops and vineyard in the foothills and fertile valleys.

¹¹Uzziah had a well-trained army, always ready for battle. Jeiel, the army secretary, and his assistant, Maaseiah, kept track of their numbers, and they served under Hananiah, a royal official. ¹²Clan leaders who commanded those soldiers totaled 2,600. ¹³And under their command were 307,500 trained soldiers, powerful troops who were to protect the king against his enemies. ¹⁴Uzziah gave the soldiers shields, spears, helmets, armor, bows, and stones for slings. ¹⁵Some of his skillful men made machines that could shoot arrows and large stones. He set these up at his defense towers and at the corners of Jerusalem's walls. He became very powerful {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} and was known in many countries.

¹⁶Unfortunately Uzziah became proud of his power, and this led to his downfall. One day he sinned against the LORD by entering the temple to burn incense on the altar of incense. ¹⁷Azariah the priest and 80 other priests followed him in ¹⁸and said, "Uzziah, this isn't right for you to burn incense to the LORD. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} This is to be done only by the priests who are Aaron's descendants. You should leave the temple. You have sinned and the LORD God will not bless you for this."

¹⁹Standing next to the altar ready to burn the incense, Uzziah became very angry. But just then leprosy suddenly appeared on his forehead. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 20When Azariah the high priest and the 80 priests looked at the king, they saw his leprosy and told him to leave the temple immediately. In fact Uzziah was eager to get out because he knew the LORD had caused the leprosy. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²¹He had leprosy the rest of his life. He was not allowed in the temple, and because of his leprosy he could not live in even his own palace. That is why his son Jotham lived there and ruled in Uzziah's place.

²²The other events of Uzziah's reign were recorded by the prophet Isaiah, son of Amoz. ²³Because of his leprosy, when he died he could not be buried with the other kings in the City of David. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Instead he was buried in a nearby cemetery the kings owned. Then his son Jotham became the next king.

2 Chronicles 27 Jotham Is King

¹Jotham was 25 years old when he became king, and he ruled from Jerusalem for 16 years. His mother was Jerusha, daughter of Zadok. ²He obeyed the LORD, as his father Uzziah did, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} but he did not enter the temple as Uzziah had done. But the people of Judah continued their sinful ways. ³Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the temple and did a lot of repairs on the city wall at the Ophel Hill. ⁴He built towns in the hills of Judea and made fortresses and defense towers in the wooded areas.

⁵Jotham attacked and defeated the Ammonites. For each of three years the Ammonites paid him 7,500 pounds of silver, 50,000 bushels of wheat, and 50,000 bushels of barley. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁶Jotham became a powerful king because he was faithful to the LORD. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁷The other events in Jotham's reign, including his wars and other activities, are recorded in the book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸After he ruled for 16 years in Jerusalem, ⁹he died at the age of 41 and was buried in the City of David.

{99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} His son Ahaz became the next king.

2 Chronicles 28 Ahaz Is King

¹Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem 16 years. He did not do what pleased the LORD as his ancestor David had done. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²He followed the example of the kings of Israel and also made idols for worshiping Baal. ³He offered sacrifices in the Hinnom Valley, even sacrificing his own sons in the fire. He copied the awful practices of the nations the LORD had forced out of the land. ⁴He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the pagan hilltop shrines and under every large tree.

⁵Therefore the LORD allowed the king of Syria to defeat Ahaz and to take many people of Judah as captives to Damascus, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and the Syrian army killed many of Judah's soldiers. ⁶Also Israel's king Pekah, son of Remaliah, killed 120,000 of Judah's soldiers in one day, all because Judah had turned from the LORD, the God of their ancestors. ⁷Zicri, a soldier from Ephraim, killed Maaseiah, the king's son; Azrikam, the official in charge of the palace; and Elkanah, the king's second-in-command. ⁸Israel's soldiers captured 200,000 wives, sons, and daughters in Judah.

⁹The prophet Oded in Samaria met Israel's army as they were on their way back from Judah. He said, "The LORD, the God of your ancestors, let you defeat Judah because He was angry with them. But you have gone too far, killing many of them without any mercy. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁰If you make slaves of the people of Judah, you will be as guilty as they are against the LORD your God. ¹¹Send back these prisoners; after all, they are your relatives. The LORD is very angry with you."

¹²Four of Israel's leaders arrived just then. They were Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai. They agreed with Oded and said to the men returning from battle, 13"Don't bring these prisoners here. That will add to our guilt, which is already great, and the LORD is already angry with us." 14So the soldiers let the prisoners go and they handed back all the loot they had taken. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹⁵The four men took clothes from the loot and gave them to the prisoners who had nothing to wear. They gave them clothes and sandals and something to eat and drink. They also gave them some olive oil to put on their wounds. They put on donkeys the prisoners who were too weak to walk. And they led all the prisoners back to Jericho, the City of Palms, and went back to Samaria. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2}

¹⁶Later King Ahaz wrote to the king of Assyria, asking for help. ¹⁷That's because the Edomites had again attacked Judah and took some people of Judah as captives. ¹⁸And the Philistines had attacked towns in the foothills and in the Southern Desert. They conquered and occupied Beth-Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco, Timnah, and Gimzo and their surrounding villages. ¹⁹The LORD was punishing Judah in this way because Ahaz had been encouraging the people to sin and he was very unfaithful to the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁰Tiglath-Pileser, king of Assyria, went to see Ahaz, but instead of helping him, he gave him trouble. ²¹To try to please Tiglath-Pileser Ahaz took some valuable things from the temple, the palace, and his officials' homes and gave them to him, but that did not help.

²²With all this trouble Ahaz became even more unfaithful to the LORD. ²³He offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus who had defeated him, for he said to himself, "These gods helped the kings of Syria, so I will sacrifice to them so they will help me." But this led to the downfall of Ahaz and the destruction of Judah.

²⁴Ahaz took the furnishings in the temple and broke them into pieces. He shut the doors of the temple and set up altars at every street corner in Jerusalem. ²⁵In every town in Judah he built hilltop shrines for offering sacrifices to foreign gods. All this made the LORD, the God of his ancestors, very angry. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁶The other events in Ahaz's reign and all his ways are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷Ahaz died and was buried in the City of David but not in the tombs of the kings. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Then his son Hezekiah became king.

Lord, I will examine my life to see if I'm compromising my walk with You or my worship of You. Open my blind eyes to see if I have compromised anything at all. I will repent and give You first place in every area of life. Amen.

2 Chronicles 29 Hezekiah Is King

¹Hezekiah was 25 years old when he became king in Jerusalem, and he reigned 29 years. His mother was Abijah, daughter of Zechariah. ²He pleased the LORD just as David did. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} 3In the first month of his reign he opened the temple doors and repaired them. 4He brought in the priests and Levites to the east temple courtyard, ⁵and he said, "We need to dedicate ourselves and the temple to the LORD and to remove all defiled things from the temple. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} 6Our ancestors were unfaithful to the LORD and sinned against Him and turned from Him. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 7They shut the temple doors and snuffed out the lamps. They stopped burning incense and offering sacrifices to the God of Israel. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} 8Therefore the LORD is very angry with Judah and Jerusalem. Everyone is shocked and horrified at what He did to punish them. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Our ancestors were killed in battle, and our wives and children were taken as captives. ¹⁰Now I will renew our agreement with the LORD, the God of Israel, {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} so that He will no longer be angry with us. ¹¹Don't waste any time, because the LORD has chosen you to serve Him and to burn incense." {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

¹²Then the Levites went to work. From the Kohathites were Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah; from the Merarites were Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel; from the Gershonites were Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah; ¹³from the descendants of Elizaphan were Shimri and Jeiel; from the descendants of Asaph were Zecharaiah and Mattahiah; ¹⁴from the descendants of Heman was Jehiel and Shimei; and from the descendants of Jeduthun were Shemaiah and Uzziel.

¹⁵These leaders gathered the other Levites and they all made themselves ceremonially clean and then began to purify the temple as the king had ordered them to do. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁶The priests took out from the temple everything that was unclean and brought them into the courtyard. The Levites then carried them to the Kidron Valley. ¹⁷Starting on the first day of the first month, the priests took a week to purify the courtyards and another week to purify the temple itself. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ¹⁸Then on the 16th day they went to Hezekiah and reported, "We have purified the temple {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} and the altar of burnt offering and its utensils, and also the Table for the Bread without Yeast and its articles. ¹⁹We have also brought back and purified all the articles King Ahaz took from the temple when he was king. We put them back in front of the altar."

²⁰The next morning King Hezekiah called together the officials of Jerusalem, and together they went to the temple. ²¹They brought with them seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs, and seven male goats as an offering for the sins of the people of Judah {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and to purify the temple. Hezekiah told the priests, descendants of Aaron, to offer these on the altar. ²²The priests killed the bulls, the rams, and the lambs and sprinkled their blood on the altar. ²³They brought the goats to the king and the people; they laid their hands on them. ²⁴The priests then killed the goats and sprinkled the blood on the altar as a substitutionary payment for sin for Israel, {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} just as the king specifically commanded for Israel.

²⁵King Hezekiah then stationed the Levites in the temple with cymbals, harps, {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} and lyres, as God had commanded David and the prophets Gad and Nathan. ²⁶The Levites stood ready with David's instruments and the priests took their positions with their trumpets. ²⁷Hezekiah gave the order for the burnt offering to be sacrificed on the altar. As the offering was presented, the people began singing as the trumpets {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} and other instruments of David were being played. ²⁸Everyone bowed in worship as the singers sang and the musicians played. This continued while all the animals were sacrificed.

²⁹Then Hezekiah and everyone there bowed down in worship. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} 30Hezekiah and his officials ordered the Levites to praise the LORD with the words David and Asaph, the prophet, had written. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ³¹Hezekiah said to the crowd, "Now that you have dedicated yourselves to the LORD, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the temple." So the people did that, and some of them willingly brought burnt offerings. 32The number of burnt offerings they brought were 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs. 33Other sacrifices that were brought included 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep. 34 There were not enough priests to skin all the burnt-offering animals, so the Levites helped them until the work was finished {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} and more priests had been made ceremonially clean. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 35Many animals were offered as burnt offerings, together with many drink offerings, and a lot of fat from animals for the many peace offerings. So the temple was again restored and ready for worshiping the LORD. ³⁶Hezekiah and all the people of Judah were glad because God had helped them finish all this quickly. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

2 Chronicles 30 Celebrating the Passover

¹Hezekiah invited all Israel and Judah to come to the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover of the LORD, the God of Israel. ²The king and his officials and everyone in Jerusalem decided to celebrate the Passover in the second month that year instead of the first month. 3 That's because not enough priests had made themselves ceremonially clean, {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} and because not everyone had yet assembled in Jerusalem. 4This plan seemed the right thing to do. 5So Hezekiah sent a message to everyone in Israel and Judah, from Beersheba in the south to Dan in the north, inviting everyone to come to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover. For years the Passover had not been celebrated in large numbers.

⁶Hezekiah's messengers went everywhere in Israel and Judah with this message from him and his officials: "People of Israel, return to the LORD, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} the God of our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob so that He will return to us who have survived the invasion of the Assyrian kings. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} Don't be like your ancestors and your relatives in the north who were unfaithful to the LORD, the God of their ancestors, so that others were horrified by what they saw. 8Don't be stubborn, as your ancestors were. Come to the temple, and serve the LORD {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} so that He won't be angry with you. 9If you return to the LORD, the captors of your brothers and children will treat them with mercy and will allow them to return home. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} The LORD your God is gracious and has compassion. So if you turn back to Him, He will not turn from you."

¹⁰The messengers went to every town in Ephraim and West Manasseh and as far north as Zebulun, but most of the people laughed at them and made fun of them. ¹¹However, a few men in Asher, West Manasseh, and Zebulun went to Jerusalem. {442 Sober-Praying, Prov. 23:31} ¹²Everyone in Judah united to carry out what the king and his officials ordered according to the LORD's word.

¹³On the appointed spring day of the second month a large crowd of people gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate the Festival of Bread without Yeast. 14 They removed all the pagan altars and incense altars in Jerusalem {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and threw them into the Kidron Valley. ¹⁵Each family killed its Passover lamb on the 14th day of the second month. Many of the priests and Levites were ashamed because they had not become ceremonially clean. So they purified themselves {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} and then offered burnt offerings in the temple. 16 Then the priests and Levites took their places at the temple, {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} according to the instructions in the law of Moses.

¹⁷Many of the people were ceremonially unclean, so the Levites had to kill their Passover lambs for them. ¹⁸Also many of those who came from Ephraim, West Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun were ceremonially unclean. But Hezekiah prayed for them, and he allowed them to eat the Passover meal, even though this was contrary to God's laws. {248

Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} Hezekiah prayed, "LORD, You are so good and You forgive those ¹⁹who obey You, the God of their ancestors, even though they are not ceremonially clean." ²⁰The LORD heard Hezekiah's prayer and did not punish the people. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

²¹The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Festival of Bread without Yeast for seven days with great joy. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} Each day the Levites and priests sang praises to the LORD and played their instruments. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} ²²Hezekiah commended the Levites for their musical skills. For an entire week the people offered fellowship offerings, ate the sacred meals, and praised the LORD, the God of their ancestors. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ²³In fact everyone was so excited they agreed to celebrate for another week. ²⁴Hezekiah gave 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep and goats for sacrifices by other people, and his officials gave 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep and goats. Many more priests made themselves ceremonially clean. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} ²⁵Everyone in Judah and Israel, the priests and Levites, and foreign residents rejoiced. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ²⁶This was the biggest and most joyful celebration in Jerusalem since the days of Solomon, King David's son. ²⁷The priests and Levites blessed the people, {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} and God heard them from heaven, His holy dwelling place. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Lord, when I forget Your commands, pardon me. Lord, when I break Your law because I am untaught and ignorant, pardon me. Be merciful to me for I know I am not perfect. I will go to church on a regular basis, and I will join my sisters and brothers in worshiping You. Amen.

2 Chronicles 31 Revival

¹After the festival the Israelites who were there from some of the northern tribes went to all the towns in Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and West Manasseh, and smashed the sacred columns {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} and Asherah poles {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and tore down the pagan hilltop shrines and altars. Then the Israelites went back to their own towns and homes.

²Hezekiah divided the priests and Levites into groups, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} some to offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, and some to give thanks to the LORD at the temple gates. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ³The king gave animals from his own flocks for the morning and evening burnt offerings, as well as for the Sabbath festivals, New Moon festivals, and several annual festivals. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁴Also he told the people to bring the designated portion of their income to the priests and Levites so they could give their time completely to the law of the LORD. {39 Bible-Bless Prayer, Num. 6:23-26}

⁵The people responded quickly and gave a tithe of everything generously, including the first of their crops, and grain, new wine, olive oil, honey, and other crops. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ⁶The people of Israel who lived in Judah and the people of Judah themselves brought a tenth of their cattle and sheep and a tenth of anything they had dedicated to the LORD, and they piled them up in big piles. ⁷The people started bringing these offerings in late spring, and the piles got bigger for another four months. 8When Hezekiah and his officials saw these huge piles of gifts, he thanked the LORD and His people.

⁹Then Hezekiah asked the priests and Levites, "Where did all this come from?" ¹⁰Azariah the high priest, a descendant of Zadok, said, "The people have been bringing their gifts to the LORD so that we have more than enough food and supplies. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} The LORD has blessed us greatly as you can see from all that is left over." {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

¹¹Hezekiah then had storerooms built in the temple, {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} and when they were completed, ¹²the people brought their gifts and tithes to the temple. Conaniah, a Levite, was put in charge of the storerooms, and his brother, Shimei, was his assistant.

¹³Under them were these 10 supervisors: Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath, and Benaiah. Jezekiah and Azariah, the chief official over the temple made these appointments.

¹⁴Kore son of Imnah, a Levite, was the gatekeeper of the East Gate, and he was in charge of distributing freewill offerings and other things the people dedicated to the LORD. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ¹⁵His six assistants were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah. They distributed gifts to the priests by their family clans, and divided the gifts equally among the young and old. ¹⁶They also gave gifts to all males 30 years of age and older who worked in the temple. ¹⁷And gifts were given to the priests who were listed in the records by clans and to the Levites 20 years of age and older who were listed according to their jobs. ¹⁸Gifts were given to all the family members listed in the genealogical records, including babies, wives, and sons and daughters. That's because they had all been faithful in keeping themselves ceremonially clean. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 19Hezekiah appointed men to take food and supplies to the priests who were living in villages around the towns. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} The priests had to be descendants of Aaron, and the Levites had to be listed in the family records.

²⁰In doing all this throughout Judah, Hezekiah was doing the right thing and was being faithful to the LORD his God. ²¹Everything he did for the temple {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} followed the commands of the law, {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} and he obeyed

God with all his heart. As a result, he was successful in all he did.

Lord, I will bring my tithes and offerings to my church to take care of its needs, and the needs of Your workers. I will do it because of my obligation. I recognize I can't be spiritual without fulfilling my obligations. Thank You for the privilege of giving to You and Your work. Amen.

2 Chronicles 32 Assyria Invades Judah

¹After Hezekiah had faithfully done all these things, Sennacherib king of Assyria invaded Judah, attacking fortified cities and thinking he could break into the cities. ²Hezekiah realized that Sennacherib planned to attack Jerusalem. ³So he talked with his officials and military advisors, and they decided to block off the water from the springs just outside the city walls, so that the Assyrians would have no water when they attacked. ⁴So a large number of men stopped the flow of the springs and streams near Jerusalem.

Then Hezekiah repaired the city wall wherever it was broken down and built defense towers and an outer wall to protect the first wall. He also built up the terraces at the Millo in the City of David and made many weapons and shields. ⁶He appointed military officers over the soldiers and then had them gather together in the square by the city gate. He encouraged them with these words: ⁷"Be strong and courageous. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} Don't be afraid or discouraged by the king of Assyria or his vast army, for there is a much power with us. ⁸True, they have a great army, but they are just men. We have the LORD our God with us to help us and to fight our battles." {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} These words greatly encouraged the soldiers.

9While Sennacherib was attacking Lachish, he sent officials to Jerusalem with this message for Hezekiah and his people. 10"This is what I, Sennacherib of Assyria, say to you: What makes you think you can survive my attack on your city? 11Hezekiah told you the LORD your God will rescue you from me. But he is lying, and you will die from hunger and thirst. 12Don't forget that He destroyed all the shrines and altars except one and told you to worship only at the altar at the temple. ¹³And don't forget what I and other kings did to other nations. Their gods weren't able to save them. ¹⁴In fact no god anywhere has been able to rescue his people from me. So what makes you think your God can do any better? 15Don't let Hezekiah fool you or deceive you in any way. Don't believe him because no God of any nation has been able to rescue his people from me. So certainly your God can't rescue you from my power." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

¹⁶Sennacharib's officials made fun of the LORD God and his servant Hezekiah. ¹⁷Sennacherib also sent letters in which he made fun of the LORD, saying, "The gods of other nations couldn't rescue their people from me, so the God of Hezekiah will not be able to rescue His people from me." ¹⁸Then the Assyrian officials shouted this in the Hebrew language to try to scare the people in Jerusalem. ¹⁹These officials spoke about the God of Jerusalem as if He was no different from pagan gods made by hands.

²⁰Then Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah, son of Amoz, prayed to the LORD, asking for His help. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ²¹The LORD sent an angel who killed every Assyrian soldier and commander. So Sennacherib returned to Assyria greatly discouraged. And when he went into the temple of his own god, some of his own sons killed him with a sword. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²²In that way the LORD rescued Hezekiah from Sennacherib and from other enemies. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²³People brought many offerings to the LORD at Jerusalem along with valuable gifts for Hezekiah. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} From then he was highly respected everywhere. ²⁴Hezekiah became very ill and almost died. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} He prayed to the LORD who healed him and gave him a sign that he would recover. ²⁵But in his pride Hezekiah refused to thank the LORD for His kindness. So the LORD was angry against him and Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶Then Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} turned from their pride, and so the LORD was no longer angry with them.

²⁷Hezekiah was very rich and people honored him greatly. He built treasury buildings for all his silver and gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and other valuable items. ²⁸He also built storehouses for his grain, new wine, and olive oil. And he made many stalls for his cattle, and pens for his flocks of sheep and goats. ²⁹He built many towns and had many flocks and herds, because God had made him rich. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³⁰He blocked the upper outlet of the Gihon Spring and brought the water through a tunnel into the City of David. The LORD gave him success in everything he did.

³¹However, some men came from Babylon to ask him about his achievements and the sign the LORD had shown him. God then let Hezekiah give his own answer {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1} in order to test him and see if he would remain faithful.

³²The other events in Hezekiah's reign and his faithfulness to the LORD are recorded in the vision of the prophet Isaiah, son of Amoz, which is included in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ³³When Hezekiah died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} he was buried in the upper part of the king's cemetery. All Judah and Jerusalem honored him at his death, and Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 33 Manasseh Is King

¹Manasseh was only 12 years old when he became king of Judah, and he reigned for 55 years in Jerusalem. ²He disobeyed the LORD by following the disgusting practices of the pagan nations the LORD had forced out of the land. ³He rebuilt the hilltop shrines his father Hezekiah had destroyed, and he built altars for Baal and set up poles for worshiping the goddess Asherah. And he even bowed down to the stars and worshiped them. ⁴He built pagan altars in the temple where God had said His name is to be honored. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 5In both courtyards of the temple he built altars dedicated to the stars. 6Also Manasseh sacrificed his own sons in the Hinnom Valley. He practiced sorcery, fortune-telling, and witchcraft, and he asked advice from mediums and psychics. All of these evil practices made the LORD very angry.

⁷He even made a carved idol and placed it in the temple where God had told David and Solomon, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} "I will be honored here in the temple and in Jerusalem. ⁸If My people obey all the laws, commands, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and regulations I gave Moses, then I will never force them out of the land I promised to your ancestors." ⁹Manasseh led the people to be more sinful than the pagan nations the LORD had destroyed.

¹⁰The LORD warned Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention. ¹¹So the LORD sent the Assyrian army commanders to invade Judah and they captured Manasseh. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} They put a hook in his nose, and tied him up in bronze chains and took him away to Babylon. ¹²Coming to his senses, he humbled himself before the LORD and asked Him for help. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹³The LORD saw how sorry Manasseh was, {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} and so He made the Assyrians release him. He went back to Jerusalem, {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} and he realized from then on that the LORD is the true and only God.

¹⁴Later Manasseh rebuilt the outer wall of the City of David, making it higher than it was. This section extended west of the Gihon Spring in the Kidron valley to the Fish Gate and continued around the Ophel Hill. He stationed army commanders in all the fortified cities of Judah. 15He got rid of the pagan idols from the hills and the idol he had placed in the temple and all the altars he had built near the temple {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and elsewhere in Jerusalem, and he dumped them all outside the city. ¹⁶Then he repaired the LORD's altar of burnt offering and offered fellowship offerings and thank offerings on it. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} And he told everyone in Judah to worship only the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁷However, though the people worshiped only the LORD, they did so at their hilltop shrines.

¹⁸The rest of Manasseh's events, his prayer to God from Babylon, and the prophet's words to him are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah. ¹⁹His prayers, the way God answered that prayer, and his many sins, and the places where he built pagan shrines and set up Asherah poles and idols {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} are recoded in the Record of the Prophets. ²⁰When Manasseh died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} he was buried at his palace and not with Judah's other kings. Then his son Amon became king.

²¹Amon was 22 when he became king, and he reigned two years. ²²He disobeyed the LORD just as his father Manasseh did in his earlier years. Anon worshiped the idols his father had made and he offered sacrifices to them. ²³Manasseh had turned back to the LORD, {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} but not Amon. In fact, he sinned even more than his father. ²⁴Some of Amon's officials killed him in his palace. ²⁵Then some people in Judah killed those who killed Amon, and they made his son Josiah king.

2 Chronicles 34 Josiah Is King

¹Josiah was only eight years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled for 31 years. ²He followed the example of his ancestor David in obeying the LORD all the time. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} ³In the eighth year of his reign, when he was a 16-year-old, he began worshiping the LORD just as David had done. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Four years later he destroyed all the hilltop shrines, and the poles used in worshiping Asherah, and idols of foreign gods. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 4He had the altars to Baal and incense altars torn down. And he made sure the Asherah poles, carved idols, and cast images were crushed into powder, and scattered over the graves of people who had sacrificed to them. ⁵Also he burned the bones of dead pagan priests on their own altars to help cleanse the people of their sin. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16}

⁶Josiah did the same things in West Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and far north Naphtali. ⁷Everywhere in the northern kingdom he destroyed pagan altars and Asherah poles, crushed idols into powder, and smashed incense altars. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

8In Josiah's 18th year of his reign, he sent Shaphan, son of Azaliah, Maaseiah city ruler, and Joah, son of Joahaz, the government recorder, to repair the temple. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 9 These three men gave Hilkiah the high priest the money the Levites had collected when they were gatekeepers at the temple. This money was collected from the people of West Manasseh, Ephraim, and all the northern kingdom as well from people in Judah and Benjamin. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ¹⁰Hilkiah gave this money to the men who supervised the temple repairs, who paid the repairmen, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 11carpenters, and masons. Those workers also used the money to buy stone and timber for rafters and beams for the temple and other buildings Judah's kings had not repaired. ¹²The workers worked hard {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} and were under the leadership of Jahath and Obadiah, Levites of the Merarite clan; and Zechariah and Meshullam, Levites of the Kohathite clan. Other Levites, all skilled musicians, {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} ¹³were in charge of the workers, and carried supplies. Some of the Levites were secretaries, scribes, and guards. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

¹⁴When the people were bringing money to the supervisors, {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} Hilkiah the priest found the book that had the laws God had given Moses. 15 Hilkiah said to Shaphan the official, "Look what I found! The book of the law of Moses!" He gave it to Shaphan, 16who took it to Josiah and said, "Your workers are doing a good job. 17And the money that was collected has been given to the supervisors and workers." 18Then Shaphan said, "Here's interesting news. Hillkiah the priest found this scroll {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} and has given it to me." And Shaphan read from it to the king.

¹⁹When the king heard these words of the law, he tore his clothes in sorrow. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²⁰Right away he asked that Hilkiah, Shaphan, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Acbor son of Micaiah, and Asaiah the king's personal aide come see him. He told them about Hilkiah finding the scroll and then he said, ²¹"The LORD is probably angry with us for our not obeying the laws written in this scroll. Go to the temple and ask the LORD what we should do since we have not been doing what the law says to do." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²²So Hilkiah and the other men went to the newer (Mishneh) section of Jerusalem to talk with the prophetess Huldah. She was the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath (also called Tikrah) and grandson of Harhas. Shallum was the keeper of the temple wardrobe. ²³She said to them, "The LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken. Give Josiah this message: ²⁴This is what the LORD says: 'I will destroy this city and its people. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} The curses in this scroll will come true. ²⁵Why? Because the people of Judah have rejected Me and have worshiped pagan idols. So I am very angry, and nothing will stop Me. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁶However, Josiah, listen to what I will say. ²⁷You were sorry and you humbled yourself before Me {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} when you heard what I said I will do to these people. You felt sad and tore your clothes in sorrow and you cried. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 28So before I destroy this place, you will die and be buried in peace. You will not see the disaster I will bring on this place." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} So they told Josiah what she said.

²⁹Then Josiah called together the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, and the priests and Levites. ³⁰He went to the temple with them and all the people from the least to the greatest. He read to them the entire Book of the Covenant {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} that Hilkiah found in the temple. ³¹Then he stood by the column and promised to obey the LORD and the LORD's laws, commands, and regulations with all his heart and soul. He promised to obey all that was written in the scroll. ³²And he asked that everyone there make the same promise, {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} and the people did. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

³³So Josiah destroyed all the idols throughout all of Israel and required everyone to worship the LORD their God. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} Throughout his life the people remained true to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 35 The Passover Is Restored

¹Josiah announced that the Passover would be celebrated in Jerusalem on the 14th of April. Passover lambs were killed the evening before. ²He made sure the priests understood their duties, and he encouraged them. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ³He told the Levites, who served the LORD {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} and taught the people His laws, "You no longer need to carry the sacred chest from place to place. It is to stay in the temple, and so you can spend your time serving the LORD and His people. 4Serve in the temple by your family clans, as David and Solomon instructed. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 5Stand in your places in the temple and help the families that come to you with their offerings. 6Kill the Passover lambs, cleanse yourselves, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} and assist the people when they come. Follow the instructions God gave Moses. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁷Josiah gave 30,000 sheep and goats and 3,000 bulls from his own flocks and herds for the people to sacrifice. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ⁸The king's officials also gave some animals to the people, the priests, and the Levites.

Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, officials in charge of the temple, gave the priests 2,600 lambs and young goats and 300 bulls for Passover offerings. ⁹Conaniah, his two brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad gave 5,000 lambs and young goats and 500 bulls for Passover offerings. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

¹⁰When everything was ready for celebrating the Passover, the priests and Levites stood in their places as Josiah had ordered. ¹¹Then the Levites killed and skinned the Passover lambs and gave some of the blood to the priests who splattered the blood on the altar. 12 They gave the slaughtered animals for burnt offerings to the family groups so they could present them to the LORD as Moses instructed. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} They did the same with the bulls. ¹³Then they roasted the lambs on the altar and they boiled the meat for the other offerings in pots, kettles, and pans. 14Afterward the Levites prepared a meal for themselves and the priests: they had been busy all day offering sacrifices and burning the animal fat.

¹⁵Some of the Levites brought Passover meals to the musicians, descendants of Asaph, {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} and the guards who were in their places all day. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ¹⁶The entire Passover celebration was completed that day, and all the burnt offerings were sacrificed on the altar of burnt offering, following Josiah's orders. ¹⁷Then the people celebrated the Festival of Bread without Yeast for the next seven days. ¹⁸Never since the time of the prophet Samuel had the Passover been observed like this. In fact this was the greatest Passover in Israel's history. People from Jerusalem and all over Judah and Israel were there and all the priests and Levites were involved. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁹This Passover was in Josiah's 18th year as king.

²⁰After Josiah had finished with the temple, King Neco of Egypt led his army to battle the Babylonians at Carchemish on the Euphrates River, and Josiah and his army went out to fight him. 21 Neco sent messengers to Josiah with these words: "I'm not attacking you, king of Judah. I have no quarrel with you. I only want to attack my enemy. God is on my side, so if you don't stop, He will punish you." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ²²Josiah refused to listen and to turn back. Instead he led his army to the plain of Megiddo and disguised himself so the enemy wouldn't recognize him. 23An Egyptian soldier shot Josiah with an arrow and wounded him. Josiah told his servants to get him out of there because he had been hit. ²⁴So they took him out of his chariot, put him in another chariot, and took him to Jerusalem where he died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} He was buried with his ancestors, and everyone in Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him. ²⁵The prophet Jeremiah wrote funeral songs for Josiah, and choirs still sing those sad songs recorded in the Book of Laments. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ²⁶Everything Josiah did including his obeying the LORD's instructions in the law of Moses, ²⁷ and all the events of his reign are written in the history of the kings of Israel and Judah. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

Lord, I will sing the song of my heart to You. I love You and will tell You in the music of my soul. There are many who sing much better than I; so I will listen and worship You. I need Your music when I go about making money, or taking care of my family, or doing the things required of me. When I lie upon my bed, I will sing to You; when I rise in the morning I will thank You for the challenge of a new day. I will worship You through music all day long. Amen.

2 Chronicles 36 Jehoahaz Is King

¹After Josiah died, the people of Judah made his son Jehoahaz king. ²Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king. ³King Neco of Egypt captured him and forced Judah to pay about 7,500 pounds of silver and 75 pounds of gold as taxes. ⁴Then Neco put Eliakim, Jehoahaz's brother, as king of Judah and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Neco took Jehoahaz to Egypt as prisoner. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁵Jehoiakim was 25 years old when Neco made him king, and he ruled for 11 years from Jerusalem. But he disobeyed the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁶Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, attacked Jerusalem and he bound him in bronze chains and took him to Babylon. ⁷Nebuchadnezzar also took many of the gold objects from the temple and put them in his palace in Babylon. ⁸The other events in Jehoiakim's reign, including all his sinful acts, are written in the history of the kings of Israel and Judah. His son Jehoiachin became the next king.

⁹Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king of Judah and he ruled only three months and 10 days. Like his father, he disobeyed the LORD. ¹⁰In the spring of the year Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, had Jehoiachin arrested and taken to Babylon, along with more of the temple's valuable items. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Then Nebuchadnezzar put Zedekiah, Jehoiachin's uncle, as king in Judah.

¹¹Zedekiah was 21 years old when he was made king of Judah, and he reigned for 11 years. ¹²He disobeyed the LORD, and refused to change even after the prophet Jeremiah spoke to him. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ¹³Zedekiah also rebelled against Nebuchadnezzar, even though Nebuchadnezzar had forced Zedekiah to promise to be loyal to him. Zedekiah was very stubborn and would not turn back to the LORD, the God of Israel.

¹⁴The leaders of the priests and many people became unfaithful to the LORD and worshiped the pagan idols of the nations around them and even made the temple unfit for worship. ¹⁵The LORD felt sorry for His people and the temple, and so He sent prophets to warn them over and over. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ¹⁶But the people laughed at these prophets and hated their words. So the LORD finally got so angry that nothing could now stop him from punishing His people. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁷The LORD sent Nebuchadnezzar against Judah. He killed the young men who ran into the temple, and he killed many men and women, young and old. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 18He took to Babylon what was left in the temple and he took treasures from the temple and from the palace storerooms. He also took the royal princes to Babylon. 19He set the temple on fire, broke down Jerusalem's walls, burned the palace, and destroyed everything of value there. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 20He took the few survivors as prisoners to Babylon where he made them his servants until Persia came to power. ²¹The land enjoyed its Sabbaths, lying desolate for 70 years, just as the prophet Jeremiah had said.

²²In the first year that Cyrus was king of Persia, he sent a message throughout his kingdom. This was just as the prophet Jeremiah had said would happen. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} ²³The message said, "I am Cyrus, king of Persia. The LORD, the God of heaven, has made me ruler of every nation on earth. He has chosen me to build a temple for Him in Jerusalem, in Judah. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} If any of you want to go back to Israel and rebuild the temple, {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} you are free to go. And may the LORD watch over you who go back. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Ezra

CH 1: THE PROCLAMATION FROM KING CYRUS	639
CH 2: THE RECORD OF THE EXILES WHO RETURNE	D
	640
CH 3: ALTAR IS BUILT	642
CH 4: ENEMIES OPPOSE THE REBUILDING OF THE TEMPLE	643
Ch 5: More Questions Concerning the
Rebuilding	644
Ch 6: King Darius Reinforces the Decree	645
Cн 7: Ezra Goes to Jerusalem	647
Ch 8: The Men Who Went with Ezra	648
Ch 9: Ezra Prays for Forgiveness	650
CH 10: GOD'S PEOPLE CONFESS THEIR SIN	652

EZRA

Key Words: God of Heaven (Ezra 1:2; 5:11, 12; 6:9, 10; 7:12, 23)

Key Verse: "Rebuild God's temple in Jerusalem so that sacrifices can be made there" (6:3, Prayer Journey Paraphrase).

Theme: The book of Ezra tells the story of the Jewish people returning from 70 years of captivity in Babylon. King Cyrus of Medo-Persia defeated Babylon and decreed the Jews' return to their land. The first part of Ezra (chaps. 1-6) tells of Sheshbazzar and Zerubbabel leading the people back and rebuilding the temple. The longsuffering prayers of God's people are answered (Dan. 9:3-19; Ps. 137). The second part (chaps. 7-10) is a record of Ezra's leadership and the repentance of the people (with fasting) that led to revival.

Ezra's favorite name for the Lord was "God of Heaven." Since Israel was out of fellowship with the Lord, and didn't have a central place for worship; Ezra worked under the guidance of the God of Heaven.

Ezra teaches us to fast and pray when we face dangerous situations, and life-threatening challenges. Lord, I know evil destroys people, so I will keep myself from sin. Like Ezra, I will fast and pray for spiritual protection from the evil one. Amen.

Ezra 1 The Proclamation from King Cyrus

the first years of the reign of King Cyrus of Persia (538 B.C.), the Lord fulfilled the prophecy Jeremiah gave decades earlier by having Cyrus send this message to all parts of his kingdom: {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} 2"I, King Cyrus of Persia, announced that the LORD, the God of Heaven, has made me ruler of all nations. He has chosen me to build Him a temple at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} 3Any Jews may now go back to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple of the LORD, the God of Israel, the God who is in Jerusalem. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} 4If Jews are living in your area and they plan to return, give them silver and gold, goods, livestock, and freewill offerings for the temple." {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

'God interested many people to return, including tribal leaders of Judah and Benjamin and priests and Levites, and so they got ready to go. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 6 Their neighbors gave them silver and gold articles, supplies, livestock, and other valuable items and freewill offerings. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

⁷Also King Cyrus gave the returning Jews the things Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Lord's temple in Jerusalem and had put in the temple of his own gods.
⁸Cyrus told Mithredath, his national treasurer, to count these items and to give them to Sheshbazzar, leader of the Jews returning to Judah.
⁹These items included 30 gold dishes, 1,000 silver dishes, 29 silver pans, ¹⁰30 gold bowls, 410 silver bowls, and 1,000 other items.
¹¹These and others totaled 5, 400 items, which Sheshbazzar took with him when he and the others returned to Jerusalem from Babylon. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

The chapter teaches us "The heart of the King is in the hand of the LORD... He turns whenever He wishes" (Prov. 21:1). Just as God used Cyrus to fulfill prophecy, God completes His will in our lives by the things our rulers decide to do. Lord, I will trust You to complete Your will in my life by the things my rulers do. Therefore, I will submit to their leadership (Rom. 13:1) and pray for them (1 Tim. 2:1, 2). Amen.

Ezra 2 The Record of the Exiles Who Returned

¹Here is a list of the Jews who returned to Jerusalem and other towns in Judah, people who had been taken captive to Babylon by King Nebuchadnezzar. ²Their leaders were Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah. This is how many returned from each family group:

³The family of Parosh: 2, 172

⁴The family of Shephatiah: 372

⁵The family of Arah: 775

⁶The family of Pahath-Moab (descendants of Jeshua and Joab): 2,812

⁷The family of Elam: 1,254

⁸The family of Zattu: 945

⁹The family of Zaccai: 760

The family of Bani: 642The family of Bebai: 623

¹²The family of Azgad: 1,222

¹³The family of Adonikam: 666

¹⁴The family of Bigvai: 2,056

¹⁵The family of Adin: 454

¹⁶The family of Ater: (descendants of Hezekiah): 98

¹⁷The family of Bezai: 323

¹⁸The family of Jorah: 112

¹⁹The family of Hashum: 223

²⁰The family of Gibbar: 95

²¹The people of Bethlehem: 123

²²The people of Netophah: 56

²³The people of Anathoth: 128

²⁴The people of Azmaveth: 42

²⁵The peoples of Kiriath-Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth: 743

²⁶The peoples of Ramah and Geba: 621

²⁷The people of Micmash: 122

²⁸The peoples of Bethel and Ai: 223

²⁹The citizens of Nebo: 52

³⁰The citizens of Magbish: 156

³¹The citizens of West Elam: 1,254

³²The citizens of Harim: 320

³³The citizens of Lod, Hadid, and Ono: 725

³⁴The citizens of Jericho: 345

35The citizens of Senaah: 3,630

³⁶These are the priests who returned:

The family of Jedaiah (through the line of Jeshua): 973

³⁷The family of Immer: 1,052

³⁸The family of Pashhur: 1,247

³⁹The family of Harim: 1,017

⁴⁰These are the Levites who returned:

The families of Jeshua and Kadmiel (descendants of Hodaviah): 74

⁴¹The singers of the family of Asaph: 128

⁴²The gatekeepers of the families of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai: 139

⁴³The descendants of the following temple servants returned: Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth, ⁴⁴Keros, Siaha, Padon, ⁴⁵Lebanah, Hagabah, Akkub, ⁴⁶Hagab, Shalmai, Hanan, ⁴⁷Giddel, Gahar, Reaiah, ⁴⁸Rezin, Nekoda, Gazzam, ⁴⁹Uzza, Paseah, Besai, ⁵⁰Asnah, Meunim, Nephusim, ⁵¹Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur, ⁵²Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha, ⁵³Barkos, Sisera, Temah, ⁵⁴Neziah, and Hatipha.

⁵⁵The descendants of these servants of King Solomon returned: Sotai, Hassophereth, Peruda, ⁵⁶Jaalah, Darkon, Giddel, ⁵⁷Shephatiah, Hattil, Pokereth-Hazzebaim, and Ami.

⁵⁸In all the temple servants and the descendants of Solomon's servants numbered 392.

⁵⁹Another group returned at this time from the towns of Tel-Melah, Tel-Harsha, Kerub, Addan, and Immer. However, they could not prove that they or their families were descendants of Israel. ⁶⁰This group included the families of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda—a total of 652 people.

⁶¹Three families of priests—Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai—also returned. (This Barzillai had married a woman who was a descendant of Barzillai of Gilead, and he had taken her family name.) ⁶²But the records of these three families could not be found, so they were not allowed to serve as priests. ⁶³The governor would not let them eat the priests' share of food from the sacrifices until a priest could consult the LORD.

⁶⁴So a total of 42,360 people returned to Judah, ⁶⁵in addition to 7,337 servants and 200 singers. ⁶⁶They took with them 736 horses, 245 mules, ⁶⁷435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

⁶⁸When they arrived at the temple of the Lord in Jerusalem, some of the family leaders gave freewill offerings for the rebuilding of the temple on its original site, {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁶⁹and each leader gave as much as he could. Their gifts totaled 1,100 pounds of gold, about 3 tons of silver, and 100 robes for the priests.

⁷⁰The priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants, and some of the common people settled in their towns. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

These returnees didn't seek money from the nations around them. Those who were most involved gave the most money. That means we should support with our money the projects that are closest to our heart. Lord, I will give to my church and the projects You put upon my heart. I will give willingly and pray for these projects. Amen.

Ezra 3 Altar Is Built

¹In the fall after the Israelites had settled in their towns, the people gathered in Jerusalem. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ²Jeshua, son of Jehozadak, with other priests and Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, and his relatives rebuilt the altar of burnt offering and sacrificed burnt offerings as God had told Moses. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³Even though they were afraid of the local residents, they rebuilt the altar at its former site and sacrificed burnt offerings each morning and evening.

⁴They followed the instructions in the Mosaic Law for celebrating the Festival of Shelters, sacrificing offerings each day. ⁵They offered other sacrifices, including those for the New Moon celebrations, annual festivals, and freewill offerings. ⁶On September 15, the priests began sacrificing burnt offerings even though the temple foundation had not yet been laid. ^{365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15}

It's good to go back to where God revealed Himself to us in the past. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} The Jews rebuilt the altar on its original site. They didn't try to find a better place, or a new place, or a more convenient place. When we lose God, we usually search for Him with a new method, or a new organization, or in a new place. But when we lose God, He's usually right where we originally found Him. He may be waiting for you at the place you ran off and left Him. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Lord, I will go back to the church, Your body, to find You. I will do again those things I did when I first found You. I will turn my heart to the attitude I had when You first spoke to me. Here I come, Lord, I'm coming back. Amen.

⁷King Cyrus had said the Israelites could have logs from cedar trees from Lebanon to Joppa by the sea. The Israelites hired stone workers and carpenters and the people of Tyre and Sidon to bring the logs to Israel. They paid them with food, wine, and olive oil. 8In April of 536 B.C. the people began rebuilding the Lord's temple. This was the second year after the people arrived in Jerusalem. Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the priests and Levites, and everyone who returned from Persia started working on the temple. Levites 20 years of age and older were put in charge of the work. 9The Levites who directed the whole project {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} were Joshua and his sons and other relatives, Kadmiel and his sons, descendants of Hodaviah. and the family of Henadad.

¹⁰When the builders finished the temple foundation, the priests put on their robes, and blew trumpets, and the Levites of the family of Asaph played cymbals in praise to the LORD, as King David had said for them to do. ¹¹They praised the LORD and thanked Him {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} as they sang, "The LORD is good. His unfailing love for Israel will last forever." Then everyone shouted and praised the LORD that the temple foundation had been laid. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹²Many of the older priests, Levites, and their family leaders had seen the first temple years before, but now they cried when they saw the new foundation. But others shouted for joy. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} ¹³Their crying and shouting were so loud they could be heard far away.

When touched with sadness, I will weep. Lord, sometimes You make me shout, so I laugh to You. Sometimes I'm disappointed in what's happening around me. Thank You for allowing me to weep. Lord, You allow me to pray. Thank You that I don't have a sterile, dead religion, but have a vibrant relationship with You. Amen.

Ezra 4 Enemies Oppose the Rebuilding of the Temple

¹Enemies of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin heard that the Jews had come back to rebuild the temple of the LORD, the God of Israel. {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} ²They went to Zerubbabel and family leaders and said, "Let us help you. Ever since Esarhaddon king of Assyria brought us here we have worshiped your God and sacrificed to Him." {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

If you're doing anything for God, expect opposition. On the other hand, if you're serving God and you don't have any opposition, either your work is not significant, or you haven't given the enemy time to mount opposition. Lord, I don't want opposition, and I don't like to make people mad, but I will be true to You no matter what problems arise, or what opposition I face. Amen.

³Zerubabbel, Jeshua, and the family leaders said, "No. You cannot take part in rebuilding the temple to our God. We will build it ourselves, as King Cyrus told us to do." {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18}

We are not to compromise with other religions or cults. We can't worship idols and God at the same time. Lord, I will not compromise my belief in You, nor my worship of You. I believe Jesus is the only way to heaven, and He is the only true God. All other religions are false. Amen.

⁴Then the local residents tried to discourage the Jews and even scare them. ⁵They hired people to work against the Jews and to frustrate their efforts; even up to the year Darius became king of Persia (522)

B.C.). {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

⁶Years later, when Xerxes became king (in 486 B.C.), Judah's enemies wrote him a letter, accusing the people of Judah and Jerusalem. {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 7And later, when Artaxerxes was king of Persia, Judah's enemies led by Bishlam, Mithredath, and Tabeel, sent a letter to him (in 465 B.C.) in the Aramaic language. 8Rehum the governor and Shimshai, government secretary, wrote a letter, ⁹which was also sent from their associates, and judges and officials, and leaders over the people of Tripolis, Persia, Erech, Babylon, the Elamites in Susa, 10 and other people Ashurbanipal had relocated to Samaria and other places between the Euphrates River and the Mediterranean Sea. 11 The letter said, "To Artaxerxes, from your servants in the vast area west of the Euphrates River. 12You should know that the Jews who left your country to go back to Jerusalem are now rebuilding that evil city. They are repairing the city foundation and the walls. 13 If this city is rebuilt, the Jews won't pay your taxes. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} 14We are sending you this information because we don't want you to be dishonored in this way. 15Check your old records, and you'll see that this city has continuously been rebellious and a constant problem to the kings and provinces. And that's why it was destroyed. 16If this city is rebuilt, you will have no control over the vast area west of the Euphrates River." {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10}

¹⁷Artaxerxes replied: "To Rehum the governor and Shimshai government secretary, and associates in Samaria and the area west of the Euphrates River, Greetings. 18 After the letter you sent was translated and read to me, 19I had our old records checked. You are correct in stating that Jerusalem has rebelled against many kings. 20 Powerful kings have ruled over Jerusalem and the area west of the Euphrates River, and they have received taxes and tolls from Jerusalem. ²¹Therefore tell the people to stop rebuilding the city until I say so. ²²Do not delay because we don't want the situation to get out of control." {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

²³As soon as this letter from King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum, Shimshai, and their associates, they went to Jerusalem and forced the Jews to stop building the city.

²⁴So the work on the temple in Jerusalem stopped and nothing more was done on it till King Darius' second year (520 B.C.). {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2}

Lord, I don't want opposition, but I expect it. Lord, I will prepare for it. I will be strong, pray, and "put on the whole armor of God" (Eph. 6:11). Amen.

Ezra 5 More Questions Concerning the Rebuilding

¹The prophets Haggai and Zechariah, a descendant of Iddo, prophesied for the LORD to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem. ²Then Zerubbabel and son of Shealtiel and Jeshua, son of Jozadak, urged the people to work again on the temple. And Haggai and Zechariah encouraged them too. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

³Tattenai, governor of the area west of the Euphrates River, and Shethar-Bozenai, and their associates went to Jerusalem and asked the workers, "Who gave you permission to rebuild the temple? ⁴Give us the names of the workers." ⁵But God was watching over them, so the people continued rebuilding until a report could be sent to Darius and a reply received from him.

⁶Tattenai, governor of the area west of the Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai, and other officials, sent this letter to King Darius: ⁷"Greetings to King Darius. ⁸We went to where the temple of the God of the Jews is being rebuilt with large stones, and wooden beams are being set in the walls. The people are working hard, and they are making good progress. ⁹We asked the people in charge who said they could rebuild the temple. ¹⁰And we asked for the names of the workers so we could give them to you. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10}

¹¹"This is their answer: 'We are servants of the God of Heaven and earth. We are rebuilding the temple that was built years ago by our great king. ¹²But our ancestors made God angry, and so He let Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon destroy this temple and take them to Babylon. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ¹³However, in the first year of his reign over Persia, King Cyrus said the temple could be rebuilt. ¹⁴He returned the gold and silver utensils that Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple and he put them in the temple in Babylon. ¹⁵King Cyrus made Sheshbazzar governor of Judah, and he told him to put these gold and silver items back in the temple in Jerusalem." {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

Lord, help me to use the law to protect Your work. Help me to live by the laws of the land, but also help me not to be intimidated by those who oppose me and threaten me with their interpretation of the law. Amen.

16"So Sheshbazzar went to Jerusalem and enlisted workers to rebuild the temple foundation. The people have been working on this project, and it is still going on.' {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 17Please have someone look up the old records in Babylon to see if King Cyrus really did order the Jerusalem temple to be rebuilt. Then please send us your decision in the matter." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

Ezra 6 King Darius Reinforces the Decree

¹King Darius ordered that the old Babylonian records be searched. ²Finally a scroll was found at the fortress in Ecbatana, the capital of Media. It said this:

³"In the first year of King Cyrus' reign he gave orders to rebuild God's temple in Jerusalem so that sacrifices can be made there. It is to be 90 feet high and 90 feet wide. ⁴Every three layers of stones are to be topped with a layer of timber. All expenses will be paid by the royal treasury. ⁵The gold and silver objects that Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple to Babylon are to be taken back to God's temple." {273 Large-Praying, Acts 4:23-31}

Lord, I will do research to find out how things were done in the past. I will serve You the way it was done in the past. Also I will worship You the way You want to be worshiped. I'll worship You the way it was done in the past. Amen.

6King Darius sent this message: "To Tattenai, governor of the area west of the Euphrates River, Shethar-Bozenai, and your officials west of the Euphrates River, 'Stay away from the temple! Don't get in their way. 7Let them rebuild the temple at its former site. {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} 8In fact, I order you to pay their expenses from taxes I collect from your area west of the Euphrates River so that the work won't stop. 9Give the priests whatever they need—bulls, rams, and lambs for burnt offerings to the God of Heaven, and wheat, salt, wine, and oil for the priests each day. ¹⁰Then they can offer sacrifices to the God of Heaven and pray for me and my sons. {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7}

11"'If anyone doesn't follow these orders, a wooden beam is to be pulled from his house and sharpened on one end. Then it will be driven through his body, and his house will be torn down and will be a garbage dump. ¹²May the God who has chosen Jerusalem {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} destroy any king or nation who tries to change what I have written and destroys the temple. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} I, Darius, have issued this command. Be sure it is followed carefully."

¹³Governor Tattenai, Shethar-Bozenai, and their associates followed King Darius' orders, ¹⁴and the Jewish leaders continued working on the temple and Haggai and Zechariah encouraged them by their preaching. The temple was finally finished as God had commanded and as kings Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes had ordered. ¹⁵The temple was completed on March 12, in Darius' sixth year as king (515 B.C.).

¹⁶With great joy the priests, Levites, and all the people dedicated the temple to the Lord. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} ¹⁷In the dedication they sacrificed 100 bulls, 200 rams, and 400 male lambs, and they sacrificed 12 male goats as a sin offering, one for each tribe. ¹⁸Then the priests and Levites were divided into various groups, as Moses had written. {539 Worship-Ministry Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

¹⁹On April 14 the people celebrated Passover. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ²⁰The priests and Levites were ceremonially clean. Then the priests killed the Passover lamb for the people who had returned from Persia, and for themselves. ²¹The returnees ate the Passover meal with others in the land who had turned from their sinful ways to worship the LORD, the God of Israel. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²²For seven days they celebrated the Festival of Bread without Yeast. Everyone was happy because the LORD had led the king of Assyria {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} to help them build the temple.

We should worship and praise God when things go our way. We should recognize that our victories come because God works behind the scenes to make us successful. Lord, I thank You for every victory in my life. Forgive me for taking all the credit for past victories. I praise You for all the good things I enjoy. Amen.

Ezra 7 Ezra Goes to Jerusalem

¹Later, when Artaxerxes was king of Persia, Ezra went to Jerusalem from Babylon. His genealogical line was as follows: He was the son of Serajah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah, 2son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub, 3son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth, 4son of Zerahiah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki, 5son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the high priest. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} Ezra knew the law of Moses very well. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} Artaxerxes gave Ezra everything he asked for his trip to Jerusalem, because God was blessing him. 7In Artaxerxes' seventh year (457 B.C.) many people went with Ezra to Jerusalem, including common people, priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and temple servants.

⁸Ezra arrived in Jerusalem on August 1 of that year ⁹after starting their journey four months earlier on April 1. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ¹⁰Ezra studied and obeyed the law of the LORD and taught those laws and regulations to others. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

The New King James rendering of Ezra 7:10 says, "Ezra prepared his heart." The Living Bible says, "Ezra had worked hard to know and obey the teachings of the Lord." {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} Study is hard work. Lord, make me discipline myself to do what is tedious, that is, to study hard and study long to know all about You. Change my attitude so I enjoy studying, then quicken my mind to learn more when I study than if I had not prayed. Lord, I love You and I want to learn as much about You as possible. Amen.

¹¹King Artaxerxes gave a copy of the following letter to Ezra, the priest {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} and teacher of God's laws and commands.

¹²"From Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra, the priest and a teacher of the law of the God of Heaven: Greetings. ¹³Any Jew, including priests and Levites, may go to Jerusalem with you. ¹⁴I and my Council of Seven ask you to see if the law of your God is being obeyed there. ¹⁵Take with you silver and gold which we are giving as an offering to the God of Israel. ¹⁶Also collect silver and gold from people in Babylonia and freewill offerings from your people and priests for the temple. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ¹⁷With this money buy bulls, rams, lambs, grain offerings, and drink offerings, to be offered on the altar of your temple. ¹⁸If any silver or gold is left over, use it in whatever way you and your colleagues feel is God's will. ¹⁹Also take with you gold bowls and other items we are giving you for the temple. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁰If you need anything else for the temple, you may request funds from the royal treasury.

²¹"I, King Artaxerxes, order all treasurers in the area west of the Euphrates River to give you, God's priest and teacher of the law of the God of Heaven, whatever you need. ²²They may give as much as 7,500 pounds of silver, 600 bushels of wheat, 600 gallons of wine, 600 gallons of olive oil, and any amount of salt, ²³and whatever the God of Heaven needs for His temple so that He won't be angry with me or my sons. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁴No taxes of any kind are to be paid by the temple workers, including priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and temple servants. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

²⁵"You, Ezra, using the wisdom the LORD has given you, {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} choose officials and judges to govern the people west of the Euphrates River. If they don't know the laws of your God, teach them." {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30}

Two forces were at work here; first, Ezra studied and second, God gave him wisdom. Can we conclude that the more we study, the more wisdom God gives? Lord, give me wisdom so I can live properly for You. Also make me smart so I can do more for You. Amen.

²⁶"Anyone who doesn't obey the law of your God or of the king will be punished by death, being forced to leave the country, or having their property taken over, or being put in prison." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁷Ezra said, "Praise the LORD, God of our ancestors, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} who led the king to honor the Lord's temple in Jerusalem. ²⁸God has been good to me through the king and his Council of Seven and his powerful officials. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:10} The LORD was with me, and so I was encouraged and was able to bring several Jewish leaders with me to Jerusalem."

Ezra responded to God the way we should respond to Him. Lord, I thank You for all I am, and for all I have. You have shown me Your great love. Thank You for helping me do all I do for You. Amen.

Ezra 8 The Men Who Went with Ezra

¹These are the names of the leaders and their family groups who went with me

from Babylon to Jerusalem when Artaxerxes was king of Persia. ²Gershom of the Phinehas family; Daniel of the Ithamar family;

³Hattush son of Shecaniah of the David family; Zechariah and 150 other men of the Parosh family, who had family records; ⁴Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah with 200 men of the Pahath-Moab family; 5Shecaniah son of Jahaziel with 300 men of the Zattu family; ⁶Ebed son of Jonathan with 50 men of the Adin family; ⁷Jeshaiah son of Athaliah with 70 men of the Elam family; ⁸Zebadiah son of Michael with 80 men of the Shephatiah family; 9Obadiah son of Jehiel with 218 men of the Joab family; ¹⁰Shelomith son of Josiphiah with 160 men of the Bani family; 11Zechariah son of Bebai with 28 men of the Bebai family; ¹²Johanan son of Hakkatan with 110 men of the Azgad family; 13Eliphelet, Jeuel, Shemaiah who returned sometime later with 60 men of the Adonikam family; 14Uthai and Zabbud with 70 men of the Bigvai family. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

¹⁵I brought everyone together at the Ahava River, and we camped there three days. I went over the lists of those who were there, and to my surprise not one Levite was there. ¹⁶So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were Levite leaders. I also sent for Joiarib and Elnathan, who were wise men. ¹⁷I also sent for Iddo, leader of the Levites at Casiphia, asking him and his relatives and temple servants to send us temple priests. ¹⁸God was good to us, {219 Help-Prayer, Ps.

108:12, 13} and they sent us an outstanding man named Sherebiah with 18 of his sons and brothers. He was a descendant of Mahli, son of Levi and grandson of Jacob. ¹⁹They also sent Hashabiah, with Jeshaiah, descendants of Merari, and 20 of his relatives. ²⁰In addition they sent 220 temple servants, a group of temple workers David first chose years ago, and they were all listed by name. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

²¹By the Ahava River I asked the people to fast and pray, {149 Ezra's Prayer and Fast for Guidance, Ezra 8:23} and to humble themselves before God and to ask for a safe journey for us and our children and our belongings. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²²I didn't want to ask the king for soldiers and cavalry to protect us on the way because we had told the king the LORD was with us, but He gets angry at those who turn from Him. ²³So we fasted and prayed that God would protect us, and He did. {149 Ezra's Prayer and Fast for Guidance, Ezra 8:23}

Fasting takes your prayers to a higher level. When you give up food, it demonstrates to God that you are absolutely sincere. Fasting shows how desperate you are for God to intervene in your crisis. Lord, I will fast to get answers to my prayer. So when I fast, show me how to pray and move me to a place where I can get "through" to You. Lord, my fasting demonstrates that my spiritual needs are greater than my physical needs. Amen.

²⁴I chose 12 leaders of the priests—Sherabiah, Hashabiah, and 10 others—25to transport the silver, gold, and gold bowls, and other items that the king, his Council of Seven, his advisers and officials, and the Israelites had given for the temple. ²⁶I weighed the gifts as I gave them to the 12 priests. They totaled 25 tons of silver, 7,500 pounds of silver articles, 7,500 pounds of gold, ²⁷20 gold bowls weighing about 19 pounds, and two articles of polished bronze, as valuable as gold. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ²⁸I said to these priests, "You belong to the LORD, and the silver and gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of our ancestors. ²⁹So guard these treasures well and then present them to the priests, Levites, and family leaders who are to keep them safe in the temple storerooms." {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7} ³⁰So the priests and Levites accepted these gifts to take them to the temple.

³¹The middle of April we left the Ahava River for Jerusalem. God was with us, and He protected us all along the way. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³²After we arrived in Jerusalem, we rested three days. ³³On the fourth day after our arrival we weighed the silver, gold, and other items and gave them to Meremoth, son of Uriah, the priest, Eleazar, son of Phinehas, and the Levites, Jozabad son of Jeshua, and Noadiah son of Binnui. ³⁴Everything was counted, weighed, and recorded.

Ezra kept a record to make every person accountable to the money they were carrying.

Then when Ezra arrived in Jerusalem, he checked their valuables against the record. Good records keep employees honest. Lord, I will keep records on myself to make sure I'm honest with You and myself; then others will trust me. Amen.

³⁵Everyone who returned with me sacrificed burnt offerings to God, {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} including 12 bulls for Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs, and 12 male goats as a sin offering. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³⁶Some of the people told the king's orders to the leaders of the area west of the Euphrates River, and they helped with the rebuilding of the temple of God. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

Ezra 9 Ezra Prays for Forgiveness

¹Later the Jewish leaders came to me and said, "Many of our people, and even some priests and Levites, are living like the people around them. They are guilty of some of the horrible customs of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites. ²Some of our men have married these foreign women and their sons have done the same. So our race has become mixed with these foreign marriages. What's worse, our leaders and officials are some of the first offenders." {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

³When I heard this, I tore my clothing, pulled hair from my head and beard, and sat down shocked. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Sometimes we should confess the sins of our state and nation. O God, forgive me my sin, and forgive the sins of my nation. We have done wickedness in Your sight. We have sinned against You. Amen.

⁴Everyone who feared God because of this sin sat with me until time for the evening sacrifice. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16}

⁵At the time of the evening sacrifice I was still sitting there in grief with my clothes torn. I bowed to my knees and lifted my hands to the LORD, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁶and I prayed, "O my God, I am so ashamed to face you. Our sins are higher than our heads and our guilt reaches to the heavens. 7In much of our past we have sinned. And that is why we and our kings and priests have been defeated by other kings. We have been killed, taken as slaves, robbed, and made ashamed, just as today. ⁸But now you have briefly shown us Your grace by giving us some security here and encouraging us and giving us some relief from slavery." {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

Ezra acknowledged the mercy of God when he prayed, "You have punished us less than our sins have deserved" (Ezra 9:13). Lord, I deserve hell because of my sin, but You have given me heaven. I deserve punishment, but in grace You have been kind to me. Thank You for Your grace and forgiveness. Truly, You are a merciful God. Amen.

9"We were slaves, but You didn't turn from us. Instead You caused the king of Persia to help us rebuild the temple and repair its ruins, and he has helped us build a fence of protection around our people. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

10"But now after all this we have forgotten the commands 11You gave us through Your servants the prophets. You told us the land was full of sinful people who were polluting people with their unclean actions from one end of the country to the other. 12 You told us not to let our daughters marry their sons, and not to let our sons marry their daughters, and not to help them in any way. You promised us that if we avoided these sins, we would become prosperous and leave that prosperity to our children. ¹³"You punished us because of our sins, {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} though not as much as we deserved, and you have brought back some of us to our land. ¹⁴Why are we disobeying your commands again by letting our sons and daughters marry these people who do such awful things? Your anger could destroy us till no survivors are left. 15LORD, the God of Israel, You are just in letting a few of us survive. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} But again our guilt makes us ashamed to face You." {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9}

Ezra 10 God's People Confess Their Sin

¹While Ezra was on his knees in front of the temple and was praying and crying, {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} many Israelites-men, women, and childrengathered there and cried with him. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} 2 Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, a descendant of Elam, said to Ezra, "We confess that we have disobeyed God {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} by marrying foreign women. But we believe there is still hope. 3Let's agree to divorce these foreign wives and send them off with their children. This will follow your advice and the advice of others who respect the Lord. We will obey God's law." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

Sin and sinners would seek to influence us to sin. Sometimes sin—like the lust of the flesh—becomes a part of us. Then it's hard to get rid of what will destroy us. Lord, I will separate myself from the lust of the flesh so I can walk with You in purity. Amen.

4"Take courage. You must do something, and we will support whatever you do."

5So Ezra demanded that the priests, Levites, and all the people do as Shecaniah suggested. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

6Ezra then went to the room of Jehohanan in the temple, and spent the night there. He ate and drank nothing because he was still grieving over the people's sin. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19}

Most of the people were willing for others to live with sin. They didn't make any effort to separate themselves from sin until one intercessor fasted, prayed, and was willing to stand against sin. Am I willing to be the one intercessor who will pray for revival among God's people? Lord, I will be that person. I will pray, fast, and seek Your face until revival comes. I will make a difference in my church. Amen.

⁷Ezra had a message sent throughout Judah and Jerusalem that everyone who had returned from Babylon should come to Jerusalem in three days. ⁸If someone did not come in three days, he would lose everything he owned and would not be considered part of the Israelites.

⁹In three days in December the people of Judah and Benjamin arrived and were sitting in front of the temple. They were shaking because of the serious nature of the meeting and because it was raining. ¹⁰Ezra the priest stood and said, "You have sinned by marrying pagan women. ¹¹Now admit this sin, {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} and separate yourselves from these women." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

¹²The people answered loudly, "Yes, you are right. We will do what you say." {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

When the people were willing to do something about their pagan wives, then something happened. As one person, no one may listen to you; but you can pray for God to change the opinion of the majority. Then the exiles "did what the majority suggested" (Ezra 10:12). Lord, I may pray alone, but I will pray. No one may listen to me at first, but I will pray. I will not quit praying until the majority does what is right. Amen.

13"But this can't be done in a day or two because many of us are involved in this. And we can't stand here in the rain. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} 14So let everyone who has sinned in this way meet with the leaders and judges of his city. Then each situation can be cleared up, and God's anger can be turned away." {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} 15Only four people, Jonathan son of Asahel, Jahzeiah son of Tikvah, Meshullam, and Shabbethai, a Levite—were against this idea. {222 Hindrances to Prayer (See Blocked-Prayer, and Various "No" Answers to Prayer)}

¹⁶So this plan was followed. Ezra chose family leaders and he listed their names. They began this process in the middle of December ¹⁷and finished three months later in the middle of March. {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} ¹⁸These are the priests who had married foreign women:

From the family of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah. ¹⁹They agreed to divorce their wives, and they each admitted their guilt by offering a ram as a guilt offering. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²⁰From the family of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah. ²¹From the family of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah. ²²From the family of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

²³These are the Levites who were guilty: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (also called Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

²⁴This is the singer who was guilty: Eliashib.

These are the gatekeepers who were guilty: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

²⁵These are the other people of Israel who were guilty:

From the family of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malkijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malkijah, and Benaiah. ²⁶From the family of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah. ²⁷From the family of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza. ²⁸From the family of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai. 29 From the family of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Jeremoth. 30From the family of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Kelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh. ³¹From the family of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malkijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³²Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah. 33From the family of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.

³⁴From the family of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel, ³⁵Benaiah, Bedeiah, Keluhi, ³⁶Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu.

³⁸From the family of Binnui: Shimei, ³⁹Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah, ⁴⁰Macnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, ⁴¹Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, ⁴²Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph. ⁴³From the family of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah.

 $^{44}Each$ of these men, a total of 111, had a pagan wife $\{160\,$ Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17\}, and some even had children by these wives.

Nенеміан

Ch 1: The Story of History Involves a "Chance"
Conversation and Nehemiah Prays656
Ch 2: Nehemiah Arrives in Jerusalem657
Ch 3: The City Wall Is Repaired659
Ch 4: The Wall Is Guarded661
CH 5: HELPS THE POOR AND OPPRESSED663
Cн 6: Nehemiah Is Not Afraid of His Enemies 664
Cн 7: Nehemiah's Instructions666
Ch 8: The Law of God Is Read to the People668
CH 9: THE PEOPLE CONFESSED THEIR SINS670
Cн 10: Their Promise to Obey God's Law673
Ch 11: The People of Jerusalem674
CH 12: THE PRIESTS AND THE LEVITES676
Ch 13: Nehemiah Enforces the Law678

NEHEMIAH

Key Word: Remember (Nehemiah 13:31)

Key Verse: "So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days" (6:15).

Theme: The book of Nehemiah covers the period following 445 B.C. when Israel re-established itself on its homeland by rebuilding the walls and re-creating a vibrant community life. Throughout, Nehemiah inserts prayers as he writes this book, "Remember me, O my God, for good" (13:31). As needs came to Nehemiah's mind, he wrote them into the scriptural record. Nehemiah teaches us to write out our prayers, and to pray as we go about our daily activities. Whether we're waiting in line or doing any normal work, we should pray spontaneously {252 Intermittent-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:17} as did Nehemiah. Lord, I will pray as I do my work, just as Nehemiah prayed. I will pray as I write. Keep me close to You so I can pray at all times. "Pray without ceasing" (1 Thess. 5:17). Amen.

Nehemiah 1

The Story of History Involves a "Chance" Conversation and Nehemiah Prays is the story of Nehemiah son of Hacaliahi. In November of Artaxerxes' 20th year (444 B.C.) as king of Persia, I was in the fortress in Susa. ²My brother Hanani came from Judah with some other men to visit me. I asked them about the Jews who had returned to our land, and I asked about Jerusalem. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ³They said, "Those who went back to our land are facing a lot of problems. The wall of Jerusalem is still torn down and the city gates are burned." {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2}

Bad news should drive us to our knees. That's what Nehemiah did when his brother gave him discouraging news about Jerusalem and its inhabitants. Lord, teach me to pray when I get bad news. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} I don't want to be a pessimist, nor do I want to just react negatively when I get bad news. Teach me to trust You to do something about bad news. Amen.

⁴This news made me cry. For several days I mourned and went without eating {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and 5I prayed to the God of Heaven, "LORD God of Heaven, {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} You are great and awesome, and You keep your promises of love to those who love You and obey You. ⁶Please listen {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} to the prayer of Your servant which he is voicing day and night for the people of Israel, Your servants. {337 Others-Prayer, Jude 22} We have sinned against You, and I include myself and my family. ⁷We have been very wicked toward You by not obeying the commands and laws You gave Moses. {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6}

8"Remember the promise You made to Moses. You said, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations. 9But if you turn to Me and obey My commands, I will bring you from the most distant nations and bring you to the place where I have chosen to be worshiped.' {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1}

10"These people are Your servants whom you rescued by Your great strength and power. ¹¹Please hear this prayer of Your servant and others who gladly honor Your name. Please give me, Your servant, success today by having the king respond favorably to my request." {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} I was the one who served the king his wine.

Nehemiah prayed what is called today, identificational repentance. This is when we confess the sins committed by other people. We can't get forgiveness for them if they do not confess and seek forgiveness. But we can ask God to deal with the consequences of their sin so that their consequences do not affect us and others. Lord, I confess the sin of abortion that's practiced in America; forgive our nation and don't judge us for our sin. I confess also the sin of greed, sexual deviation, and pride. Don't judge America. Rather speak to people's heart so they will repent and be saved. Lord, send revival to my nation. Amen.

Nehemiah 2 Nehemiah Arrives in Jerusalem

¹In the following spring in Artaxerxes' 20th year, I served him his wine. I had never looked depressed before. ²But the king asked me, "Why do you look sad? You aren't sick, are you? You look like something is bothering you." {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} I was afraid,

"What's in the well comes up in the bucket." Nehemiah's concern for Jerusalem showed on his face. Lord, teach me to pray about everything... big things... little things... even things that bother me. Amen.

³but I said, "May you live forever. Why shouldn't I feel sad when the city where my ancestors are buried is in ruins and its gates have been burned?" {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ⁴The king said, "What can I do for you?" Then I prayed a quick, silent prayer to the God of Heaven, ⁵ and I said to the king, "If it pleases you, please let me go to Judah to rebuild the city where my ancestors are buried." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

When given a wonderful opportunity, what's the first thing you do? Nehemiah immediately prayed. Even as he stood in the presence of the king, Nehemiah prayed. Lord, I will pray—even when talking to others—for You are always with me, and You will answer the shortest and simplest prayer. Amen.

⁶The queen was sitting beside him, and he asked how long I would be gone and when I would get back. He agreed to let me go when I told him when I would be back. ⁷Then I asked him, "Would you write letters to the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River, asking them to let me travel safely through their territory to Judah? 8Also I would like to have a letter to Asaph, manager of the king's forest, asking him to give me timber to rebuild the gates of the temple fortress and timber to rebuild the city wall and to build a house for me." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} God was good to me, and the king wrote these letters. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

⁹The king even sent some army officers and horsemen along with me, and when I got to the area west of the Euphrates, I gave the governors there the king's letters. {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} ¹⁰But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah an Ammonite official heard I was in Jerusalem, they were very angry that I had come to help Israel.

No matter what we do for God, there will be opposition, just as Sanballat and Tobiah "were angry" and spoke against Nehemiah's task. Lord, help me look beyond opposition to Your plan for my life and Your task that I've been given. Help me to be strong when opposition comes, and help me not be dissuaded from doing Your will. Amen

¹¹Three days after I arrived in Jerusalem, ¹²I got up at night with a few men, {372 Prayer-Walking, Gen. 13:17} not telling anyone what God wanted me to do for Jerusalem. I rode a donkey, and the men with me walked. 13I went through the Valley Gate on the west, then South toward the Jackal's Well and the Garbage Gate. As I rode, I saw the broken down walls and burned gates. 14On the east side I headed north to the Fountain Gate and King's Pool, but my donkey couldn't get through all the debris. 15So I went to the Kidron Valley on the east and viewed the wall from there. Then I entered the city again at the Valley Gate.

¹⁶The city officials didn't know I had been out there. I hadn't told any of the priests, leaders, officials, or those who would be helping me in this project. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} ¹⁷When I got back, I said to those leaders, "You know that Jerusalem is in ruins. Even the gates have been burned. So let's rebuild the city {273 Large-Praying, Acts

4:23-31} so we can be proud of it again."

¹⁸Then I told them how God had been good to me and what the king had said. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} They all said, "What are we waiting for? Let's start building now." So they got started. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

No one can do the work of God alone, it takes a team. Nehemiah gathered the men of Jerusalem and told them, "Let's rebuild the walls of Jerusalem, and rid ourselves of this disgrace" (Neh. 2:17). Lord, I may try to do everything myself, just because I love You and want Your work done. But teach me to work with others—in Your church—to get Your work done. Amen.

¹⁹When Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem an Arab heard what we planned to do, they made fun of us. They said, "What do you think you are doing? Are you planning to rebel against the king?" {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} ²⁰I answered, "We are servants of the God of heaven, who will help us rebuild our city. But you fellows have no right to any of this property." {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

Nehemiah 3 The City Wall Is Repaired

¹Many people helped in this rebuilding project. The high priest Eliashib and other priests rebuilt the Sheep Gate. After settling its doors in place, they dedicated it to the LORD and the wall to the Tower of the Hundred and the Hananel Tower. ²People from Jericho rebuilt the next section of the wall, {353 Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer, 1 Cor. 15:46} and Zaccur, son of Imri, a section beyond that.

The phrase occurs throughout the chapter, "Next to them" (Neh. 3:2, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, etc.). This is a wonderful picture of Christian unity, that is, people working together to accomplish God's work. Lord, I am encouraged that everyone was committed to help and that they worked in the section of Jerusalem where they lived. Lord, I want to serve my fellow man, especially those who live where I live. Amen.

³The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate, laying the beams, hanging the doors, and putting bolts and bars in place. ⁴Meremoth, son of Uriah and grandson of Hakkoz, repaired the next section. Meshullam, son of Berekiah and grandson of Meshezabel, repaired the next section, and Zadok son of Baana was next to him. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ⁵The men from Tekoa repaired the section after that, but their leaders did not help.

⁶Joiada, son of Paseah, and Meshullam, son of Besodeiah, repaired the Old Gate, laying the beams, hanging the doors, and putting bolts and bars in place. ⁷Melatiah from Gibeon, Jadon from Meronoth, and people from Gibeon and Mizpah, which were under the governor of the area west of the Euphrates. ⁸The next section was rebuilt by Uzziel, son of Harhaiah, the goldsmith. Hananiah the perfume maker repaired the section after that up to the Blood Wall on the west side. ⁹Next to him was Rephaiah, son of Hur, who was mayor of half of Jerusalem.

¹⁰Jedaiah, son of Harumaph, rebuilt the section of the wall that was close to his house, and Hattush, son of Hashabneiah, was next to him. ¹¹Malkijah, son of Harim, and Hasshub, son of Pahath-Moab, rebuilt the next section and also built the Oven Towers. ¹²Shallum, son of Hallohesh, who was mayor of the other half of Jerusalem, repaired the next section, and his daughters worked with him.

The wall was built with fathers, sons, and grandsons. Lord, it's good to see the sons and grandsons repair the wall because the sin of their fathers and grandfathers destroyed the wall. May I be aware that my actions influence my children and may I live godly and serve You wholeheartedly. Women also worked on the walls. May I join with all Your children to do Your work. Amen.

¹³Hanun and people from Zanoah rebuilt the Valley Gate, hanging its doors and putting bolts and bars in place. Also they repaired 500 yards of the wall, all the way to the Garbage Gate. ¹⁴The Garbage Gate was repaired by Malkijah, son of Recab, who was ruler of the Beth-Hakkerem district. He hung its doors, and added bolts and bars.

¹⁵Shallum, son of Col-Hozeh, who was mayor of the district of Mizpah, rebuilt the Fountain Gate. He put a roof over it and hung its doors and put bolts and bars in place. He also rebuilt the wall at Siloam Pool, a section that was near the king's garden and that extended to the stairs that lead down from the City of David. ¹⁶Next to Shallum was Nehemiah, son of Azbuk, mayor of half of the Beth-Zur district. He rebuilt the section of the wall to a place opposite the tombs of David and as far as the water reservoir and the army barracks.

This chapter contains a long list of those who worked to repair the wall. Lord, I'm glad for this long list of names. It shows that each person was important; it also reveals where they worked and how much they did. Lord, I'm glad You keep a record in heaven of all I do; my prayer is to please You by my efforts. Amen. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2}

¹⁷Next were Levites who worked under Rehum, son of Bani. Beside him were Hashabiah, mayor of half of the Keilah district, and ¹⁸Binnui, son of Henadad, who was mayor of the other half of the Keilah district. ¹⁹Next to him was Ezer, son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, who repaired the section across from the armory where the wall turns. ²⁰Baruch, son of Zabbai, eagerly rebuilt the section of the wall loading from the turn to the house of Eliashib, the high priest. ²¹And Meremoth, son of Uriah, and grandson of Hakkoz, built the wall to the far end of the priest's house.

²²Next to Meremoth were those priests from around Jerusalem who worked on the wall: ²³Benjamin and Hasshub rebuilt the wall in front of their houses, and Azariah, son of Maaseiah and grandson of Ananiah, repaired the wall in front of his house.

This chapter reveals that many people repaired the wall next to their house. I remember being in a Sunday school class when I was very young, my teacher read this chapter to us and told how each man would do a better job because he would have to sit on his porch each evening to see the job he did. Lord, when someone repaired the wall by his house, he made sure it was strong and beautiful. Then he would be safe and would enjoy looking at it in the future. I'll make sure I work diligently on the things near my house. Amen. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

²⁴Next to him was Binnui, son of Henadad. who rebuilt the wall from Azariah's house to the corner. ²⁵Palal, son of Uzai, repaired the next section starting at the corner of the wall and going to the tower of the upper level of the palace near the courtyard. Pedaiah, son of Parosh, 26 and the temple servants who lived on the Ophel Hill repaired the wall up to the Water Gate on the east and the tower guarding the temple. ²⁷The people from Tekoa had repaired a section of the wall and now they did another section. This section began across from the tower that guarded the temple and went all the way to the wall near the Ophel Hill. ²⁸Other priests rebuilt the section of the wall north of the House Gate. Each priest worked on the wall in front of his house. ²⁹Zadok.

son of Immer, rebuilt the wall next to his house, and beyond him was Shemaiah, son of Shecaniah, guard of the East Gate. ³⁰Hananiah and Hanun, who had rebuilt some other sections, now repaired a section next to Shelemiah. Meshullam, son of Berakiah, also built another section, this time in front of his house. 31Malkijah, a goldsmith, rebuilt the next section, as far as the house of the temple servants and merchants, opposite the Inspection Gate, and on to the room at the corner. ³²Other goldsmiths and merchants rebuilt the last section of the wall from the corner to the Sheep Gate. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

This chapter indicated women worked on the wall (Neh. 3:12). Lord, I'm glad women were involved, it showed fairness; also, I'm glad politicians got dirty, it showed "big wigs" cared. May I never be too proud to get my hands dirty in Your work. Amen.

Nehemiah 4 The Wall Is Guarded

¹When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he got very angry and very upset. He made fun of us and laughed at us in front of his friends and his soldiers and ²he said, "What do these feeble-minded Jews think they are doing? Do they think they can rebuild the wall and start offering sacrifices in one day? How do they think they can use burned stones from these piles of debris?" {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ³Tobiah the Ammonite said, "Yes, just look at the wall they are building. Even a fox could knock over this wall." {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} ⁴Then I prayed, "Hear us, O God, {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} for we are being hated. Please make their mocking us turn against them. Let them be taken away as captives. 5Don't forgive their sins for they have insulted You and our workers." {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ⁶The people worked very hard, and they built up the wall to half its original height. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 7But Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the men from Ashdod heard about these repairs and that holes in the wall were being filled in. So they were very mad, 8 and they decided to join forces and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ⁹But we prayed and guarded the city day and night. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa.

¹⁰Meanwhile the Jews were discouraged and they said, "We workers are tired out, and how can we ever get rid of all this debris? {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹¹And our enemies are saying, 'Before they know what has happened, we will sneak up on them and kill them and that will put an end to their work.'" {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ¹²And so the Jews who lived nearby then told them wherever they turned the enemy always would be near.

43:2, 3}

There are always complaints from some of God's people. "The people of Judah began to complain that the workers were becoming tired." There was so much rubble" (Neh. 4:10, NLT). Lord, I will not complain. I will keep my eyes on You, I will not listen to those who criticize. Forgive me when I have complained in the past. May I not focus on problems, but I will focus on You and what You're doing. Amen. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

¹³So I placed guards from each family behind the lowest places of the wall, with their swords, spears, and bows. ¹⁴I looked things over and I said to the leaders, officials, and all the people, "Don't be afraid of them. Remember that the LORD is great and awesome. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} So think of Him as you fight for your loved ones."

¹⁵Our enemies heard that we knew of their plans against us, but God kept them from it. And so we all returned to our work on the wall. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹⁶From then on, I had half of the men work on the wall while the other half were on guard with spears, shields, bows, and were wearing metal armor. These guards stood ¹⁷behind the workers, ¹⁸and each worker wore his sword. And the man who was to blow the trumpet stayed with me. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

Building and battling. About half of the things we do for God is building up His work. The other half is defending God's work from the enemy. Lord, I thank You for opportunities to defeat the enemy and defend Your work. It's a privilege to be Your soldier. Also, thank You for peace when I can work for You without opposition and satanic attack. In war or peace I'll serve You. Amen.

¹⁹I said to the leaders, officials, and people, "Our work is spread out, and we are separated from each other. ²⁰So whenever you hear the trumpet, come quickly to where I am. Our God will fight for us." {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} ²¹Every day from dawn till the stars came out half the men worked on the walls, and the other half stood guard with their spears. {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} ²²I asked some men to stay inside the city and help guard the city at night. 23 None of us-myself, my relatives, the workers, the guards—changed our clothes. We always kept our weapons with us even when we went for water. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10}

Nehemiah 5 Helps the Poor and Oppressed

¹Some of the men and their wives ²said, "We have lots of children, and to stay alive we need money to buy food." ³Others complained, "During the famine we had to mortgage our fields, vineyards, and houses to have money to buy food." ⁴Others said, "To pay taxes on our fields and vineyards we've had to borrow money. ⁵We even had to sell our children as slaves to get some money, and some of our daughters have been raped. We are helpless, and our fields and vineyards have been mortgaged." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} 6When I heard all this, I was very angry. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

It's all right to get angry at sin, or at other believers who sin; Nehemiah got angry (Neh. 5:6). However, the New Testament directs us, "Be angry and sin not" (Eph. 4:26). How do we sin without anger? We should intercede to God if we lose control of ourselves, or when we get angry for the wrong reason, or when we harm someone intentionally or unintentionally with our anger. Lord, I will control myself at all times. Sit on the throne of my heart and direct all I do. I will not be angry at You, nor at other people. I will be angry at sin. Use the energy of my anger to advance Your work and testimony. Amen. {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1}

⁷I thought about this, and then I said to the leaders and officials, "How can you charge interest of your own people?" I called a public meeting, ⁸and I said, "We have been trying to buy back our relatives who have had to sell themselves into slavery. But now you are selling them back into slavery. How often do we have to buy them back?" The officials said nothing because they knew what I said was true. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

⁹I added, "What you have done is not right. We must respect the LORD by the way we live so the Gentiles won't mock us. ¹⁰I and my relatives and leaders have been lending money and grain to some of our people. But we must stop charging interest on these loans. ¹¹So give back to their owners the fields, vineyards, olive groves, and houses and also return the interest you charged." {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

Nehemiah realized he was guilty of the sin that others were doing. "I myself, as well as my brothers and my workers, have been lending" (Neh. 5:10, NLT). Lord, give me eyes to see all that I do. May I not be hypocritical of accusing others of the same sin I commit. Forgive me of all my sins, both intentional and ignorantly committed. May I be a great testimony for You. Amen. {81 Confession-Prayer, I John 1:9}

¹²The people said, "Okay. We will return these things as you said." {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ¹³Then I shook out the fold of my robe, and I said, "If you don't keep your promise may God empty you of your belongings like this." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} All the people said, "Amen," and praised the LORD and they said, "We will do what we have promised." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁴In King Artexerxes' 20th year (444 B.C.) I was appointed governor of Judah. And during the 12 years I had that portion I and my brothers never ate the food that was provided for us. ¹⁵This contrasts with the former governor who demanded that my people give them food and wine every day and pay a daily tax of a pound of silver. Even then assistants made things difficult for my people. But because I respected God I did not act like that. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ¹⁶I and my men stayed at work on the wall and we did not buy any property.

¹⁷I regularly fed 150 Jewish officials besides visitors who came from other countries. ¹⁸Every day I provided for them an ox, 6 fat sheep, and lots of chickens. And every 10 days we had a big supply of wine. Yet I never asked that the king give me any food allowance to cover these needs. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹⁹I pray that God will remember all I have done for these people.

Right in the middle of his actions and writing, Nehemiah broke out into a prayer. "Remember, O my God, all that I have done for those people, and bless me for it" (Neh. 5:19, NLT). Lord, may I pray during my waking hours. May I pray when talking to others, and when thinking, and when reading, as well as when I write. Lord, bless what I write and read for Your glory. Amen. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

Nehemiah 6 Nehemiah Is Not Afraid of His Enemies

¹Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and other enemies learned that I had finished rebuilding the wall. The only thing yet to be done was to hang the doors in the gates. ²Sanballat and Geshem sent me a message, asking me to meet them in one of the villages in the Ono Valley. {515 Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, Heb. 2:18} I knew they were planning to kill me, ³so I sent back this message: "I'm doing an important work so I can't stop just to meet with you two." ⁴Four times they sent me the same message, and each time I refused to go. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} ⁵Then Sanballat's servant came with an open letter 6that said: "Geshem tells me that everywhere he goes he hears that the Jews are planning to rebel and make you their king. ⁷And he hears that you have prophets in Jerusalem who are saying you are their king. You can be sure this news will get back to Artaxerxes. So let's talk this over." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

Satan tried in different ways to stop the walls from being built. The enemy criticized and complained, then the enemy threatened to attack. Then the enemy tried to get Nehemiah sidetracked in discussion and negotiations. Finally, they threatened to (lie) tell the King of Persia that Nehemiah was planning a rebellion to set up his own kingdom. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} Lord, help me see how many ways satan will attack me and try to destroy both me and Your work. Make me wise to satan's tactics. Give me wisdom, what to do and think when I am attacked. I depend on You for victory. Amen. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} were trying to scare us and keep us from working. {515 Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, Heb. 2:18} So I prayed for the Lord to give me strength. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹¹One day I went to see Shemaiah, son of Delaiah and grandson of Mehetabel. He said, "Let's go hide in the temple and lock the doors because tonight some men are coming to kill you." {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ¹¹But I said, "Why should I, the governor of our people, run from danger? Why should I go into the temple to save my life? I won't do it."

⁸I sent this message back to Sanballat: "You are lying. None of this is true." ⁹They

¹²I sensed that God had not sent Shemaiah, {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} but that Tobiah and Sanballat had paid him ¹³to try to scare me and make me sin by going into the temple, and that would have ruined my reputation. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ¹⁴I prayed, "O God, please punish Tobiah, Sanballat, and Noadiah the prophetess and other so-called prophets who are trying to frighten me." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

In defeating the enemy's attacks, Nehemiah did not pay attention to what the enemy said. He focused on doing God's work and equipped the workers to build and battle at the same time. Then he prayed as he worked, but Nehemiah gave all his time and energy to put God's work first. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} Nehemiah focused on finishing, and he did it. Lord, I want to put Your work first. But most of all give me determination to be a finisher. Amen.

¹⁵The wall was finally finished in September, just 52 days after we began. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} ¹⁶When our enemies in nearby nations heard about our work, they were humiliated because they realized that God had helped us finish this project. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

The walls had not been rebuilt for 142 years, but it was finished in 52 days. It wasn't the size of the job that kept Israel from rebuilding the walls. The barrier was in their minds. But when God put it within the heart of Nehemiah to finish the wall, it was done in a very short period of time. {356 Possibility-Praying, Mark 9:23} Lord, I procrastinate and put off doing many good things. Forgive me for my procrastination. Forgive me of my sin. Give me instant obedience to do Your will. Transform me from being lazy about some things, and make me into Your obedient servant. Amen.

¹⁷In those 52 days the Jewish leaders had been writing to Tobiah, and he kept replying. ¹⁸That's because Shecaniah was his son-in-law, and Tobiah's son, Jehohanan, had married the daughter of Meshullam, son of Berekiah. ¹⁹They all told me Tobiah had done wonderful things, and they told him everything I had said. So Tobiah kept sending me letters, trying to scare me. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

Nehemiah 7 Nehemiah's Instructions

¹After the wall was rebuilt and the gates hung, I assigned work to the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites. ²I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem, and I made Hananiah commander of the fortress. Hananiah was an honest man who revered God more than most people do. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

Nehemiah placed his brother over Jerusalem, the one who traveled to Persia to tell him about the sad condition of the city of Jerusalem. Since Hanani was burdened for Jerusalem, it was only right he rule Jerusalem. There's a lesson here: don't put a person in a job if that person doesn't have a burden for the job. Lord, give me a job that matches my burden for Your work. Amen. {56 Burden-Prayer, Rom. 10:1}

³I told them, "Keep the gates closed till well after sunrise. And before the gate-keepers go off duty at sunset, have them close and lock the gates. Choose Jerusalem residents to serve as guards, some near their homes and others at other positions." {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

Just because the walls are up doesn't mean the city was safe. We have to carefully guard ourselves day and night, and "keep the gates closed at night." Lord, just because I have eternal life doesn't mean I can rest in my salvation. Satan is ever vigilant to destroy me and Your work. I will be just as vigilant.

I will guard myself and pray for spiritual protection. Keep me safe by the Holy Spirit. Amen. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

⁴The city was large, and not many people were living there yet, and only a few hundred were in the city. ⁵God told me to register the city leaders and regular citizens. I had found the record of those who had first returned to Judah, and this is what was written in it. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ⁶These are the people who returned to Judah after being held captives by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. ⁷Their leaders were Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah. This is how many returned from each family group:

⁸The family of Parosh: 2, 172

9The family of Shephatiah: 372

¹⁰The family of Arah: 652

¹¹The family of Pahath-Moab, of the family of Jeshua and Joab: 2,818

¹²The family of Elam: 1,254

¹³The family of Zattu: 845

¹⁴The family of Zaccai: 760

¹⁵The family of Binnui: 648

¹⁶The family of Bebai: 628

¹⁷The family of Azgad: 2,322

¹⁸The family of Adonikam: 667

¹⁹The family of Bigvai: 2,067

²⁰The family of Adin: 655

²¹The family of Ater of Hezekiah: 98

²²The family of Hashum: 328

²³The family of Bezai: 324

²⁴The family of Hariph: 112

²⁵The family of Gibeon: 95

²⁶The people of Bethlehem and Netophah: 188

²⁷The people of Anathoth: 128

²⁸The people of Beth-Azmaveth: 42

²⁹The people of Kiriath-Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth: 743

³⁰The people of Ramah and Geba: 621

³¹The people of Micmash: 122

³²The people of Bethel and Ai: 123

³³The people of Nebo: 52

³⁴The citizens of Elam: 1,254

³⁵The citizens of Harim: 320

³⁶The citizens Jericho: 345

³⁷The citizens of Lod, Hadid, and Ono: 721

³⁸The citizens of Senaah: 3,930.

³⁹These are the priests who returned:

The family of Jedaiah (through the line of Jeshua): 973

⁴⁰The family of Immer: 1,052

⁴¹The family of Pashhur: 1,247

⁴²The family of Harim: 1,017.

⁴³These are the Levites who returned: The families of Jeshua, of Kadmiel (descendants of Hodaviah): 74

⁴⁴The singers of the family of Asaph: 148

⁴⁵The gatekeepers of the families of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai: 138.

⁴⁶The descendants of the following temple servants returned: Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth, 47Keros, Sia, Padon,

⁴⁸Lebana, Hagaba, Shalmai,

⁴⁹Hanan, Giddel, Gahar,

⁵⁰Reaiah, Rezin, Nekoda,

51Gazzam, Uzza, Paseah,

52Besai, Meunim, Nephussim,

⁵³Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,

⁵⁴Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha,

55Barkos, Sisera, Temah,

⁵⁶Neziah, and Hatipha.

⁵⁷The descendants of these servants of King Solomon returned: Sotai, Sophereth, Perida, ⁵⁸Jaala, Darkon, Giddel,

⁵⁹Shephatiah, Hattil, Pokereth-Hazzebaim and Amon.

⁶⁰In all, the temple servants and the descendants of Solomon's servants numbered 392.

⁶¹Another group returned to Jerusalem at this time from the towns of Tel-Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer. However, they could not prove that they or their families were descendants of Israel.

⁶²This group included the families of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda—a total of 642 people.

⁶³Three families of priests—Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai—also returned to Jerusalem. (This Barzillai had married one of the daughters of Barzillai from Gilead and had taken her family name.) ⁶⁴But the records of these three families could not be found, so they were not allowed to serve as priests.

⁶⁵The governor would not let them eat the priests' share of food from the sacrifices until a priest could consult the LORD.

⁶⁶So a total of 42,360 people returned to Judah, ⁶⁷in addition to 7,337 servants and 245 singers.

⁶⁸They took with them 736 horses, 245 mules, ⁶⁹435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys. ⁷⁰Some of the family leaders gave free-will offerings for the work. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} The governor gave to the treasury 19 pounds of gold, 50 gold basins, and 530 robes for the priests. ⁷¹The other leaders gave to the treasury a total of 2,750 pounds of silver for the work. ⁷²The rest of the people gave 375 pounds of gold, about 2,500 pounds of silver, and 67 robes for the priests.

⁷³So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, along with all of the people settled in their towns in October. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

Nehemiah 8 The Law of God Is Read to the People

¹Then everyone met at the area just inside the Water Gate. They asked Ezra, the priest and teacher of the law, to read to them the law the Lord had given His people. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} ²So on October 1 Ezra stood before all the people, ³and read the law aloud all morning. And everyone, men, women, and children old enough to understand, listened carefully. {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ⁴Ezra stood on a high platform. On his right were Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah. On his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malkijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

Standing on the platform so everyone could see him, Ezra opened the scroll, and everyone stood up. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} 6He praised the LORD, the great God, and everyone lifted their hands toward heaven and shouted, "Amen."

Then they bowed down to the ground and worshiped the Lord. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16}

When the people heard the Word being read, they lifted their hands and shouted "Amen, Amen." {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} Lord, when Your Word is read, I will lift my hand in agreement and shout inwardly, "Amen." I look forward to learning from Your Word and doing what You want me to do. Amen. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16}

⁷As Ezra read from the scroll, the Levites Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah went among the people ⁸and explained the meaning of the passages being read. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

This was preaching at its best. Ezra read the Scriptures, the Levites interpreted it to the people so they could understand. {40 Bible-Comforting Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:18} Probably the Scriptures were read in the original Hebrew language but the people spoke Aramaic or Persian, or some corrupt form of Hebrew. So, the Levites explained what the words meant. We should study the meaning of every word of the Bible because God has inspired every word of Scripture (2 Tim 3:16). Lord, I will study carefully Your Word to know what You mean for me to know, and to do what You mean for me to do. Amen.

"The people started crying as they heard God's law being read. But I, Ezra, and the Levites explaining the passages, said, "This is a special day for the LORD, so don't cry. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ¹⁰This is a time to enjoy some good food and drink and to share with those who don't have anything. Don't be sad, because the joy of the LORD will give you strength." {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11}

¹¹The Levites encouraged the people not to be sad because this was a special day. {436 Silent-Prayer, Ps. 39:1-3} ¹²So the people went home and celebrated the day by eating and drinking and sharing food with those who had none. They were glad because of the words of the law that were read to them.

The Lord planned festivals in the Jewish calendar for the Jews to enjoy themselves. Lord, I will eat to Your glory with enjoyment. Only once in the Jewish year did the Lord command the people to fast and show remorse for their sin (Lev. 16:29). {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} Lord, I will enjoy eating to Your glory, and at other times I will fast to show remorse for my sin. Lord, I will do all things to Your glory. Amen.

¹³The next day the family leaders, priests, and Levites met with Ezra to go over the law in more detail. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} ¹⁴They learned that the law said they are to live in shelters during the festival to be held that month. ¹⁵They also learned that the people should spread the word in their towns and in Jerusalem that everyone should go into the woods and get branches from olive trees, myrtle trees, and palm trees to make shelters. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹6So the people got branches from these trees and made shelters on their rooftops, in their yards, and in the courtyard of the temple, and in the open area by the Water Gate and the Ephraim Gate. ¹⁷Everyone who returned from Babylon built a shelter and lived in it for a week, and everyone was filled with joy. The Israelites had not celebrated like this since the days of Joshua, son of Nun, about a thousand years earlier. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 18 Each day of the week-long festival Ezra read from the law of Moses. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} Then on the eighth day the people gathered for worship. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3}

Nehemiah 9 The People Confessed Their Sins

¹On the 24th day of the same month the Israelites assembled and refused to eat, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and in grief they were wearing coarse clothing and having dust on their heads. ²They separated themselves from all foreigners and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ³For three hours they stood and listened to the law of the Lord as it was read to them, {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1, 8} and for another three hours they confessed their sins and worshiped

the LORD their God. ⁴Eight Levites were standing on the platform and prayed aloud to the LORD their God. They were Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Kenani. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6}

In the month of October, the Jews fasted on the Day of Atonement. This is when Israelites mourned for their sins, as we see in this chapter. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Also in October, the Jews lived in "huts" during the Feast of the Shelters to remind them that their fathers lived in tents when they wandered in the wilderness for 40 years. Lord, I know You are a God who punishes sin. I will repent of all sin and I will obey Your commands. Thank You for forgiveness of sins in Christ. I rejoice in Your mercy. Amen. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11}

⁵Then some of these same Levites and a few there said, "Stand up and praise the LORD your God, who is from everlasting to everlasting." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} These men were Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah.

The Levites led the people by praying a psalm. {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} It is important to pray the words of Scripture because then we are praying exactly as God wants us to pray. Lord, I will pray the psalms in order to pray the way You want me to pray with the words You want me to pray. Amen. (See Praying the Psalms, by Elmer Towns, published by Destiny Image, Shippensburg, PA).

Then the Levites prayed, "Praise His wonderful name. 6You alone are the LORD, who made the heavens, the stars, and the earth and the oceans, and everything in them. You give life to everything, and the many angels worship You. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} 7You are the LORD God, who chose Abram and brought him from Ur of the Chaldeans and changed his name to Abraham. ⁸Because he was faithful to You, You made an agreement with him to give his descendants the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and Girgashites. Now You have done what You promised; You always do what You say You will do. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} 9"You saw how our ancestors in Egypt suffered, and You heard their pleas for help near the Red Sea. ¹⁰You knew how Pharaoh and his officials and all his people mistreated Your people with such pride. And so You performed great miracles against them, {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} and You have a wonderful reputation that still exists today. ¹¹You divided the Red Sea so Your people could walk through on dry land. And You destroyed their enemies in the sea and they sank to the bottom like heavy stones. ¹²You led our ancestors by a thick cloud during the day and a column of fire at night.

¹³"At Mount Sinai You came down from heaven and spoke to our ancestors. You gave them laws and instructions that are fair and commands that are good. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁴You told them about the holy Sabbath and gave them commands and instructions through Moses. ¹⁵When they were hungry, You gave them bread from heaven, and when they were thirsty, {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} You gave them water from a rock. Then you told them to go and conquer the land You promised them.

¹⁶"But our ancestors became proud and stubborn and didn't obey You. 17They did not listen to You, and they forgot all about the great miracles You did for them. In their stubborn rebellion they even appointed a leader to take them back to Egypt, but that would have put them in slavery again. But You are forgiving, merciful, and loving, You don't easily get angry, and You are full of unfailing love. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} You never turned away from them ¹⁸ even when they made an idol shaped like a calf and said, "This god brought us out of Egypt." They sinned against You in terrible ways. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

¹⁹"Yet in Your tender love You did not leave them to die in the desert. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3} You continued to guide them by a thick cloud in the daytime and by a column of fire at night. ²⁰Your good Spirit instructed them, {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} and You gave them bread from heaven to eat and water to drink. ²¹For 40 years they never lacked anything in the desert. Their clothes didn't wear out, and their feet were never swollen. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

²²"You helped them conquer many nations, even some remote areas. They defeated Sihon, king of Heshbon, and Og, king of Bashan. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} ²³You caused our people to grow into great numbers like stars in the sky, and You brought them into the land You told our ancestors to conquer. ²⁴In possessing the land they defeated the Canaanite people and their rulers and treated them however they wanted. ²⁵They captured fortified cities and rich farmland; they took well-furnished houses, and wells, vineyards, olive trees, and many fruit trees, so they had plenty of food and enjoyed God's many blessings. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²⁶"In spite of all this they disobeyed You, rebelled against You, and ignored Your laws. They even killed Your prophets, simply because they urged them to turn back to You, and they sinned against You in terrible ways. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²⁷So You let their enemies defeat them and trouble them. But in those troubles, they prayed to You for help, and in heaven You heard them. Because of Your tender love You sent leaders to rescue them from their enemies. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

²⁸"But when things were going well, they sinned against You again. So again You let some enemies rule over them. Then again they asked You for help. You heard their prayers, and because of Your tender love You rescued them. This happened over and over. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

^{29α}When You urged them to get back to obeying Your law, they were proud and disobeyed. But if they had obeyed Your commands, they would have had wonderful lives. However, they were stubborn, turned against You, and refused to listen. ³⁰You were patient for years, and Your Spirit warned them through messages given by prophets. Yet they still refused to listen, so again You let nearby nations defeat them. ³¹But because of Your mercy You did not destroy them or forget them. You are merciful and tender loving. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

³²"Therefore God, the great and awesome God, who keeps His promises of loyal love, don't overlook the sufferings that our kings, leaders, priests, prophets, and all our people have experienced from the time of the Assyrians several hundred years ago till now. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ³³You have always been fair and reliable even when we sinned. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3} ³⁴True, our leaders, priests, and ancestors didn't obey Your law or listen to Your commands and warnings. 35 You gave them a kingdom, and they enjoyed the many blessings of much fertile land. But still they did not serve You and did not turn from their sinful ways. {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6}

³⁶So now here we are as slaves in this fruitful, productive, land You gave our ancestors. ³⁷Because of our sins the harvest of this land goes to the kings You have set over us. They have power over us and our cattle to do as they wish. We are in great misery. ³⁸Therefore we are making a binding agreement in writing to serve the LORD. Our leaders, Levites, and priests are signing this document."

It was not enough to pray, confess sins, and to vow to repent. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} The people wrote out a vow and signed it. "On this sealed document are the names of our princes, and Levites, and priests" (Neh. 9:38). Lord, I will vow to You and write my promises in my journal or in my prayer notes. My sincere pledge is the commitment of my heart to serve You. Amen.

Nehemiah 10 Their Promise to Obey God's Law

¹Nehemiah the governor, son of Hacaliah, signed this agreement: {546 Written-Prayer, 1 Chron. 4:10}

Nehemiah the governor was the first to sign the pledge. Leaders always lead, so if you're the leader of a group, you have to be an example to followers. Lord, I will go first so followers will follow. Give me wisdom to know when to lead, a strong will to make good decisions, and courage to follow through. Amen.

The priests who signed the agreement were Zedekiah, ²Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, ³Pashhur, Amariah, Malkijah, ⁴Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, ⁵Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, ⁶Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, ⁷Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, ⁸Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah.

⁹The Levites who signed were Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui from the family of Henadad, Kadmiel, ¹⁰and their fellow Levites: Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, ¹¹Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah, ¹²Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, ¹³Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.

¹⁴The leaders who signed were Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, ¹⁵Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, ¹⁶Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, ¹⁷Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, ¹⁸Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai, ¹⁹Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, ²⁰Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, ²¹Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, ²²Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, ²³Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, ²⁴Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, ²⁵Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, ²⁶Ahiah, Hanan, Anan, ²⁷Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

²⁸The rest of the people—the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants, and all who had separated themselves from their pagan neighbors to obey the law {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}—with their wives and their children who were old enough to understand, ²⁹all these accepted this agreement. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} And they placed themselves under God's curse if they did not obey all God's laws and regulations given to Moses. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

³⁰The people made these promises: "We promise not to let our sons and daughters marry non-Israelites. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ³¹If non-Israelites bring any items or food to sell on the Sabbath or any other sacred day, we won't buy them. {430

Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} Every seventh year we will not plow our fields, and we will cancel debts owed to us. ³²Every year we will donate a small amount of silver for the temple. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³³This will help cover the costs of the bread for the Table of Bread without Yeast; the grain offerings and burnt offerings; offerings for the Sabbaths, new moon festivals, and annual festivals; offerings for substitutionary payment for sin; and all other expenses of the temple worship. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

34"We have thrown lots to determine when the families of priests, Levites, and ordinary people are to bring wood to burn on the altar of burnt offering, as required in the law. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} 35 Also each year we will bring to the temple the first part of our harvest of crops and fruits. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} 36 Also we will bring to the priests at the temple the firstborn of our cattle, sheep, and goats, as written in the law. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

dough from the first harvest of grain, and the first fruit from our trees, and the first of the new wine and olive oil. Also we will give a tenth of our crops to the Levites, who collect it in our towns. ³⁸When we give this tenth to the Levites, a priest from the family of Aaron must be present. Then the Levites are to put a tenth of this tenth in the storerooms in the temple. ³⁹These gifts are to be placed in the temple storerooms where sacred objects are stored and are to be used by the priests, gatekeepers, and singers. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} We will not neglect the temple of our God." {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

In this chapter the people promised to bring their tithes. They gave their offering to God while the gifts were actually to take care of the temple and pay the priests. Actually the gifts were to God Himself. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} Lord, I will give my tithes to You because I am responsible to You and I am accountable to You. So receive them, use them, and bless what I give. My gifts represent my heart, so I will give my best. Amen.

Nehemiah 11 The People of Jerusalem

¹Only the Israelite leaders and their families were living in Jerusalem. So lots were thrown to choose a tenth of the people in the other towns of Judah to move to the holy city. ²The people were grateful for those who willingly moved to Jerusalem. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

After Nehemiah finished rebuilding the walls, he wanted people to move and live in Jerusalem. It was a huge, empty city with very few living there. It needed businesses to sustain the population, and an operative temple where people could worship. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} Lord, You still love Jerusalem, so I pray for the peace of Jerusalem (Ps. 122:6). It is the city where Your name dwelt and the place where Your presence came in the Shekinah cloud. It is the place where Jesus visited and was crucified. It is the place where Jesus will return. Lord, I love Jerusalem and pray for it. Amen.

³Most of the people, and the priests, Levites, temple servants, and descendants of Solomon's servants lived in their own towns.

⁴Leaders from the tribe of Judah were Athaiah, son of Uzziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalalel, of the family of Perez; ⁵and Maaseiah son of Baruch, son of Col-Hozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, a descendant of Shelah. ⁶There were 468 descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem—all outstanding men.

⁷Leaders from the tribe of Benjamin were Sallu, son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiah. ⁸After him were Gabbai and Sallai and a total of 928 relatives. ⁹Their chief officer was Joel, son of Zicri, and second in command was Judah, son of Hassenuah.

¹⁰Leaders from the priests were Jedaiah, son of Joiarib; Jakin; ¹¹and Seraiah, son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the supervisor of the temple of God. ¹²Also 822 of their associates worked at the temple. Also there was Adaiah, son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malkijah; ¹³along with 242 of his coworkers, who were heads of their families. The other priest was Amashsai, son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer; ¹⁴ and 128 of his outstanding coworkers. Their chief officer was Zabdiel, son of Haggedolim.

¹⁵Leaders from the Levites were: Shemaiah, son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, son of Bunni; ¹⁶Shabbethai and Jozabad, who were in charge of the work outside the temple; {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ¹⁷Mattaniah, son of Mica, son of Zabdi, a descendant of Asaph, who began the thanksgiving services with prayer; Bakbukiah, who was Mattaniah's assistant, and Abda, son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun.

Asaph was the original worship leader when David became king. "The custom of having choir directors to lead the choirs in hymns of praise and thanks to God began long ago in the days of David and Asaph" (12:46, LB). Lord, worship and thanksgiving will have a place at the center of my life. I worship You today for Your greatness, I praise You for Your goodness. Amen.

¹⁸In all, there were 284 Levites in Jerusalem. ¹⁹Also the gatekeepers were Akkub, Talmon, and 172 of their associates. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

²⁰The other priests, Levites, and the rest of the Israelites lived in towns in Judah where their ancestors had property. ²¹However, the temple servants, whose leaders were Ziha and Gishpa, lived on the Ophel Hill.

²²The chief officer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi, son of Bani, son of Hashabiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Mica. He was of the Asaph clan who were singers at the temple. ²³They were under royal orders, which determined their daily activities.

²⁴Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, a descendant of Zerah son of Judah, was the royal adviser in all matters of public administration.

²⁵Some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath-Arba and its villages, Dibon and its villages, and Jekabzeel and its villages. ²⁶They also lived in Jeshua, Moladah, Beth Pelet, ²⁷Hazar Shual, Beersheba and its villages, ²⁸Ziklag, and Meconah and its villages, ²⁹in En Rimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth, ³⁰Zanoah, and Adullam with their surrounding villages. They were also in Lachish and its nearby fields and Azekah and its villages. So the people of Judah settled in towns from Beersheeba in the south to the Hinnom Valley in Jerusalem.

³¹The people of Benjamin tribe lived in Geba, Micmash, Aija, and Bethel and nearby villages, ³²Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, ³³Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, ³⁴Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, ³⁵Lod, Ono, and in the Craftsmen Valley. ³⁶And some of the Levites in Judah settled in Benjamin. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

Nehemiah 12 The Priests and the Levites

¹This is the list of the priests and Levites who returned with Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel and Jeshua, the high priest: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ²Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, ³Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, ⁴Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah, ⁵Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, ⁶Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah, ⁷Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah.

These were the leaders of the priests and their associates in the days of Jeshua.

⁸The Levites who returned with them were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who with his associates was in charge of the songs of praise. ⁹Their associates, Bakbukiah and Unni, stood opposite them during the service.

¹⁰Jeshua the high priest was the father of Joiakim. Joiakim was the father of Eliashib. Eliashib was the father of Joiada. ¹¹Joiada was the father of Johanan. Jonathan was the father of Jaddua.

¹²When Joiakim, Jeshua's son, was high priest, the clan leaders of the priests were as follows:

Merajah was leader of the Serajah clan. Hananiah was leader of the Jeremiah clan. ¹³Meshullam was leader of the Ezra clan. Jehohanan was leader of the Amariah clan. 14Jonathan was leader of the Malluch clan. Joseph was leader of the Shebaniah clan. 15 Adna was leader of the Harim clan. Helkai was leader of the Meremoth clan. ¹⁶Zechariah was leader of the Iddo clan. Meshullam was leader of the Ginnethon clan. ¹⁷Zicri was leader of the Abijah clan. There was also a leader of the Miniamin clan. Piltai was leader of the Maadiah clan. 18 Shammua was leader of the Bilgah clan. Jehonathan was leader of the Shemaiah clan. 19 Mattenai was leader of the Joiarib clan. Uzzi was leader of the Jedaiah

Eber was leader of the Amok clan. 21 Hashabiah was leader of the Hilkiah clan. And Nethanel was leader of the Jedaiah clan. ²²In the days of the Levites Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua and when Darius was king of Persia, a record was kept of the heads of the clans of the Levites and priests. ²³The heads of the Levite families were recorded up to the time of Johanan, son of Eliashib. ²⁴The family leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Ieshua son of Kadmiel, and who with their coworkers formed two choirs for praise {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} in the temple, as directed by David. ²⁵Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers in charge of the storerooms at the gates. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²⁶They served in the days of Joiakim, son of Jeshua, and grandson of Jozadak, when I was the governor and when Ezra was the priest and teacher of the law. {536 Work-clan.20 Kallai was leader of the Sallu clan.

The names and families were written for several reasons. Future generations were able to use genealogies to prove their "Jewishness." Also, priests could establish their "right" to the office. Finally, all Jews studied the records to find out about their promised Messiah. Lord, You keep records of me in heaven. I will live a righteous life so my record will not be blemished. Amen. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

er's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

²⁷For the dedication of the new walls of Jerusalem {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} we invited Levites throughout Judah to come celebrate by singing songs of thanks and playing cymbals, harps, and lyres. ²⁸Singers came from towns around Jerusalem, villages they had built for themselves, including the villages of the Netophathites, ²⁹and Beth-Gilgal, Geba, and Azmaveth. ³⁰The priests and Levites prepared themselves {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ceremonially and then did the same for the people, the gates, and the wall. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

³¹I led the leaders of Judah to the top of the wall and divided them into two choirs. I had one group go south to the right toward the Garbage Gate. 32This group included Hoshaiah, half of the leaders from Judah, ³³Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, ³⁴Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah, 35 and some priests with trumpets. Also in the group were Zechariah, son of Jonathan, son of Shemaiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Micaiah, son of Zaccur, son of Asaph, 36Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani. They played musical instruments ordered by David the man of God. Ezra led this choir. ³⁷When they got to the Fountain Gate, they climbed the steps to the City of David, past David's palace to the Water Gate near the eastern wall of the city.

³⁸The second group went in the opposite direction, and I followed them with the other half of the leaders of Judah. We went north past the Oven Tower to the Broad Wall, ³⁹The Ephraim Gate, the Old Gate, the Fish Gate, the Hananel Tower, the Hundred Tower, and the Sheep Gate, and then we stopped at the Guard Gate. {539 Worship-Ministry Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁴⁰Then the two groups went to the temple. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} With me were half the leaders 41 and the trumpet-playing priests Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zachariah, and Hananiah. 42 Also the singers included Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer, who were led by Jezrahiah. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} ⁴³The people were very happy, and they offered many sacrifices to the Lord. Women and children also took part in the celebration. The people's shouts of joy could be heard far from Jerusalem. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6}

Since God loves symbols, the people symbolically walked all the way around the city to show the walls were completely finished. In this way, they dedicated every portion of the work done by every person who helped rebuild the walls. Lord, because You prize every person who does any service for You, I too will appreciate every believer who serves You. Give me an appreciation for jobs that are well done, and for jobs that are completely finished. Amen.

⁴⁴At that time I put several men in charge of the storerooms where people's gifts were kept, including the first part of the harvest and a tenth of the crops and livestock. The law of Moses required that these portions be brought to the temple. And all Judah was pleased with the priests and Levites. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

The people willingly and thankfully gave for the support of temple worship. Lord, I will give a tithe of the first fruits of my income to You. I will worship You by first offering my body and life to You. Then I will offer all my material goods to You. Use the one-tenth I give to Your service, and show me how to spend and use the nine-tenths I need to support myself. Amen.

⁴⁵The priests and Levites faithfully served the Lord. Also the singers and gatekeepers performed their duties as required by David and Solomon. ⁴⁶Centuries earlier in the days of David and Asaph, the people began the custom of having choir directors lead choirs in singing songs of praise and thanks. ⁴³⁹ Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2³ ⁴⁷So now in the days of Zerubbabel and myself, Israel brought food each day for the Levites in turn gave a part of what they received to the many priests, who were Aaron's descendants. ⁴⁰² Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45

Nehemiah 13 Nehemiah Enforces the Law

¹When the law of Moses was being read to the people, {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} they heard that God had said Ammonites and Moabites should never be allowed to enter the temple. ²Why? Because they refused to give you food and water and even hired Balaam to curse you, though God turned the curse into a blessing. ³When this rule was read, the Israelites sent away any who were foreigners. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

⁴Before this, Eliashib the priest had been put in charge of the temple storerooms and he was a relative of Tobiah, an Ammonite. ⁵Eliashib had changed a storage room in the temple into a nice guest room for Tobiah. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} That room had previously been used to store grain offerings, incense, temple utensils, and the tenth of the grain, new wine, and olive oil given for the Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and gifts for the priests.

⁶This happened in the 32nd year of Artaxerxes' rule (432 B.C.). I was not in Jerusalem at the time because I had gone back to Persia. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

⁷Later I asked the king if I could return to Jerusalem, and when I did, I learned about Tobiah having a room in the temple. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

⁸I was so upset that I tossed Tobiah's furniture out of the room, {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16}

⁹ordered it to be cleaned, and I put back into the room the equipment, offerings, and incense that belonged there.

¹⁰I also found out that the Levites and singers had gone back to work on their farms because they had not received their share of the harvest. ¹¹I immediately called the temple officials together and angrily I said, "Why is the temple neglected?" Then I told the Levites to return to their jobs in the temple. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter

1:16} ¹²Then everyone in Judah brought a tenth of their grain, new wine, and olive oil to the temple storerooms. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ¹³I put three men in charge of the storerooms: Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the teacher, and Pedaiah a Levite. Their assistant was Hanan, son of Zaccur and grandson of Mattaniah. These men were reliable, and they distributed supplies to Levites. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5}

¹⁴I prayed, "Remember, O my God, what I have done for the temple." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹⁵One day on the Sabbath I saw some men trampling grapes, and loading their donkeys with bundles of grain, wine, grapes, figs, and other foods, to sell in Jerusalem. I reminded them that they are not to sell food on the Sabbath. 16Also some men from the city of Tyre who lived in Jerusalem were selling fish and other goods on the Sabbath. ¹⁷I scolded the leaders of Judah and said, "Why are you doing this sinful thing in defiling the Sabbath. ¹⁸Don't you remember that God punished our ancestors when they did these very same things? And you are just about to make God very angry again." {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10}

¹⁹I ordered that from then on the gates to Jerusalem were to be closed just before sunset on Friday and not opened till the Sabbath was over. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} I put some men at the city gates to be sure nothing was brought into the city on the Sabbath. ²⁰A couple of times some merchants spent the night outside Jerusalem. ²¹I spoke sharply to them and said,

"Why are you spending the night by the wall? If you do this again, I will arrest you." ²²I told the Levites to make themselves ceremonially clean and to guard the gates to keep the Sabbath day holy. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} Again I prayed, "Remember, O my God, what I have done, and be merciful to me because of your unfailing love." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

²³I realized some of the men married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. 24Many of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or some other foreign language and could not speak Hebrew. ²⁵Again I got angry, and I asked God to make things difficult for them. I beat some of the men and pulled out their hair. I made them promise they would not let their children intermarry with non-Jews. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 26I said, "You know that Solomon was our great king, and God loved him, but marrying foreign women led him into idolatry. ²⁷Now you are doing the same thing, being unfaithful to God." {280 Life-Derailing Prayer, James 4:17

²⁸One of the sons of Joiada, son of Eliashib the high priest, had married a daughter of Sanballat the Horonite, and I forced him to leave the temple. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ²⁹"Remember them, O my God, punish them for breaking their vows and dishonoring the Levi tribe." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

³⁰So I got rid of everything foreign with the priests and Levites, and I assigned them their duties. ³¹I made sure the people brought enough wood for the sacrifices and brought their 10 percent of their harvest to the temple. "Remember me, my God, because of the good I have done." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

The people had forsaken the Sabbath observance, so Nehemiah instituted a three-step policy. First, he commanded the gates to the city to be shut on the Sabbath so people couldn't enter to sell on the Sabbath. Second, he put members of his staff at the gates to immediately guard it. Third, he got the Levites to guard the gates on a long-term basis. There is a three-fold principle of separating ourselves from compromise and sin. First, we must make a decision to shut the door of our hearts to compromise and evil. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} Second, we must use our habits and discipline to keep ourselves from sin. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} Third, we must ask Jesus, our Priest, to keep our hearts true in all things. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} Lord, I want to be pure, and I want to keep separate from evil. I have chosen to be pure. Strengthen my habits of discipline to keep myself pure; then, You, Lord, come stand in the door of my heart to keep me from evil. Amen.

Esther

Ch 1: Queen Vashti Defies the King's Command
683
Ch 2: Esther Is Made Queen684
Ch 3: Haman's Plan to Destroy the Jews686
Ch 4: Mordecai Asks Esther to Help Her People 687
Ch 5: Esther's Banquet689
Ch 6: Mordecai Is Honored690
Cн 7: Haman Is Executed690
Ch 8: The Jews Are Allowed to Fight Back691
Ch 9: The Jews Defeat Their Enemies693
CH 10: KING XERXES AND MORDECAI694

ESTHER

Key Words: "For such a time as this" (Esther 4:14)

Key Verse: "Go, gather all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me; neither eat nor drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast likewise. And so I will go to the king... and if I perish, I perish!" (4:16).

Theme: While the name God is not written in this book, the presence of God is unmistakably seen in the irreversible tide of events. Queen Vashti was removed from the throne of Persia and Esther took her place. Prime Minister Haman hated the Jews and planned their entire extinction. Haman planned to hang Mordecai, but was himself hanged on the gallows he built for Mordecai. The Jews were able to successfully defend themselves against greedy, hateful men who intended their destruction. Finally, Mordecai became Prime Minister of Persia. The book of Esther teaches us to trust God who controls the affairs of this life, and to fast and pray for His intervention when circumstances seem blackest. Lord, I determine to follow You and be faithful to You—even to death, "If I perish, I perish" (4:16). Amen.

Esther 1 Queen Vashti Defies the King's Command

king of Persia, ruled over 127 provinces from India to Ethiopia ²from his palace in the fortress of Susa. ³In the third year of his reign (412 B.C.) he gave a big banquet for all his officials, military officers, and leaders of the province. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ⁴He showed off his wealth and the greatness of his kingdom for six months.

⁵Then he gave a week-long banquet for palace servants and officials, from the least to the greatest, in the palace garden. ⁶The area was decorated with blue and white linen curtains tied back with purple cords that ran through silver rings attached to marble pillars.

Couches of gold and silver stood on pavements that had designs made from multicolored stones, marble, mother-of-pearl, and other stones. Wine was served in gold goblets, each with a different design. Much wine was available because the king was generous. Each guest could drink as much as he wanted, and he told his servants to let each guest drink as much or as little as he wanted.

9At the same time Queen Vashti gave a banquet for the women of the palace. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ¹⁰On the seventh day when King Xerxes was half drunk he told his seven personal aides, Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, 11to bring him Queen Vashti, wearing her royal crown. He wanted the men to gaze on her beauty. 12The king's aides told her what he said, but she refused to go, and this made him terribly angry. {459 Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9} ¹³So Xerxes called in his seven expert advisors. ¹⁴They were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan. They understood the laws of the land, and the king asked their advice. 15He asked them, "Queen Vashti has disobeyed my command. What does the law say should be her punishment?"

¹⁶Memucan answered, "Queen Vashti has done wrong not only to you but also to all your officials and every citizen in your empire. 17Women everywhere will hear about this and will disobey their husbands. ¹⁸Even before the end of this day the wives of your officials will talk to their husbands the same way. This will result in a lot of family problems. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ¹⁹So I suggest you send out a decree, a law of the Medes and Persians, which can't be repealed, that Vashti never be allowed to see you again, and that someone better than Vashti be made queen. 20When the wives in your kingdom read this, they will respect their husbands." {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

²¹The king and his officials liked what Memucan said, so ²²he sent messengers to every part of his kingdom, with the message in the language of every area, and it stated that every husband should be the ruler of his family. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

The book of Esther is a wonderful declaration of the providence of God. God works behind the scenes to accomplish His will. Xerxes, the most powerful man on earth at that time, was setting the stage to save God's people—the Jews—from a holocaust. Even before Haman decided to exterminate the Jews, God set a plan in motion to save the Jews. God prepared the situation and a woman who would "save" His people. This tells us that God is not surprised by our problems, and He is never caught off guard. {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24} Lord, I submit to Your providential care of my life. Teach me to trust Your unseen hand when I can't see it, and teach me to trust Your guidance when I can't hear Your voice. Amen.

Esther 2 Esther Is Made Queen

¹Later King Xerxes got over being angry, but he was thinking about Vashti, realizing he would never see her again. ²His aides suggested, "Let's search for beautiful young women in your kingdom and bring them here. ³Appoint agents in every province to find these girls and bring them here to Susa. Put Hegai in charge of them who will see that they are given proper beauty treatments. ⁴Then the girl who pleases you most will be the queen." Xerxes liked this idea, so he ordered that the plan be carried out. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

⁵A Jew named Mordecai was living in the palace at Susa. He was the son of Jair, and grandson of Shimei, and great-grandson of Kish, a Benjamite. ⁶He had been captured when Jerusalem was destroyed by King Nebuchadnezzar and had been taken to Babylon with King Jeconiah of Judah and others. ⁷Mordecai had a beautiful and lovely cousin named Hadassah, also called Esther, whose parents were dead and so Mordecai adopted her as his own daughter. {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24}

God has a special concern for orphans. In this case Esther the orphan became the queen of the most powerful empire in the world. An orphan girl, who was among the most disenfranchised persons in the kingdom, became the most powerful woman in Xerxes' kingdom. God enjoys taking the weak and using them in a powerful way. {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} Lord, thank You for Your care of orphans, both past, present, and future. Teach me Your concern for people. Amen.

⁸As a result of the king's order to bring in beautiful women, many were taken to the palace and Esther was one of them. ⁹Hegai was impressed with her and he gave her beauty treatments and special food. Also he gave her seven maids, and she and the seven had the best rooms in the palace. {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24}

¹⁰Mordecai had told Esther not to tell anyone she was a Jewess. ¹¹Every day he walked back and forth in front of the court where the women lived and asked how she was getting along. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

¹²The young women were given beauty treatments for a year. For six months each woman's skin was rubbed with olive oil and myrrh, and the last six months she was treated with perfumes and ointments. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 13When it was her turn to sleep with the king, she could choose whatever clothing or jewelry she wanted. 14The morning after being with the king she would be under the care of Shaashgaz, another servant of the king. She could not go to the king again unless he called for her by name. ¹⁵When it was Esther's turn to go to the king, she followed Hegai's advice on what to wear. Everyone who saw her was amazed at her beauty. 16Esther was taken to the king in January of the seventh year of his reign. ¹⁷Xerxes was attracted to Esther more than to any of the other women, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} and so he put a crown on her head and made her queen. 18Then he gave a great banquet in her honor for all his nobles and officials. He made that day a special holiday, and he gave gifts to everyone. {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24}

Lord, You made Esther beautiful on the outside and inside. This was just one step in preparing her to save the world. Lord, You gave her favor with those over her and then You gave her favor with the king. I marvel how all things work out together to accomplish Your will. Amen.

¹⁹When the young women were brought together again, Mordecai had become a government official. 20Esther still hadn't told anyone that she was a Jewess. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²¹One day as Mordecai was on duty at the palace, two of the king's aides, Bigthan and Teresh, were angry at the king and were planning to kill him. ²²Mordecai heard about it and told Esther, who reported it to the king, giving credit to Mordecai for passing along the information. ²³The matter was found to be true, and the two officials were hanged. This was written in the book that records the king's actions. {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24}

It was not just chance or a coincidence that Mordecai overheard Bigthan and Teresh's plot to kill Xerxes. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} This is another piece in the puzzle that God used to save His people, the Jews. Lord, give me a sense of divine governance in my life. When I sense it, may I praise and worship You. Amen.

Esther 3 Haman's Plan to Destroy the Jews

¹Later King Xerxes promoted Haman, son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, to the highest position in his kingdom. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

One man—Saul—disobeyed God's commands to annihilate all the Agagites, and almost a thousand years later the Jewish nation was almost annihilated by an Agagite. Lord, teach me from this chapter the awful consequences of disobeying You. Forgive my sins, and may the consequences of my sin be marginalized. I don't want my sins to hurt anyone, not do I want my sins to hurt my ongoing life. Amen. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

²All the king's officials stationed at the king's gate bowed before Haman whenever he passed by, as the king had told them to do. But Mordecai refused to bow before Haman. {280 Life-Derailing Prayer, James 4:17}

³The king's officials asked Mordecai why he was not obeying the king's order. ⁴They asked him this every day, but he still refused to bow. So they spoke to Haman himself about this. Mordecai had said he wouldn't bow because he was a Jew, and they wanted to know if Haman would go along with that excuse. ⁵Mordecai's refusal made Haman furious. ⁶So he decided to kill not just Mordecai but to find a way to kill every Jew in the kingdom of Xerxes.

God's people suffer when evil men rule over them. But Haman was more than evil he was anti-God. Somehow his self-esteem and hatred of God's people formed a toxic brew, and then poison spewed out. Lord, I pray first for the salvation of those over me, {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} then I pray their damage to Your cause may be thwarted. Deliver me from the evil one. Amen.

⁷In March of Xerxes' 12th year (473 B.C.) lots were tossed to decide on a day and month to get rid of all the Jews. The time decided was exactly a year later. {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24}

When Haman chose a lucky number to punish the Jews, God was behind the choice. Some say, "The devil is in the details," but in this situation, "God was in the details." The chosen date to punish the Jews was almost a year away. That way, God's people could have opportunity to pray and prepare for the awful day. Also in that "year" God was able to work through Esther to save her people. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} Lord, I will not gamble for money, knowing "luck" is not a Christian virtue. God, You move behind the scenes to accomplish Your will, even when unsaved people don't know You are working through them. Amen.

⁸Then Haman said to the king, "Some people who live throughout every province of your kingdom won't associate with people of other races. Their customs are different, and they refuse to obey your laws. It would be better to get rid of them. ⁹Why not order that they all be killed. I will put 375 tons of silver into the royal treasury to cover the costs involved in this project." {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

¹⁰Agreeing to this plan, the king gave his official ring to Haman, who hated the Jews, ¹¹and the king said, "Keep the money, and go ahead and do what you want with these people." ¹²On April 13 Haman met with the king's secretaries, and had them write orders in every language in the kingdom, and the letters were sealed with the king's ring. They sent these orders to the royal officials and governors and other leaders in every province. ¹³Messengers carried the letters throughout the kingdom. The letters stated that about a year later all Jewish men, women, and children were to be killed and their property taken.

¹⁴These letters were to be posted where people everywhere could read them and be ready to carry out the command on the designated day. ¹⁵The command was sent out by messengers, and it was also read in the fortress of Susa. Then the king and Haman sat down to drink, but everyone was puzzled by all this. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

Esther 4 Mordecai Asks Esther to Help Her People

¹When Mordecai heard about the letter, he tore his clothes in grief. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} He wore coarse clothing made from goat's hair, and put ashes on his head. He went into the city crying loudly. ²But he couldn't go past the palace gate because no one wearing coarse clothing was allowed in the palace. ³As the letters were read in all the provinces, the Jews mourned and cried and did not eat, and many of them lay in ashes and wore coarse clothing. {144 Esther Fast and Prayer, Est. 4:16}

⁴When Esther's servant girls and others told her about Mordecai, she sent him some clothes to put on in place of the coarse clothing. But he refused.

A lot of us are like Esther. We try to cover up embarrassment. Esther sent respectable clothes for Mordecai to wear, not realizing the distressing circumstances. Lord, when I react as Esther, open my blind eyes to see spiritual danger around me. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} And when my blind eyes are open, help me to react as Esther, that is, being willing to die for You. Amen.

⁵Esther had a servant named Hathach, and so she asked him to find out what was wrong with Mordecai. ⁶Hathach went to the open area by the king's gate and found Mordecai; ⁷who told him about the king's order and how much Haman had promised to give to the royal treasury for aid in destroying the Jews. ⁸Mordecai gave Hathach a copy of the king's order issued in Susa to kill all the Jews. ⁸Hood-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} He said, "Show this to Esther, and ask her to go to the king and beg him to have mercy on her people, the Jews." ⁸ [249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1]

⁹Hathach told Esther what Mordecai had said, ¹⁰and she answered, "Tell Mordecai that as everyone knows, ¹¹if a person goes in to see the king and hasn't been invited, he will be put to death. The only way to see him is if he holds out his gold scepter. And it's been 30 days since he has asked for me." ¹²So Hathach gave her response to Mordecai. ¹³Then he sent back this reply: "Don't think that because you are in the king's palace, you won't be killed. ¹⁴If you don't speak up, we will get help somehow. But it may well be that God has made you queen for a time such as this." {273 Large-Praying, Acts 4:23-31}

¹⁵Then Esther sent a reply to Mordecai. ¹⁶"Bring together all the Jews in Susa and tell them not to eat or drink anything for three days for my sake. I and my servant girls will do the same. {144 Esther Fast and Prayer, Est. 4:16} Then I will go see the king, even if it means I die." {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

Esther was willing to die, "If I perish, I perish." Lord, when You ask me to surrender everything, I am willing to die, so much so that I actually am dead to my ambitions and desires, long before I actually die. Lord, I say with Paul, "I die daily" (1 Cor. 15:31). Amen.

¹⁷Mordecai went and told all the Jews in Susa what Esther said. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

Esther 5 Esther's Banquet

¹Three days later Esther, dressed in her royal robes, entered the inner court of the palace across from the royal hall. The king was seated on his throne, facing the entrance. ²Pleased to see her, he held out his gold scepter to her. When she went toward him she touched the scepter. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Esther wore the correct clothes, her royal clothes and stood at the right place near the pillar in the court. Lord, teach me to wear the right clothes, at the right time, for the right occasion. Help me dress to please You and not myself. May I be a good testimony to You and not be offensive to Your cause. Amen.

³And he said, "What is your request? Ask, and I will give you half of my kingdom." ⁴Esther replied, "I invite you and Haman to a dinner today that I will prepare." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ⁵The king got Haman to go with him to the dinner Esther had cooked. 6While they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your request? As I said, I will give you whatever you wish, even up to half my kingdom." {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} 7Esther replied, "This is my request. 8I would like for you and Haman to come here again tomorrow for another dinner I will prepare. Then I will answer your question." {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24}

Esther's two-banquet-approach built up anticipation. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} Xerxes probably thought about what Esther wanted more than once in those two days. Anyway, God used Esther's womanly ways to save His people. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} Lord, help me to use all my personality to accomplish many good things for Your kingdom. Amen.

⁹All this made Haman feel great. But he quickly became furious when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate and noticed that Mordecai did not stand up before him. ¹⁰He didn't say anything, but when he got home he got his friends and his wife Zeresh together. 11He bragged about his great wealth and his many sons and how the king had honored him in many ways and how the king had promoted him over all the king's officials. 12Then he added, "What's more, I am the only one Queen Esther invited for dinner with her and the king. And we are invited there for dinner tomorrow too. 13But there is a problem. All this is nothing so long as I see Mordecai by the king's gate, refusing to bow down to me."

¹⁴His wife Zeresh and his friends made a suggestion: "Make a tower about 75 feet high, and in the morning ask the king to hang Mordecai on it. Then later you can enjoy dinner with the king." Haman liked this idea, so he had the tower built. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

Lord, when it seems like sin has gone as far as it can go, then You step in to put a stop to the madness. Lord, do the same thing in my life. Amen. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

Esther 6 Mordecai Is Honored

¹That night the king had insomnia. So he had a servant bring the written record of his reign and read to him. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} 2When the servant read the record about how Mordecai kept Bigthan and Teresh, guards at the king's doorway, from killing the king, 3Xerxes asked, "What reward or honor did we give Mordecai for doing this?" His servants said, "Nothing has been done." 4Just then Haman arrived at the palace to ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on the tower he built. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} 5When the king saw Haman was there, he asked Haman to come in. ⁶He asked Haman, "What is a good way to honor a person the king is pleased with?" Haman thought, "He must be wanting to honor me." 7So he answered the king, 8"Put on him some royal robes, and bring him the king's own horse with a fancy headdress, 9and lead him through the streets with people shouting, 'This is the way the king honors those who please him."

¹⁰"Okay, go take these robes and my horse for Mordecai the Jew, and do all that you suggested." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ¹¹So Haman put the robes on

Mordecai, and put him on the king's horse, and led him through the streets, shouting, "This is how the king honors someone who pleases him."

¹²Later Mordecai went back to his post at the king's gate, but Haman went home with his head covered in grief. He told his wife and friends what had happened. ¹³They said, "If Mordecai is a Jew, you cannot oppose him successfully. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} Try to be against him, and you will be ruined."

If Haman had repented, would he have turned to save the Jews? Lord, I love Your patience. I'm glad You didn't give up on the Apostle Paul when he was responsible for the death of Stephen. I'm glad You didn't give up on the thief on the cross. I'm glad You didn't give up on me. Amen.

¹⁴While they were discussing these matters, the king's servants arrived to take Haman to the dinner Esther had prepared. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28}

Esther 7 Haman Is Executed

¹At this second dinner ²the king again asked Esther, "What is your request? I will give you whatever you wish, even up to half of my kingdom?" {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³She answered, "If you really care for me, please save my life and the lives of my people. ⁴People have been hired to kill me and my people. If the plan was to sell us as slaves, I wouldn't have bothered you." {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

There comes a time in life when we must remove our mask and tell the truth. Esther could no longer keep her Jewish identity hidden. She told all. {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} And God used her honesty to save her people. Lord, I don't always tell all I know, but I never lie. Sometimes it's not appropriate to tell everything. Sometimes it's dangerous. But there are times when I must tell everything—hiding nothing. Teach me what to say when the time arrives. Teach me how to say it, and when to say it. Guide my words as I speak honestly. Amen. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5}

⁵King Xerxes asked her, "Who would dare do such a thing? 6She answered, "This wicked Haman is our enemy." Then Haman was terrified. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} ⁷The king got up in anger and went out to the palace garden. Haman, realizing the king would take his life, begged Esther to save his life. 8Just as the king came back, Haman fell on the couch where Esther was reclining. The king shouted, "Will you even try to rape the queen here in my palace as I look on?" As soon as the king said this, his servants covered Haman's face, a sign he would die. ⁹Then Harbonah, one of the king's servants, told the king, "Haman has made a 75-foot tower near his house, and he plans to hang Mordecai on it. And as you know, Mordecai is the man who saved your life." Immediately the king ordered, "Hang Haman on his own tower!" ¹⁰Right away Haman was hanged on the very tower he built to hang Mordecai, and the king was no longer angry. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

Xerxes was angry when Vashti refused him. Then he was angry when Haman deceived him. And Xerxes' rage built when he thought Haman was trying to rape his wife. God uses the anger of some for His own special purpose. Lord, teach me how to deal with angry people who keep their anger hidden, and teach me how to deal with rage when I confront it. May I always control my temper for Your glory. Then, Lord, there are times when I should get angry. So teach me to be "angry and sin not" (Eph. 4:26). Amen.

Esther 8 The Jews Are Allowed to Fight Back

¹That day the king gave Haman's estate to Esther. She had told the king that Mordecai was her cousin, and so the king made Mordecai a high-ranking official. ²He gave Mordecai his official ring that Haman had worn, and Esther put him in charge of Haman's estate. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³Again Esther went to the king. She fell at his feet crying and begged him to stop Haman's plan to kill all the Jews. ⁴When the king held out the gold scepter to her, she stood up and said, {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ⁵"If it is okay with you, please send out a letter that will reverse Haman's plan to destroy all the Jews. 6I can't stand the thought of my people being destroyed." {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4}

⁷King Xerxes said to Esther and Mordecai, "As you know, I have given Haman's estate to you, Esther, and he has been hanged to death."

If you hate anyone in this life, be careful; they one day may own all you have and your estate. The estate of Haman ended up belonging to Mordecai. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Lord, I don't look for wealth on this earth; I look for my reward in heaven. But I realize some of Your children will be physically blessed in this life. It's good to see You balance the scales between Mordecai and Haman. Amen. {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

8"Now send out a message to save your people. Send it in my name and seal it with my official ring so that the order can't be changed." 9Immediately in July the royal secretaries were called in to write Mordecai's orders as he dictated them to the Jews, officials, governors, and local leaders of all 127 provinces from India to Ethiopia. The orders were written in every language of the kingdom, including Hebrew. 10 Mordecai wrote the orders in the name of the king, sealed them with the king's official ring, and sent them by messengers who rode the king's fastest horses. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

Sometimes it's not enough to stop an evil person. Their evil influence must also be stopped. Apparently the night Haman was hanged didn't stop the coming genocide. Esther went to the king a second time to get a letter written and sealed with the king's ring that allowed the Jews to protect themselves on the coming day of judgment. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} Lord, give me wisdom to see how the world is influenced by evil, and help me come up with ideas to counter the influence of evil. Then, Lord, give me a way to express my ideas and a way to publicize my ideas. Use me, Lord, to counter evil in the world. Amen.

¹¹The king's orders gave the Jews in every city the right to defend themselves and to kill anyone who might attack them, including women and children, and to take their property. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹²The day for this event was in March; exactly one year after Haman chose that date. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹³The orders were to be issued as law in every province and posted everywhere so everyone could read it. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} ¹⁴So the king ordered the messengers to ride his fastest horses and get the message out quickly. The orders were also posted in the Susa fortress.

¹⁵When Mordecai left the palace, he was wearing a blue and white royal robe, a gold crown, and a cloak of purple linen. Everyone in Susa was glad about this new law. ¹⁶And the Jews were filled with joy and gladness and were honored everywhere. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ¹⁷In every province and city where the orders were read, the Jews had parties and celebrated. And many people became Jews. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

Esther 9 The Jews Defeat Their Enemies

¹On March 13th the king's order to kill all the Jews was to be carried out. But now on this very day, when their enemies had hoped to destroy them, the opposite happened. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

There comes a time when one's enemy comes out in the open and he must be opposed. Lord, I will be humble and pray for them. Lord, I will not knowingly make an enemy of anyone. Lord, I will do good to all, and I will "live peacefully with all men" (Heb. 12:14). Amen. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

²In every city the Jews on that day got together to attack those who wanted to destroy them. But no one made a move against the Jews because they were afraid of them. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ³The leaders of the provinces, rulers, governors, and officials helped the Jews out of respect for Mordecai, ⁴who had been promoted by the king and given a lot of power.

⁵The Jews killed their enemies with the sword and showed them no mercy. {105

Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ⁶Even in Susa they killed 500 men. ⁷They also killed Haman's 10 sons, Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, ⁸Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, ⁹Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha; ¹⁰but they didn't take any of their belongings.

The Jews did not take monetary gain for themselves when they defeated their enemies. Even though some were going to attack the Jews for loot—not just for ethnic hatred—the Jews didn't retaliate. {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} Lord, teach me to keep my motives pure. May I serve You out of pure love. Take away all ill feelings of hatred from my heart. Amen.

¹¹Later that day the king heard that a number of people had been killed in Susa. 12He said to Esther, "The Jews have killed 500 people and Haman's 10 sons. What has happened in the other provinces? If you want something else done, just tell me, and I will do it." {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ¹³Esther answered, "Let the Jews in Susa fight tomorrow as they did today, and have the bodies of Haman's ten sons hanged in public." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁴Xerxes did what she asked, and Haman's sons' bodies were hanged. 15The next day, March 14th, the Jews in Susa killed another 300 men, and they did not take any of their belongings. ¹⁶On March 13th Jews in the other provinces killed 75,000 of their enemies, but didn't take any of their belongings. ¹⁷On March 14th, the same day Haman's sons were hanged, the Jews celebrated with a great festival. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

¹⁸Then on March 15th the Jews in Susa celebrated a holiday after killing their enemies the two days before. {212 Happiness Inspired by Prayer, Matt. 5:3-8} ¹⁹Jews in rural villages celebrated their victory on March 14th, making it a great time of joy, feasting, and sending gifts of food to the poor. {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

²⁰Mordecai wrote down all that happened, and sent letters to Jews everywhere, ²¹encouraging them to celebrate on March 14th and 15th, ²²as the time when they defeated their enemies and their sorrow turned into joy. He encouraged them to celebrate with feasting, joy, and giving gifts to each other. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

²³The Jews followed his suggestion and held this celebration every year. 24 Haman, son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, hated the Jews and had planned to destroy them. To find out the best time to do it. he threw lots, called Purim. ²⁵When the king learned of this, he gave orders that Haman and his sons be hanged in the same way Haman had wanted Mordecai hanged. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ²⁶Therefore this celebration is called Purim, from Pur, the Babylonian word for dice. So because of Mordecai's letter and what the Jews experienced, ²⁷the Jews decided that they and their descendants would celebrate these two days every year, just as they were told to do.

²⁸Every Jewish family from now on was to celebrate Purim. This is to keep alive the memory of what happened. {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7}

²⁹Queen Esther wrote a letter in support of Mordecai's letter about this festival. ³⁰Mordecai sent copies of the letter to the Jews in all 127 provinces. He wished them well. ³¹The letter stated that the Jews and their descendants were to celebrate Purim at the time and in the way Mordecai and Esther said and that they were to follow their instructions about mourning and going without food. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} ³²Esther's command confirmed these regulations about Purim and it was written down as law. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Esther 10 King Xerxes and Mordecai

¹King Xerxes made everyone in his kingdom pay taxes, even people in distant coastlands. ²All his great deeds and the account of Mordecai's greatness and honors are written in the books of the kings of Media and Persia. ³Mordecai was second in rank to the king. He was highly respected by the Jews because he helped them in many ways and even spoke to the king for them. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1}

Mordecai became the second most important person in Persia because of his honesty and character. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} Lord, thank You for this last chapter that shows how You honored faithfulness. Help me remain faithful to You—not for my honor—but may I in faithfulness worship You. Amen. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, I Thess. 5:24}

Јов

Ch 1: The Enemy Attacks699
Ch 2: The Enemy's Second Attack700
CH 3: JOB'S LAMENT701
Ch 4: Eliphaz's First Counsel702
Ch 5: El Shaddai703
Cн 6: Job's Answer to Eliphaz704
CH 7: Job's Answer (Continued)705
Ch 8: Bildad's First Counsel706
Ch 9: Job's Answer to Bildad707
CH 10: JOB'S WEARINESS709
CH 11: ZOPHAR'S FIRST COUNSEL710
CH 12: JOB'S ANSWER TO ZOPHAR710
CH 13: JOB'S FAITH IN GOD711
CH 14: SUFFERING713
CH 15: ELIPHAZ'S SECOND RESPONSE714
CH 16: Job's Second Answer to Eliphaz715
Сн 17: Негр Ме717
CH 18: BILDAD'S SECOND SPEECH717
Ch 19: Job's Reply to Bildad's Second Attack718
CH 20: ZOPHAR'S SECOND SPEECH720
CH 21: Job's Second Answer to Zophar721
CH 22: ELIPHAZ'S THIRD COUNSEL722
CH 23: JOB'S THIRD ANSWER TO ELIPHAZ723

CH 24: QUESTIONS724
CH 25: BILDAD'S THIRD RESPONSE726
CH 26: Job's Response to Bildad726
CH 27: JOB MAINTAINS HIS INTEGRITY726
CH 28: JOB DISCUSSES WISDOM727
CH 29: Job's Nostalgic Soliloquy728
CH 30: Job Describes His Pathetic Condition 729
CH 31: JOB'S FINAL PLEA OF INNOCENCE730
CH 32: ELIHU'S RESPONSE732
CH 33: ELIHU'S CHARGE AGAINST JOB733
CH 34: ELIHU TELLS OF GOD'S JUSTICE734
CH 35: ELIHU TELLS OF GOD'S JUSTICE735
CH 36: ELIHU CLAIMS TO SPEAK FOR GOD736
CH 37: ELIHU CONTINUES737
CH 38: GOD CHALLENGES JOB WITH HIS POWER738
CH 39: GOD CONTINUES739
CH 40: THE LORD SPEAKS740
CH 41: THE LORD CONTINUES741
CH 42: REPENTENCE AND RESTORATION742

J O B

Key Words: The Almighty (KJV, NIV) appears 31 times translated from El Shaddai, See Job 5:17.

Key Verse: "Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.' In all this Job did not sin nor charge God with wrong" (1:21, 22).

Theme: The Hebrew name for God, "El Shaddai," means Almighty. This title occurs 31 times in Job, far more than in any other Bible book.

Job was possibly the son of Issachar mentioned in Genesis 46:13. Issachar was one of the 12 sons of Jacob who eventually went down to Egypt to live (Gen. 46:13). Issachar was approximately 40 years old when he went down to Egypt. That suggests his third son, Job, would have been about 20 years old at that time (1706 B.C.). While most of Israel originally prospered in Egypt under Joseph, possibly Job did not stay in Egypt with his parents. Maybe he returned back to the Sinai Peninsula to live in Uz. It was there Job accumulated his wealth and prosperity.

Job was approximately 70 years old when his wealth and health were taken away (Job 1, 2). When he was restored God gave him a "double blessing" (42:10), which would imply that he lived another 140 years. Apparently Job was 210 years old when he died.

The fact that Job may have been the son of Issachar accounts for him being a worshiper of the God of Abraham and accounts for his multiple use of the term El Shaddai—translated "Almighty"—a name for God used in Genesis 17:1.

The first of Job's friends—Eliphaz—was a son of Esau (Gen. 36:4, 10, 11). Eliphaz was one generation older than Job. Therefore Eliphaz who rebuked Job was really a crotchety old uncle who thought his family ties gave him the right to criticize Job. The second "comforter" was Bildad. As a Shuhite, he was probably related to Shuah, Abraham's youngest son by Keturah (Gen. 25:2).

When Job died (1516 B.C.), Moses was 55 years old and had already spent 15 years in the Sinai Peninsula watching his sheep. Job and Moses not only overlapped each other because they lived in the same area, and they may have known each other. Perhaps Moses was an "ear-witness" of the content of the book as Job told him the stories of losing his wealth and the hypocritical speeches of the three "comforters." Job's family may have even met some of Job's friends. Job may have told his amazing story of suffering to Moses who wrote it down. Moses kept the manuscript; eventually adding it to the collection of the first five books of the Old Testament that he also wrote.

The book of Job tells the amazing story of a man who held tenaciously to his integrity in the face of pain, loss, darkness, and even death. Job's integrity tells its own story that a man's relationship to God is more important than anything else, even his own physical life.

The book of Job teaches its own lesson that in this world there is sickness, pain and loss, even to those who follow God. Trouble comes to the just and unjust. This story also tells that friends can give the wrong advice to those who are sick. Their worst advice was that Job was suffering because he had sinned against God. Lord, I will serve You in sickness and health, in the good days and in bad days. Amen.

Job 1 The Enemy Attacks

¹Job was Your faithful servant living in the land of Uz. He was blameless, upright, and he trusted in You. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ²Job had seven sons and three daughters, ³and his vast herds indicated he was wealthy. He lived in a very large house, and enjoyed an extensive reputation from surrounding neighbors.

Lord, help me be faithful in times of prosperity. Amen.

Job prayed for his children and sacrificed for them in case any of them sinned against You. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ⁴Because they invited their brothers and sisters to enjoy a sumptuous feast on their birthday, ⁵Job was concerned a child might sin against You so he sacrificed for them on a regular basis. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

⁶When the angels came into Your presence, LORD, {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} satan came also with them. ⁷You asked satan why he was there. The adversary answered that he had been examining His followers to determine their sincerity and godliness. ⁸You held up Job as an example of righteousness, ⁹but the accuser criticized You for putting a protective hedge around Job. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ¹⁰Satan claimed Job was righteous because he prospered and had many belongings. ¹¹Satan challenged You to take away Job's belongings, and he would curse You to Your face. ¹²So You allowed satan to test Job by taking away everything he owned, but You wouldn't let satan harm him physically. {491 Trial-Purifying Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7}

Lord, satan is a ruthless enemy who hates Your children; he hates every good thing that they have. Amen.

¹³There came a day when Job's sons and daughters were feasting in the oldest brother's house. 14A messenger arrived to tell Job an enemy-raiding party stole all his donkeys and oxen. ¹⁵Then the enemy killed all the servants and only he escaped to come tell Job. 16Another messenger arrived simultaneously to tell how lightning killed all his sheep and shepherds. The other servants were killed and only he escaped to come tell Job. ¹⁷A third messenger arrived to tell how the Chaldeans stole all the camels and killed the servants. Only he escaped to come tell Job. 18A fourth messenger arrived to tell that all Job's children were killed when they were feasting together; 19a powerful tornado collapsed the house, crushing them to death. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ²⁰ Job's faith in You was not shaken, but his immense grief was evident to all. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30}

Lord, help me retain my integrity in times of trials and accidents. Amen.

²¹Job cried, "Naked came I from my mother's womb, and I shall be naked when I die. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} The LORD gave me all things and the LORD has taken all things away; I praise the name of the LORD." {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} ²²Job refused to blame You for his trouble, nor did he sin in his heart against You. Amen.

Lord, I need a hedge to protect me; the enemy is powerful and I am weak. Deliver me from the evil one who would destroy me, and lead me not into temptation that would overwhelm me. Thank You for past deliverances and protection; I trust in You. You are greater than the enemy of the world. Amen.

Job 2 The Enemy's Second Attack

¹The enemy, satan, came into Your presence again with the angels ²and he said he was still looking to accuse Your people. ³You pointed out that Job still worshiped You in integrity. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} Even though he lost everything, he remained faithful to You. ⁴Satan said, "Skin for skin"; if Job lost his health he would curse You because of physical troubles. He would say, "A man would give up everything to save his skin." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5}

Lord, help me understand temptations are a way of life. Amen.

⁵You told satan he could take away Job's health, ⁶but the enemy couldn't take away his life.

⁷And Job was inflicted with terrible boils from head to toe {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} what people of that day called black leprosy.

*To get relief, Job sat in ashes to absorb the mucous and he scraped himself with broken pottery to deal with his pain. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} *Job's wife mocked him for trying to maintain his integrity. She said, "Curse God and die." *10*But Job accused her of being godless, asking, "Are we to receive only from God, and reject Him when bad days or troubles come?" {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} In all his pain, Job did not sin with his mouth, but kept his integrity before God. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

Lord, help me understand those who try to help me. Amen.

¹¹Job's three friends came to see him: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. ¹²They could hardly recognize Job because of his affliction; {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} they grieved loudly and were emotionally upset. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ¹³Then they sat in silence with Job for seven days; his suffering was too great for words.

Lord, prepare me for sickness and any pain that will come when I pass from this life into Your presence. I don't want to suffer, and I'm not good with pain. Give me the integrity of Job to worship You in everything that happens to me physically. Amen.

Job 3 Job's Lament

¹Job denounced the day of his birth, because his life didn't have hope that's promised with each new baby.

²Job was sorry he was conceived, ³and he wanted to forget that he was born into a meaningless suffering world. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} 4Job said, "Let my birthday become black, and shrouded in darkness; don't even let God know about it. 5Let a dark cloud overshadow the event, ⁶and erase it off the calendar so no one will remember. 7Don't let anyone rejoice on my birthday 8 and let everyone hear words from the pessimist about how bad it is. ⁹Don't let the morning stars give any hope to that day, and may the sun not welcome my birth." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁰Job denounced the opening of his mother's womb, and the fact he was born into all this trouble. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

Lord, may I always treasure the breath of life You give. Amen.

¹¹Job asked, "Why didn't I die at birth? ¹²Why did my mother let me live? ¹³If I had died at birth, I wouldn't be suffering now {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} but I would be at peace and resting in the grave. ¹⁴I would be resting with the world's dead rulers, those who are famous for what they did. ¹⁵I would be resting with dead wealthy people with their enormous bank accounts and expensive belongings. ¹⁶Why was I not buried like a stillborn baby, like a child that never saw the light of day?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

Lord, help me understand the finality of death. Amen.

¹⁷Job said, "In death, the wicked don't trouble anyone and the weary of this life find rest. ¹⁸Those who have been in prison no longer fight; there's no one in the grave to accuse or curse them. ¹⁹The rich and the poor are alike in the grave, and the slave is free from his master. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

²⁰"Lord, why have You given light to the miserable and life to those who are bitter? ²¹They search for death, but can't find it; they look for it as the greatest treasure in life. ²²They think death is a blessed relief when it finally comes; they actually shout for joy because death is a blessing. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²³Lord, why do You give life to those like me with no future? Why are some destined to live in pain? 24I cannot eat because I continually cry and mourn, my groans pour out like water. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ²⁵The thing I feared most has happened to me; what I dreaded now gives me pain. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ²⁶I have no peace, no escape and no quietness; but I only see anguish and trouble in the future." {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

Lord, help me look through all suffering to see Your hand in my life. Job was sorry that he was born yet You had a purpose for his life; help me see Your purpose in my life. Amen.

Job 4 Eliphaz's First Counsel

¹Eliphaz finally spoke to Job after seven days because it took him that long to arrive at what he would say. ²Eliphaz said, "If I tell you what's wrong, you will get mad, {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} yet I can't keep my opinion to myself. ³Job, you have given moral instruction to many; you have strengthened feeble hands. ⁴You have strengthened those who were faltering ⁵but now misfortune has come to you, and you are surprised. ⁶Shouldn't you trust the Lord you fear? {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} And shouldn't your integrity be your hope?"

Lord, help me not to judge others ignorantly. Amen.

⁷Eliphaz told Job to think about the reasons that may have caused his trouble. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} "Think about how God always judges sin, how the Lord even destroys the guiltless. ⁸Those who plough sin in their life reap the whirlwind of God's punishment. ⁹The guilty perish, judged by the breath of God; at the blast of His anger, they are consumed. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁰The lions may growl, the young lions roar, and the old lion's teeth are broken; ¹¹but lions scatter

when there is no prey, and God would not have judged you if you had not sinned." {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9}

¹²Eliphaz claimed to have a vision {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} as he said, "A word was brought to me silently; my ears caught only a whisper of the message. 13I received a vision in the night; it came to me when other people were sleeping. 14I was scared to death when I saw the vision, {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} and my bones shook uncontrollably in fear. ¹⁵A spirit passed in front of my face and the hairs on my skin stood up. 16It stopped in front of me, but I couldn't discern it: there was a shadow without form. Then I heard the voice speak to me, ¹⁷ Can a human man be more righteous than God? Can a human stand pure before his Creator?' {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ¹⁸God knows every one of His servants is a sinner; even the angels are not perfect. ¹⁹How much more sinful are those who live in houses of clay? {176 Frailty-Confession Prayer, Ps. 90:12} They are all created out of dust. They are crushed as easily as a worm; 20 they can be destroyed between sunrise and sunset. They perish forever and no one notices. ²¹They die ignorantly, not realizing their sin has caused their death." {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6}

Lord, help me to study the Bible to learn more about You in Scripture. Keep me from any wrong doctrine that comes from night-mares or from thinking I see visions, when it's not You. Amen.

Job 5 El Shaddai

¹"Job, you may yell for help, but no one will come to you. You can turn to the angels, but they won't help you. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ²Resentment kills those who won't listen to counsel, {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} and arrogance destroys the ignorant."

³Eliphaz told Job that even a fool could turn to God and have momentary success and prosperity just as Job had temporary wealth but lost it all. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

Lord, guard my lips from calling anyone a fool. Amen.

⁴"The children of fools have no one to help them; ⁵they lose their money, belongings, and reputation. ⁶Evil doesn't come from the ground and trouble doesn't come from the earth. ⁷People are born into trouble and problems {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} just as surely as sparks fly upwards."

Lord, may I never give hypocritical advice. Amen.

⁸Eliphaz told Job, "Beg God for forgiveness for your sin; humbly present your case before God ⁹for God is more compassionate than we understand; He performs wondrous things without number. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹⁰He gives rain to the thirsty fields; He sends water to grow our crops. 11He raises up those who are humble, and lifts those who mourn to safety; and God will do the same for you, Job. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ¹²But God frustrates the plans of the devious so that they fail with their schemes. ¹³God catches the deceiver in his own trap and works their plans against them; you are guilty because you are being judged. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} 14Schemers grope in the sunlight as though they were blind; they see no better in the daylight than in darkness. 15God rescues the poor from the enticing words of schemers and saves them from their snares. 16God gives hope to the poor but He breaks the fangs of the wicked. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

Lord, I will listen for Your still small inner voice that says, "This is the way, walk in it." Give me Your inner assurance and peace. Amen.

17"Happy is the one whom God corrects, so don't despise the punishment of El Shaddai. 18 God gives wounds and He also gives bandages. God strikes but He also heals. 19 God will rescue you again and again so that no evil can harm you. {516 Victory Over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12} God will save you from six disasters; yes, God will deliver you from seven so you're not harmed. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 20 God will save you from death in famine and from the sword in time of war. 21 God will protect you from slander and you won't fear when destruction comes.

²²You will laugh at judgment, and wild animals will not scare you. ²³Your crops will prosper and give a good harvest; ²⁴God will shield you from evil threats. Your home will be safe and when you go away, nothing will be stolen from You. ²⁵You shall have many descendants and your offspring shall be like grass of the earth. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ²⁶You will live to a ripe old age and you will not die before your appointed time." ²⁷Eliphaz concluded, "This is what we know, listen and know it for yourself."

Lord, it's so easy to judge others; forgive me when I've been critical of people in the past. Take away any sarcasm from my heart; help me overcome any superiority I have toward others. {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} Help me see my faults, then forgive me as I forgive others. Amen.

Job 6 Job's Answer to Eliphaz

¹Job answered Eliphaz, ²"If my troubles could be weighed and my difficulties stacked on a scale, ³they would be heavier than the sand of the seashore. No wonder my words came out rashly and I speak so harshly; {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ⁴the arrows of El Shaddai have pierced my heart. I have been poisoned by my calamities and my fate is worse than death." {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} God asked Job, ⁵"Does an animal bray when it has enough food? ⁶Can food be enjoyed without salt? Do egg whites have any taste?" Job draws the conclusion, "No!" ⁷These things caused Job to lose his appetite just as Job's troubles took away his desire to live. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ⁸Lord, Job told his friends he has only one desire, ⁹that God would take away his life. ¹⁰Then Job would feel consoled because that would end his unending pain. Then Job said he would be able to rejoice, knowing he hadn't denied the Holy One. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6}

¹¹Job asked, "Do I have enough strength to keep suffering? Do I have any hope to keep enduring my troubles? ¹²Can my body throw off storms like a rock? Am I made of bronze to blunt attacks?" ¹³Job answered his own hypothetical question, "No! I am utterly defenseless." {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

Lord, Job then told his accuser, ¹⁴"You should be kind to someone in trouble. ¹⁵But you are as unreliable as a flood of water that runs dry when you run out of words to say. ¹⁶You're like ice that dams up the streams; ¹⁷you'll vanish when the hot weather arrives. ¹⁸They'll die in the sweltering wilderness ¹⁹when desert travelers come to drink of you, ²⁰because you have no water to give those in trouble. ²¹You have become a dry streambed without life-giving water, you saw my calamity and gave me no hope or comfort. You have heaped trouble upon my trouble." {51 Blocked-Prayer, 1 Peter 3:7}

Lord, it's hard when people accuse me of things I haven't done. I know I'm not perfect, but I forgive them their debts so they'll forgive me my debts (Matt. 6:12). Keep me from slander; may complaining people not give me a negative outlook on life. Amen.

Lord, Job turned to rebuke his friends, ²²"Did I ever ask you to give money to help me? ²³Did I ever ask you to save me from the enemy?" Job told Eliphaz, "I want a straight answer. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5}:

²⁴"Tell me what I have done wrong. List the sins you say I've committed." ²⁵Job explains, "If you speak honest words, they'll be forceful, ²⁶but your speech doesn't convince me of anything ²⁷because you didn't listen to my cry for help. ²⁸I have not sinned, and that is the truth. ²⁹Would I lie to your face especially when I'm in this terrible torment? ³⁰Quit telling me I'm guilty of sin; I've lived by my conscience before God." {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22}

Job 7 Job's Answer (Continued)

Lord, Job told Eliphaz, ¹"Life is like serving in the army, life is long and hard and it's a struggle to stay alive. ²Life is like working all day for wages; ³my life's work is drudgery and futility; I don't have hope for wages, only more pain and trouble. ⁴"When I go to bed, I only hope for the morning; when the sun comes up, I only hope to sleep at night. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} ⁵My skin is full of worms and poison; when a scab breaks open, pus runs out.

6"My days fly swifter than a high-speed printer, each day ends without hope. ⁷My life is just one breath at a time; I will never see good times again. ⁸You see me now, but not for long; pretty soon I'll die and pass on and my life will not come back. ⁹I'm like a passing cloud, gone forever, ¹⁰never to be seen again." {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

¹¹Lord, Job spoke harshly against his accuser, saying, "I cannot keep quiet while you complain. ¹²I'm not some type of monster you have to guard but I am bitter at what you've said. ¹³I try to get some relief by sleeping, ¹⁴but your vision scared me to death; I don't think God was speaking by your vision. ¹⁵I'd rather die than have you comfort me, ¹⁶so, leave me alone! {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10}

17"What is a man that you should care about him? 18 You come here every morning looking for my sin; you analyze every word I speak, looking for mistakes; 19 leave me alone, just for a few minutes. Why is my sin so important to you? What have I done to make you attack me? 20 Why have you come to make my troubles more unbearable? If you think I've committed sins you haven't seen, why don't you just forgive my sin? 21 Wouldn't your forgiveness help take away my pain? But no, you keep accusing me of sins I haven't committed. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} Someday I'll die and be buried in the ground, and you'll look for me but I will be gone."

Job 8 Bildad's First Counsel

¹Bildad began speaking sarcastically. ²"How long will you huff and puff? ³Does God twist the truth? Does El Shaddai turn wrong into right? ⁴Your children were guilty of sin against God so they deserved the punishment they got. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁵If you will earnestly seek God, if you will beg for His favor, ⁶if you will live a pure honest life, God will restore your home and family. ⁷Even though your beginning was small, your end can be great." {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

Lord, help me understand the motives of others. Amen.

Bildad's Appeal to Tradition

⁸"Ask the previous generations what is right; listen to the wisdom you can learn from tradition. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ⁹Those who were born yesterday know very little; their days are like a passing shadow. ¹⁰The ancient elders will tell you the truth; they will not be reluctant to tell what is wrong.

Bildad Claims to Know the Truth

¹¹"Can marsh grasses grow where there is no water? Can bulrushes live in dry sand? ¹²No, they die if there is no water to keep them alive, and you are dying because you've denied the truth of God. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

¹³"The godless have no hope because of their sin, 14everything they count on will crumble; they are trusting spider webs to hold them up. ¹⁵The godless think their home is secure trying to hold on to their houses, but the ungodly will eventually lose everything. Job, that's why you lost your belongings and home; you are guilty of hidden iniquity. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹⁶The ungodly seem to be strong like a mighty tree that prospers in the sunshine and spreads its branches out over the ground. 17 Its roots go down through the rocks to give it strength but it's forgotten when it's cut down. Job, that's a picture of your destiny ¹⁸when you're cut down; no one will miss you. 19"Another tree will grow to replace you." {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6}

Lord, keep me from offering sarcastic hope. Amen.

Bildad Offers His View of Hope after Condemning Job

²⁰God will not reject a blameless man, nor will He prosper one who sins against Him. ²¹God can give you laughter again, your lips can sing praises and shout for joy. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ²²Then those who have criticized you will be embarrassed and you will be vindicated anew."

Lord, give me sensitivity to know when criticism is accurate and help me learn from

it. Give me courage to reject criticism that comes from a hypocrite, or criticism that is wrongly based. I yield myself to You; I want to walk humbly with You and grow in righteousness. Amen.

Job's Answer to Bildad

¹Job admitted the truth of fallen humanity; ²how can anyone declare he is perfect before God? {176 Frailty-Confession Prayer, Ps. 90:12} ³Job said, "If I could answer God in a courtroom, I could never claim to be perfect in His sight."

Lord, I acknowledge I am not perfect. Amen.

4"God's choices are wise; God's ability is mighty, no one could ever successfully challenge Him. 5God moves mountains without asking anyone; {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} they quake because He speaks. 6God shakes the earth according to His will; the foundations tremble. ⁷God could command the sun not to shine and the stars not to shine. 8God alone spread the hemisphere in creation; He alone can walk on the waves of the sea. ⁹God created the stars—the Great Bear, Orion, the Pleiades; He made the constellations we can't see. 10God's purpose in creation is unsearchable, we can't count all the things He has done." {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

Lord, I know You are omnipotently powerful, yet I can't see You. Amen.

¹¹Job agreed, "Yet I can't see the Creator nor recognize Him when He passes by. ¹²He sends death to take people away and no one asks, 'What are You doing?' ¹³God does not withdraw His anger; the mightiest contenders are crushed by Him."

Lord, You are greater than I can comprehend. Amen.

¹⁴Job said, "How can I answer God? How can I argue with God? {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} 15Even when I have my integrity I wouldn't try to answer God; I would throw myself on His mercy. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ¹⁶Even if I summoned God to the courtroom, He wouldn't listen to my plea of innocence. ¹⁷God could break me with a storm; He doesn't need a reason to wound me. 18I wouldn't even have time to catch my breath for God could send the sorrows of this life. ¹⁹If it's a matter of omnipotent power, God can do it all. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²⁰If it's a matter of justice, I can't challenge Him. ²¹"Even if I proclaim my innocence, I fall short of God's standards. ²²Even if I said, 'I'm innocent,' it means I don't really know my own heart. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} So the story of life is very simple: The wicked have troubles just like the innocent; life is the same for all God's creatures. {491 Trial-Purifying Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7} ²³When disaster suddenly brings death, the innocent along with the wicked dies. ²⁴Yet this life is controlled by wicked people and God lets them do what they want; He lets them break every law."

Lord, I know that I am finite and life isn't fair. Amen.

Job said life is like three things: ²⁵*Life goes by swiftly like a sprint runner, ²⁶life speeds along like a boat made of reeds, life swoops down to eat you up like a hungry eagle. Life is brief, precarious, and cruel." {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10}

Lord, help me not complain when trouble comes. Amen. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

²⁷Job said, "If I decide to stop complaining and start living as though nothing is wrong, ²⁸I'll still suffer with my pain, and I'll know I'm not perfect in God's sight. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ²⁹I'd be condemned by a perfect God, so why should I keep quiet and act like normal people? ³⁰Even if I washed myself in new fallen snow and scrubbed my hands with lye, ³¹I'd probably fall into a muddy ditch and I'd be filthy again. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10}

"Lord, I know You don't do things as humans do." ³²Job admitted God is not mortal, so he couldn't argue with Him in a trial. ³³"If only I had a mediator to plead my case who could bring me to God, {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ³⁴but in this life there is none. I need a mediator to deal with my punishment; ³⁵then I could speak to God without fear, but I can't do it in my strength."

Job 10 Job's Weariness

¹Job agreed, "I am worn out so I keep complaining. ²I want to tell God, 'Don't keep punishing me; let me know what I've done wrong. ³Is there a purpose to my suffering? What advantage is there in my pain? God, why do You allow me such agony and why do You let the wicked have a good life? You made me who I am." 504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

Lord, I sometimes get tired of all my struggles. Amen.

4"'God can You see me as others see me? 5Can You feel for me as do mortals? 6Why do You look for my faults and try to find my sins? 7God, You know I am not guilty; yet there is no relief for my agony." {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21}

Lord, help me to see Your great plan for my life. Amen.

⁸Job said, "God, You formed me with Your hands, You can destroy me when You want. ⁹God, You formed me from the dust of the ground and one day I'll return to dust. ¹⁰God, You were present when I was conceived, ¹¹You saw me become skin and bones. ¹²God, by Your grace, You gave me life; You preserved me to this minute. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

13"Yet You had plans for me I didn't know about, ¹⁴You watch to see if I'll sin against You and You're ready to punish me when I sin. ¹⁵If I have sinned against You, then I deserve my suffering. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} But I know I am innocent, yet I still suffer in pain. I can stand before You blameless because I know I have lived in integrity. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ¹⁶Yet You allow pain to hunt me like a tiger; pain is one way Your power is shown. ¹⁷I can't get away from my predicament; my pain keeps growing like troops attacking me wave after wave." {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21}

Lord, I have difficulty knowing why anyone suffers. Amen.

¹⁸Job questioned, "God, why was I brought from the womb? {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} ¹⁹Why didn't You let me die at birth? Then I wouldn't have this suffering; I could have gone from the womb to death. ²⁰I have only a little time left, so I want Your false comforters to leave me alone and go away. ²¹When You leave, I'll be happier before I go to my grave. ²²It is a land that is dark as night itself {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} where even the light is black like midnight."

Lord, I have many questions, but I never denied Your power and sovereignty over my life. I acknowledge Your control over all things—even blessings and pain. I praise You for the good things in my life. But when pain and sorrow come, teach me to praise You, even in trouble. Amen.

Job 11 Zophar's First Counsel

¹Zophar jumped into his accusation. ²"Job, you talk too much. I can't remain silent while you babble on. No one is ever proven innocent by much talking. ³Is your ceaseless talking supposed to shut us up? You ought to be ashamed for mocking God. 4You claim your words are right, and you tell God you are upright in your heart. 5I wish God would talk so He would answer you; He would tell you what is right. Doesn't that make common sense to you? {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} God is punishing you for your guilt; your suffering is actually less than you deserve. 7Can you understand the depths of God? {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} Can you discover the mysteries of God? 8God's ways are higher than the heavens; His purposes are deeper than hell. 9God's plans are wider than the universe and broader than the seas.

¹⁰"If God allows a person to be called in judgment or if He allows one to be put into prison, who can stop Him? ¹¹God knows those who are not true; He writes a record of their sins so God knows your heart, Job." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Lord, help me to understand the way You do things. Amen.

¹²Zophar then said, "No human knows everything any more than a donkey can give birth to a man.

¹³"If you will straighten out your heart before God, if you will lift your hands to Him, ¹⁴if you will repent of your iniquity, and quit living in a house of sin, 15then, when you seek God, you will find Him {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} and you will be free from your pain. ¹⁶Then your misery will finally come to an end like a flood, your troubles will pass away. 17 Your life will be bright like the sun and your darkness will be like the morning. 18 You will have courage because there is hope, {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} and you can sleep securely. ¹⁹Many will come again to seek your advice but the wicked will not listen to you. ²⁰The wicked have no hope; they have nothing but despair."

Lord, keep me from being like Zophar who judges others wrongly. Teach me to listen to people and evaluate them according to truth. I don't want to hurt people, I want to help them become strong in faith. Amen.

Job 12 Job's Answer to Zophar

¹Job answered his three friends, ²"You think you know everything and that all wisdom will die with you. ³I can think rationally and I know a lot of things; you three are no better off than I am. ⁴Everyone knows what I've been saying all along; I ask God for help in my suffering, {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} 5but I've become a laughing stock to them. Yes, I have kept my integrity before God and people ridicule and mock me. The rich ridicule those in trouble and despise the poor because they have nothing; yet, in spite of their prejudice, the rich prosper. ⁶The thief also prospers; even those who despise God prosper. So the three of you are wrong; a person doesn't have to be righteous to prosper; you provoked God with your silly talk.

⁷"Go ahead, ask the dumbest animal, then study the birds flying in the sky; 8also look at the fish of the sea. ⁹Every one of them knows 10God's hand has created everything. 11Just as my mouth knows what food it tastes, so my mind knows the truth it hears. ¹²Older men—like me—may be wise, ¹³but all true wisdom comes from God; {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} He alone knows what we should do. God has great strength; 14when He destroys something, no one is able to rebuild it. 15When God withholds the rain. the earth becomes a desert. When God sends the rain, a flood destroys all within its path. 16When God limits a man, he cannot escape. With God is all wisdom and all strength; He does what He wills with deceivers and the deceived. 17God can take away the good judgment of counselors so that their decisions are illogical. ¹⁸God can take away the judgments of kings so that their office is taken from them. ¹⁹God can disgrace the strong men of the king and take away their weapons in which they trust. ²⁰God can silence the trusted counselors which He should do with you three comforters." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Lord, I recognize and yield to Your sovereignty in my life. Amen.

As Job said, ²¹"Lord, You humble the earthly leaders, and take away the strength of the mighty. ²²You make light to overcome darkness and You shine light in the blindness of men. ²³You lift nations, and You put them down; You let nations, conquer, and You let them collapse. ²⁴You take away the wisdom of leaders so they stagger in the wilderness without a path. ²⁵They search for light in the darkness and stumble as a drunkard." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Job 13 Job's Faith in God

¹Job said, "I have seen the things you describe so I know what you are trying to do to me. ²I have as much learning as you do; you are not wiser than I am. ³I want to talk directly to El Shaddai; I want to explain to Him my case. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} Apparently you three have not understood my case. ⁴You are telling me things that are not true; as teachers, you have failed the course you teach. ⁵Keep quiet, and don't show your ignorance. ⁶Listen to what I have to say." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

Lord, may I learn how to answer my critics from Job. Amen.

Focusing on the Person of God

7"Don't try to defend God with your counsel because you are dishonest; you don't tell the truth. 8You should be objective when talking about God, but you twist the truth about Him, giving your false interpretation of El Shaddai. 9You think you are presenting the truth from God; be careful God doesn't find out the errors you're saying. 10 You cannot mislead God like you try to mislead me. You'll be judged by God for your hypocrisy. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 11Doesn't the thought of a holy God scare you? Be careful God doesn't judge you for your slander. 12 Your arguments are like burned out ashes blown away by the wind. Your reasoning has crumbled like a broken clay pot that shatters into pieces." {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

Lord, teach me to look beyond my critics to see You. Amen.

¹³Job told his comforters, "Be quiet. I will tell you the truth as it is and I will take my punishment if I am wrong and you are right. ¹⁴I will stand on my faith in God; I am ready for what comes my way. {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} I will take responsibility for my life but I'll believe and say what I think. ¹⁵Though God may slay me, yet I will trust Him {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} and I will affirm my faith in God. ¹⁶God is my salvation, but you hypocrites will be judged by Him. In my integrity, I believe in God; if I did not, He'd cast me out of His presence." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Lord, may I have strong faith like Job. Amen.

¹⁷Job told his three counselors, "Hear me out, ¹⁸I will prove my innocence. You haven't proved me wrong; ¹⁹I would keep silent if you did." {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

²⁰Job prayed, "O God, I want You to do two things for me. 21First, remove Your hand of affliction from me {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} and don't torment me with this suffering. ²²Second, invite me into Your presence {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} so You will see my faith and integrity. ²³If I have done anything wrong, show me my sin and transgression. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ²⁴Why have You hidden Your face from me? Why have You treated me like an outcast? {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ²⁵I am as worthless as a dry leaf or as dead grass; ²⁶why am I suffering? ²⁷My feet are chained and I am in prison; I am afflicted with this torture.

²⁸"I am as useless as rotten wood; I am like a moth-eaten coat." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} Lord, I don't want to hide anything from You; show me any hidden sin. Forgive me for the wrong I do intentionally, and for secret sins I do unintentionally. Cleanse me by the blood of Jesus Christ and restore me to intimate fellowship with You. Amen.

Job 14 Suffering

¹Job said, "Those born of woman only have a few days, and their life is filled with suffering.{465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²We are born with the beauty of a new flower but quickly we are cut down and die. ³We are like shadows that creep across the ground, then we disappear as though we had not been here." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Lord, help me to make my days count in this short life. Amen.

Job said, "You three friends know life is frail; {176 Frailty-Confession Prayer, Ps. 90:12} what more do you expect of me? ⁴Those born in iniquity cannot be perfect, so I'm not sinless, but I can live without blame. ⁵The Lord has determined the years we should live, and knows when we will die; we will not live longer than He decrees." {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59}

Lord, may I rebuke people with a kind spirit. Amen. Job said, "So give me a little room to be human and quit looking at me as though I'm guilty. ⁶We are all employees of God; let's finish the task He's given us in life.

7"When a tree is cut down 8the roots can sprout again even though its roots have been there a long time. 9But there must be water to give it life so it can grow into a new tree. 10When a person breathes his last and dies {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} where are they when their life is gone? 11As water evaporates in the hot sun and as steam disappears when there is no rain, 12so a person dies, is buried, and is gone.

13"They will not awake or return from the grave until heaven passes away and the resurrection gives them new life." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} Job prayed, "O hide me in the grave and keep me there until the resurrection so I can rid myself of this agony. I know You have an appointed time for me to die and I am ready to go, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} but think of me in the final day. ¹⁴When a righteous mortal dies, can he live again? The resurrection gives me hope in suffering and death. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 15When You call for me in death, I will answer; 16then You'll know my integrity 17 and my sin will no longer be a question.

¹⁸"Just as mountains crumble and rocks tumble, ¹⁹as water wears away stones and the earth erodes, ²⁰so man's hope is gone." {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

Lord, You let death overtake all people, and the body rots away to nothing. But one day I shall be raised in the resurrection. Amen.

²¹"In death no one knows what happens to their children; ²²they leave this earth in pain and grief." {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59}

Lord, I know I will die—as all people die, but I have trouble handling pain and fearing the unknown; help me to die well when the final chord is sounded for I know I'll be raised in the last day with a newly transformed body. Amen.

Job 15 Eliphaz's Second Response

¹And then Eliphaz sarcastically answered Job. ²"If you are as wise as you claim, why are your words so foolish? You are full of the hot air of the east wind. ³What good is all your talking when you don't know what you're saying? ⁴You have no fear of God, {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} and you don't know how to pray to God. {106 Definition of Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ⁵You are justifying your sin and you deceive yourself. ⁶I don't have to condemn you because your speech proves you are guilty." {209 Guilty-Blocking Prayer, 1 John 3:21}

Lord, help me not retaliate against sarcasm just as Job had to listen to Eliphaz. Amen.

⁷Eliphaz asked if Job were the first person born or if he was born before the hills were created. ⁸"Do you think God speaks only to you? Do you think you're smarter than everyone? ⁹What insights do you think you have and what do you know that we don't? ¹⁰The three of us are older and wiser than you; we are older than your father. Why don't you respect us and listen to us as you would your father?" {421 Sarcastic-Worship, John 19:2}

Lord, what can I do when my friends misunderstand the ways You work in this world? Amen.

¹¹Eliphaz asked, "Why don't you let God comfort you; {73 Comfortable Place to Pray, John 18:2} are you hiding a secret sin? ¹²What has blinded you to the truth? Why are you looking the other way? ¹³Your stupid words and arguments prove you have turned against God.

¹⁴"What person goes through life without sinning and who is perfect and righteous? ¹⁵Even the heavens are not clean; God can't even trust His angels. ¹⁶So how much more corrupt is a sinful person who always seeks his selfish pleasures?" {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5}

Lord, teach me to listen to my friends and not answer sarcastically when they are sarcastic to me. Amen.

¹⁷Because Eliphaz had more experience, he demanded that Job listen to him. ¹⁸"Wise people have been my teachers and they learned their wisdom from their fathers. ¹⁹God gave the earth to our forefathers not to these strangers who are moving in." {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

Eliphaz Again Falsely Accuses Job of Sin

²⁰"Wicked people are tortured in this life, they are scared to death all the time. ²¹Even in prosperity they fear the destroyer. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} 22Wicked people are scared of the darkness; they think they'll be killed. ²³They are always hanging on to their money, thinking they'll end up in poverty. ²⁴They know the darkness of death is coming {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} so they are constantly terrified. 25 They clench their teeth at God and dare El Shaddai to judge them. 26With their fleshly weapons of war, they want to fight against God. Job, you are fighting against God." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

Lord, give me a humble spirit so I won't hurt people. Amen.

²⁷Eliphaz criticized Job, "Wicked rich people blind themselves with money and think it will protect them. ²⁸But their houses crash in around them and the world they build also collapses, just as your wealth disappeared. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁹The wicked rich will not endure; their money will slip through their fingers and their belongings will disappear. ³⁰They can't escape darkness; the flames will lick about them and the breath of God will destroy them. 31They are deceived who trust in self-effort, they are only fooling themselves; they have no reward beyond the grave. ³²The wicked shall die before they are ready. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} What will his belongings do for him then? 33 They'll be like green grapes picked too early, only to spoil. They'll be like an olive tree that sheds its flowers so no olives grow on the tree. ³⁴The ungodly will not have anything in death because the flames will burn everything up just as you, Job, have lost everything. 35Evil people think up evil to satisfy their flesh, it all comes out of an evil heart; that's your problem, Job." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

Lord, may I never wrongly accuse a fellow Christian of sin, especially when I don't know all the facts. May I listen to hurting people, be kind to them, and pray for them. Give me a considerate heart. Amen.

Job 16 Job's Second Answer to Eliphaz

¹Job told Eliphaz, "I've heard this stuff before, ²you're a bunch of lousy comforters. ³Is there no end to your constant criticism? What motivates you to keep up your attacks? ⁴I could criticize you if I were in your place; also I could describe your sin eloquently or share my negative opinion of you. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ⁵But that's not what I would do; I would say things to help you, I would try to ease your grief." {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30}

Lord, give me the patience of Job to endure criticism and help me answer with a patient spirit. Amen.

6"But you three counselors haven't helped me. I still am grieving over my loss and it doesn't help when I have to defend myself."

Lord, help me deal with critics when it's my time to suffer. Amen.

7Job told his critics, "You have stomped on me and said I have destroyed my family because of my sin. 8You say I am a skeleton, just skin and bones which proves I am a sinner. 9You say God hates me; He's eating me alive and is tearing me apart because of my sin." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

¹⁰Job told his critics, "Everyone laughs and makes fun of me, they constantly take jabs at me. Everyone has turned against me. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} ¹¹They say God has thrown me to the dogs and delivered me into the hands of the executioner. In my integrity I know I haven't sinned but I don't understand why I'm suffering." {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

Lord, help me look beyond my suffering, help me understand Your plan for my life. Amen.

¹²Job said, "I was minding my own business, yet God allowed the destroyer to attack me. ¹³I became a target for the evil one who attacked me with vengeance; my blood spilt on the ground. ¹⁴He attacked me again and again with an unrelenting assault.

¹⁵"Now I sit in burlap and ashes, my body is ravished with pain. ¹⁶My face is tired of weeping and my black eyes look like I'm dying. ¹⁷Yet, my hands are free from violence and my prayer is pure." {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2}

Lord, teach me how to pray when I suffer. Amen.

¹⁸As Job prayed in the valley of the shadow of death, {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} he said, "The grave hasn't covered me yet; I'm not dead, I'm still continually praying for a miracle. ¹⁹Everyone in heaven knows my good witness and I need an intercessor before the throne, {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} pleading my case before God. ²⁰But my three friends don't pray or plead for me, even when I ask sincerely for their help with tears. ²¹I need an arbiter between me and God as a man pleads for his neighbor. ²²In a few years I'll die, and I'll go to the grave where no one returns."

Lord, give me the patience of Job to endure suffering. Also, I need his wisdom to endure the sarcasm of critics. Lord, give me a sweet answer to my critics and help me look to You in suffering as did Job in his pain. Amen.

Job 17 Help Me

¹Job prayed, "My spirit is broken and I'm about to die. {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} ²These three mockers sit all around me and I can see bitterness in their eyes. ³You must defend me, O God, because no one else will take my side. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ⁴The minds of my three friends are blinded to the truth; don't let them get the best of me. ⁵They have flattered me to my face but their angry hearts denounce me; their children will be just as blind."

Lord, I don't understand why You let righteous Job suffer just as I'll probably not understand why I'll suffer in the future.

Amen.

⁶Job said, "God, why have You let people mock me and spit in my face? {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ⁷I'm almost blinded with my tears and I'm a skinny bag of bones. ⁸The upright are angry because of what's happened to me; the average person is angry at my three friends. ⁹The righteous people will still believe in You and those with clean hands will grow in spirit." {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22}

Lord, help me answer my critics with kindness. Amen.

¹⁰Job told his three critics, "Turn around and look at me, I don't see an honest man among you. 11My days are almost over, and my life dreams are crushed. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} 12You critics don't know the difference between night and day; you are blinded to the truth. 13You say light is coming but I'm going to a dark grave. 14I might as well call the grave my home and the worms my provider. {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} 15Where then is my hope in this pain? {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} Who can find some hope to give me in this world? 16Will you three comforters follow me into the grave to see if I've found any hope?"

Lord, it's hard to see any good thing coming from my pain, but help me trust in You until the day I die. And if I die with pain, keep my hope strong in You. Amen.

Job 18 Bildad's Second Speech

¹Bildad attacked Job, asking, ²"How long will you keep justifying yourself? When you wise up, we'll talk. ³Do you think we three counselors are as stupid as dumb animals? ⁴You can split hairs all you want, but you won't change anything on earth; not one rock will be moved. ⁵It's still clear; the light of the wicked goes out and sparks in a fire will die; and you, Job, are being punished for your sin. 6The lamp in your house will go out and glowing embers in your fireplace will become black. ⁷Your wickedness will destroy your confident swagger and your scheme will collapse. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ⁸You, like the wicked, will be ensnared in a trap. 9A rope will grab you by your foot; 10when the noose tightens, you'll not get away. 11Dangers surround the sinner on every side; they're waiting to eat you alive. ¹²Suffering wants to make a meal of you; destruction will consume the sinner. 13Disease already is eating your skin and death is gradually devouring you." {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:3}

Lord, keep me from being calloused to the hurting. Amen.

¹⁴"All your arguments will be ripped to shreds and you'll be dragged terrified before the destroyer. ¹⁵Strangers will live in your earthly home but you'll be like ashes, burning in brimstone and sulfur. ¹⁶Your roots below will dry up and rot; your branches above will wither. 17All memory of you will be erased, no one will even know you ever lived. 18 You will be thrown out of the light and you'll be cast into eternal darkness. 19 You will not have a son or posterity; your line will be snuffed out. 20People in the West are astonished at your fate, people in the East are horrified. ²¹Everyone will remember you were a wicked man, they will say you rebelled against God." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, may I never become so angry that I accuse anyone of the things Bildad said about Job. May I have a kind spirit and may I have words of kindness for distressed people. Amen.

Job 19 Job's Reply to Bildad's Second Attack

¹Job robustly defended himself, saying, {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} 2"How long will you irritate me? How long will you keep up your attacks? {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} 3You've assaulted me ten times with your accusations you ought to be ashamed of yourselves. ⁴Even if I have hidden sins, that is none of your business. 5You've taken a pious attitude about my suffering and you use my suffering to prove your point. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} 6It's not my sin that's done this to me; it's all within God's sovereignty. He's put me in this hole for a reason." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Lord, help me see Your great purpose in suffering and help me learn to live for You through trials. Amen.

⁷Job cried out, "When I yell for help no one seems to hear me; life is not fair. {57

Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} *God has me pinned up behind a fence, it's too dark to see any escape route. *God has stripped me of my position and respect; He has taken away all the authority I had. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31} *God has broken down all my defenses, He has uprooted me like a tree; it is finished, I have no hope. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} *IGod seems to be angry with me; He treats me like an enemy and sends attackers to destroy me. *I2God's troops have surrounded my home and are ready to attack me."

Lord, I know it's easy to complain; keep me from accusing You of wrongdoing. Amen.

¹³Job prayed, "God has kept my brothers from helping me in my troubles; He won't let my friends come to my rescue. 14My relatives have let me down; my close friends have forsaken me. ¹⁵Those living in my house treat me like a stranger, my servants won't even attend to me. 16When I call for my staff, they won't come even when I beg for help. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹⁷My wife rejects me because I have bad breath, my sores are repulsive to children and they laugh at me. ¹⁸All my close friends turn their backs on me; 19those I love have turned away. ²⁰I'm nothing more than skin and bones; I stay alive by the skin of my teeth." {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21}

Lord, when I reach out for help in my hour of trials, send someone to help me. Amen.

Job Asked His Three Friends for Help

²¹"I need your comfort, not your criticism. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ²²Why are you causing me grief? Hasn't God given me enough grief? {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30}

²³"I wish my defense were written in a book ²⁴or carved on a monument so everyone would know eternally. Oh, that everyone would realize I trust God; {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ²⁵I know that my Redeemer lives and that in the resurrection I'll stand on this earth. ²⁶After my body decays in the grave, in my flesh I'll see God. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ²⁷I'll stand before God and see Him with my eyes; this is my only hope. ²⁸If you keep accusing me of evil ²⁹you three will suffer the punishment that you wish for me." {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

Lord, give me the deep conviction of Job about the resurrection and hope of heaven. I'm not ready to die; I have a lot of things I want to do on earth. But when it comes my time to die give me the faith of Job. Help me look confidently beyond the grave to see You in heaven. Amen.

Job 20 Zophar's Second Speech

¹Zophar ignored Job when he said, ²"You make me angry with your rebuttals, ³I've endured your drivel long enough; now I'm going to tell you what I really think.

⁴"Don't you know that from the very beginning the wicked prosper for only a short time? ⁵Just as you prospered but lost everything, the ungodly are not happy very long. ⁶The wicked man thinks he is the biggest thing in the world; he thinks his head reaches to heaven. ⁷But the ungodly disappears like garbage; his friends ask, 'Where did he go?' ⁸He is like a night dream that is forgotten, like a thought that is fleeting; ⁹no one will see him anymore. ¹⁰His children will beg for food, they will have to pay back his debts. ¹¹The wicked may have been a young man, but his bones rot in the desert." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, help me listen when people confess their faith and help me look for their strengths, not their failures. Amen.

¹²So Zophar said, "Wickedness tastes sweet in your mouth. You savor its delicious taste, you roll it on your tongue; ¹³you keep it in your mouth to enjoy its flavor. ¹⁴Yet your wickedness makes you sick to your stomach; it's like a snake's venom that will kill you. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} ¹⁵Your wickedness is eating up your wealth, you vomit your sin up, but it's still there. ¹⁶Your money is like the poison of asps, the viper's fangs will kill you." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Lord, Zophar had a mean spirit; give me love for all people. Amen.

¹⁷Zophar said, "You will never again enjoy the rivers even when streams flow with honey and cream. ¹⁸You'll have to give away money, the money you worked for; you won't get to enjoy any of it. Your hard work will not be rewarded, your wealth will not give you any joy. ¹⁹Because you have oppressed the poor, you've taken away their homes.

²⁰"Because your greed is unquenched, you've never been satisfied with what you got. ²¹You eat up everything in sight because of your sin and callousness, ²²you've lost your wealth and health." {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

²³Zophar prayed, "May God give Job a belly full of pain. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} May God rain trouble on Job, ²⁴the trouble he planned for other people. ²⁵When arrows are pulled from Job's body, may they sparkle with his blood, telling Job he's dying. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²⁶May his treasures be lost in the darkness, and may a forest fire destroy everything he has. ²⁷May heaven reveal Job's guilt ²⁸and may the earth agree by washing away everything he has; ²⁹this is the way God deals with sin." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, the prayer of Zophar was cruel and wrong; keep me from wrongly judging anyone. Lord, You are the only One who can judge anyone. When You come to judge me, be merciful. Amen.

Job 21 Job's Second Answer to Zophar

¹Job answered Zophar, saying, ²"Listen to every word that I say so you won't misunderstand what I mean. ³When you know how God deals with people then you can continue your mocking, if you wish.

4"My complaint is with the way people react. I have reason to be short tempered; I'm not complaining with the way God treats me. {345 Patience-Prayer, James 5:7-8} 5When you look at me, you'll be shocked so hide your eyes with your hands. 6When I realize what's happened to me, I'm stunned and I tremble with fear." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

Lord, help me answer my critics carefully. Amen.

⁷Job clearly presented his case to Zophar saying, {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} "Do not some wicked people grow to a ripe old age? And don't some get wealthy and have good health? ⁸They see their children prosper {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} and they enjoy their grandchildren. ⁹Their houses are safe from thieves and destruction, God does not seem to punish all the wicked in this life. ¹⁰Their businesses succeed and become larger; they enjoy the fruit of their labors. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} 11Their little children laugh and play around the home, 12there is the sound of happiness in the home. ¹³They spend their days enjoying their life and they die a peaceful death. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁴These are the same wicked people who reject God and say, 'Leave us alone; we won't follow You.' 15 These wicked people sarcastically ask, 'Who is El Shaddai that we should obey and serve Him?' {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} They ask, 'What advantage is there for us to pray? Why should we pray to God?" ¹⁶Job concluded, "Don't the wicked prosper? It doesn't seem the sinner always suffers. You three are wrong in your arguments.

17"The wicked seem to get away with doing wicked things; they are not punished each time they sin. ¹⁸God seems to let some of them get away with sin; they just bounce along like straw in the wind. ¹⁹Some foolishly say, 'God will at least punish their children,' but each person is accountable for his sin; their children are not punished for their father's iniquity. ²⁰Each one will suffer for his wrong doing. El Shaddai will eventually judge the sin of each. ²¹What pleasure can God get from the one who is cut off in death?"

Lord, help me see the big picture before answering my critics. Amen.

²²Job said to Zophar, "No one can teach God anything; He knows perfectly how to deal with everyone. ²³One person gets very rich and dies in perfect health, 24even though he had plenty to eat. ²⁵Another dies poor, having had a hard life. 26 Both are buried in the earth, both pass from this life and are gone." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Job confronted his three counselors, ²⁷"I know what you're thinking, you're plotting a scheme against me. 28 You will tell me about rich people who lost everything; you say it was because of their wickedness. ²⁹But everyone knows rich people don't have it hard. ³⁰Punishment bypasses them. ³¹and no one punishes him for what he has done wrong. 32When the rich are buried, ³³everyone shows up for their funeral. The earth receives his body just as sweetly as it receives the poor. ³⁴No, you three are wrong in your logic; {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} God does not punish all the wicked rich. Your words are no comfort to me."

Lord, help me remember that You don't punish a person on this earth; Your judgment comes after death. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Then every person will be condemned for their rebellion against You. Thank You that Christ died for my sin and that I face no condemnation after death. Amen.

Job 22 Eliphaz's Third Counsel

¹Eliphaz didn't understand God's ways when he asked Job, ²"Can your actions help God in any way? No! Your actions benefit only yourself. ³Is El Shaddai pleased when you try to act righteous? {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} That would make no difference to God.

4"Is God punishing you severely because you never reverence Him? 5Is not your wickedness great and your sin without limits?" {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10}

Lord, may I never wrongly accuse my friends of sin. Amen.

⁶ Eliphaz asked Job, "Did you lend money to a friend and then keep his clothing that you took as collateral? ⁷Did you refuse to give water to a tired traveler or a meal to a homeless vagrant? ⁸You were a wealthy land owner who was respected and powerful. ⁹Did you refuse to contribute to widows and send orphans away empty? ¹⁰You're surrounded with danger because of your sins and you're scared of more suffering to come. ¹¹Your sin has blinded you to the causes of your problem; you're covered with problems because you won't repent." {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

Lord, may I not use my knowledge of You as a club to beat someone into seeing things my way. Amen.

¹²Eliphaz asked, "Isn't God in the heights of heaven higher than the farthest star? ¹³Job, don't say that's why God can't see you; God can see through the blackness of the universe. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹⁴Job, you say the clouds block God's view; God wanders around in heaven but God knows everything you do. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} ¹⁵Are you going to keep believing in the old traditions, the ones that deceive wicked people? ¹⁶Those traditions didn't work for them, they failed, and now the wicked are gone. ¹⁷They said to God, 'Leave us alone. El Shaddai can't do anything for us.' ¹⁸Eliphaz said, "I can't see why the wicked said this. El Shaddai has filled their houses with good things. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21}

¹⁹"When the righteous see the wicked destroyed, they will laugh and rejoice; ²⁰the last of them are burned up in fire."

Lord, help me to listen to the Holy Spirit's voice and not be distracted by the bad advice people give me about Your will. Amen.

²¹Eliphaz told Job, "Stop fussing with God; you will have peace when you yield to Him. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ²²Listen to what the Spirit is saying to you and He will prosper you again. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ²³If you return to El Shaddai, He will receive you and restore your life to you. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} ²⁴Quit lusting after riches and give away all the money you've horded. ²⁵Then El Shaddai will be your reward and you'll have more happiness than money can buy. {212 Happiness Inspired by Prayer, Matt. 5:3-8} ²⁶El Shaddai will be your delight and you'll be able again to see God. ²⁷When you keep your vow and pray to God, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} He will hear you and answer you. ²⁸Your plans will be successful and God will shine His light on your path. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²⁹You will then realize why God has brought you low; it was because of your past pride but you'll be saved if you'll be humble. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ³⁰If your hands are clean and your heart is pure, {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} God will deliver you from this mess."

Lord, take away any blindness I have to my sin; keep me from being belligerent like Eliphaz. Help me to see my sin as You see it, and I'll repent and seek Your forgiveness. Help me live a pure life. Amen.

Job's Third Answer to Eliphaz

¹Job told Eliphaz, ²"I'm complaining like a bitter old person, and groaning like a broken man. ³But I'm looking for God and can't find Him; {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} I need to talk to Him about my troubles. ⁴I would like to tell Him my side of the story, ⁵then I'd listen to His explanation and understand why I'm suffering. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ⁶I don't think God would argue with me; He would pay attention to what I've got to say. ⁷God would be fair and honest with me, we'd both know that's it's not because of any sin."

Lord, help me find You when I search for answers to my problems. Amen.

Job said, 8"I search for God in the East, He's not there; I didn't find Him in the West. 9I didn't find God when I searched in the North, and I still didn't see Him in the South. {190 God-Hunger Prayer, Matt. 5:6} 10 Yet God knows the way I take, and when He has tried me in the fire I'll come out like purified gold. {491 Trial-Purifying Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7} 11 have followed God's footsteps. I didn't turn to the right or the left. 12 I have not disobeyed the commands of His mouth, but have guarded His words in my mouth." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

Lord, help me obey You when I can't hear Your voice and follow You when I can't see Your guiding hand. Amen.

¹³Job said, "No one can change God, and He does not change His mind; He accomplishes what He wants to do. ¹⁴So God controls my life, He will do with me what He wills. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹⁵When I think of God's awesome sovereignty, I am terrified and worship Him. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹⁶God made my heart tender to do His will; I am afraid to disobey Him. ¹⁷My suffering has imprisoned me, I am surrounded by impenetrable gloom." {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

Lord, I want the faith of Job to trust You in dark sufferings, when I can't see my hand in front of my face. I yield my life to You, as did Job; and just as Job worshiped You when he didn't know what to do, so I worship You. Amen.

Job 24 Questions

¹Job asked, "Since God knows what'll happen every day, why doesn't He tell those who know Him what is going to happen each day? {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

²"Why doesn't God punish the wicked because they move the stakes that mark property? ³The wicked rustle flocks and sell them for profit, and they steal welfare checks from the poor. ⁴The wicked foreclose on the property of poor widows and push away the needy. ⁵The wicked force the hungry to scrounge for food in garbage dumps or any place they can find it so they have just enough for their family." {514 Victory Over Doubt-Prayer, Mark 11:23}

Lord, may I never mistreat poor people. Amen.

⁶Job said, "The poor work to make money for their boss, but don't get a bonus or raise. ⁷The poor don't have clothes to keep them warm; they shiver in the storms and rain. ⁸They try to get protection any way they can, it's almost impossible to keep warm." {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

Lord, may I never be heartless as some wicked rich people. Amen.

⁹Job said of them, "They mistreat orphans. ¹⁰The wicked rich force the poor to hock their clothes before they will loan them any money, so the poor have to freeze in cold weather. The wicked rich force the poor to serve their tables, but won't give them any food. ¹¹The wicked rich make the poor work in their shops, but won't give them fair wages for their work. ¹²The poor everywhere are crying for help, yet God apparently does nothing about it." {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

¹³Job said, "Wicked people rebel against the light. Evil people refuse to learn what is right; {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} they will not live by Your rules."

Lord, it's so obvious that wicked people prosper on this earth even when they rebel against Your principles. Don't let me be blinded by money and power; I know You'll punish the wicked at the Great White Judgment throne. Help me live by Your godly principles during my time on earth. Amen.

¹⁴"The murderer rises from his bed to kill the innocent and needy; when it's dark he becomes a thief. ¹⁵The adulterer waits till no one sees him; he doesn't want people to know what he does. ¹⁶They commit their crimes under the cloak of darkness; they sleep in the daytime. None of them knows what is right or wrong; ¹⁷they can't tell the difference between dark crimes, and doing good things in the morning light. They use people's fear of darkness to cover their wickedness." {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

Lord, I pray for evil people to get saved.

Amen.

¹⁸Job says, "The wicked will disappear from the earth. The wicked are scum that's washed away with the flood; all they acquire is cursed. ¹⁹The wicked will melt away just as heat melts the snow. Hell will eat them up. ²⁰The wicked will be forgotten by his mother and the worms of death will feed sweetly on him. No one will remember the sinner; they will be broken like a limb is snapped in a windstorm ²¹for they have taken advantage of the orphans, and refused to help widows." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, help me to see life through Your eyes to understand justice. Amen.

²²Job said, "God puts down the wicked even if they rise for a short time. ²³God allows the wicked to live for a time, but He constantly watches their actions. ²⁴Though the wicked may be momentarily powerful, they're gone in the twinkle of an eye. They are gathered in death like everyone else; then their bodies shrivel up and die." ²⁵Job challenged his three counselors, "Tell me if I'm wrong; no one can prove otherwise." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Job 25 Bildad's Third Response

¹Bildad said, ²"God has all power and dominion, He rules in high places; men should fear Him. ³God has more armies than anyone can number, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} and He gives light to all on the earth. ⁴How can you, Job, possibly stand before God and claim to be righteous? No one on earth is pure. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ⁵Even the moon that shines at night or the sparkling stars are not pure. ⁶How can you claim to be pure, you're just a worm in God's sight?"

Lord, I know I'm a sinner and I'm not perfect. But I am grateful the blood of Jesus Christ Your Son cleanses me from all sin (1 John 1:7). I stand perfect in Your presence because Jesus has taken away my sin. Amen.

Job 26 Job's Response to Bildad

¹Job told Bildad, "You haven't done anything. ²You haven't given help to the helpless, nor rescued a person who was lost. ³You give me un-needed advice, you haven't said anything that makes sense. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ⁴Where did you get all these ideas? Are you repeating what you've heard from others?"

Lord, may I know how to answer bad advice. Amen.

Job declared, "The dead tremble before You; ⁶even hell can't hide from You. ⁷God hangs the earth on nothing, and spreads the northern sky in empty space. 8God fills the thick clouds with rain, and they do not burst with its weight. 9God covers His throne so no one can see it; no one can see God and live. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 10God fixed a boundary between light and darkness; He determined the oceans would not flood dry land. 11By His power God stirs up the seas with a storm, 12 and by His skill He stills the face of the waters. ¹³By God's Spirit He makes the heavens beautiful and His power restrains the slithering serpent." {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

Lord, I see so many reflections of You in this world, yet there is so much more to discover. Help me understand Your purpose for my life, and help me learn of You in Your Word. Amen.

14"We see only the edges of His power, and we hear only a whisper of His voice. When His power thunders across the land, who can fully know His greatness?" {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Job 27 Job Maintains His Integrity

¹ Job took an oath as he continued to answer his critics. ²"I swear by the living God who has taken away my rights, and I vow by El Shaddai who has dealt bitterly with me, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

3that as long as I live and as long as I have breath 4I will not curse or speak evil nor will I tell a lie. 5I can't say what you three want me to say; that would be telling a lie. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ⁶I will not disobey my conscience, and I will keep my integrity till I die." {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ⁷Job said, "May you three be like the wicked who will suffer the fate of the unrighteous. 8What hope will you hypocrites have when God takes away your life? {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} Will God hear the cry of the wicked? 9Will God help them when trouble comes? 10 The problem with the wicked is that they will not call upon El Shaddai; they will not turn to God." {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} 11Job said, "I will teach you about the hand of God, and what El Shaddai will do to the wicked. 12 You've seen this before, so why are your words so meaningless? ¹³"The unrighteous will be judged by Him. ¹⁴If the wicked are rewarded with many children, 15they will still die by starvation or illness; no one will grieve them. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} 16If the wicked have lots of money and clothes, ¹⁷someone else will spend their money and wear their clothes. 18 If the wicked build a large mansion, it will collapse like their evil reputation. 19The wicked will go to bed rich, but all their wealth will be gone when he wakes up. 20 The wicked are fearful of everything all the time; they can't sleep at night for worry. 21 The eastern sandstorm blows everything away; 22 they are battered by the storms of life. The hurricanes pound them without mercy; the wicked struggle to survive. ²³The righteous will rejoice when the wicked are judged and cast away."

Lord, I know that You will judge the wicked, so keep me from ignorant sins; or even worse, from rebellious sins. Keep me pure of motives and separate from sin. Amen.

Job 28 Job Discusses Wisdom

¹Job said, "Silver is found in the deep mines, and gold is hidden in veins within the earth. ²Iron must be dug from the earth, and copper must be smelted from rocks. ³Miners must use light to dig in dark caverns, so they can dig ever deeper for earth's treasures. 4They break open new shafts in the earth. Yet those walking on the earth's surface don't know what's beneath them; just as people in this life don't realize the valuable things about them. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1, 8} 5The ground above grows bread to eat; the earth below is mined into precious metals. 6Men have learned how to find sapphires, and how to dig gold out of the ground. 7No high flying falcon can see these precious things; birds of prey can't dig them up. 8No wild beast can unearth them; the lion does not know their value. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} People can crush the rocks to find sapphires; they can overturn mountains to find valuable things. ¹⁰They can cut ditches to discover precious stones, ¹¹and dam up streams to unearth precious treasures.

12"But they do not know where to find wisdom, and they can't unearth understanding. 13No one realizes the value of wisdom; it can't be found anywhere in the earth." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

Lord, I want Your wisdom more than anything in life, and give me understanding to use it properly. Amen.

¹⁴"The heart of the earth says, 'Wisdom is not here,' the depth of the sea says, 'Wisdom is not here!' ¹⁵No one can buy wisdom with gold, and there's not enough silver to purchase it. ¹⁶Not enough gold is in the richest mine to trade for wisdom; neither can onyx nor sapphires get it. ¹⁷In no way can wisdom be compared to gold; a chest of gold could not substitute for it, let alone crystal or any other valuable thing. ¹⁸The price of wisdom is far above rubies, not to mention coral or quartz. ¹⁹The topaz of Ethiopia is not its equal; wisdom is the most valuable thing on earth." {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

Lord, give me wisdom to know all things, and give me understanding to use it properly. Amen.

²⁰Job asks, "Where does wisdom come from? What is the source of understanding? ²¹Inasmuch as the birds of the sky can't see it, it—like jewels and precious metals—is hidden from the eye. ²²Only when one dies and it's too late, do people understand the truth of wisdom. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph.

3:18} ²³God alone understands the value of wisdom; ²⁴He manifests it throughout the earth. ²⁵God who determines the direction and power of the wind, also puts the oceans and rivers in their place. ²⁶God who made laws when the rain shall come also determines when lightning shall strike. ²⁷God who did all this knows that wisdom is the most important thing in the world. God established everything on earth by wisdom, and He tells everyone on earth about its value. ²⁸To obey the Lord is the wisest thing in life, and those with understanding run from evil." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:8}

Lord, I want to be wiser than I am. Take away any blindness I have. Reveal Your plan to me for my life; help me see truth and do it. Amen.

Job's Nostalgic Soliloquy

¹Job reflected, ²"I remember the past days in my life when God watched over me, ³when I had God's light shining on my path, and I walked easily through the dark night. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁴I remember when I was young and I felt the presence of God in my life. ⁵I remember El Shaddai guiding my decisions, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and I had all my children around me. ⁶My businesses prospered, and everything went well.

7"I went to places where important people gathered, and they considered me one of them. 8The young people respected me, and the aged were glad to see me. 9The city officials would listen to me, 10 and they wanted to know my opinions. 11Those who heard me, listened to my thoughts, everyone spoke well of me 12because I gave to the poor who asked for help, and I gave to orphans when no one else would do it. 13I gave help to those about to die, and widows were appreciative of my assistance. 14I did the right thing and people called me righteous. My reputation was like a robe and crown. 15I was eyes for the blind, and feet for the lame. 16I was a father for the needy, and I made sure that everything was done right. ¹⁷I broke the fangs of the wicked, and took victims from their mouths."

Lord, help me look back on my past life, and praise You for Your sovereign leadership. Amen.

¹⁸"I thought I would die comfortably in my own bed surrounded by loving family and friends. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹⁹I was like a spreading fruitful tree whose branches were refreshed by the rain. ²⁰I was constantly renewed, and I kept getting more power.

²¹"People listened to me for my wisdom; they didn't say anything against my opinion. ²²My words were like the dew of the morning ²³and like the rain that refreshed everyone who heard me. ²⁴I encouraged all those who were discouraged, and my optimism lifted them up. ²⁵I could tell people how to live, and they listened to me; I comforted the mourners." {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21}

Lord, Job looked back on all the good things he had in life. I, too, look back and praise You for every good thing that has happened to me. I know that every good thing comes from You. Thank You for them all. Amen.

Job 30 Job Describes His Pathetic Condition

¹Job lamented, "I am now mocked by young men, those thugs who are the lowest in society. ²They attack and hurt me, their assaults do me no good; they have done nothing to help me. ³Hungry, they roam the desert at night. ⁴They gnaw in the dirt for roots of trees. ⁵Their former friends have nothing to do with them. ⁶They live in holes in the ground or among the rocks, ⁷they hide in the bushes like animals. ⁸They are foolish nobodies completely empty of human virtues." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, I understand why Job rejected his ungrateful critics, especially after he had done so much for them. Amen.

⁹Job said, "Now they taunt me, they even use my name as a curse word. ¹⁰They won't come near me except to spit in my face. ¹¹Because God has allowed these troubles to afflict me, {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} they have rejected me and hate me. ¹²These wretched people attack me; they trip me up so I fall helplessly on my face. ¹³They block my way so I can't get through. They laugh at me in public places, knowing I can't help myself. ¹⁴They attack me from the front and behind, and kick me when I fall down. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹⁵I am scared of them because I can't defend myself. My honor has gone, blown away by a strong wind." {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

Lord, I understand why Job is bitter; help me keep my courage when things get dark for me, as they did for Job. Help me rejoice in sufferings as did Paul who said, "I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need" (Phil. 4:12). Amen.

¹⁶"Now I'm a broken old man because of my desperate condition, and no one helps me. ¹⁷I can't sleep because of my pain, like something eating on my bones. ¹⁸My clothes stink and are stained with my sores, my coat hangs on me because I've lost so much weight. ¹⁹God has thrown me into the mud and mire, and I'm just dust and ashes." {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10}

Lord, give me sympathy for Job, and for all others who are suffering from debilitating pain. Amen.

²⁰Job cried, "God, I need You, but You don't answer me. God, I stand before You, but You don't see me. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ²¹Why are You cruel to me? Your powerful hand is persecuting me. ²²I'm tossed to and fro by every wind; I don't know where I'm going. ²³The only thing I know for sure is that I'll die just as every person must die.

²⁴"God, You would not punish a man who is already ruined! If a man cried for mercy, I know You, God, wouldn't destroy him. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ²⁵Have I not wept for those in trouble? {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} Was not my soul grieved for the poor? 26Yet, when I looked for something good, all I got was bad treatment. When I expected light, darkness came and everything was black. ²⁷My mind is all confused, and I don't understand why I am suffering all this misery. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ²⁸I look for the sunshine, but get gloom; I cry for help, but no one answers. 29Instead, people consider me crazy like a hyena, or they think of me as an owl. ³⁰My flesh is black with infection, my skin rots and falls off, and I'm burning up with a fever. ³¹My harp plays only mournful tunes, and my flute accompanies my weeping." {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31}

Job 31 Job's Final Plea of Innocence

¹"I made a vow to have integrity before God; that vow includes not lusting after a woman, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying,

Prov. 7:18} and I have kept that vow." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²Job stated, "God has given to each one of us a choice, it comes with His gift of life to us. ³God will destroy those who work iniquity, ⁴and He rewards those who obey Him in integrity. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2}

5"I have not been a hypocrite or lied to anyone; I have kept my word and done my duty. 6I have always paid my debts, and kept honest books before God. {469 Surety-Praying, 2 Peter 1:10} 7If I didn't walk a straight path, but turned to the left or to the right, 8may I lose everything I gained. 9"If I have given into the enticement of women or lustfully flirted with another man's wife, 10may I lose my family and be humiliated, 11for sexual sin is a crime that should be punished. 12Sexual lust burns like a devastating forest fire, devouring everything it touches. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18}

¹³"I have not mistreated my servants, and I carefully listened to their complaints. ¹⁴How could I face God who created masters and servants if I didn't treat them fairly? ¹⁵God who created me in the womb, also created them.

¹⁶"I haven't refused to give help to the poor, ¹⁷nor have I crushed the expectation of orphans who need help. ¹⁸I learned wisdom as a child listens to his father, and follows the path of his mother. ¹⁹I have given clothes to the poor, ²⁰and they have always thanked me for keeping them warm and protected. ²¹If I have ever hit an orphan or the poor, ²²let my arm fall off in judgment. ²³That would be better than letting God judge me, because I can't endure His punishment. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁴"Making money has never been my life's passion, nor have I placed my confidence in my checkbook. ²⁵My life is not based on my wealth, nor is my happiness dependent on riches and belongings. I have never been enticed to worship idols, nor have I done so. ²⁶I have admired the setting sun and bright morning, ²⁷but never have I thought of making an idol of them. ²⁸Anyone worshiping idols deserves judgment from God {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} for they would have denied God who created them. ²⁹I have never rejoiced when my enemies failed, nor was I glad when they were punished. 30I would have sinned with my mouth, if I cursed those who hate me. ³¹My servants have never turned away the hungry, ³²and I have opened my doors to travelers. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ³³I have not tried to cover my sins as most people do. 34I realize sin can't be covered or ignored; {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} everyone eventually will be found out, and I would be ashamed to show my face in public.

³⁵"If only there were someone who would listen, and not judge me before learning the facts. If only El Shaddai would show me my sins, or someone prove in a court of law that I have broken the moral law. Even if my financial record shows I've stolen, or they find stolen goods in my possession, ³⁶then, I would admit that I have sinned; I wouldn't deny it. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ³⁷Then, let me be judged according to my sins, and let me be punished according to my crime. ³⁸My land cannot say I have planted in a wrong way. ³⁹I have not taken any food without paying for it, and no one can accuse me of stealing from them. ⁴⁰If I have sinned, I will be judged by God." (The words of Job are finished.)

Lord, I want the integrity of Job. I want to be able to stand blameless among people, knowing I have not sinned against them. And if I have sinned against any—show me what I've done—I'll go to them and ask forgiveness. Forgive my trespasses as I forgive those who trespass against me. Amen.

Job 32 Elihu's Response

¹Job's three counselors refused to say any more to Job because he kept maintaining his integrity.

Lord, when I hear the arrogance of Elihu, I am convicted by the pride of my heart. Forgive me of boasting and presumptuousness; keep me from being important in my own eyes. Take away my vanity and give me a spirit of humility. Amen.

²Then young Elihu became very angry at Job because he kept maintaining he was innocent, {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} and because Job felt God was wrong for punishing him. ³Elihu was also angry with the three counselors because they hadn't proven their point, but they unjustly condemned Job anyway. ⁴Elihu had waited until the three quit speaking because of their advanced age, then he was ready to speak. ⁵So Elihu spoke angrily at the three. ⁶Elihu told the three, "I am young, and you're too old to understand the problem. So I held back until you were finished; I didn't dare express my opinion before now."

⁷I thought, "Age should speak first because the aged have more wisdom. ⁸But there is a spirit in a man, and wisdom comes from the breath of El Shaddai. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:8} ⁹Therefore the elders are not automatically wise, and no one automatically gets wise by living a long time.

¹⁰"As a result, listen to me—because I know the answer, I will now tell you the truth. 11I have patiently listened to your words, and tried to follow your arguments as you were searching for the right words. 12I paid careful attention to all three of you, but none of you refuted Job's reasoning; you lost the argument. 13Don't tell me Job is too smart for you, and only God can defeat Job. 14If I had been arguing against Job I wouldn't have used your weak rebuttals. 15You sat there in defeat with no response, and you didn't have anything else to say. 16 Must I remain silent because you lost the argument? 17No! I will tell you what I think. ¹⁸I understand Job's problem, and I can explain the answer. 19I feel like a bottle that's about to explode; I have to speak before I burst. ²⁰I've got to tell you what's on my mind to get any relief for myself. ²¹I won't flatter anyone with what I'll say, and I'll show no favor to any. ²²If I did play favorites—and not speak the truth—my Creator would soon push me aside." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Job 33 Elihu's Charge against Job

Elihu said to Job, ¹"Listen to what I am going to say, and do what I tell you to do."

Lord, Elihu was right in what he knew about You, but he was wrong about Job. Help me to always listen to You so I can know You better. Amen.

²"The truth is on the tip of my tongue; ³my words come from a sincere heart. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ⁴The spirit of God has made me; the breath of El Shaddai gives me life. ⁵See if you can answer me and express your thoughts in logical order. ⁶You and I are the same before God, we are both molded from clay; but I will be your spokesman to God. ⁷You don't need to be afraid of me, I will treat you right."

Lord, help me know who is telling me the truth, so I can trust them in my hour of need. Amen.

⁸Elihu said to Job, "I was previously listening to you, and I heard what you said. ⁹You said you were pure without transgression, and that you maintained your integrity. ¹⁰You claimed God was punishing you, and had made you His enemy, ¹¹that God had made you His prisoner." {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10}

¹²Elihu told Job, "You are wrong in your opinion, let me show you where. 13 You, said, 'God is greater than any person' so why do you fight God? 14God does not need to defend Himself; God has spoken once, sometimes twice, yet you still miss the point." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 15Elihu explained, "God speaks to the minds of people when they are asleep. God speaks in a dream or a vision at night, {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} when a person is sleeping deeply; ¹⁶God warns them of their actions. ¹⁷God wants people to change their minds so they won't be proud and rebellious. ¹⁸God warns so they won't die, or so they won't go to hell."

Lord, may I listen to my conscience as Elihu wanted Job to obey his conscience. Amen.

¹⁹Elihu told Job, "God also warns with pain {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ²⁰so that the body suffers continually ²¹and they waste away to skin and bones. ²²They stand at the doorway to death, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ready to be cast into hell; Job, is this your problem? ²³"Before God, you will need an intercessor {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} who can vouch for your integrity, ²⁴who will plead for God to be gracious to you, because the intercessor has paid a ransom for you, and will redeem you from being cast into hell. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} When your body is then redeemed by God, ²⁵your flesh will be as youthful as a child's. ²⁶You will pray and God will hear you; you will see God's face, and God will reward your faithfulness. ²⁷But you must declare before everyone, 'I have sinned before God; I deserve my punishment.' {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ²⁸Yes, God redeems those heading to hell, {395 Redemptive Prayer for the Lost, Rom. 10:1} God can fill their life with light.

²⁹"God can accomplish all these things for you. He'll do it twice, even three times, ³⁰to bring you back from the edge of hell so you can live in the light.

³¹"Job, pay attention to what I am saying, keep quiet and don't interrupt me. ³²So if you will acknowledge your sin, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} speak because I want to hear it from your lips. ³³If not, then keep quiet; listen to me and I'll tell you the truth."

Job 34 Elihu Tells of God's Justice

¹Then Elihu said to Job and the three counselors, ²"Listen to me, you aged men of wisdom; you don't know as much as you think you do. ³Just as the ear knows good music, and the mouth knows good food, ⁴let us choose what is good in my words. ⁵"Job says, 'I am righteous but God is not treating me fairly.' ⁶Job thinks people accuse him of hiding his sin because he still suffers under God. ⁷Has there ever lived a man as stubborn as Job who denies the truth of his suffering? ⁸Job probably has evil friends, and he probably parties with lawbreakers. ⁹Didn't Job arrogantly say it's impossible to please God? {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

10"Listen to what I think, and you'll agree with me if you have understanding. God cannot sin, nor can El Shaddai do evil. ¹¹He punishes people when they sin, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and He rewards people who do the right thing. Job, it's obvious you've sinned because God is judging your life; if you did good, God would reward you. ¹²Read my lips, 'God will not do wrong, the Almighty will always reward righteousness.' 13God rules the earth because He is God; no one gave Him that authority. 14If God took back the Spirit He gave us, no one would live. ¹⁵Everyone would perish if God judged sin. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁶"If you have understanding, Job, listen to me; could God control the world if He did not punish sin? ¹⁷You make God look foolish by saying, 'I am righteous but I'm also suffering.' {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹⁸Kings who are wicked and unjust will not cause a righteous man to suffer. ¹⁹God punishes the lawbreakers whether they are rich or poor; God treats them all alike. ²⁰All were created by God, and at death's house, they all pass away and are removed from this life. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6}

²¹"God's eyes see all that people do, nothing they do escapes God's watch. ²²There is no darkness in death where the unrighteous can hide themselves; no darkness is thick enough to hide from God. ²³No one has any warning when death comes, {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} and they appear before God for judgment."

Lord, I know You see all I do, and You hear all I say, and You know all I think. Forgive me of any secret sin, and I need Your grace because I am not perfect. Give me Your strength to do better in all of my life. May I continually please You in thought, word and deed. Amen.

²⁴"God allows the mighty to be destroyed, and places another person in their place. ²⁵God knows everything they do, and in one night they lose everything they have. ²⁶God openly judges the sin of the sinner so all can learn from what happened. ²⁷God judges them openly because they have turned aside from following Him. ²⁸God judges the mighty because he has ignored {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} the cries of the poor and oppressed them. ²⁹But if God were absent, and hid His face. we could blame Him with the trouble we see on earth. 30 Just as when an evil person becomes ruler, we could blame Him for our suffering. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} But since God sees all we do, He punishes all our sin. So you, Job, are punished because of sin; God has not hidden His face from judgment.

³¹"No one can ever say to God, 'You have chastened me but I haven't sinned.' ³²Nor have they said to God, 'I will stop sinning if You tell me what to do.' ³³Must God punish according to your standards? The answer is 'No!' But, Job, you think your standards are God's standards.

³⁴ Wise people will say you are not thinking clearly; intelligent people will agree with me. ³⁵Job speaks without knowledge, and his words are without wisdom. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ³⁶Job, you will be on trial for a long time because your answers come from your wicked heart. ³⁷You have added rebellion to your sin, and now you are blaspheming God."

Lord, keep me from criticism when I should be quiet. Help me accept things in life I don't understand, especially when I don't know all the facts. Give me a quiet heart in Your presence. Amen.

Job 35 Elihu Tells of God's Justice

¹Elihu tried to point out Job's inconsistencies, ²"First you claim you are righteous before God, ³then you say living a righteous life has no benefits; let me ask you some questions. 'What's the use of living a righteous life, and will you have an advantage if you don't sin?'"

⁴Elihu said, "Let me answer. ⁵Look to the sky and you'll see it's higher than you. ⁶If you sin, how does it hurt God? If you sin many times how will it affect God? ⁷If you do good how does it help God? Could your goodness possibly contribute anything to God? {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} ⁸No! Your sins hurt only yourself, and your good works only help other people.

9"The oppressed suffer from tribulations, they mourn under those with power. ¹⁰Yet, they never cry out for God, their Creator who gives songs in the night. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ¹¹The oppressed never ask, 'Where is the Creator who makes us smarter than birds and animals?' 12When a person cries out to God, the Lord does not answer that one person because that one finite person would think he alone could get God's attention. ¹³Yet God does listen to what we say; {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} El Shaddai is concerned about our problems. 14And further, God sees what happens down here, and He will judge all evil in this world. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} But you must wait for His time. ¹⁵Job, don't complain to God because He does not get angry, as you have gotten angry. 16You have made yourself look foolish by protesting because you're suffering." {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

Job 36 Elihu Claims to Speak for God

¹Elihu asked Job, ²"Bear with me; I still have words to speak on God's behalf. ³I have learned from many sources about the way the Creator does things right. ⁴I am not stretching the truth; my knowledge about God is true.

5"God is almighty in knowledge and power, so He does not despise anyone." {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1, 8}

Lord, I believe You have power to do anything You desire. I see Your awesome power in all the world about me. Because of Your sovereignty and omnipotence, I will live righteously. Because of Your love for me, I will live godly. Amen.

6"He does not let the wicked get away with their sins, and the oppressed will eventually get justice. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁷He sees everything the righteous do, and rewards rulers who do things right. 8When trouble comes on the righteous and they suffer affliction, God lets them know why they are oppressed. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} 9God shows them their sin when they misbehave; He uses suffering to get their attention {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} 10so they will repent and turn from evil. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Job, why can't you see your condition? God is punishing you because of sin. 11 Those who listen and obey God are blessed by Him. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} God prospers them throughout their life. ¹²If they refuse to listen to God, they will die violently before their time, and they won't realize it's because of their sin. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹³"The evil person hates God; he won't ask for mercy when God punishes him for sin, ¹⁴he dies prematurely because of his wasted life. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁵But God gets the attention of sinners through suffering, and their affliction turns them around. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} And now Job, your wickedness has corrupted your thinking; you have refused to acknowledge the punishment of God.

16"God would have brought you out of this distress, and given you a table full of delicious food, ¹⁷but you have refused to repent. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹⁸The wrath of God is coming shortly, and when it does, it will fall on you because when God punishes the unrighteous, there is no way you can escape it. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 19Job, you have wrongly claimed to be righteous because God blessed you with wealth and position. ²⁰Don't pray for the night to come because that's when most people die. ²¹Don't turn to evil because you feel cut off, for God originally sent you suffering to keep you from evil. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²²God has all power; no one can teach lessons like God. ²³No one can tell God what to do, no one can tell Him He made a mistake. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} ²⁴Always sing the praises of God; magnify His works in the world. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ²⁵I'm telling you things that everyone knows, but no one knows the ways of God completely.

²⁶God is exalted greater than our understanding; no one can number His years. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²⁷God draws water into the clouds, ²⁸then He distills it into rain that falls from heaven and benefits all below. ²⁹Can anyone understand how the clouds spread out over heaven, or how thunder rolls over the earth, ³⁰or how it replenishes the ocean depths? ³¹By these mighty demonstrations of power, God provides abundant food for us to eat. ³²His hand is evident in the crashing thunder, and ³³the storm demonstrates

His power to judge." {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

Job 37 Elihu Continues

¹"The power of God thrills my heart, and I jump for joy. ²Listen, you'll hear God speaking through thunder; it rumbles from His mouth across the valleys. ³God's thunder is heard every place under heaven, His lightning spreads out over the whole earth. ⁴Next comes the echo of the thunder, it returns as a roaring voice, and God does not hold back its volume. ⁵God's voice is glorious and majestic; we humans cannot fathom the greatness of His power." {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

Lord, You are great in power and wisdom. You created the huge things in this universe and I stand in awe of Your power. Your wisdom created the complexities of human beings and I praise You for how I am created. Your beauty is seen in the design of this universe. I worship You. Amen.

6"God tells the snow to fall in the winter on the earth. {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5} In the spring He directs both the gentle and heavy rain. 7Then everyone stops working till the rain is over, and they watch God's power with amazement. 8When winter comes, animals go into their dens and remain there for the season. 9Storms come from the south, biting winter winds come from the north.

¹⁰God blows on the ponds of water, and they freeze, turning to ice. ¹¹The clouds roll and swirl in the air, they go where God commands. ¹²God causes things to happen on earth ¹³either to correct His people, or to bless them for His mercy. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

¹⁴"Job, you need to listen to me; think about all the works of God. {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5} ¹⁵Can you control the storms like God? Can you bring lightning flashing from the clouds? ¹⁶Can you place the clouds in the sky as God did? Don't you know that God has perfect knowledge and power? ¹⁷Can you bring the sweltering heat from the sky so that your clothes are wet with perspiration? ¹⁸Can you make the cooling wind die down so that people are baked by the sun, like a giant fire that burns the skin?

19"Tell us what to say to God; are we left in the darkness? ²⁰Job, tell God we want to speak to Him; don't let God eat us up alive. ²¹We cannot look into the face of God just as we cannot look into the bright sun when there's not a cloud in the sky. ²²Golden splendor comes from God's presence; He is surrounded with awesome majesty. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ²³We cannot begin to conceive His majesty, yet in His power God doesn't squash us; and in His mercy God doesn't oppress us (as you, Job, think God oppresses you). ²⁴Therefore people everywhere fear God. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} Wise people will honor Him."

Job 38 God Challenges Job with His Power

¹The Lord answered Job out of the storm, ²"Who is this, Job, who speaks out of ignorance to question My way of doing things? ³Stand up like a man to take My criticism, I will ask the questions and you must answer Me. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 4Where were you when I created the earth? You must answer that question since you think you're so smart. ⁵Do you know who determined how big the earth would be, and who drew its design? ⁶Do you know who laid the earth's foundation, or who laid the cornerstone? ⁷The angels were watching from the first row of heaven, applauding and singing for joy. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5}

8"Who determined the boundaries of the sea so that it stays in its appointed place?
9And I covered it with clouds, and clothed it with thick darkness. 10I pre-appointed the ocean into its place and limited its shores. 11I said, 'You will come no farther,' the roaring waves must stop at its shores. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

¹²"Can you command a new morning to dawn and give to the world a new day, ¹³so that the wickedness done at night is brought to an end? ¹⁴Can you make the red sun rise to shine its golden rays to all, ¹⁵so that light dispels wickedness and stops acts of violence?

¹⁶"Do you know the source of the waters of the sea, have you explored the depths of the oceans? ¹⁷Do you know the location of the doors of death, or can you find the gates to hell? ¹⁸Do you understand everything about the earth? Tell Me if you know it all. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

¹⁹"Do you know where light comes from? Where does darkness go where there is no light? ²⁰Can you lead someone to the home of light? Do you know where to find it? ²¹Do you know all these answers? Were you living when I created everything? Are you old enough to know all things? {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

²²"Have you gone to snow houses to get snow? Do you know where to find hail? ²³I keep the snow and hail to send in a time of trouble, to carry out My purpose in the world. ²⁴Where does light come from? And where is the east wind when it's not blowing?

²⁵"Who cuts the channels where rivers flow, and who controls where lightning strikes? ²⁶Who makes rain fall in the barren desert where no one lives, ²⁷soaking the dry desolate earth until grass sprouts out of the ground? ²⁸Does the rain have a father, or does the dew have a mother? ²⁹Who gives birth to the frost that falls around you, ³⁰and ice that becomes hard as stone, and who freezes solid the surfaces of water? {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

³¹"Can you tie the stars into a cluster or hold back Pleiades and Orion? ³²Can you make sure the seasons come in proper order or guide the stars across the sky? ³³Do you know the laws of the heavens that control the universe so that it properly influences the earth? {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

³⁴"Can you yell loud enough to make it rain? ³⁵Will the lightning go where you command it to strike? ³⁶Who created people with the capacity to know things and gave them the ability to understand things? ³⁷Can you count the number of all the clouds? Can you tilt over the water jugs of heaven ³⁸to turn dust into mud?

³⁹"Can you provide food for the lioness ⁴⁰to feed her young lions' hunger? ⁴¹Can you provide food for the ravens to give to their young hungry children?" {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5}

Chapter 39 God Continues

¹The Lord asked, "Do you know when the wild mountain goats give birth?"

Lord, You are holy and I am sinful. You are powerful and I am weak. You are majestic and I am lowly. You are so pure that I am not even fit to praise You with my limited vocabulary and doubting heart. Thank You for having mercy on me. Amen.

²"Do you know how many months they carry their young? ³Or when they crouch down to give birth? ⁴Their young grow up in the open, then become strong and leave, never to return.

5"Who makes the wild donkey roam freely, who gives him freedom to roam anywhere? 6I made the desert its home and allowed it to live there. ⁷The donkey is stubborn and will not heed the shouts of its drivers. ⁸It ranges over the hills for food, searching for anything green to eat.

9"Will a wild ox willingly serve you, and listen to your directions? 10Can you tie a rope around his neck to make him plow straight rows? 11Can you trust him to do your heavy work because of his great strength? 12Can you rely on him to gather grain and bring it to your threshing floor? ¹³"Do you know why the ostrich flaps its wings? It can't fly like the stork. 14She lays her eggs in the sand for the warm ground to hatch them. ¹⁵She doesn't realize a foot could crush them or a wild animal could destroy them. ¹⁶The ostrich treats its young heartlessly as though they were not her own. She doesn't worry about those things; once she lays her eggs, she goes her way. 17I have not given wisdom to the ostrich; it is devoid of understanding. ¹⁸But when she gets up to run she is faster than a horse with a rider. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

¹⁹"Did you give the horse its strength, and did you clothe its neck with a mane? ²⁰Did you create the horse to leap like a locust; isn't its snorting majestic? ²¹The horse paws the ground to show off its strength and then it charges unafraid into battle, ²²not fearing imminent danger. ²³When arrows fly in the heat of battle and swords slash around it, ²⁴the horse rushes fiercely into danger. ²⁵When the trumpet sounds to attack, the horse senses the battle is on, and charges toward the enemy. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

²⁶"Were you wise enough to create a hawk that spreads its wings and soars in the sky? ²⁷Can you command the eagle to fly into the heavens and build its nest in the heights? ²⁸It lives on rocky crags, and ²⁹from there it spots its prey afar off. ³⁰The eagle brings back the spoils of war to feed its young." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Chapter 40 The Lord Speaks

¹Moreover, the Lord said to Job, ²"Do you still want to debate with Me? Those who argue with El Shaddai must still answer to Me." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

God, You can do all things You decide to do. Only You are omniscient; You know all things possible and potential. Only You are omnipresent, You are everywhere present at the same time. You are completely infinite and marvelous and I am only human. I praise You for Your greatness and majesty. Amen.

Job Responds to the Lord in Repentance

³Then Job replied to the Lord, ⁴"I am vile and ashamed to speak. I have no answer for You; I cover my mouth and won't speak. ⁵Once I have said too much so I won't make a second mistake by talking too much." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

God Challenges Job

⁶The Lord answered Job out of the storm and said, {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ⁷"Stand at attention like a man because I have some more questions that you must answer.

8"Are you trying to reverse My decisions, are you trying to prove Me wrong that you may be right? 9Is your arm as strong as Mine? Can your voice thunder like Me? 10If you think you can, then robe yourself in splendor and show your majesty. 11Display your anger against sin and all who are proud to bring them down. 12Let your glance punish the wicked, walk on those who oppose you 13 and bury them in the dust. 14If you, Job, can do these things, you are strong enough to survive.

¹⁵"Look at the mighty hippopotamus; just as I created you, I created it. He eats grass like an ox. 16He has great strength in his loins and muscles in its stomach. 17He moves his tail like a cedar branch, and the muscles in his thighs are strong. ¹⁸His bones are like bronze pipes, his limbs are like bars of iron; 19 only his Creator can frighten him. ²⁰The mountains grow food for the hippopotamus where all the wild beasts live. 21He lies quietly under the thorny lotus bushes ²²and is hidden by the reeds in the swamp. ²³He is not concerned when the floods rage, even when the water rushes into his mouth. ²⁴Can anyone tame him to follow them? Can they lead him with a nose hook?" {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5}

Lord, You have made everything for its purpose. Everything is to glorify You. Help me find my purpose and do it that I may glorify You. Amen.

Chapter 41 The Lord Continues

1"Can you fish for a crocodile with a hook? Can you tie his mouth with a rope? ²Can you put a ring in its nose and lead him about like a tamed animal? ³Can you play with him like a house animal? 4Can you work him on the farm? 5Could you put a string around its neck and let little girls play with him? 6Will merchants try to sell him and would customers buy him? ⁷Can an arrow penetrate his skin and can a spear slice his head? 8If you even touch one, you'll have such a terrible fight you'd never want to do it again. No, you can't capture the crocodile without a great fight. ¹⁰Since you wouldn't disturb a crocodile, then who is able to stand up to Me? Who has ever fought against Me and prevailed? {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5} 11I am describing the awesome power of the crocodile.

¹²"He has strength throughout his huge body. ¹³Who can penetrate his scales ¹⁴or open his massive jaws? ¹⁵His protection is the row of scales ¹⁶so close to the other ¹⁷that no air can get through. ¹⁸Light flashes out when he sneezes, he sees through the slits in his eyelids like the sliver of the sun as it rises. ¹⁹Out of his mouth goes fire, and sparks leap from his tongue. 20Steam rises from his nostrils 21 like a pot boiling on the fire. ²²The crocodile has a hard, strong neck 23that scares those who meet him in the way. ²⁴His heart is as hard as a stone. ²⁵Even the mighty are afraid of him. ²⁶A sword is useless against him, neither will arrows or spears harm him. ²⁷He bites through iron as if it were straw and bronze as if it were rotten wood. ²⁸He doesn't run from arrows 29 and stones from a slingshot are nothing; clubs are useless, and he laughs at sticks. 30 His belly is slick like pottery; he easily glides across the mud. 31The crocodile stirs the river like boiling water; he leaves a wake when swimming. 32There is no creature on earth like him; ³³he fears no one and no other animal. ³⁴He looks up at all the tall animals, but he is king over these proud beasts. Since I created the small and great and put them all in their place, do not I have the right to do as I please {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} with people I have made on this earth?"

Job 42 Repentance and Restoration

¹Then Job replied to the Lord, ²"I now realize You can do everything {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5} and no one can obstruct what You do. ³You asked, 'Who is this that ignorantly wants to know what I can do?'" Then Job admitted to the Lord, "I asked foolish questions; I did not understand Your wonders, Your wisdom is far beyond me.

4"Lord, You told me to listen to Your questions; {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} You, Lord, told me I had to answer them. 5"I, Job, had only heard about You with the hearing of my ears. But now I have seen with my eyes, now I have experienced Your presence personally. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} "I'm sorry for my rash statements. I repent in dust and ashes." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

⁷After the Lord finished speaking to Job, then the Lord said to Eliphaz, the leader of the counselors, "My anger is directed toward you and the two friends with you because what you said to Job was wrong. My servant Job said the right things about Me. 8Now the three of you must get seven sacrifices, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} give them to My servant, Job. Then he'll offer these sacrifices for you and I will accept his intercession when he prays on your behalf. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} I will not punish the three of you with the treatment you deserve for you have not spoken rightly about Me as My servant Job has demonstrated faith." {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} So Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar obeyed the Lord, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and the Lord accepted Job's prayer for them. ¹⁰After Job interceded for his counselors, {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} the Lord restored his wealth, giving him twice what he previously had. 11 Then Job's brothers, sisters, and former friends returned to eat a meal in Job's home. They comforted Job because of all the sufferings he had endured, bringing him money and gifts.

¹²The Lord blessed Job's latter state more than before his trials, giving him twice as much wealth. Now Job had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 2,000 oxen, and 1,000 donkeys. ¹³He had seven more sons and three more daughters. 14Job named the first daughter Jemimah, the second, Keziah, and the third, Keren-Happuch. ¹⁵Job's daughters were the most beautiful in the land, and he gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ¹⁶After this, 70-year-old Job lived another 140 years; God doubly blessed his faith. Job was able to see his sons and grandchildren up to the fourth generation. ¹⁷Then Job died after having a long, good life. {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} (The Septuagint adds—And it is written that he shall rise again {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} with those whom the Lord raises up.)

Lord, thank You for the promises of Your blessings on those who trust and obey You. I claim these blessings for a good life down here on this earth and for blessings in heaven with You. Amen.

THE BOOK OF PSALMS

CH 1: A PRAYER OF GRATITUDE FOR GOD S BLESSING
756
Ch 2: A Prayer to God about Those Who Rebel AGAINST HIM AND HIS SON756
CH 3: A PRAYER FOR GOD TO DEFEAT YOUR ENEMIES
757
CH 4: A PRAYER ABOUT YOUR ENEMIES WHEN THOUGHTS ABOUT THEM KEEP YOU FROM SLEEP757
Ch 5: A Prayer of Commitment to God and a Request to Eliminate Enemies758
Ch 6: A Prayer for God to Listen and Answer 759
CH 7: A PRAYER FOR GOT TO PUNISH THE WICKED759
Ch 8: A Prayer of Thanksgiving for Your Place
IN CREATION760
CH 9: A Prayer for Deliverance from Your Enemies and for God to Punish Them760
CH 10: A PRAYER FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF THE WICKED
761
CH 11: A PRAYER FOR GOD'S JUDGEMENT ON THOSE Who Attack His Truth762
CH 12: A PRAYER AGAINST THE ENEMY'S PROPAGANDA
CH 13: A PRAYER FOR PERSEVERANCE AGAINST THE ENEMY'S ATTACKS

Сн 14:	A Prayer about Those Who Deny God764
Сн 15:	A Prayer That Asks God Who Are His
	CHILDREN764
Сн 16:	A Prayer for Resurrection When Death
	Is Near
Сн 17:	A Prayer for Victory as the Enemies Are
	ATTACKING765
Сн 18:	A Prayer of Thanksgiving for Deliverance
	FROM DANGER766
Сн 19:	A Prayer for Wisdom So You Can Answer
	Doubters
Сн 20:	A Prayer for Protection against Opposition
	AND A PRAYER FOR VINDICATION WHEN DOING THE RIGHT THINGS769
Сн 21:	A Prayer for Leaders to Defeat the Wicked
Сн 22:	A Prayer for Help When Being Attacked by Enemies
Сн 23:	A Prayer Recognizing God's Protective
	Relationship to You771
Сн 24:	A Prayer for Your Final Recognition and Triumph over the Enemy772
Сн 25:	A Prayer of the Weak Believer for Help
	IN TROUBLE

CH 26: A	PRAYER OF A CONSCIENTIOUS BELIEVER WHO
Is	SINCERE773
Сн 27: А	Prayer to Be in God's Presence for
P	ROTECTION774
Сн 28: А	Request for God to Hear Your Prayer
W	WHEN THE WICKED OPPOSE YOU774
Сн 29: А	Prayer That Is Revealed in A Thunderstorm
G	LORIFYING GOD FOR HIS POWER775
Сн 30: А	Prayer of Gratitude to God for Good
Н	EALTH776
Сн 31: А	Prayer to Help You Face the Lies of Your
E	NEMY776
Сн 32: А	Prayer for Forgiveness after Committing
Sı	IN
Сн 33: А	Prayer for God to Bless Sincere
P	EOPLE778
Сн 34: А	Prayer of Gratitude for Deliverance
FI	ROM TROUBLE779
Сн 35: А	Prayer for God to Intervene When
"I	Friends" Lie about You780
Сн 36: А	Prayer that Explains the Difference
В	etween Godly and Rebellious People781
Сн 37: А	Prayer Thanking God for His Protection
0	f Good People and His Punishment of
W	VICKED PEOPLE782

CH 38: THE PRAYER OF A PERSON WHO IS SUFFERING
Because He Did Wrong784
CH 39: A Prayer to Use Opportunities Wisely in This Short Life784
CH 40: A PRAYER FOR HELP IN TIMES OF DIFFICULTIES
785
CH 41: A Prayer for Healing So Your Enemies Won't
Spread Gossip that You Are Sick786
CH 42: A PRAYER TO EXPERIENCE THE PRESENCE OF GOD CH 43: A PRAYER FOR HOPE WHEN YOU ARE DISCOURAGED788
CH 44: A Prayer for God to Stop Allowing Our Enemies to Defeat Us788
CH 45: A PRAYER OF GRATITUDE FOR A GOOD POLITICAL Ruler
CH 46: A PRAYER THAT ANTICPATES GOD'S PROTECTION
During the End Times Judgment790
Ch 47: A Prayer Glorifying the Lord Who Rules
THE EARTH790
CH 48: A Prayer of Thanksgiving for God's Protection of Jerusalem791
CH 49: A Prayer about the Futility of Money, Power
AND WISDOM WITHOUT GOD792
Ch 50: A Prayer-Recognizing That God Will Judge

Everyone by His Heart Attitude793
CH 51: A PRAYER SEEKING RESTORATION TO FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD AFTER YOU SIN794
CH 52: A PRAYER THAT RECOGNIZES GOD'S JUDGMENT
ON LIARS, BUT HIS CARE FOR HIS PEOPLE795
CH 53: A Prayer Thanking God for Delivering His People and Judging Sinners795
CH 54: A Prayer of Deliverance from Your Enemies and God's Judgment on Them796
CH 55: A Prayer for God to Destroy and Enemy
Who Used to Be a Friend796
CH 56: A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM A PARTICULAR
Enemy797
CH 57: A PRAYER TO GLORIFY GOD WHEN ENEMIES
Attack798
CH 58: A PRAYER RECOGNIZING EVIL IN THE WORLD
798
CH 59: A PRAYER TO DEFEAT YOUR ENEMIES AND PRAISE
When God Does It799
CH 60: A PRAYER FOR GOD TO RETURN AND HELP FIGHT
Your Enemies800
CH 61: A PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE FROM YOUR ENEMIES
AND BLESSINGS ON YOUR LEADER800
CH 62: A PRAYER FOR GOD TO PROTECT YOU WHEN YOUR Enemies Have the Upper Hand801

CH 63: A PRAYER OF REJOICING BECAUSE YOU HA	VE
Worshiped God	801
Ch 64: A Prayer for Victory against Your En	EMIES
	802
CH 65: PRAISE FOR GOD'S PHYSICAL PROVISION	803
Ch 66: Thanksgiving for God's Forgiveness a	ND
Provision	803
CH 67: A Prayer for the Coming Kingdom of Prosperity	804
CH 68: PRAISE FOR GOD'S FINAL VICTORY OVER H	lis
Enemies	805
Cн 69: A Prayer for God to Save from Troub	LE
	806
CH 70: A PRAYER FOR GOD TO COME QUICKLY TO	HELP
You	807
CH 71: A PRAYER FOR CONTINUED PROTECTION II	n Old
Age When You Can't Protect Yoursel	F808
CH 72: A PRAYER FOR THE MILLENNIAL KINGDOM	от п
Come and for Jesus to Rule the Earth	809
CH 73: A PRAYER THAT RECOGNIZES GOD WILL R	EWARD
You for Faithfulness and Punish the	Ungodly
FOR THEIR REBELLION	810
CH 74: A PRAYER TO RECOGNIZE THE POWER OF C	God and to Call on Him to Crush Your Enemie	S811
Ch 75: A Prayer that Recognizes God's Punis	SHMENT

OF THE WICKED AND HIS PROTECTION OF THE HUMBLE812
CH 76: A PRAYER OF PRAISE TO GOD BECAUSE HE JUDGES REBELLION812
CH 77: A PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE813
CH 78: A PRAYER THAT RECOGNIZES GOD'S FAITHFULNESS
IN THE FACE OF ISRAEL'S UNFAITHFULNESS 814
CH 79: A Prayer for God to Punish Those Who Persecute Israel816
Ch 80: A Prayer for God to Deliver the Rebellious
People of Israel817
CH 81: A Prayer of Grateful Worship818
CH 82: A PLEA FOR GOD TO SET ALL THINGS RIGHT.819
CH 83: A Prayer for God to Destroy His Enemies
AND RULE THE EARTH819
CH 84: A Prayer to Enjoy God's Presence in His House820
CH 85: A Prayer for Revival821
Ch 86: A Prayer for Help in the Face of Danger 821
CH 87: GEOGRAPHICAL PRAYER822
CH 88: A PRAYER WHEN PUNISHED823
CH 89: A Prayer for Claiming God's Promises823
Ch 90: A Prayer to Use the Time Allotted to You825

CH 91: A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM CONSTANT
Dangers of Daily Life826
CH 92: PRAISE TO GOD FOR GIVING YOU STRENGTH .827
CH 93: A PRAYER TO RECOGNIZE GOD'S MAJESTY828
Ch 94: A Prayer for Patience until God Judges
YOUR OPPRESSORS828
CH 95: A Prayer of Praise to God and Warning to
THE WICKED829
CH 96: A Prayer to Glorify God829
CH 97: A Prayer of Rejoicing that Recognizes the Future Reign of the Lord830
CH 98: SINGING A NEW SONG TO GOD831
CH 99: Praise for God's Past Faithfulness831
Ch 100: A Prayer of Gratitude when Entering God's Presence832
CH 101: A PRAYER TO LIVE BLAMELESSLY832
CH 102: THE PRAYER WHEN WE ARE ALIENATED833
CH 103: A PRAYER TO BLESS THE LORD834
CH 104: PRAISE TO GOD BECAUSE OF HIS CREATION.835
CH 105: A Prayer to Remember God's Deliverance
FROM EGYPT836
CH 106: A PRAYER TO REMEMBER GOD'S
Faithfulness838
CH 107: A PRAYER TO REMIND YOU OF GOD'S Punishment when You Rebel and His Blessing

WHEN YOU OBEY840
CH 108: A PRAYER FOR DIVINE HELP IN BATTLE 841
CH 109: A PRAYER OF JUDGMENT ON YOUR ENEMIES
842
CH 110: A PRAYER FOR JESUS TO REIGN843
CH 111: A PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING BECAUSE YOU Understand and Follow God's Principles844
CH 112: A PRAYER FOR A GODLY TESTIMONY844
CH 113: A PRAYER OF PRAISE TO GOD845
CH 114: A PRAYER THAT RECOGNIZES THE POWER of God's Presence845
CH 115: A LIFE OF PRAISE FOR GOD'S BLESSING 846
CH 116: A PRAYER OF GRATITUDE FOR DELIVERANCE
846
CH 117: A PRAYER OF PRAISE FROM ALL PEOPLE847
CH 118: A PRAYER OF GRATITUDE TO GOD FOR VICTORY AND SALVATION847
CH 119: A PRAYER FOR GOD TO USE HIS WORD IN YOUR Life848
CH 120: A PRAYER FOR PEACE854
CH 121: A PRAYER OF GEOGRAPHICAL RENEWAL854
CH 122: A PRAYER FOR PEACE IN JERUSALEM855
CH 123: A PRAYER FOR ACCEPTANCE BY GOD855
CH 124: A PRAYER OF GRATITUDE FOR DELIVERANCE

855
CH 125: A PRAYER FOR PEACE FOR THE GODLY856
CH 126: A PRAYER FOR RENEWAL856
Ch 127: A Prayer of Gratitude for Your Family856
CH 128: A PRAYER OF BLESSING UPON THE HOME 857
CH 129: A PRAYER AGAINST YOUR ENEMIES857
CH 130: A PRAYER FOR FORGIVENESS AND Acceptance858
CH 131: A PRAYER OF COMMUNION WITH GOD858
CH 132: A Prayer for the Messiah to Come858
CH 133: A Prayer for Unity among Believers859
CH 134: A Prayer to Bless the Lord859
CH 135: A Prayer of Praise that Surveys All God
Has Done for His People860
Ch 136: A Prayer of Thanksgiving for God's Provision in the Past860
CH 137: A PRAYER TO REMEMBER GOD861
CH 138: A Prayer for God's Deliverance from Trouble862
Ch 139: A Prayer of Thanksgiving for God's
Oversight of Your Life862
Ch 140: A Prayer to Punish Those Who Attack the Godly863
CH 141: A PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE FROM EVIL

PEOPLE864
CH 142: A PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE FROM TROUBLE
865
CH 143: A Prayer for Deliverance from Your Enemies
CH 144: A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION AND PROSPERITY
866
CH 145: A PRAYER TO MAGNIFY GOD BECAUSE OF HIS Faithfulness
CH 146: A PRAYER TO PRAISE GOD FOR HIS WATCH
Care867
Ch 147: A Prayer to Praise God for the Blessings
OF LIFE868
CH 148: A Prayer of Worship and Praise869
Ch 149: Praising the Lord with Singing869
Ch 150: A Prayer of Praising the Lord in the Assembly870

The Book of PSALMS

Key Word: Praise. All but one sentence in Psalm 150 begins with the word Praise.

Key Verse: "Let the heavens declare His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge" (Psalm 150:6, NKJV, last verse in the Psalms).

Theme: The Psalms were written as prayers for the Hebrew people to sing. Their music was their deep feeling about God, or a prayer to God. Therefore each psalm is a worship event. Thus some psalms are re-written into prayers. Instead of reading "The Lord is my shepherd," you'll pray, "Lord, You are my shepherd." Lord, teach me to talk to You through Scripture. Amen.

Each psalm is a mirror that reflects your soul. As you pray them, you'll see in these mirrors your sin and hypocrisy more clearly than ever before. So pray the psalms of repentance and turn to God. But you'll also see in these mirrors the essence of a godly life. Then pray with the psalmist, "As the deer pants for the water brooks, so pants my soul for You, O God" (42:1). Look deep into each mirror and you'll see God. While this is not a theology textbook on God, you'll see many aspects of His person and attributes as you read through this Prayer Bible. Lord, I want to know You. Amen.

The Psalms are poetry, not like English poetry with rhyme and meter, for example, "Roses are red, violets are blue, the angels in heaven, know I surely love you." Hebrew poetry had neither rhyme nor meter. Their poetry had rhythm as they accentuated different phrases, so that the poetry was matched phrases. The secret of Hebrew poetry is that thoughts matched, no matching rhymes or meter.

The Psalms are written in prayers so we can identify with them and pray them. But not all the psalms were originally prayers to God. Some psalms were originally written as devotional thoughts about God (Psalm 23); a few psalms pour out anger at enemies (Psalms 3 and 4). Some psalms are instructional (Psalm 119), teaching the law of God. But in this book all of them are transposed into prayers in modern language so you can pray the words to talk to God.

Lord, I want You to feel my passionate love for You as I pray these psalms, and I want You to feel my anger as I vent my feelings about evil people. Sometimes I pray these psalms begging You for protection... for rest... or from relief from pain. Sometimes I ask You for forgiveness, or for Your guidance in my life. I need to touch You and let You touch me. I pray these psalms in order to enter Your presence. Amen.

Psalm 1 A Prayer of Gratitude for God's Blessing

¹ I am happily blessed, O Lord, so I don't walk according to ungodly counsel, hang out with sinners, or sit with scorners. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 2Lord, I delight to live by Your principles, and I love to meditate in Your Word. {302 Meditation-Prayer, Josh. 1:9} 3Lord, may I be like a hearty tree planted by living waters; that each season bears spiritual fruit whose leaf never stops growing. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} ⁴The ungodly are not so; They are like the husk the wind blows away, 5they shall be punished in Your judgment, they shall not enter the congregation of Your people. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ⁶Lord, You watch over the path of those who do right but the path of the ungodly

The person who is blessed of God, or who is happy, is the one who separates from evil and meditates on God. We meditate on God when (1) we reflect on God's past goodness to us; (2) we appreciate our salvation; (3) we make plans to live for God or serve Him; (4) we "think our thoughts" the way God intends; or (5) we contemplate God's goodness and greatness. Lord, I focus my thoughts on You and Your plans for my life. I look to You only for happiness. Amen.

leads to destruction. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

Psalm 2 A Prayer to God about Those Who Rebel against Him and His Son

¹Lord, I don't understand why the unsaved rage and fight against Your plans, ²why rulers do everything contrary to Your will and resist the ways of Christ. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ³They strive to throw off Your restraints and say, "Let us get rid of these chains." {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

⁴But You, Lord, laugh as You sit in heaven and You scoff at their rebellion. ⁵You are angry at their defiance, terrifying them with Your judgment. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁶You have declared, "I established My King to rule; He will reign from the holy hill of Zion." {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21}

⁷Your King is Your only begotten Son, He will execute Your will on earth. {162 Father-Cry Prayer, Gal. 4:5} ⁸You have given Him all people and ethnic groups; He owns the uttermost parts of the earth. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ⁹Your Son will punish rebellion with a rod of iron; He shall crush rebels in their defiance. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁰What should be the response of the kings of the earth and what should human judges do? {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ¹¹Tremble before the Son because He is the Lord; serve Him with fear. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹²Love the Son, lest He be angry when He destroys all rebellion that stands in His way. Blessed are all those who trust Your Son. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

Not only do the unsaved refuse to believe in God and accept His salvation, they also inwardly hate God. Everyone must make a decision to let Christ sit on the throne of their hearts, or they will allow their "self" to rule their lives. In the struggle the unsaved "prays" (not to God, but it's their passion), "Let us break the chains that God uses to control us, let's refuse to obey God" (v. 3, paraphrase). But the Lord "who sits in heaven, laughs" (v. 4). God will eventually judge them and punish them. Lord, sit on the throne of my life and control all I do. Be glorified in my life. Amen.

Psalm 3 A Prayer for God to Defeat Your Enemies

¹Lord, I have many enemies who are trying to destroy me. ²They tell me not to look to You, because there is no help in God. Selah!

³But You, Lord, are my protecting shield; You lift me up with encouragement. ⁴I cried out to You for help, You answered me from Your holy mountain. Selah!

⁵I was able to lie down and sleep, because You protected me during the night. ⁶Now I am not afraid of ten thousand enemies, because You are on every side to protect me.

⁷Smite my enemy on his head, shut the mouth of those who criticize me. ⁸Deliverance comes from You, O Lord; bless Your people with victory. Selah!

When we are in an emergency or we are in desperate trouble, we can call on God for help. God will protect us (3:5) and we can sleep securely, knowing that nothing can harm us that's not within God's plan. Help, Lord, when my enemies talk behind my back. Help, Lord, when my enemies attack me to hurt me. Help, Lord, when I can't help myself. Amen.

Psalm 4 A Prayer about Your Enemies When Thoughts about Them Keep You from Sleep

¹Lord, answer my prayer; You know I am sincere. I am concerned and distressed because You have not answered my prayers. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

²People are accusing me of many things; they are attempting to ruin my reputation. How long will they attack me? Selah! {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ³Lord, I am certain of one thing:

You have set apart the godly for Yourself; You will listen to me when I call. {158 Faith-Validated Prayer, James 2:18}

⁴I will not give in to the sin of anger, but will think about You as I go to sleep. {255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24} ⁵I will confess my sin and get forgiveness because You are my Lord. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

⁶Many tell me there are better ways to have a good time, {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:2} ⁷but the enjoyment of Your presence gives me more satisfaction than food and money has given to them. {212 Happiness Inspired by Prayer, Matt. 5:3-8} ⁸Lord, I will lie down and sleep in peace because I know I am safe in You. Selah! {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8}

We pray for God to keep us safe when we face danger or our enemies. No one can take our lives from us but God because His servants are invincible until they have finished the task God has for them on earth. Lord, keep me safe. I will work to accomplish Your will because I trust in You to perform Your will in my life. Amen.

Psalm 5 A Prayer of Commitment to God and a Request to Eliminate Enemies

¹O Lord, listen to my words; consider the things I am thinking. {325 Non-Anxiety Prayer, Phil. 4:6, 7} ²O my God and my King, listen to my prayers because I am speaking to You. {2 Abba-Prayer, Rom. 8:15} ³I know You will hear me in the morning because it is then that I look to You and pray. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13}

⁴I know You do not get pleasure out of wickedness, nor is evil found in You. ⁵Those who sin foolishly cannot enter Your presence because You hate the iniquity they do. ⁶You will destroy those who blaspheme because You reject murderers and liars. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24}

⁷But I can come into Your presence because in mercy You receive me. I fear Your punishment, therefore I worship You in Your holy temple. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} ⁸Lord, help me always do the right thing, especially as I deal with my enemies; I want to live blameless before Your face. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

⁹Lord, I know my enemies never speak of Your faithfulness; they inwardly desire wickedness, their throat is a grave so I cannot trust their words. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} ¹⁰Destroy them, O Lord, with the same damnation that they plan for others because they constantly break Your law and they continually rebel against You. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3}

¹¹Lord, because I have put my trust in You, and because You destroy my enemies, I constantly shout for joy. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹²Let everyone who loves You, O Lord, constantly rejoice in You. I know You will bless the righteous, O Lord, You will constantly defend them. {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1}

We can rejoice for (1) God protects us from our enemies (5:6); (2) God hates sin and evil; (3) God hears and answers us; and (4) God blesses those who do right (5:12). Lord, I have determined to do right; therefore I rejoice in Your protection, because You hate evil and protect those who do right. Amen.

Psalm 6 A Prayer for God to Listen and Answer

¹Lord, don't fuss at me because You are angry at my failures; don't punish me because I've not pleased You. ²Have mercy on my weakness, O Lord; heal me because I am crushed. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ³Lord, I am disappointed in my failures. How long will I have to put up with my weaknesses?

⁴Come deliver me, Lord, from human frailties because You are merciful. I need You to save me from myself. {243 Inner-Strength Request Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:1} ⁵If I die, how can I serve You on earth? How can I worship You in the grave?

⁶I'm sick and tired of feeling bad about my failures; I go to bed crying over my sin. All night long I weep over my predicament.

⁷My eyes are red because I can't cry any longer, grief has made an old man out of me. {55 Brokenness-Prayer, Joel 2:12}

⁸I want everyone who accuses me of sin to leave me alone; You, Lord, have listened to my repentance; ⁹You have heard my prayers, You will answer my request. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ¹⁰Lord, make my enemies ashamed of their accusations; punish them quickly for their complaints. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

The psalmist is crying for mercy because he is in trouble. His pain is almost too much to endure and he is being persecuted by his enemies. A mercy plea is asking God for help based on our predicament and to look on us because of His mercy. Lord, I am in desperate straits. Come help me now. Amen.

Psalm 7 A Prayer for God to Punish the Wicked

¹O Lord, I trust You with my life; {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} save me from those who persecute me. ²They want to rip me in pieces like a lion, thinking no one will deliver me. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31}

³O Lord, let my enemies persecute me if I deserve it, if my hands have sinned, if I have attacked those at peace with me. (Actually, I've done good to my enemies.) ⁴O Lord, if I have done evil things, ⁵let my enemies stomp me under foot, let them drag my honor through the dirt. Selah!

⁶O Lord, wake up Your righteous anger because my enemies are attacking me. Awaken to carry out Your judgment. ⁷O Lord, let Your people gather about You; return so they can enjoy Your presence. ⁸O Lord, I know You will judge all people; judge me first and see that I try to do right. Examine me and see my integrity.

⁹O Lord, stop the wicked from doing wickedness; let the righteous do righteously. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} ¹⁰You can do this because You know the hearts of all.

¹¹Therefore You are angry with the wicked and You are pleased with the righteous. ¹²If the wicked will not repent, You will bring the sword of war against them, ¹³You will attack them with the arrows of persecution, You will visit them with death.

¹⁴My enemy is a friend of iniquity; he thinks constantly of harming others. ¹⁵He always is digging a trap, but he falls into his self-made destruction. ¹⁶His attack on others ends up hurting himself; his wounds are self-inflicted.

¹⁷But You, O Lord, will I praise; for You always deal with everyone rightly. I will praise Your name, O Lord, Most High. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

David is praying for God—who does right—to deal fairly with his enemies. Their evil works should be punished, and David calls on God to punish them according to His justice. Lord, I have tried to do right and my enemies treat me wrongly. I know I am not perfect, so forgive me when I don't measure up to Your standards. But my enemies intentionally do evil and they know they are wrong. Exercise justice. Amen.

Psalm 8 A Prayer of Thanksgiving for Your Place in Creation

¹O Lord, Your name is the most excellent one on earth; You have glorified Yourself by creating heaven. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

²You are praised by babies and infants, but You will not accept praise by Your enemies. ³When I look at the heavens, I see the work of Your fingers; You planned the moon and the stars. ⁴Then I realize mankind is so insignificant, but You reveal Yourself to us who are just humans. ⁵You made us lower than the angels, and You crown us with glory and honor.

⁶You gave us rule over Your creation, You put it under our control. ⁷You have given us sheep, oxen, and other animals; ⁸this includes birds, fish, and sea creatures.

⁹O Lord, You are our Lord; how excellent is Your name on earth.

This is a psalm that worships God for all that He created, including the creation of mankind. Lord, I praise You for the majestic universe that You created. Thank You for making me as I am. Amen.

Psalm 9 A Prayer for Deliverance from Your Enemies and for God to Punish Them

¹Lord, I praise You with my whole heart; I tell everyone about Your marvelous works. ²Lord, I sing praises to Your name most high; I'm happy when I rejoice in You. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21}

³When my enemies return to attack me, they will fail because Your presence is with me. ⁴You support me because I live by the right principles; You always support the right thing. ⁵You rebuke the unsaved who act wickedly, let no one remember them. ⁶Lord, destroy my enemies; destroy their cities and any memory of them. ⁷But You, Lord, will continue forever; You sit on Your throne to judge all people. ⁸You judge everyone in the right way, You judge everyone by the right standards. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

⁹O Lord, those who are oppressed want to hide in You; they want You to be their refuge in troubled times. ¹⁰You have not forsaken those who put You first because they put their trust in You.

¹¹I sing praises to You in Zion, I will tell all people of Your works. ¹²You do not forget to punish murderers, nor do You forget the plea of the humble.

¹³Lord, be merciful to me when my enemies attack me; don't let them kill me. ¹⁴I want those near You in the temple to hear me praise You. I rejoice in Your salvation. ¹⁵The unsaved fall into the evil trap they set for their enemies; they are imprisoned in the cell they prepare for others. ¹⁶Lord, You are known by the right ways You judge people; {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} the wicked are condemned to the punishment they plan for others. Selah!

¹⁷You turn the wicked into the anguish of punishment; You also put in hell the people who deny You. ¹⁸You will not overlook the needy, You will also watch over the poor.

¹⁹Come down, O Lord, so that the wicked will not have their way; bring them before You to be judged. ²⁰Make the pagan fear You and Your judgment, so they will be accountable to You like everyone else. Selah!

We should thank God that He judges fairly according to truth. God does not show partiality. Lord, thank You for being fair with all people. You have judged according to what is fair. Amen.

Psalm 10 A Prayer for the Punishment of the Wicked

¹Lord, why are You so far away from me? When I need You most, You seem to hide. {162 Father-Cry Prayer, Gal. 4:5} ²The wicked intentionally hurt those who can't defend themselves. I pray they suffer the same pain they plan for others.

³These wicked boast about their tricks, they stick up for other evil people, but they hate You, O Lord. {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} ⁴The wicked are too proud to seek You; they never realize they will have to answer to You.

⁵Because every evil thing they do succeeds, they laugh at their victims; they don't know You will punish them someday. ⁶The wicked boast, "I'm not going to get hurt, I am free to do anything I want." ⁷Lord, the mouth of the wicked is full of cursing and lies; their evil plans are on the tips of their tongues. {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2}

⁸They crouch like a lion in dark shadows waiting to pounce on defenseless victims. ⁹Much as a hungry lion goes searching for food, so they go looking for their next helpless prey. ¹⁰Then the wicked drag their bodies away, because the weak can't defend themselves. {218 Help the Oppressed by Prayer, Ps. 10:8-9} ¹¹The wicked say, "God is not watching. He doesn't know what I do. He doesn't care!" {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18}

¹²Come down, O Lord, punish the wicked; do not forget those who can't defend themselves. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ¹³The wicked think they can get away with their treachery; they think You will never punish them. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

¹⁴But You have seen everything the wicked have done. You will not forget those who can't defend themselves. You remember every thought and act of every wicked person. You will take care of those who can't take care of themselves. ¹⁵Break the arm of the wicked; don't let any of them get away. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

¹⁶Lord, You are our King who lives forever; get rid of those who worship false gods. ¹⁷Lord, you understand the desires of those who can't help themselves. Hear their prayers for deliverance. ¹⁸Bring justice to the helpless of this world so they can live in peace. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31}

The psalmist sees the strong greedy people oppressing the weak and he cries for God's justice. This is a prayer against evil in the world. It is also a prayer for help for the oppressed. Lord, when no one else will help the needy, I will pray for them and in my limited way, I will help them. I will do what I can do. Help me help them. Amen.

Psalm 11 A Prayer for God's Judgment on Those Who Attack His Truth

¹I trust You, Lord, when trouble comes; even though people tell me to hide in the mountains. They tell me to fly away like a bird. ²My enemies are getting ready to attack me, they have bows and arrows to kill me; {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ³they will attack anyone who lives right. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ³Lord, if Your foundations of truth are destroyed, what can we do who live by Your principles?

⁴Lord, I recognize You are in Your holy temple; You see everything from Your throne in heaven. ⁵You will judge all people by what You see. Lord, examine both those who live right and those who hate Your principles. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ⁶Lord, punish those who rebel against You with the fire and brimstone of hell. Give them what they deserve. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

⁷Because You are a righteous God, You love those who do right. You favor them with Your presence. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21}

No matter what evil is planned against us, we trust in God who does all things right. God will judge the evil ones in due time. Lord, I trust You to protect me, guide me, and use me. Amen.

Psalm 12 A Prayer against the Enemy's Propaganda

¹Lord, help me to be godly; there are so few left who are faithful. The ones I expect to follow You are falling away. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²They talk with their friends about fleshly things; they lie about You and the truth, telling others it's all right not to follow You. ³Lord, one day You will shut them up; they won't be able to lie about You anymore. ⁴They won't be able to justify their sin; they won't be able to say anything they desire; they won't be able to deny Your rule over them. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

⁵Lord, come strengthen the weak who are resisting the enemy's arguments. Your followers are being knocked down; they are gasping for spiritual breath. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁶Lord, I know Your words are better than what the enemy says; I have repeatedly tried Your promises and they never fail. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} ⁷Lord, I know You will keep those who trust in Your Word; You will preserve them from the enemy's lies, ⁸even when the enemy is all about them. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1}

We must discipline our tongues. God will judge all lying tongues (1) because of the harm they do to others; (2) because it offends God who is truth; and (3) because it destroys our character. Lord, I will tell the truth because You are the truth. I will tell the truth because of the harm that lies have on others. I will tell the truth in order to be honest with my character. Amen.

Psalm 13 A Prayer for Perseverance against the Enemy's Attacks

¹Lord, it seems like You have forgotten me; how long will You hide Your face when I need You? {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ²Lord, I keep looking for You inside my heart; but all I see are shadows and bitterness because my enemies are defeating me.

³Hear me, O Lord, I need Your help; show me what to do or I'll die. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ⁴I don't want my enemies to gloat over me thinking they have made me surrender.

⁵Lord, I trust in Your mercy to save me; I know You will deliver me. ⁶Then I will worship You with singing, because You will abundantly bless me. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

The psalmist is begging God to help him win over his enemy. He is pleading, "How long?" Lord, when I need help, come immediately.

When I don't understand what You're doing, give me patience. Amen.

Psalm 14 A Prayer about Those Who Deny God

¹Lord, fools say You do not exist. They deny You to justify their corrupt lifestyle. They deny You because they don't want to do good. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²Lord, look down from heaven into the hearts of all to see if any understand Your requirements, to see if any seek to know You. ³The deniers turn from You, they do filthy things, they don't want to do good.

⁴Do these deniers not understand what they do? They eat up good people like bread, they never call on You. ⁵Those who do right are afraid to deny You; they don't listen to the enemies; they put their trust in You, O Lord. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ⁶Come from Your home to save Your people.

⁷When you catch us away to take us home, Jacob will rejoice in Your victory; Israel will be glad.

Those who reject God's work in the world (1) deny God's existence; (2) will not call on God; (3) turn to their evil ways; (4) are terrorized by the right; and (5) will turn against those who can't protect themselves. Lord, I know You exist, and You will always do right, You will judge those who reject You, and those who give themselves to sin. Amen.

Psalm 15 A Prayer That Asks God Who Are His Children

¹Lord, who will live with You in Your tabernacle in the holy hill? {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

²Those who follow Your principles, those who do the right thing, those who tell the truth, ³those who do not lie about others, those who do not sin against their friends, ⁴those who recognize the enemies of God, those who don't retaliate, ⁵those who don't charge usury for loans, those who don't take bribes. Lord, honor those who fear Your name {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} because they will live blamelessly for You.

The psalmist asks who the true worshiper is. That person is more than one who enters God's sanctuary with sincere words. He must have a life of good works that backs up his words. Lord, I will live in accord with what I know is right. I will match my words with actions. Be pleased with my speech and my service to You. Amen.

Psalm 16 A Prayer for Resurrection When Death Is Near

¹Lord, keep me safe because I trust in You. {298 Many Ways to Pray, Heb. 2:1-4} ²My soul said, "You are my Lord; apart from You I have nothing to hope for. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ³I don't even put my trust in saints or anyone whom I like."

⁴Those who worship earthly gods will never find peace. I will not worship idols, nor confess them with my lips. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4}

⁵Lord, You are my future inheritance and present protection. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ⁶You are my satisfaction who will protect me in death. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

You have given me a good life; I follow the good heritage of my godly parents. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁸I bless You Lord for guiding me throughout life, You showed me what to do in dark times. I have always made You my guide. I will not be shaken when death comes because You have been at my right hand. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

⁹Now that I face death, I am satisfied; I will die with great hope in the resurrection, {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ¹⁰You will not leave my soul in death, neither will You leave the Messiah in the grave. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ¹¹You will raise us up to live again; we will have fullness of joy in Your presence; we will have pleasures forever. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10}

The true child of God enjoys retreating into God's presence. There they find spiritual strength and healing. There they rejoice and find peace. Lord, I love to come into Your presence to enjoy fellowship with You and worship You. Thank You for renewing me and preparing me to live in an evil world. Amen.

Psalm 17 A Prayer for Victory as the Enemies Are Attacking

¹Listen to the prayer of those who live right; answer my request to You, O Lord, because I am sincere when I pray. {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} ²Examine those who live right, and You will know that I am blameless. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10}

³You have listened to my thoughts, You visited me in the night to see if I sin. You have examined me and found no rebellion, and that is because I determined that my mouth would not transgress. {255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24}

⁴I know the evil intent of those who hate You, so I stayed away from them. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

⁵Keep me in the right paths so that my feet won't slip. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁶I have called unto You because You are listening; answer my request that I make. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ⁷Show Your wonderful love to me, and save me by Your strong hand from my enemies who attack me. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁸Keep me as the apple of Your eye; hide me under the shadow of Your wing. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps.

23:1} Because wicked people are ready to attack me, they have already surrounded me. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ¹⁰They are big and they are powerful; they brag that they will eliminate me. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ¹¹Like a lion ready to pounce on its prey, {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} 12they are ready to eat me up. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ¹³Come to my rescue, Lord, defend me; You can defeat the wicked. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ¹⁴They live for this world, they never think of others, they live to eat, they think only of themselves. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

¹⁵Lord, I will be happy when I see Your face; then I will be conformed into Your image. {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7}

Sometimes we don't come to God to forgive our sins, nor do we ask God to deal with any issue in our lives. We come to God honestly, because we are attempting to live for Him. We cry, "I have done what You told me to do" (17:5), and, "I did not plan any evil" (17:3). Lord, I come honestly and sincerely. You know my heart. Please hear me because what I ask is true. Amen.

Psalm 18 A Prayer of Thanksgiving for Deliverance from Danger

¹Lord, I love You because You strengthen me, ²my rock, my fortress, my God. Lord,

I trust You because You save me, my high tower. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ³I will call on You because You are worthy to be praised; and You protect me from my enemies. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

⁴The threat of death scares me, ⁵the attack of the ungodly terrorizes me. {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} ⁶Lord, when I am afraid, I will call upon You; even though You are in Your temple, You will hear me and give attention to my prayers. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

⁷Then You shook the earth so that it trembled; the hills moved because You were angry. ⁸A flame of judgment came from Your mouth; You set on fire the surrounding hills; ⁹You came down to us walking on the heavens; all darkness was crushed by Your feet. ¹⁰You came flying to us on the wind, riding on the clouds. You surrounded us. ¹¹You folded Your glory behind the darkness; You were accompanied by dark waters and thick clouds. ¹²You are brightness and glory and fire, yet You came to us in hailstones, lightning, and thunder.

¹³Like an arrow of death Your lightning struck them. ¹⁴You scared them, You killed them, You defeated them. ¹⁵Then You sent the floods to wash them away, to judge them with Your anger. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

¹⁶You came from above to rescue me, to save me from drowning. ¹⁷You saved me from a powerful enemy that was too strong for me, that hated everything I believed. {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter

5:7) ¹⁸My enemy almost overwhelmed me, but You, Lord, saved me. {322 New-Day Praise, Ps. 98:1} ¹⁹You lifted me into a secure place, You put Your delight in me. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ²⁰Lord, You came to reward me; {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} ²¹because I have lived by Your principles, because I have separated myself from sin. {155 Faithful-Request Prayer, Heb. 3:2} ²²You showed mercy to us who received Your mercy. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ²³You judged us righteously who relied on Your righteousness. {255

Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24} ²⁴You showed Yourself pure to those who sought

Your purity. {125 Divine-Purity Praying, 2

Peter 1:3}

²⁵You showed Yourself merciful to those who need mercy. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ²⁶You saved those who are sorry for their sin, {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ²⁷You punished those who refused to humble themselves. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ²⁸Lord, light my candle so I can see; take darkness away from my life. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} 29By You, Lord, I can defeat a troop of men; with Your help I can jump over a wall. {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 30Lord, Your principles for living are correct; many have experimented with them, but You help all those who obey You. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

³¹Who is God, but You, Lord? {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ³²Who is our stability, but You, Lord? {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ³³You make my feet sure like the mountain deer; You allow me to climb the heights. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} ³⁴You teach my hands how to fight, so I can break the weapons of my enemies. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

35You have protected me with the shield of Your salvation; You have helped me to stand against my enemy; {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} 36Your gentleness has made me strong. You made my footsteps steady so that I did not slip and fall. {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14} ³⁷I chased my enemy and caught him; I did not quit until I defeated him. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 38I wounded him so that he could not fight back; I stomped on him with my feet. {515 Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, Heb. 2:18} ³⁹You gave me strength to fight the battle, You defeated my enemies that hate You. {348 Perception-Expectation Prayer, 1 Sam. 14:8} 40You enabled me to destroy them. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ⁴¹The enemy cried out in pain; their voices reached You in heaven, but in hell it is too late for them. {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3} 42I crushed the enemy so that they became dust, they were like the dirt in the street. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

⁴³You have made me the leader of the pagan; I am above the people; those I don't know will serve me. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ⁴⁴They will obey my orders when they hear me; they will submit to my authority. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ⁴⁵Strangers will be afraid of me; they will hide from me in their houses. {480

Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁴⁶Lord, I bless You for giving me life and strength; {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} ⁴⁷I exalt you for giving me salvation. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

⁴⁸Lord, You have not delivered me over to my enemies; You have given me authority over the people. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ⁴⁹Therefore among the pagan I give You thanks; I sing praises to Your name. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

⁵⁰Lord, You have delivered Your king; You have shown mercy to David, You will preserve his seed forever. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

We should not forget to thank God for deliverance after we have prayed for it. The natural heart is not always thankful, but the redeemed heart should especially give thanks for salvation, and for every time God delivers us from a desperate condition. Lord, I am grateful to You for saving me, I am thankful for every victory You give me over sin and persecution. Amen.

Psalm 19 A Prayer for Wisdom So You Can Answer Doubters

¹Lord, the heavens declare Your glory; the stars reveal Your craftsmanship.
²Each new day tells You are the Creator; each new night shows Your mighty power.
{93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1,

2} ³No one on earth can debate that You began all things, because the universe answers all their arguments. ⁴Your hand in creating the universe is seen everywhere. Your majestic plan extends to the last detail.

⁵You made the night as a tent for the sun; sunrise is like a bridegroom coming out of that tent. ⁶The new day is like a runner beginning a marathon, the sun races from one horizon to the other. The sun gives life to everything it touches.

⁷Your Scripture, like the universe, is perfect; converting the soul when applied. {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1}
⁸Your principles never change, making the ignorant wise when learned. ⁹Fearing You takes away doubts and ignorance; those who apply Your truth live forever. Your decisions are always accurate, those who obey You live right. ¹⁰Lord, Your truth is better than riches; obeying Your principles is more satisfying than sweets. ¹¹Your truth keeps me on guard against danger; the satisfaction of obedience is its own reward.

¹²Because no one is able to perceive their slightest deviation from truth, ¹³therefore keep me from making ignorant mistakes. Also keep me from making presumptuous errors; I don't want to be controlled by my faults. I want to live blamelessly by Your principles, I want to be kept from making life-destroying decisions.

¹⁴May the words that I speak, and the thoughts that I think, be acceptable to You, my Lord and my Redeemer. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

The beauty and vast majesty of the universe is a reflection of the beauty and majesty of God, its Creator. We should never worship the universe as naturalists seem to do, but any expanding feeling of awe for the universe should be directed to God its Creator. Lord, I see Your vastness in this seemingly unending universe (but it is limited, for only God is infinite, that is, without end). I see Your unfathomable wisdom in the minute interaction of Your world. The beauty of all You created turns my praise to You. Amen.

Psalm 20 A Prayer for Protection against Opposition and a Prayer for Vindication When Doing the Right Things

¹Lord, hear my prayers when pressures come; defend me by the power of Your name. {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7} ²Come to me with help from Your sanctuary; give me strength to endure rejection. ³Remember that I poured out my heart to You, and see that I come with a yielded spirit.

⁴Give me what Your heart desires for me to have; carry out Your plans in my life. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ⁵Then I will rejoice when You save me; I will tell everyone what You have done, that You have carried out Your will in my life.

⁶Now I know You care for Your chosen ones. You hear their prayers in heaven; You save them by Your strong hand.

⁷Some trust in chariots, some trust in horses; but I trust in Your name, Lord God. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ⁸Then will my enemies be defeated and eliminated, then will I be vindicated and stand before You.

⁹Save me, Lord, hear me when I call to You. {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7}

We should praise God when He protects us against oppression and gives us victory. We should thank Him for allowing us to overcome our opposition. Lord, some trust in chariots and others trust in houses, but I trust in Your Name, O Lord. I will praise You when I stand vindicated before You. Amen.

Psalm 21 A Prayer for Leaders to Defeat the Wicked

¹Lord, I am encouraged when my leaders rejoice in You, when they shout "Amen" after a victory. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²Lord, give my leaders what they want; hold back nothing from them. Selah!

³You rejoice with them when they have spiritual victories; You give them recognition and honor. {344 Pastor-Prayer, 2 Cor. 1:11} ⁴My leaders asked You to preserve their life. You answered their request; You gave them long life. ⁵Actually, it was Your victory they achieved, You gave them ability and success. ⁶You gave them the enablement to win each victory; You gave them the privilege of ruling for You. ⁷But the leaders must trust in You if they expect to keep their position. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15}

⁸You will defeat all Your enemies; Your strength will overcome all who hate You. ⁹You will destroy them in a flaming furnace; You will consume them in hell's fire. ¹⁰One day there will be no wicked people on earth; they and their descendants will be eliminated. ¹¹Although the wicked plot against Your principles, their rebellious plans will not succeed. ¹²The wicked will be completely defeated when You judge them. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ¹³I worship You for Your great strength, with singing I celebrate Your power. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

Psalm 22 A Prayer for Help When Being Attacked by Enemies

¹My God, my God, why have You forsaken me? Why are You so far away when I need You? Why don't You hear my agonizing prayer? {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ²O God, You don't hear my prayers in the day, and in the night You are not near. ³O God, You are the Holy One of Israel; You come to Your people when they worship You. ⁴Our fathers trusted in You during troubled times, and You led them through their problems. ⁵When they cried for deliverance, You gave them great victories. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ⁶But I am not equal to our fathers; ⁷people laugh at me and hate me. They reject me openly to my face; they make fun of me in front of others. ⁸They think I'm crazy for putting my trust in You; they tell me You won't come to me in trouble, nor will You vindicate me.

⁹But You are the One who formed me in the womb, You set me apart for a special task when I was a baby. ¹⁰I've had my trust in You since I was born, O God. You are the only hope I have. ¹¹So don't cut me off from Your protection; I don't have another way to solve my problems. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ¹²My enemies are smart and they are powerful, they attack me at my weaknesses. Their accusations and lies are tearing me up; ¹³their words hurt more than physical ¹⁴My spirit is crushed and I don't want to live; evil pressure is worse than physical suffering. When my soul is attacked by the enemy's warfare ¹⁵my body aches all over and I want to give up. I don't know what to say. Why have You allowed these trials to attack me? {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} suffering.

¹⁶Like wild dogs, the enemy is chewing me up, they are trying to kill me. They are nailing me to a cross, ¹⁷all my bones ache from being pulled out of joint. ¹⁸They have stolen everything from me, and they are gambling over my clothes.

¹⁹O Lord, don't stand so far away from me; come near me to help me through this difficulty. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ²⁰Give me inner strength to stand up to them ²¹and give me inner confidence to overcome their tricks.

²²I will tell everyone how You came to me; I will testify of Your goodness to other believers. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²³They need to know that You take care of those who trust You;

²⁴they need to trust You as I do because You will come to us when we are in trouble. You will not hide Your face from us when we need You. I will praise You to other believers;

²⁵I will do everything that I promised. ²⁶Then weak Christians will be encouraged to trust You, they will continue following You throughout their lives.

²⁷The unsaved will recognize what You do for Your children, and they will turn to You for salvation. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ²⁸Your kingdom shall come on earth one day, and Your rule will be recognized by all. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

²⁹Your children will enjoy Your kingdom and worship You, but the unsaved cannot escape Your coming judgment.

³⁰There will always be a small remnant who serves You; they are the ones You recognize and protect. They will declare to all how You take care of Your children; ³¹and each new generation will contain more believers who will also declare Your goodness and care.

Lord, I am encouraged when my leaders look to You for victory and they are encouraged by You. Answer their prayers and give me victory through their efforts. Amen.

Psalm 23 A Prayer Recognizing God's Protective Relationship to You

¹Lord, You are my Shepherd; I don't need anything. ²You make me lie down in green pastures. You lead me beside still waters. {73 Comfortable Place to Pray, John 18:2} ³You renew my spiritual energy. You guide me in the right paths to glorify Your name. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

⁴When I walk through dark valleys, I will not be afraid of death shadows. Because You are with me, Your rod and staff protect me. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

⁵You prepare a banquet table for me, and my enemies watch me eat. You pour oil on my head to honor and heal me. You fill my cup so it runs over. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ⁶Surely Your goodness and mercy will follow me, as long as I live on this earth; and in eternity I will live in Your house forever. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14}

God has promised to protect His followers as they obey and follow Him. Lord, You are my shepherd, I don't need anything when I'm close to You. You make me lie down in green pastures and lead me beside still waters. When I walk through dark shadows of death, I'll not be afraid because You walk with me, and Your rod protects me. I look forward to a satisfying banquet and living in Your house forever. Amen.

Psalm 24 A Prayer for Your Final Recognition and Triumph over the Enemy

¹Lord, You cause Your earth to give good things; You also own everyone who lives on this earth. ²You created the earth as a watery sphere and on the first day You divided the waters from the land. {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5}

³Who can come into Your presence, O Lord; who is able to stand before You? {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴Only those who have clean hands and a pure heart, those who separate themselves from sin. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ⁵Those standing in Your presence receive Your blessings, You declare them righteous through salvation. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} ⁶These are the ones who seek to know You; these are the ones who want to stand in Your presence. Selah!

⁷Lord, I know You will open wide the eternal gates; enter because You are the King of glory. ⁸Your enemies ask, "Who is the King of glory?" You are the Lord, mighty to destroy them. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ⁹So march through the eternal gates; enter triumphantly, my King of glory. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} In judgment they continue to ask, ¹⁰"Who is the King of glory?" The Creator of all the universe is the King of glory. Selah!

Lord, those who stand in Your presence will have clean hands and a pure heart. Then

You will declare them righteous. You will open wide Your gates to them and they will enter with Christ. Amen.

Psalm 25 A Prayer of the Weak Believer for Help in Trouble

¹To You, O Lord, I come in prayer; ²O God, I trust You; do not let me be embarrassed, nor let me be defeated by my enemies. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ³Lord, don't let any of Your children be embarrassed because they put their trust in You. Let those who rebel against You be embarrassed.

⁴Show me the principles to follow in life; ⁵teach me to obey Your truth. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} Make me follow Your principles because You are the God who has salvation; I come to You for my deliverance.

⁶Lord, remember Your tender mercies for me; You have always shown Your love to me. ⁷Don't remember the sins I commit as a youth. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} O Lord, deal with me according to Your mercy.

⁸Lord, in Your goodness You always do right; therefore make rebels obey Your way of living. ⁹I know You will take care of the meek in judgment and You will teach them how to obey Your way. ¹⁰You always do the right thing; You show mercy to those who obey Your principles. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} ¹¹Forgive me my sin for Your name's sake because I have not been perfect in many ways.

¹²The ones who will fear Your name, guide them to do the right things. ¹³Give them peace because of their obedience; let their children prosper. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} ¹⁴Lord, I know You have the secret to life; You have agreed to give life to those who obey You. ¹⁵Lord, I always look to You for deliverance; You will lead me through trouble. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

¹⁶Make me always look to You for future deliverance; sometimes I am too dumb and weak to do it. ¹⁷My heart deceives me about decisions; ¹⁸make me follow You out of my problems. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁹I have many enemies that hate me, they want to destroy me. ²⁰Keep me close to You when trials come, I don't want to be embarrassed; I trust You to deliver me. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²¹Help me always tell the truth and guide me to always do the right thing. ²²Save Your people out of their trouble.

Lord, I come to You when I'm in trouble, because You will not let my enemies defeat me. You will not let me be embarrassed, because I put my trust in You. Amen.

Psalm 26 A Prayer of a Conscientious Believer Who Is Sincere

¹O Lord, examine me to see my integrity because when I put my trust in You, I

